An Act for the Uniformity of Common-Prayer, and Service int he Church, and Administration of the Sacraments, Primo Eliz.

WHere at the death of our late Soveraign Lord Edwatd the sixth, there remained one Uniform order of Common-Service, and Prayer, and of the Administration of Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, which was set forth in one Book, Intituled, The Book of Common-prayer, and Administration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, Authorized by Act of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of our said late Soveraign Lord King Edward the Sixth, intituled, An Act for the Uniformity of Common-Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments: the which was repealed and taken away by Act of Parliament, in the first year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lady Queen Mary, to the great decay of the due honour of God, and discomfort to the Professors of the truth of Christs Religion:

Be it therefore enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That the said Statute of Repeal, and every thing therein contained, onely concerning the said Book, and the Service, Administration of Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies contained or appointed in, or by the said Book, shall be void and of none effect, from and after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist next coming: and that the said Book, with the order of Service, and of the Administration of Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies, with the alteration and additions therein added and appointed by this Statute, shall stand, and be, from, and after the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, in full force and effect, according to the tenour and effect of this Statute: Any thing in the foresaid Statute of Repeal to the contrary notwithstanding.

And further be it enacted by the Queens Highness, with the assent of the Lords and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all, and singular Ministers in any Cathedral, or Parish-Church, or other place within this Realm of Engeland, Wales, and the Marches of the same, or other the Queen Dominions, shall from after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist next coming, be bounden to say and use the Mattens, Evensong, celebration of the Lords Supper, and Administratien of each of the Sacraments, and all their Common and open Prayer, in such order and form as is mentioned in the said Book, so Authorized by Parliament in the said sixth year of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth; with one alteration or addition of certain Lessons to be used on every Sunday in the year, and the form of the Litany, altered, and corrected, and two sentences onely added in the delivery of the Sacrament to the Communicants, and none other, or otherwise: and, That if any manner of Parson, Vicar, or other whatsoever Minister, that ought or should sing, or say Common-Prayer mentioned in the said Book, or minister the Sacraments, from, and after the Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist next coming, refuse to use the said Common-Prayers, or to minister the Sacraments in such Cathedral, or Parish-Church, or other places, as he should use to minister the same, in such order and form, as they be mentioned, and set forth in the said Book, or shall wilfully, or obstinately standing in the same, use any other Rite, Ceremony, Order, Form, or manner of celebrating of the Lords Supper openly, or privily. or Mattens, Even-song, Administration of the Sacraments, or other open Prayers, then is mentioned, and set forth in the said Book [Open Prayer in, and throughout this act, is meant that Prayer, which is for other to come unto, or hear, either in Common Churches, or private Chappels or Oratories, commonly called the Service of the Church] or shall preach, declare, or speak any thing in the derogation or depraving of the said Book, or any thing therein contained, or of any part thereof, and shall be thereof lawfully convicted, according to the laws of this Realm, by verdict of twelve men, or by his own confession, or by the notorious evidence of the fact; he shall lose and forfeit to the Queens Highness, Her Heirs and Successours, for his first offence, the profit of all his Spiritual Benefices, or Promotions, coming, or arising in one whole year next after this conviction: And also that the person so convicted shall for the same offence suffer imprisonment by the space of six moneths, without Bail, or Mainprise: And if any such person, once convict of any offence concerning the Premises, shall after his first conviction, eftsoons offend, and be thereof in form aforesaid lawfully convict; That then the same person shall for his second offence suffer imprisonment by the space of one whole year, and also shall therefore be deprived ipso facto of all his Spiritual Promotions, and, That it shall be lawful to all Patrons, or Donors of all and singular the same Spiritual Promotions, or any of them, to present, or collate of the same, as though the person and persons so offending were dead: and, That if any such person, or persons, after he shall be twice convicted in form aforesaid, shall offend against any of the premises the third time, and shall be thereof, in form aforesaid, lawfully convicted; That then the person so offending, and convicted the third time, shall be deprived ipso facto of all his Spiritual Promotions, and also shall suffer imprisonment during his life: And if the persons that shall offend, and be convict in form aforesaid, concerning any of the premises, shall not be Beneficed, nor have any Spiritual Promotion; That then the same person, so offending, and convict, shall for the first offence, suffer imprisonment during one whole year next after his said conviction, without Bail or Mainprise: And if any such person not having any Spiritual Promotion, after his first conviction, shall eftsoons offend in any thing concerning the premises, and shall in form aforesaid be thereof lawfully convicted; That then the same person shall for his second offence suffer imprisonment during his life.

And it is Ordained, and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons whatsoever, after the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist next coming, shall in any Entercludes, Plays, Songs, Rimes, or by other open words declare, or speak any thing in the derogation, depraving or despising of the same Book, or of any thing therein contained, or any part thereof; or shall by open fact, deed, or by open threatnings compel, or cause, or otherwise procure. or maintain any Parson, Vicar, or other Minister in any Cathedral, or Parish-Church, or Chappel, or in any place, to sing, or say any Common, or open Prayer, or to minister any Sacrament otherwise, or in any other manner, and form, then is mentioned in the said Book; or by any of the said means shall unlawfully interrupt, or let any Parson, Vicar, or other Minister in any Cathedral, or Parish-Church or Chappel, or any other place to sing or say Common and open Prayer, or to minister the Sacraments, or any of them, in such manner and form, as is mentioned in the said Book; That then every such person, being thereof lawfully convicted in form aboyesaid, shall forfeit to the Queen our Soveraign Lady, Her Heirs and Successours for the first offence an Hundred Marks: And if any person, or persons, being once convict of any such offence, eftsoons offend again any of the last recited offences, and shall in form aforesaid be thereof lawfully convict; That then the same person, so offending and convict, shall for the second offence forfeit to the Queen our Soveraign Lady, Her Heirs, and Successors Four hundred marks: And if any person after he in form aforesaid shall have been twice convict of any offence concerning any of the last recited offences, shall offend the third time, and be thereof in form aboyesaid lawfully convict; That then every person, so offending and convict, shall for his third offence forfeit to our Soveraign Lady the Queen all his Goods and Chattels, and shall suffer imprisonment during his life: And if any person or persons, that for his first offence concerning the premises, shall be convict in form aforesaid, do not pay the sum to be paid by vertue of his conviction, in such manner and form, as the same ought to be paid, within six weeks next after his conviction; That then every person so convict, and so not paying the same, shall for the same first offence, in stead of the said sum, suffer imprisonment by the space of six moneths without Bail or Mainprise: And if any person, or persons, that for his second offence concerning the premises shall be convict in form aforesaid, do not pay the said sum to be paid by vertue of his conviction, and this statute, in such manner and form, as the same ought to be payed, within six weeks next after his said second conviction; That then every person so convicted, and not so paying the same, shall for the same second offence, in the stead of the said sum, suffer imprisonment during twelve moneths without Bail or Mainprise: and, That from after the said Feast of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist next coming, all, and every person and persons, inhabiting within this Realm, or any other the Queens Majesties Dominions, shall diligently, and faithfully, having no law ful, or reasonable excuse to be absent, endeavour themselvs to resort to their Parish-Church, or Chappel accustomed, or upon reasonable let thereof, to some usual place, where Common-prayer, and such Service of God shall be used in such time of let, upon every Sunday, and other days ordained and used to be kept as holy days, and then, and there to abide orderly and soberly, during the time of the Common-Prayer, Preachings, or other Service of God there to be used and ministred, upon pain of punishment hy te censures of the Church; and also upon pain, that every person so offending shal forfeit for every such offence twelve pence, to be levied by the Church-Wardens of the Parish, where such offence shall be done, to the use of the poor of the same Parish, of the goods, lands, and tenements of such offender, by way of distress.

And for due execution hereof, the Queens most excellent Majesty, the Lords Temporal, and all the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, do in Gods name earnestly require, and charge all the Archbishops, Bishops, and other Ordinaries, that they shall endeavour themselves to the uttermost of their knouwledges, that the due and true execution hereof may be had throughout their Dioceses and Charges, as they will answer before God for such evils and plagues, wherewith Almighty God may justly punish his people for neglecting this good and wholsome Law. And for their Authority in this behalf, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and singular the same Archbishops, Bishops, and all other their officers exercising Ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as well in places exempt, as not exempt, within their Dioceses, shall have full power and Authority by this Act to reform, correct and punish by censures of the Church, all, and singular persons, which shall offend within any of their jurisdictions, or Dioceses, after the said Feasts of the Nativity of Saint John Baptist next coming, against this Act and statute, any other Law, Statute, Priviledge, Liberty, or Provision heretofore made, had, or suffered to the contrary notwithstanding.

And it is Ordained and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Justice of Oyer and Determiner, or Justices of Assize shall have full power and Authority in every of their open and general Sessions to enquire, hear and determine all and all manner of offences, that shall be committed, or done contrary to any Article contained in this present Act, within the limits of the Commission to them directed, and to make process for the execution of the same, as they may do against any person being indicted before them of trespass, or lawfully convicted thereof.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all all and every Archbiſhop and Biſhop ſhall and may at all time and times at his liberty and pleaſure, joyn and aſſociate himſelf by vertue of this Act of the ſaid Juſtices of Oyer & Determiner, or to the ſaid Juſtices of Aſſize, at every of the ſaid open and general Seſſions, to be holden in any place within his Dioceſe, for and to the inquiry, hearing, and determining of the offences aforeſaid.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Books concerning the ſaid Services ſhall at the coſts and charges of the Pariſhoners of every Pariſh, and Cathedral Church be attained, and gotten before the ſaid Feaſts of the Nativity of S. John Baptiſt next following, and that al ſuch Pariſhes and Cathedral Churches, or other places, where the ſaid Books ſhall be attained and gotten before the ſaid Feaſt of the Nativity of S. John Baptiſt, ſhall within three weeks next after the ſaid Books ſo attained and gotten, uſe the ſaid Service, and put the ſame in uſe according to this Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be at any time hereafter impeached, or otherwiſe moleſted of or for any the offences above mentioned, hereafter to be committed, or done contrary to this Act; unleſs he or they ſo offending be thereof indicted at the next general Seſſions to be holden before any ſuch Juſtices of Oyer and Determiner, or Juſtices of Aſſiſe, nexr after any offence committed or done, contrary to the tenour of this Act.

Provided always, and be it Ordained and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and ſingular Lords of the Parliament, for the third offence above mentioned, ſhall be tried by their Peers.

Provided alſo, and be it Ordained and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor of London, and all other Mayors, Bailiffs, and other Head officers of all, and ſingular Cities, Burroughs, and Towns corporate within this Realm, Wales and the Marches of the ſame, to the which Juſtices of Aſſiſe do not Commonly repair, ſhall have full power and Authority by vertue of this Act, to enquire, hear, and determine the offences aboveſaid, and every of them yearly, within fifteen days after the Feaſts of Eaſter, and Saint Michael the Archangel, in like manner and form, as Juſtices of Aſſiſe, and Oyer and Determiner may do.

Provided always, and be it Ordained and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and ſingular Archbiſhops, and Biſhops, and every of their Chancellours, Commiſſaries, Archdeacons, and other Ordinaries, having any peculiar Eccleſiaſtical juriſdiction, ſhall have full power and Authority by vertue of this Act, as well to enquire in their Viſitation, Synods, and elſewhere within their juriſdiction, at any other time, and place, to take accuſations, and informations of all, and every things above mentioned, done, committed, or perpetrated within the limits of their juriſdictions and Authority, as to puniſh the ſame, by admonition, excommunication, ſequeſtration, or deprivation, and other cenſures, and proceſs, in like form, as heretofore hath been uſed in like caſes by the Queens Eccleſiaſtical Laws.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That whatſoever perſon offending in the premiſes ſhall for the offence firſt receive puniſhment of the Ordinary, having a teſtimonial thereof under the ſaid Ordinaries ſeal, ſhall not for the ſame offence eftſoons be convicted before the Juſtices; and likewiſe receiving for the ſame offence puniſhment firſt by the Juſtices, he ſhall not for the ſame offence eftſoons receive puniſhment of the Ordinary: Any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That ſuch Ornaments of the Church and of the Miniſters thereof ſhall be retained, and be in uſe, as were in this Church of England by the Authority of Parliament in the ſecond year of the reign of King Edward the Sixth, until other order ſhall be therein taken by the Authority of the Queens Majeſty, with the advice of Her Commiſſioners, appointed and Authorized under the Great Seal of England for cauſes Eccleſiaſtical, or of the Metropolitan of this Realm: And alſo, That if there ſhall happen any contempt or irreverence to be uſed in the Ceremonies, or Rites of the Church, by the miſuſing of the Orders appointed in this Book; The Queens Majeſty may by the like advice of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Metropolitan, ordain and publiſh ſuch further Ceremonies or Rites, as may be moſt for the advancement of Gods glory, the edifying of his Church, and the due reverence of Chriſts holy Myſteries and Sacraments.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Laws, Statutes, and Ordinances, wherein, or whereby any other Service, Adminiſtration of Sacraments, or Common-Prayer is limited, eſtabliſhed, or ſet forth to be uſed within this Realm, or any other the Queens Dominions, or Countreys, ſhall from henceforth be utterly void and of none effect.

An Act for the Uniformity of Publick Prayers, and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies: And for eſtabliſhing the Form of Making, Ordaining, and Conſecrating Biſhops, Prieſts, and Diacons in the Church of England.

XIV. CAROL. II.

WHereas in the firſt year of the late Queen Elizabeth, there was one Uniform Order of Common Service and Prayer, and of the Adminiſtration of Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England (agreable to the Word of God, and uſage of the Primitive Church) compiled by the Reverend Biſhops and Clergy, ſet forth in one Book, Entituled, The Book of Common-Prayer, and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England; and enjoyned to be uſed by Act of Parliament, holden in the ſaid Firſt year of the ſaid late Queen, Entituled, An Act for the Uniformity of Common-Prayer and Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, very comfortable to all good people, deſirous to live in Chriſtian converſation; and moſt profitable to the Eſtate of this Realm; upon the which the Mercy, Favour and Bleſſing of the Almighty God is in no wiſe ſo readily & plentifully poured, as by Common Prayers, due uſing of the Sacraments, and often Preaching of the Goſpel, with devotion of the hearers: And yet this notwithſtanding, a great number of people in divers parts of this Realm, following their own ſenſuality, and living without knowledge and due fear of God, do wilfully and Schiſmatically abſtain, and refuſe to come to their Pariſh-Churches, and other Publick places where Common-Prayer, Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and preaching of the Word of God is uſed, upon the Sundays and other days ordained and appointed to be kept and obſerved as Holy days: And whereas by the great & ſcandalous neglect of Miniſters in the ſaid Order, of Liturgy ſo ſet forth & enjoyned as aforeſaid, great miſchiefs and inconveniences, during the times of the late unhappy troubles, have ariſen and grown; and many people have been led into Factions and Schiſms, to the great decay and ſcandal of the Reformed Religion of the Church of England, and to the hazard of many ſouls: for prevention whereof in time to come, for ſetling the peace of the Church, and for allaying the preſent diſtempers, which the indiſpoſition of the time hath contracted, The Kings Majeſty (according to His Declaration of the Five and twentieth of October, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty) granted his Commiſſion under the great Seal of England to ſeveral Biſhops and other Divines to riview the Book of Common-Prayer, and to prepare ſuch Alteration and Additions, as they thought fit to offer: And afterwards the Convocations of both the Provinces of Canterbury and York, being by his Majeſty called and aſſembled (and now ſitting) His Majeſty hath been pleaſed to Authorize and require the preſidents of the ſaid Convocations, and other the Biſhops and Clergy of the ſame, to review the ſaid Book of Common-prayer, and the Book of the Form and manner of the Making and Conſecrating of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons: and that after mature conſideration, they hould make ſuch Additions and Alterations in the ſaid Books reſpectively, as to them ſhould ſeem meet and convenient; And ſhould exhibet and preſent the ſame to His Majeſty in writing for his further allowance or confirmation; ſince which time, upon full and mature deliberation, they the ſaid Preſidents, Biſhops and Clergy of both Provinces have accordingly reviewed the ſaid Books, and have made ſome Alterations which they think fit to be inſerted to the ſame; and ſome Additional Prayers to the ſaid Book of Common-Prayer, to be uſed upon proper and emergent occaſions, and have exhibited and preſented the ſame unto His Majeſty in writing in one Book, Entituled, The Book of Common-Prayer, and Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the uſe of the Church of England: together with the Pſalter or Pſalms of David, Pointed as they are to be ſung or ſaid in Curches; and the form or manner of Making, Ordaining, and Conſecrating of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons: All which His Majeſty having duly conſidered, hath fully approved and allowed the ſame, and recommended to this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Book of Common-Prayer, and of the Form of Ordination and Conſecration of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons, with the Alterations and Additions, which have been ſo made and preſented to His Majeſty by the ſaid Convocations, be the Book, which ſhall be appointed to be uſed by all that Officiate in all the Cathedral and Collegiate Churches and Chappels, and in all Chappels of Colledges and Halls in both the Univerſities, and the Colledges of Eaton and Wincheſter, and in all Pariſh-Churches and Chappel within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and by all that Make, or Conſecrate Biſhops, Prieſts or Deacons in any of the ſaid Places, under ſuch Sanctions and Penalties as the Houſes of Parliament ſhall think fit. Now in regard that nothing conduceth more to the ſetling of the Peace of this Narion (which is deſired of all good men) nor to the honour of our Religion & the propigation there of, than an univerſal agreement in the publick Worſhip of Almighty God; and to the intent that every perſon within this Realm, may certaily know the Rule, to which he is to conform in Publick Worſhip, and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England, and the manner how, and by whom Biſhops, Prieſt and Deacons are, and ought to be made, Ordained and Conſecrated.

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by the advice and with the conſent of the Lords Spiritual and temporal, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and ſingular Miniſters in any Cathedral, Collegiate, or Pariſh-Church or Chappel, or other place of publick Worſhip within this Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall be bound to ſay and uſe the Morning-Prayer, Evening-Prayer, Celebration and Adminiſtration of both the Sacraments, and all other the Publick, and Common-Prayer, in ſuch order and form, as is mentioned in the ſaid Book, annexed and joyned to this present Act, and Entuled, The Book of Coumon-Prayer, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the use of the Church of England: together with the Psalter of Psalms of David, Pointed as they are to be sung or said in Churches; and the form or manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests and Deacons: And that the Morning and Evening-Prayers, therein contained, shall upon every Lords day, and upon all other days and occasions, and at the times therein appointed, be openly and solemnly read by all and every Minister or Curate in every Church, Chappel, or other place of publick Worship within this Realm of England, and places aforesaid.

And to the end that Uniformity iu the publick Worship of God (which is so much desired) may be speedily effected, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Parson, Vicar, or other Minister whatsoever, who now hath, and enjoyeth any Ecclesiastical Benefice, or Promotion, within this Kealm of England, or places aforesaid, shall in the Church, Chappel, or place of publick Worship belonging to his said Benefice or Promotion, upon some Lords day before the Feast of Saint Bartholomew, which shall be in the year of the Lord God, One thousand six hundred sixty and two, openly, publickly and solemnly read the Morning and Evening-Prayer appointed to be read by, and according to the said Book of Common-Prayer at the times thereby appointed, and after such reading thereof shall openly and publickly, before the Congregation there assembled, declare his unfeigned assent, and consent to the use of all things in the said Book contained and prescribed, in these words, and no other.

I A. B. Do here declare my unfeigned assent, and consent to all, and every thing contained, and prescribed in, and by the Book, Intituled, The Book of Common-Prayer & Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites, and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the use of the Church of England, together with the Psalter of Psalms of David, Pointed as they are to be sung, or said in Churches, and the form, and Manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons.

And, That all and every such person, who shall (without some lawful impediment, to be allowed and approved of by the Ordinary of the place) neglect or refuse to do the same within the time aforesaid, or (in case of such impediment) within one moneth after such impediment removed, shall ipso facto be beprived of all his Spiritual Promotions; And that from thenceforth it shall be lawfull to, and for all Parrons, and Donors of all and singular the said Spiritual Promotions, or of any of them, according to their respective Rights and Titles, to present, or collate to the same; as though the person, or persons, so offending or neglecting were dead.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid. That every person, who shall hereafter be presented or collated, or put into any Ecclesiastical Benefice, or promotion within this Realm of England and places aforesaid, shall in the Church, Chappel, or place of publick Worship, belonging to his said Benefice, or Promotion, within two moneths next after that he shall be in the actual possession of the said Ecclesiastical, Benefice or Promotion, upon some Lords day openly, publickly, and solemnly read the Morning and Evening-Prayers, appointed to he read by, and according to the said Book of Common-Prayer, at the times thereby appointed, and after such reading thereof, shall openly add publickly before the Congregarion there assembled, declare his unfeigned assent and consent to the use of all things therein contained and prescribed, according to the form before appointed: And, That all and every such person, who shall (without some lawfull Impediment, to be allowed and approved by the Ordinary of the place) neglect or refuse to do the same within the time aforesaid, or (in case of such impediment) within one moneth after such Impediment removed, shall ipso facto be deprived of all his said Ecclesiastical Benefices and Promotions: and, That from thenceforth it shall and may be lawful to, and for all Patrons, and Donors of all and singular the said Ecclesiastical Benefices and Promotions, or any of them (according to their respective Rights and Titles) to present, or collate to the same, as though the person or persons so offending, or neglecting were dead.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all places, where the proper Incumbent of any Personage, or Vicarage, or Benefice with Cure doth reside on his Living, and keep a Curate, the Incumbent himself in person (not having some lawfull Impediment, to be allowed by the Ordinary of the place) shall once (at the least) in every moneth openly and publickly read the Common-prayers and Service, in, and by the said Book prescribed, and (if there be occasion) Administer each of the Sacraments and other Rites of the Church, in the Parish-Church or Chappel, of, or belonging to the same Parsonage, Vicarage, or Benefice, in such order, manner and form, as in, and by the said Book is appointed, upon pain to forfeit the sum of Five pounds to the use of the poor of the Parish for every offence, upon conviction by confession, or proof of two credible witnesses upon Oath, before two Justices of the Peace of the County, City, or Town-Corporate where the offence shall be committed, (with Oath the said Justices are hereby impowred to Administer) and in default of payment within ten days, to be levied by distress, and sale of the goods and chattels of the Offender, by the Warrant of the said Justices, by the Church-wardens, or Overseers of the Poor of the said Parish, rendring the surplusage to the party.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Dean, Canon, and Prebendary of every Cathedral or Collegiate Church, and all Masters, and othet Heads, Fellows, Chaplains, and Tutors of, or in any Colledge, Hall, House of Learning, or Hospital. and every Publick Professor, and Reader in either of the Universities, and in evety Colledge elsewhere, and every Person, Vicar, Curate. Lecturer, and every other Person in holy Orders, and every School-master keeping any publick, or private School, and every person Instructing, or Teaching any Youth in any House or private Family as a Tuter or School-master, who upon the First day of May, which shall be in the year of our Lord God, One thousand six hundred sixty two, or at any time thereafter shall be Incumbent, or have possession of any Deanry, Canonry, Prebend, Mastership, Headship; Fellowship, Professors place, or Readers place. Parsonage, Vicarage, or any other Ecclesiasticall Dignity or promotion, or of any Curates place, Lecture, or School, or shall instruct or teach any Youth as Tutor, or School-master, shall before the Feast-day of Saint Bartholomew, which shall be in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred sixty two, or at or before his, or their respective admission to be Incumbent, or have possession aforesaid, subscribe the Declaration or Acknowledgement following, Scilicet.

I A B. Do declare, That it is not lawful upon any pretence whatsoever, to take Arms against the King; And that I do abhor that Traiterous position of taking Arms by His Authority against His person, or against those that are Commissionated by him, and that I will conform to the Liturgy of the Church of England, as it is now by Law established. And I do declare that I do hold, there lies no Obligation upon me, or on any other person from the Oath, commonly called the Solemn League and Covenant, to endeavour any change or alteration of Government, either in Church or State; and that the same was in it self an unlawful Oath, and imposed upon the Subjects of this Realm against the known Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom.

Which said Declaration and Acknowledgement shall be subscribed by every of said Masters and other Heads, Fellows, Chaplains, and Tutors of, or in any Colledge, Hall, or House of Learning; and by every publick Professor and Reader in either of the Universities, before the Vice-Chancellor of respective Universities for the time being, or his Deputy; And the said Declaration or Acknowledgement shall be subscribed before the respective Archbishop, Bishop or Ordinary of the Diocese, by every other person hereby injoyned to subscribe the same, upon pain. that all and every of the persons aforesaid, failing in such subscription, shall lose and forfeit such respective Deanry, Canonry, Prebend, Mastership, Headship, Fellowship, Professors place, Readers place, Parsonage, Vicarage, Ecclesiastical Dignity or Promotion, Curates place, Lecture and School, and shall be uttely disabled, and ipso facto deprived of the same; and that every such respective Deanry, Canonry, Prebend, Mastership, Headship, Fellowship, Professors place, Readers place, Parsonage, Vicarage, Ecclesiastical Dignity or Promotion, Curates place, Lecture, and School shall be void, as if such person so failing were naturally dead.

And if any School-master or other person, instructing or teaching youth in any privare House or Family, as a Tutor or School-master, shall instruct or teach any youth as a Tutor or School-master, before License obtained from his respective Archbishop, Bishop or Ordinary of the Diocese, according to the laws and Statutes of this Realm (for which he shall pay twelve pence onely) and before such subscription and acknowledgement made as aforesaid: Then every such Schoolmaster and other, instructing or teaching as aforesaid, shall for the first offence suffer three moneths imprisonment without Bail or Mainprise, and for every second, and other such offence, shall suffer three moneths imprisonment without Bail or Mainprise, and also forfeit to His Majesty the sum of five pounds.

And after such subscription made, every such Parson, Vicar, Curate and Lecturer shall procure a certificate under the hand and seal of the respective Archbishop, Bishop or Ordinary of the Diocese (who are hereby enjoyned and required upon demand, to make and deliver the same) and shall publickly and openly read the same, together with the Declaration, or acknowledgement aforesaid, upon some Lords day within three moneths then next following, in his Parish-Church where he is to officiate, in the presence of the Congregation there assembled in the time of Divine Service; upon pain that every person failing therein shall lose such Parsonage, Vicarage, or Benefice, Curates place, or Lectures place respectively, and shall be utterly disabled, and ipso facto deprived of the same; And that the said Parsonage, Vicarage, or Benefice, Curates place, or Lecturers place shall be void, as if he were naturally dead.

Provided always, That if the said Sermon or Lecture be to be preached or read in any Cathedral, or Collegiate Church or Chappel, it shall be sufficient for the said Lecturer openly at the time aforesaid, to declare his assent and consent to all things contained in the said Book, according to the form aforesaid.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any person who is by this Act disabled to Preach any Lecture or Sermon, shall during the time that he shall continue and remain so disabled Preach any Sermon or Lecture; That then for every such offence, the person and persons so offending shall suffer Three moneths Imprisonment in the common Gaol, without Bail or Mainprise, and that any two Justices of the Peace of any County of this Kingdom and places aforesaid, and the Mayor or other chief Magistrate of any City or Town-Corporate, within the same, upon Certificate from the Ordinary of the place, made to him or them of the offence committed, shall, and are hereby required to commit the person or persons so offending. to the Goal of the County, City, or Town-Corporate accordingly.

Provided aways, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every time and times, when any Sermon or Lecture is to be Preached. the Common-Prayers and Service in and by the said Book appointed to be read for that time of the day, shall be openly, publickly, and solemnly read by the same Priest or Deacon, in the Church, Chappel. or place of Publick Worship, where the said Sermon or Lecture is to be Preached, before such Sermon or Lecture be Preached; And that the Lecturer then to Preach, shall be present at the reading thereof.

Provided nevertheless, That this Act shall not extend to the University-Churches in the Universities of this Realm, or either of them, when, or at such times as any Sermon or Lecture is Preached or Read in the same Churches; or any of them, for, or as the publick University Sermon or Lecture; but that the same Sermons and Lectures may be Preached or Read in such sort and manner as the same have been heretofore Preached or Read; This Act, or any thing herein contained to the contrary there of in any wise notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several good Laws and Statutes of this Realm, which have been formerly made, and are now in force for the Uniformity of Prayers and Administration of the Sacraments, within this Realm of England, and places aforesaid, shall stand in full force and strength to all intents and purposes whatsoever, for the establishing and confirming of the said Book, Entituled, The Book of Common-Prayer, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the use of the Church of England: together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, Pointed as they are to be sung or said in Curches; and the form or manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests and Deacons, herein before mentioned to be joyned and annexed to this Act; and shall be applied, practised, and put in use for the punishing of all offences contrary to the said Laws, with relation to the Book aforesaid, and no other.

Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all those Prayers, Litanies, and Collects, which do any way relate to the King, Queen, or Royal Progeny, the Names be altered and changed from time to time, and fitted to the present occasion, according to the direction of lawful Authority.

Provided also, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a true Printed Copy of the said Book, Entituled: The Book of Common-Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Cere-

Ceremonies of the Church, according to the use of the Church of England, together with the Psalter, or Psalms of David: Pointed as they are to be sung or said in Churches; and the form and manner of Making, Ordaining, and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, shall at the cost and charges of the Parishioners of every Parish-Church, and Chappelry, Cathedral Church, Colledge and Hall, be attained and gotten before the Feast-day of Saint Bartholomew, in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred sixty and two, upon pain of forfeiture of three pounds by the moneth, for so long time as they shall then after be unprovided thereof, by every Parish, or Chappelry, Cathedral Church, Colledge, and Hall, making default therein.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Bishops of Hereford, Saint Davids, Asaph, Bangor, and Landaff, and their Successors, shall take such order among themselvs, for the souls health of the flocks committed to their charge within Wales, That the Book hereunto annexed be truly and exactly Translated into the British or Welsh Tongue, and that the same so Translated, and being by them, or any three of them at the least viewed, perused, and allowed, be imprinted to such number at least, so that one of the said Books so Translated and Imprinted, may be had for every Cathedral, Collegiate, and Parish-Church, and Chappel of Ease in the said respective Dioceses and places in Wales, where the Welsh is commonly spoken or used, before the First day of May, One thousand six hundred sixty five; and, That from and after the Imprinting and Publishing of the said Book so Translated, the whole Divine Service shall be used and said by the Ministers and Curates throughout all Wales, within the said Dioceses where the Welsh Tongue is commonly used, in the British or Welsh Tongue, in such manner and form as is prescribed according to the Book hereunto annexed to be used in the English Tongue, differing nothing in any Order or Form from the said English Book; For which Book, so Translated and Imprinted, the Church-wardens of every the said Parishes shall pay out of the Parish-money in their hand for the use of the respective Churches, and be allowed the same on their Accompt; and, That the said Bishops and their Successors, or any three of them, at the least, shall set and appoint the price, for which the said Book shall be sold; And one other Book of Common-Prayer in the English Tongue shall be bought and had in every Church throughout Wales, in which the Book of Common-Prayer in Welsh is to be had, by force of this Act, before the First-day of May, One thousand six hundred sixty and four, and the same Book to remain in such convenient places, within the said Churches, that such as understand them may resort at all convenient times to read and peruse the same, and also such as do not understand the said Language, may by conferring both Tongues together, the sooner attain to the knowledge of the English Tongue; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; And until Printed Copies of the said Book so to be Translated may be had and provided, the Form of Common-Prayer, established by Parliament before the making of this Act, shall be used as formerly in such parts of Wales where the English Tongue is not commonly understood.

And to the end that the true and perfect Copies of this Act, and the said Book hereunto annexed may be safely kept, and perpetually preserved, and for the avoiding of all disputes for the time to come: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Deans and Chapters of every Cathedral, or Collegiate Church, within England and Wales, shall at their proper costs and charges, before the twenty fifth day of December, One thousand six hundred sixty and two, obtain under the Great Seal of England, a true and perfect Copy of this Act, and of the said Book annexed hereunto, to be by the said Deans and Chapters, and their Successors kept and preserved in safety for ever, and to be also produced and shewed forth in any Court of Record, as often as they shall be thereunto lawfully required: And also there shall be delivered true and perfect Copies of this Act, and of the same Book, into the respective Courts at Westminster, and into the Tower of London, to be kept and preserved for ever among the Records of the said Courts, and the Records of the Tower, to be also produced and shewed forth in any Court as need shall require; which said Books so to be exemplified under the Great Seal of England, shall be examined by such persons as the Kings Majesty shall appoint under the Great Seal of England for that purpose, and shall be compared with the Original Book hereunto annexed, and shall have power to correct and amend in writing, any errour committed by the Printer in the printing of the same Book, or of any thing therein contained, and shall certifie in writing under their hands and seals, or the hands and seals of any three of them at the end of the same Book that they have examined and compared the same Book, and find it to be a true and perfect Copy; which said Books, and every one of them so exemplified under the Great Seal of England, as aforesaid, shall be deemed, taken, adjudged and expounded to be good and available in the Law to all intents and purposes whatsoever, and shall be accounted as good Records as this Book it self hereunto annexed: Any Law or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided also, That this Act or any thing therein contained shall not be prejudicial or hurtful unto the Kings Professor of the Law within the University of Oxford, for, or concerning the Prebend of Shipton, within the Cathedral Church of Sarum, united and annexed unto the place of the same Kings Professor for the time being, by the late King Iames of blessed memory.

Provided always, That whereas the Six and thirtieth Article of the Nine and thirty Articles agreed upon by the Archbishops and Bishops of both Provinces, and the whole Clergy in the Convocation holden at London, in the year of our Lord, One thousand five hundred sixty two, for the avoiding of diversities of opinions, and for establishing of consent, thouching true Religion, is in these words following, viz.

That the Book of Consecration of Archbishops, and Bishops, and Ordaining of Priests and Deacons, lately set forth in the time of King Edward the Sixth, and confirmed at the same time by Authority of Parliament, doth contain all things necessary to such Consecration and Ordaining: neither hath it any thing that of it self is superstitious and ungodly; And therefore whosoever are Consecrated or Ordered according to the Rites of that Book, since the second year of the aforenamed King Edward unto this time, or hereafter shall be Consecrated or Ordereed according to the same Rites: Wee decree all such to be rightly, orderly, and lawfully Consecrated and Ordered.

It be Enacted, and be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Subscriptions hereafter to be had or made unto the said Articles, by any Deacon, Priest or Ecclesiastical person, or other person whatsoever, who by this Act, or any other Law now in force is required to subscribe unto the said Articles, shall be construed and taken to extend, and shall be applied (for and touching the said six and thirtieth Article) unto the Book containing the form and manner of Making, Ordaining and Consecrating of Bishops, Priests and Deacons in this Act mentioned, in such sort and manner as the same did heretofore extend unto the Book set forth in the time of King Edward the Sixth, mentioned in the said Six and thirtieth Article; Any thing in the said Article; or in any Statute, Act of Canon heretofore had or made to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided also, That the Book of Common-Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of this Church of England, together with the form and manner of Ordaining and Consecrating Bishops, Priests and Deacons heretofore in use, and respectively established by Act of Parliament in the First and Eighth years of Queen Elizabeth shall be still used and observed in the Church of England. until the Feast of Saint Bartholomew, which shall be in the year of our Lord God, One thousand six hundred sixty and two.

THE

THE PREFACE.

IT hath been the wisdom of the Church of England, ever since the first compiling of her publick Liturgy, to keep the Mean between the two Extreams, of to much stiffness in refusing, and of to much easiness in admitting any variation from it. For, as on the one side, common Experience sheweth; that where a change hath been made of things advisedly established (no evident necessity so requiring) sundry inconveniences have thereupon ensued; and those many times more; and greater than the evil;, that were intended to be remedied by such change: So on the other side, the particular Forms of Divine Worship, and the Tites, and Ceremonies appointed to be used therein, being things in their own nature indifferent, and alterable, and so acknowledged; it is but reasonable, that upon wighty and important considerations, according to the various exigency of times and occasions, such changes and alterations should be made therein as to those that are in place of Authority should from time to time seem, either necessary or expedient. Accordingly we find, that in the Reigns of several Princes of blessed memory since the Reformation, the Church, upon just and wighty considerations Her thereunto moving, hath yielded to make such alterations in some particulars, as in their respective times were thought convenient: Yet so, as that the main Body and Essentials of it (as well in the chiefest materials, as in the frame and order thereof) have still continued the same unto this day, and do yet stand firm and unshaken, notwithstanding all the vain attemps and impetuus assaults made against it, by such men as are given to change, and have always discovered a greater regard to their own private fancies and interests, than to that duty they ow to the Publick.

By what undue means and for what mischievous purposes the use of the Liturgy (though injoyned by the Laws of the Land, and those Laws never yet repealed) came, during the late unhappy confusions, to be discontinued, is too well known to the World, and we are not willing here to remember. But when upon his Majesties happy Restauration it seemed probable, that amongst other things, the use of the Liturgy also would return of course (the same having never been legally abolished) unless some timely means were used to prevent it; those men who under the late usurped powers had made it a great part of their business to render the people disaffected thereunto, saw themselvs in point of reputation and interest concerned (unless they would fréely acknowledge themselvs to have erred, which such men are very hardly brought to do) with their utmost endeavours to hinder the restitution thereof. In order whereunto divers Pamphlets were published against the Book of Common-Prayer, the old Objections mustered up, with the addition of some new ones more than formerly had been made, to make the number swell. In fine, great importunities were used to His Sacred Majesty, that the said Book might be revised, and such Alterations therein, and Additions thereunto made, as should be thought requisite for the ease of tender Consciences: Whereunto His Majesty out of His pious Inclination to give satisfaction (so far as could be reasonably expected) to all His Subjects of what perswasion soever, did graciously condescend.

In which Review we have endeavoured to observe the like Moderation, as we find to have been used in the like case in former times. And therefore of the sundy Alterations proposed unto us, we have rejected all such as were either of dangerous consequence (as secretly striking at some established Doctrine, or laudable Practice of the Church of England, or indeed of the whole Catholick Church of Christ) or else of no consequence at all, but utterly frivolous and vain. But such Alterations as were tendred to us) by what persons under what pretences, or to what purpose soever so tendred) as seemed to us in any degree requisite or expedient, we have willingly, and of our own accord assented unto: Not enforced so to do by any strength of Argument, convincing us of the necessity of making the said Alterations: For we are fully perswaded in our judgements (and we here profess it to the world) that the Book as it stood before established by Law, doth not contain in it any thing contrary to the Word of God, or to sound Doctrin, or which a godly man may not with a good conscience use and submit unto, or which is not fairly defensible against any that shall suppose the same; if it shall be allowed such just and favourable construction as in common equity ought to be allowed to all Humane Writings, especially such as are set forth by Authority, and even to the very best Translations of the holy Scripture it self.

Our general aim therefore in this undertaking was, not to gratifie this or that partie in any their unreasonable demands; but to do that which to our best understandings we conceived might most tend to the preservation of Peace and Unity in the Church; the procuring of Reverence, and exciting of Piety and Devotion in the publick Worship of God; and the cutting off occasion from them that seek occasion of cavil, or quarrel against the Liturgy of the Church. And as to the several variations from the former Book, whether by Alteration, Addition, or otherwise, it shall suffice to give this general account. That most of the Alterations were made, either first, for the better direction of them that are to officiate in any part of Divine Service, which is chiefly done in the Kalandars and Rubricks: Or secondly, for the more proper expressing of some words or phrases of ancient usage, in terms more suitable to the language of the present times, and the clearer explanation of some other words and phrases, that were either of doubtful signification, or otherwise liable to misconstruction: Or thirdly, for a more perfect rendring of such portions of holy Scripture, as are inserted into the Liturgy; which in the Epistles and Gospels especially, and in sundry other places are now ordered to be read according to the last Traslation: and that it was thought convenient, that some Prayers and Thanksgivings, fitted to special occasions, should be added in their due places; particularly for those at Sea, together with an Office for the Baptism of such as are of riper years; which, although not so necessary when the former Book was compiled, yet by the growth of Anabaptism, through the licentiousness of the late times crept in amongst us, is now become necessary, and may be always useful for the Baptizing of Natives in our Plantations, and others converted to the Faith. If any man, who shall desire a more particular account of the several alterations in any part of the Liturgy, shall take the pains to compare the present Book with the former; we doubt not but the reason of the change may easily appear.

And having thus endeavoured to discharge our duties in this weighty affair, as in the sight of God, and to approve our sincerity therin (so far as lay in us) to the consciences of all men; although we know it impossible (in such variety of apprehensions, humours, and interests, as are in the world) to please all; nor can expect that men of factious, peevish, and perverse spirits should be satisfied with any thing that can be done in this kind by any other than themselvs: Yet we have good hope, that what is here presented, and hath been by the Convocations of both Provinces with great deligence examined and approved, will be also well accepted, and approved by all sober, peaceable, and truly conscientious sons of the Church of England.

Concerning the Service of the CHURCH.

THere was never any thing by the wit of man so devised, or so sure established, which, in continuance of time, hath not been corrupted: As, among other things, it may plainly appear by the Common-Prayers in the Church, commonly called Divine Service. The first original and ground whereof if a man would search out by the ancient Fathers, he shall find, that the same was not ordained, but of a good purpose, and for a great advancement of godliness. For they so ordered the matter, that all the whole Bible, (or the greatest part thereof) should be read over once every year; intending thereby, that the Clergy, and specially such as were Ministers in the Congregation, should (by often reading, and meditation in Gods word) be stirred up to godliness themselvs, and be more able to exhort others by wholsom doctrin, and to confute them that were Adversaries to the truth; and further, that the people (by daily hearing of holy Scripture read in the Church) might continually profit more and more in the knowledge of God, and be the more inflamed with the love of his true Religion.

But these many years passed, this godly and decent Order of the ancient Fathers hath been so altered, broken and neglected, by planting in uncertain Stories, and Legends, wirh multitude of Responds, Verses, vain Repetitions, Commemorations, and Synodals; that commonly, when any Book of the Bible was begun, after three or four Chapters were read out, all the rest were unread, And in this sort the Book of Isaiah was begun in Advent, and the Book of Genesis in Septuagesima, but they were onely begun, and never read through; After like sort were other Books of holy Scripture used. And moreover; whereas Saint Paul would have such language spoken to the people in the Church, as they might understand and have profit by hearing the same; The Service in this Church of England these many years, hath been read in Latin to the people, which they understand not; so that they have heard with their ears onely: and their heart, spirit, and mind have not been edified thereby. And furthermore notwithstandig that the antient Fathers have devided the Psalms into seven Portions, whereof every one was called a Nocturn: Now of late time, a few of them have been daily said, and the rest utterly omitted. Moreover, the number and hardness of the Rules called the Pye. and the manifold changings of the Service was the cause, that to turn the Book onely was so hard and intricate a matter, that many times there was more business to find out what should be read, than to read it when it was found out.

These inconveniences therefore considered, here is set forth such an Order, whereby the same shall be redressed. And for a readiness in this matter, here is drawn out a Kalander for that purpose, which is plain and easie to be understood; wherein (so much as may be) the reading of holy Scripture is seth forth, that all things shall be done in order, without breaking one piece from another. For this cause be cut of Anthems, Reſpons, Invitatories, and ſuch like things as did break the continual courſe of the reading of the Scripture.

Yet, becauſe there is no remedy, but that of neceſſity there muſt be ſome Rules; therefore certain Rules are here ſet forth; which, as they are few in number, ſo they are plain and eaſie to be underſtood. So that here you have an Order for Prayer, and for the reading of the holy Scripture, much agreeable to the mind and purpoſe of the old Fathers, and a great deal more profitable and commodious than that which of late was uſed. It is more profitable, becauſe here are left out many things, whereof ſome are untrue, ſome uncertain, ſome vain and ſuperſtitious, and nothing is ordained to be read, but the very pure word of God, the holy Scriptures, or that which is agreeable to the ſame; and that in ſuch a language and order, as is moſt eaſie and plain for the underſtanding both of the readers and hearers. It is alſo more commodious, both for the ſhortneſs thereof, and for the plainneſs of the Order, and for that the Rules be few and eaſie.

And whereas heretofore there hath been great diverſity in ſaying and ſinging in Churches within this Realm; ſome following Salisbury Uſe, ſome Hereford Uſe, and ſome the Uſe of Bangor, ſome of York, ſome of Lincoln; now from henceforth all the whole Realm ſhall have but one Uſe.

And for as much, as nothing can be ſo plainly ſet forth, but doubts may ariſe in the uſe and practice of the ſame; to appeaſe all ſuch diverſity (if any ariſe) and for the reſolution of all doubts, concerning the manner how to underſtand, do, and execute the things contained in this Book; the parties that ſo doubt, or diverſly take any thing, ſhall alway reſort to the Biſhop of the Dioceſe, who by his diſcretion ſhall take order for the quieting and appeaſing of the ſame; ſo that the ſame order be not contrary to any thing contained in this Book. And if the Biſhop of the Dioceſe be in doubt, then he may ſend for the reſolution thereof to the Archbiſhop.

THough it be appointed, That all things ſhall be read and ſung in the Church in the Engliſh tongue, to the end that the Congregation may be thereby edified; yet it is meant, but that when men ſay Morning and Evening Prayer privately, they may ſay the ſame in any language that they themſelvs do underſtand.

And all Prieſts and Deacons are to ſay daily the Morning and Evening-Prayer, either privately or openly, not being let by ſickneſs, or ſome other urgent cauſe.

And the Curate that miniſtreth in every Pariſh-Church or Chappel, being at home, and not being otherwiſe reaſonably hindred, ſhall ſay the ſame in the Pariſh-Church or Chappel where he miniſtreth, and ſhall cauſe a Bell to be tolled thereunto a convenient time before he begin, that the people may come to hear Gods Word, and to pray with him.

¶ Of Ceremonies, why ſome be aboliſhed, and ſome retained.

OF ſuch Ceremonies as be uſed in the Church, and have had their beginning by the inſtitution of man, ſome at the firſt were of godly intent and purpoſe deviſed, and yet at length turned to vanity and ſuperſtition: Some entred into the Church by undiſcreet devotion, and ſuch a Seal as was without knowledge; and for becauſe they were winked at in the beginning, they grew daily to more and more abuſes, which not onely for their unprofitableneſs, but alſo becauſe they have much blinded the people, and obſcured the glory of God, are worthy to be put away, and clean rejected: Other there be, which although they have been deviſed by man, yet is it thought good to reſerve them ſtill, as well for a decent order in the Church (for the which they were firſt deviſed) as becauſe they pertain to edification, whereunto all things done in the Church (as the Apoſtle teacheth) ought to be referred.

And although the keeping or omitting of a Ceremony, in it ſelf conſidered, is but a ſmall thing; yet the wilful and contemptuous tranſgreſſion and breaking of a common order and diſcipline, is no ſmall offence before God. Let all things be done among you (ſaith Saint Paul) in a ſeemly and due order; The appointment of the which order pertaineth not to private men; therefore no man ought to take in hand, or preſume to appoint or alter any publick or Common Order in Chriſts Church, except he be lawfully called and authorized thereunto.

And whereas in this our time, the minds of men are ſo divers, that ſome think it a great matter of conſcience to depart from a piece of the leaſt of their Ceremonies, they be ſo addicted to their old cuſtoms and again on the other ſide, ſome be ſo new fangled, that thy would innovate all things, and ſo deſpiſe the old, that nothing can like them, but that is new: Is was thought expedient not ſo much to have reſpect how to pleaſe and ſatisfie either of theſe parties, as how to pleaſe God, and profit them both. And yet leſt any man ſhould be offended, whom good reaſon might ſatisfie, here be certain cauſes rendred, why ſome of the accuſtomed Ceremonies be put away, and ſome retained and kept ſtill.

Some are put away, becauſe the great exceſs and multitude of them hath ſo increaſed in theſe latter days, that the burden of them was intolerable; whereof Saint Auguſtine in his time complained that they were grown to ſuch a number, that the eſtate of Chriſtian people was in worſe caſe concerning that matter, then were the Jews. And he counſelled, that ſuch yoke and burden ſhould be taken away, as time would ſerve quietly to do it. But what would Saint Auguſtine have ſaid, if he had ſeen the Ceremonies of late days uſed among us; whereunto the multitude uſed in his time was not to be compared? This our exceſſive multitude of Ceremonies was ſo great, and many of them ſo dark, that they did more confound and darken, than declare and ſet forth Chriſts benefits unto us. And beſides this, Chriſt Goſpel is not a ceremonial Law (as much of Moſes Law was) but it is a Religion to ſerve God, not in bondage of the figure of ſhadow, but in the freedom of the ſpirit; being content onely with thoſe Ceremonies which do ſerve to a decent Order, and godly Diſcipline, and ſuch as be apt to ſtir up the dul mind of man to the remembrance of his duty to God, by ſome notable and ſpecial ſignification, whereby he might be edified. Furthermore, the moſt weighty cauſe of the aboliſhement of certain Ceremonies was, That they were ſo far abuſed, parly by the ſuperſtitious blindneſs of the rude and unlearned, and partly by the unſatiable ovarice of ſuch as ſought more their own lucre, than the glory of God, that the abuſes could not well be taken away, the thing remaining ſtill.

But now as concening thoſe perſons, which peradventure will be offended, for that ſome of the old Ceremonies are retained ſtill: If they conſider, that without ſome Ceremonies it is not poſſible to keep any Order, or quiet Diſcipline in the Church, they ſhall eaſily perceive juſt cauſe to reform their judgements. And if they think much, that any of the old do remain, and would rather have all deviſed anew: Then ſuch men granting ſome Ceremonies convenient to be had, ſurely where the old may be well uſed, there they cannot reaſonably reprove the old onely for their age, without bewraying of their own folly. For in ſuch a caſe they ought rather to have reverence unto them for their antiquity, if they will declare themſelvs to be more ſtudious of unity and concord, than of innovations and new-fanglenes, which (as much as may be with true ſetting forth of Chriſts Religion) is always to be eſchewed. Forthermore, ſuch ſhall have no juſt cauſe with the Ceremonies reſerved to be offended. For as thoſe are taken away which where moſt abuſed, and did burden mens conſciences without any cauſe; ſo the other that remain, are retained for a Diſcipline and Order, which (upon juſt cauſes) may be altered and changed, and therefore are not to be eſteemed equal with Gods Law. And moreover, they me neither dark nor dumb Ceremonies, but are ſo ſeth forth, that every man may underſtand what they do mean, and to what uſe they do ſerve. So that it is not like that they in time to come ſhould be abuſed as other have been. And in theſe our doings we condemn no other Nations, nor perſcribe any thing but to our own people onely: for we think it convinient, that every countrey ſhould uſe ſuch Ceremonies as they ſhall think beſt; to the ſetting forth of Gods honour and glory, and to the reducing of the people to a moſt perfect and godly living, without errour or ſuperſtition; and that thy ſhould put away other things, which from time to time they perceive to be moſt abuſed, as in mens ordinances it often chanceth deverſly in divers Countreys.

The ORDER

How the Pſalter is appointed to be read.

THe Pſalter ſhall be read through once every month, as it is there appointed, both for Morning and Evening-Prayer. But in February it ſhall be read onely to the Twenty eighth, or Twenty ninth day of the month.

And, whereas January, March, May, July, Auguſt, October, and December, have One and thirty days apiece; It is ordered, that the ſame Pſalms ſhall be read the laſt day of the ſaid months, which were read the day before; So that the Pſalter may begin again the firſt day of the next month enſuing.

And whereas the C X I X. Pſalm is divided into X X I I. Portions, and is over long to be read at one time; It is ſo ordered, that at one time ſhall not be read above four or five of the ſaid Portions.

And at the end of every Pſalm, and of every ſuch part of the C X I X. Pſalm, ſhall be repeated this Hymn, Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghoſt; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

Note, That the Pſalter followeth the Diviſion of the Hebrews, and the Tranſlation of the great Engliſh Bible, ſet forth and uſed in the time of King Henry the Eighth, and Edward the Sixth.

The ORDER

How the reſt of holy Scripture is appointed to be read.

THe Old Teſtament is appointed for the firſt Leſſons at Morning and Evening-Prayer; ſo as the moſt part thereof will be read every year once, as in the Kalendar is appointed.

The New Teſtament is appointed for the ſecond Leſſons at Morning and Evening-Prayer, and ſhall be read over orderly every year thrice, beſides the Epiſtles and Goſpels; except the Apocalypſe, out of which there are onely certain proper Leſſons appointed upon divers Feaſts.

And to know what Leſſons ſhall be read every day, look for the day of the month in the Kalendar following, and there ye ſhall find the Chapters that ſhall be read for the Leſſons both at Morning and Evening-Prayer; Except onely the Moveable Feaſts which are not in the Kalendar, and the Immoveable, where there is a blank left in the Column of Leſſons; the proper Leſſons for all which days are to be found in the Table of proper Leſſons.

And note, That whenſoever proper Pſalms or Leſſons are appointed; then the Pſalms and Leſſons of ordinary courſe appointed in the Pſalter and Kalendar (if they be diffetent) ſhall be omitted for that time.

Note alſo, that the Collect, Epiſtle, and Goſpel appointed for the Sunday, ſhall ſerve all the week after, where it is not in this Book otherwiſe ordered.

¶ Proper Leſſons to be read at Morning and Evening-Prayer on the Sundays, and other Holydays throughout the year.

The

The Order for Morning and Evening-Prayer daily to be said and used throughout the year.

THe morning and Evening-Prayer shall be used in the accustomed place of the Church, Chappel or Chancel, except it shall be otherwise determined by the Ordinary of the place: And the Chancels shall remain as they have done in times past.

And here is to be noted, that such Ornaments of the Church, and of the Ministers thereof at all times of their Ministration, shall be retained and be in use, as were in this Church of England by the Authority of Parliament, in the second year of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth.

¶ The Order for Morning-Prayer, daily throughout the year.

¶ At the beginning of Morning-Prayer the Minister shall read with a loud voice some one, or more of these Sentences of the Scriptures, that follow. And then he shall say that which is written after the said Sentences.

Ezek 11. 27. WHen the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness, that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawfull and right, he shall save his soul alive.

Psal 51. 3. I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Psal. 51. 9. Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine inquities.

Psal. 51. 17. The Sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Joel 2. 13. Rent your heart; and not your graments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

Dan. 9. 9, 12. To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses; though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws which he set before us.

Jer. 10. 24. O Lord correct me, but with judgement, not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

S Matt. 3. 2. Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

S. Luk. 15. 18. 19 I will arise and go to my Father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

Ps 143. 2. Enter not into judgement with thy servant, O Lord; for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

1 S. John 1 8. 9. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us. But, if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins; and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

DEarly beloved brethen, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by his infinite goodness, and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ A general confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

ALmighty and most merciful Father; We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed to much the devices and desires of own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done: And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To thy glory of the holy Name. Amen.

¶ The absolution or Remission of sins to be pronounced by the Priest alone standing; the people still kneeling.

ALmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live, and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: He pardonneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit; that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¶ The people shall answer here, and at the end of all other Prayers, Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lords Prayer with an audible voice; the people also kneeling, and repeating it with him, both here, and wheresoever else it is used in Divine Service.

OUr Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not unto temptation: But deliver us from evil; For thine is the kingdom, And the power, and the glory; For ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say.

O Lord, open thou our lips.
Answ. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.
Priest. O God, make speed to save us.
Answ. O Lord, make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priests shall say.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: And to the Holy Ghost;
Answ. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
Priest. Praise the Lord.
Answ. The Lords name be praised.

¶ Then shall be said or sung this Psalm following: Except on Easter day upon which another Anthem is appointed. and on the nineteenth day of every moneth it is not to be read here, but in the ordinary course of the Psalms.

Venite exultemus Domino. Psal. 95.

OCome, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartely rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanks giving: and shew our selves glad in him with Psalms.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worship, and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness.

When your fathers tempted me: proved me, and saw my works.

Fourty years long was I grieved with this generation, ano said: It is a people that do err in their hearts, for thy have not known my ways.

Unto whom I sware in my wrath: that thy should not enter into my rest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost,

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end, Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Psalms in order as they are appointed. And at the end of every Psalm throughout the year, and likewise at the end of Benidicite, Benedictus, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis, shall be repeated.

Glory be to Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.
Ans. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall be read distinctly with an audible voice the first Lesson, taken out of the Old Testament; as is appointed in the Kalendars, (except there be proper Lessons assigned for that day:) he that readeth, so standing and turning himself, as he may best be heard of all such as are present. And after that, shall be said or sung in English, the Hymn called Te Deum Laudamus, daily throughout the year.

¶ Note that before every Lesson the Minister shall say, Here beginneth such a Chapter, or verse of such a Chapter of such a Book: And after every Lesson, Here endeth the first, or the second Lesson.

¶ Te

¶ Te Deum Laudamus.

WE praiſe thee, O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worſhip thee: the Father everlaſting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud, thee heavens, and all the powers therein.
To thee Cherubin, and Seraphin: continually do cry.
Holy, Holy, Holy: Lord God of Sabaoth.
Heaven and earth are full of the Majeſty: of thy glory.
The glorious company of the Apoſtles: praiſe thee.
The goodly fellowſhip of the Prophets: praiſe thee.
The noble Army of Martyrs: praiſe thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge thee,
The Father: of an infinite majeſty;
Thine honourable, true: and onely Son;
Alſo the Holy Ghoſt: the Comforter.
Thou art the king of Glory: O Chriſt.
Thou art the everlaſting Son: of the Father.
When thou tookeſt upon thee to deliver man: thou didſt not abhor the Virgins womb.
When thou hadſt overcome the ſharpneſs of death: thou didſt open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
Thou ſitteſt at the right-hand of God in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou ſhalt come: to be our judge.
We therefore pray thee, help they ſervants: whom thou haſt redeemed with thy precious bloud.
Make them to be numbred with thy ſaints: in glory everlaſting.
O Lord, ſave thy people: and bleſs thine heritage.
Govern them: and lift them up for ever.
Day by day: we magnify thee;
And we worſhip thy Name: ever world without end.
Vouchſafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without ſin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let they mercy lighten upon us: as our truſt in thee.
O Lord, in thee have I truſted: let me never be confounded.

¶ Or this Canticle, Benedicite, omnia opera Domini.

O Annanias, Azarias, and Miſael, bleſs ye the Lord: praiſe him, and magnify him for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghoſt;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall be read in like manner the ſecond Leſſon, taken out of the New Teſtament. And after that, the Hymn following; except when that ſhall happen to be read in the Chapter for the day, or for the Goſpel on Saint John Baptiſt day.

Benedictus. S. Luk. 1. 68.

BLeſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael: for he hath viſited and redeemed his people.
And hath raiſed up a mighty ſalvation for us: in the houſe of his ſervant David;
As he ſpake by the mouth of his holy Prophets: which have been ſince the world began;
That we ſhould be ſaved from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate us;
To perform that mercy promiſed to our forefathers: and to remember his holy covenant;
To perform the oath which he ſware to our forefather Abraham: that he would give us;
That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies: might ſerve him without fear;
In holineſs and righteouſneſs before him: all the days of our life.
And thou, child, ſhalt be called the prophet of the Higheſt: for thou ſhalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:
To give knowledge of ſalvation unto his people: for the remiſſion of their ſins.
Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day-ſpring from on high hath viſited us;
To give light to them that ſit in darkneſs, and in the ſhadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghoſt;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Or this Pſalm.

Jubilate Deo.

OBe joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: ſerve the Lord with gladneſs, and come before his preſence with a ſong.
Be ye ſure that the Lord he is God: it is he that had made us, and not we our ſelvs, we are his people, and the ſheep of his paſture.
O go your way into his gates with thangſgiving, and into his courts with praiſe: be thankful unto him, and ſpeak good of his name.
For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlaſting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: aud to the Holy Ghoſt;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall be ſaid the Apoſtles Creed by the Miniſter, and the people ſtanding. Except onely ſuch days, as the Creed of S. Athanaſius is appointed to be read.

IBelieve in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jeſus Chriſt his onely Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghoſt, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He deſcended into hell, the third day he roſe again from the dead, He aſcended into heaven, and ſitteth on the right-hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he ſhall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghoſt; The Holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; The forgiveneſs of ſins; The reſurrection of the body, And the life everlaſting. Amen.

¶ And after that, theſe Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling, the Miniſter firſt pronouncing with aloud voice.

The Lord be with you.
Anſw. And with thy Spirit.
Miniſter. Let us pray.
Lord have mercy upon us.
Chriſt have mercy upon us.
Lord have mercy upon us.

¶ Then the Miniſter, Clerks and people ſhall ſay the Lords Prayer with a loud voice.

OUr Father which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, As we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then the Prieſts ſtanding up ſhall ſay.

O Lord ſhew thy mercy upon us.
Anſw. And grant us thy ſalvation.
Prieſt. O Lord ſave the King.

Anſw.

Answ. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.
Priest. Endue thy ministers with righteousness.
Answ. And make thy chosen people joyful.
Priest. O Lord save thy people.
Answ. And bless thine inheritance.
Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord.
Answ. Because there is none other that fighteth for us; but only thou, O God.
Priest. O God, make clean our hearts within us.
Answ. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

¶ Then shall follow three Collects; The first of the day, which shall be the same that is appointed at the Communion; The second for peace; The third for grace to live well. And the two last Collects shall never alter. but daily be said at Morning-Prayer throughout all the year, as followeth, all kneeling.

¶ The second Collect for Peace.

O God, who art the author of peace and lover of concord: in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; defend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies, that we surely trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The third Collect for Grace.

O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God' who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day, defend us in the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that is righteous in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then these five Prayers following are to be read here, except when the Litany is read; and then onely the two last are to be read, as they are there placed.

¶ A Prayer for the Kings Majesty.

O Lord our heavenly Father, high and mighty, Kings of kings, Lord of lords, the onely Ruler of princes, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth, most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Soveraign Lord King James, and so repleniſh him with the grace of thy Holy Spirit; that he may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way; Endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies; and finally after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Royal Family.

ALmighty God, the Fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless our gracious Queen Mary, the Queen Dowager there Royal higneſſes Mary Princes of Orange, and the Princes Ann of Denmarke and all the Royal Famely: Endue them with thy Holy Spirit enrich them with thy heavenly grace; prosper them with all happiness; and bring them to thine everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

ALmighty and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels, send down upon our Bishops and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing; Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediatour; Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A prayer of S. Chrysostom.

ALmighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them, granting as in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

THe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen

¶ Here endeth the Order of Morning-Prayer throughout the year.

¶ The Order of Evening-Prayer, daily throughout the year.

¶ At the beginning of Evening-Prayer the Minister shall read with a loud voice some one, or more of these Sentences of the Scriptures, that follow. And then he shall say that which is written after the said Sentences.

Ezek. 18. 27. WHen the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness, that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawfull and right, he shall save his soul alive.

Psal. 51. 3. I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit: that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lords Prayer: the people also kneeling, and repeating it with him.

OUr Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say.

O Lord, open thou our lips.
Answ. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.
Priest. O God: make speed to save us.
Answ. O Lord, make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priest shall say.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
Answ. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
Priest. Praise ye the Lord.
Answ. The Lords name be praised.

¶ Then ſhall be ſaid or ſung the Pſalms in Order as they are appointed. Then a leſſon of the old Teſtament, as is appointed: And after that, Magnificat, (or the ſong of the bleſſed Virgin Mary*) in Engliſh as followeth.*

Magnificat S. Luk. 1. 46.

MY ſoul doth Magnify the Lord: and my ſpirit hath rejoyced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowlineſs of his handmaiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations ſhall call me bleſſed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath ſhewed ſtrength with his arm: he hath ſcattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their ſeat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath ſent empty away.

He remembring his mercy hath holpen his ſervant Iſrael: as he promiſed to our forefathers, Abraham and his ſeed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Or elſe this Pſalm: Except it be on the nineteenth day of the moneth, when it is read in the ordinary courſe of the Pſalm.

Cantate Domino Pſal. 98.

O Sing unto the Lord a new ſong: for he hath done marvellous things.

With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himſelf the victory.

The Lord declared his ſalvation: his righteouſneſs hath he openly ſhewed in the ſight of the heathen.

He hath remembred his mercy and truth toward the houſe of Iſrael: and all the ends of the world have ſeen the ſalvation of our God.

Shew your ſelvs joyful unto the Lord, all ye lands: ſing, rejoyce, and give thanks.

Praiſe the Lord upon the harp: ſing to the harp with a pſalm of thankſgiving.

With trumpets alſo and ſhawms: O ſhew your ſelvs joyful before the Lord the King.

Let the ſea make a noiſe, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

Let the flouds clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the Lord: for he cometh to judge the earth.

With righteouſneſs ſhall he judge the world; and the people with equity.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt;

As is was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Then a Leſſon of the New Teſtament, as it is appointed, And after that, Nunc dimittis (or the ſong of Simeon) in Engliſh, as followeth.

Nunc dimittis. S Luke 2. 29.

LOrd, now letteſt thou thy ſervant depart in peace: according to thy word.

For mine eyes have ſeen: thy ſalvation.

Which thou haſt prepared: before the face of all people;

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Iſrael.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Or elſe this Pſalm: except it be on the twelfth day of the month.

Deus miſereatur. Pſal. 67.

GOd be merciful unto us, and bleſs us: and ſhew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us.

That they way may be known upon earth: thy ſaving health among all nations.

Let the people praiſe thee, O God, yea, let all the people praiſe thee.

O let the nations rejoyce and be glad: for thou ſhalt judge the folk righteouſly, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the peole praiſe thee, O God: let all the people praiſe thee.

Then ſhall the earth bring forth her increaſe: and God, even our own God, ſhall give us his bleſſing.

God ſhall bleſs us: and all the ends of the word ſhall fear him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall be ſaid or ſung the Apoſtles Creed by the Miniſter and the people ſtanding.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jeſus Chriſt his onely Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the holy Ghoſt, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried, He deſcended into hell: The third day he roſe again from the dead, He aſcended into heaven, And ſitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he ſhall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the holy Ghoſt; The holy Catholick Church; The communion of Saints; The forgiveneſs of ſins; The reſurrection of the body; And the life everlaſting. Amen.

¶ And after that, theſe prayers following, all devoutly kneeling, the Miniſter firſt pronouncing with a loud voice,

The Lord be with you.

Anſw. And with thy Spirit.

Miniſter. ¶ Let us pray.

Chriſt have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

¶ Then the Miniſter; Clerks, and people ſhall ſay the Lords Prayer with a loud voice.

OUr Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, As we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then the Prieſt ſtanding up ſhall ſay,

O Lord, ſhew thy mercy upon us.

Anſw. And grant us thy ſalvation.

Prieſt. O Lord, ſave the King.

Anſw. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Prieſt. Endue thy miniſters with righteouſneſs.

Anſw. And make thy choſen people joyful.

Prieſt. O Lord, ſave thy people.

Anſw. And bleſs thine inheritance.

Priſt. Give peace in our time, O Lord;

Anſw. Becauſe there is none other that fighteth for us, but onely thou, O God.

Prieſt. O God, make clean our hearts within us.

Anſw. And take not thy holy Spirit from us.

¶ Then ſhall follow three Collects; the firſt of the day, the ſecond for peace, the third for aid againſt all perils, as hereafter followeth: which two laſt Collects ſhall be daily ſaid at Evening-Prayer without alteration.

The ſecond Collect at Evening-Prayer.

O God, from whom all holy deſires, all good counſels, and all juſt works do proceed: Give unto thy ſervants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be ſet to obey thy commandments, and alſo that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may paſs our time in reſt and quietneſs, through the merits of Jeſus Chriſt our Saviour. Amen.

¶ The third Collect for aid againſt all perils.

LIghten our darkneſs, we beſeech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy onely Son, our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

¶ Prayer for the Kings Majeſty.

O Lord our heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the onely Ruler of Princes, who doſt from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; moſt heartily we beſeech thee with thy favour to behold our moſt gracious Soveraign Lord King James, and ſo repleniſh him with the grace of thy holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: endue him plenteouſly with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, ſtrengthen him that he may vanquiſh and overcome all his enemies, and finally after this life, he may attain everlaſting joy and felicity, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Royal Family.

ALmighty God, the fountain of all goodneſs, we humbly beſeech thee to bleſs our gracious Queen Mary, the Queen Douager there Royall highneſſes Mary Princes of Orange, and the Princeſs Ann of Denmarke and all the Royal Family: endue them with thy holy Spirit, enrich them with thy heavenly grace; proſper them with all happineſs: and bring them to thine everlaſting kingdom,

¶ A Prayer for the Clergy and people.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, who alone workeſt great marvels: ſend down upon our Biſhops and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly pleaſe thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy bleſſing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediatour; Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of Saint Chryſoſtom.

ALmighty God, who haſt given us grace al this time with one accord to make our common ſupplications unto thee, and doſt promiſe; that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requeſts; fulfil now, O Lord, the deſires and petitions of thy ſervants, as may be moſt expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlaſting. Amen.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

THe grace of our Lord Jeſus Chliſt, and the love of God, and the fellowſhip of the holy Ghoſt be with us all evermore. Amen.

¶ Here endeth the Order of Evening-Prayer throughout the year.

¶ Upon theſe Feaſts, Chriſtmas-day, Epiphany, Saint Matthias, Eaſter-day, Aſcenſion-day, Whitſun-day, Saint John Baptiſt, Saint James, Saint Bartholomew, Saint Matthew, Saint Simon and Saint Jude, Saint Andrew, and upon Trinity Sunday, ſhall be ſung or ſaid at Morning-Prayer, in ſtead of the Apoſtles Creed, this Confeſſion of our Chriſtian faith, commonly called the Creed of Saint Athanaſius, by the Miniſter and people ſtanding.

Qui-

Quicumque vult.

WHosoever will be saved: before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholick Faith.

Which Faith, except every one do keep whole and undefiled: without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

And the Catholick Faith is this: that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity.

Neither confounding the persons: nor dividing the substance.

For there is one person of the Father, another of the Son: and another of the holy Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the holy Ghost is all one: the Glory equal, the Majesty coeternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son: and such is the holy Ghost.

The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate: and the holy Ghost uncreate.

The Father incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible: and the holy Ghost incomprehensible.

The Father eternal, the Son eternal and the holy Ghost eternal.

And yet they are not three eternals: but one eternal.

As also there are not three incomprehensibles, nor three uncreated: but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty: and the holy Ghost Almighty.

And yet they are not three Almighties; but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son is God: and the holy Ghost is God.

And yet they are not three Gods: but one God.

So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son Lord: and the holy Ghost Lord.

And yet not three Lords: but one Lord.

For like as we are compelled by the Christian Verity: to acknowledge every person by himself to be God and Lord;

So are we forbidden by the Catholick Religion: to say, There be three Gods, or three Lords.

The Father is made of none: neither created, nor begotten.

The Son is of the Father alone, not made, nor created, but begotten.

The holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the Son: neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons: one holy Ghost, not three holy Ghosts.

And in this Trinity none is afore, or after other: none is greater, or less than another;

But the whole three persons are co-eternal together, and co-equal.

So that in all things, as is aforesaid: the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped.

He therefore that will be saved: must thus think of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation: that he also believe righly the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For the right faith is, that we believe and confess: that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God, and Man.

God of the substance of the Father; begotten before the worlds: and Man of the substance of his Mother, born in the world;

Perfect God, and perfect Man: of a reasonable soul, and humane flesh subsisting;

Equal to the Father, as touching his Godhead: and inferiour to the Father, as touching his Manhood.

Who although he be God and Man: yet he is not two, but one Christ;

One; not by conversion of the Godhead into flesh: but by taking of the Manhood into God;

One altogether; not by confusion of substance: but by unity of person.

For as the reasonnable soul and flesh is one man: so God and Man is one Christ.

Who suffered for our salvation: descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead.

He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty: from whence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies: and shall give account for their own works.

And they that have done good shall go into life everlasting: and they that have done evil into everlasting fire.

This is the Catholick Faith: which except a man believe faithfully he cannot be saved.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Here followeth the Litany or General Supplication, to be sung or said after Morning-Prayer upon Sundays, Weddensdays and Fridays, and at other times, when it shall be commanded by the Ordinary.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed and glorious Trinity, three persons, and one God: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed and glorious Trinity, three Persons and one God: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

Remember not, Lord, our offences; nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our sins: spare us good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us, good Lord.

From all evil and mischief, from sin, from the crafts and assaults of the devil, from thy wrath, and from everlasting damnation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all blindness of heart; from pride, vain glory and hypocrisie; from envy, hatred and malice, and all uncharitableness,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From fornication, and all other deadly sin; and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh and the devil.

Good Lord, deliver us.

From lightning and tempest; from plague, pestilence and famine; from battel and murder, and from sudden death,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all sedition, privy conspiracy, and rebellion; from all false doctrin, heresie and schism, from hardness of heart, & contempt of thy word & commandment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By the the mystery of the holy incarnation, by the holy Nativite and Circumcision; by the Baptism, fasting and Temptation.

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thine Agony and bloody Sweat; by the Cross and passion; by the precious Death and Burial, by the glorious Resurrection and Ascension; and hy the coming of the holy Ghost,

Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation; in all time of our wealth; in the hour of death, and in the day of judgement,

Good Lord, delievr us

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God, and that it may please thee to rule and govern the holy Church universal in the way;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to keep and strengthen in the true worshipping of thee; in righteousness and holiness of life, thy servant James our most gracious King and Governour;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to rule his heart in the faith, fear and love, and that we may evermore have affiance in thee, and ever seek they honour and glory;

We beseech the to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to be his defender and keeper: giving him the victory over all his enemies;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and preserve our gracious Queen Mary, the Queen Douager there Royall hignesses Mary Princes of Orange, and the Princess Ann of Denmarke and allthe Royal Family.

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, Priests and Deacons, with true knowledge and understanding of the word, and that both by their preaching and living they may set it forth; and shew it accordingly;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to endue the Lords of the Council, and all the Nobility, with grace, wisdom and understanding;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep the Magistrates; giving them grace to execute justice, and to maintain truth;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep all the people;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all nations unity, peace and concord;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may plase thee to give us an heart to love and dread thee, and diligently to live after thy commandments;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all thy people increase of grace; to hear meekly thy word, and to receive it with pure affection; and to bring forth the fruits of the Spirit,

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bring into the way of truth all such as have erred and are deceived;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to strengthen such as do stand, and to comfort and help the weak hearted, and to raise up them that fall, and finally to beat down Satan under our feet;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to succour, help, and comfort all that are in danger, necessity and tribulation;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to preserve all that travel by land or by water, all women labouring of child, all sick persons and young children, and to shew thy pity upon all prisoners and captives;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to defend and provide for the fatherless children and widows, and all that are desolate and oppressed;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to have mercy upon all men;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to forgive our enemies, perſecutors and ſlanderers, and to turn their hearts;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to give and preſerve to our uſe the kindly fruits, of the earth, ſo as in due time we may enjoy them;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to give us true repentance, to forgive us all our ſins, negligences, and ignorances, and to endue us with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, to amend our lives according to thy Holy Word;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Son of God: we beſeech thee to hear us.

Son of God: we beſeech thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God: that takeſt away he ſins of the world;

Grant us they peace.

O Lamb of God: that takeſt away the ſins of the world;

Have mercy upon us.

O Chriſt hear us.

O Chriſt; hear us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Chriſt have mercy upon us.

Chriſt, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Lord. have mercy upon us.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt, and the people with him, ſay the Lords Prayer.

OUr Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, As we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Prieſt. O Lord, deal not with us after our ſins.

Anſwer. Neither reward us after our iniquities.

¶ Let us pray.

O God merciful Father, that deſpiſeſt not the ſighing of a contrite heart, nor the deſire of ſuch as be ſorrowful; Mercifully aſſiſt our prayers that we make before thee in all our troubles and adverſities, whenſoever they oppreſs us: and graciouſly hear us, that thoſe evils which the craft and ſubtilty of the devil or man worketh againſt us, be brought to nought, and by the providence of the goodneſs thy may be diſperſed, that we the ſervants, being hurt by no perſecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in the holy Church, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

O Lord, ariſe, help us, and deliver us for thy Names ſake.

O God, we have heard with our ears, and our Fathers have declared unto us. the noble works that thou didſt in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, ariſe, help us; and deliver us for thine honour..

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghoſt;

Anſw. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

From our enemies defend us, O Chriſt.

Graciouſly look upon our afflictions.

Pitifully behold the ſorrows of our hearts.

Mercifully forgive the ſins of thy people.

Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.

O Son of David, have mercy upon us.

Both now and ever vouchſafe to hear us, O Chriſt.

Graciouſly hear us, O Chriſt; graciouſly hear us, O Lord Chriſt.

Prieſt. O Lord, let thy mercy be ſhewed upon us.

Anſw. As we do put our truſt in thee.

Let us pray.

WE humbly beſeech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities; and for the glory of thy Name, turn from us all thoſe evils that we moſt righteouſly have deſerved; and grant, that in all our troubles we may put our whole truſt and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore ſerve thee in holineſs and pureneſs of living, to thy honour and glory, through our onely Mediatour and Advocate, Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

¶ A prayer of S. Chryſoſtom.

ALmighty God, who haſt given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common ſupplications unto thee, and doſt promiſe, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requeſts; Fulfil now, O Lord, the deſires and petitions of thy ſervants, as may be moſt expedient for them, granting as in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlaſting. Amen.

THe grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the love of God, and the fellowſhip of the Holy Ghoſt be with us all evermore. Amen.

Here endeth the Litany.

PRAYERS.

Prayers and Thanksgiving upon ſeveral occaſions, to be uſed before the two final Prayers of the Litany, or of Morning and Evening-Prayer.

PRAYERS.

¶ For Rain.

O God heavenly Father, who by thy Son Jeſus Chriſt haſt promiſed to all them that ſeek thy kingdom, and the righteouſneſs thereof, all things neceſſary to their bodily ſuſtenance: Send us, we beſeech thee, in this our neceſſity, ſuch moderate rain and ſhowrs, that we may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and to thy honour, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ For fair weather.

O Almighty Lord God, who for the ſin of man didſt once drown all the world, except eight perſons, and afterward of thy great mercy didſt promiſe never to deſtroy it ſo again; We humbly beſeech thee, that although we for our iniquities have worthily deſerved a plague of rain and waters, yet upon our true repentence thou wilt ſend us ſuch weather, as that we may receive the fruits of the earth in due ſeaſon, and learn both by the puniſhment to amend our lives, and for thy clemency to give thee praiſe and glory, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the time of dearth and famin.

O God heavenly Father, whoſe gift it is, that the rain doth fall, the earth is fruitful, beaſts increaſe, and fiſhes do multiply; behold, we beſeech thee, the afflictions of thy people; and grant that the ſcarcity and dearth (which we do now moſt juſtly ſuffer for our iniquity) may through thy goodneſs be mercifully turned into cheapneſs and plenty, for the love of Jeſus Chriſt our Lord; to whom with thee and the Holy Ghoſt be all honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Or this.

O God, merciful Father, who in the time of Eliſha the prophet didſt ſuddenly in Samaria turn great ſcarcity and dearth into plenty and cheapneſs: Have mercy upon us, that we who are now for our ſins puniſhed with like adverſity, may likewiſe find a ſeaſonable relief: Increaſe the fruits of the earth by thy heavenly benediction; and grant that we, receiving the bountiful liberality, may uſe the ſame to thy glory, the relief of thoſe that are needy. and our own comfort, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the time of War and Tumults.

O Almighty God, king of all kings, and Governour of all things, whoſe power no creature is able to reſiſt, to whom it belongeth juſtly to puniſh ſinners, and to be merciful to them that truly repent; Save and deliver us, we humbly beſeech thee, from the hands of our enemies; abate their pride, aſſwage their malice, and confound their devices, that we, being armed with thy defence, may be preſerved evermore from all perills, to glorify thee, who art the onely giver of all victory, through the merits of thy onely Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the time of any common plague or ſickneſs.

O Almighty God; who in thy wrath didſt ſend a plague upon thine own people in the wilderneſs for their obſtinate rebellion againſt Moſes and Aaron, and alſo in the time of king David didſt ſlay with the plague of peſtilence threeſcore and ten thouſand; and yet remembring thy mercy didſt ſave the reſt; Have pity upon us miſerable ſinners, who now are viſited with great ſickneſs and mortality; that like as thou didſt then accept of an atonement, and didſt command the deſtroying Angel to ceaſe from puniſhing; ſo it may now pleaſe thee to withdraw from us this plague and grievous ſickneſs, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the Ember weeks, to be ſaid every day, for thoſe that are to be admitted into holy Orders.

ALmighty God our heavenly Father, who haſt purchaſed to thy ſelf an univerſal Church, by the precious bloud of thy dear Son; mercifully look upon the ſame, and at this time ſo guide and govern the minds of thy ſervants the Biſhops and Paſtours of thy flock, that they may lay hands ſuddenly on no man, but faithfully and wiſely make choice of fit perſons to ſerve in the ſacred Miniſtery of thy church. And to thoſe which ſhall be Ordained to any holy function, give thy grace and heavenly benediction, that both by their life and doctrin doctrin they may set forth they glory, and set forward the salvation of all men, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Or this.

ALmighty God, the giver of all good gifts, who of thy divine providence hast appointed divers orders in thy Church; Give thy grace, we humbly beseech thee, to all those who are to be called to any office and administration in the same; and so repleniſh them with the truth of thy doctrin. and endue them with Innocency of life, that they may faithfully serve before thee, to the glory of thy great Name, and the benefit of thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the High Court of Parliament, to be read during their Session.

MOst gracious God, we humbly beseech the, as for this Kingdom in general, so especially for the High Court of Parliament, under our most religious and gracious King at this time assembled: That thou wouldest be pleased to direct and prosper all their consultations to the advancement of thy glory, the good of thy Church, the safety, honour and welfare of our Soveraign and his Kingdoms; that all things may be so ordred and setled by their endeavours upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety may be establisht among us for all generations. These and all other necessaries for them for us, and thy whole Church, we humbly begin in the Name and mediation of Jesus Christ our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ A Collect or Prayer for all conditions of men; to be used at such times when the Litany is not appointed to be said.

OGod the Creator and preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men, that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them, thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Catholick Church, that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselvs Christians, may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of Spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally we commend to thy faltherly goodness all those who are any ways afflicted, or distressed in mind, body or estate: * (especially those for whom our prayers are desired) that is may please thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

* This to be said when any desire the prayer of the congregation.

¶ A Prayer that may be said after any of the former.

OGod, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy, and to forgive, receive our humble petitions; and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of thy great mercy loose us, for the honour of Jesus Christ our Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

THANKSGIVING.

* This to be said when any that have been prayed for desire to return praise.

ALmighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men. * (particulary to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them) We bless thee for our creation, preservation and all the blessings of this life; but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee give us that due sense of all thy mercies: that out hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we may shew forth thy praise, not onely with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selvs to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lard; to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ For Rain.

OGod our heavenly Father, who by thy gracious providence dost cause the former and the latter rain to descend upon the earth, that it may bring forth fruit for the use of man; We give thee humble thanks that it hath pleased thee in our great necessity to send us at the last a joyful rain upon thine inheritance, and to refresh it when it was dry, to the great comfort of us thy unworthy servants, and to the glory of thy holy Name, through thy mercies in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ For fair weather.

OLord God, who hast justly hnmbled us by thy late plague of immoderate rain and waters, and in thy mercy hast relieved and comforted our souls by this seasonable and blessed change of weather: We praise and glorify thy holy Name for this thy mercy, and will always declare thy loving kindness from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ For Plenty.

OMost merciful Father, who of thy gracious goodness hast heard the devout prayers of thy Church, and turned our dearth and scarcity into cheapness and plenty: We give thee humble thanks for this thy special bounty, beseeching thee to continue thy loving kindness unto us, that our land may yield us her fruits of increase, to thy glory and our comfort, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ For Peace and Deliverance from our enemies.

OAlmighty God, who art a strong tower of defence unto thy servants against the face of their enemies; We yield thee praise and thanksgiving for our deliverance from those great and apparent dangers wherewith we were compassed. We acknowledge it thy goodness that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them; beseeching thee still to continue such thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty deliverer; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ For restoring publick peace at home.

OEternal God our heavenly Father, who alone makest men to be of one mind in a house, and stillest the outrage of a violent and unruly people; We bless thy holy Name that it hath pleased thee to appease the seditious tumults which have been lately raised up amougst us; most humbly beseeching thee to grant to all of us grace, that we may henceforth obediently walk in thy holy commandments, and leading a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty, may continually offer unto thee our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for these thy mercies towards us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For deliverance from the plague, or other common sickness.

OLord God, who hast wounded us for our sins, and consumed us for our transgressions, by thy late heavy and dreadful visitation, and now in the midst of judgement remembring mercy, hast redeemed our souls from the jaws of death; We offer unto thy fatherly goodness our selvs, our souls and bodies, which thou hast delivered, to be a living sacrifice unto thee, always praising and magnifying thy mercies in the midst of thy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Or this.

WE humbly acknowledge before thee, O most merciful Father, that all the punishments which are threatned in thy Law, might justly have fallen upon us, by reason of our manifold transgressions and hardness of heart: Yet seeing it hath pleased thee of thy tender mercy upon our weak and unworthy humiliation, to assuage the contagious sickness, wherewith we lately have been sore afflicted, and to restore the voice of joy and health into our dwellings: we offer unto thy divine Majesty the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, lauding and magnifying thy glorious Name for such thy preservation and providence over us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHrist our passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast. Not with the old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Cor. 5. 7.

CHrist being raised from the dead dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also your selves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. 6. 9.

CHrist is risen from the dead: and become the first fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death: by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die: even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. 15. 20.

The Order for the Adminiſtration of the Lords Supper, or Holy Communion.

¶ SO many as intend to be partakers of the holy Communion, ſhall ſignify their names to the Curate at leaſt ſome time the day before.

him, that in any wise he presume not to come to the Lords table, until he hath openly declared himself to have truly repented and amended his former naughty life, that the congregation may thereby be satisfied, which before were offended, and that he hath recompensed the parties to whom he hath done wrong, or at least declare himself to be in full purpose so to do, as soon as he conveniently may.

¶ The same order shall the Curate use with those bewixt whom he perceiveth malice and hatred to reign, not suffering them to be partakers of the Lords Table, until he know them to be reconciled: And if one of the parties so at variance be content to forgive from the bottom of his heart all that the other hath trespassed against him, and to make amends for that he himself hath offended, and the other party will not be perswaded to a godly unity, but remain still in his frowardness and malice; the Minister in that case ought to admit the penitent person to the holy Communion, and not him that is obstinate. Provided that every Minister so repelling any, as is specified in this, or the next precedent Paragraph of this Rubrick, shall be obliged to give an account of the same to the Ordinary within fourteen days after at the farthest. And the Ordinary shall proceed against the offending person according to the Canon.

¶ The Table at the Communion time, having a fair white linen cloth upon it, shall stand in the body of the Church, or in the Chancel, where Morning and Evening-Prayer are appointed to be said. And the Priest standing at the north-side of the Table, shall say the Lords Prayer, with the Collect following, the people kneeling.

Collect.

ALmighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name. through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest, turning to the people. rehearse distinctly all the Ten Commandements; and the people still kneeling, shall after every Commandment ask God mercy for their transgression thereof for the time past, and grace to keep the same for the time to come, as followeth.

Minister.

GOd spake these words and said, I am the Lord thy God: Thou shalt have none other Gods but me.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not make to thy self any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above; or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: for I the Lord thy God, am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that have me, and shew mercy unto thousands in them that love me, and keep my commandments.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this Law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister.

Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son and thy daughter, thy man servant, and thy maid servant, thy cattel, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day, wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister.

Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to kerp this law.

Minister.

Thou shalt do no murther.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not steal.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighboor.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not covet they neighbours wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

People.

Lord have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts we beseech thee.

¶ Then shall follow one of these two Collects for the King, the Priest standing as before. and saying,

Let us pray.

ALmighty God, whose Kingdom is everlasting, and power infinite; Have mercy upon the whole Church, and so rule the heart of thy chosen servant James, our King and Governour, that he (knowing whose minister he is) may above all things seek thy honoor and glory; and that we and all his subjects (duely considering whose authority he hath) may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed word and ordinance, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth ever one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ Or;

ALmighty and everlasting God, we are taught by thy holy Word, that the hearts of kings are in thy rule and governance, and that thou dost dispose and turn them as in seemeth best to thy godly wisdom: We humbly beseech thee so to dispose and gonern the heart of James thy servant our King and Governour, that in all his thoughts, words and works. he may ever seek thy honour and glory, and study to preserve thy people commainted to his charge, in wealth, peace and godliness. Grant this, O merciful Father, for thy dear Sons sake Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall be said the Collect of the day. And immediately after the Collect the Priest shall read the Epistle, saying, the Epistle) or, the portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle) is written in the---Chapter of---beginning at the---verse. And the Epistle ended, he shall say, Here endeth the Epistle. Then shall he read the Gospel (the people all standing up) saying, The holy Gospel is written in the---Chapter of---beginning as the---verse. And the Gospel ended, shall be sung or said the Creed following, the people still standing, as before.

IBelieve in one God the Fathet Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible: And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the onely begotten Son of God, Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of light; Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, By whom all things were made: Who for us men, and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was burned, and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, And ascended into heaven. And sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord and giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified: Who spake by the Prophets. And I believe one Catholik & Apostolik Church I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, And I look for the resurrection of the dead, And the life of the world to come. Amen.

¶ Then the Curate shall declare unto the people what Holy days, or fasting-days, are in the week following to be observed. And then also (if occasion be) shall notice be given of the Communion; and the bans of Matrimony published; and Briefs, Citations and Excommunications read. And nothing shall be proclaimed or published in the Church, during the time of Divine Service, but by the Minister: Nor by him any thing, but what is prescribed in the Rules of this Book, or enjoyned by the King. or by the Ordinary of the place.

¶ Then shall follow the Sermon, or one of the Homilies already set forth, or hereafter to be set forth by Authority.

¶ Then shall the Priest return to the Lords Table, and begin the Offertory, saying one or more of these Sentences following, as he thinketh most convenient in his discretion.

LEt your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. S.Mat.5. 16.

Lay not up for your selvs treasure upon the earth, where the rust and moth doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for your selvs treasures in heaven, where neither rust nor moth doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through and steal. S.Mat.6. 19,20.

Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do unto them; for this is the law and the prophets. S.Mat.7. 12.

S.Mat. 7. 12. Not every one that ſaith unto me, Lord, Lord, ſhall enter into the Kingdom of heaven, but he that doth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

S.Luke 19.8 Zaccheus ſtood forth, and ſaid unto the Lord, Behold Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have done any wrong to any man, I reſtore fourfold.

1 Cor.9.7. Who goeth a warfare at any time of his own coſt? Who plantheth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? Or who feedeth a flock, & eateth not of the milk of the flock?

1 Cor.9. 11. If we have ſown unto you ſpiritual things, is it a great matter if we ſhall reap your worldly things?

1 Cor.2. 13, 14. Do ye not know that they who miniſter about holy things, live of the ſacrifice? and they who wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar? even ſo hath the Lord alſo ordained. that they who preach the Goſpel ſhould live of the Goſpel.

2 Cor. 9. 6,7. He that ſoweth little, ſhall reap little; and he that ſoweth plenteouſly, ſhall reap plenteouſly. Let every man do according as he is diſpoſed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of neceſſity; For God loveth a chearful giver.

Gal.6.6,7. Let him that is taught in the word, miniſter unto him that teach the in all good things. Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatſoever a man ſoweth that ſhall he reap.

Tob.4.7. Give alms of thy goods, and never turn thy face from any poor man, and then the face of the Lord ſhall not be turned away from thee.

Tob.4.8,9. Be merciful after thy power. If thou haſt much, give plenteouſly. If thou haſt little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little: for ſo gathereſt thou thy ſelf a good reward in the day of neceſſity.

Prov. 19. 17. He that hath pity upon the poor. lendeth unto the Lord: and look what he layeth out, it ſhall be paid him again.

Pſal.41.1. Bleſſed be the man that provideth for the ſick and needy, the Lord ſhall deliver him in the time of trouble.

¶ Whilſt theſe Sentences are in reading, the Deacons, Church-wardens, or other fit perſon appointed for that purpoſe, ſhall receive the alms for the poor, and other devotions of the people, in a decent baſin, to be provided by the Pariſh for that purpoſe. and reverently bring it to the Prieſt, who ſhall humbly preſent, and place it upon the holy table.

¶ And when there is a Communion, the Prieſt ſhall then place upon the Table ſo much Bread and Wine, as he ſhall think ſufficient. After which done the Prieſt ſhall ſay.

Let us pray for the whole ſtate of Chriſts Church militant here in earth.

ALmighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apoſtle haſt taught us to make prayers and ſupplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beſeech thee moſt mercifully ( to accept our alms and oblations, and*) to receive theſe our prayers, which we offer unto thy divine Majeſty, beſeeching thee to inſpire continually the univerſal Church with the ſpirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they that do confeſs thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity, and godly love. We beſeech thee alſo to ſave and defend all Chriſtian Kings, Princes, and Governours; and ſpecially thy ſervant James our King, that under him we may be godly and quietly governed; and grant unto his whole Councel, and to all that are put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently miniſter juſtice, to the puniſhment of wickedneſs and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true Religion and vertue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Biſhops, and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine ſet forth thy true and lively word, and rightly and duly adminiſter thy holy Sacraments: And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace, and eſpecially to this congregation here preſent, that with meek heart and due reverence they may hear and receive thy holy word, truly ſerving thee in holineſs and righteouſneſs all the days of their life. And we moſt humbly beſeech thee of thy goodneſs, O Lord, to comfort and ſuccour all them, who in this tranſitory life are in trouble, ſorrow, need, ſickneſs, or any other adverſity. And we alſo bleſs thy holy Name, for all thy ſervants departed this life in thy faith and fear, beſeeching thee to give us grace ſo to follow their good examples that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly Kingdom. Grant this, O Father; for Jeſus Chriſts ſake our onely Mediatour and advocate. Amen.

 If there be no alms or oblations, then ſhall the words (of accepting our alms oblations) be left out unſaid.*

¶ When the Miniſter giveth warning for the celebration of the holy Communion (which he ſhall always do upon a Sunday, or ſome Holiday immediately preceeding) after the Sermon, or Homily ended; he ſhall read this exhortation following.

DEarly beloved, on------day next I purpoſe, through Gods aſſiſtance to adminiſter to all ſuch as ſhall be religiouſly and devoutly diſpoſed, the moſt comfortable Sacrament of the Body and Bloud of Chriſt, to be by them received in remembrance of his meritorious croſs and paſſion, whereby alone we obtain remiſſion of our ſins, and are made partakers of the Kingdom of Heaven. Wherefore it is our duty to render moſt humble and hearty thanks to Almighty God our heavenly Father, for that he hath given his Son our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt not onely to die for us, but alſo to be our ſpiritual food and ſuſtenance in that holy Sacrament. Which being ſo divine and comfortable a thing to them who receive it worthily, and ſo dangerous to them that will preſume to receive it unworthily, my duty is to exhort you in the mean ſeaſon to conſider the dignity of that holy myſtery, and the great peril of the unworthy receiving thereof, and ſo to ſearch and examine your own conſciences, and that not lightly, and after the manner of diſſemblers with God, but ſo) that ye may come holy and clean to ſuch a heavenly feaſt, in the marriage-garment required by God in holy Scripture, and be received as worthy partakers of that holy Table.

The way and means thereto is, Firſt to examine your lives and converſations by the rule of Gods commandments; and wherein ſoever ye ſhall perceive your ſelvs to have offended, either by will, word, or deed, there to bewail your own ſinfulneſs, and to confeſs your ſelvs to Almighty God, with full purpoſe of amendment of life. And if ye ſhall perceive your offenſes to be ſuch as are not onely againſt God, but alſo againſt your neighbours, then ye ſhall reconcile your ſelvs unto them, being ready to make reſtitution and ſatisfaction according to the uttermoſt of your powers, for all injuries and wrongs don hy you to any other: and being likewiſe ready to forgive others that have offended you, as ye would have forgiveneſs of your offences at Gods hand: for otherwiſe the receiving of the holy Communion doth nothing elſe but increaſe your damnation Therefore if any of you be a blaſphemer of God, an hinderer or ſlanderer of his Word, and adulterer, or be in malice, or envy, or in any other grievous crime, repent you of your ſins, or elſe come not to that holy Table, leſt after the taking of that holy Sacrament, the devil enter into you, as he entred into Judas, and fill you full of all iniquities, and bring you to deſtruction both of body and ſoul.

And becauſe it is requiſite, that no man ſhould come to the holy Communion, but with a full truſt in Gods mercy, and with a quiet conſcience, therefore if there be any of you, who by this means cannot quiet his own conſcience herein, but requireth further comfort or counſel: let him come to me, or to ſome other diſcreet and learned Miniſter of Gods word, and open his grief, that by the miniſtery of Gods holy word he may receive the benefit of abſolution, together with ghoſtly counſel and advice, to the quieting of his conſcience, and avoiding of all ſcruple and doubtfulneſs.

¶ Or in caſe he ſhall ſee the people negligent to come to the holy Communion, inſtead of the former, he ſhall uſe this exhortation.

DEarly beloved brethren; on----I intend, by Gods grace, to celebrate the Lords Supper: unto wich in Gods behalf I bid you all that are here preſent and beſeech you for the Lord Jeſus Chriſts ſake, that ye will not refuſe to come thereto, being ſo lovingly called and bidden by God himſelf. Ye know how grievous and unkind a thing it is, when a man hath prepared a rich feaſt, decked his table with all kind of proviſion, ſo that there lacketh nothing but the gueſts to ſit down, and yet they who are called (without any cauſe) moſt unthankfully refuſe to come: Which of you in ſuch a caſe would not be moved? Who would not think a great injury and wrong don unto him? Wherefore moſt dearly beloved in Chriſt, take ye good heed, leſt ye withdrawing your ſelvs from this holy Supper, provoke Gods indignation againſt you. It is an eaſie matter for a man to ſay, I will not communicate, becauſe I am otherwiſe hindred with worldly buſineſs. But ſuch excuſes are not ſo eaſily accepted and allowed before God. If any man ſay, I am a grievous ſinner, and therefore am afraid to come: wherefore then do ye not repent and amend? When God calleth you, are ye not aſhamed to ſay you will not come? When ye ſhould return to God, will ye excuſe your ſelvs, and ſay ye are not ready? Conſider earneſtly with your ſelvs, how little ſuch feigned excuſes will avail before God. They that refuſed the feaſt in the Goſpel, becauſe they had bought a farm, or would try their yokes of oxen, or becauſe they were married, were not ſo excuſed, but counted unworthy of the heavenly feaſt. I for my part ſhall be ready, and according to mine office, I bid you in the name of God, I call you in Chriſts behalf, I exhort you, as you love your own ſalvation, that ye will be partakers of this holy Communion. And as the Son of God did vouchſafe to yield up his ſoul by death upon the Croſs for your ſalvation: ſo it is your duty to receive the Communion in remembrance of the ſacrifice of his death, as he himſelf hath commanded: Which if ye ſhall neglect to do: conſider with your ſelvs how great injury ye do unto God, and how ſore puniſhment hangeth over your heads for the ſame, when ye wilfully abſtain from the Lords Table, and ſeparate from your brethren who come to feed on the banquet of that moſt heavenly food. Theſe things if ye earneſtly conſider, ye will by Gods grace return to a better mind: for the obtaining whereof we ſhall not ceaſe to make our humble petitions unto Almighty God our heavenly Father.

¶ At the time of the celebration of the Communion, the Communicants being conveniently placed for the receiving of the holy Sacrament, the Prieſt ſhall ſay this exhortation.

DEarly beloved in the Lord, ye that mind to come to the holy Communion of the body, and bloud of our Saviour Chriſt, muſt conſider how Saint Paul exhorteth all perſons diligently to try and examine themſelvs, before they preſume to eat of that bread, and drink drink of that Cup. For as the benefit is great, if with a true penitent heart and lively faith we receive that holy Sacrament (for then we ſpiritually eat the fleſh of Chriſt; and drink his bloud, then we dwell in Chriſt, and Chriſt in us, we are one with Chriſt, and Chriſt with us:) So is the danger great, if we receive the ſame unworthily. For then we are guilty of the body and bloud of Chriſt our Saviour; we eat and drink our own damnation, nor conſidering the Lords body; we kindly Gods wrath againſt us; we provoke him to plague us with divers diſeaſes, and ſundry kinds of death. Judge therefore your ſelvs, brethren, that ye be not judged of the Lord; repent you truly for your ſins paſt; have a lively and ſtedfaſt faith in Chriſt our Saviour. amend your lives, and be in perfect charity with all men, ſo ſhall ye be meet partakers of thoſe holy myſteries. And above all things, ye muſt give moſt humble and hearty thanks to God the Father, the Son, and the holy Ghoſt, for the redemption of the world by the death and paſſion of our Saviour Chriſt, both God and man, who did humble himſelf even to the death upon the croſs, for us miſerable ſinners, who lay in darkneſs and the ſhadow of death, that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlaſting life. And to the end that we ſhould alway remember the exceeding great love of our Maſter, and onely Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, thus dying for us; and the innumerable benefits which by his precious bloud-ſhedding he hath obtained to us; he hath inſtituted and ordained holy myſteries, as pledges of his love, and for a continual remembrance of his death, to our great and endleſs comfort. To him therefore with the Father, and the holy Ghoſt, let us give (as we are moſt bounden) continual thanks, ſubmitting our ſelvs wholly to his holy will and pleaſure, and ſtudying to ſerve him in true holineſs and righteouſneſs all the days of our life. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay to them that come to receive the holy Communion.

YE that do truly and earneſtly repent you of your ſins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God. and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort: and make your humble confeſſion to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

¶ Then ſhall this general confeſſion be made in the name of all thoſe that are minded to receive the holy Communion, by one of the Miniſters both he and all the people kneeling humbly upon their knees, and ſaying.

ALmighty God, Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold ſins and wickedneſs, which we from time to time moſt grievouſly have committed, By tought, word, and deed. Againſt thy divine Majeſty, Provoking moſt juſtly thy wrath and indignation againſt us. we do earneſtly repent, And are heartily ſorry for theſe our miſdoings; The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us. Moſt merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jeſus Chriſts ſake, Forgive us all that is paſt, And grant, that we may ever hereafter Serve and pleaſe thee in newneſs of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name, Through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt, (or the Biſhop, being preſent) ſtand up, and turning himſelf to the people, pronounce this Abſolution.

ALmighty God, our heavenly Father; who of his great mercy hath promiſed forgiveneſs of ſins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your ſins; confirm and ſtrengthen you in all goodneſs, and bring you to everlaſting life, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay.

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Chriſt ſaith vnto all that truly turn to him.

S. Mat. 11. 28. COme unto me all that travel and are heavy laden, and I will refreſh you.

S. John 3. 16. So God loved the world. that he gave his onely begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him ſhould not periſh, but have everlaſting life.

Hear alſo what S. Paul ſaith.

1 Tim. 1. 15. This is a true ſaying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Jeſus Chriſt came into the world to ſave ſinners.

Hear alſo what S. John ſaith.

1 S. John 2. 1. If any man ſin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jeſus Chriſt the righteous, and he is the propitiation for our ſins.

¶ After which the Prieſt ſhall proceed, ſaying.

Lift up your hearts.

Anſw. We lift them up unto the Lord.

Prieſt. Let us give thanks unto the Lord God.

Anſw. It is meet and right ſo to do.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt turn to the Lords Table, and ſay.

IT is very meet, right, and our bounden duty; that we ſhould all times, and in all places give thanks unto thee, O Lord, *holy Father, Almighty, everlaſting God.

* Theſe words (Holy Father) muſt be omitted on Trinity Sunday.

¶ Here ſhall follow the proper preface, according to the time, if there be any ſpecially appointed: or elſe immediately ſhall follow.

THerefore with Angels and archangels. and with all the company of heaven, we laud magnify thy glorious Name, evermore praiſing thee, and ſaying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hoſts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord moſt high. Amen.

¶ Proper Prefaces.

¶ Upon Chriſtmas-day, and ſeven days after.

BEcauſe thou didſt give Jeſus Chriſt thine onely Son, to be born as at this time for us, who by the operation of the Holy Ghoſt was made very man of the ſubſtance of the Virgin Mary his mother, and that without ſpot of ſin, to make us clean from all ſin. Therefore with Angels. &c.

¶ Upon Eaſter-day. and ſeven days after.

BUt chiefly are we bound to praiſe thee for the glorious reſurrection of thy Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, for he is the very paſchal Lamb which was offered for us, and hath taken away the ſin of the world, who by his death hath deſtroyed death, and by his riſing to life again, hath reſtored to us everlaſting life. Therefore, &c.

¶ Upon Aſcenſion-day; and ſeven days after.

THrough thy moſt dearly beloved Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, who after his moſt glorious reſurrection, manifeſtly appeared to all his Apoſtles, and in their ſight aſcended up into heaven to prepare a p'ace for us; that were he is, thither we might alſo aſcend, and reign with him in glory. Therefore, &c.

¶ Upon Whitſunday, and ſix days after.

THrough Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, according to whoſe moſt true promiſe the Holy Ghoſt came down as at this time from heaven with a ſudden great ſound, as it had been a mighty wind, in the likeneſs of fiery tongues, lighting upon the Apoſtles, to teach them, and to lead them to all truth, giving them both the gift of divers languages, and alſo boldneſs with fervent zeal, conſtantly to preach the Goſpel unto all nations, whereby we have been brought out of darkneſs and errour, into the clear light and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jeſus Chriſt. Therefore with Angels, &c.

WHo art one God, one Lord; not one onely perſon, but three perſons in one ſubſtance. For that which we believe of the glory of the Father, the ſame we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoſt, without any difference or inequality. Therefore, &c.

¶ After each of which Prefaces: ſhall immediately be ſung or ſaid.

THerefore with angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name, evermore praiſing thee, and ſaying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hoſts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord moſt High. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt kneeling down at the Lords Table, ſay in the name of all them that ſhall receive the Communion, this Prayer following.

WE do not preſume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, truſting in our own righteouſneſs, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy ſo much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the ſame Lord, whoſe property is always to have mercy; Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, ſo to eat the fleſh of thy Son Jeſus Chriſt, and to drink his bloud, that our ſinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our ſouls waſhed through his moſt precious bloud, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

¶ When the Prieſt, ſtanding before the Table, hath ſo ordered the Bread and wine that he may with the more readineſs and decency break the bread before the people, and take the cup into his hands, he ſhall ſay the Prayer of conſecration, as followeth.

ALmighty God. our heavenly Father; who of thy tender mercy didſt give thine onely Son Jeſus Chriſt to ſuffer death upon the croſs for our redemption. who made there (by his own oblation of himſelf once offered) a full, perfect, and ſufficient ſacrifice; oblation and ſatisfaction for the ſins of the whole world, and did inſtitute, and in his holy Goſpel command us to continue a perpetual memory of that his precious death, until his coming again; Hear us, O merciful Father; we moſt humbly beſeech thee, and grant that we receiving theſe thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jeſus Chriſts holy inſtution, in remembrance of his death and paſſion, may be partakers of his moſt bleſſed body and bloud: who in the ſame night that he was betrayed † took bread, and when he had given thanks, * he brake it, and gave it to his diſciples, ſaying, Take, eat, ‖ this is my body which is given for you, do this in remembrance of me. Likewiſe after ſupper, * he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, ſaying, Drink ye all of this; for this † is my bloud of the New Teſtament, which is ſhed for you, and for many for the remiſſion of ſins: Do this, as oft as ye ſhall drink it, in remembrance of me. Amen.

* And here to break the bread.

‖ And here to lay his hand upon all the bread; * Here he is to take the cup into his hand; † And here to lay his hand upon every veſſel (be it Chalice or Flagon,) in which there is any wine to be conſecrated.

¶ Then ſhall the Miniſter firſt receive the Communion in both kinds himſelf, and then proceed to deliver the ſame to the Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons in like manner (if any be preſent) and after that, to the people in order, into their hands, all meekly kneeling. And when he delivereth the bread to any one, he ſhall ſay,

THE body of our Lord Jeſus Chriſts; which was given for thee; preſerve thy body and ſoul unto everlaſting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Chriſt died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith with thankſgiving.

¶ And

¶ And the Minister that delivereth the cup to any one shall say,

THe bloud of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christs bloud was shed for thee, and be thankful.

¶ If the consecrated bread or wine be all spent before all have communicated; the Priest is to consecrate more according to the form before prescribed: beginning at (Our Saviour Christ in the same night, &c.) for the blessing of the bread; and at (Likewise after supper, &c.) for the blessing of the cup.

¶ When all have communicated, the Minister shall return to the Lords Table, and reverently place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated Elements, covering the same with a fair linencloth.

¶ Then shall the Priest say the Lords Prayer; the people repeating after him every Petition.

OUr Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. The kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ After shall be said as followeth.

O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy humble servants entirely desire thy Fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the mercies and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his bloud, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selvs, our souls and bodies to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sacrifice unto thee: humbly beseeching thee, that all we who are partakers of this holy Communion, may be fulfilled with thy grace and heavenly benedictions. And although we be unworthy through our manifold sins to offer unto thee any sacrifice; yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom; in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

¶ Or this.

ALmighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee: for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us, who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious body and bloud of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us, and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of the most precious death and passion of thy dear Son. And we most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall be said or sung.

GLory be to God on high, and in earth peace. good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the onely begotten Son Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou onely art holy, thou onely art the Lord, thou onely, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest (or Bishop, if he be present) shall let them depart with this blessing.

THe Peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

¶ Collects to be said after the Offertory, when there is no Communion every such day one, or more; and the same may be said also, as often as occasion shall serve, after the Collects either of Morning or Evening-Prayer, Communion, or Litany, by the discretion of the Minister.

ASsist us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers; and dispose the way of thy servants, towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by thy most gracious and ready help, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OAlmighty Lord; and everlasting God, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to direct, sanctify, and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of thy laws, and in the works of thy commandments, that through thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

GRant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may through thy grace be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honour and praise of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRevent us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favour, and further us with thy continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking; we beseech thee to have compassion upon our infirmities: and those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, vouchsafe to give us for the worthiness of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Sons Name; We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee; and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Upon the Sundays and other holy days (if there be no Communion) shall be said all that is appointed at the Communion, until the end of the general prayer, (For the good estate of the Catholick Church of Christ) together with one or more of the Collects last before rehearsed, concluding with the blessing.

¶ And here shall be no celeberation of the Lords Supper, except there be a convenient number to communicate with the Priest, according to his discretion.

¶ And if there be not above twenty persons in the Parish, of discretion to receive the Communion, yet there shall be no Communion; except four (or three at the least) communicate with the Priest.

¶ And in Cathedral and Collegiate Churches and Colledges, where there are many Priests and Deacons, they shall all receive the Communion with the Priest every Sunday at the least, except they have a reasonable cause to the contrary.

¶ And to take away all occasion of dissension; and superstition which any person hath, or might have concerning the bread and wine, it shall suffice that the bread be such as is usual to be eaten, but the best and purest wheat bread that conveniently may be gotten.

¶ And if any of the bread and wine remain unconsecrated, the Curate shall have it to his own use: but if any remain of that which was consecrated, it shall not be carried out of the Church, but the Priest, and such other of the Communicants, as he shall then call unto him, shall immediately after the blessing, reverently eat and drink the same.

¶ The bread and wine for the Communion shall be provided by the Curate and the Church-wardens, at the charges of the Parish.

¶ And note, that every Parishioner shall communicate at the least three times in the year, of which Easter to be one. And yearly at Easter every Parishioner shall reckon with the Parson. Vicar, or Curate, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, and pay to them or him all Ecclesiastical duties, accustomably due then, and at that time to be paid.

¶ After the Divine Service ended, the money given at the Offertory, shall be disposed of to such pious and charitable uses as the Minister and Church-wardens shall think fit, Wherein if they disagree, it shall be disposed of as the Ordinary shall appoint.

WHereas it is ordained in this Office for the Administration of the Lords Supper, that the Communicants should receive the same kneeling; (which Order is well meant, for a signification of our humble and grateful acknowledgement of the benefits of Christ therein given to all worthy Receivers, and for the avoiding of such profanation, and disorder in the holy Communion, as might otherwise ensue) Yet, lest the same kneeling should by any persons, either out of ignorance, and infirmity, or out of malice and obstinacy, be mis construed and depraved: It is here declared, that thereby no Adoration is intended, or ought to be don, either unto the Sacramental bread and wine, there bodily received, or unto any Corporal Presence of Christs natural Flesh and Blood. For the Sacramental bread and wine remain still in their very Natural Substances, and therefore may not be adored, (for that were Idolatry to be abhorred of all faithful Christians) And the Natural Body and Blood of our Saviour Christs are in Heaven, and not here; it being against the truth of Christs Natural Body, to be at one time in more places than one.

The Ministration of Publick Baptism of Infants to be used in the Church,

¶ THe people are to be admonished, that it is most convenient that Baptism should not be administred but upon Sundays and other Holy days, when the most number of people come together: as well for that the Congation there present may testify the receiving of them that be newly baptized into the number of Christs Church; as also because in the Baptism of Infants, every man present may be put in remembrance of his own profession made to

God

God in his Baptiſm. For which cauſe alſo it is expedient that Baptiſm be miniſtred in the vulgar tongue. Neverthelеſs (if neceſſity ſo require) children may be baptized upon any other day.

¶ And note, that there ſhall be for every male child to be baptized two Godfathers and one Godmother; and for every female, one Godfather, and two Godmothers.

¶ When there are children to be baptized, the Parents ſhall give knowledge thereof over night, or in the morning before the beginning of Morning-Prayer to the Curate. And then the Godfathers and Godmothers, and the People, with the Children, muſt be ready at the Font, either immediately after the laſt Leſſon at Morning-Prayer, or elſe immediately after the laſt Leſſon at Euening-Prayer, as the Curate by his diſcretion ſhall appoint. And the Prieſt coming to the Font (which is then to be filled with pure water) and ſtanding there ſhall ſay, Hath this child been already baptized, or no?

¶ If they anſwer, No: Then ſhall the Prieſt proceed as followeth.

DEarly beloved, for as much as all men are conceived and born in ſin, and that our Saviour Chriſt ſaith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of water and of the Holy Ghoſt; I beſeech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that of his bounteous mercy he will grant to this child that thing which by nature he cannot have, that he may be baptized with water and the Holy Ghoſt and received into Chriſts holy Church, and be made a lively member of the ſame.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay,

Let us Pray.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, who of thy great mercy didſt ſave Noah and his family in the ark from periſhing by water, and alſo didſt ſafely lead the children of Iſrael thy people through the red ſea, figuring thereby thy holy baptiſm, and by the baptiſm of thy well beloved Son Jeſus Chriſt in the river Jordan didſt ſanctify water to the myſtical waſhing away of ſin; We beſeech thee for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifu'ly look upon this child; waſh him and ſanctify him with the Holy Ghoſt, that he being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the ark of Chriſts Church; and being ſtedfaſt in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in charity, may ſo paſs the waves of this troubleſom world, that finally he may come to the land of everlaſting life; there to reign with thee world without end, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty and immortal God, the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for ſuccour, the life of them that believe, and the reſurrection of the dead: We call upon thee for this infant, that he coming to thy holy baptiſm, may receive remiſſion of his ſins by ſpiritual regeneration. Receive him, O Lord, as thou haſt promiſed by thy well-beloved Son, ſaying, Ask, and ye ſhall have; ſeek, and ye ſhall find; knock, and it ſhall be opened unto you: So give now unto us that ask; let us that ſeek find; open the gate unto us that knock, that this infant may enjoy the everlaſting benediction of thy heavenly waſhing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou haſt promiſed by Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the people ſtand up, and the Prieſt ſhall ſay,

Hear the words of the Goſpel written by Saint Mark, in the tenth Chapter, at the thirteenth verſe.

S. Mark. 10. 13. THey brought young children to Chriſt, that he ſhould touch them, and his diſciples rebuked thoſe that brought them. But when Jeſus ſaw it, he was much diſpleaſed, and ſaid unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of ſuch is the kingdom of God. Verily I ſay unto you, Whoſoever ſhall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he ſhall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and bleſſed them.

¶ After the Goſpel is read, the Miniſter ſhall make this brief exhortation upon the words of the Goſpel.

BEloved, ye hear in this Goſpel the words of our Saviour Chriſt, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him, how he blamed thoſe that would have kept them from him; how he exhorted all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how by his outward geſture and deed he declared his good will toward them, for he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and bleſſed them. Doubt ye not therefore but earneſtly believe, that he will likewiſe favourably receive this preſent infant, that he will embrace him with the arms of his mercy, that he will unto give him the bleſſings of eternal life, and make him partaker of his everlaſting kingdom. Wherefore we being thus perſwaded of the good will of our heavenly Father towards this infant, declared by his Son Jeſus Chriſt, and nothing doubting but that he favourably alloweth this charitable work of ours, in bringing this infant to his holy baptiſm, let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and ſay,

ALmighty and everlaſting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks that thou haſt vouchſafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace and faith in thee; Increaſe this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy holy Spirit to this infant, that he may be born again, and be made an heir of everlaſting ſalvation, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſpeak unto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wiſe.

DEarly beloved, ye have brought this child here to be baptized, ye have prayed that our Lord Jeſus Chriſt would vouchſave to receive him, to releaſe him of his ſins, to ſanctify him with the Holy Ghoſt, to give him the kingdom of heaven, and everlaſting life. Ye have heard alſo that our Lord Jeſus Chriſt hath promiſed in his Goſpel to grant all theſe things that ye have prayed for: which promiſe he for his part will moſt ſurely keep and perform. Wherefore after this promiſe made by Chriſt, this infant muſt alſo faithfully for his part, promiſe by you that are his ſureties (until he come of age to take it upon himſelf) that he will renounce the devil and all his works, and conſtantly believe Gods holy word, and obediently keep his Commandments.

I demand therefore,

DOſt thou in the name of this child renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous deſires of the ſame, and the carnal deſires of the fleſh, ſo that thou wilt nor follow nor be led by them?

Anſwer.

I renounce them all.

Miniſter.

DOſt thou believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth?

And in Jeſus Chriſt his onely begotten Son our Lord, and that he was conceived by the Holy Ghoſt, Born of the Virgin Mary, that he ſuffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; that he went down into hell, and alſo did riſe again the third day; that he aſcended into heaven, and ſitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; and from thence ſhall come again at the end of the world to judge the quick and the dead?

And doſt thou believe in the Holy Ghoſt; The holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; The remiſſion of ſins; The reſurrection of the fleſh; and everlaſting life after death?

Anſwer.

All this I ſtedfaſtly believe.

Miniſter.

WIlt thou be baptized in this faith?

Anſwer.

That is my deſire.

Miniſter.

WIlt thou then obediently keep Gods holy will and commandments, and walk in the ſame all the days of thy life?

Anſwer.

I will.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay,

OMerciful God, grant that the old Adam in this child may be ſo buried, that the new man may be raiſed up in him, Amen.

Grant that all carnal affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit, may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have power and ſtrength to have victory, and to triumph againſt the devil, the world, and the fleſh. Amen.

Grant that whoſoever is here dedicated to thee by our office and miniſtry, may alſo be indued with heavenly vertues, and everlaſtingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O bleſſed Lord God, who doſt live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

ALmighty everliving God, whoſe moſt dearly beloved Son Jeſus Chriſt, for the forgiveneſs of our ſins, did ſhed out of his moſt precious ſide both water & bloud, and gave commandment to his diſciples, that they ſhould go teach all nations, and baptize them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoſt; Regard, we beſeech thee, the ſupplications of thy congregation, ſanctify this water to the myſtical waſhing away of ſin: and grant that this child now to be baptized therein; may receive the fulneſs of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the prieſt ſhall take the child into his hands, and ſhall ſay to the Godfathers and Godmothers.

Name this child.

And then naming it after them (if they ſhall certify him that the child may well endure it) he ſhall dip it in the water diſcreetly and warily, ſaying,

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoſt. Amen.

¶ But if they certifie that the child is weak, it ſhall ſuffice to pour water upon it, ſaying the ſaid words.

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoſt. Amen.

¶ Then the Prieſt ſhall ſay,

WE receive this child into the congregation of Chriſts flock, * and do ſign him with the ſign of the croſs, in token that hereafter he ſhall not be aſhamed to confeſs the faith of Chriſt crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, againſt ſin, the world, and the devil, and to continue Chriſts faithful ſouldier and ſervant unto his lives end.

* Here the Prieſt ſhall make a croſs upon the childs forehead.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay,

SEeing now, dearly beloved brethren, that this child is regenerate and grafted into the body of Chriſts Church, let us give thanks unto Almighty God for theſe benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that this child may lead the reſt of his life according to this beginning.

¶ Then ſhall be ſaid, all kneeling,

OUr Father which art in heaven: Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, As we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay,

WE yield thee hearty thanks, moſt merciful Father, that is hath pleaſed thee to regenerate this Infant with thy Holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And humbly we beſeech thee to grant, that he being dead unto ſin, and living unto righteouſneſs, and being buried with Chriſt in his death, may crucify the old man, and utterly abolish the whole body of ſin, and that as he is made partaker of the death of thy Son, he may alſo be partaker of his reſurrection; ſo that finally with the reſidue of thy holy Church, he may be an inheritor of thine everlaſting kingdom, through Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then all ſtanding up, the Prieſt ſhall ſay to the God fathers and God-mothers this exhortatson following.

FOraſmuch as this Child hath promiſed by you his ſureties, to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to ſerve him; ye muſt remember, that it is your parts and duties to ſee that this Infant be taught, ſo ſoon as it ſhall be able to learn, what a ſolemn vow, promiſe and profeſſion he hath here made by you. And that he may know theſe things the better; ye ſhall call upon him to hear Sermons, and chiefly ye ſhall provide that he may learn the Creed the Lords Prayer, and the ten Commandments in the vulgar tongue, and all other things which a Chriſtian ought to know and believe to his ſouls health; and that this child may be vertuouſly brought op to lead a godly and a Chriſtian life; remembring always that baptiſm doth repreſent unto us our profeſſion, which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Chriſt, and to be made like unto him: that as the died and roſe again for us; ſo ſhould we who are baptized, die from ſin, and riſe again unto righteouſneſs, continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godlineſs of living.

¶ Then ſhall he add and ſay,

YE are to take care that this child be brought to the Biſhop to be confirmed by him, ſo ſoon as he can ſay the Creed, the Lords Prayer, and the ten Commandments in the vulgar Tongue; and be further inſtructed in the Church Catechiſm ſet forth to that purpoſe.

IT is certain by Gods word, that children which are baptized, dying before they commit actual ſin, are undoubtedly ſaved.

TO take away all ſcruple concerning the uſe of the ſign of the Croſs in Baptiſm; the true Explication thereof, and the juſt reaſons for the retaining of it, may be ſeen in the thirtieth Canon, firſt publiſhed in the year MDCIV.

The Miniſtration of Private Baptiſm of Children in Houſes.

¶ THe Curates of every Pariſh ſhall often admoniſh the people, that they defer not the Baptiſm of their children longer then the firſt or ſecond Sunday next after their birth, or other Holiday falling between, unleſs upon a great ander aſonable cauſe, to be approved by the Curate.

¶ And alſo they ſhall warn them, that without like great cauſe and neceſſity they procure not their children to be baptized at home in their houſes; But when need ſhall compel them ſo to do, then Baptiſm ſhall be adminiſtred on this faſhion.

¶ Firſt let the Miniſter of the Pariſh (or in his abſence any other lawful Miniſter that can be procured) with them that are preſent, call upon God, and ſay the Lords Prayer, and ſo many of the Collects appointed to be ſaid before in the Form of Publick Baptiſm, as the time and preſent exigence will ſuffer: And then the child being named by ſome one that is preſent, the Miniſter ſhall pour water upon it, ſaying theſe words,

NI baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoſt. Amen.

¶ Then all kneeling down, the Miniſter ſhall give thanks unto God, and ſay,

WE yield thee hearty thanks, moſt merciful Father, that is hath pleaſed thee to regenerate this infant with thy Holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And we humbly beſeech thee to grant, that as he is now made partaker of the death of thy Son, ſo he may be alſo of his reſurrection: And that finally with the reſidue of thy Saints he may inherit thine everlaſting Kingdom, through the ſame thy Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ And let them not doubt, but that the child ſo baptized is lawfully and ſufficiently baptized, and ought not to be baptized again. Yet nevertheleſs, if the child which is after this ſort baptized, do afterward live, it is expedient that is be brought into the Church, to the intent that if the Miniſter of the ſame Pariſh did himſelf baptize that child, the Congregation may be certified of the true form of Baptiſm, by him privately before uſed: In which caſe he ſhall ſay thus,

I certify you, that according to the due aud preſcribed order of the Church, at ſuch a time, and at ſuch a place, before divers witneſſes I baptized this child.

¶ BUt if the child were baptized by any other lawful Miniſter, then the Miniſter of the Pariſh where the child was born or chriſtned, ſhall examine and try whether the child be lawfully baptized, or no. In which caſe, of thoſe that bring any child to the Church, do anſwer that the ſame child is already baptized, then ſhall the Miniſter examine them further, ſaying;

BY whom was this child baptized?

Who was preſen: when this childe was baptized?

Becauſe ſome things eſſential to this ſacrament may happen to be omitted through fear or haſte, in ſuch times of extremity; therefore I demand further of you.

With what matter was this child baptized?

With what words was this child baptized?

¶ And if the Miniſter ſhall finde by the anſwers of ſuch as bring the child, that all things were done as they ought to be; then ſhall not he Chriſten the child again, but ſhall receive him as one of the flock of true Chriſtian people, ſaying thus.

ICertify you, that in this caſe all is well done, and according unto due order, concerning the baptizing of this child; who being born in orginal ſin, and in the wrath of God, is now by the laver of Regeneration in Baptiſm received into the number of the children of God, and heirs of everlaſting life: For our Lord Jeſus Chriſt doth not deny his grace and mercy unto ſuch infants, but moſt lovingly doth call them unto him, as the holy Goſpel doth witneſs to our comfort on this wiſe.

The Goſpel. S. Mark 10.13.

THey brought young children to Chriſt, that he ſhould touch them, and his diſciples rebuked thoſe that brought them. But when Jeſus ſaw it, he was much diſpleaſed, and ſaid unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of ſuch is the kingdom of God. Verily I ſay unto you, whoſoever ſhall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he ſhall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and bleſſed them.

BEloved; ye hear in this Goſpel the words of our Saviour Chriſt, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him, how he blamed thoſe that would have kept them from him, how he exhorted all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how by his outward geſture and deed he declared his good will toward them; for he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and bleſſed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earneſtly believe, that he hath likewiſe favourably received this preſent infant that he hath embraced him with the arms of his mercy, and (as he hath promiſed in his holy word) will give unto him the bleſſing of eternal life, and make him partaker of his everlaſting kingdom. Wherefore we being thus perſwaded of the good will of our heavenly Father, declared by his Son Jeſus Chriſt towards this infant, let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and ſay the Prayer which the Lord himſelf taught us.

OUr Father which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes. As we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, heavenly Father; we give thee humble thanks, that thou haſt vouchſafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace and faith in thee: Increaſe this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to this infant, that he being born again, and being made an heir of everlaſting ſalvation, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, may continue thy ſervant, and attain thy promiſe, through the ſame our Lord Jeſus Chriſt thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit; now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt demand the name of the child, which being by the God fathers and Godmothers pronounced, the Miniſter ſhall ſay, DOſt thou in the name of this child renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of this world, with all covetous deſires of the ſame, and the carnal deſires of the fleſh, ſo that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Anſw. I renounce them all.

Miniſter.

DOſt thou believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth?

And in Jeſus Chriſt his onely begotten Son our Lord? and that he was conceived by the Holy Ghoſt, born of the Virgin Mary; that he ſuffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; that he went down into hell, and alſo did riſe again the third day; that he aſcended into heaven, and ſitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty: and from thence ſhall come again at the end of the world to judge the quick and the dead?

And doſt thou believe in the Holy Ghoſt, the holy Catholick Church, the Communion of Saints, the remiſſion of ſins, the reſurrection of the fleſh, and everlaſting life after death?

Anſwer.

All this I ſtedfaſtly believe.

Miniſter.

WIlt thou then obediently keep Gods holy will and Commandments, and walk in the ſame all the days of thy life?

Anſwer.

Answer.

I will.

Then the Priest shall say.

WE receive this child into the congregation of Christs flock, and do * sign him with the sign of the cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner against sin; the world; and the devil, and to continue Christs faithful souldier and servant unto his lives end. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say,

SEeing now, dearly beloved brethren, that this child is by baptism regenerate and grafted into the body of Christs Church, let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits, and with one accord make our Prayers unto him, that he may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

WE yield thee most hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that is hath pleased thee to regenerate this infant with thy holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And humbly we beseech thee to grant, that he being dead unto sin, and living unto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may crucify the old man, and utterly abolish the whole body of sin, and that as he is made partaker of the death of thy Son, he may also be partaker of his resurrection: so that, finally with the residue of thy holy Church, he may be an inheritour of thine everlasting Kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then all standing up, the Minister shall make this exhortation to the Godfathers and Godmothers.

FOrasmuch as this child hath promised by you his sureties, to renounce the divil and all his works, to believe in God; and to serve him; ye must remember that it is your parts and duties, to see that this infant be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what a solemn vow, promise and profession he hath made by you. And that he may know these things the better, ye shall call upon him to hear Sermons, and chiefly ye shall provide that he may learn the Creed, the Lords Prayer; and the Ten Commandments in the vulgar tongue, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his souls health; and that this child may be vertuously brought up to lead a godly and a Christian life; remembring alway, that Baptism doth represent unto us our profession, which is to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and be made like unto him; that as he died and rose again for us; so should we who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness, continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godliness of living.

¶ BUt if they which bring the infant to the Church do make such uncertain answers to the Priests questions, as that it cannot appear that the child was baptized with water; In the Name of the Father. and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost (which are essential parts of Baptism) then let the Priest baptize it in the form before appointed for Publick Baptism of Infants: saving that at the dipping of the child in the Font, he shall use this form of words.

IF thou art not already baptized, N. I baptize thee, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Ministration of Baptism to such as are Riper years, and able to answer for themselvs.

WHen any such persons as are of Riper years are to be baptized, timely notice shall be given to the Bishop, or whom he shall appoint for that purpose, a week before at the least, by the Parents, or some other discreet persons; that so due care may be taken for their examination, whether they be sufficiently instructied in the Principles of tht Christian Religion; and that they may be exhorted to prepare themselvs with Prayer and Fasting for the receiving of this holy Sacrament.

¶ And if they shall be found fit, then the Godfathers and Godmothers (the people being assembled upon the Sunday or Holiday appointed) shall be ready to present them at the Font immediately after the second Lesson, either at Morning or Evening-Prayer, as the Curate in his discretion shall think fit.

¶ And standing there, the Priest shall ask whether of the persons here presented, be baptized, or no: If they shall answer, No. then shall the Priest say thus.

DEarly beloved; Forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin, (and that which is born of the flesh; is flesh] and they that are in the flesh cannot please God, but live in sin, committing many actual trangressions; and that our Saviour Christ saith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of water, and the Holy Ghost: I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous goodness he will grant to these persons that which by nature they cannot have, that they may be baptized with water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christs holy Church, and be made lively members of the same.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

Let us pray.

And here all the Congregation shall kneel,

ALmighty and everlasting God, who of thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water; and also didst safely lead the children of Israel thy people through the Red sea, figuring thereby thy holy baptism; and by the baptism of thy welbeloved Son Jesus Christ in the river Jordan, did sanctify the element of water to the mystical washing away of sin: We beseech thee for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon these thy servants, wash them and sanctify them with the Holy Ghost, that they being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the ark of Christs Church; and being stedfast in faith, joyful throug hope, and rooted in charity, may so pass the waves of this troublesom world, that finally they may come to the land of everlasting life; there to reign with thee world without end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty and immortal God; the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for succour; the life of them that believe, and the resurrection of the dead; We call upon thee for these persons, that they coming to thy holy baptism, may receive remission of their sins by spiritual regeneration. Receive them, O Lord, and as thou hast promised by the wel-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall receive; seek, and ye shall find; Knock, and it shall be opened unto you: So give now unto us that ask; let us that seek find; open the gate unto us that knock, that these persons may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the people stand up, and the Priest shall say,

Hear the words of the Gospel written by Saint John, in the third Chapter, beginning at the first verse.

THere was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. The same came to Jesus by night; and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou dost, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mothers womb, and be born; Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is Spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou heareſt the sound thereof; but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whiter is goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

BEloved, ye hear in this Gospel the expres works of our Saviour Christ, that except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Whereby ye may perceive the great necessity of this Sacrament, where it may be had. Likewise immediately before his ascension into heaven (as we read in the last Chapter of Saint Marks Gospel,) he gave command to his desciples, saying, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be sayed; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Which also sheweth unto us the great benefit we reap thereby. For which cause Saint Peter the Apostle. when upon his first preaching of the Gospel many were pricked at the heart; and said to him and the rest of the Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do; replied and said unto them, Repent and be baptized every one of you for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is to you and your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words exhorted he them, saying, Save your selvs from this untoward generation. For (as the same Apostle testifieth in another place) even baptism doth also now save us, (not the putting away of the filth of flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe that he will favourably receive these present persons, truly repenting and coming unto him by faith, that he will grant them remission of their sins, and bestow upon them the Holy Ghost, that he will give the blessing of eternal life, and make them partakers of his everlasting kingdom.

Wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good will of our heavenly Father towards these persons, declared by this Son Jesus Christ, let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks to him, and say,

ALmighty and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, for that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace and faith in thee. Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy holy Spirit to these persons, that they may be born again, and be made heirs of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest speak to the persons to be baptized on this wise.

WEl-beloved; who are come hither desiring to receive holy Baptism, ye have heard how the congregation hath prayed, that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive you: and bless you; to releaſe you of your ſins, to give you the kingdom of heaven, and everlaſting life. Ye have heard alſo that our Lord Jeſus Chriſt hath promiſed in his holy word to grant all thoſe things that we have prayed for: which promiſe he for his will part moſt ſurely keep and perform.

Wherefore after his promiſe made by Chriſt; ye muſt alſo faithfully for your part, promiſe in the preſence of theſe your witneſſes, and this whole congregation, that ye will renounce the devil and all his works, and conſtantly believe Gods holy word, and obediently keep his Commandments.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt demand of each of the perſons to be baptized ſeverally, theſe queſtions following.

Queſtions.

DOſt thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous deſire of the ſame, and the carnal deſires of the fleſh, ſo that thou wilt not follow nor be led by them:

Anſwer. I ronounce them all.

Queſtion.

DOſt thou believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jeſus Chriſt his onely begotten Son our Lord; and that he was conceived by the Holy Ghoſt; born of the Virgin mary; that he ſuffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead and buried; that he went down into hell, and alſo did riſe again the third day; that he aſcended into heaven, and ſitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty: and from thence ſhall come again at the end of the world to judge the quick and the dead;

And doſt thou believe in the Holy Ghoſt; The holy Catholik Church; The Communion of Saints; The remiſſion of ſins; The reſurrection of the fleſh; and everlaſting life after death;

Anſwer.

All this I ſtedfaſtly believe.

Queſtion.

WIlt thou be baptized in this faith;

Anſwer. That is my deſire.

Queſtion.

WIlt thou then obediently keep Gods holy will and commandments, and walk in the ſame all the days of thy life;

Anſwer.

I will endeavour ſo to do, God being my helper.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay,

OMerciful God, grant that the old Adam in theſe perſons may be ſo buried, that the new man may be raiſed up in them. Amen.

Grant that all carnal affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the Spirit, may live and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may have power and ſtrength to have victory, and to triumph againſt the devil, the world, and the fleſh. Amen.

Grant that they being here dedicated to thee by our office and miniſtry, alſo be indued with heavenly vertues, and everlaſtingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O bleſſed Lord God, who doſt live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

ALmighty everliving God, whoſe moſt dearly beloved Son Jeſus Chriſt, for the forgiveneſ of our ſins, did ſhed out of his moſt precious ſide both water and blood and gave commandment to his diſciples, that they ſhould go teach all nations, and baptize them in the Name of the Father; and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoſt; Regard we beſeech thee, the ſupplications of this congregation, ſanctifie this water to be myſtical waſhing away of ſin: and grant that the perſons now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulneſs of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt take each perſons to be baptized by the right hand, and placing him conveniently by the Font, according to his diſcretion, ſhall ask the Godfathers and Godmothers the name; and then ſhall dip him in the water, or pour water upon him, ſaying,

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoſt. Amen.

WE yield thee humble thanks O heavenly Father, that thou haſt vouchſafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace and faith in thee; Increaſe the knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give they holy Spirit to thoſe perſons, that being now born again, and made heirs of everlaſting ſalvation through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, they may continue the ſervants, and attain thy promiſes, through the ſame Lord Jeſus Chriſt thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the ſame holy Spirit everlaſting. Amen.

FOraſmuch as theſe perſons have promiſed in your preſence to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to ſerve him; ye muſt remember, that it is your part and duty to put them in mind what a ſolemn vow, promiſe and profeſſion they have now made before this Congregation, and eſpecially before you their choſen witneſſes. And ye are alſo to call upon them to uſe all deligence to be rightly inſtructed in Gods Holy word, that ſo they may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord Jeſus chriſt, and live godly, righteouſly an ſoberly in this preſent world.

AND as for you, who have now by Baptiſm put on Chriſt, it is your part and duty alſo, being made the children of God; and of the light by faith in Jeſus Chriſt; to walk anſwerably to your Chriſtian calling, and as becometh the children of light; remembring always that Baptiſm repreſenteth unto us our profeſſion; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Chriſt, and to be made like unto him; that as he died, and roſe again for us; ſo ſhould we who are baptized; die from ſin, and riſe again unto righteouſneſs, continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godlineſs of living.

¶ It is expedient that every perſon thus baptized ſhould be confirmed by the Biſhop ſo ſoon after his Baptiſm as conveniently may be; that ſo he may be admitted to the holy Communion.

¶ If any perſon not baptized in their infancy, ſhall be brought to be baptized before they come to years of diſcretion to anſwer for themſelvs; it may ſuffice to uſe the Office of Publick Baptiſm, or (in caſe of extream danger) the Office for Private Baptiſm, onely changing the word (Infant) for (Child or Perſon) as occaſion requireth.

¶ Then the Prieſt ſhall ſay.

WE receive this perſon into the congregation of Chriſts, flock and * do ſign him with the ſign of the croſs, in token that hereafter he ſhall not be aſhamed to confeſs the faith of Criſt crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, againſt, the world, and the devil, and to continue Chriſts faithful ſouldier and ſervant unto his lives end. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay.

SEeing now, dearly beloved brethren, that theſe perſons are regenerate and grafted into the body of Chriſts Church, let us give thanks unto Almighty God for theſe benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that they may lead the reſt of their life according to his beginning.

¶ Then ſhall be ſaid the Lords Prayer, all kneeling.

A Catechiſm, that is to ſay, an Inſtruction to be learned of every perſon, before he be brought to be confirmed by the Biſhop.

Queſtion.

WHat is our Name;

Anſwer. N. or M.

Queſtion. Who gave you this Name-

Anſwer.

My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptiſm, where in I was made a member of Chriſt, the Child of God; and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven.

Queſtion.

What did our Godfathers and Godmothers then for you.

Anſwer.

They did promiſed and vow three things in my name. Firſt, that I ſhould renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the ſinful luſts of the fleſh. Secondly, that I ſhould believe all the articles of the Chriſtian faith. And thirdly, that I ſhould keep Gods holy will and commandments, and walk in the ſame all the days of my life.

Queſtion.

Doſt thou not think that thou art bound to believe, and to do as they have promiſed for thee;

Anſwer.

Yes, verily; and by Gods help ſo I will; And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that he that called me to tui- ſtate of ſalvation; through Jeſus Chriſt our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me his grace; that I may continue in the ſame unto my lives end.

Catechiſt. Rehearſe the Articles of they belief.

Anſwer.

IBelieve in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jeſus Chriſt his onely Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghoſt. Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead and buried, He deſcended into hell, The third day he roſe again from the dead, He aſcended into heaven, And ſitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence he ſhall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghoſt, The holy Catholick Church, The Communion of Saints, The forgiveneſs of ſins, The reſurrection of the body, And the life everlaſting. Amen.

Queſtion.

What doſt thou chiefly learn in theſe Articles of thy belief;

Anſwer. Firſt, I learn to believe in God the Father, who hath made me, and all the world.

Second,

Secondly, in God the Son, who hath redeemed me, and all mankind.

Thirdly, in God the Holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the elect people of God.

Question.

You said that your Godfathers and Godmothers did promise for you, that you should keep Gods Commandments. Tell me how many there be?

Answer. Ten.

Question. Which be they?

Answer.

THe same which God spake in the twentieth Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the Lord, thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt. out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou shalt have none other Gods, but me.

II. Thou shalt not make to they self any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: for I the Lord thy God; am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shew mercy unto thousands in them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days shalt thou labonr, and do all that thou hast to do, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servunt, thy cattel, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murther,

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

Question.

What dost thou chiefly learn by these commandments?

Answer.

I learn two things: my duty towards God, and my duty towards my neighbour.

Question.

What is thy duty towards God?

Answer,

My duty towards God, is to believe in him, to fear him, and to love him with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength, to worship him, to give him thanks, to put my whole trust in him, to call upon him; to honour his holy Name and his Word; and to serve him truly all the days of my life.

Question.

What is thy duty towards thy neighbour?

Answer.

My duty towards my neighbour, is to love him as my self, and to do to all men, as I would they should do unto me. To love, honour and succour my father and mother. To honour and obey the King, and all that are put in authority under him. To submit my self to all my governours, teachers, spiritual pastours and masters. To order my self lowly and reverently to all my betters. To hurt no body by word, or deed. To be true and just in all my dealing. To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart. To keep my hands from picking and stealing; and my tongue from evil speaking, lying and shandering. To keep my body in temperance, soberness, and chastity. Not to cover nor desire other mens goods: but to learn and labour truly to get mine own living, and to do my duty in that state of life, unto which it shall please God to call me.

Catechist.

My good child, know this, that thou art not able to do these things of thy self, nor to walk in the commandments of God, and to serve him without his special grace, which thou must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer. Let me hear therefore if thou canst say the Lords Prayer.

Answer.

Question.

What desirest thou of God in this prayer?

Answer.

I desire my Lord God our heavenly Father, who is the giver of all goodness, to send his grace unto me, and to all people, that we may worship him, serve him, and obey him as we ought to do. And I pray unto God, that he will send us all things that be needful both for our souls and bodies, and that he will be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins; and that it will please him to save and defend us in all dangers ghostly and bodily, and that he will keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our ghostly enemy, and from everlasting death. And this I trust he will do of his mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ. And therefore I say, Amen. So be it.

Question.

HOw many Saeraments hath Christ ordained in his Church?

Answer.

Two onely, as generally necessary to salvation, that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.

Question.

What meanest thou by this word Sacrament?

Answer.

I mean an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace given unto us: ordained by Christ himself, as a means whereby we receive the same, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

Question.

How many parts are there in a Sacrament?

Answer.

Two: the outward visible sign, and the inward spititual grace.

Question.

What is the outward visible sign or form in Baptism?

Answer.

Water: wherein the person is baptized, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Question.

What is the inward and spiritual grace?

Answer.

A death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness: for being by na turborn in sin, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of grace.

Question.

What is required of persons to be baptized?

Answer.

Repentance, whereby they stedfastly believe the promises of God, made to them in that Sacrament.

Question.

Why then are infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

Answer.

Because they promise them both by their sureties: which promise, when they come to age, themselvs are bound to perform.

Question.

Why was the Sacrament of the Lords Supper ordained?

Answer.

For the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ, and of the benefits which we receive thereby.

Question.

What is the outward part or sign of the Lords Supper?

Answer.

Bread and wine, which the Lord hath commanded to be received.

Question.

What is the inward part, or thing signified?

Answer.

The body and blood of Christ, which are verily and indeed taken and received by the faitful in the Lords Supper.

Question.

What are the benefits whereof we are partakers thereby?

Answer.

The strengthning and refreshing of our souls by the body and blood of Christ, as our bodies are by the bread and wine.

Question.

What is required of them who come to the Lords Supper.

Answer.

To exame themselvs, whether they repent them truly of their former sins, stedfastly purposing to lead a new life: have a lively faith in Gods mercy through Christ, with a thankful remembrance of his death; and be in charity with all men.

¶ The Curate of every Parish shall diligently upon Sundays and Holy-days, after the second Lesson at Evening-Prayer, openly in the Church instruct and examine so many children of his Parish sent unto him, as he shall think convenient, in some part of this Catechism.

¶ And all Fathers, Mothers, Masters and Dames, shall cause their children, servants and prentices (which have not learned their Catechism) to come to the Church at the time appointed, and obediently to hear, and be ordered by the Curate, until such time as they have learned all that is here appointed for them to learn.

¶ So soon as children are come to a competent age, and can say in there mother tongue the Creed, the Lords Prayer, and the ten Commandments; and also can answer to the other questions of his short Catechism; they shall be brought to the Bishop. And every one shall have a Godfather, or a Godmother, as a witness of their Confirmation.

¶ And whensoever the Bishop shall give knowledge for children to be brought unto him for their Confirmation, the Curate of every Parish shall either bring, or send in writing, with his hand subscribed thereunto, the name of all such persons within his Parish, as he shall think fit to be presented to the Bishop to be confirmed. And, if the Bishop approve of them, he shall confirm them in manner following.

The Order of Confirmation, or laying on of hands upon thoſe that are baptized and come to years of diſcretion.

¶ Upon the day appointed, all that are to be then confirmed, being placed, and ſtanding in order before the Biſhop; he (or ſome other Miniſter appointed by him) ſhall read this Preface following.

TO the end that Confirmation may be miniſtred to the more edifying of ſuch as ſhall receive it, the Church hath thought good to order, That none hereafter ſhall be Confirmed, but ſuch as can ſay the Creed, the Lords Prayer, and the ten Commandments: and can alſo anſwer to ſuch other queſtions, as in the ſhort Catechiſm are contained; Which Order as very convenient to be obſerved, to the end, that children being now come to the years of diſcretion, and having learned what their Godfathers and Godmothers promiſed for them in Baptiſm, they may themſelvs with their own mouth and conſent openly before the Church ratify and confirm the ſame; and alſo promiſe that by the grace of God they will evermore endeavour themſelvs faithfully to obſerve ſuch things as they by their own confeſſion have aſſented unto.

¶ Then ſhall the Biſhop ſay,

DO ye here in the preſence of God and of this congregation renew the ſolemn promiſe and vow that was made in your name at your Baptiſm; ratifying and confirming the ſame in your own perſons, and acknowledging your ſelvs bound to believe and to do all thoſe things, which your Godfathers and Godmothers then undertook for you?

¶ And every one ſhall audibly anſwer,

I do.

The Biſhop.

OUr help is in the Name of the Lord;

Anſwer.

Who hath made heaven and earth.

Biſhop.

Bleſſed be the Name of the Lord.

Anſwer.

Henceforth world without end.

Biſhop.

Lord, hear our prayers.

Anſwer.

And let our cry come unto thee.

Biſhop.

Let us pray.

ALmighty and everliving God, who haſt vouchſafed to regenerate theſe thy ſervants by water and the Holy Ghoſt, and haſt given unto them forgiveneſs of all their ſins; Strengthen them; we beſeech thee, O Lord, with the Holy Ghoſt the Comforter, and daily increaſe in them thy manifold gifts of grace; the ſpirit of wiſdom and underſtanding; the ſpirit of counſel and ghoſtly ſtrength; the ſpirit of knowledge and true godlineſs; and fill them, O Lord, with the ſpirit of thy holy fear, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then all of them in order kneeling before the Biſhop, he ſhall lay his hand upon the head of every one ſeverally, ſaying, DEfend, O Lord, this thy child (or this thy ſervant) with thy heavenly grace, that he may continue thine for ever; and daily increaſe in thy Holy Spirit more and more, until he come unto they everlaſting kingdom. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Biſhop ſay,

The Lord be with you.

Anſwer.

And with they Spirit.

¶ And (all kneeling down) the Biſhop ſhall add,

Let us pray.

¶ And this Collect.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, who makeſt us both to will and to do thoſe things that be good and acceptable unto thy divine Majeſty; We make our humble ſupplications unto thee for theſe thy ſervants, upon whom (after the example of thy holy Apoſtles) we have now laid our hands, to certify them (by this ſign) of thy favour and gracious goodneſs towards them. Let thy fatherly hand, we beſeech thee, ever be over them; let thy Holy Spirit ever be with them; and ſo lead them in the knowledge and obedience of thy word, that in the end they may obtain everlaſting life, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who with thee and the Holy Ghoſt liveth and reigneth ever one God, world without end. Amen.

OAlmighty Lord, and everlaſting God, vouchſafe we beſeech thee, to direct, ſanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of thy laws, and in the works of thy commandments, that through thy moſt mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preſerved in body and ſoul, through our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

¶ Then the Biſhop ſhall bleſs them, ſaying thus,

THe bleſſing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghoſt, be upon you, and remain with you for ever. Amen.

¶ And there ſhall none be admitted to the holy Communion, until ſuch time as he be confirmed, or be ready and deſirous to be confirmed.

The Form of Solemnization of Matrimony.

¶ FIrſt the Banns of all that are to be married together, muſt be publiſhed in the Church three ſeverall Sundays or Holidays, in the time of Divine Service, immediately before the ſentences for the Offertory, the Curate ſaying after the accuſtomed manner,

I publiſh the Banns of marriage between M. of --- and N. of --- If any of you know cauſe or juſt impediment, why theſe two perſons ſhould not be joyned together in holy matrimony, ye are to declare it: This is the Firſt (ſecond, or third) time of asking.

¶ And if the perſons that are to be married, dwell in divers Pariſhes, the Banns muſt be asked in both Pariſhes; and the Curate of the one Pariſh ſhall not ſolemnize Matrimony betwixt them, without a Certificate of the Banns being thrice asked, from the Curate of the other Pariſh.

¶ At the day and time appointed for ſolemnization of Matrimony, the perſons to be married ſhall come into the body of the Church with their friends and neighbours: And there ſtanding together, the man on the right hand, and the woman on the left, the Prieſt ſhall ſay,

DEarly beloved, we are gathered together here in the ſight of God, and in the face of this congregation, to joyn together this man and this woman in holy Matrimony, which is an honourable eſtate inſtituted of God in the time of mans innocency, ſignifying unto us the myſtical union that is betwixt Chriſt and his Church, which holy eſtate Chriſt adorned and beautified with his preſence, and firſt miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galilee, and is commended of Saint Paul to be honourable among all men; and therefore is not by any to be enterprized, nor taken in hand unadviſedly, lightly, or wantonly, to ſatisfy mens carnal luſts and appetites, like brute beaſts that have no underſtanding; but reverently, diſcreetly, adviſedly, ſoberly, and in the fear of God, duly conſidering the cauſes for which matrimony was ordained.

Firſt, it was ordained for the procreation of children, to be brought up in the fear and nurture of the Lord, and to the praiſe of his holy Name.

Secondly, it was ordained for a remedy againſt ſin, and to avoid fornication, that ſuch perſons as have not the gift of continency, might marry, and keep themſelvs undefiled members of Chriſts body.

Thirdly, is was ordained for the mutual ſociety, help and comfort that the one ought to have of the other, both in proſperity and adverſity: into which holy eſtate theſe two perſons preſent come now to be joyned, Therefore if any man can ſhew any juſt cauſe why they may not lawfully be joyned together, let him now ſpeak, or elſe hereafter for ever hold his peace.

I Require and charge you both (as you will anſwer at the dreadful day of judgement, when the ſecrets of all hearts ſhall be diſcloſed) that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joyned together in matrimony, ye do now confeſs it. For be ye well aſſured, that ſo many as are coupled together otherwiſe then Gods word doth allow, are not joyned together by God, neither is their matrimony lawful.

¶ As which day of marriage, if any man do alledge and declare any impediment why they may not be coupled together in Matrimony, by Gods law, or the laws of this Realm, and will be bound, and ſufficient ſureties with him, to the parties, or elſe put in a caution (to the full value of ſuch charges as the perſons to be married do thereby ſuſtain) to prove his allegation; Then the ſolemnization muſt be deferred until ſuch time as the truth be tryed.

¶ If no impediment be alledged, then ſhall the Curate ſay unto the man,

N. WIlt thou have this woman to thy wedded wife, to live together after Gods ordinance, in the holy eſtate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honour and keep her in ſickneſs and in health? and forſaking all other, keep thee onely unto her, ſo long as ye both ſhall live?

¶ The man ſhall anſwer.

I will.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay unto the woman,

N. WIlt thou have this man to thy wedded husband, to live together after Gods ordinance, in the holy eſtate of Matrimony? Wilt thou obey him, ſerve him love, honour and keep him in ſickneſs and in health, and forſaking all other, keep thee onely unto him, ſo long as ye both ſhall live?

¶ The woman ſhall anſwer.

I will.

¶ Then ſhall the Miniſter ſay,

Who giveth this woman to be married to this man?

Then

¶ Then ſhall they give their troth to each other in this manner.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worſe, for richer for poorer, in ſickneſs and in health, to love and to cheriſh, till death us do part, according to Gods holy ordinance: and thereto I plight thee my troth.

¶ Then ſhall they looſe their hands, and the woman with her right hand taking the man by his right hand, ſhall likewiſe ſay after the Miniſter.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded husband, to have, and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worſe, for richer for poorer, in ſickneſs and in health, to love, cheriſh, and to obey, till death us do part, according to Gods holy ordinance, and thereto I give thee my troth.

¶ Then ſhall they again looſe their hands, and the man ſhall give unto the woman a ring, laying the ſame upon the book, with the accuſtomed duty to the Prieſt and Clerk. And the Prieſt taking the ring, ſhall deliver it unto the man, to put it upon the fourth finger of the womans left hand. And the man holding the ring there, and taught by the Prieſt, ſhall ſay;

W Ith this ring I thee wed, with my body I thee worſhip, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoſt. Amen.

¶ Then the man leaving the ring upon the fourth finger of the womans left hand, they ſhall both kneel down, and the Miniſter ſhall ſay,

Let us pray.

O Eternal God, creator and preſerver of all mankind, giver of all ſpiritual grace, the author of everlaſting life, ſend thy bleſſing upon theſe thy ſervants, this man and this woman, whom we bleſs in thy Name; that as Iſaac and Rebecca lived faithfully together, ſo theſe perſons may ſurely perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made (whereof this ring given and received is a token and pledge) and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to thy laws, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

Thoſe whom God hath joyned together, let no man put aſunder.

¶ Then ſhall the Miniſter ſpeak unto the people.

F Oraſmuch as N. and N. have conſented together in the holy wedlock, and have witneſſed the ſame before God and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their troth either to other, and have declared the ſame by giving and receiving af a ring, and by joyning of hands; I pronounce that they be man and wife together, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoſt. Amen.

¶ And the Miniſter ſhall add this bleſſing.

G Od the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghoſt bleſs, preſerve and keep you, the Lord mercifully with his favour look upon you, and ſo fill you with all ſpiritual benediction and grace, that ye may ſo live together in this life, that in the world to come ye may have life everlaſting. Amen.

¶ Then the Miniſter or Clerks going to the Lords Table, ſhall ſay or ſing this Pſalm following.

Beati omnes. Pſal. 128.

B Eſſed are all they that fear the Lord: and walk in his ways.
For thou ſhalt eat the labour of thine hands: O well is thee, and happy ſhalt thou be.
Thy wife ſhall be as the fruitful vine: upon the walls of thy houſe, Thy children like the olive-branches: round about thy table.
Lo, thus ſhall the man be bleſſed: that feareth the Lord,
The Lord from out of Zion ſhall ſo bleſs thee: that thou ſhalt ſee Jeruſalem in proſperity all thy life long.
Yea, that thou ſhalt ſee thy childrens children: and peace upon Iſrael.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Or this Pſalm.

Deus miſeratur. Pſal. 67.

G Od be merciful unto us, and bleſs us: and ſhew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us.
That thy way may be known upon earth: thy ſaving health among all nations.
Let the people praiſe thee, O God: yea, let all the people praiſe thee.
O let the nations rejoyce and be glad: for thou ſhalt judge the folk righteouſly, and govern the nations upon earth.
Let the people praiſe thee, O God: let all the people praiſe thee.
Then ſhall the earth bring forth her increaſe; and God even our own God ſhall give us bleſſing.
God ſhall bleſs us; and all the ends of the world ſhall fear him.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son; and to the Holy Ghoſt;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be; world without end. Amen.

¶ The Pſalm ended, and the man and the woman kneeling before the Lords Table, the Prieſt ſtanding at the Table and turning his face towards them ſhall ſay,

Lord have mercy upon us.
Anſwer.
Chriſt have mercy upon us.
Miniſter.
Lord have mercy upon us.

O Ur Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be don in earth, As it is in heaven Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, As we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.
Miniſter.
O Lord ſave thy ſervant, and thy handmaid.
Anſwer.
Who put their truſt in thee.
Miniſter.
O Lord, ſend them help from thy holy place.
Anſwer.
And evermore defend them.
Miniſter.
Be unto them a tower of ſtrength.
Anſwer.
From the face of their enemy.
Miniſter.
O Lord, hear our prayer.
Anſwer.
And let our cry come unto thee.
Miniſter.

O God of Abraham, God of Iſaac, God of Jacob, bleſs theſe thy ſervants, and ſow the ſeed of eternal life in their hearts, that whatſoever in thy holy Word they ſhall profitably learn, they may indeed fulfil the ſame. Look, O Lord, mercifully upon them from heaven, and bleſs them. And as thou didſt ſend thy bleſſing upon Abraham and Sarah, to their great comfort; ſo vouchſafe to ſend thy bleſſing upon theſe thy ſervants, that they obeying thy will, and alway being in ſafety under thy protection, may abide in thy love unto their lives end, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

O Merciful Lord and heavenly Father, by whoſe gracious gift mankind is increaſed; We beſeech thee aſſiſt with thy bleſſing theſe two perſons, that they may both be fruitful in procreation of children, and alſo live together ſo long in godly love and honeſty; that they may ſee their children Chriſtianly and vertuouſly brought up, to thy praiſe and honour; through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

O God, who by thy mighty power haſt made all things of nothing; who alſo (after other things ſet in order) didſt appoint that out of man (created after thine own image and ſimilitude) woman ſhould take her beginning; and knitting them together; didſt teach that it ſhould never be lawful to put aſunder thoſe whom thou by matrimony haſt made one: O God, who haſt conſecrated the ſtate of matrimony to ſuch an excellent myſtery, that in it is ſignified and repreſented the ſpiritual marriage and unity betwixt Chriſt and his Church; Look mercifully upon theſe thy ſervants, that both this man may love his wife, according to thy word (as Chriſt did love his ſpouſe the Church; who gave himſelf for it, loving and cheriſhing it even as his own fleſh) and alſo that this woman may be loving and amiable, faithful and obedient to her husband, and in all quietneſs, ſobriety and peace, be a follower of holy and godly matrons. O Lord, bleſs them both, and grant them to inherit thy everlaſting kingdom, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Prieſt ſay,

A Lmighty God, who at the beginning did create our firſt parents, Adam and Eve, and did ſanctify and joyn them together in marriage; Pour upon you the riches of his grace; ſanctify and bleſs you, that ye may pleaſe him both in body and ſoul, and live together in holy love unto your lives end. Amen.

¶ After which, if there be no Sermon declaring the duties of man and wife, the Miniſter ſhall read as followeth.

A Ll ye that are married, or that intend to take the holy eſtate of matrimony upon you, hear what the holy Scripture doth ſay as touching the duty of husbands towards their wives, and wives towards their husbands.

Saint Paul in his Epiſtle to the Epheſians, the fifth Chapter, doth give this commandment to all married Husbands, love your wives, even as Chriſt alſo loved the Church, and gave himſelf for it, that he might ſanctify and cleanſe it with the waſhing of water, by the word; that he might preſent it to himſelf a glorious Church, not having ſpot or wrinkle, or any ſuch thing; but that it ſhould be holy and without blemiſh. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies; He that loveth his wife, loveth himſelf. For no man ever yet hated his own fleſh, but nouriſheth and cheriſheth it; Even as the Lord the Church. For we are members of his body, of his fleſh, and of his bones, For this cauſe ſhall a man leave his father and mother, and ſhall be joyned unto his wife, and they two ſhall be one fleſh. This is a great myſtery; but I ſpeak concerning Chriſt and the Church. Nevertheleſs, let every one of you in particular, ſo love his wife, even as himſelf.

Like-

Col. 3.19. Likewiſe the ſame Saint Paul writing to the Coloſſians, ſpeaketh thus do all men that are married. You husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter againſt them.

1S Pet.3.7. Hear alſo what Saint Peter the Apoſtle of Chriſt, who was himſelf a married man, ſaith unto them that are married. Ye husbands, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker veſſel, and as being heirs together of the grace of live, that your prayers be not hindred.

Hitherto ye have heard the duty of the husband toward the wife. Now likewiſe, ye wives, hear and learn your duties towards your husbands, even as it is plainly ſet forth in holy Scripture.

Saint Paul in the aforenamed Epiſtle to the Epheſians, teacheth you Eph. 5.22. thus. Wives, ſubmit your ſelves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the hushand is the head of the wife, even as Chriſt is the head of the Church: and he is the Saviour of the body. Therefore as the Church is ſubject unto Chriſt, ſo let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. And again he ſaith, Let the wife ſee that ſhe reverence her husband.

And in his Epiſtle to the Coloſſians, Saint Paul giveth you this ſhort leſſon. Wives ſubmit your ſelvs unto your own husbands, as it is fit Col. 3.18. in the Lord.

Saint Peter alſo doth inſtruct you very well, thus ſaying, Ye wives, 1S.Pet.3.1 be in ſubjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, they alſo may without the word be won by the converſation of the wives; while they behold your chaſte converſation coupled with fear. Whoſe adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet ſpirit, which is in the ſight of God of great price. For after this manner in the old time, the holy women alſo who truſted in God, adorned themſelvs, being in ſubjection unto their own husbands, even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord; whoſe daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid wi th anyamazement.

¶ It is convenient that the new married perſons ſhould receive the holy Communion at the time of their marriage, or at the firſt opportunity after their marriage.

The Order for the Viſitation of the Sick.

¶ When any perſon is ſick, notice ſhall be given thereof to the Miniſter of the Pariſh, who coming into the ſick perſons ho. ſe ſhall ſay,

PEace be to this houſe, and to all that dwell in it.

¶ When he cometh into the ſick mans preſence he ſhall ſay, kneeling down,

REmember not Lord, our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers. Spare us, good Lord, ſpare thy people whom thou haſt redeemed with thy moſt precious bloud, and be not angry with us for ever.

Anſwer.

Spare us good Lord,

¶ Then the Miniſter ſhall ſay;

Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Chriſt, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUr Father which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, As we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Miniſter.

O Lord, ſave thy ſervant:

Anſwer.

Which putteth his truſt in thee.

Miniſter.

Send him help from thy holy place.

Anſwer.

And evermore mightily defend him.

Miniſter.

Let the enemy have no advantage of him.

Anſwer.

Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.

Miniſter.

Be unto him, O Lord, a ſtrong tower.

Anſwer.

From the face of his enemy.

Miniſter.

O Lord, hear our prayers.

Anſwer.

And let our cry come unto thee.

Miniſter.

O Lord, look down from heaven, behold, viſit and relieve this thy ſervant. Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercy, give him comfort and ſure confidence in thee, defend him from the danger of the enemy, and keep him in perpetual peace and ſafety, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

HEar us, Almighty and moſt merciful God and Saviour; extend thy accuſtomed goodneſs to this thy ſervant who is grieved with ſickneſs, Sanctify, we beſeech thee, this thy Fatherly correction to him: that the ſenſe of his weakneſs may add ſtrength to his faith, and ſeriouſneſs to his repentance. That if it ſhall be thy pleaſure to reſtore him to his former health, he may lead the reſidue of his life in thy fear, and in thy glory: or elſe give him grace ſo to take thy viſitation; that after this painful life ended, he may dwell with thee in life everlaſting; through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Miniſter exhort the ſick perſon after this form, our other like.

DEarly beloved, know this, that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death, and of all things to them pertaining, as youth, ſtrength, health, age, weakneſs and ſickneſs. Wherefore, whatſoever your ſickneſs is, know you certainly that it is Gods viſitation. And for what cauſe ſoever this ſickneſs is ſent unto you, whether it be to try your patience for the example of others, and that your faith may be found in the day of the Lord laudable, glorious, and honourable, to the increaſe of glory and endleſs felicity; or elſe it be ſent unto you to correct and amend in you whatſoever doth offend the eyes of your heavenly Father; know you certainly that if you truly repent you of your ſins, and bear your ſickneſs patiently, truſting in Gods mercy, for his dear Son Jeſus Chriſts ſake, and render unto him humble thanks for this Fatherly viſitation, ſubmitting your ſelf wholly unto his will, it ſhall turn to your profit, and help you forward in the right way that leadeth unto everlaſting life.

¶ If the perſon viſited be very ſick, then the Curate may end his exhortation in this place, or elſe proceed.

TAke therefore in good part the chaſtiment of the Lord: For (as Saint Paul ſaith in the twelfth Chapter to the Hebrews) whom the Lord loveth he chaſteneth, and ſcourgeth every ſon whom he receiveth. If ye endure chaſtning, God dealeth with you as with ſons; for what ſon is he whom the father chaſtneth nor? But if ye be without chaſtiſement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye baſtards, and not ſons. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our fleſh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: ſhall we not much rather be in ſubjection unto the Father of Spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chaſtened us after their own pleaſure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holineſs. Theſe words, good brother, are written in holy Scripture for our comfort and inſtruction, that we ſhould patiently, and with thankſgiving bear our heavenly Fathers Correction, whenſoever hy any manner of adverſity it ſhall pleaſe his gracious goodneſs to viſit us. And there ſhould be no greater comfort to Chriſtian perſons, than to be made like unto Chriſt, by ſuffering patiently adverſities, troubles and ſickneſſes. For he himſelf went not up to joy, but firſt he ſuffered pain; he entred not into his glory before he was crucified. So truly our way to eternal joy is to ſuffer here with Chriſt; and our door to enter into eternal life, is gladly to die with Chriſt; that we may riſe again from death, and dwell with him in everlaſting life. Now therefore taking your ſickneſs, which is rhus profitable for you, patiently, I exhort you in the Name of God, to remember the profeſſion which you made unto God in your baptiſm. And for as much as after this life there is an account to be given unto the righteous Judge, by whom all muſt be judged without reſpect of perſons; I require you to examine your ſelf and your eſtate, both toward God and man; ſo that accuſing and condemning your ſelf for your own faults, you may find mercy at our heavenly Fathers hand for Chriſt ſake, and not be accuſed and condemned in that fearful judgement. Therefore I ſhall rehearſe to you the Articles of our Faith, that you may know whether you do believe as a Chriſtian man ſhould, or no.

DOſt thou believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth?

And in Jeſus Chriſt his onely begotten Son our Lord? and that he was conceived by the Holy Ghoſt, born of the Virgin Mary; that he ſuffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; that he went down into hell, and alſo did riſe again the third day; that he aſcended into heaven, and ſitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, and from thence ſhall come again at the end of the world to judge the quick and the dead?

And doſt thou believe in the Holy Ghoſt, the holy Carholick Church, the Communion of Saints, the remiſſion of ſins, the reſurrection of the fleſh, and everlaſting life after death?

¶ The ſick perſon ſhall anſwer.

All this I ſtedfaſtly believe.

¶ Then ſhall the Miniſter examine whether he repent him truly of his ſins, and be in charity with all the world; exhorting him to forgive from the bottom of his heart all perſons that have offended him, and if he hath offended any other, to ask them forgiveneſs; and where he hath done injury or wrong to any man, that he make amend to the uttermoſt of his power. And if he hath not before diſpoſed of his goods, let him then be admoniſhed to make his will, and to declare his debts, what he oweth, and what is owing unto him, for the better diſcharging of his conſcience, and the quietneſs of his executors. But men ſhould often be put in remembrance to take order for the ſetling of their temporal eſtate, whilſt they are in health.

¶ Theſe

¶ These words before rehearsed: may be said before the Minister begin his prayer, as he shal see cause.

¶ The Miuister should not omit earnestly to morve such sick persons as are of ability, to be liberal to the poor.

¶ Here shall the sick person be moued to make a special confession of his sins, if he feel his conscience troubled with any weighty matter. After which confession, the Priest shall absolve him (if he humbly and heartily desire it) after this sort.

OUr Lord Jesus Christ, who hath left power to his Church to absolve all sinners who truly repent and beliéve in him, of his great mercy forgive thee thine offences: And by his authority committed to me, I absolve thee from all they sins, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Let us pray.

OMost merciful God, who according to the multitude of thy mercies, dost so put away the sins of those who truly repent, that thou remembrest them no more; open thine eye of mercy upon this thy servant, who most earnestly desireth pardon and forgiveness. Renew in him (most loving Father) whatsoever hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the devil, or by his own carnal will and frailness; preserve and continue this sick member in the unity of the Church: consider his contrition, accept his tears, asswage his pain, as shall seem to thee most expedient for him. And forasmuch as he putteth his full trust onely in thy mercy, impute not unto him his former sins: but strengthen him with thy blessed Spirit, and when thou art pleased to take him hence, take him into thy favour, through the merits of thy most deatly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say this Psalm.

In te Domine, speravi. Psal. 71.

IN thee, Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion: but rid me and deliver me in thy righteousness; incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to help me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the ungodly: out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope even from my youth.

Through thee have I been holden up ever since I was born: thou art he that took me out of my mothers womb, my praise shall alway be of thee.

I am become as it were a monster unto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: that I may sing of thy glory and honour all the day long.

Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

For mine enemies speak againſt me, and they that lay wait for my soul, take their counsel together, saying: God hath forsaken him; persecute him, and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

Go not far from me, O God: my God, haste thee to help me.

Let them be confounded and perish that are against my soul: let them be covered with shame and dishonour, that seek to do me evil.

As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise thee more and more.

My mouth shall daily speak of thy righteousness and salvation: for I know no end thereof.

I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness only.

Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up until now: therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.

Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray headed: until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy righteousness, O God, is very high, and great things are they that thou hast done: O God, who is like unto thee?

Glory be to the Fathet, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Adding this.

OSaviour of the world, who by thy cross and precious bloud hast receemed us, save us and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

THe Almighty Lord, who is a most strong Tower to all them that put their trust in him, to whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth do bow and obey, be now and evermore they defence, and make thee know and feel, that there is none other name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom thou mayest receive health and salvation, but onely the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ And after that shall say,

UNto Gods gracious mercy and protection we commit thee. The Lord bless thee and keep thee. The Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

A Prayer for a sick child.

OAlmighty God and merciful Father, to whom alone belong the issues of life and death, Look down from heaven, we humbly beseech thee, with the eyes of mercy upon this child now lying upon the bed of sickness. Visit him, O Lord, with thy salvation; deliver him in thy good appointed time from his bodily pain, and save his soul for thy mercies sake. That if it shall be thy pleasure to prolong his days here on earth, he may live to thee, and be an instrument of thy glory, by serving thee faithfully, and doing good in his generation; or else receive him into those heavenly habitations, where the souls of them that sleep in the Lord Jesus enjoy perpetual rest and felicity. Grant this, O Lord, for thy mercies sake, in the name of thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever one God, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer for a sick person, when there appeareth small hope of recovery.

OFather of mercies, and God of all comfort, our onely help in time of need; We flie unto thee for succour in behalf of this thy servant, here lying under thy hand in great weakness of body. Look graciously upon him. O Lord, and the more the outward man decayeth, strengthen him, we beseech thee, so much the more continually with thy grace and Holy Spirit in the inner man. Give him unfeigned repentance for all the errours of his life past, and stedfast faith in thy Son Jesus, that his sins may be done away by thy mercy, and his pardon sealed in heaven, before he go hence, and be no more seen. We know, O Lord, that there is no word impossible with thee; and that if thou wilt, thou canst even yet raise him up, and grant him a longer continuance amongst us. Yet forasmuch as in all appearance the time of his dissolution draweth near, so fit and prepare him. we beseech thee, against the hour of death, that after his departure hence in peace and in thy favour, his soul may be received into thine everlasting kingdom, through the merits and meditation of Jesus Christ thine onely Son, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

OAlmighty God, with whom do live the spirits of just men made perfect, after they are delivered from their earthly prisons; We humbly commend the soul of this thy servant, our dear brother, into thy hands, as into the hands of a faithful Creatour, and most merciful Saviour; most humbly beseeching thee, that it may be precious in thy sight. Wash it, we pray thee, in the blood of that immaculate Lamb, that was slain to take away the sins of the world; that whatsoever defilements it may have contracted in the midst of this miserable and naughty world, trough the lusts of the flesh, or the wiles of Satan, being purged and done away, it may be presented pure and without spot before thee. And teach us who survive, in this and other like daily spectacles of mortality, to see how frail and uncertain our own condition is, and so to number our days, that we may seriously apply our hearts to that holy and heavenly wisdom, whilst we live here, which may in the end bring us to life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ thine onely Son our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for persons troubled in mind or in conscience.

OBlessed Lord, the Father of mercies, and the God of comforts, we beseech thee look down in pity and compassion upon this thy afflicted servant. Thou writest bitter things against him, and makest him to possess his former inquities; thy wrath lieth hard upon him, and his soul is full of trouble: But, O merciful God, who hast written thy holy Word for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of thy holy Scriptures might have hope, give him a right understanding of himself, and of thy threats and promises, that he may neither cast away his confidence in thee, nor place it any where but in thee. Give him strength against all his temptations, and heal all his distempers. Break not the bruised reed, nor quench the smoking flax. Shut not up thy tender mercies in displeasure; but make him to hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce. Deliver him from fear of the enemy, and lift up the light of thy countenance upon him, and give him peace, through the merits and meditation of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Communion of the Sick.

FOrasmuch as all mortal men be subject to many sudden perils, diseases, and sicknesses, and ever uncertain what time they shall depart out of this life: therefore to the intent they may be always in a readiness to die, whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call them, the Curates shall diligently from time to time (but, especially in the time of pestilence, or other infectious sickness) exhort their Parishioners to the often receiving of the holy Communion of the body and blood of our Saviour Christ: when it shall be publickly administred in the Church; that so doing, they may in case of sudden visitation, have the less cause to be disquieted for lack of the same. But if the sick person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his house; then he must give timily notice to the Curate, signifying also how many there are communicate with him (which shall be three, or two at the least) and having a convenient place in the sick mans house, with all things necessary so prepared, that the Curate may reverently minister, he shall there celebrate the holy Communion, beginning with the Collect, Epistle and Gospel here following.

The Collect.

ALmighty everliving God, maker of mankind, who dost correct those whom thou dost love, and chastise every one whom thou dost receive; We beseech thee to have mercy upon this they servant visited with thine hand, and to grant that he may take his sickness patiently, and recover his bodily health (if it be they gracious will) and whensoever his soul shall depart from the body, it may be without spot presented unto thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Heb. 12 5. MY son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him. For whom the Lord loveth, he chastneth; and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

The Gospel.

S. John 5. v. 24. VErily, verily I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life.

¶ After which, the Priest shall proceed according to the form before prescribed for the holy Communion, beginning at these words (Ye that do truly, &c.

¶ At the time of the distrebution of the holy Sacrament, the Priest shall first receive the communion himself, and after minister unto them that are appointed to communicate with the sick, and last of al to the sick person.

¶ But if a man, either by reason of extremity of sickness, or for want of warning in due time to the Curate, or for lack of company to receive with him, or by any other just impediment, do not receive the Sacrament of Christs body and blood, the Curate shall instruct him, that if he do truly repent him of his sins, and stedfastly believe that Jesus Christ hath suffered death upon the cross for him, and shed his blood for his redemption, earnestly remembring the benefits he hath thereby, and giving him hearty thanks therefore, he doth eat and drink the body and blood of our Saviour Christ profitably to his souls health, although he do not receive the Sacrament with his mouth.

¶ When the sick person is visited, and receiveth the holy Communion all at one time, then the Priest for more expedition shall cut off the form of the Visitation at the psalm (In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust) and go straight to the Communion.

¶ In the time of plague, sweat, or such other like contagious times of sickness, or diseases, when none of the Parishor neighbours can be gotten to communicate with the sick in their houses, for fear of the infection, upon special request of the diseased, the Minister may onely communicate with him.

The Order of the Burial of the Dead.

¶ Here is to be noted, that the Office ensuing is not to be used for any that die unbaptized, or excommunicate, or have laid violent hands upon themselves.

¶ The Priest and Clerks meeting the corps at the entrance of the Church-yard, and going before it, either in to the Church, or towards the grave shall say, or sing.

S John 11 v 25. 26. I Am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die.

Job 19. 25. 26. 27. I Know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And though after my skin worms destroy this body; yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for my self, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another.

2 Tim. 6. 7. Job 1. 21. WE brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the Name of the Lord.

¶ After they are come into the Church, shall be read one or both of these Psalms following.

Dixi custodiam. Psal. 39. I Said, I will take heed to my wayes: that I offend not in my tongue.
I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle: while the ungodly is in my sight.
I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea, even from good words, but it was pain and grief to me.
My heart was not within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.
Lord, let me know my end, and the number of my days: that I may be certified how long I have to live.
Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a span long: and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee, and verily every man living is altogether vanity.
For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.
And now, Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is even in thee.
Deliver me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.
I became dumb, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.
Take thy plague away from me: I am even consumed by means of thy heavy hand.
When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.
Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.
For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.
O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength: before I go hence, and be no more seen.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now; and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Domine refugium. Psal. 90. LOrd, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.
Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlasting, and word without end.
Thou turnest man to destruction: again thou sayest, Come again ye children of men.
For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.
As soon as thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep: and fade away suddenly like the grass.
In the morning it is green, and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dryed up, and whithered.
For we consume away in they displeasure: and are afraid at thy wrathful indignation.
Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee: and our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.
For when thou art angry, all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.
The days of our age are threescore years and ten, and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; soo soon passeth it away, and we are gone.
But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.
So teach vs to number our days: that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
Turn thee again, O Lord, at the last: and be gracious unto thy servants.
O satisfy us with thy mercy, and that soon: so shall we rejoyce and be glad all the days of our life.
Comfort us again, now after the time that thou hast plagued us: and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity.
Shew thy servants thy work: and their children thy glory.
And the glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handy work.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Lesson taken out of the Fifteenth Chapter of the former Epistle of S. Paul to the Corinthians.

NOw is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the first fruits; afterward they that are Christs, at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power. For he must reign til he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death: For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead? And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoycing, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink, for to morrow we die. Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame. But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickned, except it die. And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may change of wheat, or of some other grain. But God giveth it a body, as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body. All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial; but the glory 1 Cor. 15. 20.

of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestral is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars, for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead; It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown in natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body; and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a quickning Spirit. Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual; but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man of the earth earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven, heavenly. As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have born the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and bloud cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall al be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; (for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.) For this corruptible must put on incorruption and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written. Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is they victory? The sting of the death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that you labour is not in vain in the Lord.

¶ When they come to the grave; while the corps is made ready to be laid into the earth, the Priest shall say, or the Priest and Clerks shall sing.

MAn that is born of a woman, hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and it cut down like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

In the midst of life we are in death; of whom may we seek for succour, but of thee, O Lord, who for our sins art justly displeased;

Yet; O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, Lord; the secrets of our hearts; shut not thy merciful ears to our prayers: but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from thee.

¶ Then while the earth shall be cast upon the body by some standing by, the Priest shall say,

FOrasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his great mercy to take unto himself the soul of our dear brother here departed, We therefore commit his body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall change our vile body, that it may be like unto his glorious body, according to the mighty working, whereby he is able to subdue all things to himself.

¶ Then shall be said or sung:

I Heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, From hencefort blessed are the dead which die in the Lord: even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labours.

¶ Then the Priest shall say,

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Priest.

ALmighty God, with whom do live the spirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the soul of the faithful after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, are in joy and felicity; We give thee hearty thanks, for that it hath pleased thee to deliver this our brother out of the miseries of this sinful world; beseeching thee that it may please thee of thy gracious goodness, shortly to accomplish the number of thine elect, and to hasten thy kingdom, that we, with all those that are departed in the true faith of thy holy Name; may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul; in thy eternal and everlasting glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect.

OMerciful God, the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life, in whom whosoever believeth shall live, though he die; and whosoever liveth and believeth in him, shall not die eternally; who also hath taught us (by his holy Apostle Saint Paul) not to be sorry, as men without hope, for them that sleep in him; We meekly beseech thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of sin, unto the life of righteousness; that when we shall depart this life, we may rest in him, as our hope is this our brother doth; and that at the general resurrection in the last day we may be found acceptable in they sight, and receive that blessing which they wel beloved Son shall then pronounce to all that love and fear thee, saying, Come, ye blessed children of my Father, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world. Grant this, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, through Iesus Christ our Mediatour and Redeemer. Amen.

THe grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

The Thanksgiving of Women after Child-birth, commonly called, The Curching of Women.

¶ The woman at the usual time after her delivery, shall come into the Church decently apparelled, and there shall kneel down in some convenient place, as hath been accustomed, or as the Ordinary shall direct: And then the Priest shall say unto her,

FOrasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his goodness to give you safe deliverance, and hath preserved you in the great danger of child-birth, you shall therefore give hearthy thanks unto God, and say,

(¶ Then shall the Priest say this Psalm)

I Am well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer.

That he hath inclined his ear unto me: therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

The snares of death compassed me round about: and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.

I found trouble and heavines, and I called upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

Gracious is the Lord, and righteous: yea, our God is merciful.

The Lord preserveth the simple: I was in misery, and helped me.

Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

And why; thou hast delivered my soul from death: mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

I believed, and therefore will I speak, but I was sore troubled: I said in my haste, All men are lyars,

What reward shall I give unto the Lord: for all the benefits that he hath done unto me;

I will receive the cup of salvation: and call upon the Name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows now in the presence of all his people: in the courts of the Lords house, even in the midst of thee, O Ierusalem. Praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Or this Psalm.

EXcept the Lord build the house: their labour is but lost that build it.

Except the Lord keep the city: the watchman waketh but in vain.

It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise up early, and so late take rest, and eat the bread of carefulnes: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

Lo, children and the fruit of the womb: are an heritage and gift that cometh of the Lord.

Like as the arrows in the hand of the giant: even so are the young children.

Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Glory be to the Father; and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest shall say,

Let us pray.

Lord have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord have mercy upon us.

Minister. O Lord, save this woman thy servant.
Answer. Who putteth her trust in thee.
Minister. Be thou to her a strong tower.
Answer. From the face of her enemy.
Minister. Lord, hear our prayer.
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Minister.

Let us pray.

OAlmighty God, We give thee humble thanks for that thou hast vouchsafed to deliver this woman thy servant from the great pain and peril of child-bith; Grant, we beseech thee, most merciful Father, that she through thy help may both faithfully live, and walk according to thy will in this life present, and also may be partaker of everlasting glory in the life to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pſa 119. 21. NOw ſeeing that all they are accurſed (as the prophet David beareth witneſs) who do err and go aſtray from the commandments of God, let us (remembring the dreadful judgement hanging over our heads, and always ready to fall upon us) return unto our Lord God with all contrition and meekneſs of heart, bewailing and lamenting our ſinful life, acknowledging and confeſſing our offences, and ſeeking to bring forth worthy fruits of penance. For now is S. Mat. 3. 10 the ax put unto the root of the trees; ſo that every tree that bringeth Heb. 10. 31. not forth good fruit, is hewn down and caſt into the fire. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God: He ſhall pour down Pſal. 11. 6. rain upon the ſinners, ſnares, fire and brimſtone, ſtorm and tempeſt; Iſa. 26. 21. this ſhall be their portion to drink. For lo, the Lord is come out of his place to viſit the wickedneſs of ſuch as dwell upon the earth. But Mal 3. 2. who may abide the day of his coming; Who ſhall be able to endure S. Mat. 3. 12. when he appeareth; His fan is in hand, and he will purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the barn, but he will burn the chaff with 1 Theſ. 5. v. 2, 3. unquenchable fire. The day of the Lord cometh as a thief in the night: and when men ſhall ſay, Peace, and all things are ſafe, then ſhall ſudden deſtruction come upon them, as ſorrow cometh upon a woman travailing with child, and they ſhall not eſcape. Then ſhall Rom. 2. 4, 5. appear the wrath of God in the day of vengeance, which obſtinate ſinners through the ſtubbornneſs of their heart, have heaped unto themſelvs, which deſpiſed the goodneſs, patience, and long-ſufferance of God, when he called them continually to repentance. Then Prov 1. 28, 29, 30. ſhall they call upon me (ſaith the Lord) but I wil not hear, they ſhall ſeek me early, but they ſhall not find me, and that becauſe they hated knowledge, and received not the fear of the Lord, but abhorred my SMat. 25. counſel, and deſpiſed my correction. Then ſhall it be too late to 10, 11, 12. knock when the door ſhall be ſhut, and too late to cry for mercy when it is the time of juſtice. O terrible voice of moſt juſt judgement which S. Mat 25. v. 41. ſhall be pronounced upon them, when it ſhall be ſaid unto them, Go ye curſed into the fire everlaſting which is prepared for the devil and 2 Cor. 6. 2. his angels. Therefore brethren, take we heed betime, while the day S. John 9. 4, 12, 35. 36. of ſalvation laſteth, for the night cometh, when none can work, but let us, while we have the light; believe in the light, and walk as children of the light, that we be not caſt into utter darkneſs, where S. Mat. 25. v. 30. is weeping and gnaſhing of teeth. Let us not abuſe the goodneſs of God, who calleth us mercifully to amendment, and of his endleſs pity promiſeth us forgiveneſs of that which is paſt, if with a perfect and true heart we return unto him. For though our ſins be as red as Iſa. 1 18. ſcarlet, they ſhall be made white as ſnow: and though they be like purple, yet they ſhall be made white as wool. Turn ye (ſaith the Lord) Eze. 18 30, from all your wickedneſs, and your ſin ſhall not be your deſtruction. 31, 32. Caſt away from you all your ungodlineſs that ye have done, make you new hearts, and a new ſpirit: wherefore will ye die, O ye houſe of Iſrael, ſeeing that I have no pleaſure in the death of him that dieth, ſaith the Lord God; Turn ye then, and ye ſhall live. Although we 1 S. John 2 have ſinned, yet have we an Advocate with the Father, Jeſus Chriſt v. 1. the righteous, and he is the propitiation for our ſins. For he was Iſa. 53. 5 wounded for our offences, and ſmitten for our wickedneſs. Let us therefore return unto him, who is the merciful receiver of all true penitent ſinners, aſſuring our ſelvs that he is ready to receive us, and moſt willing to pardon us, if we come unto him with faithful repentance. if we will ſubmit our ſelvs unto him; and from henceforth walk in his ways, if we will take his eaſie yoke, and light burden upon us, to follow him in lowlineſs, patience, and charity, and be S. Mat. 11. ordered by the governance of his Holy Spirit, ſeeking always his glory, v. 29, 30. and ſerving him duly in our vocation with thankſgiving. This if we do, Chriſt will deliver us from the curſe of the Law, and from the ex- S. Mat. 25 tream malediction which ſhall light upon them that ſhall be ſet on the v. 33, 34. left hand; and he will ſet us on his right hand, and give us the gracious benediction of his Father, commanding us to take poſſeſſion of his glorious kingdom: unto which he vouchſafe to bring us all, for his infinite mercy. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall they all kneel upon their knees, and the Prieſt and Clerk) kneeling (in the place where they are accuſtomed to ſay the Litany) ſhall ſay this Pſalm.

Miſerere mei, Deus. Pſal. 51.

HAve mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodneſs: according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences.

Waſh me throughly from my wickedneſs: and cleanſe me from my ſin.

For I acknowledge my faults: and my ſin is ever before me.

Againſt thee onely have I ſinned, and done this evil in thy ſight that thou mighteſt be juſtified in thy ſaying, and clear when thou art judged.

Behold, I was ſhapen in wickedneſs: and in ſin hath my mother conceived me.

But lo, thou requireſt truth in the inwards parts: and ſhalt make me to underſtand wiſdom ſecretly.

Thou ſhalt, purge me with hyſſop, and I ſhall be clean: thou ſhalt waſh me, and I ſhall be whiter than ſnow.

Thou ſhalt make me hear of joy and gladneſs: that the bones which thou haſt broken may rejoyce.

Turn thy face from my ſins: and put out all my miſdeeds.

Make me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right Spirit within me.

Caſt me not away from thy preſence: and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

O give me the comfort of thy help again: and ſtabliſh me with thy free Spirit.

Then ſhall I teach thy ways unto the wicked: and ſinners ſhall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from blood-guiltineſs, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue ſhall ſing of thy righteouſneſs.

Thou ſhalt open my lips, O Lord, and my mouth ſhall ſhew thy praiſe.

For thou deſireſt no ſacrifice, elſe would I give it thee: but thou delighteſt not in burnt-offerings.

The ſacrifice of God, is a troubled ſpirit: a broken and contrite hearth, O God ſhall thou not deſpiſe.

O be favourable and gracious unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jeruſalem.

Then ſhalt thou be pleaſed with the ſacrifice of righteouſneſs, with the burnt offerings, and oblations: then ſhall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghoſt;

Anſw. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen,

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Chriſt, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUr Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, As we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Miniſter. O Lord, ſave thy ſervant;

Anſwer. That put their truſt in thee.

Miniſter. Send unto them help from above.

Anſwer, And evermore mightily defend them.

Miniſter. Help us, O God our Saviour.

Anſwer. And for the glory of thy Name deliver us: be merciful to us ſinners for thy Name ſake.

Miniſter. O Lord, hear our prayer.

Anſwer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Miniſter. Let us pray.

O Lord,

O Lord, we beſeech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and ſpare all thoſe who confeſs their ſins unto thee, that they whoſe conſciences by ſin are accuſed, by thy merciful pardon may be abſolved, through Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

O Moſt mighty God, and merciful Father, who haſt compaſſion upon all men, and hateſt nothing that thou haſt made, who wouldeſt not the death of a ſinner, but that he ſhould rather turn from his ſin, and be ſaved; Mercifully forgive us our treſpaſſes, receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our ſins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee onely it appertainet to forgive ſins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, ſpare thy people whom thou haſt redeemed; enter not into judgement with thy ſervants, who are vile earth, and miſerable ſinners; but ſo turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileneſs, and truly repent us of our faults; and ſo make haſte to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the people ſay this that followeth: after the Miniſter.

TUrn thou us, O good Lord, and ſo ſhall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, faſting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, Full of compaſſion, Long-ſuffering, and of great pity. Thou ſpareſt when we deſerve puniſhment, And in thy wrath thinkeſt upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, ſpare them, And let not thine heritage be brought to confuſion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, And after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, Through the merits and mediation of thy bleſſed Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Miniſter alone ſhall ſay,

The Lord bleſs us, and keep us; the Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon us, and give us peace now and for evermore. Amen.

THE PSALTER or PSALMS OF DAVID,

After the Tranſlation of the Great BIBLE, Pointed as they are to be ſung or ſaid in CHURCHES.

Morning-Prayer.

Beatus vir, qui non abiit. Pſal. 1.

BLeſſed is the man that hath not walked in the counſel of the ungodly, nor ſtood in the way of ſinners: and hath not ſat in the ſeat of the ſcornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his law will he exerciſe himſelf day and night.

3 And he ſhall be like a tree planted by the water-ſide: that will bring forth his fruit in due ſeaſon.

4 His leaf alſo ſhall not wither: and look whatſoever he doth, it ſhall proſper.

5 As for the ungodly it is not ſo with them: but they are like the chaff which the wind ſcattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly ſhall not be able to ſtand in the judgement: neither the ſinners in the congregation of the righteous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the ungodly ſhall periſh.

Quare fremuerunt gentes? Pſal. 2.

WHy do the heathen ſo furiouſly rage together: and why do the people imagine a vain thing;

2 The kings of the earth ſtand up, and the rulers take counſel together: againſt the Lord, and againſt his anointed.

3 Let us break their bonds aſunder: and caſt away their cords from us.

4 He that dwelleth in heaven, ſhall laugh them to ſcorn: the Lord ſhall have them in deriſion.

5 Then ſhall he ſpeak unto them in his wrath: and vex them in his ſore diſpleaſure.

6 Yet have I ſet my king: upon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will preach the law whereof the Lord hath ſaid unto me: Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

8 Deſire of me, and I ſhall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance: and the utmoſt parh of the earth for thy poſſeſſion.

9 Thou ſhalt bruiſe them with a rod of iron: and break them in pieces like a potters veſſel.

10 Be wiſe now therefore, O ye kings: be learned, ye that are judges of earth.

11 Serve the Lord in fear: and rejoyce unto him with reverence.

12 Kiſs the Son, leſt he be angry, and ſo ye periſh from the right way: if his wrath be kindled (yea, but a little) bleſſed are all they that put their truſt in him.

Domine, quid multiplicati? Pſal. 3.

LOrd, how are they increaſed that trouble me: many are they that riſe againſt me.

2 Many one there be that ſay of my ſoul: there is no help for him in his God.

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender: thou art my worſhip, and the lifter up of my head.

4 I did call upon the Lord with my voice: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5 I laid me down and ſlept, and roſe up again: for the Lord ſuſtained me.

6 I wil not be afraid for ten thouſands of the people; that have ſet themſelves againſt me round about.

7 Up Lord, and help me, O my God: for thou ſmiteſt all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou haſt broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongeth unto the Lord: and thy bleſſing is upon thy people.

Cum invocarem. Pſal. 4.

HEar me when I heall, O God of my righteouſneſs: thou haſt ſet me at libery when I was in trouble; have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

2 O ye ſons of men, how long will ye blaſpheme mine honour: and have ſuch pleaſure in vanity, and ſeek after leaſing?

3 Know this alſo, that the Lord hath choſen to himſelf the man that is godly: when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.

4 Stand in aw, and ſin not: commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be ſtill.

5 Offer the ſacrifice of righteouſneſs: and put your truſt in the Lord,

6 There be many that ſay: Who will ſhew us any good?

7 Lord, lift thou up: the light of thy contenance upon us,

8 Thou haſt put gladneſs in my heart: ſince the time that their corn and wine and oil increaſed.

9 I will lay me down in peace, and take my reſt: for it is thou, Lord, onely that makeſt me dwell in ſafety.

Verba mea auribus. Pſal. 5.

POnder my words, O Lord: conſider my meditation.

2 O hearken thou unto the vaice of my calling, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voice ſhalt thou hear betimes, O Lord: early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art the God that haſt no pleaſure in wickedneſs, neither ſhall any evil dwell with thee.

5 Such as be fooliſh ſhall not ſtand in thy ſight; for thou hateſt all them that work vanity.

6 Thou ſhalt deſtroy them that ſpeak leaſing: the Lord will abhor both the bloud-thirſty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thine houſe, even upon the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worſhip toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteonſneſs, becauſe of mine enemies: make thy way plain before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulneſs in his mouth: their inward parts are very wickedneſs.

10 Their throat is an open ſepulchre: they flatter with their tongues.

11 Deſtroy thou them, O God, let them periſh through their own imaginations: caſt them out in the multitude of their ungodlineſs; for they have rebelled againſt thee.

12 And let all them that put their truſt in thee rejoyce: they ſhall ever be giving of thanks, becauſe thou defendeſt them: they that love thy Name, ſhall be joyful in thee.

13 For thou, Lord, wilt give thy bleſſing unto the righteous: and with thy favourable kindneſs wilt thou defend him as with a ſhield.

Domine ne. Pſal. 6.

O Lord, rebuke me not in thine indignation: neither chaſten me in thy diſpleaſure.

2 Have merey upon me, O Lord, for I am weak: O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My ſoul alſo is ſore troubled: but, Lord, how long wilt thou puniſh me?

4 Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my ſoul: O ſave me for thy mercies ſake.

5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and who will give thee thanks in the pit?

6 I am weary of my groaning, every night waſh I my bed: and water my couch with my tears.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worn away, becauſe of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me, all ye that work vanity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies ſhall be confounded, and ſore vexed: they ſhall be turned back, and put to ſhame ſuddenly.]

Domine, Deus meus. Pſal. 7.

O Lord my God, in thee have I put truſt: ſave me from all them that perſecute me, and deliever me:

2 Leſt he devour my ſoul like a lion, and tear it in pieces: while there is none to help.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done any ſuch thing: or if there be any wickedneſs in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that dealt friendly with me: yea, I have delivered him that without any cauſe is mine enemy;

5 Then let mine enemy perſecute my ſoul, and take me: yea, let him tread my life down upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the duſt.

6 Stand up, O Lord, in thy wrath, and lift up thy ſelf, becauſe of the indignation of mine enemies: ariſe up for me in the judgement that thou haſt commanded.

7 And ſo ſhall the congregation of the people come about thee: for their ſakes therefore lift up thy ſelf again.

8 The Lord ſhall judge the people, give ſentence with me, O Lord: according to my righteouſneſs, and according to the innocency that is in me.

9 O let the wickedneſs of the ungodly come to an end: but guide thou the juſt.

10 For the righteous God: trieth the very heart and reins.

11 My help cometh of God: who preſerveth them that are true of heart.

12 God is a righteous judge, ſtrong and patient: and God is provoked every day.

13 If a man will not turn, he will whet his ſword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

14 He hath prepared for him the inſtruments of death: he ordained his arrows againſt the perſecutors.

15 Behold, he travelleth with miſchief: he hath conceived ſorrow, and brought forth ungodlineſs.

16 He hath graven and diggen up a pit: and is faln himſelf into the deſtruction that he made for other.

17 For his travel ſhall come upon his own head: and his wickedneſs ſhall fall on his own pate.

18 I will give thanks unto the Lord, according to his righteouſneſs: and I will praiſe the Name of the Lord moſt high.

Domine, Dominus noſter. Pſal. 8.

O Lord our Governour, how excellent is thy Name in all the world: thou that haſt ſet thy glory above the heaven!

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and ſucklings haſt thou ordained ſtrength; becauſe of thine enemies: that thou mighteſt ſtill the enemy and the avenger.

3 For I will conſider thy heavens, even the works of thy fingers: the moon and the ſtars which thou haſt ordained.

5 What is man, that thou art mindful of him: and the ſon of man, that thou viſiteſt him?

5 Thou madeſt him lower than the angels: to crown him with glory and worſhip.

6 Thou makeſt him to have dominion of the works of thy hands: and thou haſt put all things in ſubjection under his feet;

7 All ſheep and oxen: yea, and the beaſts of the field,

8 The fowls of the air, and the fiſhes of the ſea: and whatſoever walketh through the paths of the ſeas.

9 O Lord our Governour: how excellent is thy Name in all the world!

Confitebor tibi. Pſal. 9.

Morning-Prayer. I Will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will ſpeak of all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoyce in thee: yea, my ſongs will I make of thy Name, O thou moſt Higheſt.

3 While mine enemies are driven back: they ſhall fall and periſh at thy preſence.

4 For thou haſt maintained my right, and my cauſe: thou art ſet in the throne that judgeſt right.

5 Thou haſt rebuked the heathen, and deſtroyed, the ungodly: thou haſt put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, deſtructions are come to a perpetual end: even as the cities which thou haſt deſtroyed; their memorial is periſhed with them.

7 But the Lord ſhall endure for ever: he hath alſo prepared his ſeat for judgement.

8 For he ſhall judge the world in righteouſneſs: and miniſter true judgement unto the people.

9 The Lord alſo will be a defence for the oppreſſed. even a refuge in due time of trouble.

10 And they that know my Name will put their truſt in thee: for thou, Lord, haſt never failed them that ſeek thee.

11 O praiſe the Lord which dwelleth in Sion: ſhew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquiſition for bloud, be remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaint of the poor.

13 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, conſider the trouble which I ſuffer of them that hate me: thou that liſteſt me up from the gates of death.

14 That I may ſhew all thy praiſes within the ports of the daughter of Sion: I will rejoyce in thy ſalvation.

15 The heathen are ſunk down in the pit that they made: in the ſame net which they hid privily, is their foot taken.

16 The Lord is known to execute judgement: the ungodly is trapped in the work of his own hands.

17 The wicked ſhall be turned into hell: and all the people that forget God.

18 For the poor ſhall not alway be forgotten: the patient abiding of the meek ſhall not periſh for ever.

19 Up Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy ſight.

20 Put them in fear, O Lord: that the heathen may know themſelvs to be but men.

Ut quid, Domine. Pſal. x.

WHy ſtandeſt thou ſo far off, O Lord: and hideſt thy face in the needful time of trouble?

2 The ungodly for his own luſt doth perſecute the poor: let them be taken in the crafty wilineſs that they have imagined.

3 For the ungodly hath made boaſt of his own hearts deſire: and ſpeaketh good of the covetous whom God abhorreth.

4 The ungodly is ſo proud, that he careth not for God: neither is God in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are alway grievous: thy judgements are far above out of his ſight, and therefore defieth he all his enemies.

6 For he hath ſaid in his heart, Tuſh, I ſhall never be caſt down: there ſhall no harm happen unto me.

7 His mouth is full of curſing, deceit, and fraud: under his tongue is ungodlineſs and vanity.

8 He ſitteth lurking in the thieviſh corners of the ſtreets: and privily in his lurking dens doth he murther the innocent; his eyes are ſet againſt the poor.

9 For he lyeth waiting ſecretly, even as a lion lurketh he in his den: that he may raviſh the poor.

10 He doth raviſh the poor: when he getteth him into his net.

11 He falleth down and humbleth himſelf: that the congregation of the poor may fall into the hands of his captains.

12 He hath ſaid in his heart, Tuſh, God hath forgotten: he hideth away his face, and he will never ſee it.

13 Ariſe, O Lord God, and lift up thine hand: forget not the poor.

14 Wherefore ſhould the wicked blaſpheme God: while he doth ſay in his heart, Tuſh, thou God careſt nor for it?

15 Surely thou haſt ſeen it: for thou beholdeſt ungodlineſs, and wrong.

16 That thou mayeſt take the matter into thy hand: the poor committeth himſelf unto thee; for thou art the helper of the friendleſs.

17 Break thou the power of the ungodly and malicious: take away his ungodlineſs, and thou ſhalt find none.

18 The Lord is King for ever and ever: and the heathen are periſhed out of the land.

19 Lord, thou haſt heard the deſire of the poor: thou prepareſt their heart, and thine ear hearkeneth thereto.

20 To help the fatherleſs and poor unto their right: that the man of the earth be no more exalted againſt them.

In Domino confido. Pſal. 11.

IN the Lord put I my truſt: how ſay ye then to my ſoul, that ſhe ſhould flee as a bird unto the hill?

2 For lo, the ungodly bend their bow, and make ready their arrows within the quiver: that they may privily ſhoot at them which are true of heart.

3 For the foundations will be caſt down: and what hath the righteous done?

4 The Lord is in his holy temple: the Lords ſeat is in heaven.

5 His eyes conſider the poor: and his eye-lids try the children of men.

6 The Lord alloweth the righteous: but the ungodly, and him that delighteth in wickedneſs, doth his ſoul abhor.

7 Upon the ungodly he ſhall rain ſnares, fire and brimſtone, ſtorm & tempeſt: this ſhall be their portion to drink.

8 For the righteous Lord loveth righteouſneſs: his countenance will behold the thing that is juſt.

Salvum me fac. Pſal. 12.

HElp me, Lord, for there is not one godly man left: for the faithful are miniſhed from among the children of men. Evening-Prayer.

2 They talk of vanity every one with his neighbour: they do but flatter with their lips, and diſſemble in their double heart.

3 The Lord ſhall root out all deceitful lips: and the tongue that ſpeaketh proud things.

4 Which have ſaid, With our tongue will we prevail: we are they that ought to ſpeak, who is lord over us?

5 Now for the comfortleſs troubles ſake of the needy: and becauſe of the deep ſighing of the poor;

6 I will up, ſaith the Lord: and will help every one from him that ſwelleth againſt him, and will ſet him at reſt.

7 The

7 The words of the Lord are pure words: even as the ſilver, which from the earth is tryed, and purfied ſeven times in the fire.

8 Thou ſhalt keep them, O Lord: thou ſhalt preſerve him from this generation for ever.

9 The ungodly walk on every ſide: when they are exalted, the children of men are put to rebuke.

Uſque quo Domine? Pſal. 13.

HOw long wilt thou forget me, O Lord, for ever: how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long ſhall I ſeek counſul in my ſoul, and be ſo vexed in my heart: how long ſhall mine enemies triumph over me?

3 Conſider and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, that I ſleep not in death.

4 Leſt mine enemy ſay, I have prevailed againſt him: for if I be caſt down, they that trouble me, will rejoyce at it.

5 But my truſt is in they mercy: and my heart is joyful in thy ſalvation.

6 I will ſing of the Lord, becauſe he hath dealt ſo lovingly with me: yea, I will praiſe the Name of the Lord moſt Higheſt.

Dixit inſipiens. Pſal. 14.

THe fool hath ſaid in his heart: There is no God.

2 They are corrupt, and become abominable in their doings; there is none that doth good, no not one.

2 The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men: to ſee if there were any that would underſtand, and ſeek after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way: they are altogether become abominable: there is none that doth good, no not one.

5 Their throat is an open ſepulchre, with their tongues have they deceived: the poiſon of aſps is under their lips.

6 Their mouth is full of curſing, and bitterneſs: their feet are ſwift to ſhed blood.

7 Deſtruction and unhappineſs is in their ways, and the way of peace have they not known: there is no fear of God before their eyes.

8 Have they no knowledge, that they are all ſuch workers of miſchief: eating up my people as it were bread, and call not upon the Lord?

9 There were they brought in great fear, even where no fear was: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

10 As for you, ye have made a mock at the counſul of the poor: becauſe he putteth his truſt in the Lord.

11 Who ſhall give ſalvation unto Iſrael out of Sion; When the Lord turneth the captivity of his people: then ſhall Jacob rejoyce, and Iſrael ſhall be glad.

Domine, quis habitabit. Pſal. 15.

Morning-Prayer.

LOrd, who ſhall dwell in thy tabernacle: or who ſhall reſt upon thy hoyly hill?

2 Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life and doth the thing which is right, and ſpeaketh the truth from his heart.

3 He that hath uſed no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbour: and hath not ſlandered his neighbour.

4 He that ſetteth not by himſelf, but is lowly in his own eyes: and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

5 He that ſweareth unto his neighbour, and diſapointeth him not: though it were to his own hindrance.

6 He that hath not given his money upon uſury: nor taken reward againſt the innocent.

7 Who ſo doth theſe things: ſhall never fall.

Conſerva me, Domine. Pſal. 16.

PReſerve me, O God: for in thee have I put my truſt.

2 O my ſoul, thou haſt ſaid unto the Lord: Thou art my God, my goods are nothing unto thee.

3 All my delight is upon the ſaints that are in the earth: and upon ſuch as excel in vertue.

4 But they that run after another god: ſhall have great trouble.

5 Their drink-offerings of bloud will I not offer: neither make mention of their names within my lips.

6 The Lord himſelf is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou ſhalt maintain my lot.

7 The lot is fallen unto me in a fair ground: yea, I have a goodly heritage.

8 I will thank the Lord for giving me warning: my reins alſo chaſten me in the night-ſeaſon.

9 I have ſet God always before me: for he is on my right hand, therefore I ſhall not fall.

10 Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory rejoyced: my fleſh alſo ſhall reſt in hope.

11 For why? thou ſhalt not leave my ſoul in hell: neither ſhalt thou ſuffer thy holy One to ſee corruption.

12 Thou ſhalt ſhew me the path of life, in thy preſence is the fulneſs of joy: and at thy right hand there is pleaſure for evermore.

Exaudi, Domine. Pſal. 17.

HEar the right, O Lord, conſider my complaint: and hearken unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my ſentence come forth from thy preſence: and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal.

3 Thou haſt proved, and viſited mine heart in the night-ſeaſon; thou haſt tryed me, and ſhalt find no wickedneſs in me: for I am utterly purpoſed that my mouth ſhall not offend.

4 Becauſe of mens works, that are don againſt the words of thy lips: I have kept me from the ways of the deſtroyer.

5 O Hold thou up my goings in thy paths: that my footſteps ſlip not.

6 I have called upon thee, O God, for thou ſhalt hear me: incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words.

7 Shew thy marvellous loving kindneſs, thou that art the Saviour of them which put their truſt in thee: from ſuch as reſiſt thy right hand.

8 Keep me as the apple of an eye: hide me under the ſhadow of thy wings.

9 From the ungodly that trouble me: mine enemies compaſs me round about to take away my ſoul.

10 They are incloſed in their own fat: and their mouth ſpeaketh proud things.

11 They lie waiting in our way on every ſide: turning their eyes down to the ground.

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his ptey: and as it were a lions whelp, lurking in ſecret places.

13 Up, Lord, diſappoint him, and caſt him down: deliver my ſoul from the ungodly, which is a ſword of thine.

14 From the men of thy hand, O Lord, from the men, I ſay, and from the evil world: which have their portion in this life, whoſe bellies thou filleſt with thy hid treaſure.

15 They have children at their deſire: and leave the reſt of their ſubſtance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will behold thy preſence in righteouſneſs: and when I a wake up after thy likeneſs, I ſhall be ſatisfied with it.

Deligam te, Domine. Pſal. 18.

IWill love thee, O Lord, my ſtrength: the Lord is my ſtony rock, and my defence: my Saviour, my God, and my might, in whom I will truſt, my buckler, the horn alſo of my ſalvation, and my refuge. Evening-Prayer.

2 I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praiſed: ſo ſhall I be ſafe from mine enemies.

3 The ſorrows of death compaſſed me: and the overflowings of ungodlineſs made me afraid.

4 The pains of hell came about me: the ſnares of death overtook me.

5 In my trouble I will call upon the Lord: and complain unto my God.

6 So ſhall he hear my voice out of his holy temple: and my complaint ſhall come before him, it ſhall enter even into his ears.

7 The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundation alſo of the hills ſhook, and were removed, becauſe he was wroth.

8 There went a ſmoke out in his preſence: and a conſuming fire out of his mouth. ſo that coals were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens alſo, and came down: and it was dark under his feet.

10 He rode upon the Cherubins, and did flie: he came flying upon the wing of the wind.

11 He made darkneſs his ſecret place: his pavilion round about him with dark water, and thick clouds to couer him.

12 At the brightneſs of his preſence his clouds removed: hail ſtones, and coals of fire.

13 The Lord alſo thundred out of heaven, and the Higheſt gave his thunder: hail-ſtones, and coals of fire.

14 He ſent out his arrows, and ſcattered them: he caſt forth lightnings, and deſtroyed them.

15 The ſprings of waters were ſeen, and the foundations of the round world were diſcovered at thy chiding, O Lord: at the blaſting of the breath of thy diſpleaſure.

16 He ſhall ſend down from on high to fetch me: and ſhall take me out of many waters.

17 He ſhall deliver me from my ſtrongeſt enemy, and from them which hate me: for they are too mighty for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my upholder.

19 He brought me forth alſo into a place of liberty: he brought me forth, even becauſe he had a favour unto me.

20 The Lord ſhall reward me after my righteous dealing: according to the cleanneſs of my hands ſhall he recompenſe me.

21 Becauſe I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not forſaken my God, as the wicked doth.

22 For I have an eye unto all his laws: and will not caſt out his commandments from me.

23 I was alſo incorrupt before him: and eſchewed mine own wickedneſs.

24 Therefore ſhall the Lord reward me after my righteous dealing: and according unto the cleanneſs of my hands in his eye-ſight.

25 With the holy thou ſhalt be holy: and with a perfect man thou ſhalt be perfect.

26 With the clean thou ſhalt the be clean: and with the froward thou ſhalt learn frowardneſs.

27 For thou ſhalt ſave the people that are in adverſity: and ſhalt bring down the heigh looks of the proud.

28 Thou alſo ſhalt light my candle: the Lord my God ſhall make my darkneſs to be light.

29 For in thee I ſhall diſcomfit an hoſt of men: and with the help of my God I ſhall leap over the wall.

30 The way of God is an undefiled way: the word of the Lord alſo is tried in the fire; he is the defender of all them that put their truſt in him.

31 For who is God, but the Lord: or who hath any ſtrength, except our God?

32 It is God that girdeth me with ſtrength of war: and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like harts feet: and setteth me up on high.
34 He teacheth mine hands to fight: and mine arms shall break even a bow of steel.
35 Thou hast given me the defence of thy salvation: thy right hand also shall hold me up, and thy loving correction shall make me great.
36 Thou shalt make room enough under me for to go: that my foot-steps shall not slide.
37 I will follow upon mine enemies, and overtake them: neither will I turn again till I have destroyed them.
38 I will smite them, that they shall not be able to stand: but fall under my feet.
39 Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battel: thou shalt throw down mine enemies under me.
40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their backs upon me: and I shall destroy them that hate me.
41 They shall cry, but there shall be none to help them: yea, even unto the Lord shall they cry, but he shall not hear them.
42 I will beat them as small as the dust before the wind: I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.
43 Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings of the people: and thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.
44 A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
45 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: but the strange children shall dissemble with me.
46 The strange children shall fail: and be afraid out of their prisons.
47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my strong helper: and praised be the God of my salvation.
48 Even the God that seeth that I be avenged: and subdueth the people unto me.
49 It is he that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.
50 For this cause will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles: and sing praises unto thy Name.
51 Great prosperity giveth he unto his king: and sheweth loving kindness unto David his anointed, unto his seed for evermore.

Cœli enarrant. Psal. 19.

Morning-Prayer.

THe heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.
2 One day telleth another: and one night certifieth another.
3 There is neither speech nor language: but their voices are heard among them.
4 Their sound is gon out into all lands: and their words into the ends of the world.
5 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoyceth as a giant to run his course.
6 It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, and runneth about unto the end of it again: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
7 The law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.
8 The statutes of the Lord are right; and rejoyce the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.
9 The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever: the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.
11 Moreover by them is thy servant taught: and in keeping of them there is great reward.
12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth: O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.
13 Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me: so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.
14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart: be alway acceptable in thy sight, 15 O Lord, my strength: and my redeemer.

Exaudiat te Dominus. Psal. 20.

THe Lord hear thee in the day of trouble: the Name of the God of Jacob defend thee.
2 Send the help from the sanctuary: and strengethen thee out of Zion.
3 Remember al they offerings: and accept thy burnt-sacrifice.
4 Grant thee thy hearts desire: and fulfill all thy mind.
5 We will rejoyce in thy salvation, and triump in the Name of the Lord our God: the Lord perform all thy petitions.
6 Now know I that the Lord helpeth his anointed, and will hear him from his holy heaven: even with the wholsome strength of his right hand.
7 Some put their trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the Name of the Lord our God.
8 They are brought down, and faln: but we are risen, and stand upright.
9 Save, Lord, and hear us, O King of heaven: when we call upon thee.

Domine in virtute tua. Psal. 21.

THe king shall rejoyce in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation.
2 Thou hast given him his hearts desire: and hast not denied him the request of his lips.
3 For thou shalt prevent him with the blessings of goodness: and shalt set a crown of pure gold upon his head.
4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life: even for ever and ever.
5 His honour is great in thy salvation: glory and great worship shalt thou lay upon him.
6 For thou shalt give him everlasting felicity: and make him glad with the joy of thy countenance.
7 And why? because the king putterh his trust in the Lord: and in the mercy of the most Highest he shall not miscarry.
8 All thine enemies shall feel thy hand: thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.
9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery oven in the time of wrath: the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.
10 Their fruit shalt thou root of the earth: and their seed from among the children of men.
11 For they intended mischief against thee: and imagined such a device as they are not able to perform.
12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make ready against the face of them.
13 Be thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength: so will we sing, and praise thy power.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. 22.

MY God, my God, look upon me, why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint? Evening-Prayer.
2 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou heares not: and in the night season also I take no rest.
3 And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel.
4 Our fathers hoped in thee: thy trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.
5 They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.
6 But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the out-cast of the people.
7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying,
8 He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him.
9 But thou art he that took me out of my mothers womb: thou wast my hope, when I hanged yet upon my mothers breasts.
10 I have been left unto thee ever since I was born: thou art my God even from my mothers womb.
11 O go no from me, for trouble is hard at hand: and there is none to help me.
12 Many oxen are come about me: fat bulls of Basan close me in on every side.
13 They gape upon me with their mouths: as it were a ramping and a roaring lion.
14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joynt: my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.
15 My strength is dryed up like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaveth to my gums: and thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.
16 For many dogs are come about me: and the counsil of the wicked layeth siege against me.
17 They pierced my hands and my feet, I may tell all my bones: they stand staring and looking upon me.
18 They part my garments among them: and cast lots upon my vesture.
19 But be not thou far from me, O Lord: thou art my succour, haste thee to help me.
20 Deliver my soul from the sword: my darling from the power of the dog.
21 Save me from the lions mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.
22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
23 O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob, and fear him, all ye seed of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the low estate of the poor: he hath not hid his face from him, but when he called unto him, he heard him.
25 My praise is of thee in the great congregation: my vows will I perform in the sight of them that fear him.
26 The poor shall eat and be satisfied: they that seek after the Lord, shall praise him; your heart shall live for ever.
27 All the ends of the world shall remember themselvs, and be turned unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.
28 For the kingdom is the Lords: and he is the governour among the people.
29 All such as be fat upon earth: haven eaten and worshipped.
30 All they that go down into the dust, shall kneel before him: and no man hath quickned his own soul.
31 My seed shall serve him: they shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation.
32 They shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness; unto a people that shall be born, whom the Lord hath made.

Dominus regit me. Psal. 23.

THe Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.
2 He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

3 He

3 He ſhall convert my ſoul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteouſneſs for his Names ſake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the ſhadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy ſtaff comfort me.

5 Thou ſhalt prepare a table before me againſt them that trouble me: thou haſt anointed my head with oyl, and my cup ſhall be full.

6 But thy loving kindneſs and mercy ſhall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the houſe of the Lord for ever.

Domini eſt terra. Pſal. 24.

Morning-Prayer.

THE earth is the Lords, and all that therein is: the compaſs of the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the ſeas: and prepared it upon the flouds.

3 Who ſhall aſcend into the hill of the Lord: or who ſhall riſe up in his holy place?

4 Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart: and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor ſworn to deceive his neighbour.

5 He ſhall receive the bleſſing from the Lord: and righteouſneſs from the God of his ſalvation.

6 This is the generation of them that ſeek him: even of them that ſeek thy face, O Jacob.

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlaſting doors: and the King of glory ſhall come in.

8 Who is the King of glory: it is the Lord ſtrong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battel.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlaſting doors: and the King of glory ſhall come in.

10 Who is the King of glory: even the Lord of hoſts, he is the King of glory.

Ad te, Domine, levavi. Pſal. 25.

UNto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my ſoul, my God, I have put my truſt in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

2 For all they that hope in thee ſhall not be aſhamed: but ſuch as tranſgreſs without a cauſe, ſhall be put to confuſion.

3 Shew me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths.

4 Lead me forth in thy truth, and learn me: for thou art the God of my ſalvation; in thee hath been my hope all the day long.

5 Call to remembrance, O Lord: thy tender mercies: and thy loving kindneſſes, which have been ever of old.

6 O remember not the ſins, and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercy think thou upon me, O Lord, for thy goodneſs.

7 Gracious, and righteous is the Lord: therefore will he teach ſinners in the way.

8 Them that are meek, ſhall he guide in judgement: and ſuch as are gentle, them ſhall he learn his way.

9 All the paths of the Lord are mercy, and truth: unto ſuch as keep his covenant, and his teſtimonies.

10 For thy Names ſake, O Lord: be merciful unto my ſin, for it is great.

11 What man is he that feareth the Lord: him ſhall he teach in the way that he ſhall chooſe.

12 His ſoul ſhall dwell at eaſe: and his ſeed ſhall inherit the land.

13 The ſecret of the Lord is among them that fear him: and he will ſhew them his covenant.

14 Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord: for he ſhall pluck my feet out of the net.

15 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me: for I am deſolate, and in miſery.

16 The ſorrows of my heart are inlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles.

17 Look upon my adverſity, and miſery: and forgive me all my ſin.

18 Conſider mine enemies how many they are: and they bear a tyrannous hate againſt me.

19 O keep my ſoul, and deliver me: let me not be confounded, for I have put my truſt in thee.

20 Let perfectneſs, and righteous dealing wait upon me: for my hope hath been in thee.

21 Deliver Iſrael, O God: ont of all his troubles.

Judica me, Domine. Pſal. 26.

BE thou my Judge, O Lord, for I have walked innocently: my truſt hath been alſo in the Lord, therefore ſhall I not fall.

2 Examine me, O Lord, and prove me: try out my reins, and my heart.

3 For thy loving kindneſs is ever before mine eyes: and I will walk in thy truth.

4 I have not dwelt with vain perſons: neither will I have fellowſhip with the deceitful.

5 I have hated the congregation of the wicked: and will not ſit among the ungodly.

6 I will waſh my hands in innocency, O Lord: and ſo will I go to thine altar;

7 That I may ſhew the voice of thankſgiving: and tell of all thy wondrous works.

8 Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy houſe: and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

9 O ſhut not up my ſoul with the ſinners: nor my life with the blood thirſty.

10 In whoſe hands is wickedneſs: and their right hand is full of gifts.

11 But as for me, I will walk innocently: O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.

12 My foot ſtandeth right: I will praiſe the Lord in the congregations.

Dominus illuminatio. Pſal. 27.

THE Lord is my light, and my ſalvation; whom then ſhall I fear: the Lord is the ſtrength of my life; of whom then ſhall I be afraid? Evening-Prayer.

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies, and my foes came upon me to eat up my fleſh: they ſtumbled, and fell.

3 Though an hoſt of men were laid againſt me, yet ſhall not my head be afraid: and though there roſe up war againſt me, yet will I put my truſt in him.

4 One thing have I deſired of the Lord, which I will require: even that I may dwell in the houſe of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to viſit his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he ſhall hide me in his tabernacle: yea, in the ſecret of his dwelling ſhall he hide me, and ſet me upon a rock of ſtone.

6 And now ſhall he lift up mine head: above mine enemies round about me.

7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladneſs: I will ſing, and ſpeak praiſes unto the Lord.

8 Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee: have mercy upon me, and hear me.

9 My heart hath talked of thee, Seek ye my face: thy face, Lord, will I ſeek.

10 O hide not thou thy face from me: nor caſt thy ſervant away in diſpleaſure.

11 Thou haſt been my ſuccour: leave me not, neither forſake me, O God of my ſalvation.

12 When my father, and my mother forſake me: the Lord taketh me up.

13 Teach me thy way, O Lord: and lead me in the right way, becauſe of mine enemies.

14 Deliver me not over into the will of mine adverſaries: for there are falſe witneſſes riſen up againſt me, and ſuch as ſpeak wrong.

15 I ſhould utterly have fainted: but that I believe verily to ſee the goodneſs of the Lord in the land of the living.

16 O tarry tho the Lords leiſure: be ſtrong, and he ſhall comfort thine heart, and put thou thy truſt in the Lord.

Ad te, Domine. Pſal. 28.

UNto thee will I cry, O Lord my ſtrength: think no ſcorn of me, leſt if thou make as though thou hearеſt not, I become like them, that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my humble petitions, when I cry unto thee: when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-ſeat of thy holy temple.

3 O pluck me not away, neither deſtroy me with the ungodly, and wicked doers: which ſpeak friendly to their neighbours, but imagine miſchief in their hearts.

4 Reward them according to their deeds: and according to the wickedneſs of their own inventions.

5 Recompenſe them after the work of their hands: pay them that they have deſerved.

6 For they regard not in their mind the works of the Lord, nor the operation of his hands; therefore ſhall he break them down, and not build them up.

7 Praiſed be the Lord: for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

8 The Lord is my ſtrength, and my ſhield, my heart hath truſted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my ſong will I praiſe him.

9 The Lord is my ſtrength: and he is the wholſom defences of his Anointed.

10 O ſave thy people, and give thy bleſſing unto thine inheritance: feed them and ſet them up for ever.

Afferte Domino. Pſal. 29.

BRing unto the Lord, O ye mighty, bring young rams unto the Lord: aſcribe unto the Lord worſhip and ſtrength.

2 Give the Lord the honour due unto his Name: worſhip the Lord with holy worſhip.

3 It is the Lord, that commandeth the waters: it is the glorious God, that maketh the thunder.

4 It is the Lord, that ruleth the Sea; the voice of the Lord is mighty in operation: the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

5 The voice of the Lord breaketh the Cedar-trees: yea, the Lord breaketh the Cedars of Libanus.

6 He maketh them all to skip like a calf: Libanus alſo, and Sirion like a young Unicorn.

7 The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire; the voice of the Lord ſhaketh the wilderneſs: yea, the Lord ſhaketh the wilderneſs of Cades.

8 The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to bring forth young, and diſcovereth the thick buſhes: in his temple doth every man ſpeak of his honour.

9 The Lord ſitteth above the waterfloud: and the Lord remaineth a King for ever.

10 The Lord ſhall give ſtrength unto his people: the Lord ſhall give his people the bleſſing of peace.

Exaltabo te, Domine. Pſal. 30.

I Will magnify thee, O Lord, for thou haſt ſet me up: and not made my foes to triumph over me. Morning-Prayer.

2 O Lord my God, I cried unto thee: and thou haſt healed me.

3 Thou, Lord, haſt brought my ſoul out of hell: thou haſt kept my life from them that go down to the pit.

4 Sing praiſes unto the Lord, O ye ſaints of his, and give thanks unto him for a remembrance of his holineſs.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleaſure is life: heavineſs may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my proſperity I ſaid, I ſhall never be removed: thou, Lord, of thy goodneſs hadſt made my hill ſo ſtrong.

7 Thou didſt turn thy face from me: and I was troubled.

8 Then cryed I unto thee, O Lord: and gat me to my Lord right humbly.

9 What profit is there in my bloud: when I go down to the pit?

10 Shall the duſt give thanks unto thee: or ſhall it declare thy truth?

11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me: Lord be thou my helper.

12 Thou haſt turned my heavineſs into joy: thou haſt put off my ſackcloth, and girded me with gladneſs.

13 Therefore ſhall every good man ſing of thy praiſe without ceaſing: O my God, I will give thanks unto the for ever.

In te, Domine, ſperavi. Pſal. 31.

IN thee, O Lord, have I put my truſt: let me never be put to confuſion, deliver me in thy righteouſneſs.

2 Bow down thine ear to me: make haſte to deliver me.

3 And be thou my ſtrong rock, and houſe of defence: that thou mayeſt ſave me.

4 For thou art my ſtrong rock, and my caſtle: be thou alſo my guide, and lead me for thy Names ſake.

5 Draw me out of the net, that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my ſtrength.

6 Into thy hands I commend my ſpirit: for thou haſt redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.

7 I have hated them, that hold of ſuperſtitious vanities: and my truſt hath been in the Lord.

8 I will be glad, and rejoyce in thy mercy: for thou haſt conſidered my trouble, and haſt known my ſoul in adverſities.

9 Thou haſt not ſhut me up into the hand of the enemy: but haſt ſet my feet in a large room.

10 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble: and mine eye is conſumed for very heavineſs; yea, my ſoul, and my body.

11 For my life is waxen old with heavineſs: and my years with mourning.

12 My ſtrength faileth me, becauſe of mine iniquity: and my bones are conſumed.

13 I became a reproof among all mine enemies, but eſpecially among my neighbours: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me, and they that did ſee me without conveyed themſelvs from me.

14 I am clean forgotten, as a dead man out of mind: I am become like a broken veſſel.

15 For I have heard the blaſphemy of the multitude: and fear is on every ſide, while they conſpire together againſt me, and take their counſel to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath been in thee, O Lord: I have ſaid, Thou art my God.

17 My time is in thy hand, deliver me from the hand of mine enemies: and from them that perſecute me.

18 Shew thy ſervant the light of thy countenance: and ſave me for thy mercies ſake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee: let the ungodly be put to confuſion, and be put to ſilence in the grave.

20 Let the lying lips be put to ſilence: which cruelly, diſdainfully and deſpitefully ſpeak againſt the righteous.

21 O how plentiful is thy goodneſs which thou haſt laid up for them that fear thee: and that thou haſt prepared for them, that put their truſt in thee, even before the ſons of men!

22 Thou ſhalt hide them privily by thine own preſence from the provoking of all men: thou ſhalt keep them ſecretly in thy tabernacle from the ſtriſe of tongues.

23 Thanks be to the Lord: for he hath ſhewed me marvellous great kindneſs in a ſtrong city.

24 And when I made haſte, I ſaid: I am caſt out of the ſight of thine eyes.

25 Nevertheleſs thou heardeſt the voice of my prayer: when I cried unto thee.

26 O love the Lord, all ye his ſaints: for thy Lord preſerveth them that are faithful, and plenteouſly rewardeth the proud doer.

27 Be ſtrong, and he ſhall eſtabliſh your heart: all ye that put you truſt in the Lord.

Beati, quarum. Pſal. 32.

Evening-Prayer.

BLeſſed is he, whoſe unrighteouſneſs is forgiven: and whoſe ſin is covered.

2 Bleſſed is the man, unto whom the Lord imputeth no ſin: and in whoſe ſpirit there is no guile.

3 For while I held my tongue: my bones conſumed away through my daily complaining.

4 For thy hand is heavy upon me day and night. and my moiſture is like the drought in ſummer.

5 I will acknowledge my ſin unto thee: and mine unrighteouſneſs have I not hid.

6 I ſaid; I will confeſs my ſins unto the Lord: and ſo thou forgaveſt the wickedneſs of my ſin.

7 For this ſhall every one that is godly, make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayeſt be found: but in the great water-flouds they ſhall not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou ſhalt preſerve me from trouble: thou ſhalt compaſs me about with ſongs of deliverance.

9 I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou ſhalt go: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horſe and mule, which have no underſtanding: whoſe mouths muſt be held with bit and bridle, leſt they fall upon thee.

11 Great plagues remain for the ungodly: but whoſo putteth his truſt in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every ſide.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoyce in the Lord: and be joyful, all ye that are true of heart.

Exultate, juſti. Pſal. 33.

REjoyce in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the juſt to be thankful.

2 Praiſe the Lord with harp: ſing praiſes unto him with the lute, and inſtrument of ten ſtrings.

3 Sing unto the Lord a new ſong: ſing praiſes luſtily unto him with a good courage.

4 For the word of the Lord is true: and all his works are faithful.

5 He loveth righteouſneſs, and judgement: the earth is full of the goodneſs of the Lord.

6 By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hoſts of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the ſea together, as it were upon an heap: and layeth up the deep, as in a treaſure-houſe.

8 Let all the earth fear the Lord: ſtand in awe of him, all ye that dwell in the world.

9 For he ſpake, and it was don: he commanded, and it ſtood faſt.

10 The Lord bringeth the counſel of the heathen to nought: and maketh the devices of the people to be of none effect, and caſteth out the counſels of Princes.

11 The counſel of the Lord ſhall endure for ever: and the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.

12 Bleſſed are the people, whoſe God is the Lord Jehovah: and bleſſed are the folk that he hath choſen to him, to be his inheritance.

13 The Lord looked down from heaven, and beheld all the children of men: from the habitation of his dwelling he conſidereth all them that dwell on the earth.

14 He faſhioneth all the hearts of them: and underſtandeth all their works.

15 There is no king that can be ſaved by the multitude of an hoſt: neither is any mighty man delivered by much ſtrength.

16 A horſe is counted but a vain thing to ſave a man: neither ſhall he deliver any man by his great ſtrength.

17 Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him: and upon them that put their truſt in his mercy;

18 To deliver their ſoul from death: and to feed them in the time of dearth.

19 Our ſoul hath patiently tarried for the Lord: for he is our help, and our ſhield.

20 For our heart ſhall rejoyce in him: becauſe we have hoped in his holy name.

21 Let thy merciful kindneſs, O Lord, be upon us: like as we do put our truſt in thee.

Benedicam Domino. Pſal. 34.

I Will alway give thanks unto the Lord: his praiſe ſhall ever be in my mouth.

2 My ſoul ſhall make her boaſt in the Lord: the humble ſhall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O praiſe the Lord with me: and let us magnify his name together.

4 I ſought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he delivered me out of all my fear.

5 They had an eye unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not aſhamed.

6 Lo, the poor crieth, and the Lord heareth him: yea, and ſaveth him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear him: and delivereth them.

8 O taſte, and ſee how gracious the Lord is: bleſſed is the man that truſteth in him.

9 O fear the Lord, ye that are his ſaints: for they that fear him, lack nothing.

10 The lions do lack, and ſuffer hunger: but they who ſeek the Lord, ſhall want no manner of thing that is good.

11 Come, ye children, and hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

12 What man is he that luſteth to live: and would fain ſee good days?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil: and thy lips that they ſpeak no guile.

14 Eſchew evil, and do good: ſeek peace, and enſue it.

15 The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous: and his ears are open unto their prayers.

16 The countenance of the Lord is againſt them that do evil: to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth them: and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a contrite heart: and will ſave ſuch as be of a humble ſpirit.

19 Great are the troubles of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: ſo that not one of them is broken.

21 But misfortune ſhall ſlay the ungodly: and they that hate the righteous, ſhall be deſolate.

22 The Lord delivereth the ſouls of his ſervants: and all they that put their truſt in him, ſhall not be deſtitute.

Judica me, Domine. Pſal. 35.

Morning-Prayer.

PLead thou my cauſe, O Lord, with them that ſtrive with me: and fight thou againſt them that fight againſt me.

2 Lay hand upon the ſhield and buckler: and ſtand up to help me.

3 Bring forth the ſpear, and ſtop the way againſt them that perſecute me: ſay unto my ſoul, I am thy ſalvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to ſhame, that ſeek after my ſoul: let them be turned back, and brought to confuſion, that imagine miſchief for me.

5 Let them be as the duſt before the wind: and the angel of the Lord ſcattering them.

6 Let their way be dark and ſlippery: and let the angel of the Lord perſecute them.

7 For they have privily laid their net to deſtroy me without a cauſe: yea, even without a cauſe have they made a pit for my ſoul.

8 Let a ſudden deſtruction come upon him unawares, and his net that he hath laid privily, catch himſelf: that he may fall into his own miſchief.

9 And my ſoul, be joyful in the Lord: it ſhall rejoyce in his ſalvation.

10 All my bones ſhall ſay, Lord, who is like unto thee, who deliverest the poor from him that is too ſtrong for him: yea, the poor and him that is in miſery; from him that ſpoileth him.

11 Falſe witneſſes did riſe up: they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me evil for good: to the great diſcomfort of my ſoul.

13 Nevertheleſs, when they were ſick, I put on ſackcloth, and humbled my ſoul with faſting: and my prayer ſhall turn into mine own boſom.

14 I behaved my ſelf as though it had been my friend or my brother: I went heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother, 15 But in mine adverſity they rejoyced, and gathered themſelvs together: yea, the very abjects came together againſt me unawares, making mows at me, and ceaſed not.

16 With the flatterers were buſie mockers: who gnaſhed upon me with their teeth

17 Lord, how long wilt thou look upon this: O deliver my ſoul from the calamities which they bring on me, and my darling from the lions.

18 So will I give thee thanks in the great congregation: I wi'l praiſe thee among much people.

19 O let not them that are mine enemies, triump over me ungodly: neither let them wink with their eyes that hate me without a cauſe.

20 And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitful words againſt them that are quiet in the land.

21 They gaped upon me with their mouths, and ſaid: Fie on thee, fie on thee, we ſaw it with our eyes.

22 This thou haſt ſeen, O Lord: hold not thy tongue then, go not far from me, O Lord.

23 Awake and ſtand up to judge my quarrel: avenge thou my cauſe, my God, and my Lord.

24 Judge me, O Lord my God, according to thy righteouſneſs: and let them not triumph over me, 25 Let them not ſay in their hearts, There, there, ſo would we have it: neither let them ſay, We have devoured him.

26 Let them be put to confuſion and ſhame together, that rejoyce at my trouble: let them be clothed with rebuke and diſhonour, that boaſt themſelvs againſt me.

27 Let them be glad and rejoyce, that favour my righteouſs dealing: yea, let them ſay alway, Bleſſed be the Lord, who hath pleaſure in the proſperity of his ſervant.

28 And as for my tongue, it ſhall be talking of thy righteouſneſs: and of thy praiſe all the day long.

Dixit injuſtus. Pſal. 36.

MY heart ſheweth me the wickedneſs of the ungodly: that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himſelf in his own ſight: until his abominable ſin be found out.

3 The words of his mouth are unrighteous, and full of deceit: he hath left off to behave himſelf wiſely, and to do good.

4 He imagineth miſchief upon his bed, and hath ſet himſelf in no good way: neither doth he abhor any thing that is evil.

5 Thy mercy, O Lord, reacheth unto the heavens: and thy faithfulneſs unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteouſneſs ſtandeth like the ſtrong mountain: thy judgements are like the great deep.

7 Thou, Lord, ſhalt ſave both man and beaſt; How excellent is thy mercy, O God: and the children of men ſhall put their truſt under the ſhadow of thy wings.

8 They ſhall be ſatisfied with the plenteouſneſs of thy houſe: and thou ſhalt give them drink of thy pleaſures, as out of the river.

9 For with thee is the well of life: and in thy light ſhall we ſee light.

10 O continue forth, thy loving kindneſs unto them that know thee: and thy righteouſneſs unto them that are true of heart.

11 O let not the foot of pride come againſt me: and let not the hand of the ungodly caſt me down.

12 There are they fallen, all that work wickedneſs: they are caſt down, and ſhall not be able to ſtand.

Noli æmulari. Pſal. 37.

FRet not thy ſelf becauſe of the ungodly: neither be thou envious againſt the evil doers.

2 For they ſhall ſoon be cut down like the graſs: and be withered even as the green herb.

3 Put thou thy truſt in the Lord, and be doing good: dwell in the land, and verily thou ſhalt be fed.

4 Delight thou in the Lord: and he ſhall give thee thy hearts deſire.

5 Commit thy way unto the Lord, and put thy truſt in him: and he ſhall bring it to paſs.

6 He ſhall make thy righteouſneſs as clear as the light: and thy juſt dealing as the noon-day.

7 Hold thee ſtill in the Lord, and abide patiently upon him: but grieve not thy ſelf at him whoſe way doth proſper, againſt the man that doth after evil counſels.

8 Leave off from wrath, and let go diſpleaſure: fret not thy ſelf, elſe ſhalt thou be moved to do evil.

9 Wicked doers ſhall be rooted out: and they that patiently abide the Lord, thoſe ſhall inherit the land.

10 Yea a little while, and the ungodly ſhall be clean gone: thou ſhalt look after his place, and he ſhall be away.

11 But the meek-ſpirited ſhall poſſeſs the earth: and ſhall be refreſhed in the multitude of peace.

12 The ungodly ſeeketh counſel againſt the juſt: and gnaſheth upon him with his teeth.

13 The Lord ſhall laugh him to ſcorn: for he hath ſeen that his day is coming.

14 The ungodly have drawn out the ſword, and have bent their bow: to caſt down the poor and needy, and to ſlay ſuch as are of a right converſation.

15 Their ſword ſhall go through their own heart: and their bowe ſhall be broken.

16 A ſmall thing that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of the ungodly.

17 For the arms of the ungodly ſhall be broken: and the Lord upholdeth the righteous.

18 The Lord knoweth the days of the godly: and their inheritance ſhall endure for ever.

19 They ſhall not be confounded in the perillous time: and in the days of dearth they ſhall have enough.

20 As for the ungodly, they ſhall periſh, and the enimies of the Lord ſhall conſume as the fat of lambs: yea, even as the ſmoke ſhall they conſume away.

21 The ungodly borroweth and payeth not again: but the righteous is merciful and liberal.

22 Such as are bleſſed of God, ſhall poſſeſs the land: and they that are curſed of him, ſhall be rooted out.

23 The Lord ordereth a good mans going: and maketh his way acceptable to himſelf.

24 Though he fall, he ſhall not be caſt away: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old, and yet ſaw I never the righteous forſaken, nor his ſeed begging their bread.

26 The righteous is ever merciful, and lendeth: and his ſeed is bleſſed.

27 Flee from evil, and do the thing that is good: and dwell for evermore.

28 For the Lord loveth the thing that is right: he forſaketh not his that be godly, but they are preſerved for ever.

29 The unrighteous ſhall be puniſhed: as for the ſeed of the ungodly, it ſhall be rooted out.

30 The righteous ſhall inherit the land: and dwell therein for ever.

31 The mouth of the righteous is exerciſed in wiſdom: and his tongue will be talking of judgement.

32 The Law of his God is in his heart: and his goings ſhall not ſlide.

33 The ungodly ſeeth the righteous: and ſeeketh occaſion to ſlay him.

34 The Lord will not leave him in his hand: nor condemn him when he is judged.

35 Hope thou in the Lord, and keep his way, and he ſhall promote thee, that thou ſhalt poſſeſs the land: when the ungodly ſhall periſh, thou ſhalt ſee it.

36 I my ſelf have ſeen the ungodly in great power, and flouriſhing like a green bay-tree.

37 I went by, and lo, he was gone: I ſought him, but his place could no where be found.

38 Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing that is right: for that ſhall bring a man peace at the laſt.

39 As for the tranſgreſſors, they ſhall periſh together: and the end of the ungodly is, They ſhall be rooted out at the laſt.

40 But the ſalvation of the righteous cometh of the Lord: who is alſo their ſtrength in the time of trouble.

41 And the Lord ſhall ſtand by them; and ſave them: he ſhall deliver them from the ungodly, and ſhall ſave them, becauſe they put their truſt in him.

Domine, ne in furore. Pſal. 38.

Morning-Prayer.

PUt me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thine anger, neither chaſten me in thy heavy diſpleaſure.

2 For thine arrows ſtick faſt in me: and thy hand preſſeth me ſore.

3 There is no health in my fleſh, becauſe of thy diſpleaſure: neither is there any reſt in my bones, by reaſon of my ſin.

4 For my wickedneſſes are gone over my head: and are like a ſore burthen, too heavy for me to bear.

5 My wounds ſtink, and are corrupt: through my fooliſhneſs.

6 I am brought into ſo great trouble and miſery: that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loyns are filled with a ſore diſeaſe: and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and ſore ſmitten: I have roared for the very diſquietneſs of my heart.

9 Lord, thou knoweſt all my deſire: and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my ſtrength hath failed me: and the ſight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my neighbours did ſtand looking upon my trouble: and my kinſmen ſtood afar off.

12 They alſo that ſought after my life, laid ſnares for me: and they that went about to do me evil, talked of wickedneſs, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not: and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14 I became even as a man that heareth not: and in whoſe mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in thee, O Lord, have I put my truſt: thou ſhalt anſwer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, ſhould not triumph over me: for when my foot ſlipt, they rejoyced greatly againſt me.

17 And I truly am ſet in the plague: and my heavineſs is ever in my ſight.

18 For I will confeſs my wickedneſs: and be ſorry for my ſin.

19 But mine enemies live, and are mighty: and they that hate me wrongfully, are many in number.

20 They alſo that reward evil for good, are againſt me: becauſe I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forſake me not, O Lord my God: be not thou far from me.

22 Haſte thee to help me: O Lord God of my ſalvation.

Dixi, cuſtodiam. Pſal. 39.

I Said, I will take heed to my ways: that I offend not in my tongue.

2 I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle: while the ungodly is in my ſight.

3 I held my tongue, and ſpake nothing: I kept ſilence, yea, even from good words, but is was pain and grief to me.

4 My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus muſing: the fire kindled: and at the laſt I ſpake with my tongue.

6 Lord, let me know my end, and the number of my days: that I may be certified how long I have to live.

6 Behold, thou haſt made my days as it were a ſpan long: and mine age is even as nothing in reſpect of thee, and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

7 For man walketh in a vain ſhadow, and diſquieteth himſelf in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who ſhall gather them.

8 And now, Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is even in thee.

9 Deliver me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke unto the fooliſh.

10 I became dumb, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from me: am even conſumed by the means of thy heavy hand.

12 When thou with rebukes doſt chaſten man for ſin, thou makeſt his beauty to conſume away like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.

13 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears conſider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.

14 For I am a ſtranger with thee, and a ſojourner: as all my fathers were.

15 O ſpare me a little, that I may recover my ſtrength: before I go hence; and be no more ſeen.

Expectans expectavi. Pſal. 40.

I Waited patiently for the Lord: and he inclined unto me, and heard my calling.

2 He brought me alſo out of the horrible pit, out of the mire, and clay: and ſet my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings.

3 And he hath put a new ſong in my mouth: even a thankſgiving unto our God.

4 Many ſhall ſee it, and fear: and ſhall put their truſt in the Lord.

5 Bleſſed is the man, that hath ſet his hope in the Lord: and turned not into the proud, and to ſuch as go about with lies.

6 O Lord my God, great are the wondrous works, which thou haſt done, like as be alſo thy thoughts, which are to us ward: and yet there is no man that ordereth them unto thee.

7 If I ſhould declare them, and ſpeak of them: they ſhould be more than I am able to expreſs.

8 Sacrifice, and meat-offering thou wouldeſt not: but mine ears haſt thou opened.

9 Burnt-offerings, and ſacrifice for ſin haſt thou not required: then ſaid I, Lo, I come.

10 In the volume of the book it is written of me, that I ſhould fulfil thy will, O my God: I am content to do it, yea, thy law is within my heart.

11 I have not hid thy righteouſneſs in the great congregation: lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Lord, and that thou knoweſt.

12 I have not hid they righteouſneſs within my heart: my talk hath been of thy truth, and of thy ſalvation.

13 I have not kept back thy loving mercy, and truth: from the great congregation.

14 Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me, O Lord: let thy loving kindneſs, and thy truth alway preſerve me.

15 For innumerable troubles are come about me, my ſins have taken ſuch hold upon me, that I am not able to look up: yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

16 O Lord, let it be thy pleaſure to deliver me: make haſte, O Lord, to help me.

17 Let them be aſhamed, and confounded together, that ſeek after my ſoul to deſtroy it: let them be driven backward, and put to rebuke, that wiſh me evil.

18 Let them be deſolate, and rewarded with ſhame: that ſay unto me, Fie upon thee, fie upon thee.

19 Let all thoſe that ſeek thee, be joyful, and glad in thee: and let ſuch as love thy ſalvation ſay alway, The Lord be praiſed.

20 As for me, I am poor, and needy: but the Lord careth for me.

21 Thou art my helper, and redeemer: make no long tarrying, O my God.

Beatus, qui intelligit. Pſal. 41.

BLeſſed is he, that conſideteth the poor, and needy: the Lord ſhall deliver him in the time of trouble. Evening Prayer.

2 The Lord preſerve him, and keep him alive, that he may be bleſſed upon earth: and deliver not thou him into the will of his enemies.

3 The Lord comfort him, when he lyeth ſick upon his bed: make thou all his bed in his ſickneſs.

4 I ſaid, Lord be merciful unto me: heal my ſoul, for I have ſinned againſt thee.

5 Mine enemies ſpeak evil of me: when ſhall he die, and his name periſh?

6 And if he come to ſee me, he ſpeaketh vanity: and his heart conceiveth falſhood within himſelf, and when he cometh forth he telleth it.

7 All mine enemies whiſper together againſt me: even againſt me do they imagine this evil.

8 Let the ſentence of guiltineſs proceed againſt him. and now that he lyeth, let him riſe up no more.

9 Yea, even mine own familiar friend, whom I truſted: who did alſo eat of my bread, hath laid great wait for me.

10 But be thou merciful unto me, O Lord: raiſe thou me up again, and I ſhall reward them.

11 By this I know thou favoureſt me: that mine enemy doth not triumph againſt me.

12 And when I am in my health, thou upholdeſt me: and ſhalt ſet me before thy face for ever.

13 Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael: world without end. Amen.

Quemadmodum. Pſal. 42.

LIke as the hart deſireth the water-brooks: ſo longeth my ſoul after thee, O God.

2 My ſoul is athirſt for God, yea even for the living God: When ſhall I come to appear before the preſence of God?

3 My tears have been my meat day and night: while they daily ſay unto me, Where is now thy God?

4 Now when I think thereupon, I pour our my heart by my ſelf: for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the houſe of God;

5 In the voice of praiſe and thankſgiving: among ſuch as keep holy day.

6 Why art thou ſo full of heavineſs, O my ſoul: and why art thou ſo diſquieted within me?

7 Put thy truſt in God: for I will yet give him thanks for the help of his countenance.

8 My God, my ſoul is vexed within me: therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan, and the little hill of Hermon.

9 One deep calleth another, becauſe of the noiſe of the water-pipes: all thy waves and ſtorms are gone over me.

10 The Lord hath granted his loving kindneſs on the day-time: and in the night-ſeaſon did I ſing of him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

11 I will ſay unto the God of my ſtrength, Why haſt thou forgotten me: why go I thus heavily, while the enemy oppreſſeth me?

12 My bones are ſmitten aſunder as with a ſword: while mine enemies that trouble me caſt me in the teeth;

13 Namely, while they ſay dailly unto me: Where is now thy God?

14 Why art thou ſo vexed, O my ſoul: and why art thou ſo diſquieted within me?

Judica me, Deus. Pſal. 43.

GIve ſentence with me, O God, and defend my cauſe againſt the ungodly people: O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.

2 For thou art the God of my ſtrength, why haſt thou put me from thee: and why go I ſo heavily, while the enemy oppreſſeth me?

3 O ſend out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

4 And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladneſs: and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou ſo heavy, O my ſoul: and why art thou ſo diſquieted within me?

6 O put thy truſt in God: for I will yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Deus, auribus. Pſal. 44.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us: what thou haſt done in their time of old. Morning Prayer.

2 How

2 How thou haſt driven the heathen with thy hand, and planted them in: how thou haſt deſtroyed the nations, and caſt them out.
3 For thy gat not the land in poſſeſſion through their own ſword: neither was it their own arm that helped them.
4 But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance: becauſe thou hadſt a favour unto them.
5 Thou art my King, O God: ſend help unto Jacob.
6 Through the will we overthrow our enemies: and in thy Name will we tread them under that riſe up againſt us.
7 For I will not truſt in my bowe: it is not my ſword that ſhall help me.
8 But it is thou that ſaveſt us from our enemies: and putteſt them to confuſion that hate us.
9 We make our boaſts of God all day long: and will praiſe thy Name for ever.
10 But now thou art far off, and putteſt us to confuſion: and goeſt not forth with our armies.
11 Thou makeſt us to turn our backs upon our enemies: ſo that they which hate us, ſpoil our goods.
12 Thou letteſt us be eaten up like ſheep: and haſt ſcattered us among the heathen.
13 Thou ſelleſt thy people for nought: and takeſt no money for them.
14 Thou makeſt us to be rebuked of our neighbours: to be laughed to ſcorn, and had in deriſion of them that are round about us.
15 Thou makeſt us to be a by-word among the heathen: and that the people ſhake their heads at us.
16 My confuſion is daily before me: and the ſhame of my face hath covered me, 17 For the voice of the ſlanderer and blaſphemer: for the enemy and avenger, 18 And though all this be come upon us, yet do we not forget thee: nor behave our ſelvs frowardly in thy covenant.
19 Our heart is not turned back: neither our ſteps gone out of thy way;
20 No, not when thou haſt ſmitten us into the place of dragons; and covered us with the ſhadow of death.
21 If we have forgotten the Name of our God, and holden up our hands to any ſtrange god: ſhall not God ſearch it out? for he knoweth the very ſecrets of the heart.
22 For thy ſake alſo are we killed all the day long: and are counted as ſheep appointed to be ſlain.
23 Up, Lord, why ſleepeſt thou: awake, and be not abſent from us for ever.
24 Wherefore hideſt thou thy face: and forgetteſt our miſery and trouble, 25 For our ſoul is brought low; even unto the duſt: our belly cleaveth unto the ground.
26 Ariſe, and help us: and deliver us for thy mercy ſake.

Eructavit cor meum. Pſal. 45.

MY heart is inditing of a good matter: I ſpeak of the things which I have made unto the king.
2 My tongue is the pen: of a ready writer.
3 Thou art fairer than the children of men: full of grace are thy lips, becauſe God hath bleſſed thee for ever.
4 Gird thee with thy ſword upon thy thigh, O thou moſt mighty: according to thy worſhip and renown.
5 Good luck have thou with thine honour: ride on; becauſe of the word of truth, of meekneeſs and righteouſneſs, and thy right hand ſhall teach thee terrible things.
6 Thy arrows are very ſharp, and the people ſhall be ſubdued unto thee: even in the midſt among the kings enemies.
7 Thy ſeat, O God, endureth for ever: the ſcepter of thy kingdom is a right ſcepter.
8 Thou haſt loved righteouſneſs, and hated iniquity: wherefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladneſs, above thy fellows.
9 All thy garments ſmell of Myrrh, Aloes, and Caſſia: out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.
10 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did ſtand the Queen in a veſture of gold, wrought about with divers colours.
11 Hearken, O daughter, and conſider, encline thine ear: forget alſo thine own people, and thy fathers houſe.
12 So ſhall the King have pleaſure in thy beauty: for he is thy Lord God, and worſhip thou him.
13 And the daughter of Tyre ſhall be there with a gift: like as the rich alſo among the people ſhall make their ſupplication before thee.
14 The Kings daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.
15 She ſhall be brought unto the King in raiment of needle work: the virgins that be her fellows, ſhall bear her company, and ſhall be brought unto thee.
16 With joy and gladneſs ſhall they be brought: and ſhall enter into the Kings palace.
17 Inſtead of thy fathers thou ſhalt have children: whom thou mayeſt make princes in all lands.
18 I will remember thy name from one generation to another: therefore ſhall the people give thanks unto thee world without end.

GOd is our hope and ſtrength. a very preſent help in trouble.
2 Therefore will we not fear though the earth be moved: and though the hills be carried into the midſt of the ſea.
3 Though the waters thereof rage, and ſwell: and though the mountains ſhake at the tempeſt of the ſame.
4 The rivers of the flood thereof ſhall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the moſt Higheſt.
5 God is in the midſt of her, therefore ſhall ſhe not be removed: God ſhall help her, and that right early.
6 The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved: but God hath ſhewed his voice, and the earth ſhall melt away.
7 The Lord of hoſts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.
8 O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord: what deſtruction he hath brought upon the earth.
9 He maketh wars to ceaſe in all the world: he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the ſpear in ſunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.
10 Be ſtill then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.
11 The Lord of hoſts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Omnes gentes, plaudite. Pſal. 47.

OClap your hands together, all ye people: O ſing unto God with the voice of melody. Evening Prayer.
2 For the Lord is high, and to be feared: he is the great King upon all the earth.
3 He ſhall ſubdue the people under us: and the nations under our feet.
4 He ſhall chooſe out an heritage for us: even the worſhip of Jacob, whom he loved.
5 God is gone up with a mercy noiſe: and the Lord with the ſound of the trump.
6 O ſing praiſes, ſing praiſes unto our God: O ſing praiſes, ſing praiſes unto our King.
7 For God is the King of all the earth: ſing ye praiſes with underſtanding.
8 God reigneth over the heathen: God ſitteth upon his holy ſeat.
9 The princes of the people are joyned unto the people of the God. of Abraham: for God which is very high exalted, doth defend the earth, as it were with a ſhield.

Magnus Dominus. Pſal. 48.

GReat is the Lord, and highly to be praiſed: in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.
2 The hill of Sion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth: upon the north-ſide lyeth the city of the great King; God is well known in her palaces a ſure refuge.
3 For lo, the Kings of the earth: are gathered, and gon by together.
4 They marvelled to ſee ſuch things: they were aſtoniſhed, and ſuddenly caſt down.
5 Fear came there upon them, and ſorrow: as upon a woman in her travail.
6 Thou ſhalt break the ſhips of the ſea: through the eaſt-wind.
7 Like as we have heard, ſo have we ſeen in the city of the Lord of hoſts, in the city of our God: God upholdeth the ſame for ever.
8 We wait for thy loving kindneſs, O God: in the midſt of thy temple.
9 O God, accotding to thy Name, ſo is thy praiſe unto the worlds end: thy right hand is full of righteouſneſs.
10 Let the mount Sion rejoyce, and the daughter of Judah be glad: becauſe of thy judgements.
11 Walk about Sion, and go round about her: and tell the towers thereof.
12 Mark well her bulwarks, ſet up her houſes: that ye may tell them that come after.
13 For this God is our God for ever, and ever: he ſhall be our guide unto death.

Audite hæc, omnes. Pſal. 49.

OHear ye this, alle ye people: ponder is with your ears, all ye that dwell in the world.
2 High and low, rich and poor: one with another.
3 My mouth ſhall ſpeak of wiſdom: and my heart ſhall muſe of underſtanding.
4 I will incline mine ear to the parable: and ſhew my dark ſpeech upon the harp.
5 Wherefore ſhould I fear in the days of wickedneſs: and when the wickedneſs of my heels compaſſeth me round about?
6 There be ſome that put their truſt in their goods: and boaſt themſelvs in the multitude of their riches.
7 But no man may deliver his brother: nor make agreement unto God for him;
8 For it coſt more to redeem their ſouls: ſo that he muſt let that alone for ever.
9 Yea, though he live long: and ſee not the grave.
10 For he ſeeth that wiſe men alſo die, and periſh together, as well as the ignorant and fooliſh, and leave their riches for other.
11 And yet they think that their houſes ſhall continue for ever: and that their dwelling places ſhall endure from one generation to another, and call the lands after their own names.
12 Nevertheleſs, man will not abide in honour: ſeeing he may be compared unto the beaſts that periſh, this is the way of them.
13 This is their fooliſhneſs: and their poſterity praiſe their ſaying.
14 They lie in the hell like ſheep, death gnaweth upon them, and the righteous ſhall have domination over them in the morning: their beauty ſhall conſume in the ſepulchre out of their dwelling.
15 But God hath delivered my ſoul from the place of hell: for he ſhall receive me.
16 Be not thou afraid, though one be made rich: or if the glory of his houſe be increaſed.
17 For he ſhall carry nothing away with him, when he dieth: neither ſhall his pomp follow him.

18 For while he lived, he counted him ſelf an happy man: and ſo long as thou doſt well unto they ſelf, men will ſpeak good of thee.
19 He ſhall follow the generation of his fathers: and ſhall never ſee light.
20 Man being in honour hath no underſtanding: but is compared unto the beaſts that periſh.

Deus Deorum. Pſal. 50.

Morning-Prayer. THe Lord, even the moſt mighty God hath ſpoken: and called the world, from the riſing up of the ſun, unto the going down thereof.
2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauty.
3 Our God ſhall come, and ſhall not keep ſilence: there ſhall go before him a conſuming fire, and a mighty tempeſt ſhall be ſtirred up round about him.
4 He ſhall call the heaven from above: and the earth, that he may judge his people.
5 Gather my Saints together unto me: thoſe that have made a covenant with me with ſacrifice.
6 And the heavens ſhall declare his righteouſneſs: for God is Judge himſelf.
7 Hear, O my people, and I will ſpeak: I my ſelf will teſtify againſt thee, O Iſrael; for I am God, even thy God.
8 I will not reprove thee becauſe of thy ſacrifices, or for thy burnt-offerings: becauſe they were not alway before me.
9 I will take no bullock out of thine houſe: nor he-goat out of thy folds.
10 For all the beaſts of the forreſt are mine: and ſo are the cattel upon a thouſand hills.
11 I know all the fowls upon the mountains: and the wild beaſts of the field are in my ſight.
12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thee: for he whole world is mine, and all that is therein.
13 Thinkeſt thou that I will eat bulls fleſh: and drink the bloud of goats?
14 Offer unto God thankſgiving: and pay thy vows unto the moſt Higheſt.
15 And call upon me in the time of trouble: ſo will I hear thee, and thou ſhalt praiſe me.
16 But unto the ungodly ſaid God: Why doſt thou preach my laws, and takeſt my covenant in thy mouth;
17 Whereas thou hateſt to be reformed: and haſt caſt my words behind thee?
18 When thou ſaweſt a thief, thou conſentedſt unto him: and haſt been partaker with the adulterers.
19 Thou haſt let thy mouth ſpeak wickedneſs: and with thy tongue thou haſt ſet forth deceit.
20 Thou ſateſt and ſpakeſt againſt thy brother: yea, and haſt ſlandered thine own mothers ſon.
21 Theſe things haſt thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughteſt wickedly, that I am even ſuch a one as thy ſelf: but I will reprove thee, and ſet before thee the things thou haſt done.
22 O conſider this, ye that forget God: leſt I pluck you away, and there be none to deliver you.
23 Whoſo offereth me thanks and praiſe, he honoureth me: and to him that ordereth his converſation right, will I ſhew the ſalvation of God.

Miſerere mei, Deus. Pſal. 51.

HAve mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodneſs: according to the multitude of thy mercies, do away mine offences.
2 Waſh me throughly from my wickedneſs: and cleanſe me from my ſin.
3 For I knowledge my faults: and my ſin is ever before me.
4 Againſt thee only have I ſinned, and done this evil in thy ſight: that thou mighteſt be juſtified in thy ſaying, and clear when thou art judged.
5 Behold, I was ſhapen in wickedneſs: and in ſin hath my mother conceived me.
6 But lo, thou requireſt truth in the inward parts: and ſhalt make me to underſtand wiſdom ſecretly.
7 Thou ſhalt purge me with hyſſop, and I ſhall be clean: thou ſhalt waſh me, and I ſhall be whiter then ſnow.
8 Thou ſhalt make me hear of joy and gladneſs: that the bones which thou haſt broken, may rejoyce.
9 Turn thy face from my ſins: and put out all my miſdeeds.
10 Make me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right ſpirit within me.
11 Caſt me not away from thy preſence: and take not away thy holy Spirit from me.
12 O give me the comfort of thy help again: and ſtabliſh me with thy free Spirit.
13 Then ſhall I teach thy ways unto the wicked: and ſinners ſhall be converted unto thee.
14 Deliver me from bloud-guiltineſs, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue ſhall ſing of thy righteouſneſs.
15 Thou ſhalt open my lips, O Lord: and my mouth ſhall ſhew thy praiſe.
16 For thou deſireſt no ſacrifice, elſe would I give it thee: but thou delighteſt not in burnt-offerings.
17 The ſacrifice of God is a troubled ſpirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, ſhalt thou not deſpiſe.
18 O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build thou the walls of Jeruſalem.
19 Then ſhalt thou be pleaſed with the ſacrifice of righteouſneſs, with the burnt-offerings and oblations: then ſhall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

Quid gloriaris. Pſal. 52.

WHy boaſteſt thou thy ſelf, thou tyrant: that thou canſt do miſchief,
2 Whereas the goodneſs of God: endureth yet daily?
3 Thy tonge imagineth wickedneſs: and with lies thou cutteſt like a ſharp raſour.
4 Thou haſt loved unrighteouſneſs more then goodneſs: and to talk of lies more then righteouſneſs.
5 Thou haſt loved to ſpeak all words that may do hurt: O thou falſe tongue.
6 Therefore ſhall God deſtroy thee for ever: he ſhall take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling, and root thee out of the land of the living.
7 The righteous alſo ſhall ſee this, and fear: and ſhall laugh him to ſcorn.
8 Lo, this is the man that took not God for his ſtrength: but truſted unto the multitude of his riches, and ſtrengthened himſelf in his wickedneſs.
9 As for me, I am like a green olive-tree in the houſe of God: my truſt is in thee tender mercy of God for ever and ever.
10 I will always give thanks unto thee for that thou haſt done: and I will hope in thy Name, for thy Saints like it well.

Dixit inſipiens. Pſal. 53.

THe fooliſh body hath ſaid in his heart: There is no God.
2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickedneſs: there is none that doth good. Evening-Prayer.
3 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men: to ſee if there were any that would underſtand, and ſeek after God.
4 But they are all gone out of the way they are altogether become abominable: there is alſo none that doth good, no not one.
5 Are not they without underſtanding that work wickedneſs: eating up my people as if they would eat bread? they have not called upon God.
6 They were afraid where no fear was: for God hath broken the bones of him that beſieged thee, thou haſt put them to confuſion, becauſe God hath deſpiſed them.
7 Oh that the ſalvation were given unto Iſrael out of Sion: Oh that the Lord would deliver his people out of captivity!
8 Then ſhould Jacob rejoyce: and Iſrael ſhould be right glad.

Deus, in nomine. Pſal. 54.

SAve me: O God, for thy Names ſake: and avenge me in thy ſtrength.
2 Hear my prayer, O God: and hearken unto the words of my mouth.
3 For ſtrangers are riſen up againſt me: and tyrants, which have not God before their eyes, ſeek after my ſoul.
4 Behold, God is my helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my ſoul.
5 He ſhall reward evil unto mine enemies: deſtroy thou them in thy truth.
6 An offering of a free heart will I give thee, and praiſe thy Name, O Lord: becauſe it is ſo comfortable.
7 For he hath delivered me out of all my trouble: and mine eye hath ſeen his deſire upon mine enemies.

Exaudi, Deus. Pſal. 55.

HEar my prayer, O God: and hide not thy ſelf from my petition.
2 Take heed unto me, and hear me: how I mourn in my prayer and am vexed.
3 The enemy cryeth ſo: and the ungodly cometh on ſo faſt: for thy are minded to do me ſome miſchief, ſo maliciouſly are they ſet againſt me.
4 My heart is diſquieted within me: and the fear of death is fallen upon me.
5 Fearfulneſs and trembling are come upon me: and an horrible dread hath overwhelmed me.
6 And I ſaid, Oh that I had wings like a dove: for then would I flee away and be at reſt.
7 Lo, then would I get me away far off: and remain in the wilderneſs.
8 I would make haſte to eſcape: becauſe of the ſtormy wind and tempeſt.
9 Deſtroy their tongues, O Lord, and divide them: for I have ſpied unrighteouſneſs, and ſtrife in thy city.
10 Day and night they go about within the walls thereof: miſchief alſo, and ſorrow are in the midſt of it.
11 Wickedneſs is therein: deceit and guile go not our of their ſtreets.
12 For it is not an open enemy, that hath done me this diſhonour: for then I could have born it.
13 Neither was it mine adverſary that did magnify himſelf againſt me: for then peradventure I would have hid my ſelf from him.
14 But it was even thou, my companion: my guide, and mine own familar friend.
15 We took ſweet counſel together: and walked in the houſe of God as friends.
16 Let death come haſtily upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedneſs is in their dwellings, and among them.
17 As for me, I will call upon God: and the Lord ſhall ſave me.
18 In the evening, and morning, and at noon day will I pray, and that inſtantly: and he ſhall hear my voice.

19 It

19 It is he that hath delivered my ſoul in peace, from the battel that was againſt me: for there were many with me.

20 Yea even God that endureth for ever, ſhall hear me, and bring them down: for thy will not turn, nor fear God.

21 He laid his hands upon ſuch as be at peace with him: and he brake his covenant.

22 The words of his mouth were ſofter then butter, having war in his heart: his words were ſmoother than oil, and yet be they very ſwords.

23 O caſt thy burden upon the Lord, and he ſhall nouriſh thee: and ſhall not ſuffer the righteous to fall for ever.

24 And as for them: thou, O God ſhalt bring them into the pit of deſtruction.

25 The blood-thirſty and deceitful man ſhall not live our half their days: nevertheleſs, my truſt ſhall be in thee, O Lord.

Miſerere mei Deus. Pſal. 56.

BE merciful unto me, O God, for man goeth about to devour me: he is daily fighting and troubling me.

2 Mine enemies are daily in hand to ſwallow me up: for they be many that fight againſt me, O thou moſt higheſt.

3 Nevertheleſs, though I am ſomtime afraid: yet put I my truſt in thee.

4 I will praiſe God becauſe of his word: I have put my truſt in God, and will not fear what fleſh can do unto me.

5 They daily miſtake my words: all that they imagine is to do me evil.

6 They hold altogether and keep themſelvs cloſe: and mark my ſteps when they lay wait for my ſoul.

7 Shall they eſcape for their wickedneſs: thou, O God, in thy diſpleaſure ſhalt caſt them down.

8 Thou telleſt my flittings, put my tears into thy bottle: are not theſe things noted in thy book?

9 Whenſoever I call upon thee, then ſhall mine enemies be put to flight: this I know, for God is on my ſide.

10 In Gods word will I rejoyce: in the Lords word will I comfort me.

11 Yea, in God have I put my truſt: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Unto thee, O God, will I pay my vows: unto thee will I give thanks.

13 For thou haſt delivered my ſoul from death, and my feet from falling: that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

Miſerere mei Deus. Pſal. 57.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me, for my ſoul truſteth in thee: and under the ſhadow of thy wings ſhall be my refuge until this tyranny be overpaſt.

2 I will call unto the moſt high God: even unto the God that ſhall perform the cauſe which I have in hand.

3 He ſhall ſend from heaven, and ſave me from the reproof of him that would eat me up.

4 God ſhall ſend forth his mercy and truth: my ſoul is among lions.

5 And I lie even among the children of men that are ſet on fire: whoſe teeth are ſpears and arrows, and their tongue a ſhaep ſword.

6 Set up thy ſelf, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

7 They have laid a net for my feet, and preſſed down my ſoul: they have digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the midſt of it themſelvs.

8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will ſing and give praiſe.

9 Awake up my glory, awake lute and harp: I my ſelf will awake right early.

10 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people and I will ſing unto thee among the nations.

11 For the greatneſs of thy mercy reacheth unto the heavens: and thy truth unto the clouds.

12 Set up thy ſelf, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

Si vere utique. Pſal. 58.

ARe your minds ſet upon righteouſneſs, O ye congregation: and do ye judge the thing that is right, O ye ſons of men?

2 Yea, ye imagine miſchief in your heart upon the earth, and your hands deal with wickedneſs.

3 The ungodly are froward, even from their mothers womb: as ſoon as they are born, they go aſtray, and ſpeak lies.

4 They are as venemous as the poiſon of a ſerpent: even like the deaf adder, that ſtoppeth her ears;

5 Which refuſeth to hear the voice of the charmer: charm he never ſo wiſely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouths, ſmite the jawbones of the lions, O Lord: let them fall away like water that runneth apace, and when they ſhoot their arrows let them be rooted out.

7 Let them conſume away like a ſnail, and be like the untimely fruit of a woman and ler them not ſee the ſun.

8 Or ever your pots be made hot with thorns: ſo let indignation vex him, even as a thing that is raw.

9 The righteous ſhall rejoyce when he ſeeth the vengeance: he ſhall waſh his footſteps in the bloud of the ungoſtly.

10 So that a man ſhall ſay, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: doubtleſs there is a God that judgeth the earth.

Eripe me de inimicis. Pſal. 59.

Evening-Prayer. DEliver me from mine enemies, O God: defend me from them that riſe up againſt me.

2 O deliver me from the wicked doers: and ſave me from the bloud-thirſty men.

3 For lo, they lie waiting for my ſoul: the mighty men are gathered againſt me without any offence or fault of me, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themſelvs without my fault: ariſe thou therefore to help me, and behold.

5 Stand up, O Lord God of hoſts, thou God of Iſrael, to viſit all the heathen: and be not marciful unto them that offend of malicious wickedneſs.

6 They go to and fro in the evening: they hrin like a dog, and run about through the city.

7 Behold, they ſpeak with their mouth; and ſword are in their lips: for who doth hear?

8 But thou, O Lord, ſhalt have them in deriſion: and thou ſhalt laugh all the heathen to ſcorn.

9 My ſtrength will I aſcribe unto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge, 10 God ſheweth me his goodneſs plenteouſly: and God ſhall let mee ſee my deriſion upon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, leſt my people forget it: but ſcatter them abroad among the people, and put them down, O Lord our defence.

12 For the ſift of their mouth, and for the words of their lips they ſhall be taken in their pride; and why; their preaching is of curſing and lies.

13 Conſume them in thy wrath, conſume them, that they may periſh: and know that it is God that ruleth in Jacob, and unto the ends of the world.

14 And in the evening they will return: grin like a dog, and will go abont the city.

15 They will run here and there for meat: and grudge if they be not ſatisfied.

16 As for me, I will ſing of thy power, and will praiſe thy mercy betimes in the morning: for thou haſt been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Unto thee, O my ſtrength, will I ſing: for thou, O God, art my refuge and my merciful God.

Deus, repuliſti nos. Pſal. 60.

O God, thou haſt caſt us out, and ſcattered us abroad: thou haſt alſo been diſpleaſed, O turn thee unto us again.

2 Thou haſt moved the land divided it: heal the ſores thereof, for it ſhaketh.

3 Thou haſt ſhewed thy people heavy things: thou haſt given us a drinck of deadly wine.

4 Thou haſt given a token for ſuch as fear thee: that they may triump becauſe of the truth.

5 Therefore were thy beloved delivered: help me with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God had ſpoken in his holineſs, I will rejoyce and divide Sichem: and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manaſſes is mine: Ephraim alſo is the ſtrength of my head; Juda is my law-giver,

8 Moab is my waſh pot, over Edom will I caſt out my ſhoe: Philiſtia be thou glad of me, 9 Who will lead me into the ſtrong city: who will bring me into Edom.

10 Haſt not thou caſt us out, O God: Wilt not thou, O God, go out with our hoſts?

11 O be thou our help in trouble: for vain is the help of man.

12 Through God will we do great acts: for it is he that ſhall tread down our enemies.

Exaudi, Deus. Pſal. 61.

HEar my crying, O God: give ear unto my prayer.

2 From the ends of the earth will I call upon thee: when my heart is in heavineſs.

3 O ſet me up upon the rock that is higher than I: for thou haſt been my hope, and a ſtrong tower for me againſt the enemy.

4 I will dwell in thy tabernacle for ever: and my truſt ſhall be under the covering of thy wings.

5 For thou, O Lord, haſt heard my deſires: and haſt given an heritage unto thoſe that fear thy Name.

6 Thou ſhalt grant the King a long life: that is years may endure throughout all generations.

7 He ſhall dwell before God for ever: O prepare thy loving mercy and faithfulneſs, that they may preſerve him.

8 So will I always ſing praiſe unto thy Name: that I may daily perform my vows.

Nonne Deo. Pſal. 62.

MY ſoul truly waiteth ſtill upon God: for of him cometh my ſalvation. Morning-Prayer.

2 He is verily my ſtrength and my ſalvation: he is my defence, ſo that I ſhall not greatly fall.

3 How long will ye imagine miſchief againſt every man; ye ſhall be ſlain all the ſort of you; yea, as a totering ſhall ye be, and like a broken hedge.

4 Their device is onely how to put him out whom God will exalt; their delight is in lies, they give good words with their mouth, but curſe with their heart.

5 Nevertheleſs, my ſoul, wait thou ſtill upon God; for my hope is in him.

6 He is truly my ſtrength and my ſalvation; he is my defence, ſo that I ſhall not fall.

7 In God is my health and my glory; the rock of my might, and in God is my truſt.

8 O put

8 O put your truſt in him alway, ye people: pour out your hearts before him, for God is our hope.

9 As for the children of men, they are but vanity: the children of men are deceitful upon the weights, they are altogether lighter than vanity it ſelf.

10 O truſt not in wrong and robbery, give not your ſelvs unto vanity: if riches increaſe, ſet not your heart upon them.

11 God ſpake once, and twice I have alſo heard the ſame: that power belongeth unto God.

12 And that thou Lord art merciful: for thou rewardeſt every man according to his work.

Deus, Deus meus. Pſal. 63.

O God, thou art my God: early will I ſeek thee.

2 My ſoul thirſteth for thee, my fleſh alſo longeth after thee: in a barren and dry land where no water is.

3 Thus have I looked for thee in holineſs: that I might behold thy power and glory.

4 For thy loving kindneſs is better than the life it ſelf: my lips ſhall praiſe thee.

5 As long as I live will I magnify thee on this manner: and lift up my hands in thy Name.

6 My ſoul ſhall be ſatisfied even as it were with marrow and fatneſs: when my mouth praiſeth thee with joyful lips.

7 Have I not remembred thee in my bed: and thought upon thee when I was waking?

8 Becauſe thou haſt been my helper: therefore under the ſhadow of thy wings I rejoyce.

9 My ſoul hangeth upon thee: thy right hand hath upholden me.

10 Theſe alſo that ſeek the hurt of my ſoul: they ſhall go under the earth.

11 Let them fall upon the edge of the ſword: that they may be a portion for foxes.

12 But the King ſhall rejoyce in God, all they alſo that ſwear by him ſhall be commended: for the mouth of them that ſpeak lies, ſhall be ſtopped.

Exaudi, Deus. Pſal. 64.

HEar my voice, O God, in my ptayer: preſerve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the gathering together of the froward: and from the inſurrection of wicked doers.

3 Who have whet their tongue like a ſword: and ſhoot out their arrows, even bitter words.

4 That they may privily ſhoot at him that is perfect: ſuddenly do they hit him and fear not.

5 They incourage themſelvs in miſchief: and commune among themſelvs, how they may lay ſnares, and ſay, that no man ſhall ſee them.

6 They imagine wickedneſs, and practiſe it: that they keep ſecret among themſelvs, every man in the deep of his heart.

7 But God ſhall ſuddenly ſhoot at them with a ſwift arrow: that they ſhall be wounded.

8 Yea, their own tongues ſhall make them fall: inſomuch that who ſo ſeeth them ſhall laugh them to ſcorn.

9 And all men, that ſee it, ſhall ſay, This hath God done, for they ſhall perceive that it is his work.

10 The righteous ſhall rejoyce in the Lord, and put his truſt in him: and all they that are true of heart ſhall be glad.

Te decet hymnus. Pſal. 65.

Evening-Prayer.

THou, O God, art praiſed in Sion: and unto thee ſhall the vow be performed in Jeruſalem.

2 Thou that heareſt the prayer: unto thee ſhall all fleſh come.

3 My miſdeeds prevail againſt me: O be thou merciful unto our ſins.

4 Bleſſed is the man whom thou chooſeſt and receiveſt unto thee: he ſhall dwell in thy court, and ſhall be ſatisfied with the pleaſures of thy houſe, even of thy holy temple.

5 Thou ſhalt ſhew us wonderful things in thy righteouſneſs, O God of our ſalvation: thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad ſea.

6 Who is his ſtrength ſetteth faſt the mountains: and is girded about with power.

7 Who ſtilleth the raging of the ſea: and the noiſe of his waves, and the madneſs of the people.

8 They alſo that dwell in the uttermoſt parts of the earth, ſhall be afraid at thy tokens: thou that makeſt the out-goings of the morning and evening to praiſe thee.

9 Thou viſiteſt the earth, and bleſſeſt it: thou makeſt it very plenteous.

10 The river of God is full of water: thou prepareſt their corn, for ſo thou prov ideſt for the earth.

11 Thou watereſt her furrows, thou ſendeſt rain into the little valleys thereof: thou makeſt it ſoft with the drops of rain, and bleſſeſt the increaſe of it.

12 Thou crowneſt the year with thy goodneſs: and thy clouds drop fatneſs.

13 They ſhall drop upon the dwellings of the wilderneſs: and the little hills ſhall rejoyce on every ſide.

14 The folds ſhall be full of ſheep: the valleys alſo ſhall ſtand ſo thick with corn, that they ſhall laugh and ſing.

Jubilate Deo. Pſal. 66.

OBe joyful in God all ye lands: ſing praiſes unto the honour of his name; make his praiſe to be glorious.

2 Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works: through the greatneſs of thy power ſhall thine enemies be found liars unto thee.

3 For all the world ſhall worſhip thee: ſing of thee, and praiſe thy name.

4 O come hither, and behold the works of God: how wonderful he is in his doing toward the children of men.

5 He turned the ſea into dry land: ſo that they went through the water on foot; there did we rejoyce thereof.

6 He ruleth with his power for ever, his eyes behold the people: and ſuch as will not believe, ſhall not be able to exalt themſelvs.

7 O praiſe our God, ye people: and make the voice of his praiſe to be heard.

8 Who holdeth our ſoul in life: and ſuffereth not our feet to ſlip.

9 For thou, O God, haſt proved us: thou alſo haſt tried us, like as ſilver is tried.

10 Thou broughteſt us into the ſnare: and laidſt trouble upon our loins.

11 Thou ſufferedſt men to ride over our heads: we went through fire and water, and thou broughteſt us out into a wealthy place.

12 I will go into thine houſe with burnt-offerings: and will pay thee my vows; which I promiſed with my lips, and ſpake with my mouth, when I was in trouble.

13 I will offer unto thee burnt-ſacrifices, with the incenſe of rams: I will offer bullocks and goats.

14 O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what he hath done for my ſoul.

15 I called unto him with my mouth: and gave him praiſes with my tongue.

16 If I incline unto wickedneſs with mine heart: the Lord will not hear me.

17 But God hath heard me: and conſidered the voice of my prayer.

18 Praiſed be God, who hath not caſt out my prayer: nor turned his mercy from me.

Deus miſereatur. Pſal. 67.

GOd be merciful unto us, and bleſs us: and ſhew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us;

2 That thy way may be known upon earth: thy ſaving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praiſe thee, O God: yea, let all the people praiſe thee.

4 O let the Nations rejoyce: and be glad: for thou ſhalt judge the folk righteouſly, and govern the nations upon earth.

5 Let the people praiſe thee, O God: let all the people praiſe thee.

6 Then ſhall the earth bring forth her increaſe: and God, even our own God, ſhall give us his bleſſing.

7 God ſhall bleſs us: and all the ends of the world ſhall fear him.

Exurgat Deus. Pſal. 68.

Morning-Prayer.

LEt God ariſe, and let his enemies be ſcattered: let them alſo, and hate him, flee before him.

2 Like as the ſmoke vaniſhed, ſo ſhalt thou drive them away: and like as wax melteth at the fire, ſo let the ungodly periſh at the preſence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad, and rejoyce before God: let them alſo be mercy and joyful.

4 O ſing unto God, and ſing praiſes unto his Name: magnify him that rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horſe: praiſe him in his Name, yea and rejoyce before him.

5 He is a father of the fatherleſs, and defendeth the cauſe of the widows, even God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one minde in an houſe, and bringeth the priſoners out of captivity: but letteth the runagates continue in ſcarceneſs.

7 O God, when thou wenteſt forth before the people: when thou wenteſt trough wilderneſs.

8 The earth ſhook, and the heavens dropped at the preſence of God: even as Sinai alſo was moved at the preſence of God, who is the God of Iſrael.

9 Thou, O God, ſenteſt a gracious rain upon thine inheritance: and refreſhed it when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation ſhall dwell therein: for thou, O God, haſt of thy goodneſs prepared for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word: great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were diſcomfited: and they of the houſhold divided the ſpoil.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet ſhall ye be as the wings of a dove: that is covered with ſilver wings, and her feathers like gold.

14 When the Almighty ſcattered kings for their ſake: then were they as white as ſnow in Salmon.

15 As the hill of Baſan, ſo is Gods hill: even an high hill, as the hill of Baſan.

16 Why hop ye ſo, ye high hills? this is Gods hill, in the which it pleaſeth him to dwell: yea, the Lord will abide in it for ever.

17 The chariots of God are twenty thouſand, even thouſands of Angels: And the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone up on high, thou haſt led captivity captive, and received gifts for men: yea, even for thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

19 Praiſed be the Lord daily: even the God who helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

20 He is our God, even the God of whom cometh ſalvation. God is the Lord, by whom we eſcape death.

21 God ſhall wound the head of his enemies: and the hairy ſcalp of ſuch a one as goeth on ſtill in his wickedneſs.

22 The

22 The Lord hath ſaid, I will bring my people again, as I did from Baſan: mine own will I bring again, as I did ſomtime from the deep of the ſea.

23 That thy foot may be dipped in the bloud of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the ſame.

24 It is well ſeen, O God, how thou goeſt: how thou my God and King goeſt in the ſanctuary.

25 The ſingers go before, the minſtrels follow after: in the midſt are the damſels playing with the timbrels.

26 Give thanks, O Iſrael, unto God the Lord in the congregations: from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes of Judah their counſel: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nephthali.

28 Thy God hath ſent forth ſtrength for thee: ſtabliſh the thing, O God: that thou haſt wrought in us, 29 For thy temples ſake at Jeruſalem: ſo ſhall kings bring preſents unto thee.

30 When the company of the ſpear-men and multitude of the mighty are ſcattered abroad among the beaſts of the people, ſo that they humbly bring pieces of ſilver: and when he hath ſcatteeed the people that delight in war, 31 Then ſhall the princes come out of Egypt: the Morians land ſhall ſoon ſtretch out her hands unto God.

32 Sing unto God, O ye kingdoms of the earth: O ſing praiſes unto the Lord.

33 Who ſitteth in the heavens over all from the beginning: lo, he doth ſend out his voice, yea, and that a mighty voice.

34 Aſcribe ye the power to God over Iſrael: his woſhip and ſtrength is in the clouds.

35 O God, wonderful art thou in thy holy places: even the God of Iſrael, he will give ſtrength and power unto his people; bleſſed be God.

Salvum me fac. Pſal. 69.

Evening Prayer.

SAve me, O God: for the waters are come in, even unto my ſoul.

2 I ſtick faſt in the deep mire, where no ground is: I am come into deep waters, ſo that the flouds run over me.

3 I am weary of crying, my throath is dry: my ſight faileth me for waiting ſo long upon my God.

4 They that hate me without a cauſe, are more than the hairs of my head: they that are mine enemies, and would deſtroy me guiltleſs, are mighty.

5 I paid them the things that I never took: God, thou knoweſt my ſimpleneſs, and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that truſt in thee, O Lord God of hoſts, be aſhamed for my cauſe: let not thoſe that ſeek thee be confounded through me, O Lord God of Iſrael.

7 And why? for thy ſake have I ſuffered reproof: ſhame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a ſtranger unto my brethren: even an alien unto my mothers children.

9 For the zeal of thine houſe hath even eaten me: and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee are faln upon me.

10 I wept and chaſtened my ſelf with faſting: and that was turned to my reproof.

11 I put on ſackcloth alſo: and they jeſted upon me.

12 They that ſit in the gate ſpeak againſt me: and the drunkards make ſongs upon me.

13 But, Lord, I make my prayer unto thee; in an acceptable time.

14 Hear me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercy: even in the truth of thy ſalvation.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I ſink not: O let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

16 Let not the water flood drown me, neither let the deep ſwallow me up: and let not the pit ſhut her mouth upon me.

17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy loving kindneſs is comfortable: turn thee unto me according to the multitude of thy mercies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy ſervant, for I am in trouble: O haſte thee and hear me.

19 Draw nigh unto my ſoul and ſave it: O deliver me becauſe of mine enimies.

20 Thou haſt known my reproof, my ſhame, and my diſhonour: mine adverſaries are all in thy ſight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heavineſs: I looked for ſome to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirſty, they gave me vineger to drink.

23 Let their table be made a ſnare to take themſelvs withall: and let the things that ſhould have been for their wealth, be unto them an occaſion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded that they ſee not: and ever bow thou down their backs.

25 Pour out thine indignation upon them: and let thy wrathful diſpleaſure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be void: and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they perſecute him whom thou haſt ſmitten: and they talk how they may vex them whom thou haſt wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickedneſs to another: and not come into thy righteouſneſs.

29 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living: and not be written among the righteous.

30 As for me, when I am poor and in heavineſs: thy help, O God, ſhall lift me up.

31 I will praiſe the name of God with a ſong: and magnify it with thankſgiving.

32 This alſo ſhall pleaſe the Lord: better than a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

33 The humble ſhall conſider this and be glad: ſeek ye after God, and your ſoul ſhall live.

34 For the Lord heareth the poor: and deſpiſeth not his priſoners.

35 Let heaven and earth praiſe him: the ſea and all that moveth therein.

36 For God will ſave Sion, and build the cities of Juda: that men may dwell there, and have it in poſſeſſion.

37 The poſterity alſo of his ſervants ſhall inherit it: and they that love his name ſhall dwell therein.

Deus in adjutorium. Pſal. 70.

HAſte thee, O God, to deliver me: make haſte to help me, O Lord.

2 Let them be aſhamed and confounded, that ſeek after my ſoul: let them be turned backward and put to confuſion that wiſh me evil.

3 Let them for their reward be ſoon brought to ſhame: that cry over me, There, there.

4 But let all thoſe that ſeek thee be joyfull and glad in thee: and let all ſuch as delight in thy ſalvation, ſay alway, The Lord be praiſed.

5 As for me, I am poor and in miſery: haſte thee unto me, O God.

6 Thou art my helper and my Redeemer: O Lord, make no longer tarrying.

In te, Domine, ſperavi. Pſal. 71.

Morning Prayer.

IN thee, O Lord, have I put my truſt, let me never be put to confuſion: but rid me, and deliver me in thy righteouſneſs; incline thine ear unto me and ſave me.

2 Be thou my ſtrong hold, whereunto I may alway reſort: thou haſt promiſed to help me. for thou art my houſe of defence and my caſtle.

3 Deliver me, O God, out of the hand of the ungodly: out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, even from my youth.

5 Through thee have I been holden up ever ſince I was born: thou art he that took me out of my mothers womb, my praiſe ſhall be always of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monſter unto many: but my ſure truſt is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praiſe: that I may ſing of thy glory and honour all the day long.

8 Caſt me not away in the time of age: forſake me not when my ſtrength faileth me.

9 For mine enemies ſpeak againſt me, and they that lay wait for my ſoul, take their counſel together, ſaying: God had forſaken him, perſecute him and take him, for there is none to deliver him.

10 Go not far from me, O God: my God haſte thee to help me.

11 Let them be confounded, and periſh, that are againſt my ſoul: let them be covered with ſhame and diſhonour, that ſeek to do me evil.

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praiſe thee more and more.

13 My mouth ſhall daily ſpeak of thy righteouſneſs and ſalvation: for I know no end thereof.

14 I will go forth in the ſtrength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteouſneſs onely.

15 Thou, O God, haſt taught me from my youth up until now: therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.

16 Forſake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray-headed: until I have ſhewed thy ſtrength unto his generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteouſneſs, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou haſt don; O God, who is like unto thee?

18 O what great troubles and adverſities haſt thou ſhewed me! and yet didſt thou turn and refreſh me: yea, and broughteſt me from the deep of the earth again.

19 Thou haſt brought me to great honour: and comforted me on every ſide.

20 Therefore will I praiſe thee, and thy faithfulneſs, O God, playing upon an inſtrument of muſick: unto thee will I ſing upon the harp, O thou holy One of Iſrael.

21 My lips will be fain when I ſing unto thee: and ſo will my ſoul whom thou haſt delivered.

22 My tongue alſo ſhall talk of thy righteouſneſs all the day long: for they are confounded and brought unto ſhame, that ſeek to do me evil.

Deus: judicium. Pſal. 72.

GIve the kings thy judgements, O God: and thy righteouſneſs unto the kings ſon.

2 Then ſhall he judge thy people according unto right: and defend the poor.

3 The mountains alſo ſhall bring peace: and the little hills righteouſneſs unto the people.

4 He ſhall keep the ſimple folk by their: defend right the children of the poor, and puniſh the wrong doer.

5 They ſhall fear thee, as long as the ſun and moon endureth: from one generation to another.

6 He ſhall come down like the rain into a fleece of wool: even as the drops that water the earth.

7 In his time ſhall the righteous flouriſh: yea, and abundance of peace, ſo long as the moon endureth.

8 His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other: and from the flood unto the worlds end.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall kneel before him: his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tharsis, and of the Isles shall give presents: the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

11 All kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall do him service.

12 For he shall deliver the poor when he crieth: the needy also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall be favourable to the simple and needy: and shall preserve the souls of the poor.

14 He shall deliver their souls from falshood and wrong: and dear shall their blood be in his sight.

15 He shall live, and unto him shall be given of the gold of Arabia: prayer shall be made ever unto him. and daily shall he be praised.

16 There shall be an heap of corn in the earth high upon the hills: his fruit shall shake like Libanus, and shall be green in the city, like gras upon the earth.

17 His name shall endure for ever, his name shall remain under the sun among the posterites: which shall be blessed through him, and all the heathen shall praise him.

18 Blessed be the Lord God, even the God of Israel: which onely doth wondrous things.

19 And blessed be the name of his majesty for ever: and all the earth shall be filled with his majesty. Amen. Amen.

Quam bonus Israel. Psal. 73.

Evening-Prayer.

TRuly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart.

2 Nevertheless, my feet were almost gon: my treadings had well nigh slipt.

3 And why? I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

4 For they are in no peril of death: but are lusty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folk: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they are so holden with pride: and overwhelmed with cruelty.

7 Their eyes swell with fatness: and they do even what they lust.

8 They corrupt others, and speak of wicked blasphemy: their talking is against the most High.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth unto the heaven: and their tongue goeth through the world.

10 Therefore fall the people unto them: and thereout suck they no small advantage.

11 Tush, say they, how should God percive it: is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Lo, these are the ungodly, these prosper in the world, and these have riches in possession: and I said, Then have I cleansed my heart in vain, and washed mine hands in innocency.

13 All the day long have I been punished: and chastned every morning.

14 Yea, and I had almost said even as they: but lo, then I should have condemned the generation of thy children.

15 Then thought I to understand this: but it was too hard for me.

16 Until I went into the sanctuary of God: then understood I the end of these men.

17 Namely, how thou dost set them in slippery places: and castest them down, and destroyest them.

18 O how suddenly do they consume: perish, and come to a fearful end.

19 Yea, even like as a dream when one awaketh: so shalt thou make their image to vanish out of the city.

20 Thus my heart was grieved: and it went even through my reins.

21 So foolish was I, and ignorant: even as it were a beast before thee.

22 Nevertheless, I am alway by thee: for thou hast holden me by my right hand.

23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel: and after that receive me with glory.

24 Whom have I in heaven but thee: and there is none upon earth, that I desire in comparison of thee.

25 My flesh, and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

26 For lo, they that forsake thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornication against thee.

27 But is good for me to hold me fast by God, to put my trust in the Lord God: and to speak of all thy works in the gates of the daughter of Sion.

Ut quid, Deus? Psal. 74.

O God, wherefore art thou absent from us so long: why is thy wrath so hot against the sheep of thy pasture;

2 O think upon thy congregation: whom thou hast purchased, and redeemed of old.

3 Think upon the tribe of thine inheritance: and mount Sion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift up thy feet, that thou mayest utterly destroy every enemy: which hath don evil in thy sanctuary.

5 Thine adversaries roar in the midst of thy congregations: and set up their banners for tokens.

6 He that hewed timber afore out of the thick trees: was known to bring it to an excellent work.

7 But now they break down all the carved work thereof: with axes and hammers.

8 They have set fire upon thy holy places: and have defiled the dwelling place of thy Name, even unto the ground.

9 Yea, they said in their hearts, Let us make havock of them altogether, thus have they burnt up all the houses of God in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one prophet more: no, not one is there among us, that understandeth any more.

11 O God, how long shall the adversary do this dishonour: how long shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name, for ever?

12 Why withdrawest thou thy hand: why pluckest thou not thy right hand out of thy bosom, to consume the enemy?

13 For God is my king of old: the help that is don upon earth, he doth it himself.

14 Thou didst divide the sea trough thy power: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

15 Thou smotest the heads of Leviathan in pieces: and gavest him to be meat for the people in the wilderness.

16 Thou broughtest out fountains, and waters out of the hard rocks: thou driedst up mighty waters.

17 The day is thine, and the night is thine; thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

18 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

19 Remember this, O Lord, how the enemy hath rebuked: and how the foolish people hath blasphemed thy Name.

20 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the multitude of the enemies: and forget not the congregation of the poor for ever.

21 Look upon the covenant: for all the earth is full of darkness, and cruel habitations.

22 O let not the simple go away ashamed: but let the poor and needy give praise unto thy Name.

23 Arise, O God, maintain thine own cause: remember how the foolish man blasphemeth thee daily.

24 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the presumption of them that hate thee, encreaseth ever more and more.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. 75.

Morning-Prayer.

UNto thee, O God, do we give thanks: yea unto thee do we give thanks.

2 Thy Name also is so nigh: and that do thy wondrous works declare.

3 When I receive the congregation: I shall judge according unto right.

4 The earth is weak, and all the inhabiters thereof: I bear up the pillars of it.

5 I said unto the fools, Deal not so madly: and to the ungodly, Set not up your horn.

6 Set not up your horn on high: and speak no with a stiff neck.

7 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west: nor yet from the south.

8 And why? God is the judge: he putteth down one; and setteth up another.

9 For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full mixt, and he poureth out of the same.

10 As for the dregs thereof: all the ungodly of the earth shall drink them, and suck them out.

11 But I will talk of the God of Jacob: and praise him for ever.

12 All the horns of the ungodly also will I break, and the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Notus in Judæa. Psal. 76.

IN Jury is God known: his Name is great in Israel.

2 At Salem is his tabernacle: and his dwelling in Sion.

3 There brake he the arrows of the bow: the shield, the sword, and the battel.

4 Thou art of more honour and might: than the hills of the robbers.

5 The proud are robbed, they have slept their sleep: and all the men, whose hands were mighty, have found nothing.

6 At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob: both the chariot and horse are fain.

7 Thou, even thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight, when thou art angry.

8 Thou didst cause thy judgement to be heard from heaven: the earth trembled, and was still,

9 When God arose to judgement: and to help all the meek upon earth.

10 The fierceness of man shall turn to thy praise: and the fierceness of them shalt thou refrain.

11 Promise unto the Lord your God, and keep it, all ye that are round about him: bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall refrain the spirit of Princes: and is wonderful among the kings of the earth.

Voce mea ad Dominum. Psal. 77.

I Will cry unto God with my voice: even unto God will I cry with my voice, and he shall hearken unto me.

2 In the time of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran, and ceased not in the night season; my soul refused comfort.

3 When I am in heaviness, I will think upon God: when my heart is vexed, I will complain.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so feeble, that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the days of old: and the years that are past.

6 I call to remembrance my song: and in the night I commune with mine own heart, and search out my spirits.

7 Will

7 Will the Lord abſent himſelf for ever: and will he be no more intreated?
8 Is his mercy clean gon for ever: and is his promiſe come utterly to an end for evermore?
9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he ſhut up his loving kindneſs in diſpleaſure?
10 And I ſaid, it is mine own infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the moſt Higheſt.
11 I will remember the works of the Lord: and call to mind thy wonders of old time.
12 I will think alſo of all thy works: and my talking ſhall be of they doings.
13 Thy way, O God, is holy: who is ſo great a God, as our God?
14 Thou art the God that doth wonders: and haſt declared thy power among the people.
15 Thou haſt mightily delivered thy people: even the ſons of Jacob and Joſeph.
16 The waters ſaw thee, O God, the waters ſaw thee, and were afraid: the depths alſo were troubled.
17 The clouds poured out water, the air thundred: and thine arrows went abroad.
18 The voice of thy thunder was heard round about: the lightnings ſhone upon the ground, the earth was moved and ſhook withall.
19 Thy way is in the ſea, and thy paths in the great waters: and thy footſteps are not known.
20 Thou leddeſt thy people like ſheep: by the hand of Moſes and Aaron.

Attendite, populo. Pſal. 78.

Evening-Prayer.

HEar my law, O my people: incline your ears unto the words of my mouth.
2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard ſentences of old;
3 Which we haye heard and known: and ſuch as our fathers have told us.
4 That we ſhould not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but to ſhew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful works that he hath don.
5 He made a covenant with Jacob, and gave Iſrael a law: which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children,
6 That their poſterity might know it: and the children which were yet unborn;
7 To the intent, that when they came up: they might ſhew their children the ſame;
8 That they might put their truſt in God: and not to forget the works of God, but to keep his commandments;
9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithleſs and ſtubborn generation: a generation that ſet not their heart aright, and whoſe ſpirit cleaveth not ſtedfaſtly unto God.
10 Like as the children of Ephraim: who being harneſſed, and carrying bows, turned themſelvs back in the day of battel.
11 They kept not the covenant of God: and would not walk in his law;
12 But forgat what he had don: and the wonderfull works that he had ſhewed for them.
13 Marvellous things did he in the ſight of our forefathers, in the land of Egypt: even in the field of Zoan.
14 He divided the ſea, and let them go through: he made the waters to ſtand on an heap.
15 In the day time alſo he led them with a cloud: and all the night through with a light of fire.
16 He clave the hard rocks in the wilderneſs: and gave them drink thereof, as it had been out of the great depth.
17 He brought waters out of the ſtony rock: ſo that is guſhed out like the rivers.
18 Yet for all this they ſinned more againſt him: and provoked the moſt Higheſt in the wilderneſs.
19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meat for their luſt.
20 They ſpake againſt God, alſo ſaying: ſhall God prepare a table in the wilderneſs?
21 He ſmote the ſtony rock indeed, that the water guſhed out, and the ſtreams flowed withall: but can he give bread alſo, or provide fleſh for his people?
22 When the Lord heard this, he was wroth: ſo the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up heavy diſpleaſure againſt Iſrael;
23 Becauſe they believed not in God: and put not their truſt in his help.
24 So he commanded the clouds above: and opened the doors of heaven.
25 He rained down Manna alſo upon them for to eat: and gave them food from heaven.
26 So man did eat Angels food: for he ſent them meat enough.
27 He cauſed the eaſt wind to blow under heaven: and through his power he brought in the ſouth weſt wind.
28 He rained fleſh upon them as thick as duſt: and feathered fowls like as the ſand of the ſea.
29 He let it fall among their tents: even round about their habitation.
30 So they dit eat, and were well filled, for he gave them their own deſire: they were not diſappointed of their luſt.
31 But while the meat was yet in their mouth, the heavy wrath of God came upon them, and ſlew the wealthieſt of them: yea, and ſmote down the choſen men that were in Iſrael.
32 But for all this ſinned yet more: and believed not his wondrous works.
33 Therefore their days did he conſume in vanity: and their years in trouble.
34 When he ſlew them, they ſought him: and turned them early, and enquired after God.
35 And they remembred that God was their ſtrength: and that the high God was their Redeemer.
36 Nevertheleſs, they did but flatter him with their mouth: and diſſembled with him in their tongue.
37 For their heart was not whole with him: neither continued they ſtedfaſt in his covenant.
38 But he was ſo merciful, that he forgave their miſdeeds, and deſtroyed them not.
39 Yea many a time turned he his wrath away, and would not ſuffer his whole diſpleaſure to ariſe.
40 For he conſiderad that they were but fleſh: and that they were even a wind that paſſeth away, and cometh not again.
41 Many a time did they provoke him in the wilderneſs: and grieved hem in the defert, 42 They turned back and tempted God: and moved the holy One in Iſrael.
43 Thy thought not of his hand: and of the day when he delivered them from the hand of the enemy, 44 How he had wrought his miracles in Egypt: and his wonders in the field of Zoan.
45 He turned their waters into bloud: ſo that they might not drink of the rivers.
46 He ſent lice among them, and devoured them up: and frogs to deſtroy them.
47 He gave their fruit unto the catterpiller: and their labour unto the graſhopper.
48 He deſtroyed their vines with hailſtones: and their mulberry-trees with the froſt.
49 He ſmote their cattel alſo with hailſtones: and their flocks with hot thunderbolts.
50 He caſt upon them the furiouſneſs of his wrath, anger, diſpleaſure and trouble: and ſent evil angels among them.
51 He made away to his indignation, and ſpared not their ſoul from death: but gave their life over to the peſtilence.
52 And ſmote all the firſt-born in Egypt: the moſt principal and mightieſt in the dwellings of Ham.
53 But as for his own people, he led them forth like ſheep: and carried them in the wilderneſs like a flock.
54 He brought them out ſafely, that they ſhould not fear: overwhelmed their enemies with the ſea.
55 And brought them within the borders of his ſanctuary: even to his mountain which he purchaſed with his right hand.
56 He caſt out the heathen alſo before them cauſed their land to be divided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Iſrael to dwell in their tents.
57 So they tempted and diſpleaſed the moſt high God: and kept not his teſtimonies;
58 But turned their backs, and fell away like their forefathers: ſtarting aſide like a broken bow.
59 For they grieved him with their hill-altars: and provoked him to diſpleaſure with their images.
60 When God heard this, he was wroth: and took ſore diſpleaſure at Iſrael.
61 So that he forſook the tabernacle in Silo: even the tent that he had pitched among men.
62 He delivered their power into captivity: and their beauty into the enimies hand.
63 He gave his people over alſo unto the ſword: and was wroth with his inheritance.
64 The fire conſumed their young men: and their maidens were not given to marriage.
65 Their prieſts were ſlain with the ſword: and there were no widows to make lamentation.
66 So the Lord awaked as one out of ſleep: and like a giant refreſhed with wine 67 He ſmote his enemies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetual ſhame.
68 He refuſed the tabernacle of Joſeph: and choſe not the tribe of Ephraim.
69 But choſe the tribe of Judah: even the hill of Sion which he loved.
70 And there he built his temple on high: and laid the foundation of it like the ground which he hath made continually.
71 He choſe David alſo his ſervant: and took him away from the ſheep-folds.
72 As he was following the ews great with young ones he took him. that he might feed Jacob his people, and Iſrael his inheritance.
73 So he fed them with a faithful and true heart: and ruled them prudently with all his power.

Deus, venerunt. Pſal. 79.

O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance: thy holy temple have they defiled, and made Jeruſalem an heap of ſtones. Morning-Prayer.
2 The dead bodies of thy ſervants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the air: and the fleſh of thy ſaints unto the beaſts of the land.
3 Their blood have they ſhed like water on every ſide of Jeruſalem: and there was no man to bury them.
4 We are become an open ſhame to our enimies: a very ſcorn and deriſion unto them that are round about us.

5 Lord, how long wilt thou be angry: shall they jealousy burn like fire for ever?

6 Pour out thine indignation upon the heathen that have not known thee: and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy Name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob: and laid waste his dwelling place.

8 O remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us, and that soon: for we are come to great misery.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name: O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins for thy Names sake.

10 Wherefore do the heathen say: Where is now their God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy servants blood that is shed: be openly shewed upon the heathen in our sight.

12 O let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners come before thee: according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die.

13 And for the blasphemy wherewith our neighbours have blasphemed thee: reward thou them, O Lord, sevenfold into their bosom.

14 So we that are thy people and sheep of they pasture, shall give thee thanks for ever: and will alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. 80.

HEar, O thou Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep: shew they self also, thou that sittest upon the Cherubims.

2 Before Ephraim, Bejamin, and Manasses, stir up thy strength, and come and help us.

3 Turn us again, O God: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

4 O Lord God of hosts: how long wilt thou be angry with thy people that prayeth.

5 thou feedest them with the bread of tears: and givest them plenteousness of tears to drink.

6 Thou hast made us a very strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh us the scorn.

7 Turn us again, thou God of hosts: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen and planted it.

9 Thou madest room for it: and when it had taken root it filled the land.

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it: and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedar-trees.

11 She stretched out her branches onto the sea: and her boughs unto the river.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedge: that all they that go by, pluck off her grapers?

13 The wild boar out of the wood doth root it up: and the wild beast of the field devour it.

14 Turn thee again, thou God of hosts, look down from heaven: behold and visit this vine;

15 And the place of the vineyard that thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madest so strong for thy self.

16 It is burnt with fire, and cut down: and they shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let they hand be upon the man of thy right hand: and upon the son of man whom thou madest so strong for thine own self.

18 And so will not we go back from thee: O let us live, and we shall call upon thy Name.

19 Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

Exultate Deo. Psal. 81.

SIng we merrely unto God our strength: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take the psalm, bring hither the tabret: the merry harp with the lute.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new-moon: even in the time appointed, and upon our solemn feast-day.

4 For this was made a statute for Israel: and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony: when he came out of the land of Egypt, and had heard a strange language.

6 I eased his shoulder from the burden: and his hands were delivered from making the pots.

7 Thou calledst upon me in troubles, and I delivered thee: and heard thee what time as the storm fell upon thee.

8 I proved thee also: at the waters of strife.

9 Hear, O my people, and I will assure thee, O Israel: If thou wilt hearken unto me.

10 There shall no strange god be in thee: neither shall thou worship any other god.

11 I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I shal fill it.

12 But my people would not hear my voice: and Israel would not obey me.

13 So I gave them up unto their own hearts lusts: and let them follow their own imaginations.

14 O that my people would have hearkened unto me: for if Israel had walked in my ways, 15 I should soon have put down their enemies: and turned my hand against their adversaries.

16 The haters of the Lord should have been found liars: but their time should have endured for ever.

17 He should have fed them also with the finest wheat flour: and with honey out of the stony rock should I have satisfied thee.

Deus stetit. Psal. 82.

GOd standeth in the congregation of princes: he is a judge among gods. 3 Evening Prayer.

2 How long will ye give wrong judgement: and accept the persons of the ungodly.

3 Defend the poor and fatherless: see that such as are in need and necessity have right.

4 Deliver the out-cast and poor: save them from the hand of the ungodly.

5 They will not be learned nor understand, but walk on still in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

6 I have said, Ye are gods: and ye are all the children of the most Highest.

7 But ye shall die like men: and fall like one of the princes.

8 Arise, O God, and judge thou the earth: for thou shalt take all heathen to thine inheritance.

Deus, quis similis? Psal. 83.

HOld not thy tongue, O God, keep not still silence: refrain not thy self, O God.

2 For lo, thine enemies make a murmuring: and thy that hate thee have lift up their head.

3 They have imagined craftily against thy people: and taken counsel against thy secret ones.

4 They have said, Come, and let us root them out, that they be no more a people: and that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have cast their heads together with one consent: and are confederate against thee.

6 The tabernacles of the Edomites and the Ismaelites: the Moabites and Hagarens.

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalech: the Philistins, with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 Assur also is joyned with them, and have holpen the children of Lot.

9 But do thou to them as unto the Medianites: unto Sisera, and unto Jabin at the brook of Kison.

10 Who perished at Endor: and became as the dung of the earth.

11 Make them and their princes like Oreb and Zeb: yea, make all their princes like as Zeba and Salmana;

12 Who say, Let us take to our selvs: the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like unto a wheel: and as the stubble before the wind.

14 Like as the fire that burneth up the wood: and as the flame that consumeth the mountains.

15 Persecute them even so with thy tempest: and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lord: that they may seek thy name.

17 Let them be confounded and vexed ever more and more: let them be put to shame and perish.

18 And they shall know that thou, whose name is Jehovah: art onely the most highest over all the earth.

Quam dilecta! Psal. 84.

O How amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hosts!

2 My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord. my heart and my flesh rejoyce in the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest, where shew may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praising thee.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are thy ways.

6 Who going through the vale of misery, use it for a well: and the pools are filled with water.

7 They will go from strength to strength: and unto the God of gods appeareth every one of them in Zion.

8 O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: hearken, O God of Jacob.

9 Behold, O God our defender: and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For one day in thy Courts: is better than a thousand.

11 I had rather be a door keeper in the house of my God: than to dwell in the tents of ungodliness.

12 For the Lord God is a light and defence: the Lord will give grace and Worship, and no good thing shall he withold from them that live a godly life.

13 O Lord God of hosts: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Benedixisti, Domine. Psal. 85.

LOrd, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people: and covered all their sins.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure: and turned thy self from thy wrathful indignation.

4 Turn

4 Turn us then, O God our Saviour: and let thine anger ceaſe from us.

5 Wilt thou be diſpleaſed at us for ever: and wilt thou ſtretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turn again and quicken us: that thy people may rejoyce in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy ſalvation.

8 I will hearken what the Lord God will ſay concerning me: for he ſhall ſpeak peace unto his people, and to his ſaints, that thy turn not again.

9 For his ſalvation is nigh them that fear him: that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together: righteouſneſs and peace have kiſſed each other.

11 Truth ſhall flouriſh out of the earth: and righteouſneſs hath looked down from heaven.

12 Yea, the Lord ſhall ſhew loving kindneſs: and our land ſhall give her increaſe.

13 Righteouſneſs ſhall go before him: and he ſhall direct his going in the way.

Inclina, Domine. Pſal. 86.

Morning-Prayer.

BOw down thine ear, O Lord, and hear me: for I am poor and in miſery.

2 Preſerve thou my ſoul, For I am holy: my God, ſave thy ſervant that putteth his truſt in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I will call daily upon thee.

4 Comfort the ſoul of thy ſervant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my ſoul.

5 For thou, Lord, art good and gracious: and of great mercy unto all them call upon thee.

6 Give ear, Lord, unto my prayer: and ponder the voice of my humble deſires.

7 In the time of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou heareſt me.

8 Among the Gods there is none like nnto thee, O Lord: there is not one that can do as thou doſt.

9 All nations whom thou haſt made, ſhall come and worſhip thee: O Lord, and ſhall glorify thy Name.

10 For thou art great, and doeſt wondrous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth: O knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy name.

12 I will thank thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and will praiſe thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou haſt delivered my ſoul from the nethermoſt hell.

14 O God, the proud are riſen againſt me: and the congregations of naughty men have ſought after my ſoul, and have not ſet thee before their eyes.

15 But thou, O Lord God, art full of compaſſion and mercy: long-ſuffering, plenteous in goodneſs and truth.

16 O turn thee then unto me, and have mercy upon me: give thy ſtrength unto thy ſervant, and help the ſon of thine handmaid.

17 Shew ſome token upon me for good, that thy who hate me, may ſee it, and be aſhamed: becauſe thou Lord haſt holpen me, and comforted me.

Fundamenta ejus. Pſal. 87.

HEr foundations are upon the holy hills: the Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

2 Very excellent things are ſpoken of thee: the city of God.

3 I will think upon Rahab and Babylon: with them that know me.

3 Behold ye the Philiſtins alſo: and they of Tyre, with the Morians, lo, there was he born.

5 And of Zion it ſhall be reported, that he was born in her: and the moſt High ſhall ſtabliſh her.

6 The Lord ſhall rehearſe it, when he writeth up the people: that he was born there.

7 The ſingers alſo and trumpeters ſhall he rehearſe: all my freſh ſprings ſhall be in thee.

Domine Deus. Pſal. 88.

O Lord God of my ſalvation, I have cried day and night before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy preſence, encline thine ear unto my calling.

2 For my ſoul is full of trouble: and my life draweth nigh unto hell.

3 I am counted as one of them that go down into the pit: and I have been even as a man that hath no ſtrength.

4 Free among the dead, like unto them that are wounded and lie in the grave: who are out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.

5 Thou haſt laid me in the loweſt pit: in a place of darkneſs, and in the deep.

6 Thine indignation lieth hard upon me: and thou haſt vexed me with all thy ſtorms.

7 Thou haſt put away mine acquaintance far from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.

8 I am ſo faſt in priſon: that I cannot get forth.

9 My ſight faileth for very trouble: Lord, I have called daily upon thee, I have ſtretched forth my hands unto thee.

10 Doſt thou ſhew wonders among the dead: or ſhall the dead riſe up again and praiſe thee?

11 Shall thy loving kindneſs be ſhewed in the grave: or thy faithfulneſs in deſtruction?

12 Shall thy wondrous works be known in the dark; and thy righteouſneſs in the land where all things are forgotten?

13 Unto the heave I cried, O Lord; and early ſhall my prayer come before thee.

14 Lord, why abhorreſt thou my ſoul: and hideſt thou thy face from me?

15 I am in miſery, and like unto him that is at the point to die: even from my youth up thy terrors have I ſuffered with a troubled mind.

16 Thy wrathful diſpleaſure goeth over me: and the fear of thee hath undone me.

17 Thy came round about me daily like water: and compaſſed me together on every ſide.

18 My lovers and friends haſt thou put away from me: and hid mine acquaintance out of my ſight.

Miſericordias Domini. Pſal. 89.

Evening-Prayer.

MY ſong ſhall be alway of the loving kindneſs of the Lord: with my mouth will I ever be ſhewing thy truth from one generation to another.

2 For I have ſaid, Mercy ſhall be ſet up for ever: thy truth ſhalt thou ſtabliſh in the heavens.

3 I have made a covenant with my choſen: I have ſworn unto David my ſervant.

4 Thy ſeed will I ſtabliſh for ever: and ſet up thy throne from one generation to another.

5 O Lord, the very heavens ſhall praiſe thy wondrous works: and thy truth in the congregation of the ſaints.

6 For who is he among the clouds: that ſhall be compared unto the Lord?

7 And what is he among the gods: that ſhall be like unto the Lord?

8 God is very greatly to be feared in the counſel of the ſaints: and to be had in reverence of all them that are round about him.

9 O Lord God of hoſts, who is like unto thee: thy truth, moſt mighty Lord, is on every ſide.

10 Thou ruleſt the raging of the ſea: thou ſtilleſt the waves thereof when they ariſe.

11 Thou haſt ſubdued Egypt, and deſtroyed it: thou haſt ſcattered thine enemies abroad with thy mighty arm.

12 The heavens are thine, the earth alſo is thine: thou haſt laid the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is.

13 Thou haſt made the north and the ſouth: Tabor and Hermon ſhall rejoyce in thy Name.

14 Thou haſt a mighty arm: ſtrong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

15 Righteouſneſs and equity are the habitation of thy ſeat: mercy and truth ſhall go before thy face.

16 Bleſſed is the people, O Lord, that can rejoyce in thee: they ſhall walk in the light of thy countenance.

17 Their delight ſhall be daily in thy Name: and in thy righteouſneſs ſhall thy make their boaſt.

18 For thou art the glory of their ſtrength: and in thy loving kindneſs thou ſhalt lift up our horns.

19 For the Lord is our defence: the holy one of Iſrael is our King.

20 Thou ſpakeſt ſome time in viſions unto thy ſaints, and ſaidſt: I have laid help upon one that is mighty, I have exalted one choſen out of the people.

21 I have found David my ſervant: with my holy oil have I anointed him.

22 My hand ſhall hold him faſt: and my arm ſhall ſtrengthen him

23 The enemy ſhall not be able to do him violence: the ſon of wickedneſs ſhall not hurt him.

24 I will ſmite down his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.

25 My truth alſo and my mercy ſhall be with him: and in my Name ſhall his horn be exalted.

26 I will ſet his dominion alſo in the ſea: and his right hand in the flouds.

27 He ſhall call me, Thou art my Father: my God, and my ſtrong ſalvation.

28 And I will make him my firſt-born: higher than the kings of the earth.

29 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore: and my covenant ſhall ſtand faſt with him.

30 His ſeed alſo will I make to endure for ever: and his throne as the days of heaven.

31 But if his children forſake my law: and walk not in my judgements, 32 If they break my ſtatutes, and keep not my commandments: I will viſit their offences with a rod, and their ſin with ſcourges.

33 Nevertheleſs, my loving kindneſs will I not utterly take from him: not ſuffer my truth to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips: I have ſworn once by my holineſs, that I will not fail David.

35 His ſeed ſhall endure for ever: and his ſeat is like as the ſun before me.

36 He ſhall ſtand faſt for evermore as the moon: and as the faithful witneſs in heaven.

37 But thou haſt abhorred, and forſaken thine anointed: and art diſpleaſed at him.

38 Thou haſt broken the covenant of they ſervant: and caſt his crown to the ground.

39 Thou haſt overthrown all his hedges: and broken down his ſtrong holds.

40 All they that go by, ſpoil him: and he is become a reproach to his neighbours.

41 Thou haſt ſet up the right hand of his enemies: and made all his adverſaries to rejoyce.

42 Thou haſt taken away the edge of his ſword: and giveſt him not victory in the battel.

43 Thou haſt put on his glory: and caſt his throone down to the gronnd.

44 The days of his youth haſt thou ſhortned: and covered him with diſhonour.

45 Lord, how long wilt thou hide thy ſelf, for ever: and ſhall thy wrath burn like fire?

46 O remember how ſhort my time is: wherefore haſt thou made all men for nought?

47 What man is he that liveth, and ſhall not ſee death: and ſhall he deliver his ſoul from the hand of hell?

48 Lord, where are thy old loving kindneſſes: which thou ſwareſt unto David in thy truth?

49 Remember, Lord, the rebuke that thy ſervants have: and how I do bear in my boſom the rebukes of many people;

50 Wherewith thine enemies have blaſphemed thee, and ſlandered the footſteps of thine Anointed: praiſed be the Lord for evermore. Amen, and Amen.

Domine, refugium. Pſal. 90.

Morning-Prayer.

LOrd, thou haſt been our refuge: from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlaſting, and world without end.

3 Thou turneſt man to deſtruction: again thou ſaiſt, Come again, ye children of men.

4 For a thouſand years in thy ſight are but as yeſterday: ſeeing that is paſt as a watch in the night.

5 Aſſoon as thou ſcattereſt them, they are even as a ſleep: and fade away ſuddenly like the graſs.

6 In the morning it is green, and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dryed up, and withered.

7 For we conſume away in thy diſpleaſure: and are afraid at they wrathful indignation.

8 Thou haſt ſet our miſdeeds before thee: and our ſecret ſins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angry all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

10 The days of our age are threeſcore years and ten, and though men be ſo ſtrong that they come to fourſcore years: yet is their ſtrength then but labour and ſorrow; ſo ſoon paſſeth it away, and we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for even thereafter as a man feareth, ſo is thy diſpleaſure.

12 So teach us to number our days: that we may apply our hearts unto wiſdom.

13 Turn thee again, O Lord, at the laſt: and be gracious unto thy ſervants.

14 O ſatisfy us with thy mercy, and that ſoon: ſo ſhall we rejoyce and be glad all the days of our life.

15 Comfort us again, now after the time that thou haſt plagued us: and for the years wherein we have ſuffered adverſity.

16 Shew thy ſervants thy work: and their children thy glory.

17 And the glorious Majeſty of the Lord our God be upon us: proſper thou the work of our hands upon us, O proſper thou our handy work.

Qui habitat. Pſal. 91.

WHoſo dwelleth under the defence of the moſt High: ſhall abide under the ſhadow of the Almighty.

2 I will ſay unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my ſtrong hold: my God, in him will I truſt.

3 For he ſhall deliver thee from the ſnare of the hunter: and from the noiſom peſtilence.

4 He ſhall defend thee under his wings, and thou ſhalt be ſafe under his feathers: his faithfulneſs and truth ſhall be thy ſhield and buckler.

5 Thou ſhalt not be afraid for any terrour by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day.

6 For the peſtilence that walketh in darkneſs: nor for the ſickneſs that deſtroyeth in the noon day.

7 A thouſand ſhall fall beſide thee, and ten thouſand at thy right hand: but it ſhall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes ſhalt thou behold: and ſee the reward of the ungodly.

9 For thou, Lord, art my hope: thou haſt ſet thine houſe of defence very high.

10 There ſhall no evil happen unto thee: neither ſhall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he ſhall give his angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

12 They ſhall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot againſt a ſtone.

13 Thou ſhalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon ſhalt thou tread under thy feet.

14 Becauſe he hath ſet his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will ſet him up, becauſe he hath known my Name.

15 He ſhall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour.

16 With long life will I ſatisfy him: and ſhew him my ſalvation.

Bonum eſt confiteri. Pſal. 92.

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to ſing praiſes unto thy Name, O moſt Higheſt;

2 To tell of thy loving kindneſs early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night ſeaſon;

3 Upon an inſtrument of then ſtrings, and upon the lute: upon a loud inſtrument, and upon the harp.

4 For thou, Lord, haſt made me glad through thy works: and I will rejoyce in giving praiſe for the operations of thy hands.

5 O Lord, how glorious are thy works: thy thoughts are very deep.

6 An unwiſe man doth not well conſider this: and a fool doth not underſtand it.

7 When the ungodly are green as the graſs, and when all the workers of wickedneſs do flouriſh: then ſhall they be deſtroyed for ever, but thou, Lord, art the moſt Higheſt for evermore.

8 For lo, thine enemies, O Lord, lo thine enemies ſhall periſh: and all the workers of wickedneſs ſhall be deſtroyed.

9 But mine horn ſhall be exalted like the horn of an unicorn: for I am anointed with freſh oil.

10 Mine eye alſo ſhall ſee his luſt of mine enemies: and mine ear ſhall hear his deſire of the wicked that ariſe up againſt me.

11 The righteous ſhall flouriſh like a palm-tree: and ſhall ſpread abroad like a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Such as be planted in the houſe of the Lord: ſhall flouriſh in the courts of the houſe of our God.

13 They alſo ſhall bring forth more fruit in their age: and ſhall be fat and well-liking.

14 That they may ſhew how true the Lord my ſtrength is: and that there is no unrighteouſneſs in him.

2 He hath made the round world ſo ſure: that it cannot be moved.

3 Ever ſince the world began hath thy ſeat been prepared: thou art from everlaſting.

4 The floods are riſen, O Lord, the floods have lift up their voice: the floods liſt up their waves.

5 The waves of the ſea are mighty, and rage horribly: but yet the Lord who dwelleth on high is mightier.

6 Thy teſtimonies, O Lord, are very ſure: holineſs becometh thine houſe for ever.

O Lord God, to whom vengenance belongeth: thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, ſhew thy ſelf.

2 Ariſe thou judge of the world: and reward the proud after their deſerving.

3 Lord, how long ſhall the ungodly: how long ſhall the ungodly triumph?

4 How long ſhall all wicked doers ſpeak ſo diſdainfully: and make ſuch proud boaſting?

5 They ſmite down thy people, O Lord: and trouble thine heritage.

6 They murder the widow and the ſtranger: and put the fatherleſs to death.

7 And yet they ſay, Tuſh, the Lord ſhall not ſee: neither ſhall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 Take heed, ye unwiſe among the people: O ye fools, when will ye underſtand?

9 He that planted the ear, ſhall he not hear: or he that made the eye ſhall he not ſee?

10 Or he that nurtureth the heathen, it is he that teacheth man knowledge, ſhall not he puniſh?

11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man: that they are but vain.

12 Bleſſed is the man whom thou chaſtneſt, O Lord: and teacheſt him in thy law.

13 That thou mayeſt give him patience in time of adverſity: until the pit be digged up for the ungodly.

14 For the Lord will not fail his people; neither will he forſake his inheritance;

15 Until righteouſneſs turn again unto judgement: all ſuch as are true in heart ſhall follow it.

16 Who will riſe up with me againſt the wicked: or who will take my part againſt the evil doers?

17 If the Lord had not helped me: it had not failed but my ſoul had been put to ſilence.

18 But when I ſaid, My footh hath ſlipped: thy mercy, O Lord, held me up.

19 In the multitude of the ſorrows that I had in my heart: thy comforts have refreſhed my ſoul.

20 Wilt thou have any thing to do with the ſtool of wickedneſs: which imagineth miſchief as a law?

21 They gather them together againſt the ſoul of the righteous and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the ſtrength of my confidence.

23 He

23 He ſhall recompenſe them their wickedneſs, and deſtroy them in their own malice: yea, the Lord our God ſhall deſtroy them.

Morning-Prayer.

O Come, let us ſing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoyce in the ſtrength of our ſalvation.

2 Let us come before his preſence with thankſgiving: and ſhew our ſelvs glad in him with pſalms.

3 For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hands are all the corners of the earth: and the ſtrength of the hills is his alſo.

5 The ſea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

6 O come, let us worſhip and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

7 For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his paſture, and the ſheep of his hand.

8 To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the day of temptation in the wilderneſs;

9 When your fathers tempted me: proved me, and ſaw my works.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and ſaid: It is a people that do err in their hearts; for they have not known my ways;

11 Unto whom I ſware in my wrath: that they ſhould not enter into my reſt.

Cantate Domino. Pſal. 96.

O Sing unto the Lord a new ſong. ſing unto the Lord, all the whole earth.

2 Sing unto the Lord, and praiſe his Name: be telling of his ſalvation from day to day.

3 Declare his honour unto the heathen: and his wonders unto all people.

4 For the Lord is great, and cannot worthily be praiſed: he is more to be feared than all gods.

5 As for all the gods of the heathen, they are but idols: but it is the Lord that made the heavens.

6 Glory and worſhip are before him: power and honour are in his ſanctuary.

7 Aſcribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people: aſcribe unto the Lord worſhip and power.

8 Aſcribe unto the Lord the honour due unto his Name: bring preſents, and come into his courts.

9 O worſhip the Lord in the beauty of holineſs: let the whole earth ſtand in awe of him.

10 Tell it out among the heathen, that the Lord is King: and that it is he who hath made the round world ſo faſt that it cannot be moved, and how that he ſhall judge the people righteouſly.

11 Let the heavens rejoyce, and let the earth be glad: let the ſea make a noiſe, and all that therein is.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it: them ſhall all the trees of the wood rejoyce before the Lord.

13 For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: and with righteouſneſs to judge the world, and the people with his truth.

Dominus regnavit. Pſal. 97.

THe Lord is King, the earth may be glad thereof: yea, the multitude of the iſles may be glad thereof.

2 Clouds and darkneſs are round about him: righteouſneſs and judgement are the habitation of his ſeat.

3 There ſhall go a fire before him: and burn up his enemies on every ſide.

4 His lightnings gave ſhine unto the world: the earth ſaw it, and was afraid.

5 The hills melted like wax at the preſence of the Lord: at the preſence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens have declared his righteouſneſs: and all the people have ſeen his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that worſhip carved images, and that delight in vain Gods: worſhip him, all ye gods.

8 Zion heard of it, and rejoyced: and the daughters of Judah were glad becauſe of thy judgements, O Lord.

9 For thou, Lord, art higher than all that are in the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 O ye that love the Lord, ſee that ye hate the thing which is evil: the Lord preſerveth the ſouls of his ſaints; he ſhall deliver them from the hand of the ungodly.

11 There is ſprung up a light for the righteous: and joyful gladneſs for ſuch as are true hearted.

12 Rejoyce in the Lord, ye righteous: and give thanks for a remembrance of his holineſs.

Cantate Domino. Pſal 98.

Evening-Prayer.

O Sing unto the Lord a new ſong: for he hath done marvellous things.

2 With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himſelf the victory.

3 The Lord declared his ſalvation: his righteouſneſs hath he openly ſhewed in the ſight of the heathen.

4 He hath remembred his mercy and truth toward the houſe of Iſrael: and all the ends of the world have ſeen the ſalvation of our God.

5 Shew your ſelvs joyful unto the Lord, all ye lands: ſing, rejoyce and give thanks.

6 Praiſe the Lord upon the harp: ſing to the harp with a pſalm of thankſgiving.

7 With trumpets alſo and ſhawms: O ſhew your ſelvs joyful before the Lord the King.

8 Let the ſea make a noiſe, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

9 Let the flouds clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the Lord: for he is come to judge the earth.

4 The kings power loveth judgement, thou haſt prepared equity: thou haſt executed judgement, and righteouſneſs in Jacob.

5 O magnify the Lord our God: and fall down before his footſtool. for he is holy.

6 Moſes and Aaron among his prieſts, and Samuel among ſuch as call upon his Name: theſe called upon the Lord, and he heard them.

7 He ſpake unto them out of the cloudy pillar: for they kept his teſtimonies, and the law that he gave them.

8 Thou heardeſt them, O Lord our God: thou forgaveſt them, O God, and puniſhedſt their own inventions.

9 O magnify the Lord our God, and worſhip him upon his holy hill: for the Lord our God is holy.

Jubilate Deo. Pſal. 100.

O Be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: ſerve the Lord with gladneſs, and come before his preſence with a ſong.

2 Be ye ſure, that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we our ſelvs: we are his people, and the ſheep of his paſture.

3 O go your way into his gates with thankſgiving, and into his courts with praiſe: be thankful unto him, and ſpeak good of his Name.

4 For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlaſting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Miſecordiam & judicium. Pſal. 101.

MY ſong ſhall be of mercy and judgement: unto thee, O Lord, will I ſing.

2 O let me have underſtanding, in the way of godlineſs.

3 When wilt thou unto come me: I will walk in my houſe with a perfect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand, I hate the ſins of unfaithfulneſs: there ſhall no ſuch cleave unto me.

5 A froward heart ſhall depart from me: I will not know a wicked perſon.

6 Whoſo privily ſlandereth his neighbour: him will I deſtroy.

7 Whoſo hath alſo a proud look and high ſtomack: I will not ſuffer him.

8 Mine eyes look upon ſuch as are faithful in the land: that they may dwell with me.

9 Whoſo leadeth a godly life: he ſhall be my ſervant.

10 There ſhall no deceitful perſon dwell in my houſe: he that telleth lies, ſhall not tarry in my ſight.

11 I ſhall ſoon deſtroy all the ungodly that are in the land: that I may root out all wicked doers from the city of the Lord.

Domine, exaudi. Pſal. 102.

HEar my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come unto thee. Morning-Prayer.

2 Hide not they face from me in the time of my trouble: incline thine ears unto me when I call; O hear me, and that right ſoon.

3 For my days are conſumed away like ſmoke: and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is ſmitten down, and withered like graſs: ſo that I forget to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groaning: my bones will ſcarce cleave to my fleſh.

6 I am become like a pelican in the wilderneſs: and like an owl that is in the deſert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a ſparrow: that ſitteth alone upon the houſe top.

8 Mine enemies revile me all the day long: and they that are mad upon me, are ſworn together againſt me.

9 For I have eaten aſhes as it were bread: and mingled my drink with weeping.

10 And that becauſe of thine indignation and wrath: for thou haſt taken me up, and caſt me down.

11 My days are gone like a ſhadow: and I am withered like graſs.

12 But thou, O Lord, ſhalt endure for ever: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou ſhalt ariſe, and have mercy upon Zion: for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why: thy ſervants think upon her ſtones: and it pittieth them to ſee her in the duſt.

15 The

15 The heathen ſhall fear thy Name, O Lord: and the kings of the earth thy Majeſty;
16 When the Lord ſhall build up Zion: and when his glory ſhall appear;
17 When the turneth him unto the prayer of the poor deſtitute: and deſpiſeth not their deſire.
18 This ſhall be written for thoſe that come after: and the people which ſhall be born, ſhall praiſe the Lord.
19 For he hath looked down from his ſanctuary: out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth.
20 That he might hear the mournings of ſuch as are in captivity: and deliver the children appointed unto death.
21 That they may declare the name of the Lord in Zion: and his worſhip at Jeruſalem.
22 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdom alſo to ſerve the Lord.
23 He brought down my ſtrength in my journey: and ſhortned my days.
24 But I ſaid, O my God, take me not away in the midſt of mine age: as for thy years, they endure throughout all generations.
25 Thou Lord in the beginning haſt laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.
26 They ſhall periſh, but thou ſhalt endure: they all ſhall wax old as doth a garment.
27 And as a veſture ſhalt thou change them, and they ſhall be changed: but thou art the ſame, and thy years ſhall not fail 28 The children of thy ſervants ſhall continue: and their ſeed ſhall ſtand faſt in thy ſight.

Benedic, anima mea. Pſal. 103.

PRaiſe the Lord, O my ſoul: and all that is within me praiſe his holy Name.
2 Praiſe the Lord, O my ſoul: and forget not all his benefits;
3 Who forgiveth all thy ſin: and healeth all thine infirmities;
4 Who ſaveth thy life from deſtruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and loving kindneſs;
5 Who ſatisfieth thy mouth with good things: making thee young and luſty as an egale.
6 The Lord executeth righteouſneſs and judgement: for all them that are oppreſſed with wrong.
7 He ſhewed his wayes unto Moſes: his works unto the children of Iſrael.
8 The Lord is full of compaſſion and mercy: long-ſuffering, and of great goodneſs.
9 He will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever.
10 He hath not dealt with us after our ſins: nor rewarded us according to our wickedneſſes.
11 For look how high the heaven is in compariſon of the earth: ſo great is his mercy alſo toward them that fear him.
12 Look how wide alſo the eaſt is from the weſt: ſo far hath he ſet our ſins from us.
13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children: even ſo is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him.
14 For he knoweth whereof we are made: he remembred that we are but duſt.
15 The days of man are but as graſs: for he flouriſheth as a flower of the field.
16 For aſſoon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone: and the place thereof ſhall known it no more.
17 But the merciful goodneſs of the Lord endureth for ever and ever, upon them that fear him. and his righteouſneſs upon childrens children.
18 Even upon ſuch as keep his covenant: and think upon his commandments to do them.
19 The Lord hath prepared his ſeat in heaven; and his Kingdom ruleth over all.
20 Praiſe the Lord, ye angels of his, ye that excel in ſtrength: ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his word.
21 O praiſe the Lord all ye his hoſts: ye ſervants of his that do his pleaſure.
22 O ſpeak good of the Lord all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion: praiſe thou the Lord, O my ſoul.

Benedic anima mea. Pſal. 104.

Evening-Prayer.

PRaiſe the Lord, O my ſoul: O Lord my God thou art become exceeding glorious, thou art clothed with majeſty and honour.
2 Thou deckeſt thy ſelf with light, as it were with a garment: and ſpreadeſt out the heavens like a curtain.
3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: and maketh the clouds his chariot, and walketh upon the wings of the wind.
4 He maketh his angels ſpirits: and his miniſters a flaming fire.
5 He laid the foundations of the earth: that it never ſhould move at any time.
6 Thou coveredſt it with the deep, like as with a garment: the waters ſtand in the hills.
7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voice of thy thunder they are afraid.
8 They go up as high as the hills, and down to the valleys beneath: even unto the place which thou haſt appointed for them.
9 Thou haſt ſet them their bounds which they ſhall not paſs: neither turn again to cover the earth.
10 He ſendeth the ſprings into the rivers: which run among the hills.
11 All beaſts of the field drink thereof: and the wilde aſſes quench their thirſt.
12 Beſide them ſhall the fowls of the air have their habitation: and ſing among the branches.
13 He watereth the hills from above: the earth is filled with the fruit of thy works.
14 He bringeth forth graſs for the cattel: and green herb for the ſervice of men.
15 That he may bring food of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man: and oyl to make him a chearful countenance, and bread to ſtrengthen mans heart.
16 The trees of the Lord alſo are full of ſap: even the cedars of Libanus which he hath planted.
17 Wherein the birds make their neſts: and the firr trees are a dwelling for the ſtork.
18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats: and ſo are the ſtony rocks for the conies.
19 He appointed the moon for certain ſeaſons: and the ſun knoweth his going down.
20 Thou makeſt darkneſs that it may be night: wherein all the beaſts of the foreſt do move.
21 The lions roaring after their prey: do ſeek their meat from God.
22 The ſun ariſeth, and they get them away together: and lay them down in their dens.
23 Man goeth forth to his work, and to his labour: until the evening.
24 O Lord, how manifold are they works: in wiſdom haſt thou made them all, the earth is full of thy riches.
25 So is the great and wide ſea alſo: wherein are things creeping innumerable, both ſmall and great beaſts.
26 There go the ſhips, and there is that Leviathan: whom thou haſt made to take his paſtime therein.
27 Theſe wait all upon thee; that thou mayeſt give them meat in due ſeaſon.
28 When thou giveſt it them, they gather it: and when thou openeſt thy hand they are filled with good.
29 When thou hideſt thy face, they are troubled: when thou takeſt away their breath, they die, and are turned again to their duſt.
30 When thou letteſt they breath go forth, they ſhall be made: and thou ſhalt renew the face of the earth.
31 The glorious Majeſty of the Lord ſhall endure for ever: the Lord ſhall rejoyce in his works.
32 The earth ſhall tremble at the look of him: if he do but touch the hills, they ſhall ſmoke.
33 I will ſing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will praiſe my God while I have my being.
34 And ſo ſhall my words pleaſe him: my joy ſhall be in the Lord.
35 As for ſinners, they ſhall be conſumed out of the earth, and the ungodly ſhall come to an end: praiſe thou the Lord, O my ſoul, praiſe the Lord.

Confitemini Domino. Pſal. 105.

OGive thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his Name; tell the people what things he hath done. Morning-Prayer.
2 O let your ſongs be of him, and praiſe him: and let your talking be of all his wondrous works.
3 Rejoyce in his holy Name: let the heart of them rejoyce that ſeek the Lord.
4 Seek the Lord and his ſtrength; ſeek his face evermore.
5 Remember the marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders and the judgement of his mouth.
6 O ye ſeed of Abraham his ſervant; ye children of Jacob his choſen.
7 He is the Lord our God; his judgements are in all the world.
8 He hath been alway minful of his covenant and promiſe; that he made to a thouſand generations;
9 Even the covenant that he made with Abraham; and the oath that he ſware unto Iſaac;
10 And appointed the ſame unto Jacob for a law; and to Iſrael for an everlaſting teſtament, 11 Saiyng, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan; the lot of your inheritance.
12 When there were yet but a few of them: and they ſtrangers in the land.
13 What time as they went from one nation to another: from one kingdom to another people.
14 He ſuffered no man to do them wrong: but reproved even kings for their ſakes.
15 Touch not mine anointed: and do my prophets no harm.
16 Moreover, he called for a dearth upon the Land: and deſtroyed all the proviſion of bread.
17 But he had ſent a man before them: even Joſeph who was ſold to be a bond-ſervant.
18 Whoſe feet they hurt in the ſtocks: the iron entred into his ſoul.
19 Until the time came that his cauſe was known: the word of the Lord tried him.
20 The king ſent and delivered him: the prince of the people let him go free.

21 Her

21 He made him lord also of his house: and ruler of all his substance:
22 That he might inform his princes after his will: and teach his senatours wisdom.
23 Israel also came into Egypt: and Jacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.
24 And he increased his people exceedingly: and made dem stronger than their enemies;
25 Whose heart turned so, that they hated his people: and dealt untruly with his servants.
26 Then sent he Moses his servant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.
27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness, and it was dark: and they were not obedient unto his word.
29 He turned their waters into bloud: and slew their fish.
30 Their land brought forth frogs; yea, even in their kings chambers.
31 He spake the word, and there came al manner of flies: and lice in all their quarters.
32 He gave them hailstones for rain: and flames of fite in their land.
33 He smote their vines also, and figtrees: and destroyed the trees that were in their coasts.
34 He spake the word, and the grashoppers came, and caterpillers innumerable: and did eat up all the gras in their land: and devoured the fruit of their ground.
35 He smote all the first-born in their land: even the chief of all their strength.
36 He brougth them forth also with silver and gold: there was not one feeble person among their tribes.
37 Egypt was glad at their departing: for they were afraid of them.
38 He spread out a cloud to be covering: and fire to give light in the night season.
39 At their desire he brought quails: and he filled them with the bread of heaven.
40 He opened the rock of stone, and the waters flowed out: so that rivers ran in the dry places.
41 For why? he remembred his holy promise: and Abraham his servant.
42 And he brought forth his people with joy: and his chosen with gladness.
43 And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they took the labors of the people in possession.
44 That they migt keep his statutes: and observe his laws.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. 106.

Evening-Prayer.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.
2 Who can express the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise?
3 Blessed are they that alway keep judgement: and do righteousness.
4 Remember me, O Lord, according to the favour that thou bearest unto they people: O visit me with they salvation.
5 That I may see the felicity of they chosen: and rejoyce in the gladness of thy people, and give thanks with thine inheritance.
6 We have sinned with our fathers: we have done amis, and dealt wickedly.
7 Our fathers regarded not they wonders in Egypt, neither kept they they great goodness in remembrance: but were disobedient at the sea. even at the red sea.
8 Nevertheless he helped them for his Names sake: that he might make his power to be known.
9 He rebuked the red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the deep, as through a wilderness.
10 And he saved them from the adversaries hand: and delivered them from the hand of the enemy.
11 As for those that troubled them, the waters overwhelmed them: there was not one of them left.
12 Then believed they his words: and sang praise unto him, 13 But within a while they forgat his works: and would not abide his counsel.
14 But lust came upon them in the wilderness: and they tempted God in the desert.
15 And he gave them their desire; and send leanness withal into their soul.
16 They angred Moses also in the tents: and Aaron the saint of the Lord.
17 So the earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan: and covered the congregation of Abiram.
18 And the fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt op the ungodly.
19 They made a calf in Horeb: and worshipqed the molten image.
20 Thus they turned their glory: into the similitude of a calf that eateth hay.
21 And they forgat God their Saviour: who had done so great things in Egypt;
22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham: and fearful things by the red sea.
23 So he said he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap: to turn away his wrathful indignation; lest he should destroy them.
24 Yea, they thought scorn of that pleasant land: and gave no credence unto his word.
25 But murmured in their tents: and hearkned not unto the voice of the Lord.
26 Then lift he up his hand against them: to overthrow them in the wilderness.
27 To cast out their seed among the nations: and to scattet them in the lands.
28 They joyned themselvs unto Baal-peor: and ate the offerings of the dead.
29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their own invention: and the plague was great among them.
30 Then stood up Phineas, and prayed: and so the plague ceased.
31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness among all posterities for evermore.
32 They angred him also at the waters of strife: so that he puinshed Moses for their sakes.
33 Because they provoked his spirit: so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.
34 Neither destroyed they the heathen: as the Lord commanded them.
35 But where mingled among the heathen: and learned their works,
36 Insomuch that they worshipped their idols, which turned to their own decay: yea, they offered their sons and their daughters unto divils,
37 And shed innocent bloud, even the bloud of their sons and of their daughters: whom they offered unto the idols of Canaan, and the land was defiled with bloud.
38 Thus were they stained with their own works: and went a whoringh with their own inventions.
39 Therfore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people: insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.
40 And he gave them over into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them were lords over them.
41 Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in subjection.
42 Many a time did he deliver them: but they rebelled against him with their own inventions, and were brought down in their wickeness, 43 Nevertheless when he saw their adversity: he heard their complaint.
44 He thought upon his covenant, and petied them according unto the mulitude of his mercies: yea, he made al those that led them away captive, to pity them.
45 Deliver us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen: that we may give thanks unto they holy name, and make our boast of they praise.
46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and world without end: and let all the people say, Amen.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. 107.

Morning-Prayer.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.
2 Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy.
3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west: from the north, and from the south.
4 They went astray in the wilderness out of the way: and found no city to dwell in.
5 Hungry and thirsty: their soul fainted in them.
6 So they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: and he delivered them from their distress.
7 He led them forth by the right way: that they might go to the city where they dwelt.
8 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men!
9 For he satisfieth the empty soul: and filleth the hungry soul with goodness;
10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death: being fast bound in misery and iron.
11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord: and lightly regarded the counsul of the most Highest;
12 He also brought down their heart through heaviness: they fell down, and there was none to help them.
13 So when they cryed unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress.
14 For he brought them out of darkness; and out of the shadow of death: and brake their bonds in sunder.
15 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness; and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men!
16 For he hath broken the gates of bras. and smitten the bras of iron in sunder.
17 Foolish men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickeness.
18 Their soul abhorred all manner of meat: and they were even hard at deaths door.
19 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress.
20 He sent his word and healed them: and they were saved from their distruction.
21 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men!
22 That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and tell out his works with gladness.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships: and occupy their business in great waters.
24 These men see the works of the Lord: and his wonders in the deep.
25 For at his word the stormy wind ariseth: which lifteth up the waves thereof,
26 They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep: their soul melteth away because of the trouble.
27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits end.
28 So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivereth them out of their distress.
29 For he maketh the storm to cease: so that the waves thereof are still.
30 Then are they glad, because they are at rest: and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.
31 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men!
32 That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people: and praise him in the seat of the elders!
33 Who turneth the floods into a wilderness: and drieth up the water-springs, 34 A fruitful land maketh he barren: for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.
35 Again he maketh the wilderness a standing water: and water-springs of a dry ground.
36 And there he setteth the hungry: that they may build them a city to dwell in.
37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards: to yield them fruits of increase.
38 He blesseth them, so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.
39 And again, when they are minished and brought low: through oppression, through any plague or trouble, 40 Though he suffer them to be evil intreated through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness.
41 Yet helpeth he the poor out of misery: and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.
42 The righteous will consider this and rejoyce: and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stopped.
43 Whoso is wise will ponder these things: and they shall understand the loving kindness of the Lord.

Paratum cor meum. Psal. 108.

Evening-Prayer.

O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready: I will sing and give praise with the best member that I have.
2 Awake, thou lute and harp: I my self will awake right early.
3 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.
4 For thy mercy is greater than the heavens: and the truth reacheth unto the clouds.
5 Set up thy self, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.
6 That thy beloved may be delivered: let thy right hand save them, and hear thou me.
7 God hath spoken in his holiness: I will rejoyce therefore and divide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.
8 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head.
9 Juda is my lawgiver, Moab is my washpot: over Edom will I cast out my shoe, upon Philistia will I triumph.
10 Who will lead me into the strong city: and who will bring me into Edom?
11 Hast not thou forsaken us, O God: and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?
12 O help us against the enemy: for vain is the help of man.
13 Through God we shall do great acts: and it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

Deus laudum. Psal. 109.

HOld not thy tongue, O God of my praise: for the mouth of the ungodly, yea, the mouth of the deceitful is opened upon me.
2 And they have spoken against me with false tongues: they compassed me about also with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.
3 For the love that I had unto them, lo, they take now my contrary part: but I give my self unto prayer.
4 Thus have they rewarded me evil for good: and hatred for my good will.
5 Set thou an ungodly man to be ruler over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.
6 When sentence is given upon him let him be condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sin.
7 Let his days be few: and let another take his office.
8 Let his children be fatherless: and his wife a widow.
9 Let his children be vagabonds and beg their bread: let them seek it also out of desolate places.
10 Let the extortioner consume all that he hath: and let the stranger spoil his labour.
11 Let there be no man to pity him: nor to have compassion upon his fatherless children.
12 Let his posterity be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name be clean put out.
13 Let the wickedness of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight of the Lord: and let not the sin of his mother be done away.
14 Let them alway be before the Lord: that he may root out the memorial of them from off the earth,
15 And that because his minde was not to do good: but persecuted the poor helpless man, that he might slay him that was vexed at the heart.
16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen unto him: he loved not blessing, therefore shall it be far from him.
17 He clothed himself with cursing like as with a raiment: and it shall come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.
18 Let it be unto him as the cloke that he hath upon him, and as the girdle that he is alway girded withal.
19 Let is thus happen from the Lord unto mine enemies: and to those that speak evil against my soul.
20 But deal thou with me, O Lord God, according unto they name: for sweet is thy mercy.
21 O deliver me, for I am helpless and poor: and my heart is wounded within me.
22 I go hence like the shadow that departeth: and am driven away as the grashopper.
23 My knees are weak through fasting: my flesh is dried up for want of fatness.
24 I became also a reproach unto them: they that looked upon me shaked their heads.
25 Help me, O Lord my God: O save me according to thy mercy.
26 And they shall know how that this is they hand: and that thou Lord hast done it.
27 Though they curse, yet bless thou: and let them be confounded that rise up against me, but let thy servant rejoyce.
28 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame: and let them cover themselvs with their own confusion, as with a cloak.
29 As for me, I will give great thanks unto the Lord with my mouth: and praise him among the multitude.
30 For he shal stand at the right hand of the poor: to save his soul from unrighteous judges.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. 110.

THe Lord said unto my Lord: Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy foot stool. Morning Prayer.
2 The Lord shall send the rod of thy power out of Zion: be thou ruler even in the midst among thine enimies.
3 In the day of thy power shall the people offer thee free-will-offerings with an holy worship: the dew of thy birth is of the womb of the morning.
4 The Lord sware, and will not repent: Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedeck.
5 The Lord upon thy right hand: shall wound even kings in the day of his wrath:
6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies: and smite in sunder the heads over divers countreys.
7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up his head.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. 111.

I Will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart: secretly among the faithful and in the congregation.
2 The works of the Lord are great: sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
3 His work is worthy to be praised and had in honour: and his righteousness endureth for ever.
4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works: that they ought to be had in remembrance.
5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he shall ever be mindeful of his covenant.
6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works: that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.
7 The works of his hands are verity and judgement: all his commandments are true.
8 They stand fast for ever and ever: and are done in truth and equity.
9 He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever. holy and reverend is his Name.
10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do thereafter, the praise of it endureth for ever.

Beatus vir. Psal. 112.

BLessed is the man that feareth the Lord: he hath great delight in his commandments.
2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the faithfull shall be blessed.
3 Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.
4 Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darkness: he is merciful, loving, and righteous.
5 A good man is merciful and lendeth: and will guide his words with discretion.
6 For he shall never be moved: and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.
7 He will not be afraid of any evil tidings: for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.
8 His heart is stablished and will not shrink: until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 Hath

9 He hath dispersed abroad and given to the poor: and his righteousness remaineth for ever, his horn shall be exalted with honor.

10 The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him: he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away, the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

Laudate pueri. Psal. 113.

PRaise the Lord, ye servants: O praise the name of the Lord.

2 Blessed be the name of the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.

3 The Lords name is praised: from the rising up of the sun, unto the going down of the same.

4 The Lord is high above all heathen: and his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like unto the Lord our God, that hath his dwelling so high: and yet humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven and earth.

6 He taketh up the simple out of the dust: and lifteth the poor out of the mire.

7 That he may set him with the princes: even with the princes of his people.

8 He maketh the barren woman to keep house: and to be a joyful mother of children.

In exitu Israel. Psal. 114.

Evening-Prayer.

WHen Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Jacob from among the strange people,

2 Juda was his sanctuary: and Israel is dominion.

3 The sea saw and fled: Jordan was driven back.

4 The montains skipped like rams: and the little hills like young sheep.

5 What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest: and thou Jordan, that thou was driven back?

6 Ye mountains that ye skipped like rams: and ye little hills like young sheep.

7 Tremble thou earth at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the God of Jacob.

8 Who turned the hard rock into a standing water: and flint-stone into a springing-well.

Non nobis, Domine. Psal. 115.

NOt unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give the praise: for thy loving mercy, and for thy truths sake.

2 Wherefore shall the heathen say: Where is now their God.

3 As for our God, he is in heaven: he hath done whatsoever pleased him.

4 Their idols are silver and gold: even the work of mens hands.

5 They have mouths and speak not: eyes have they and see not.

6 They have ears and hear not: noses have they and smell not.

7 They have hands and handle not, feet have they and walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

8 They that make them are like unto them: and so are all such as put their trust in them.

9 But thou, O house of Israel, trust thou in the Lord: he is their succour and defence.

10 Ye house of Aaron, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.

11 Ye that fear the Lord, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.

12 The Lord hath been mindful of us, and he shall bless us: even he shall bless the house of Israel, he shall bless the house of Aaron.

13 He shall bless them that fear the Lord: both small and great.

14 The Lord shall increase you more and more: you and your children.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord: who made heaven and earth.

16 All the whole heavens are the Lords: the earth hath he given to the children of men.

17 The dead praise not thee, O Lord: neither all they that go down into silence.

18 But we will praise the Lord, from this time forth for evermore. Praise the Lord.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. 116.

Morning-Prayer.

IAm well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer.

2 That he hath inclined his ear unto me: therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

3 The snares of death compassed me round about: and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.

4 I shall find trouble and heaviness; and I will call upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous: yea, our God is merciful.

6 The Lord preserveth the simple: I was in misery, and he helped me.

7 Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

8 And why? thou hast delivered my soul from death: mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the Lord: in the land of the living.

10 I believed, and therefore will I speak, but I was sore troubled: I said in my haste. All men are lyars.

11 What reward shall I give unto the Lord: for all the benefits that he hath done.

12 I will receive the cup of salvation: and call upon the Name of the Lord.

13 I will pay my vows now in the presence of all his people: right dear in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

14 Behold, O Lord, how that I am thy servant: I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid: thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.

15 I will offer to the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and will call upon the name of the Lord.

16 I will pay my vows unto the Lord, in the sight of all his people: in the courts of the Lords house, even in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 117.

OPraise the Lord, all ye heathen: praise him, all ye nations.

2 For his merciful kindness is evermore and more towards us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise the Lord.

Confitemini Domino. 118.

OGive thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: because his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let Israel now confess: that he is gracious: and that his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now confess: that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Yea, let them now that fear the Lord, confess: that his mercy endureth for ever.

5 I called upon the Lord in trouble: and the Lord heard me at large.

6 The Lord is on my side: I will not fear what man doth unto me.

7 The Lord taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon mine enemies.

8 It is better to trust in the Lord: than to put any confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the Lord: than to put any confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me round about: but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.

11 They kept me in on every side: they kept me in, I say, on every side: but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.

12 They came about me like bees. and are extinct even as the fire among the thorns: for in the Name of the Lord I will destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall: but the Lord was my help.

14 The Lord is my strength and my song: and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

16 The right hand of the Lord hath the preeminence: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

17 I shall not die, but live: and declare the works of the Lord.

18 The Lord hath chastened and corrected me: but he hath not given me over unto death.

19 Open me the gates of righteousness: that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord.

20 This is the gate of the Lord: the righteous shall enter into it.

21 I will thank thee, for thou hast heard me: and art become my salvation.

22 The same stone which the builders refused: is become the head-stone in the corner.

23 This is the Lords doings: and is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoyce and be glad in it.

25 Help me now, O Lord: O Lord, send us now prosperity.

26 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord: we have wished you good luck, ye that are of the house of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord which hath shewed us light: binde the sacrifice with cords, yea, even unto the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will thank thee: thou art my God, and I will praise thee.

29 O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Beati immaculati. Psal. 119.

Evening-Prayer.

BLessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord.

2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies: and seek him with their whole heart.

3 For they who do no wickedness: walk in his ways.

4 Thou hast charged: that we shall diligently keep thy commandments.

5 O that my ways were made so direct: that I might keep thy statutes.

6 So shall I not be confound ed: while I have respect unto all thy commandments.

7 I will thank thee with an unfeigned heart: when I shall have learned the judgements of thy righteousness.

8 I will keep thy ceremonies: O forsake me not utterly.

2 With my whole heart have I fought thee. O let me not go wrong out of thy commandments.
3 Thy words have I hid within my heart: that I ſhould not ſin againſt thee.
4 Bleſſed art thou, O Lord: O teach me thy ſtatutes.
5 With my lips have I been telling: of all the judgements of thy mouth.
6 I have had as great delight in the way of thy teſtimonies: as in all manner of riches.
7 I will talk of thy commandments: and have reſpect unto thy ways.
8 My delight ſhall be in thy ſtatutes: and I will not forget thy word.

Retribue ſervo tuo.

O Do well unto thy ſervant: that I may live, and keep thy word.
2 Open thou mine eyes: that I may ſee the wondrous things of thy law.
3 I am a ſtranger upon earth: O hide not thy commandments from me.
4 My ſoul breaketh out for the very fervent deſire: that it hath alway unto thy judgements.
5 Thou haſt rebuked the proud: and curſed are they that do err from thy commandments.
6 O turn from me ſhame and rebuke: for I have kept thy teſtimonies.
7 Princes alſo did ſit and ſpeak againſt me: but thy ſervant is occupied in thy ſtatutes.
8 For thy teſtimonies are my delight: and my counſellors.

Morning-Prayer. TEach me, O Lord, the way of thy ſtatutes: and I ſhall keep it unto the end.
2 Give me underſtanding, and I ſhall keep thy law: yea, I ſhall keep it with my whole heart.
3 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments: for therein is my deſire.
4 Incline my heart unto thy teſtemonies: and not to covetouſneſs.
5 O turn away mine eyes, leſt they behold vanity: and quicken thou me in thy way.
6 O ſtabliſh thy word in thy ſervant: that I may fear thee.
7 Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of: for thy judgements are good.
8 Behold, my delight is in thy commandments: O quicken me in thy righteouſneſs.

OThink upon thy ſervant, as concerning thy word: wherein thou haſt cauſed me to put my truſt.
2 The ſame is my comfort in my trouble: for thy word hath quickned me.
3 The proud have had me exceedingly in deriſion: yet have I not ſhrinked from thy law.
4 For I remembred thine everlaſting judgements, O Lord: and received comfort.
5 I am horribly afraid: for the ungodly that forſake thy law.
6 Thy ſtatutes have been my ſongs: in the houſe of my pelgrimage.
7 I have thought upon thy Name, O Lord, in the night ſeaſon: and have kept thy law.
8 This I had: becauſe I kept thy commandments.

Portio mea Domine.

THou art my portion, O Lord: I have promiſed to keep thy law.
2 I made my humble petition in thy preſence with my whole heart: O be merciful unto me according to thy word.
3 I called mine own ways to remembrance: and turned my feet unto thy teſtimonies.
4 I made haſte, and prolonged not the time: to keep thy commandments.
5 The congregations of the ungodly have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.
6 At midnight I will riſe to give thanks unto thee: becauſe of thy righteous judgements.
7 I am a companion of all them that fear thee: and keep thy commandments.
8 The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: O teach me thy ſtatutes.

Benitatem feciſti.

O Lord, thou haſt dealt graciouſly with thy ſervant: according unto thy word.
2 O learn me true underſtanding and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.
3 Before I was troubled I went wrong: but now have I kept thy word.
4 Thou art good and gracious: O teach my thy ſtatutes.
5 The proud have imagined a lie againſt me: but I will keep thy commandments with my whole heart.
6 Their heart is as fat as brawn: but my delight hath been in thy law.
7 It is good for me that I have been in trouble: that I may learn thy ſtatutes.
8 The law of thy mouth is dearer unto me: than thouſands of gold and ſilver.

Manus tuæ fecerunt me.

THy hands have made me and faſhioned me: O give me underſtanding, that I may learn thy commandments. Evening-Prayer.
2 They that fear thee will be glad when they ſee me: becauſe I have put my truſt in thy word.
3 I know, O Lord, that thy judgements are right. and that thou of very faithfulneſs haſt cauſed me to be troubled.
4 O let thy merciful kindneſs be my comfort: according to thy word unto thy ſervant.
5 O let thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is delight.
6 Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to deſtroy me: but I will be occupied in thy commandments.
7 Let ſuch as fear thee, and have known thy teſtimonies: be turned unto me.
8 O let my heart be ſound in thy ſtatutes: that I be not aſhamed.

Defecit anima mea.

MY ſoul hath longed for thy ſalvation: and I have a good hope becauſe of thy word.
2 Mine eyes long ſore for thy word: ſaying, O when wilt thou comfort me?
3 For I am become like a bottle in the ſmoke: yet do I not forget thy ſtatutes.
4 How many are the days of thy ſervant. when wilt thou be avenged of them that perſecute me?
5 The proud have digged pits for me: which are not after thy law.
6 All thy commandments are true: they perſecute me falſly, O be thou my help.
7 They had almoſt made an end of me upon earth: but I forſook not thy commandments.
8 O quicken me after thy loving kindneſs: and ſo ſhall I keep the teſtimonies of thy mouth.

In æternum, Domine.

O Lord, thy word: endureth for ever in heaven.
2 Thy truth alſo remaineth from one generation to another; thou haſt laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.
3 They continue this day according to thine ordinance: for all things ſerve thee.
4 If my delight had not been in thy law: I ſhould have periſhed in my trouble.
5 I will never forget thy commandments: for with them thou haſt quickned me.
6 I am thine, O ſave me: for I have ſought thy commandments.
7 The ungodly laid wait for me, to deſtroy me: but I will conſider thy teſtemonies.
8 I ſee that all things come to an end: but they commandment is exceeding broad.

Quomodo dilexi.

LOrd, what love have I unto thy law: all the day long is my ſtudy in it.
2 Thou through thy commandments haſt made me wiſer than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.
3 I have more underſtanding than my teachers: for they teſtimonies are my ſtudy.
4 I am wiſer than the aged: becauſe I keep thy commandments.
5 I have refrained my feet from every evil way: that I may keep thy word.

6 I have

6 I have not ſhrink from thy judgements: for thou teacheſt me.
7 O how ſweet are thy words unto my throat: yea ſweeter than honey unto my mouth.
8 Through thy commandments I get underſtanding: therefore I hate all evil ways.

Lucerna pedibus meis.

Morning-Prayer.

THy word is a lantern unto my feet: and a light unto my paths.
2 I have ſworn, and am ſtedfaſtly purpoſed: to keep thy righteous judgements.
3 I am troubled above meaſure: quicken me, O Lord, according to thy word.
4 Let the free-will offerings of my mouth pleaſe thee, O Lord: and teach me thy judgements.
5 My ſoul is alway in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law,
6 The ungodly have laid a ſnare for me: but yet I ſwerved not from thy commandments.
7 Thy teſtimonies have I claimed as mine heritage for ever: and why? they are the very joy of my heart.
8 I have applied my heart to fulfil thy ſtatutes alway: even unto the end.

Iniquos odio habui.

I Hate them that imagin evil things: but thy law do I love,
2 Thou art my defence and ſhield: and my truſt is in they word.
3 Away from me, ye wicked: I will keep the commandments of my God.
4 O ſtabliſh me according to thy word, that I may live: and let me not be diſappointed of my hope.
5 Hold thou me up, and I ſhall be ſafe: yea, my delight ſhall be ever in thy ſtatutes.
6 Thou haſt troden down all them that depart from thy ſtatutes: for they imagin but deceit.
7 Thou putteſt away all the ungodly of the earth like droſs: therefore I love thy teſtimonies.
8 My fleſh trembleth for fear of thee: and I am afraid of thy judgements.

Feci judicium.

I Deal with the thing that is lawfull and right: O give me not over unto mine oppreſſours.
2 Make thou thy ſervant to delight in that which is good: that the proud do me no wrong.
3 Mine eyes are waſted away with looking for thy health: and for the word of thy righteouſneſs.
4 O deal with thy ſervant according unto thy loving mercy: and teach me thy ſtatutes.
5 I am thy ſervant, O grant me underſtanding: that I may know thy teſtimonies.
6 It is time for thee, Lord, to lay to thine hand: for they have deſtroyed thy law.
7 For I love thy commandments: above gold and precious ſtone.
8 Therefore hold I ſtrait all thy commandments: and all falſe ways I utterly abhor.

Mirabilia.

THy teſtimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my ſoul keep them.
2 When thy word goeth forth: it giveth light and underſtanding unto the ſimple.
3 I opened my mouth and drew in my breatle: for my delight was in thy commandments.
4 O look thou upon me and be merciful unto me: as thou uſeſt to do unto thoſe that love thy Name.
5 Order my ſteps in thy word: and ſo ſhall no wickedneſs have dominion over me.
6 O deliver me from the wrongfull dealings of men: and ſo ſhall I keep thy commandments.
7 Shew the light of thy countenance upon thy ſervant: and theach me thy ſtatutes.
8 Mine eyes guſh out with water: becauſe men keep not thy law.

Juſtus es, Domine.

RIghteous art thou, O Lord: and true is thy judgement.
2 The teſtimonies that thou haſt commanded: are exceeding righteous and true.
3 My zeal hath even conſumed me: becauſe mine enemies have forgotten thy words.
4 They word is tried to the uttermoſt: and thy ſervant loveth it.
5 I am ſmall, and of no reputation: yet do I not forget thy commandments.
6 Thy righteouſneſs is an everlaſting righteouſneſs: and thy law is the truth.
7 Trouble and heavineſs have taken hold upon me: yet is my delight in thy commandments.
8 The righteouſneſs of thy teſtimonies is everlaſting: O grant me underſtanding, and I ſhall live.

Clamavi in toto corde meo.

Evening-Prayer.

I Call with my whole heart: hear me, O Lord, I will keep thy ſtatutes.
2 Yea, even unto thee do I call: help me, and I ſhall keep thy teſtimonies.
3 Early in the morning do I cry unto thee: for in thy word is my truſt.
4 Mine eyes prevent the night-watches: that I might be occupied in they words.
5 Hear my voice, O Lord, according unto thy loving kindneſs: quicken me according as thou art wont.
6 They draw nigh that of malice perſecute me: and are far from thy law.
7 Be thou nigh at hand, O Lord: for all thy commandments are true.
8 As concerning thy teſtimonies, I have known long ſince: that thou haſt grounded them for ever.

Vide humilitatem.

OConſider mine adverſity, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.
2 Avenge thou my cauſe, and deliver me: quicken me according to thy word.
3 Health is far from the ungodly: for they regard not thy ſtatute.
4 Great is thy mercy, O Lord: quicken me as thou art wont.
5 Many there are that trouble me, and perſecute me: yet do I not ſwerve from thy teſtimonies.
6 It grieveth me when I ſee the trangreſſors: becauſe they keep not thy law.
7 Conſider, O Lord, how I love thy commandments: O quicken me according to thy loving kindneſs.
8 Thy word is true from everlaſting: all the judgements of thy righteouſneſs endure for evermore.

Principes perſecuti ſunt.

PRinces have perſecuted me without a cauſe: but my heart ſtandeth in awe of thy word.
2 I am as glad of thy word: as one that findeth great ſpoils.
3 As for lies, I hate and abhor them: but thy law do I love.
4 Seven times a day do I praiſe thee: becauſe of thy righteous judgements.
5 Great is the peace that they have who love thy law: and they are not offended at it.
6 Lord, I have looked for thy ſaving health: and done after thy commandments.
7 My ſoul hath kept thy teſtimonies: and loved them exceedingly.
8 I have kept thy commandments and teſtimonies: for all my ways are before thee.

Appropinquet deprecatio.

LEt my complaint come before thee, O Lord: give me underſtanding according to thy word.
2 Let my ſupplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.
3 My lips ſhall ſpeak of thy praiſe: when thou haſt taught me thy ſtatutes.
4 Yea, my tongue ſhall ſing of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteous.
5 Let thine hand help me: for I have choſen thy commandments.
6 I have longed for thy ſaving health, O Lord: and in thy law is my delight.
7 O let my ſoul live, and it ſhall praiſe thee: and thy judgements ſhall help me.
8 I have gone aſtray like a ſheep that is loſt: ſeek thy ſervant, for I do not forget thy commandments.

Ad Dominum. Pſal. 120.

WHen I was in trouble, I called upon the Lord: and he heard me. Morning-Prayer.
2 Deliver my ſoul, O Lord, from lying lips: and from a deceitful tongue.
3 What reward ſhall be given or done unto thee, thou falſe tongue: even mighty and ſharp arrows, with hot burning coals.
4 Wo is me, that I am conſtrained to dwell with Meſech: and ro have my habitation among the tents of Kedar.
5 My ſoul hath long dwelt among them: that are enemies unto peace.
6 I labour for peace, but when I ſpeak unto them thereof: they make them ready to battel.

2 Our feet ſhall ſtand in thy gates: O Jeruſalem.
3 Jeruſalem is built as a city: that is at unity in it ſelf.
4 For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord: to teſtify unto Iſrael, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord.
5 For there is the ſeat of judgement: even the ſeat of the houſe of David.
6 O pray for the peace of Jeruſalem: they ſhall proſper that love thee.
7 Peace be within thy walls. and plenteouſneſs within thy palaces.
8 For my brethren and companions ſakes: I will wiſh thee proſperity.

Sæpe expugnaverunt. Pſal. 129.

MAny a time have they fought againſt me from my youth up: may Iſrael now ſay.
2 Yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up: but they have not prevailed againſt me.
3 The plowers plowed upon my back: and made long furrows.
4 But the righteous Lord: hath hewen the ſnares of the ungodly in pieces.
5 Let them be confounded and turned backward: as many as have evil will at Sion.
6 Let them be even as the graſs growing upon the houſe tops: which withereth afore it be plucked up.
7 Whereof the mower filleth not his hand: neither he that bindeth up the ſheaves, his boſom.
8 So that they who go by, ſay not ſo much as, The Lord proſper you: we wiſh you good luck in the name of the Lord.

De profundis. Pſal. 130.

OUt of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord hear my voice.
2 O let thine ears conſider well: the voice of my complaint.
3 If thou, Lord, wilt be extream to mark what is done amiſs: O Lord! who may abide it.
4 For there is mercy with thee: therefore ſhalt thou be feared.
5 I look for the Lord, my ſoul doth wait hor him: in his words is my truſt.
6 My ſoul fleeth unto the Lord: before the morning watch, I ſay, before the morning watch.
7 O Iſrael, truſt in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption.
8 And he ſhall redeem Iſrael: from all his ſins.

Domine, non eſt. Pſal. 131.

LOrd, I am not high-minded: I have no proud looks.
2 I do not exerciſe my ſelf in great matters: which are to high for me.
3 But I refrain my ſoul, and keep it low, like as a child that is weaned from his mother: yea, my ſoul is even as a weaned child.
4 O Iſrael, truſt in the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.

Memento, Domine. Pſal. 132.

LOrd remember David: and all his trouble. Morning Prayer.
2 How he ſware unto the Lord, and vowed a vow unto the Almighty God of Jacob;
3 I will not come within the tabernacle of mine houſe: nor climb up into my bed;
4 I will not ſuffer mine eyes to ſleep, nor mine eye-lids to ſlumber: neither the themples of my head to take any reſt,
5 Until I find out a place for the temple of the Lord: an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.
6 Lo, we heard of the ſame at Ephrata: and found it in the wood.
7 We will go into his tabernacle: and fall low on our knees before his footſtool.
8 Ariſe, O Lord, into they reſting place: thou, and the ark of thy ſtrength.
9 Let thy Prieſts be clothed with righteouſneſs: add let thy ſaints ſing with joyfulneſs.
10 For thy ſervant Davids ſake: turn not away the preſence of thy anointed.
11 The Lord hath made a faithful oath unto David: and he ſhall not ſhrink from it.
12 Of the fruit of thy body: ſhall I ſet upon thy ſeat.
13 If thy children will keep my covenant, and my teſtimonies that I ſhall learn them: their children alſo ſhall ſit upon they ſeat for evermore.
14 For the Lord hath choſen Sion to be an habitation for himſelf: he hath longed for her.
15 This ſhall be my reſt for ever: here will I dwell, for I have a delight therein.
16 I will bleſs her victuals with increaſe: and will ſatisfy her poor with bread.
17 I will deck her prieſts with health: and her ſaints ſhall rejoyce and ſing.
18 There ſhall I make the horn of David to flouriſh: I have ordained a lantern for mine Anointed.
19 As for his enemies. I ſhall cloath them with ſhame: but upon himſelf ſhall his crown flouriſh.

Ecce, quam bonum. Pſal. 133.

BEhold, how good and joyful a thing it is: brethren to dwell together in unity.
2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down unto the beard: even unto Aarons beard, and went down to the skirts of his clothing.
3 Like as the dew of Hermon: which fell upon the hill of Sion.
4 For there the Lord promiſed his bleſſing. and life for evermore.

Ecce nunc. Pſal. 134.

BEhold now praiſe the Lord: all ye ſervants of the Lord.
2 Ye that by night ſtand in the houſe of the Lord: even in the courts of the houſe of our God.
3 Lift up your hands in the ſanctuary: and praiſe the Lord.
4 The Lord that made heaven and earth: give thee bleſſing out of Sion.

Lau-

Laudate nomen. Pſal. 235.

O Praiſe the Lord, laud ye the name of the Lord: praiſe it, O ye ſervants of the Lord.
2 Ye that ſtand in the houſe of the Lord: in the courts of the houſe of our God.
3 O praiſe the Lord, for the Lord is gracious: O ſing praiſes unto his name, for it is lovely.
4 For why? the Lord hath choſen Jacob unto himſelf: and Iſrael for his own poſſeſſion.
5 For I know that the Lord is great: and that our Lord is above all gods.
6 Whatſoever the Lord pleaſed, that did he in heaven and in earth: and in the ſea, and in all deep places.
7 He bringeth forth the clouds from the ends of the world: and ſendethforth lightnings with the rain, bringing the winds out of his treaſures.
8 He ſmote the firſt-born of Egypt: both of man and beaſt.
9 He hath ſent tokens and wonders into the midſt of thee, O thou land of Egypt: upon Pharaoh and all his ſervants.
10 He ſmote divers nations: and ſlew mighty kings.
11 Sehon king of the Amorites, and Og the king of Baſan: and all the kingsdom of Canaan.
12 And gave their land to be a heritage: even an heritage unto Iſrael his people.
13 They name, O Lord, endureth for ever: ſo doth thy memorial, O Lord, from one generation to another.
14 For the Lord will avenge his people: and be gracious unto his ſervants.
15 As for the image of the heathen, they are but ſilver and gold: the work of mens hands.
16 They have mouths, and ſpeak not: eyes have they but they ſee not.
17 They have ears, and yet they hear not: neither is there any breath in their mouths.
18 They that make them are like unto them: and ſo are all they that put their truſt in them.
19 Praiſe the Lord, ye houſe of Iſrael: praiſe the Lord, ye houſe of Aaron.
20 Praiſe the Lord, ye houſe of Levi: ye that fear the Lord, praiſe the Lord.
21 Praiſed be the Lord out of Sion: who dwelleth at Jeruſalem.

Confitemini. Pſal. 136.

Evening-Prayer.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.
2 O give thanks unto the God of all gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.
3 O thank the Lord of all lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.
4 Who onely doth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.
5 Who by his excellent wiſdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.
6 Who laid out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.
7 Who hath made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever.
8 The ſun to rule the day: for his mercy endureth for ever.
9 The moon and the ſtars to govern the night: for his mercy endureth for ever.
10 Who ſmote Egypt with their firſt-born: for his mercy endureth for ever.
11 And brought out Iſrael from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever.
12 With a mighty hand and ſtretched-out arm: for his mercy endureth for ever.
13 Who divided the red ſea in two parts; for his mercy endureth for ever.
14 And made Iſrael to go through the midſt of it: for his mercy endureth for ever.
15 But as for Pharaoh and his hoſt, he overthrew them in the réd ſea: for his mercy endureth for ever.
16 Who led his people through the wilderneſs: for his mercy endureth for ever.
17 Who ſmote great kings for his mercy endureth for ever.
18 Yea, and ſlew mighty kings: for his mercy endureth for ever.
19 Sehon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever.
20 And Og the king of Baſan: for his mercy endureth for ever;
21 And gave away their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever.
22 Even for an heritage unto Iſrael his ſervant: for his mercy endureth for ever.
23 Who remembred us when we were in trouble: for his mercy endureth for ever.
24 And hath delivered us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.
25 Who giveth food to all fleſh: for his mercy endureth for ever.
26 O give thanks unto God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever.
27 O give thanks unto the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Super flumina. Pſal. 137

BY the waters of Babylon we ſate down and wept: when we remembred thee, O Sion.
2 As for our harps we hanged them up: upon the trees that are therein.
3 For they that led us away captive, required of us then a ſong and melody in our heavineſs: ſing us one of the ſongs of Sion.
4 How ſhall we ſing the Lords ſong: in a ſtrange land.
5 If I forget thee, O Jeruſalem: let my right hand forget her cunning.
6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth: yea, if I preſer not Jeruſalem in my mirth.
7 Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Jeruſalem: how they ſaid: Down with it, down with it. even to the ground.
8 O daughter of Babylon, waſted with miſery: yea, happy ſhall he be that rewarde th thee as thou haſt ſerved us.
9 Bleſſed ſhall he be, that taketh thy children: and throweth them againſt the ſtones.

Confitebor tibi. Pſal. 138.

I Will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I ſing praiſe unto thee.
2 I will worſhip toward thy holy temple, and praiſe they Name, becauſe of thy loving kindneſs and truth: for thou haſt magnified thy Name, and thy word above all things.
3 When I called upon thee, thou heardeſt me: and endueſt my ſoul with much ſtrength.
4 All the kings of the earth ſhall praiſe thee, O Lord: for they have heard the words of thy mouth.
5 Yea, they ſhall ſing in the wayes of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.
6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath he reſpect unto the lowly: as for the proud, he beholdeth them afar off.
7 Though I walk in the midſt of trouble, yet ſhalt thou refreſh me: thou ſhalt ſtretch forth thy hand upon the furiouſneſs of mine enemies, and thy right hand ſhall ſave me.
8 The Lord ſhall make good his loving kindneſs toward me: yea thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever, deſpiſe not then the works of thine own hands.

Domine probaſti. Pſal. 139.

O Lord, thou haſt ſearched me out, and known me: thou knoweſt my down-ſitting, and mine up-riſing, thou underſtandeſt my thoughts long before. Morning-Prayer.
2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and ſpyeſt out all my wayes.
3 For lo, there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knoweſt it altogether.
4 Thou haſt faſhioned me behind and before: and laid thine hand upon me.
5 Such knowledge is too wonderfull and excellent for me: I cannot attain unto it.
6 Whither ſhall I go then from thy Spirit: or whither ſhall I go then from thy preſence?
7 If I climb up into heaven, thou art there: if I go down to hell, thou art there alſo.
8 If I take the wings of the morning: and remain in the uttermoſt parts of the ſea;
9 Even there alſo ſhall they hand lead me: and they right hand ſhall hold me.
10 If I ſay, Peradventure the darkneſs ſhall couer me: then ſhall my night be turned to day.
11 Yea, the darkneſs is no darkneſs with thee, but the night is as clear as the day: the darkneſs and light to the are both alike.
12 For my reins are thine, thou haſt covered me in my mothers womb.
13 I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works, and that my ſoul knoweth right well.
14 My bones are not hid from thee: though I be made ſecretly, and faſhioned beneath in the earth.
15 Thine eyes did ſee my ſubſtance, yet being unperfect: and in thy book were all my members written;
16 Which day by day were faſhioned: when as yet there was none of them.
17 How dear are thy counſels unto me, O God. O how great is the ſum of them!
18 If I tell them, they are more in number than the ſand. when I wake up, I am preſent with thee.
19 Wilt thou not ſlay the wicked. O God: depart from me ye bloud-thirſty men.
20 For they ſpeak unrighteouſly againſt thee: and thine enemies take thy Name in vain.
21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee: and am not I grieved with thoſe that riſe up againſt thee?
22 Yea, I hate them right ſore: even as though they were mine enemies.
23 Try me, O God, and ſeek the ground of my heart: prove me and examine my thoughts.
24 Look well if there be any way of wickedneſs in me: and lead me in the way everlaſting.

Chriſt

Eripe me Domine. Pſal. 140.

DEliver me, O Lord, from the evil man: and preſerve me from the wicked man.

2 Who imagine miſchief in their hearts: and ſtir up ſtrife all the day long.

3 They have ſharpned their tongues like a ſerpent: adders poiſon is under their lips.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the ungodly: preſerve me from the wicked men, who are purpoſed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have laid a ſnare for me, and ſpread a net abroad with cords: yea, and ſet traps in my way.

6 I ſaid unto the Lord; Thou art my God: hear the voice of my prayers, O Lord.

7 O Lord God, thou ſtrength of my health: thou haſt covered my head in the day of battel.

8 Let not the ungodly have his deſire, O Lord: let not his miſchievous imagination proſper, leſt they be to proud.

9 Let the the miſchief of their own lips fall upon the head of them: that compaſs me about.

10 Let hot burning coals fall upon them: let them be caſt into the fire, and into the pit, that they never riſe up again.

11 A man full of words ſhall not proſper upon the earth: evil ſhall hunt the wicked perſon to overthrow him.

12 Sure I am, that the Lord will avenge the poor: and maintain the cauſe of the helpleſs.

13 The righteous all ſhall give thanks unto they Name: and the juſt ſhall continue in they ſight.

Domine clamavi. Pſal. 141.

LOrd, I call upon thee, haſte thee unto me: and conſider my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be ſet forth in thy ſight, as the incenſe: and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening ſacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth: and keep the door of my lips.

4 O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil tihing: let me not be occupied in ungodly works, with the men that work wickedneſs, leſt I eat of ſuch things as pleaſe them.

5 Let the righteous rather ſmite me friendly: and reprove me.

6 But let not their precious balms break my head: yea, I will pray yet againſt their wickedneſs.

7 Let their judges be overthrown in ſtony places: that they may hear my words, for they are ſweet.

8 Our bones lie ſcattered before the pit: like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

9 But mine eyes look unto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my truſt, O caſt not out my ſoul.

10 Keep me from the ſnare that they have laid for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11 Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together: and let me ever eſcape them.

Voce mea ad Dominum. Pſal. 142.

Evening-Prayer.

I Cried unto the Lord with my voice: yea, even unto the Lord did I make my ſupplication.

2 I poured out my comp'aints before him: and ſhewed him of my trouble.

3 When my ſpirit was in biavineſs, thou knoweſt my path: in the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a ſnare for me.

4 I looked alſoo upon my right hand: and ſaw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee unto: and no man cared for my ſoul.

6 I cried unto thee, O Lord, and ſaid: Thou art my hope and my portion in the land of the living.

7 Conſider my complaint: for I am brought very low.

8 O deliver me from my perſecutors: for they are too ſtrong for me.

9 Bring my ſoul out of priſon, that I may give thanks unto thy na me: which thing if thou wilt grant me, then ſhall the righteous reſort unto my company.

Domine exaudi. Pſal. 143.

HEar my prayer, O Lord, and conſider my deſire: hearken unto me for they truth and righteoſneſs ſake.

2 And enter uot into judgement with they ſervant: for in they ſight ſhall no man living be juſtified.

3 For the enemy hath perſecuted my ſoul, he hath ſmitten my life down to the ground: he hath laid me in the darkneſs, as the men that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my ſpirit vexed within me: and my heart within me is deſolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time paſt, I muſe upon al they works: yea, I exerciſe my ſelfs, in the works of they hands.

6 I ſtretch forth my hands unto thee: my ſoul gaſpeth unto thee as a thirſty land.

7 Hear me, O Lord, and that ſoon, for my ſpirit waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me, leſt I be like unto them that go flown into the pit.

8 O let me hear thy loving kindneſs betimes in the morning, for in thee is my truſt: ſhew thou me the way that I ſhould walk in, for I lift up my ſoul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: for I flee unto thee hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaſeth thee, for thou art my God: let thy loving Spirith lead me forth into the land of righteouſneſs.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Names ſake: and for thy righteouſneſs ſake bring my ſoul out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodneſs ſlay mine enemies: and deſtroy all them that vex my ſoul, for I am they ſervant.

Benedictus Dominus. Pſal. 144.

BLeſſed be the Lord my ſtrength who theacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight; Morning-Prayer.

2 My hope and my fortreſs, my caſtle and deliverer, my defender, in whom I truſt: who ſubdueth my people that is under me.

3 Lord, what is man that thou haſt ſuch reſpect unto him: or the ſon of man that thou ſo regardeſt him?

4 Man is like a thing of nought: his time paſſeth away like a ſhadow.

5 Bow they heavens, O Lord, and come down: touch the mountains and they ſhall ſmoke.

6 Caſt forth thy lightning, and tear them: ſhoot out thine arrows and conſume them.

7 Send down thine hand from above: deliver me and take me out of the great waters, from the hand of ſtrange children.

8 Whoſe mouth talketh of vanity: and their right hand is a right hand of wickedneſs, 9 I will ſing a new ſong uuto thee, O God: and ſing paiſes unto thee upon a ten ſtringed lute.

10 Thou haſt given victory unto kings: and haſt delivered David thy ſervant from the peril of the ſword.

11 Save me and deliver me from the hand of ſtrange children: whoſe mouth talketh of vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquity.

12 That our ſons may grow up as the young plants: and that our daughters may be as the poliſhed corners of the temple.

13 That our garners may be full and plenteous with all manner of ſtore: that our ſheep may bring forth thouſands, and ten thouſands in our ſtreets.

14 That our oxen may be ſtrong to la bour, that there be no decay: no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our ſtreets.

15 Happy are the people that are in ſuch a caſe: yea, bleſſed are the people who have the Lord for their God.

Exaltabo te Deus. Pſal. 145.

I Will magnify thee, O God, my King: and I will praiſe thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I give thanks unto thee: and praiſe they name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord and marvellous, worthy to be praiſed: there is no end of his greatneſs.

4 One generation ſhall praiſe thy works unto another: and declare thy power.

5 As for me, I will be talking of thy woſhip: thy glory, thy praiſe and wondrous works.

6 So that men ſhall ſpeak of they might of thy marvellous acts: and I will alſo tell of thy greatneſs.

7 The memorial of thine abundant kindneſs ſhall be ſhewed: and men ſhall ſing of thy righteouſneſs.

8 The Lord is gracious and merciful: long ſuffering, and of great goodneſs.

9 The Lord is loving unto every man: and his mercy is over all his works.

10 All they works praiſe thee, O Lotd: and thy ſaints give thanks unto thee.

11 They ſhew the glory of they kingdom: and talk of thy power;

12 That they power, thy glory, and mightineſs of thy kingdom: might be know unto men.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlaſting kingdom: and thy dominion endureth through out all ages.

14 The Lord upholdeth all ſuch as fall: and lifreth up al thoſe that are down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou giveſt them their meat in due ſeaſon.

16 Thou openeſt thine hand: and filleſt all things living with plenteouſneſs.

17 The Lord is righteouſneſs in all his wayes: and holy in all his works.

18 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him: yea, all ſuch as call upon him faithfully.

19 He will fulfill the deſire of them that fear him: he alſo will hear their cry, and wil help them.

20 The Lord preſerveth all them that love him: but ſcattereth abroad all the ungodly.

21 My mouth ſhall ſpeak the praiſe of the Lord: and let all fleſh give thanks unto his holy name for ever and ever.

Lauda, anima mea. Pſal. 146.

PRaiſe the Lord, O my ſoul, while I live will I praiſe the Lord: yea, as long as I have any being, I will ſing praiſes unto my God.

2 O put not your truſt in princes, nor in any child of man: for there is no help in them.

3 For when the breath of man goeth forth, he ſhall turn again to his earth and then all his thoughts periſh.

4 Bleſſed is the that hath the God of Jacob for his help: and whoſe hope is in the Lord his God.

5 Who made heaven and earth, the ſea, and all that therein is: who keepeth his promiſe for ever.

6 Who helpeth them to right that ſuffer wrong: who feedeth the hungry.

7 The

7 The Lord looſeth men out of priſon: the Lord giveth ſight to the blind.
8 The Lord helpeth them that are faln: the Lord careth for the righteous.
9 The Lord careth for the ſtrangers, he defendeth the fatherleſs and widow: as for the way of the ungodly, he turneth it up ſide down.
10 The Lord thy God, O Zion, ſhall be King for evermore: and throughout all generations.

Laudate Dominum, Pſal. 147.

Evening-Prayer.

O Praiſe the Lord, for it is a good thing to ſing praiſes unto our God: yea, a joyful and pleaſant thing it is to be thankful.
2 The Lord doth build up Jeruſalem: and gather together the outcaſts of Iſrael.
3 He healeth thoſe that are broken in heart: and giveth medicine to heal their ſickneſs.
4 He telleth the number of the ſtars: and calleth them all by their names,
5 Great is our Lord, and great is his power: yea and his wiſdom is infinite.
6 The Lord ſetteth up the meek: and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.
7 O ſing unto the Lord with thanſgiving: ſing praiſes upon the harp unto our God.
8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth: and maketh the graſs to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the uſe of men.
9 Who giveth fodder unto the cattel: and feedeth the young ravens that call upon him.
10 He hath no pleaſure in the ſtrength of an horſe: neither delighteth he in any man legs.
11 But the Lords delight is in them that fear him: and put their truſt in his mercy.
12 Praiſe the Lord, O Jeruſalem: praiſe thy God, O Zion.
13 For he hath made faſt the bars of thy gates: and hath bleſſed thy children within thee.
14 He maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.
15 He ſendeth forth his commandment upon earth: and his word runneth very ſwiftly.
16 He giveth ſnow like wool: and ſcattereth the hoar froſt like aſhes.
17 He caſteth forth his ice like morſels: who is able to abide his froſt?
18 He ſendeth out his word, and melteth them: he bloweth with his wind, and the watets flow.
19 He ſheweth his word unto Jacob: his ſtatutes and ordinances unto Iſrael.
20 He hath not dealt ſo with any nation: neither have the heathen knowledge of his laws.

Laudate Dominum. Pſal. 148.

O Praiſe the Lord of heaven: praiſe him in the hight.
2 Praiſe him, all ye angels of his: praiſe him, all his hoſt.
3 Praiſe him, ſun and moon: praiſe him, all ye ſtars and light.
4 Praiſe him, all ye heavens: and ye waters that are above the heavens.
5 Let them praiſe the Name of the Lord: for he ſpake the word, and they were made, he commanded, and they were created.
6 He hath made them faſt for ever and ever: he hath given them a law which ſhall not be broken.
7 Praiſe the Lord upon earth: ye dragons, and all deeps;
8 Fire and hail, ſnow and vapours: wind and ſtorm, fulfilling his word.
9 Mountains and all hills: fruitful trées and all cédars;
10 Beaſts and all cattel: worms and feathered fowls;
11 Kings of the earth and all people: princes and all judges of the world.
12 Young men and maidens, old mén and children, praiſe the name of the Lord: for his name onely is excellent, and his praiſe above heaven and earth.
13 He ſhall exalt the horn of his people, all his ſaints ſhall praiſe him; even the children of Iſrael, even the people that ſerveth him.

Cantate Domino. Pſal. 149.

O Sing unto the Lord a new ſong: let the congregation of ſaints praiſe him.
2 Let Iſrael rejoyce in him that made him: and let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
3 Let them praiſe his name in the dance: let them ſing praiſes unto him with tabret and harp.
4 For the Lord hath pleaſure in his people: and helpeth the meek hearted.
5 Let the ſaints be joyful with glory: let them rejoyce in their beds.
6 Let the praiſes of God be in their mouth: and a two edged ſword in their hands;
7 To be avenged of the heathen: and to rébuke the people.
8 To bind their kings in chains: and their nobles with links of iron.
9 That they may be avenged of them, as it is written: Such honour have all his ſaints.

Laudate Dominum. Pſal. 150.

O Praiſe God in his holineſs: praiſe him in the firmament of his power.
2 Praiſe him in his noble acts: praiſe him according to his excellent greatneſs.
3 Praiſe him in the ſound of the trumpet: praiſe him upon the lute and harp.
4 Praiſe him in the cymbals and dances: praiſe him upon the ſtrings and pipe.
5 Praiſe him upon the well-turned cymbals: praiſe him upon the loud cymbals.
6 Let every thing that hath breath: praiſe the Lord.

Forms of Prayer to be uſed at SEA.

¶ The Morning and Evening-Service to be uſed daily at Sea, ſhall be the ſame which is appointed in the book of Common-Prayer.

¶ Theſe two following Prayers are to be alſo uſed in his Majeſties Navy every day.

O Eternal Lord God, who alone ſpreadeſt out the heavens, and ruleſt the raging of the Sea, who haſt compaſſed the waters with bounds until day and night come to an end; Be pleaſed to receive into thy Almighty and moſt gracious Protection the perſons of us thy ſervants, and the Fleet in which we ſerve. Preſerve us from the dangers of the Sea, and from the violence of the enemy, that we may be a ſafegurad unto our moſt gracious Soveraign Lord King James and his kingdoms, and a ſecurity for ſuch as paſs on the Seas upon their lawful occaſions; that the inhabitans of our Iſland may in peace and quietneſs ſerve thee our God, and that we may return in ſafety to enjoy the bleſſings of the land, with the fruits of our labours; and with a thankful remembrance of thy mercies, to praiſe and glorify thy holy Name, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect.

PRevent us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy moſt gracious favour, and further us with thy continual help: that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, aud finally by thy mercy obtain everlaſting life, through Jeſus Ghriſt our Lord. Amen.

Prayers to be uſed in Storms at Sea.

OMoſt powerful and glorious Lord God, at whoſe command the winds blow, and lift up the waves of the Sea, and who ſtilleſt the rage thereof; We thy creatures, but miſerable ſinners, do in this our great diſtreſs cry unto thee for help: ſave, Lord, or elſe we periſh. We confeſs, when we have been ſafe, and ſeen all things quiet about us, we have forgot thee our God, and refuſed to hearken to the ſtill voice of thy Word, and to obey thy commandments: But now we ſee how terrible thou art in all thy works of wonder, the great God to be feared above all: And therefore we adore thy divine Majeſty, acknowledging thy power, aud imploring thy goodneſs. Help Lord, and ſave us for thy mercies ſake in Jeſus Chriſt thy Son, our Lord Amen.

Or this.

OMoſt glorious and gracious Lord God, who dwelleſt in heaven, but beholdeſt all things below; Look down, we beſeech thee, and hear us, calling out of the depth of miſery, and out of the jaws of this death, which is ready now to ſwallow us up: Save Lord, or élſe we periſh. The living, the living ſhall praiſe thee. O ſend thy word of command to rebuke the raging winds, and the roaring ſea; that we, being delivered from this diſtreſs, may live to ſerve thee, and to glorify thy Name all rhe days of our life. Hear, Lord, and ſave us, for the infinite merits of our bleſſed Saviour thy Son, our Lord Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

The Prayer to be ſaid before a Fight at Sea againſt any Enemy.

OMoſt powerful and glorious Lord God, the Lord of hoſts; that ruleſt and commandeſt all things; Thou ſitteſt in the throne judging right; and therefore we make our addreſs to thy divine Majeſty in thir our neceſſity, that thou wouldeſt take the cauſe into tbine own hand, and judge between us, and our enemies. Stir up thy ſtrength, O Lord, and come and help us; for thou giveſt not alway the battel to the ſtrong, but canſt ſave by many or hy few. O let not our ſins now cry againſt us for vengeance, but hear us thy poor ſervants begging mercy, and imploring thy help; and that thou wouldeſt he a defence unto us againſt the face of the enemy. Make it appear that thou art our Saviour and mighty deliverer, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

Short Prayers for single Persons, that cannot meet to joyn in prayer with others, by reason of the Fight, or Storm.

General Prayers.

LOrd, be merciful to us sinners, and save us for thy mercies sake.

Thou art the great God, that hast made and ruleſt all things: O deliver us for thy Names sake.

Thou art the great God to be feared above all: O save us, that we may praise thee.

Special Prayers with respect to the Enemy,

THou, O Lord, art just and powerful: O defend our cause against the face of the enemy.

O God, thou art a strong tower of defence to all that flee unto thee: O save us from the violence of the enemy.

O Lord of hosts, fight for us, that we may glorify thee.

O suffer us not to sink under the weight of our sins, or the violence of the enemy.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thy Names sake.

Short Prayers in respect of a Storm.

THou, O Lord, that stilleſt the raging of the Sea, hear, hear us, and save us, that we perish not.

O blessed Saviour, that didst save thy disciples ready to perish in a storm, hear us; and save us, we beseech thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

O Lord, hear us.

O Christ, hear us.

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, have mercy upon us, save us now and evermore. Amen.

OUr Father which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses. As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ When there shall be immenent danger, as many as can be spared from necessary service in the Ship, shall be called together, and make an humble confession of their sins to God: In which every one ought seriously to reflect upon those particular sins of which his Conscience shall accuse him: saying as followeth.

The Confession.

ALmighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed against thy divine Majesty, provoking most justly the wrath and indignations against us. We do earnestly repent, and be heartily sorry for these our misdoings, the remembrance of them is grievous unto us; the burden of them is intolerable Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father, for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ sake, forgive us all that is past, and grant, that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in the newness of life, to the honour and glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest, if there be any in the Ship, pronounce this Absolution.

ALmighty God our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them which with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thanksgiving after a Storm.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. 66.

OBe joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name, make his praise to be glorious.

Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works: through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies be found liars unto thee.

For all the world shall worship thee: sing of thee, and praise thy name.

O come hither, and behold the works of God: how wonderful he is in his doing towards the children of men.

He turned the sea into dry land: so that thy went through the water on foot; there did we rejoyce thereof.

He ruleth with his power for ever, his eyes behold the people: and such as will not believe, shall not be able to exalt themselvs.

O praise our God, ye people: and make the voice of his praise to be heard;

Who holdeth our soul in life: and suffereth not our feet to slip.

For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou also hast tryed us, like as silver is tryed.

Thou broughteſt us into the snare: and laist trouble upon our loins.

Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads: we went through fire and water, and thou broughteſt us out into a wealthy place.

I will go into thy house with burnt-offerings. and will pay thee my vows which I promised with my lips. and spake with my mouth when I was in trouble.

I will offer unto thee fat burnt sacrifices, with the incense of rams. I will offer bullocks and goats.

O Come hither and hearken, all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what he hath don for my soul.

I called unto him with my mouth: and gave him praises with my tongue.

If I incline unto wickedness with my hearth: the Lord will not hear me.

But God hath heard me: and considered the voice of my prayer.

Praised be God, who hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercy from me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost.

As it it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. 107.

OGive thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever,

Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy.

And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west: from the north, and from the south.

They went astray in the wilderness out of the way: and found no city to dwell in.

Hungry and thirsty: their soul fainted in them.

So they cryed unto the Lord in their trouble: and he delivered them from their distress.

He led them forth by the right way: that they might go to the city where they dwelt.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men;

For he satisfieth the empty soul: and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Such as sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: being fast bound in misery and iron;

Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord: and lightly regarded the counsel of the most Highest;

He also brought down their heart through heaviness: they fell down, and there was none to help them up.

So when they cryed unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress.

For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death: and brake their bonds in sunder.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

For he hath broken the gates of brass; and smitten the bars of iron in sunder.

Foolish men are plagued for their offence; and because of their wickedness.

Their soul abhorred all manner of meat; and they were even hard at deaths door.

So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress.

He sent his word and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving; and tell out his works with gladness.

They that go down to the sea in ships; and occupy their business in great waters.

These men see the works of the Lord; and his wonders in the deep.

For at his word the stormy wind ariseth; which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep; their soul melteth away because of the trouble.

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man; and are at their wits end.

So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble; he delivereth them out of their distress.

For he maketh the storm to cease; so that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad, because they are at rest: and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness; and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people and praise him in the seat of the elders.

Who turneth the flouds into a wilderness, and drieth up the waterſprings.

A fruitful land maketh he barren; for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

Again he maketh the wilderness a standing water; and waterſprings of a dry ground.

And there he setteth the hungry; that they may build them a city to dwell in;

That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards; to yield them fruits of increase.

He blesseth them, so that thy multiply exceedingly; and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

And

And again, when they are miniſhed and brought low: through oppreſſion, through any plague or trouble;

Though he ſuffer them to be evil intreated through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wilderneſs;

Yet helpeth he the poor out of miſery: and maketh him houſholds like a flock of ſheep.

The righteous will conſider this and rejoyce: and the mouth of all wickedneſs ſhall be ſtopped.

Thoſo is wiſe will ponder theſe things: and they ſhall underſtand the loving kindneſs of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

Collects of thanksgiving.

O Moſt bleſſed and glorious Lord God, who art of infinite goodneſs and mercy; we thy poor creatures, whom thou haſt made and preſerved, holding our ſouls in life, and now reſcuing us out of the jaws of death, humbly preſent our ſelvs again before thy divine Majeſty, to offer a ſacrifice of praiſe and thankſgiving, for that thou heardeſt us, when we called in our trouble, and didſt not caſt out our prayer, which we made before thee in our great diſtreſs; even when we gave all for loſt, our ſhip, our goods, our lives, then didſt thou mercifully look upon us, and wonderfully command a deliverance; for which, we now being in ſafety, do give all praiſe and glory to thy holy Name, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

Or this.

O Moſt mighty and gracious good God, thy mercy is over all thy works, but in ſpecial manner hath been extended toward us, whom thou haſt ſo powerfully and wonderfully defended. Thou haſt ſhewed us terrible things, and wonders in the deep, that we might ſee how powerful and gracious a God thou art, how able and ready to help them thaſt truſt in thee. Thou haſt ſhewed us, how both winds and ſeas obey they command, that we may learn even from them, hereafter to obey thy voice, and to do thy will. We therefore bleſs and glorify thy Name for this thy mercy in ſaving us, when we were ready to periſh. And we beſeech thee, make us as truly ſenſible now of thy mercy, as we were then of the danger: And give us hearts always ready to expreſs our thankfulneſs, not onely by words, but alſo by our lives, in being more obedient to they holy commandments. Continue, we beſeech thee, this thy goodneſs to us, that we, whom thou haſt ſaved, may ſerve thee in holineſs and righteouſneſs, all the days of our life: through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord and Saviout. Amen.

A Hymn of Praiſe and Thankſgiving after a dangerous Tempeſt.

O Come, let us give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praiſed; let the redeemed of the Lord ſay ſo: whom he hath delivered from the mercileſs rage of the ſea.

The Lord gracious and full of compaſſion: ſlow to anger, and of great mercy.

He hath not dealt with us according to our ſins: neither rewarded us according to our iniquities,

But as the heaven is high above the earth: ſo great hath been his mercy toward us.

We found trouble and heavineſs: we were even at deaths door.

The waters of the ſea had well nigh covered us. the proud waters had well nigh gone over our ſoul.

The ſea roared: and the ſtormy wind lifted up the waves thereof.

We were carryed up, as it were, to heaven, and then down again into the deep: our ſoul melted within us, becauſe of trouble.

Then cryed we unto thee, O Lord: and thou didſt deliver us out of our diſtreſs.

Bleſſed be thy name, who didſt not deſpiſe the prayer of thy ſervants: but didſt hear our cry, and haſt ſaved us.

Thou didſt ſend forth thy commandment: and the windy ſtorm ceaſed, and was turned into a calm.

O let us therefore praiſe the Lord for his goodneſs: and declare the wonders that he hath done, and ſtill doth for the children of men.

Praiſed be the Lord daily: even the Lord that helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

He is our God, even the God of whom cometh ſalvation: God is the Lord, by whom we have eſcaped death.

Thou, Lord, haſt made us glad through the operation of thy hands: and we will triumph in thy praiſe.

Bleſſed be the Lord God: even the Lord God, who onely doth wondrous things;

And bleſſed be the Name of his Majeſty for ever: and let every one of us ſay, Amen, Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

THe grace of out Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the love of God, and the fellowſhip of the holy Ghoſt, be with us all now and evermore. Amen.

After Victory or Deliverance from an Enemy.

A Pſalm or Hymn of praiſe and thankſgiving after Victory.

IF the Lord had not been on our ſide, now may we ſay: if the Lord himſelf had not been on our ſide, when men roſe up againſt us;

They had ſwallowed us up quick: when they were ſo wrathfully diſpleaſed at us,

Yea the waters had drowned us, and the ſtream had gon over our ſoul: the deep waters of the proud had gon over our ſoul.

But praiſed be the Lord: who hath not given us over as a prey unto them.

The Lord hath wrought: a mighty ſalvation for us.

We gat not this by our own ſword, neither was it our own arm that ſaved us: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, becauſe thou hadſt a favour unto us.

The Lord hath appeared for us: the Lord hath covered our heads, and made us to ſtand in the day of battel.

The Lord hath appeared for us: the Lord hath overthrown our enemies, and daſhed in pieces thoſe that roſe up againſt us;

Therefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us: but unto thy Name be given the glory.

The Lord hath done great things for us, the Lord hath done great things for us, for which we rejoyce.

Our help ſtandeth in the Name of the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.

Bleſſed be the Name of the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ After this Hymn may be ſung the Te Deum.

¶ Then this Collect.

O Almighty God, the Soveraign Commander of all the world, in whoſe hand is power and might which none is able to withſtand; We bleſs and magnify thy great and glorious Name for this happy victory, the whole glory whereof we do aſcribe to thee, who art the onely giver of victory. And, we beſeech thee, give us grace to improve this great mercy to thy glory, the advancement of thy goſpel, the honour of our Soveraign, and as much as in us lieth, to the good of all mankind. And, we beſeech thee, give us ſuch a ſenſe of this great mercy, as may engage us to a true thankfulneſs, ſuch as may appear in our lives by an humble, holy: and obedient walking before thee all our days, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord: To whom with thee, and the Holy Spirit, as for all thy mercies, ſo in particular for this victory and deliverance, be all glory and honour world without end. Amen.

¶ Inſtead of the firſt Collect at Morning-Prayer, ſhall theſe two be uſed.

ALmighty God, who haſt in all ages ſhewed thy power and mercy in the miraculous and gracious deliverances of thy Church, and in the protection of righteous and religious Kings and States, profeſſing thy holy and eternal truth, from the wicked conſpiracies, and malicious practices of all the enemies thereof; We yield thee our unfeigned thanks and praiſe, for the wonderful and mighty deliverance of our late gracious Sovereign King James, the Queen, the Prince, and all the Royal Branches, with the Nobility, Clergy, and Commons of this Realm, then aſſembled in Parliament, by Popiſh treachery appointed as ſheep to the ſlaughter, in a moſt barbarous and ſavage manner, beyond the examples of former ages. From this unnatural conſpiracy, not our merit, but thy mercy; not our foreſight, but thy providence delivered us: And therefore, not unto us, O Lord, not unto us; but unto thy Name be aſcribed all honour and glory, in all Churches of the Saints, from generation to generation, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

OLord, who didſt this day diſcover the ſnares of death that were laid for us, and didſt wonderfully deliver us from the ſame; Be thou ſtill our mighty Protector, and ſcatter our enemies that delight in blood; infatuate and defeat their counſels, abate their pride, aſſwage their malice, and confound their devices. Strenthen the hands of our gracious King James, and all that are put in authority under him, with Judgement and Juſtice, to cut off all ſuch workers of iniquity, as turn religion into rebellion, and faith into faction; that they may never prevail againſt us, or triumph in the ruine of thy Church among us: But that our gracious Sovereign and his Realms, being preſerved in thy true Religion, and by thy merciful goodneſs protected in the ſame, we may all duly ſerve thee, and give thee thanks in thy holy congregation, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the end of the Litany (which ſhall always this day be uſed) after the Collect. (We humbly beſeech thee, O Father, &c.) ſhall this be ſaid which followeth.

ALmighty God, and heavenly Father, who of thy gracious providence, and tender mercy towards us, didſt prevent the malice and imaginations of our enemies, by diſcovering and confounding their horrible and wicked enterpriſe, plotted, and intended this day to be executed againſt the King, and the whole State of this Realm, for the ſubverſion of the Gouvernment, and Religion eſtabliſhed amongſt us; We moſt humbly praiſe and magnify thy glorious Name for this thine infinite gracious goodneſs towards us. We confeſs, it was thy mercy, they mercy alone, that we were not then conſumed. For our ſins cried to heaven againſt us; and our iniquities juſtly called for vengeance upon us. But thou haſt dealt with us after our ſins, nor rewarded us after our iniquities, nor given us over, as we deſerved, to be a prey to our enemies; but didſt in mercy deliver us from their malice, and preſerve us from death and deſtruction. Let the conſideration of this thy goodneſs, O Lord, work in us true repentance, that iniquity may not be our ruine. And increaſe in us more and more a lively faith, and fruitful love in holy obedience, that thou mayeſt continue thy favour, with the light of thy Goſpel to us and our poſterity for evermore: and that for thy dear Sons ſake, Jeſus Chriſt our onely Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

¶ In the Communion Service, inſtead of the Collect for the day, ſhall this which followeth, be uſed.

ETernal God, and our moſt mighty Protector, we thy unworthy ſervants do humbly preſent our ſelvs before thy Majeſty, acknowledging thy power, wiſdom, and goodneſs in perſerving the King, and the three Eſtates of this Realm aſſembled in Parliament, from the deſtruction this day intended againſt them. Make us, we beſeech thee, truly thankful for this thy great mercy towards us. Protect and defend our Sovereign Lord the King, and all the Royal Family, from all treaſons and conſpiracies: Preſerve them in thy faith, fear and love; proſper his Reign with long happineſs here on earth; and crown him with everlaſting glory hereafter in the kingdom of heaven, Through Jeſus Chriſt our onely Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

The Epiſtle Rom. 13. 1.

LEt every ſoul be ſubject unto the higher powers, For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whoſoever therefore reſiſteth the power, reſiſteth the ordinance of God: and they that reſiſt. ſhall receive to themſelvs, damnation. For rulers are not a terrour to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou ſhalt have praiſe of the ſame: For he is the miniſter of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the ſword in vain: for he is the miniſter of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doth evil. Wherefore ye muſt needs be ſubject, not onely for wrath, but alſo for conſciences ſake. For, for this cauſe pay you tribute alſo: for they are Gods miniſters, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due, cuſtom to whom cuſtom, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

The Goſpel S. Matth. 27. 1.

WHen the morning was come, all the chief prieſts and elders of the people took counſel againſt Jeſus to put him to death. And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governour. Then Judas which had betrayed him, when he ſaw that he was condemned, repented himſelf, and brought again the thirty pieces of ſilver to the chief Prieſts and elders, ſaying, I have ſinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent bloud. And they ſaid, What is that to us? ſee thou to that. And he caſt down the pieces of ſilver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himſelf. And the chief prieſts took the ſilver pieces, and ſaid, It is not lawful for to put them into the treaſury, becauſe it is the price of bloud. And they took counſel, and bought with them the potters field, to bury ſtrangers in. Wherefore that field was called, The field of bloud unto this day. Then was fulfilled that which was ſpoken by Jeremy the prophet, ſaying, And they took the thirty pieces of ſilver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Iſrael did value; and gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.

OMost mighty God, tirrible in thy judgement, and wonderfull in thy doings towards the children of men, who in thy heavy displeasure didst suffer the life of our late gracious Sovereign to be this day taken away by wicked hands; We, thy unworthy servants, humbly confess, that the sins of this Nation have been the cause which hath brought this heavy judgement upon us. But, O gracious God, when thou makest inquisition for blood, lay not the guilt of this innocent blood, (the shedding whereof nothing but the blood of thy Son can expiate) lay it not to the charge of the people of this Land, nor let it ever be required of us, or our posterity. Be merciful, be merciful unto thy people, whom thou hast redeemed; and be not angry with us for ever; but pardon us for thy mercies sake, through the merits of thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ In the end of the Litany (which shall always this day be used) after the Collect, We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c. These three Collects are to be used.

OLord, we beseech thee, mercifully hear our prayers. and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee, that thy whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

OMost mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin, and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses, receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burthen of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy, to thee onely it appertaineth to forgive sins; Spare us therefore good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgement with thy servants, who are vile earth, and miserable sinners: but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileness, and truly repent us of our faults, and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the people say this that followeth, after the Minister.

TUrn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned: Be favourable, O Lord, Be favourable to thy people, Who turn to thee in weeping, fasting and praying: For thou art a merciful God, Full of compassion, long-suffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest, when we deserve punishment, And in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, And let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, And after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us; Through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the Communion Service, immediately after the Commandments shall this Collect be used.

OAlmighty Lord, and everlasting God, Vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to direct, sanctify, and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of thy laws, and in the works of thy commandments; that through thy most mighty protection both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; trough our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Prayer for the King (Almighty God, whose Kingdom is everlasting, &c.) And after that, these two Collects instead of that for the day.

BLessed Lord, in whose sight the death of thy Saints is precious, We magnify thy Name for that abundant grace bestowed on our late Martyred Sovereign; by which he was enabled so chearfully to follow the steps of his blessed Master and Saviour, in a constant meek suffering of all barbarous indignities, and at last resisting unto blood and even then, according to the same pattern, praying for his murtherers. Let his memory, O Lord, be ever blessed among us, that we may follow the example of his patience, and charity: And grant, that this our Land may be freed from the vengeance of his blood, and thy mercy glorified in the forgiveness of our sins: and all for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

GRant, Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Pet. 2. 13.

SUbmit your selvs to every ordinance of man for the Lords sake; whether it be to the King as supream: or unto governours, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For is the will of God, that with wel doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness; but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God Honour the King. Servants be subject to your masters with all fear, not onely to the good and gentle, but also the froward: For this is thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? But if when ye do well and suffer for it, ye take it patiently; this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called; because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps, who did no sin, neither was guile found his mouth.

The Gospel. S. Matth. 21. 33.

THere was a certain housholder which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far countrey. And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. Again, he sent other servants, more than the first: and they did unto them likewise. But last of all, he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselvs, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. And thy caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and shew him. When the Lord

Lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

¶ After the Prayer, (for the whole state of Christ Church, &c.) this Collect shall be used.

O Lord, our heavenly Father, who dost not punish us as our sins have deserved, but hast in the midst of judgement remembred mercy: We acknowledge it thy special favour, that though for our many and great provocations thou didst suffer thine Anointed to fall this day into the hands of violent and bloud-thirsty men, and barbarously to be murthered by them; yet thou didst not leave us for ever as sheep without a shepherd, but by thy gracious providence didst miraculously preseve the undoubted Heir of his Crown, our most gracious Souveraign King CHARLES the Second, from his bloudy enemies, hiding him under the shadow of thy wings, until their tyranny was overpast, and bringing him back in thy good appointed time to sit in peace upon the throne of his Father, and to exercise that authority over us, which of thy special grace thou hadst committed unto him. For these they great and unspeakable mercies we render thee most humble thanks from the bottom of our hearts, beseeching thee still to continue thy gracious protection over him, and to grant him a long and a happy Reign over us: So we that are thy people, will give thee thanks for ever, and will always be shewing forth they praise from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Proper Psalms, 38. 64. 143.

¶ Proper Lessons, { The First, Jer. 41. or Dan. 9, to verse 22. / The Second, Heb. 11. verse 32. to chap. 12. verse 7.

¶ Instead of the first Collect at Evening-Prayer, use these two which follow.

O Blessed Lord God, who by thy wisdom not onely guided and ordereſt all things most suitably to thine own justice, but also performest thy pleasure in such a manner, that we cannot but acknowledge thee to be righteous in all thy ways, and holy in all thy works; We thy sinful people fall down before thee, confessing that thy judgements were right in permitting cruel men, sons of Belial, this day to imbrue their hands in the bloud of thine Anointed; we having drawn down the same upon our selvs, by the great and long provocations of our sins against thee. For which we do therefore here humble our selvs before thee, imploring thy mercy for the pardon of them all. and that thou wouldest deliver this nation from bloud guiltines (that of this day especially) and turn from us and our posterity all those judgements which we by our sins have deserved: Grant this for the allsufficient merits of thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

BLessed God, just and powerful, who didst permit thy dear servant; our late dread Soveraign, to be this day given up to the violent outrages of wicked men, to be despitefully used, and at last murthered by them: Though we cannot reflect upon so foul an act but with hourrour and astonishment; yet do we most gratefully commemorate the glories of thy grace, which then shined forth in thine Anointed, whom thou wert pleased. even at the hour of death, to endue with an eniment measure of exemplary patience, meekness, and charity, before rhe face of cruel enemies. And albeit, thou didst suffer them to proceed to such a height of violence against him, as to kill his person, and take possession of his throne; yet didst thou in great mercy preserve his Son, whose it was, and at length by a wonderful providence bring him back, and set him thereon, to restore thy true Religion, and to settle peace amongst us: For which we glorify thy Name, through Jesus Christ our blessed Saviour. Amen.

ALmighty and everlasting God, whose righteousness is like the strong mountains, and thy judgements like the great deep; and who, by that barbarous murder, this day committed upon the sacred person of thine Anointed, our late Souveraign, hast taught us, that neither the greatest of kings, nor the best of men are more secure from violence, than from natural death; Teach us also hereby so to number our days; that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. And grant, that neither the splendour of my thing that is great, no the conceit of any thing that is good in us, may any way withdraw our eyes from looking upon our selves as sinful dust and ashes; but that (according to the example of his thy blessed Martyr) we may press forward towards the prize of the high calling that is before us, in faith and patience, humility and meekness, mortification, and self-denial, charity and constant perseverance unto the end. And all this for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christs sake; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour, and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Form of Prayer with Thangsgiving to be used yearly upon the XXIX. day of May; Being the day of His Majesties Birth, and happy Return to his Kingdoms.

¶ The Service shall be the same with the usual Office for Holydays in all things, Except were it is hereafter otherwise appointed.

¶ If this day shall happen to be Ascencion-day, Whitsunday, or Trinity Sunday. onely the Collects of this Office are to be added to tbe several Services for those Festivals in their proper places. If it shall happen to be any other Sunday, or to be Moonday, or Tuesday in Whitsun-week, the Collects shall be used as before, and also the proper Psalms here appointed, instead of those of ordenary course, and all the rest of this Office omitted.

¶ Morning-Prayer shall begin with this Sentence.

1 Tim. 2. ℣ 1, 2, 3. I Exhort, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men; for Kings, and all that are in Authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godlines and honesty: For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour.

¶ Instead of Venite exultemus, shall be sung or said this Hymn following; one Verse by the Priests, and another by the Clerk and people.

Psal. 95 1. O Come let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoyce in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and shew our selvs glad in him with Psalms.

vers 3. For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

Psal. 98. 2. With is own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory.

vers 3. The Lord declared his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

vers 4. He hath remembred his mercy and truth towards the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

Ps. 89. 21. For he hath found David his servant: with his holy oyl hath he anointed him.

vers 22. His hand hath held him fast: and his arm hath strengthned him.

vers 23. The enemy hath not been able to do him violence: the son of wickedness hath not hurt him.

vers 24. He hath smitten down his foes before his face: and plagued them that hated him.

His truth also and his mercy hath been with him: and in his Name is his horn exalted. vers 25.

He hath set his dominion also in the sea: and his right hand in the flouds. vers 26.

Therefore all the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord: for they have heard the words of thy mouth. Ps. 138. 4.

Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord. vers 5.

My mouth also shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh give thanks unto his holy Name for ever and ever. Psal. 145. 21.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shalle be: world without end. Amen.

¶ Inſtead of the Firſt Collect for Morning-Prayer, theſe two ſhall be uſed.

O Lord God of our ſalvation, who haſt been exceedingly gracious unto this land, and by thy miraculous providence haſt delivered us out of our late miſerable confuſions, by reſtoring to us our dread Soveraign Lord, thy ſervant, King Charles; We are now here before thee with all due thankfulneſs to acknowledge thine unſpeakable goodneſs this day ſhewed unto us, and to offer up our ſacrifices of praiſe unto thy glorious Name; humbly beſeeching thee to accept this our unfeigned, though unworthy oblation of our ſelvs; vowing all holy obedience in thought, word, and work unto thy divine Majeſty; and promiſing in thee, and for thee all loyal and dutiful allegiance to thine Anointed ſervant, and to his heirs after him: whom we beſeech thee to bleſs with all increaſe of grace, honour, and happineſs in this world, and to crown him with immortality and glory in the world to come, for Jeſus Chriſt his ſake, our onely Lord and Saviour. Amen.

O God, who by thy divine providence and goodneſs didſt this day firſt bring into the world; and didſt this day alſo bring back and reſtore to us, and to his own juſt and undoubted rights, our moſt gracious Soveraign Lord thy ſervant King Charles; Preſerve his life, and eſtabliſh his throne, we beſeech thee. Be unto him a helmet of ſalvation againſt the face of His enemies; and a ſtrong tower of defence in the time of trouble. Let his Reign be proſperous, and his days many. Let juſtice, truth, and holineſs; let peace, and love, and all Chriſtian vertues flouriſh in his time. Let his people ſerve him with honour and obedience; and let him ſo duly ſerve thee on earth, that he may hereafter everlaſtingly reign with thee in heaven, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the end of the Litany (which ſhall always this day be uſed) after the Collect, We humbly beſeech thee, O Father, &c. ſhall this be ſaid, which followeth.

O Lord God, moſt merciful Father, who of thine eſpecial grace and favour didſt this day bring home unto us thy ſervant King Charles, our Soveraign, and place him in the throne of this Kingdom, thereby reſtoring to us the publick and free profeſſion of thy true Religion and Worſhip, to the great comfort and joy of our hearts; We thine unworthy ſervants, here aſſembled together to celebrate the memory of this thy mercy, moſt humbly beſeech thee to grant us grace, that we may always ſhew our ſelvs truly and unfeignedly thankful unto thee for the ſame: And that our gracious King may through thy mercy continue his Reign over us in all vertue, godlineſs and honour, many and many years; and that we dutifully obeying him, as faithful and loyal ſubjects; may long enjoy him with the continuance of thy great bleſſings, which by him thou haſt vouchſafed unto us, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Immediately before the Prayer of S. Chryſoſtom, uſe the Collect of Thanksgiving, (For peace and deliverance from our enemies.)

O Almighty God, who art a ſtrong tower of defence unto thy ſervants againſt the face of their enemies; We yield thee praiſe and thankſgiving for our deliverance from thoſe great and apparent dangers wherewith we were compaſſed. We acknowledge it thy goodneſs that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them; beſeeching thee ſtill to continue ſuch thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty deliverer, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the Communion Service between the Commandments and the Epiſtle, ſhall theſe two Collects be uſed, inſtead of the Collect for the King, and that of the day.

O Moſt gracious God and merciful Father, who haſt by thy infinite power and goodneſs ſafely and quietly, after ſo many and great troubles and adverſities, ſetled thy ſervant our Soveraign Lord King Charles in the throne of his Fathers, (not withſtanding all the power and malice of his enemies) reſtoring unto us, with him and by him, the free profeſſion of thy ſacred truth and Goſpel, together with our former peace and proſperity; We beſeech thee to grant him the defence of thy ſalvation, and to ſhew forth thy loving kindneſs and mercy to him; and to ſtir up continually in our hearts all faithful duty and loyalty towards him, with a religious obedience, and thankfulneſs unto thee for theſe and all other thy mercies, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

G Rant, we beſeech thee, Almighty God, that our Soveraign Lord the King, whom thou didſt this day happily bring home, and reſtore to us, may be a mighty Protector of his people, a religious Defender of thy ſacred Faith, and of thy holy Church among us, a glorious Conquerour over all his enemies, a gracious Governour unto all his ſubjects, and a happy father of many children to rule this Nation by ſucceſſion in all ages, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Epiſtle. 1. S. Pet. 2. 11.

D Early beloved, I beſeech you as ſtrangers and pilgrims abſtain from fleſhly luſts, which war againſt the ſoul; having your converſation honeſt among the Gentiles: that whereas they ſpeak againſt you as evil doers, they may by your good works which they ſhall behold, glorify God in the day of viſitation. Submit your ſelvs to every ordinance of man for the Lords ſake; whether it be to the King, as ſupream, or unto governours, as unto them that are ſent by him, for the puniſhment of evil doers, and for the praiſe of them that do well. For ſo is the will of God, that with wel doing ye may put to ſilence the ignorance of fooliſh men: As free, and not uſing your liberty for a cloak of maliciouſneſs, but as the ſervants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King.

The Goſpel. S. Mat. 22. 16.

A Nd they ſent out unto him their diſciples, with the Herodians, ſaying, Maſter, we know that thou art true, and teacheſt the way of God in truth, neither careſt thou for any man; for thou regardeſt not the perſon of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkeſt thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Ceſar, or not? But Jeſus perceived their wickedneſs, and ſaid, Why tempt ye me ye hypocrites? ſhew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a peny. And he ſaith unto them, Whoſe is this image and ſuperſcription? They ſay unto him, Ceſars; Then ſaith he unto them, Render therefore unto Ceſar the things which are Ceſars, and unto God, the things that are Gods. When they had heard theſe words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

¶ After the Prayer; (For the whole ſtate of Chriſts Church, &c. this Collect following ſhall be uſed.

O Lord our God, who upholdeſt and governeſt all things in heaven and earth; Receive our humble prayers with our thankſgivings for our Soveraign Lord JAMES, ſet over us by thy grace and providence to be our King: And ſo, together with him, bleſs the whole Royal Family with the dew of thy heavenly Spirit, that they, ever truſting in thy goodneſs, protected by thy power, and crowned with thy gracious and endleſs favour may continue before thee in health, peace, joy, and honour, a long and happy life upon earth; and after death obtain everlaſting life and glory in the kingdom of heaven, by the merits and mediation of Chriſt Jeſus our Saviour; who with the Father; and the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth ever one God, word without end. Amen.

BY THE GRACE OF GOD,
KING OF GREAT BRITAIN,
FRANCE AND IRELAND,

Defender of the Faith, &c.

The Tranſlatours of the Bible wish Grace, Mercie, and Peace, through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD.

GReat and manifold were the bleſſings (moſt dread Soveraign) which almighty GOD, the Father of all mercies beſtowed upon us the people of ENGLAND, when firſt he ſent Your Majeſties Royal perſon to rule and reign over us. For whereas it was the expectation of many, who wiſhed not well unto our SION, that upon the ſetting of that bright occidental ſtar queen ELISABETH of moſt happy memory, ſome thick and palpable clouds of darkneſs would ſo have overſhadowed this land, that men ſhould have been in doubt which way they were to walk, and that it ſhould hardly be known, who was to direct the unſetled ſtate: the appearance of Your MAJESTIE, as of the ſun in his ſtrength, inſtantly diſpelled thoſe ſuppoſed and ſurmiſed miſts, and gave unto all that were well affected, exceeding cauſe of comfort, eſpecially when we beheld the government eſtabliſhed in Your HIGHNESS, and your hopeful ſeed, by an undoubted title, and this alſo accompanied with peace and tranquillitie at home and abroad. But amongſt all our joys there was none that more filled our hearts, than the bleſſed continuance of the preaching of GODS ſacred word amongſt us, which is that ineſtimable treaſure, which excelleth all the riches of the earth, becauſe the fruit thereof extendeth it ſelf, not onely to the time ſpent in this tranſitory world, but directeth and diſpoſeth men unto that eternal happineſs which is above in heaven.

Then not to ſuffer this to fall to the ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue it in that ſtate, wherein the famous predeceſſour of Your HIGHNESS did leave it: nay, to go forward with the confidence and reſolutions of a man in maintaining the truth of CHRIST, and propagating it far and near, is that which hath ſo bound and firmly knit the hearts of all Your MAJESTIES loyal and religious people unto you, that your very name is precious among them, their eye doth behold you with comfort, and they bleſs you in their hearts, as that ſanctified perſon, who under GOD, is the immediate authour of their true happineſs. And this their contentment doth not diminiſh or decay, but every day increaſeth and taketh ſtrength, when they obſerve that the zeal of Your MAJESTIE towards the houſe of GOD, doth not ſlack or go backward, but is more and more kindled, manifeſting it ſelf abroad in the furtheſt parts of Chriſtendom, by writing in defence of the truth, (which hath given ſuch a blow unto that man of ſin, as will not be healed) and every day at home, by religious and learned diſcourſe, by frequenting the houſe of GOD, by hearing the word preached, by cheriſhing the teachers thereof, by caring for the Church as a moſt tender and loving nurſing Father.

There are infinite arguments of this right Chriſtian and religious affection on Your MAJESTIE: but none is more forcible to declare it to others, than the vehement and perpetuated deſire of the accompliſhing and publiſhing of this work, which now with all humilitie we preſent unto Your MAJESTIE. For when Your Highneſs had once out of deep judgement apprehended how convenient it was, that out of the original ſacred tongues, together with comparing of the labours, both in our own and other forrein languages, of many worthy men who went before us, there ſhould be one more exact tranſla-

tion of the holy ſcriptures into the Engliſh tongue; Your MAJESTIE did never deſiſt to urge and to excite thoſe to whom it was commended, that the work might be haſtened, and that the buſineſs might be expedited in ſo decent a manner, as a matter of ſuch importance might juſtly require.

And now at laſt, by the mercy of GOD, and the continuance of our labours, it being brought unto ſuch a concluſion, as that we have great hope that the Church of England ſhall reap good fruit thereby; we hold it our duty to offer it to Your MAJESTIE, not onely as to our King and Soveraign, but as to the principal mover and authour of the work: Humbly craving of your moſt ſacred MAJESTIE, that ſince things of this quality have ever been ſubject to the cenſures of ill-meaning and diſcontented perſons, it may receive approbation and patronage from ſo learned and judicious a prince as Your HIGHNESS is; whoſe allowance and acceptance of our labours, ſhall more honour and incourage us, than all the calumniations and hard interpretations of other men ſhall diſmay us. So that, if on the one ſide we ſhall be traduced by popiſh perſons at home or abroad, who therefore will malign us, becauſe we are poor inſtruments to make Gods holy truth to be yet more and more known unto the people, whom they deſire ſtill to keep in ignorance and darkneſs: or if on the other ſide, we ſhall be maligned by ſelfconceited brethren, who run their own ways, and give liking unto nothing but what is framed by themſelvs, and hammered on their anvile; we may reſt ſecure, ſupported within by the truth and innocency of a good conſcience, having walked the ways of ſimplicitie and integritie, as before the LORD, and ſuſtained without, by the powerful protection of Your MAJESTIES grace and favour, which will ever give countenance to honeſt and Chriſtian endeavours, againſt bitter cenſures, and uncharitable imputations.

The LORD of heaven and earth bleſs Your Majeſtie with many and happy days, that as his heavenly hand hath enriched Your Highneſs with many ſingular and extraordinary graces; ſo you may be the wonder of the world in this latter age, for happineſs and true felicitie, to the honour of that great GOD, and the good of his Church, through JESUS CHRIST our Lord and onely Saviour.

The

The TRANSLATOURS to the READER.

The best things have been calumniated.

ZEAL to promote the common good, whether it be devising any thing our selvs, or revising that which hath been laboured by others, deserveth certainly much respect and esteem, but yet findeth but cold entertainment in the world. It is welcomed with suspicion in stead of love, and with emulation in stead of thanks: and if there be any hole left for cavil to enter, (and cavil, if it do not find an hole, will make one) it is sure to be misconstrued, and in danger to be condemned. This will easily be granted by as many as know Historie, or have any experience. For was there ever any thing projected, that savoured any way of newnes or renewing, but the same endured many a storm of gainsaying, or opposition? A man would think that civilitie, wholesome laws, learning and eloquence, synods, and Church-maintenance, (that we speak of no more things of this King) should be as safe a sanctuarie, and * out of shot, as they say, that no man would lift up is heel, no, nor dog move his tongue against the motioners of them. For by the first, we are distinguished from brute beasts led with sensualitie: By the second, we are bridled and restrained from outragious behaviour, and from doing of injuries, whether by fraud or by violence: By the third; we are enabled to inform and reform others, by the light and seeling that we have attained unto our selvs: Briefly, by the fourth, being brought together to parley face to face: we sooner compose our differences, than by writings, which are endless: And lastly, that the Church be sufficiently provided for, is so agreeable to good reason and conscience, that those mothers are holden to be less cruel, that kill their children assoon as they are born, than those nursing-fathers and mothers (wheresoever they be) that withdraw from them who hang upon their breasts (and upon whose breasts again themselvs do hang to receive the spiritual and sincere milk of the word) livelihood and support fit for their states. Thus it is apparent, that these things which we speak of, are of most necessarie use, and therefore that none, either without absurditie can speak against them, or without note of wickedness can spurn against them.

* Ἔξω βέλους.

Yet for all that, the learned know that certain worthy men have been brought to untimely death for none other fault, but for seeking to reduce their countrey-men to good order and discipline: And that in some Common-weals it was made a capital crime, once to move the making of a new law for the abrogating of an old, though the same were most pernicious: And that certain, which would be counted pillars of the State, and patterns of vertue and prudence, could not be brought for a long time to give way to good letters and refined speech; but bore themselvs as averse from them, as from rocks or boxes of poison: And fourthly, that he was no babe, but a great Clerk, that gave forth (and in writing to remain to posteritie) in passion peradventure, but yet he gave forth, That he had not seen any profit to come by any synode or meeting of the Clergie, but rather the contrarie: And lastly, against Church-maintenance and allowance, in such sort, as the ambassadours and messengers of the great King of kings should be furnished, it is not unknown what a fiction or fable (so it is esteemed, and for no better by the reporter himself, though superstitous) was devised: namely, That at such time as the professours and teachers of Christianitie in the Church of Rome, then a true Church, were liberally endowed, a voice (forsooth) was heard from heaven, saying, Now is poison poured down into the Church, &c, Thus not onely as oft as we speak, as one saith, but also as oft as we do any thing of note or consequence, we subject our selvs to every ones censure, and happie is he that is left tossed upon tongues; for utterly to escape the snatch of them it is impossible. If any man conceit that this is the lot and portion of the meaner sort onely, and that Princes are priviledged by their high estate, he is deceived. As the sword devoureth as well one as another, as it is in Samuel; nay, as the great commander charged his souldiers in a certain battel, to strike at no part of the enemie, but at the face: And as the king of Syria commanded his chief captians to fight neither with small nor great, save onely against the king of Israel: so it is too true, that envie striketh most spitefully at the fairest, and at the chiefest. David was a worthy prince, and no man to be compared to him for his first deeds, and yet for as worthy an act as ever he did (even for bringing back the ark of God in solemnitie) he was scorned and scoffed at by his own wife. Salomon was greater than David, though not in vertue, yet in power, and by his power and wisdom he built a temple to the Lord, such an one as was the glorie of the land of Israel, aud the wonder of the whole world. But was that his magnificence liked of by all? we doubt of it. Otherwise, why do they lay it in his sons dish, and call unto him for † easing of the burden, Make, say they, the grievous servitude of thy father, and his sore yoke lighter. Belike he had charged them with some levies, and troubled them with some carriages, hereupon they raise up a tragedie, and wish in their heart the temple had never been built. So hard a thing it is to please, even when we please God best and do seek to approve our selvs to every ones conscience.

The highest personages have been calumniated.

If we will descend to later times, we shall find many the like examples of such kind or rather unkind acceptance. The first Roman Emperour did never do a more pleasing deed to the learned, nor more profitable to posteritie, for conserving the record of times in true supputation, than when he corrected the Calender and ordered the year according the course of the sun: and yet this was imputed to him for noveltie, and arrogancie, and procured to him great obloquy. So the first christened Emperour (at the leastwise that openly professed the faith himself, and allowed others to do the like) for strengthening the empire at his great charges, and providing for the Church, as he did, got for his labour the name Pupillus, as who would say, a wastful Prince, that had need of a guardian or overseer. So the best christened Emperour, for the love that he bare unto peace, thereby to enrich both himself and his subjects, and because he did not seek war but find it, was judged to be no man at arms, (though indeed he excelled in feats of chivalrie, and shewed so much when he was provoked) and condemned for giving himself to ease, and to his pleasure. To be short, the most learned Emperour of former times (at the least, the greatest politician) what thanks had he had he for cutting off the superfluities of the laws, and digesting them into some order and method; This, that he hath been blotted by some to be an Epitomist, that is, one that extinguished worthy whole volumes, to bring his abridgements into request. This is the measure that hath been rendred to excellent Princes in former times, Cùm bene facerent, malè audire, For their good deeds to be evil spoken of. Neither is there any likelihood, that envie and malignitie died, and were buried with the ancient. No, no, the reproof of Moses taketh hold of most ages, You are risen up in your fathers stead, an increase of sinful men. What is that that hath been don? that which shall be don: and there is no new thing under the sun, saith the wise man: and S. Stephen. As your fathers did, so do you. This, and more to this purpose, his Majesty that now reigneth (and long may he reign, and his offspring for ever, Himself and children, and childrens children always) knew full well, according to the singular wisdom given unto him by God, and the rare learning and experience that he hath attained unto; namely, That whosoever attempteth any thing for the publick (especially if it pertain to religion, and to the opening and clearing of the word of God) the same setteth himself upon a stage to be gloured upon by every evil eye; yea, he casteth himself headlong upon pikes, to be gored by every sharp tongue. For he that medleth with mens religion in any part, medleth with their custome, nay, with their freehold; and though they find no content in that which they have, yet they cannot abide to hear of altering. Notwithstanding his royal heart was not daunted or discouraged for this or that colour, but stood resolute, as a statue immoveable, and an anvile not easie to be beaten into plates, as one saith; he knew who had chosen him to be a souldier, or rather a captain, and being assured that the course, which he intended, made much for the glorie of God, and the building up of his Church, he would not suffer it to be broken off for whatsoever speeches or practises. It doth certainly belong unto Kings, yea, it doth specially belong unto them, to have care of religion, yea, to know it aright, yea, to profess it zealously, yea, to promote it to the uttermost of their power. This is their glorie before all nations which mean well, and this will bring unto them a far more excellent weight of glorie in the day of the Lord Jesus. For the Scripture saith not in vain, Them that honour me, I will honour: neither was it a vain word that Eusebius delivered long ago, That pietie towards God was the weapon, and the onely weapoh that both preserved Constantines person, and avenged him of his enemies.

The praise of the holy scriptures.

But now what pietie without truth? whath truth? (what saving truth) without the word of God? what word of God (whereof we may be sure) without the Scripture? The Scriptures we are commanded to search, John 5.39. Isa. 8.20. They are commended that searched and studied them Acts 17.11. and 8.28.29. They are reproved that were unskilful in them, or slow to believe them Matth. 22.29. Luk. 24.25. They can make us wise unto salvation, 2 Tim. 3.15. If we be ignorant, they will instruct us; if out of the way, they will bring us home; if out of order, they will reform us; if in heavines, comfort us; if dull, quicken us; if cold, enflame us. Tolle lege, Tolle lege, Take up and read, take up and read the Scriptures, (for unto them was the direction) it was said unto S. Augustine by a supernatural voice Whatsoever is in the Scriptures, believe me, saith the same S. Augustine, is high and divine; there is verily truth, and a doctrin most fit for the refresh- refreshing and renewing of mens minds, and truly so tempered, that every one may draw from thence that which is sufficient for him, if he come to draw with a devout and pious mind, as true religion requireth. Thus S. Augustine. And S. Hierome, Ama Scripturas, & amabit te sapientia, &c. Love the Scriptures, and wisdom will love thee. And S. Cyril against Julian, Even boys that are bred up in the Scriptures, become most religious, &c. But what mention we three or four uses of the Scripture, whereas whatsoever is to be believed or practised, or hoped for, is contained in them? or three or four sentences of the Fathers, since whosoever is worthy the name of a Father, from Christs time downward, hath likewise written not onely of the riches, but also of the perfection of the Scripture? I adore the fulness of the Scripture, saith Tertullian against Hermegenes. And again, to Appelles an heretic of the like stamp, he saith, I do not admit that which thou bringest in (or concludest) of thine own (head or store, de tuo) without Scripture. So S. Justin Martyr before him, We must know by all means (saith he) that it is not lawful (or possible) to learn (any thing) of God or of right pietie, save onely one of the Prophets, who teach us by divine inspiration: So S. Basil after Tertullian. It is a manifest falling away from the faith, and a fault of presumption, either to reject any of those things that are written, or to bring in (upon the head of them, ἐπεισάγειν) any of those things that are not written. We omit to cite to the same effect, S. Cyril Bishop of Jerusalem in his 4 Catechis. S. Hierom against Helvidius, S Augustine in his third book against the letters of Petilian, and in very many other places of his works. Also we forbear to descend to later Fathers, because we will not wearie the Reader. The Scriptures the being acknowledged to be so full and so perfect, how can we excuse ourselvs of negligence, if we do not studie them? of curiositie, if we be not content with them? Men talk much of *ελεγπανων, how many sweet and goodly things it had hanging on it; of Panaces the herb, that it was good for all diseases; of Catholicon the drug, that it is instead of all purges; of Vulcans armour, that it was an armour of proof against all thrusts, and all blows, &c. Well, that which they falsly or vainly attributed to these things for bodily good, we may justly and with full measure ascribe unto the Scripture, for spiritual. It is not onely an armour, but also an whole armourie of weapons, both offensive and defensive; whereby we may save our selvs, and put the enemie to flight. It is not an herb, but a tree, or rather a whole paradise of trees of life, which bring forth fruit every moneth, and the fruit thereof is for meat, and the leavs for medicin. It is not a pot of Manna, or a cruse of oyl, which were for memorie onely, or for a meals meat or two; but, as it were, a shower of heavenly bread sufficient for a whole host, be it never so great, and, as it were, a whole cellar full of oyl vessels; whereby all our necessities may be provided for; and our debts discharged. In a word, it is a panarie of wholesome food, against fenowed traditions; a physicians shop (S Basil) calleth it) of preservativs against poysoned heresies; a pandect of profitable laws, against rebellious spirits; a treasurie of most costly jewels, against beggarly rudiments; finally, a fountain of most pure water springing up to everlasting life. And what marvel? The original thereof being from heaven, not from earth; the authour being God, not man; the enditer, the holy Spirit, not the wit of the Apostles or Prophets, the penmen such as were sanctified from the womb, and endued with a principal portion of Gods Spirit; the matter veritie, piety, purity, uprightness; the form, Gods word, Gods testimonie, Gods oracles, the word of truth, the word of salvation, &c. the effects, light of understanding, stableness of persvasion, repentance from dead works, newness of life, holiness, peace, joy in the holy Ghost; lastly, the end and reward of the studie thereof, fellowship with the saints, participation of the heavenly nature, fruition of an inheritance immortal, undefiled, and that never shall fade away: Happie is the man that delighteth in the Scripture, and thrice happie that meditateth in it day and night.

1 Cor. 14.

But how shall men meditate in that which they cannot understand? How shall they understand that which is kept close in an unknown tongue? as it is written, Except I know the power of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a Barbarian to me The Apostle excepteth no tongue; not Hebrew the ancientest, not Greek the most copious, not Latin the finest. Nature taught a natural man to confess, that all of us in those tongues which we do not understand, are plainly deaf; we may turn the deaf ear unto them. The Scythian counted the Athenian, whom he did not understand, barbarous: so the Roman did the Syrian, and the Jew, (even S. Hierome himself calleth the Hebrew tongue barbarous, belike because it was strange to so many) so the Emperour of Constantinople calleth the Latin tongue barbarous, though Pope Nicolas do storm at it: so the Jews long before Christ, called all other nations Legu-sim, which is little better than barbarous. Therefore as one complaineth that always in the Senate of Rome, there was one or other that called for an Interpreter: so least the church be driven to the like exigent, it is necessarie to have translations in a readinesse. Translation it is that openeth the window, to let in the light; that breaketh the shell, that we may eat the kernel; that putteth aside the curtain, that we may look into the most holy place, that removeth the cover of the well, that we may come by the water; even as Jacob rolled away the stone from the mouth of the well, by which means the flocks of Laban were watered. Indeed without translation into the vulgar tongue, the unlearned are but like children at Jacobs well (which was deep) without a bucket or something to draw with: or as that person mentioned by Esai, to whom when a sealed book was delivered, with this motion. Read this, I pray thee, he was fain to make this answer, I cannot, for it is sealed.

Sec. S. August. lib. 12. contra Faust. cap. 32.

While God would be known onely in Jacob, and have his name great in Israel, and in none other place; while the dew lay on Gideons fleece onely, and all the earth besides was drie; then for one and the same people, which spake all of them the language of Canaan, that is, Hebrew, one and the same original in Hebrew was sufficient. But when the fulness of time drew near, that the Sun of righteousness, the Son of God should come into the world, whom God ordained to be a reconciliation through faith in his bloud, not of the Jew onely, but also of the Greek, yea, of all them that were scattered abroad; then lo, it pleased the Lord to stir up the spirit of a Greek Prince (Greek for descent and language) even of Ptolomee Philadelph king of Egypt, to procure the translating of the book of God out of Hebrew into Greek. This is the translation of the Seventie interpreters, commonly so called, which prepared the way for our Saviour among the Gentiles by written preaching, as S. John Baptist did among the Jews by vocal. For the Grecians being desirous of learning, were not wont to suffer books of worth to lie moulding in kings libraries, but had many of their servants, readie scribes, to copie them out, and so they were dispersed and made commen. Again, the Greek tongue was well known and made familiar to most inhabitants in Asia, by reason of the conquests that there the Grecians had made, as also by the colonies, which thither they had sent. For the same causes also it was well understood in many places of Europe, yea, and of Afrik too. Therefore the word of God being set forth in Greek, becometh hereby like a candle set upon a candlestick, which giveth light to all that are in the house; or like a proclamation sounded forth in the market place, which most men presently take knowledge of; and therefore that language was fittest to contain the Scriptures, both for the first preachers of the Gospel to appeal unto for witness, and for the learners also of those times to make search and trial by. It is certain, that that translation was not so sound and so perfect, but that it needed in many places correction; and who had been so sufficient for his work as the Apostles or apostolike men? Yet it seemed good to the holy Ghost and to them, to take that which they found, (the same being for the greatest part true and sufficient) rather than by making a new, in that new world and green age of the church, to expose themselvs to many exceptions and cavillations, as though they, made a translation to serve their own turn; and therefore bearing witness to themselvs, their witness not to be regarded. This may be supposed to be some cause, why the translation of the Seventie was allowed to pass for currant. Notwithstanding, though it was commended generally, yet it did not fully content the learned, no not of the Jews. For not long after Christ, Aquila fell in hand with a new translation, and after him Theodotion, and after him Symmachus: yea, there was a fifth and a sixth edition, the authours whereof were not known. These with the Seventie made up the Hexapla, and were worthily and to great purpose compiled together by Origen. Howbeit the edition of the Seventie went away with the credit, and therefore not onely was placed in the midst by Origen (for the worth and excellencie thereof above the rest, as Epiphanius gathereth) but also was used by the Greek Fathers for the ground and foundation of their commentaries: Yea, Epiphanius abovenamed doth attribute so much unto it, that he holdeth the authours thereof not onely for interpreters, but also for Prophets in some respect: and Justinian the Emperour enjoyning the Jews his subjects to use especially the translation of the Seventie, rendreth this reason thereof, because they were, as it were, enlightened with propheticall grace. Yet for all that, as the Egyptians are said of the Prophet to be men and not God, and their horses flesh and not spirit: so its evident, and S. Hierome affirmeth as much) that the Seventie were interpreters, they were not Prophets; they did many things well, as learned men; but yet as men they stumbled and fell, one while through oversight, another while through ignorance; yea, sometimes they may be noted to add to the original, and sometimes to take from it; which made the Apostles to leave them many times, when they left the Hebrew, and to deliver the sense thereof according to the truth of the word, as the Spirit gave them utterance. This may suffice touching the Greek translations of the Old Testament.

There were also within a few hundred years after Christ, many translations into the Latin tongue: for this tongue also was every fit to convey the law and the gospel by, because in those times very many countreys of the West, yea of the South, East, and North, spake or understood Latin, being made provinces to the Romans. But now the Latin translations were too many to be all good: for they were infinite (Latins interpretes nullo modo numerari possunt, saith St. Augustine.) Again, they were not out of the Hebrew fountain (we speak of the Latin translations of the Old Testament) but out of the Greek stream: therefore the Greek being not altogether clear, the Latin derived from it must needs be muddy. This moved S. Hierome, a most learned Father, and the best linguist without controversie, of his age, or of any that went before him, to undertake the Old Testament out of the very fountains, which he performed with that evidence of great learning, judgement, industry, dustry, and faithfulnes, that he hath for ever bound the Church unto him in a debt of special remembrance and thankfulnes.

The translating of the scripture into the vulgar tongues.

Now though the Church were thus furnished with Greek and Latin translations, even before the faith of Christ was generally embraced in the Empire: (for the learned know, that even in S. Hieromes time, the Consul of Rome and his wife were both Ethnicks, and about the same time the greatest part of the Senate also) yet for all that the godly learned were not content to have the Scriptures in the language which themselvs understood, Greek and Latin, (as the good lepers were not content to fare well themselvs, but acquainted their neighbours with the store that God had sent, that they also might provide for themselvs) but also for the behoof and edifying of the unlearned which hungred and thirsted after righteousnes, and had souls to be saved as well as they, they provided translations into the vulgar for their countrey-men, insomuch that most nations under heaven did shortly after their conversion, hear Christ speaking unto them in their mothers tongue, not by the voice of their minister onely, but also by the written word translated. If any doubt hereof, he may be satisfied by examples enough, if enough will serve the turn. First, S. Hierome saith, Multarum gentium linguis Scriptura ante translata, docet falsa esse quæ addita sunt, &c. that is, The Scripture being translated before in the languages of many nations, doth shew that those things that were added (by Lucian or Hesychius) are false. So S. Hierome in that place. The same Hierome elsewhere affirmeth that he, the time was, had set forth the translation of the Seventy, sua lingua hominibus; that is, for his countreymen of Dalmatia. Which words not onely Erasmus doth understand to purport, that S. Hierome translated the Scripture into the Dalmatian tongue; but also Sixtus Senensis, and Alphonsus à Castro (that we speak of no more) men not to be excepted against by them of Rome, do ingenuously confes as much. So S. Chrysostome, that lived in S. Hieromes time, giveth evidence with him: The doctrin of S. John (saith he) did not in such sort (as the Philosophers did) vanish away: but the Syrians, Egyptians, Indians, Persians, Ethiopians, and infinite other nations being Barbarous people, translated it into their (mother) tongue, and have learned to be (true) Philosophers, he meaneth Christians. To this may be added Theodoret, as next unto him, both for antiquitie, and for learning. His words be these, Every countrey that is under the sun, is full of these words, (of the Apostles and Prophets) and the Hebrew tongue (he meaneth the Scriptures in the Hebrews tongue) is turned not onely into the language of the Grecians, but also of the Romans, and Egyptians, and Persians, and Indians, and Armenians, and Scythians, and Sauromatians, and briefly into all the languages that any nation useth. So he. In like manner, Ulpilas is reported by Paulus Diaconus and Isidore (and before them by Zozomen) to have translated the Scriptures into the Gothick tongue: John Bishop of Sevil by Vasseus, to have turned them into Arabick, about the year of our Lord 717 Beda by Cistertiensis, to have turned a great part of them into Saxon: Esnard by Trithemius, to have abridged the French Psalter, as Beda had don the Hebrew, about the year 800. King Alfred by the said Cistertiensis, to have turned the Psalter into Saxon: Methodius by Aventinus (printed at Ingolstad to have turned the Scriptures into Sclavonian: * Valdo, bishop of Frising by Beatus Rhenanus, to have caused about that time, the Gospels to be translated into Dutch rithme, yet extant in the library of Corbinian: Valdus by divers to have turned them himself, or to have gotten them turned into French, about the year 1160: Charles the fifth of that name, surnamed The wise, to have caused them to be turned into French about 200 years after Valdus his time, of which translation there be many copies yet extant, as witnesseth Beroldus. Much about that time, even in our King Richard the seconds days; John Trevisa translated them into English and many English Bibles in written hand are yet to be seen with divers, translated, as is very probable, in that age. So the Syrian translation of the New Testament is in most learned mens libraries, of Widmanstadius his setting forth, and the Psalter in Arabick is with many, of Augustinus Nabiensis setting forth. So Postel affirmeth, that in his travels he saw the Gospels in the Ethiopian tongue: And Ambrose Thesius alledgeth the Psalter of the Indians, which he testifieth to have been set forth by Polken in Syrian characters. So that, to have the Scriptures in the mother tongue is not a quaint conceit lately taken up, either by the Lord Cromwell in England, or by the Lord Radzevil in Polonie, or by the Lord Ungnadius in the Emperours dominion, but hath been thought upon, and put in practise of old, even from the first times of the conversion of any nation: no doubt, because it was esteemed most profitable, to cause faith to grow in mens hearts the sooner, and to make them to be able to say with the words of the Psalm, As we have heard, so we have seen.

The unwillingnes of our chief adversaries, that the scriptures should be divulged in the mother tongue, &c.

Now the Church of Rome would seem at the length to bear a motherly affection towards her children, and to allow them the Scriptures in the mother tongue: but indeed it is a gift, not deserving to be called a gift, an unprofitable gift: they must first get a licence in writing before they may use them; and to get that, they must approve themselvs to their Confessor, that is, to be such as are, if not frozen in the dregs, yet sowred with the leaven of their superstition. Howbeit it seemed too much to Clement the eighth, that there should be any licence granted to have them in the vulgar tongue, and therefore he overruleth and frustrateth the grant of Pius the fourth. So much are they afraid of the light of the Scripture (Lucifuga Scripturarum, as Tertullian speaketh) that they will not trust the people with it, no not, as it is set forth by their own sworn men, no not with the licence of their own Bishops and Inquisitours. Yea, so unwilling they are to communicate the Scriptures to the peoples understanding in any sort, that they are not ashamed to confes, that we forced them to translate it into English against their wills. This seemeth to argue a bad cause, or a bad conscience, or both. Sure we are, that it is not he that hath good gold, that is afraid to bring it to the touch-stone, but he that hath the counterfeit; neither is it the true man that shunneth the light, but the malefactour, least his deeds should be reproved; neither is it the plain-dealing merchant that is unwilling to have the weights, or the meteyard brought in place, but he that useth deceit. But we will let them alone for this fault, and return to translation.

The speeches and reasons, both of our brethren, and of our adversaries against this work.

Many mens mouth have been open a good while (and yet are not stopped) with speeches about the translation so long in hand, or rather perusals of translations made before: and ask what may be the reason, what the necessity of the employment: Hath the Church been deceived, say they, all this while? Hath her sweet bread been mingled with leaven, her silver with dross, her wine with water, her milk with lime? (Lacte gypsum malè misceur, saith S. Irenæ.) We hoped that we had been in the right way, that we had the Oracles of God delivered unto us, and that though all the world had cause to be offended, and to complain, yet that we had none. Hath the nurse holden out the breast and nothing but wind in it? Hath the bread been delivered by the Fathers of the Church, and the same proved to be lapudosus, as Seneca speaketh? What is it to handle the word of God deceitfully, if this be not? Thus certain brethren. Also the adversaries of Judah and Jerusalem, like Sanballat in Nehemiah, mock, as we hear, both at the work and work-men, saying, What do these weak Jews, &c. will they make the stones whole again out of the heaps of dust which are burnt? although they build, yet if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall. Was their translation good before? Why do they now mend it? Was it not good? Why then was it obtruded to the people? Yea, why did the Catholicks (meaning Popish Romanists) always go in jeopardie, for refusing to go to hear it? Nay, if it must be translated into English, Catholiks are fittest to do it. They have learning, and they know when a thing is well, they can manum de tabula. We will answer them both briefly: And the former, being brethren, thus with S. Hierome, Damnamus veteres? Minimè, sed post priorum studia in domo domini quod possumus laboramus, That is, Do we condemn the ancient? In no case: but after the endeavours of them that were before us, we take the best pains we can in the house of God. As if he said, Being provoked by the example of the learned that lived before my time. I have thought it my dutie, to essay whether my talent in the knowledge of the tongues, may be profitable in any measure to Gods Church, least I should seem to have laboured in them in vain, and least I should be thought to glorie in men, (although ancient) above that which was in them. Thus S. Hierome may be thought to speak.

A satisfaction to our brethren.

And to the same effect say we, that we are so far off from condemning any of their labours that travelled before us in this kind, either in this land or beyond sea, either in King Henries time, or King Edwards (if there were any translation, or correction of a translation in his time) or Queen Elisabeths of ever renowned memorie, that we acknowledge them to have been raised up of God, for the building and furnishing of his Church, and that they deserve to be had of us and of posteritie in everlasting remembrance. The judgement of Aristotle is worthy and well known: If Timotheus had not been, we had not had much sweet musick: but if Phrynis (Timotheus his master) had not been, we had not had Timotheus. Therefore blessed be they, and most honoured be their name, that break the ice, and give the onset upon that which helpeth forwards to the saving of souls. Now what can be more available thereto, than to deliver Gods book unto Gods people in a tongue which they understand? Since of an hidden treasure, and of a fountain that is sealed, there is no profit, as Ptolomee Philadelph wrote to the Rabbins or masters of the Jews, as witnesseth Epiphanius: and as S. Augustine saith, A man had rather be with his dog than with a stranger (whose tongue is strange unto him.) Yet for all that, as nothing is begun and perfected at the same time, and the latter thoughts are thought to be the wiser: so, if we building upon their foundation that went before us, and being holpen by their labours, do endeavour to make that better which they left so good; no man, we are sure, hath cause to mislike us; they, we perswade our selvs, if they were alive, would thank us. The vintage of Abiezer, that strake the stroke: yet the gleaning of grapes of Ephraim was not to be despised. See Judges 8. 2. Joash the king of Israel did not satisfie himself, till he had smitten the ground three times; and yet he offended the Prophet, for giving over then. Aquila, of whom we spake before, translated the Bible as carefully, and as skilfully as he could; and yet he thought good to go over it again, and then it got the credit with the Jews, to be called κατ' ἀκρίβειαν, that is, accurately done, as S. Hierome witnesseth. How many books of profane learning have been gone over again and again, by the same translatours, by others? Of one and the same book of Aristotles Ethicks, there are extant not fewer than as six or seven several translations. Now if this cost may be bestowed upon the gourd, which affordeth us a little shade, and which to day flourisheth, but to morrow is cut down; what may we bestow, nay what ought we not to bestow upon the vine, the fruit whereof maketh glad the conscience of man, and the stem whereof abideth for ever? And this is the word of God which we translate, What is the chaff to the wheat, saith the Lord? Tanti vitreum, quanti verum margaritum (saith Tertullian) if a toy of glasse be of that reckoning with us, how ought we to value the true pearl! Therefore let no mans eye be evil, because his Majesties is good; neither let any be grieved, that we have a Prince that seeketh the increase of the spiritual wealth of Israel; let Sanballats and Tobiahs do so (which therefore do bear their just reproof) but let us rather bless God from the ground of our heart, for working this religious care in him, to have the translations of the bible maturely considered of and examined. For by this means it cometh to pass, that whatsoever is sound already (and all is sound for substance, in one or other of our editions. and the worst of ours farr better than their authentick vulgar) the same will shine as gold more brightly, being rubbed and polished; also, if any thing be halting, or superfluous, or not so agreable to the original, the same may be corrected, and the truth set in place. And what can the King command to be done, that will bring him more true honour than this? and wherein could they that have been set at work, approve their duty to the King, yea their obedience to God, and love to his Saints more, than by yielding their service, and all that is within them, for the furnishing of the work? But besides all this, they were the principal motives of it, and therefore ought lest to quarrell it. For the very historical truth is, that upon the importunate petitions of the Puritanes, at his Majesties coming to this crown, the conference at Hampton Court having been appointed for hearing their complaints: when by force of reason they were put from all other grounds, they had recourse at the last, to this shift, that they could not with good conscience subscribe to the Communion book, since it maintained the Bible as it was there translated, which was, as they said, a most corrupted translation. And although this was judged to be but a very poor and emptie shift, yet even hereupon did his Majestie begin to bethink himself of the good that might ensue by a new translation, and presently after gave order for this translation which is now presented unto thee. Thus much to satisfie our scrupulous brethren.

Jerem. 23. 28.

Tertull. and Martyr. Si tanti vilissimum vitreum, quanti pretiosissimum margaritum. Hier. ad Salvin.

Now to the latter we answer, That we do not deny, nay we affirm and avow, that the very meanest translation of the Bible in English, set forth by men of our profession (for we have seen none of theirs of the whole Bible as yet) containeth the word of God, nay, is the word of God. As the Kings speech which he uttered in Parliament, being translated into French, Dutch, Italien, and Latin, is still the Kings speech, though it be not interpreted by every translatour with the like grace, nor peradventure so fitly for phrase, nor so expresly for sense, every where. For it is confessed, that things are to take their denomination of the greater part; and a natural man could say, Verum ubi multa nitent in carmine, non ergo paucis offendor maculis, &c. A man may be counted a vertuous man, though he have made many slips in his life, (else there were none vertuous, for in many things we offend all) also a comely man and lovely, though he have some warts upon his hand; yea, not onely freckels upon his face, but also scars. No cause therefore why the word translated should be denied to be the word, or forbidden to be current, notwithstanding that some imperfections and blemishes may be noted in the setting forth of it. For what ever was perfect under the sun, where Apostles or apostolike men, that is, men endued with an extraordinary measure of Gods Spirit, and priviledged with the priviledge of infallibilitie had not their hand? The Romanists therefore in refusing to hear, and daring to burn the word translated, did no lesse than despite the Spirit of grace, from whom orginally it proceeded, and whose sense and meaning, as well as mans weakness would enable, it did expresse: Judge by an example or two. Plutarch writeth, that after that Rome had been burnt by the Gauls, they sell soon to build it again: but doing it in haste, they did not cast the streets, nor proportion the houses in such comely fashion, as had been most sightly and convenient: was Catiline therefore an honest man, or a good patriot, that sought to bring it to a combustion? or Nero a good Prince, that did indeed set it on fire? So, by the story of Ezra, and the prophesie of Haggai it may be gathered, that the temple built by Zerubbabel after the return from Babylon, was by no means to be compared to the former built by Salomon (for they that remembred the former, wept when they considered the latter) notwithstanding, might this latter either have been abhorred and forsaken by the Jews, or profaned by the Greeks? The like we are to think of translations. The translation of the Seventy disenteth from the Original in many places, neither doth it come near it, for perspicuity, gravity, majesty; yet which of the Apostles did condemn it? Condemn it? nay, they used it, (as it is apparent, and as S. Hierome and most learned men do confess) which they would not have done, nor by their example of using of it, so grace and commend it to the Church, if it had been unworthy the appellation and name of the word of God. And whereas they urge for their second defence of their vilifying and abusing of the English Bibles, or some pieces thereof, which they meet with, for that hereticks (forsooth) were the authours of the translations, (heretiks they call by the same right that they call themselvs Catholiks, both being wrong) we marvel what divinity taught them so. We are sure Tertullian was of another mind: Ex personis probamus fidem, an ex fide personas? Do we trie mens faith by their persons? we should trie their persons by their faith. Also S. Augustine was of another mind: for he lighting upon certain rules made by Tychonius a Donatist, for the better understanding of the word, was not ashamed to make use of them, yea, to insert them into his own book, with giving commendation to them so far forth as they were worthy to be commended, as is to be seen in S. Augustines third book de Doctr: Christ. To be short, Origen, and the whole Church of God for certain hundred years, were of another mind: for they were so farr from treading under foot (much more from burning) the translation of Aquila a Proselyte, that is, one that had turned Jew, of Simmachus and Theodotion, both Ebionites, that is, most vile heretiks, that they joyned them together with the Hebrew Originals and the translation of the Seventy (as hath been before signified out of Epiphanius) and set them forth openly to be considered of, and perused by all. But we weary the unlearned, who need not know so much; and trouble the learned, who know it already.

S. Augustt. de doct. Christ. cap. 30.

Yet before we end, we must answer a third cavil and objection of theirs against us, for altering and amending our translations so oft, wherein truely they deal hardly and strangely with us. For to whom ever was it imputed for a fault (by such as were wise) to go over that which he had done, and to amend it where he saw cause? S. Augustine was not afraid to exhort S. Hierome to a Palinodia or recantation: the same S. Augustine was not ashamed to retract, we might say, revoke, many things that had passed him, and doth even glorie that he seeth his infirmities. If we will be sons of the truth, we must consider what it speaketh, and trample upon our own credit, yea, and upon other mens too, if either be any way an hinderance to it. This to the cause. Then to the persons we say, that of all men they ought to be most silent in this case. For what varieties have they, and what alterations have they made, not onely of their service-books, portesses, and breviaries, but also of their Latin translation! The service-book supposed to be made by S. Ambrose (Officium Ambrosianum) was a great while in special use and request: but Pope Hadrian calling a councel with the aid of Charles the Emperour, abolished it, yea, burnt it, and commanded the service-book of S. Gregorie universally to be used. Officium Gregorianum gets by this means to be in credit; but doth it continue without change or altering? No, the very Romane service was of two fashions; the new fashion, and the old, (the one used in one church, the other in another) as is to be seen in Pamelius a Romanist, his preface before Micrologus. The same Pamelius reporteth out of Radulphus de Rivo, that about the year of our Lord 1277, Pope Nicolas the third removed out of the churches of Rome, the more ancient books (of service) and brought into use the missals of the Friars Minorites, and commanded them to be observed there; insomuch that about an hundred years after, when the abovenamed Radulphus happened to be at Rome, he found all the books to be new, of the new stamp. Neither was there this chopping and changing in the more ancient times onely, but also of late: Pius Quintus himself confesseth, that every bishoprick almost had a particular kind of service, most unlike to that which others had; which moved him to abolish all other breviaries, though never so ancient, and priviledged and published by Bishops in their dioceses, and to establish and ratifie that onely which was of his own setting forth in the year 1568. Now when the Father of their Church, who gladly would heal the sore of the daughter of his people softly and sleightly, and make the best of it, findeth so great fault with them for their ods and jarring: we hope the children have no great cause to vaunt of their uniformitie. But the difference that appeareth between our translations, and our often correcting of them, is the thing that we are specially charged with; let us see therefore whether they themselvs be without fault this way, (if it be to be counted a fault to correct) and whether they be fit men to throw stones at us: O tandem major parcas insane minori: they that are less sound themselvs, ought not to object infirmities to others. If we should tell them that Valla, Stapulensis, Erasmus, and Vives, found fault with their vulgar translation, and consequently wished the same to be mended, or a new one to be made; they would answer peradventure that we produced their enemies for witnesses against them; albeit, they were in no other sort enemies, than as S. Paul was to the Galatians, for telling them the truth: and it were to be wished, that they had dared to tell it them plainlier and oftener. But what will they say to this, that Pope Leo the tenth allowed Erasmus translation of New Testament, so much different from the vulgar, by his apostolike letter and bull: That the same Leo exhorted Pagnin to translate the whole Bible, and bare whatsoever charges was necessary for the work? Surely, as the Apostle reasoneth to the Hebrews, that if the former Law and Testament had been sufficient, there had been no need of the latter: so we may say, that if the old vulgar had been in all points allowable, to small purpose had labour and charges been undergone, about framing of a new. If they say, it was one Popes private opinion, and that he consulted onely himself, then we are able to go further with them, and to aver, that more of their chief men of all sorts, even their own Trent champions, Paiva and Vega, and their own inquisitor Hieronymus ab Oleastro, and their own Bishop Isidorus Clarius, and their own Cardinal Thomas a vio Cajetan, do either make new translations themselvs, or follow new ones of other mens making, or note the vulgar interpreter for halting,

none

none of them fear to dissent from him, nor yet to except against him. And call they this an uniform tenour of Text and judgement about the text, so many of their worthies disclaiming the now received conceit? Nay, we will yet come nearer the quick: doth not their Paris edition differ from the Lovain, and Hentenius his from them both, and yet all of them allowed by authoritie? Nay, doth not Sixtus Quintus confesse, that certain Catholikes (he meaneth certain of his own side) were in such an humour of translating the Scriptures into Latine, that Satan taking occasion by them, though they of no such matter, did strive what he could, out of so uncertain and manifold a varietie of translations, so to mingle all things, that nothing might seem to be left certain and firm in them? &c. Nay further; did not the same Sixtus ordain by an an inviolable decree, and that with the counsel and consent of his Cardinals, that the Latine edition of the Old and New Testament; which the councel of Trent would have to be authentick, is the same without controversie which he then set forth, being diligently corrected and printed in the printing house of Vatican? Thus Sixtus in his preface before his Bible. And yet Clemem the 8 his immediate successour to account of, publisheth another edition of the Bible, containing in it infinite differences from that of Sixtus, and many of them weighty and material) and yet this must be authentick by all means. What is to have the faith of our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with yea and nay, and if this be not? Again, what is sweet harmonie and consent, if this be? Therefore, as Demaratus of Corinth advised a great King, before he talked of the dissentions among the Grecians, to compose his domestick broils (for at that time his queen and his son and heir were at deadly furie with him) so all the while that our adversaries do make so many and so various editions themselves, and do jar so much about the worth and authority of them, they can with no shew of equitie challenge us for changing and correcting.

Sixtus 5. praef. fixa Bibliis.

But it is high time to leave them, and to shew in brief what we purposed to our selves, and what course we held in this our perusall and survey of the Bible. Truely (good Christian Reader) we never thought from the beginning, that we should need to make a new translation, nor yet to make of a bad one a good one, (for then the imputation of Sixtus had been true in some sort, that our people had been fed with gall of dragons in stead of wine, with wheat in stead of milk but to make a good one better, or out of many good ones, one principall good one, not justly to be excepted against; that hath been our endeavour, that our mark. To that purpose there were many chosen, that were greater in other mens eyes than in their own, and that sought the truth rather than their own praise. Against, they came or were thought to come to the work, not exercendi causa, (as one saith) but exercitati, that is, learned, not to learn; For the chief overseer and ἐπιστάτης under his Majesty, to whom not onely we, but also our whole church was much bound, knew by his wisdome, which thing also Nazianzen taught so long ago, that it is a preposterous order to teach first, and to learn after; yea that τὸ ἐν πίστει κοινωνίαν μανθάνειν, to learn ad practise together, is neither commendable for the workman, nor safe for the work. Therefore such were thought upon, as could say modestly with S. Hierome, Et Hebraeum sermonem ex parte didicimus, & in Latino penè abipsis incunabilis, & detriti sumus; Both we have learned the Hebrew tongue in part; and in the Latine we have been excercised almost from our very cradle. S. Hierome maketh no mention of the Greek tongue, wherein yet he did excell; because he translated not the Old Testament out of Greek, but out of Hebrew. And in what sort did these assemble? In the trust of their own knowledge, or of their sharpness of wit, or deepness of judgement, as it were in an arm of flesh? At no hand. They trusted in him that hath the key of David, opening and no man shutting; they prayed to the Lord the Father of our Lord, to the effect that S. Augustine did; O let thy Scriptures be my pure delight, let me not be deceived in them, neither let me deceive by them. In this confidence, and with this devotion did they assemble together; not too many, least one should trouble another; and yet many, least many things haply might escape them. If you ask what they had before them, truely it was the Hebrew text of the old Testament, the Greek of the New. These are the two golden pipes, or rather conduits, were through the olive branches empty themselves into the gold. S. Augustine calleth them precedent, originall tongues? S. Hierome, fountains. The same S. Hierome affirmeth, and Gratian hath not spared to put it into his Decree, that as the credit of the old books (he meaneth of the Old Testament) is to be tried by the Hebrew volumes, so of the New by the Greek tongue, he meaneth by the Originall Greek. If truth be to be tried by these tongues, then whence should a translation be made, but out of them? These tongues therefore, the Scriptures we say in those tongues, we set before us to translate, being the tongues wherein God was pleased to speak to his Church by his Prophets and Apostles. Neither did we run over the work with that posting haste the Septuagint did, if that be true which is reported of them, that they finished it in seventie two days; neither were we barred or hindered from going over it again, having once done it, like S. Hierome, if that be true which himself reporteth, that he could no sooner write any thing, but presently it was caught from him, and published, and he could not have leave to mend it: neither, to be short, were we the first that fell in hand with translating the Scripture into English, and consequently destitute of former helps, as it is written of Origen, that he was the first in a manner, that put his hand to write commentaries upon the Scriptures, and therefore no marvell, if he overshot himself many times. None of these things: the work hath not been hudled up in seventy two days, but hath cost the workmen, as light as it seemeth, the pains of twice seven times seventy two days and more. Matters of such weight and consequence are to be speeded with maturitie: for in a business of moment a man seareth not the blame of convenient slackness. Neither did we think much to consult the translatours or commentatours Chaldee, Hebrew, Syrian, Greek, or Latin, no nor the Spanish, French, Italian or Dutch, neither did we disdain to revise that which we had done, and to bring back to the anvil that which we hammered: but having and using as great helps as were needful and fearing no reproach for slowness, nor coveting praise for expedition, we have at the length, through the good hand of the Lord upon us, brought the work to that pass that you see.

Some peradventure would have no varietie of senses to be set in the margin, least the authoritie of the Scriptures for deciding of controversies by that shew of uncertaintie, should somewhat be shaken. But we hold their judgement not to be so sound in this point. For though What soever things are necessarie, are manifest, as S. Chrisostome saith: and as S. Augustine. In those things that are plainly set down in the Scriptures, all such matters are found that concern faith, hope, and charitie: Yet for all that it cannot be dissembled, that partly to exercise & whet our wits, partly to wean the curious from loathing of them for their every where plainness, partly also to stir up our devotion to crave the assistance of Gods Spirit by prayer, and lastly, that we might be forward to seek aid of our brethren by conference, and never scorn those that be not in all respects so compleat as they should be, being to seek in many things our selves, it hath pleased God in his divine providence, here and there to scatter words and sentences of that difficultie and doubtfulness, not in doctrin all points that concern salvation (for in such it hath been vouched that the Scriptures are plain) but in maters of less moment, that fearfulness; would better beseem us than confidence, & if we will resolve, to resolve upon modestie with S. Augustine, (though not in this same case altogether, yet upon the same ground) Melius est dubitare de occultis, quàm litigare de incertis: It is better to make doubt of those things which are secret, than to strive about those things that are uncertain. There be many words in Scripture which he never found there but once, (having neither brother nor neighbour, as the Hebrew speak) so that we cannot be holpen by conference of places. Again, there be many rare names of certain birds, beasts, and precious stones, &c. concerning which the Hebrews themselves are so divided among themselves for judgement; that they may seem to have defined this or that, rather because they would say something, than because they were sure of that which they said, as S. Hierome somewhere saith of the Septuagint. Now in such a case, doth not a margin do well to admonish the Reader to seek further, and not to conclude or dogmatize upon this or that peremtorily? For as it is a fault of incredulitie, to doubt of those things that are evident; so to determin of such things as the Spirit of God hath left (even in the judgement of the judicious) questionable, can be no less than presumption. Therefore as S. Augustine saith, that varietie of translations is profitable for the finding out of the sense of Scriptures, so diversitie of signification and sense in the margin, where the text is not so clear, must needs do good; yea, is necessarie as we are perswaded. We know that Sixtus Quintus expressly forbiddeth that any varietie of reading of their vulgar edition, should be put in the margin (which though it be not altogether the same thing to that we have in hand, yet it looketh that way) but we think he hath not all of his own side his favorers, for this conceit. They that are wise had rather have their judgements at libertie in differences of readings, than to be captivated to one, when it may be the other. If they were sure that their high priest had all laws shut up in his breast, as Paul the second bragged, and that he were as free from errour by speciall priviledge, as the Dictators of Rome were made by law inviolable, it were another matter; then his word were an oracle, his opinion a decision. But the eyes of the world are now open, God be thanked, and have been a great while, they find that he is subject to the same affections and infirmities that others be, that his bodie is subject to wounds, and therefore so much as he proveth, not as much as he claimeth, they grant and embrace.

Reasons moving us to set diversity of senses in the margin, where there is great probability for each.

Another thing we think good to admonish thee of (gentle reader) that we have not tied ourselves to an uniformity of phrasing, or to an identitie of words as some peradventure would wish that we had done, because they observe, that some learned men somewhere, have been as exact as they could that way. Truely that we might not vary from the sense of that which we had translated before, if the word signified the same thing in both places (for, there be some words that be not of the same sense every where) we were especially careful, and made a conscience, according to our dutie. But that we should express the same notion in the same particular word, as for example, if we translate the Hebrew or Greek word once by purpose, never to call it intent; if one where journeying, never travelling; if one where think, never suppose; if one where pain, never ache; if one where joy, never gladness, &c. Thus to mince the matter, we thought to savour more of curiositie than wisdom, and that rather Reasons inducing us not to stand curiously upon an identitie of phrasing.

it would breed ſcorn in the Atheiſt, than bring profit to the godly reader. For is the kingdom of God become words or ſyllables? why ſhould we be in bondage to them if we may be free? uſe one preciſely, when we may uſe another no leſs fit, as commodiouſly? A godly Father in the primitive time ſhewed himſelf greatly moved that one of new fangleneſs called κεφάλαιον, κνιδάριος, though the difference be little or none, and another reporteth, that he was much abuſed for turning cucurbita (to which reading the people had been uſed) into hedera. Now if this happen in better times, and upon ſo ſmall occaſions, we might juſtly fear hard cenſure if generally we ſhould make verbal and unneceſſarie changings. We might alſo be charged (by ſcoffers) with ſome unequal dealing towards a great number of good Engliſh words. For as it is written of a certain great Philoſopher, that he ſhould ſay; that thoſe logs were happy that were made images to be worſhipped; for their fellows, as good as they, lay for blocks behind the fire: ſo if we ſhould ſay, as it were, unto certain words, Stand up higher, have a place in the Bible always; and to others of like qualitie, Get ye hence, be baniſhed for ever; we might be taxed peradventure with S. James his word, namely, To be partial in our ſelus, and judges of evil thoughts. Add hereunto that niceneſs in words was always counted the next ſtep to trifling, and ſo was to be curious about names too: alſo that we cannot follow a better pattern for elocution than God himſelf; therefore he uſing divers words, in his holy writ, and indifferently for one thing in nature: we, if we will not be ſuperſtitious, may uſe the ſame libertie in our Engliſh verſions out of Hebrew and Greek, for that copie or ſtore that he hath given us. Laſtly, we have on the one ſide avoided the ſcrupuloſitie of the Puritanes, who leave the old Eccleſiaſticall words, and betake them to others, as when they put waſhing for baptiſm, and congregation inſtead of Church: as alſo on the other ſide, we have ſhunned the obſcurite of the Papiſts, in their azymes, tunike, rational, holocauſts, prepuce, paſch, and a number of ſuch like, whereof their late tranſlation is full, and that of purpoſe to darken the ſenſe, that ſince they muſt needs tranſlate the Bible, yet by the language thereof, it may be kept from being underſtood. But we deſire that the Scripture may ſpeak like it ſelf, as in the language of Canaan, that it may be underſtood even of the very vulgar.

Many other things we might give thee warning of (gentle reader) if we had not exceeded the meaſure of a preface already. It remaineth that we commend thee to God, and to the Spirit of his grace, which is able to build further than we can ask or think. He removeth the ſcales from our eyes, the vail from our hearts, opening our wits that we may underſtand his word, enlarging our hearts, yea correcting our affections that we may love it above gold and ſilver, yea that we may love it to the end. Ye are brought unto fountains of living water which ye digged not; do not caſt earth into them with the Philiſtims, neither preſerr broken pits before them with the wicked Jews. Others have laboured, and you may enter into their labours. O receive not ſo great things in vain: O deſpiſe not ſo great ſalvation. Be not like ſwine to tread under foot ſo precious things, neither yet like dogs to tear and abuſe holy things. Say not to our Saviour with the Gergeſites, Depart out of our coaſts, neither yet with Eſau, ſell your birthright for a meſs of pottage. If light be come into the world, love not darkneſs more than light: if food if clothing be offered, go not naked, ſtarve not your ſelvs. Remember the advice of Nazianzene, It is a grievous thing (or dangerous) to neglect a great fair, and to ſeek to make markets afterwards: alſo the encouragement of Saint Chryſoſtom, It is altogether impoſſible, that he that is ſober (and watchful) ſhould at any time be neglected: Laſtly, the admonition and menacing of S. Auguſtine, They that deſpiſe Gods will inviting them, ſhall feel Gods will taking vengeance of them. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God; but a bleſſed thing it is, and will bring us to everlaſting bleſſedneſs in the end when God ſpeaketh unto us, to hearken; when he ſetteth his word before us, to read it; when he ſtretcheth out his hand and calleth, to anſwer, Here am I, here we are to do thy will, O God. The Lord work a care and conſcience in us to know him and ſerve him, that we may be acknowledged of him at the appearing of our Lord JESUS CHRIST, to whom with the holy Ghoſt, be all praiſe and thanksgiving. Amen.

A BRIEF

A BRIEF TABLE

Of the interpretations of the proper names which are chiefly found in the Old Teſtament, wherein the firſt number ſignifieth the Chapter, the ſecond the Verſe.

WHereas the wickedneſs of time, and the blindneſs of the former age hath been ſuch, that all things altogether have been abuſed and corrupted, ſo that the verie right names of divers of the holy men named in Scriptures have been forgotten, and now ſeem ſtrange unto us, and the names of divers infants that ſhould ever have ſome godly advertiſements in them, and ſhould be memorials and marks of the children of God received into his houſhold, have been hereby alſo changed and made the ſigns and badges of idolatrie and heatheniſh impietie, we have now ſet forth this table of the names that be moſt uſed in the Old Teſtament, with their interpretations, as the Hebrew importeth, partly to call back the godly from that abuſe, when they ſhall know the true names of the godly Fathers, and what they ſignifie, that their children now named after them, may have teſtimonies by their very names, that they are within that faithful family, that in all their doings had ever God before their eyes, and that they are bound by theſe their names to ſerve God from their infancie, and have occaſion to praiſe him for his works wrought in them, and their fathers, but chiefly to reſtore the names to their integritie, whereby many places of the Scriptures and ſecret myſteries of the Holy Ghoſt ſhall better be underſtood. We have medled rarely with the Greek names, becauſe their interpretation is uncertain, and many of them are corrupted from their original, as we may alſo ſee theſe Hebrew names ſet in the margent of this table, which have been corrupted by the Grecians. Now for the other Hebrew names that are not here interpreted, let not the diligent reader be careful: for he ſhall find them in places moſt convenient amongſt the annotations: at leſt ſo many as may ſeem to make for any edification, and underſtanding of the Scriptures.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED *GENESIS.

Fol. 1

* This word ſignifieth, the beginning and generation of the creatures.

THE ARGUMENT.

MOSES in effect declareth three things which are in this book chiefly to be conſidered. Firſt, that the world, and all things therein were created by God; and that man being placed in this great tabernacle of the world to behold Gods wonderfull works, and to praiſe his Name for the infinite graces wherewith he had endued him, fell willingly from God through diſobedience: who yet for his own mercies ſake reſtored him to life, and confirmed him in the ſame by his promiſe of Chriſt to come, by whom he ſhould overcome Satan, death and hell. Secondly, that the wicked, unmindful of Gods moſt excellent benefits, remained ſtill in their wickedneſs, and ſo falling moſt horribly from ſin to ſin, provoked God (who by his Preachers called them continually to repentance) at length to deſtroy the whole world. Thirdly, he aſſureth us by the examples of Abraham, Iſaac, Jacob and the reſt of the Patriarchs, that his mercies never fail them, who he chuſeth to be his church, and to profeſs his name on earth; but in all their afflictions, and perſecutions, he ever aſſiſteth them, ſendeth comfort and delivereth them. And becauſe the beginning, increaſe, preſervation and ſucceſs thereof might be onely attributed to God, Moſes ſheweth by the examples of Cain, Iſhmael, Eſau and others, which were noble in mans judgment; that this church dependeth not on the eſtimation and nobility of the world: and alſo by the fewneſs of them, which have at all times worſhipped him purely according to his word; that it ſtandeth not in the multitude, but in the poor and deſpiſed, in the ſmall flock and little number: that man in his wiſdom might be confounded, and the name of God evermore praiſed.

CHAP. I.

1 The creation of heaven and earth, 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament, 9 of the earth ſeparated from the waters, 11 and made fruitful, 14 of the ſun, moon, and ſtars, 20 of fiſh and fowl, 24 of beaſts and cattel, 26 of man in the image of God. 29 Alſo the appointment of food.

* Pſal. 33. 6. & 136. 5. Eccl. 28. 1. Acts 14. 15. & 17. 24. Hebr. 11. 3.

IN * the [a] beginning GOD created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without [b] ‡ form and void, and [c] darkneſs was upon the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God [d] moved upon the ‡ face of the waters.

3 ¶ And God ſaid, * Let there be light: and there was [e] light.

4 And God ſaw the light, that it was good: and God divided † the light from the darkneſs.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkneſs he called Night: " † and the evening and the morning were the firſt day.

6 ¶ And God ſaid, * Let there be a ‡ firmament in the midſt of the waters, and let it divide the waters, from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were [f] under the firmament, from the waters which were * above the firmament: and it was ſo.

8 And God called the firmament [g] Heaven: " and the evening and the morning were the ſecond day.

9 ¶ And God ſaid, * Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry-land appear: and it was ſo.

10 And God called the dry-land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God ſaw that it was good.

11 ¶ And God ſaid, [h] Let the earth bring forth graſs; the herb yielding ſeed, and the fruit-tree yeelding fruit after his kind, whoſe ſeed is in it ſelf, upon the earth: and it was ſo.

12 And the earth brought forth graſs, and herb yielding ſeed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whoſe ſeed was in it ſelf, after his kind: and God [i] ſaw that it was good.

13 " And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And a First of all, and before that any creature was, God made heaven and earth of nothing.

b As a rude lump, and without any creature in it: for the waters covered all.

‡ Or, waſte.

c Darkneſs covered the deep waters: for as yet the light was not created.

d He maintained this confuſed heap by his ſecret power.

‡ Or, waters.

* 2 Cor. 4. 6.

e The light was made before either ſun or moon was created: therefore we muſt not attribute that to the creatures that are Gods inſtruments, which onely appertaineth to God.

† Heb. between the light, and between the darkneſs. " The firſt day.

* Pſal. 33. 6. & 136. 5. Jerem. 10. 12. & 51. 15.

f As the ſea and rivers, from thoſe waters that are in the clouds, which are upholden by Gods power, leſt they ſhould overwhelm the world.

* Pſal. 141. 4.

g That is, the region of the air, and all that is above us.

† Heb. ſo was the evening, ſo was the morning. " The ſecond day.

‡ Or, ſpreading over, and ſuch.

* Pſal. 33. 7. & 89. 11. & 136. 6. Job 38. 8.

h So that we ſee it is the onely power of Gods word that maketh the earth fruitfull, which elſe naturally is barren.

i This ſentence is ſo oft repeated to ſignify, that God made all his creatures to ſerve to his glory, and to the profit of man: but for ſin they were accurſed, yet to the elect by Chriſt they are reſtored, and ſerve to their wealth.

" The third day.

14 ¶ And God said, * Let there be [k] lights in the firmament of the heaven, to [l] divide the day from the night: and let them be for [m] signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years.

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two [n] great lights; the greater light [o] to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth,

18 And to * rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 " And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 ¶ And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the [p] moving creature that hath † life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the † open firmament of heaven.

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the [q] waters brought forth abundantly after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God, [r] blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 " And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the † living creature after his kind, cattel and creeping thing and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattel after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, * [s] Let us make man in our [t] image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattel, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; * male and female created he them.

28 And God [u] blessed them, and God said unto them, * Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you [x] every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yeelding seed: * to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 * And God saw every thing that he had made, and behold, it was very good. " And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

1 The first sabbath. 4 The manner of the creation. 8 The planting of the garden of Eden, 10 and the river thereof. 17 The tree of knowledge onely forbidden. 19 The naming of the creatures. 21 The making of woman, and institution of marriage.

THus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the [a] host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made: * and he [b] rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and [c] sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work, which God created and made.

4 ¶ These are the ‡ generations of the heavens and of the earth, when they were created; in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every ‡ plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field, before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to [d] rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man [e] of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and * man became a living soul.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted a garden east-ward in [f] Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food: the [g] tree of life also in the midst of the garden, [h] and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 ¶ And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is * Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of [i] Havilah, where there is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is ‡ bdellium and the onyx-stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of ‡ Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is ‡ Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of ‡ Assyria. And the fourth river is ‡ Euphrates.

a That is, the innumerable abundance of creatures in heaven and earth.

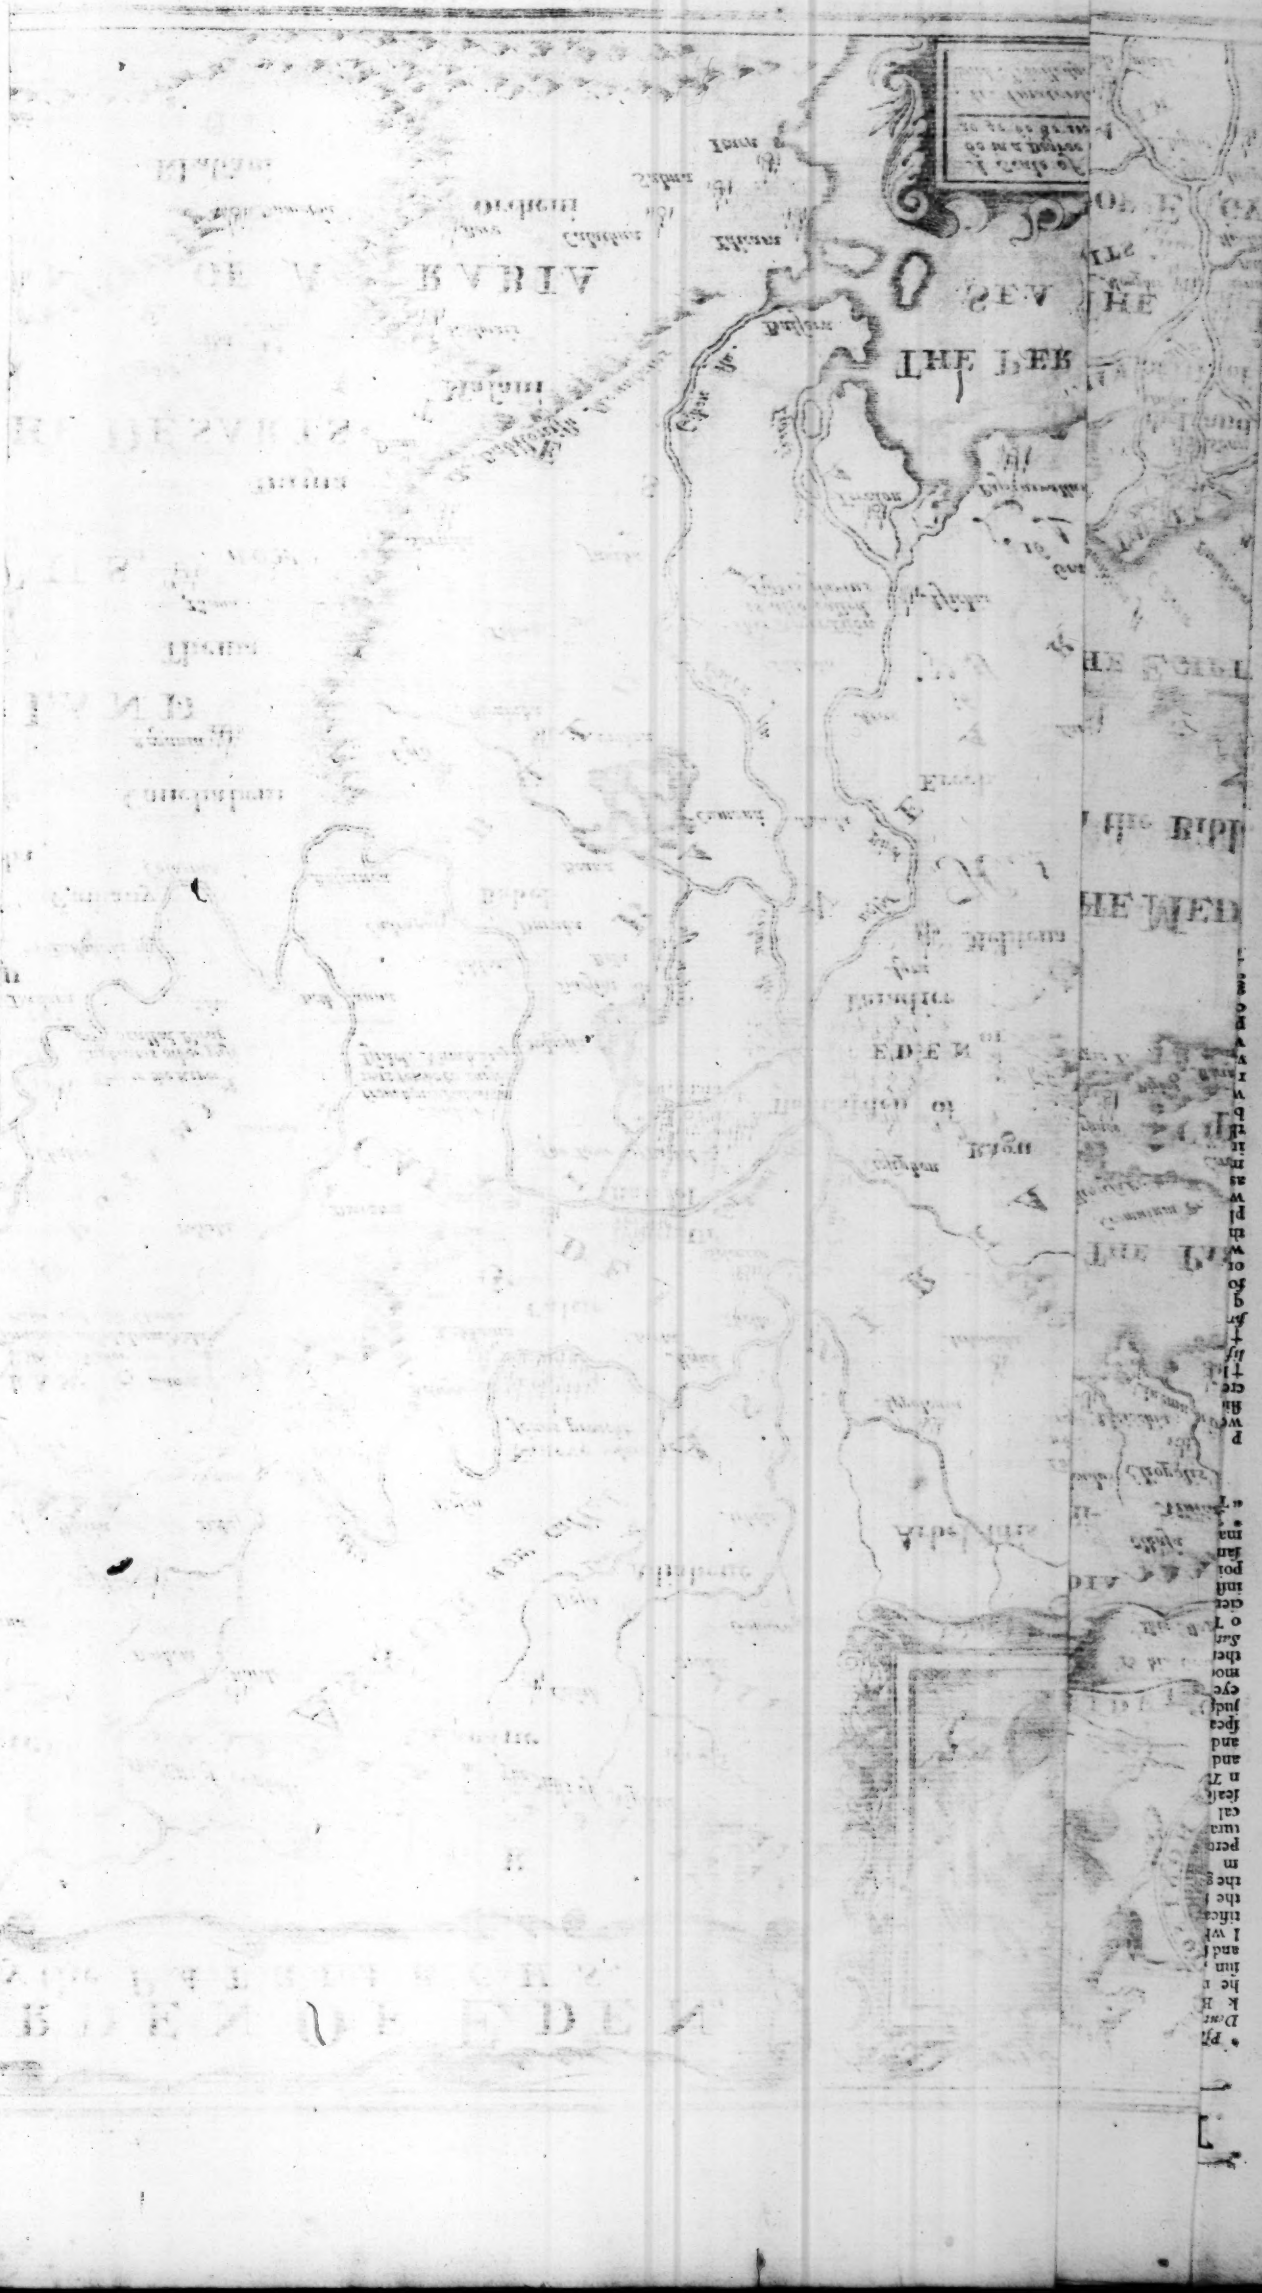
At Amsterdam by Nicolaus Viſcher with Priviledge of y. H. M. Lords States Generall.



15 And the LORD God took the man and put him into the garden of Eden, to k God would not have man idle, though as yet there was no need to labour.
k dress it, and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God [l] commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden † thou mayest freely eat:

l So that man might know there was a soveraign Lord, to whom he owed obedience.

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it; for ‡ in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely [m] die.

† Heb. eating them shalt eat of.
m By this death he meaneth the separation of man from God, who is our life and chief felicity: and also that our disobedience is the cause thereof.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone: I will make him an help † meet for him.

† Heb. as before him.

19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto [n] Adam, to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

n By moving them to come and submit themselves unto Adam.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattel, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field: but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

o Signifying, that mankind was perfect, when the woman was created, which before was like un unperfect building.

21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept; and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in stead thereof.

22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, † made he a° woman, and brought her unto the man.

* Cor. 11. 8.
‡ Or, Manness, because she commeth of man: for in Hebrew Ish, is man, and Ishah the woman.

23 And Adam said, *This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called ‡ Woman, because she was taken out of man.

* Matth. 19. 5. Mark. 10. 7. 1 Cor. 6. 16. Ephes. 5. 31.

24 * Therefore shall a man leave [p] his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

p So that marriage requireth a greater duty of us towards our wives, then otherwise we are bound to shew to our parents.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife; and were not [q] ashamed.

q For before sin entred, all things were honest and comely.

CHAP. III.

1 The serpent deceiveth Eve. 6 Mans shameful fall. 9 God arraigneth them. 14 The serpent is cursed. 15 The promised seed. 16 The punishment of mankind. 21 Their first clothing. 22 Their casting out of paradise.

NOw the serpent was more [a] subtile then any beast of the field which the LORD God had made; and he [b] said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

a As Satan can change himself into an angel of light, so did he abuse the wisdome of the serpent to deceive man.
b God suffered Satan to make the serpent his instrument, and to speak in him.

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, [c] lest ye die.

c In doubting of Gods threatning, she yeelded to Satan.

4 And * the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not [d] † surely die.

* 2 Cor. 11. 3.
d This is Satans chiefest subtily to cause us not to fear Gods threatnings.
† Heb. die the death.

5 For God doth know, that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened: and ye shall be as Gods, [e] knowing good and evil.

e As though he should say, God doth not forbid you to eat of the fruit, save that he knoweth that if ye should eat thereof, ye should be like to him.

6 ¶ And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise; she took of the fruit thereof, * and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her, and he [f] did eat.

* 1 Tim. 2. 14.
f Not so much to please his wife, as moved by ambition at her perswasion.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they [g] knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig-leaves together, and made themselves † aprons.

g They began to feel their misery, but they sought not to God for remedy.
† Hebr. things to gird about them to hide their privities.

8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the ‡ cool of the day: and Adam and his wife [h] hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

‡ Or, wind.
h The sinful conscience fleeth Gods presence.

9 ¶ And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden: and I was afraid, because I was [i] naked; and I hid my self.

i His hypocrisy appeareth in that he hid the cause of his nakedness, which was the transgression of Gods commandement.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee, that thou shouldest not eat?

k His wickedness and lack of true repentance appeareth in this, that he burdeneth God with his fault, because he had given him a wife.

12 And the man said; The woman whom thou [k] gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, [l] The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

l In stead of confessing her sin, she increaseth it by accusing the serpent.

14 ¶ And the LORD God said unto the serpent, [m] Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattel, and above every beast of the field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, and [n] dust shalt thou eat all the dayes of thy life.

m He asked the reason of Adam and his wife, because he would bring them to repentance, but he asketh not the serpent, because he would shew him to mercy.
n An a vile and contemptible beast Isa. 65. 25.

15 ¶ And I will put enmity between [o] thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy [p] head, and thou shalt [q] bruise his heel.

o He chiefly meaneth Satan by whose motion and craft the serpent deceived the woman.
p That is, the power of sin and death.
q Satan shall sting Christ and his members, but not overcome them.

16 ¶ Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy [r] sorrow and thy conception: in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall * rule over thee.

r The Lord comforteth Adam by the promise of the blessed seed, and also punisheth the body for the sin which the soul should have been punished for, that the spirit having conceived hope of forgiveness, might live by faith.
* 1 Cor. 14. 34.

17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: [f] cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life.

f The transgression of Gods commandment was the cause that both mankind and all other creatures were subject to the curse.

18 [t] Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee: and thou shalt eat the herb of the field.

t These are not the natural fruits of the earth, but proceed of the corruption of sin.

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground: for out of it wast thou taken; for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

20 And Adam called his wives name Eve, because she was the mother of all living.

u Or, gave them knowledge to make themselves coats.

21 ¶ Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God [u] make coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, [x] Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know x By this derision he reproacheth Adams misery whereinto he was fallen by ambition.

4 good and evil. And now lest he put forth his hand, and [y] take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

y Adam deprived of life, lost also the sign thereof.

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground, from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man: and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden, Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

CHAP. IV.

1 The birth, trade, and religion of Cain and Abel. 8 The murder of Abel. 11 The cause of Cain. 17 Enoch the first city. 19 Lamech and his two wives. 25 The birth of Seth, 26 and Enos.

a Mans nature, the state of marriage, and Gods blessing, were not utterly abolished through sin, but the quality or condition thereof was changed.
b That is, according to the Lords promise, as chap. 3. 15. some read, To the Lord, as rejoycing for the son which she had born, whom she would offer to the Lord as the first-fruits of her birth.

AND Adam knew Eve his wife: and she [a] conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man [b] from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother Abel: and Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And in process of time, it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an [c] offering unto the LORD.

c This declareth, that the father instructed his children in the knowledge of God, and also how God gave them sacrifices to signify their salvation: albeit they were destitute of the sacrament of the tree of life.

4 And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock, and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had respect unto * Abel, and to his offering.

* Hebr. 11. 4.

5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had not [d] respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

d Because he was an hypocrite, and offered onely for an outward shew without sincerity of heart.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not be [e] accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the [f] door. And unto thee shall be his [g] desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

e Both thou and thy sacrifice shall be acceptable to me.
f Sin shall still torment thy conscience.
g The dignity of the first-born is given to Cain over Abel.

8 ¶ And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass * when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

* Mat. 23 35. 1 Joh 3. 12. Jude 11.

9 And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: [h] Am I my brothers keeper?

h This is the nature of the reprobate, when they are reproved of their hypocrisy, even to neglect God, and despight him.

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the [i] voice of thy brothers bloud crieth unto me from the ground.

i God revengeth the wrongs of his Saints, though none complain: for the iniquity it self crieth for vengeance.

11 ¶ And now art thou cursed [k] from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brothers bloud from thy hand.

k The earth shall be a witness against thee, which mercifully received that bloud which thou most cruelly sheddest.

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength. A [l] fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

l Thou shalt never have rest: for thine heart shall bee in continnal fear and care.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, [m] ‡ My punishment is greater then I can bear.

m He burdeneth God as a cruel Judge, because he did punish him so sharply.
‡ Or, my sin is greater then can be pardoned.

14 Behold, thou hast driven me out this day † from the face of the earth: and from thy face shall I be hid, and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.
† Heb. from off the face of.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, [n] vengeance shall be taken on him seven-fold. And the LORD set a [o] mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

n Not for the love he bare to Cain, but to suppress murder o which was some visible sign of Gods judgement that others should fear thereby.

16 And Cain went out from the presence of thee LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 ¶ And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bare Enoch: and he builded a [p] city; and called the name of the city, after the name, of his son, Enoch.

p Thinking thereby to be sure, and to have less occasion to fear Gods judgements against him.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech.

19 ¶ And Lamech took unto him [q] two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

q The lawfull institution of marriage, which is, that two should be one flesh, was first corrupt in the house of Cain by Lamech.

20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the ‡ father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattel.
‡ Or, first inventer.

21 And his brothers name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and ‡ organ, ‡ Or, flutes and pipes.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, an instructer of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: [r] for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt.

r His wives seeing that all men hated him for his cruelty, were afraid: therefore he braggeth that there is none so lusty that were able to resist, although he were already wounded.

24 If Cain shall be avenged seven-fold, truly Lamech [s] seventy and seven-fold.

s Hee mocked at Gods sufferance in Cain, jesting, as though God would suffer none to punish him, and yet give him licence to murther others.

25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed in stead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

26 ¶ And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: then began men to [t] call upon the name of the LORD.

t In these days God began to move the hearts of the godly to restore religion, which a long time by the wicked had been suppressed.

CHAP. V.

1 The genealogy, age, and death of the patriarchs from Adam unto Noah. 24 The godliness and translation of Enoch.

THIS is the ‡ book of the generations of Adam: In the day that God created man, in the [a] likeness of God made he him:
‡ Or, rehearsal of the stock.
a Read Chap. 1. 26.

2 Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name [b] Adam, in the day when they were created.
b By giving them both one name, he noteth the inseparable conjunction of man and wife.

3 ¶ And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own [c] likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth.
c As well concerning his creation, as his corruption.

4 * And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters.
* 1 Chron. 1. 1.

5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died.

6 And

6 And [d] Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Enos.

7 And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and ſeven years, and begat ſons and daughters.

8 And all the days of Seth were [e] nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

9 ¶ And Enos lived ninety years, and begat Cainan.

10 And Enos lived after he begat Cainan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat ſons and daughters.

11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

12 ¶ And Cainan lived ſeventy years, and begat Mahalaleel.

13 And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat ſons and daughters.

14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

15 ¶ And Mahalaleel lived ſixty and five years, and begat Jared.

16 And Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared eight hundred and thirty years, and begat ſons and daughters.

17 And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

18 ¶ And Jared lived an hundred ſixty and two years, and he begat Enoch.

19 And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat ſons and daughters.

20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred ſixty and two years: and he died.

21 ¶ * And Enoch lived ſixty and five years, and begat Methuſelah.

22 And Enoch [f] walked with God after he begat Methuſelah three hundred years, and begat ſons and daughters.

23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred ſixty and five years.

24 And Enoch walked with God, and he was not: for [g] God took him.

25 ¶ And Methuſelah lived an hundred eighty and ſeven years, and begat Lamech.

26 And Methuſelah lived after he begat Lamech ſeven hundred eighty and two years, and begat ſons and daughters.

27 And all the days of Methuſelah were nine hundred ſixty and nine years: and he died.

28 ¶ And Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two years, and begat a ſon.

29 And he called his name Noah, ſaying, This ſame ſhall [h] comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, becauſe of the ground which the LORD hath curſed.

30 And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat ſons and daughters.

31 And all the days of Lamech were ſeven hundred ſeventy and ſeven years: and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old: and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAP. VI.

1 The wickedneſs of the world, which provoked Gods wrath, and cauſed the floud. 8 Noah findeth grace. 14 The order, form, and end of the ark.

AND it came to paſs, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the [a] ſons of God ſaw the daughters [b] of men, that they were [c] fair; and they took them wives of all which they ‡ choſe.

3 And the LORD ſaid, My ſpirit ſhall not always [d] ſtrive with man; for that he alſo is fleſh: yet his days ſhall be an [e] hundred and twenty years.

4 There were ‡ giants in the earth in thoſe days: and alſo after that, when the ſons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them; the ſame became mighty men, which were of old, men [f] of renown.

5 ¶ And GOD ſaw that the wickedneſs of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his * heart was onely evil † continually.

6 And it [g] repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD ſaid, I will deſtroy man, whom I have created, from the face of the earth, both man [h] and beaſt, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air: for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah [i] found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ Theſe are the ‡ generations of Noah: Noah was a juſt man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three ſons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth alſo was corrupt before God; and the earth was filld with [k] violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and behold it was corrupt: for all fleſh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God ſaid unto Noah, ‡ The end of all fleſh is come before me: for the earth is filled with ‡ violence ‡ through them; and behold, I will deſtroy them with the earth.

* Matth. 24. 37. Luke 17. 26. 1 Pet. 3. 20.

5 * And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old, when the floud of waters was upon the earth.

7 And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons wives with him, into the ark; because of the waters of the floud.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth.

9 There [c] went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

[c] God compelled them to present themselves to Noah, as they did before to Adam, when he gave them names, chap. 2. 19.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the floud were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noahs life, in the [d] second moneth, the seventeenth day of the moneth, the same day were all the [e] fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

[d] which was about the beginning of May, when all things did most flourish.
[e] Both the waters in the earth did overflow, and also the clouds poured down.

12 And the rain was upon the earth fourty days and fourty nights.

13 In the self-same day entred Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noahs wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark:

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattel after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two [f] of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

[f] Every living thing that God would have to be preserved on earth, came into the ark to Noah.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD [g] ‡ shut him in.

[g] So that Gods secret power defended him against the rage of the mighty waters.
‡ Or, shut it upon him.

17 ¶ And the floud was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth: and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters † prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

† Heb. waxed very mighty.

20 Fifteen cubits upwards did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattel, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man.

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry-land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattel, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah onely [i] remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

[i] Learn what it is to obey God onely, and to forsake the multitude. 1 Pet. 3. 20.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

AND God [a] remembred Noah, and [b] every living thing, and all the cattel that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged.

[a] Not that God forgetteth his at any time, but when he sendeth succour, then he sheweth that he remembreth them.
[b] If God remember every bruit beast, what ought to be the assurance of his children.

2 The fountains also of the deep, and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred & fifty days the waters were abated.

4 ¶ And

‡ Or, stayed.
c which contained part of September, and part of October.
‡ Or, Armenia.

4 ¶ And the ark ‡ rested in the [c] seventh moneth, on the seventeenth day of the moneth, upon the mountains of ‡ Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the [d] tenth moneth: in the tenth moneth, on the first day of the moneth, were the tops of the mountains seen.

d which was the moneth of December.

6 And it came to pass at the end of fourty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

" The raven is sent forth and returneth not.

7 ¶ And he sent forth a " raven, which went forth to and fro, untill the waters were dried up from off the earth.

" He sendeth the dove.

8 Also he sent forth " a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground.

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark: for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he [e] put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

e It is like that the raven did fly to and fro, resting on the ark, but came not into it, as the dove that was taken in.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark.

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening, and lo, in her ‡ mouth was an [f] olive-leaf pluckt off: So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

‡ Or, bill.
f which was a sign that the waters were much diminished: for the olives grow not on the high mountains.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days, and sent forth the dove, which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the [g] first moneth, the first day of the moneth, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was dry.

g Called, in Hebrew, Abib, containing part of March, and part of April.

14 And in the second moneth, on the seven and twentieth day of the moneth, was the earth dried.

15 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, saying, h Noah declareth his obedience in that he would not depart out of the ark without Gods expres commandment, as he did not enter in without the same: the ark being a figure of the church, wherein nothing must be done without the word of God.

18 ¶ And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

i For sacrifices, which were as an exercise of their faith, whereby they used to give thanks to God for his benefits.

21 And the LORD smelled ‡ [k] a sweet savour, and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for mans sake; for the imagination of mans * heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

a God increased them with fruit, and declared unto them his counsel as touching the replenishing of the earth.
* Chap. 1. 28.
& 8. 17.

2 And the [b] fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

b By the virtue of this commandment beasts rage not so much against man as they would, yea, and many serve to his use thereby.

3 Every [c] moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the * green herb have I given you all things:

c By this permission man may with a good conscience use the creatures of God for his necessity.
* Chap. 1. 29.

4 ¶ * [d] But flesh with the life thereof, which is the bloud thereof, shall you not eat.

d That is, living creatures and the flesh of beasts that are strangled: and hereby all cruelty is forbidden.

5 * And surely your bloud of your lives will I require: at the hand of every beast will I require it; and at the hand of man, at the hand of every mans ‡ brother will I require the life of man.

e That is, I will take vengeance for your bloud.
‡ Or, neighbour.
* Matth. 16. 52.

6 Whoso * sheddeth mans bloud, [f] by man shall his bloud be * shed; for in the [g] image of God made he man.

* Chap. 1. 27.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply, bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

g Therefore to kill man is to deface Gods image, and so injury is not onely done to man, but also to God.

8 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold I establish my [h] covenant with you, and with your seed [i] after you;

h To assure you that the world shall be no more destroyed by a flood.
i The children which are not yet born, are comprehended in Gods covenant made with their fathers.

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattel, and of every beast of the earth with you, from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And * I will establish my covenant with you, neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood, neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.
* Isa. 54. 9.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me, and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set my [k] bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

k Hereby we see that signs or sacraments ought not to be separated from the word.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And I will remember my [l] covenant, which is between me, and you, and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh, l when men shall see my bow in the heaven, they shall know that I have not forgotten my covenant with them.

8

16 And the bow ſhall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlaſting covenant between God and every living creature of all fleſh that is upon the earth.

m God doth repeat this the oftner to confirm Noahs faith ſo much the more.

17 And God ſaid unto Noah, [m] This is the token of the covenant, which I have eſtabliſhed between me and all fleſh that is upon the earth.

18 ¶ And the ſons of Noah that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 Theſe are the three ſons of Noah: and of them was the [n] whole earth overſpread.

n This declareth what was the virtue of God bleſſing, when he ſaid, Increaſe and bring forth, Chap. 1. 28.

20 ¶ And ‡ Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard.

‡ Or, Noah began again.

21 And he drank of the wine, and was [o] drunken, and he was uncovered within his tent.

o This is ſet before our eyes to ſhew what an horrible thing drunkenneſs is.

22 And Ham the father [p] of Canaan ſaw the nakedneſs of his father, and [q] told his two brethren without.

p Of whom came the Canaanites that wicked nation, who were alſo curſed of God.

q In deriſion and contempt of his father.

23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their ſhoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedneſs of their father; and their faces were backward, and they ſaw not their fathers nakedneſs.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger ſon had done unto him.

r He pronounceth as a prophet the curſe of God againſt all them, that honour not their parents: for Ham and his poſterity were accurſed.

25 ¶ And he ſaid, [r] Curſed be Canaan; a [ſ] ſervant of ſervants ſhall he be unto his brethren.

ſ That is, a moſt vile ſlave.

26 ¶ And he ſaid, Bleſſed be the LORD God of Shem; and Canaan ſhall be ‡ his ſervant.

‡ Or, their.

27 ¶ God ſhall ‡ [t] enlarge Japheth, and he ſhall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan ſhall be his ſervant.

‡ Or perſwade, or, cauſe to return.

t He declareth that the Gentiles which came of Japheth, and were ſeparate from the church, ſhould be joyned to the ſame by the perſwaſion of Gods ſpirit, and preaching of the Goſpel.

28 And Noah lived after the floud, three hundred and fifty years.

29 ¶ And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, and he died.

CHAP. X.

1 The generations of Noah. 2 The ſons of Japheth. 6 The ſons of Ham. 8 Nimrod the firſt monarch. 21 The ſons of Shem.

a Theſe generations are here recited, partly to declare the marvellous increaſe in ſo ſmall a time; and alſo to ſet forth their great forgetfulneſs of Gods grace towards their fathers.

NOw theſe are the [a] generations of the ſons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were ſons born after the floud.

2 ¶ The ſons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and [b] Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meſhech, and Tiras.

b Of Madai and Javan came the Medes & Greeks.

3 And the ſons of Gomer; Aſhkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And the ſons of Javan; Eliſhah, and Tarſhiſh, Kittim, and Dodanim.

c The Jews ſo call all countrys which are ſeparate from them by ſea, as Grecia, Italy, &c. which were given to the children of Japheth, of whom came the Gentiles.

5 By theſe were the [c] iſles of the Gentils divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

d Of Cuſh and Mizraim came the Ethiopians and Egyptians.

6 ¶ And the ſons of Ham; [d] Cuſh, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

7 And the ſons of Cuſh; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha: and the ſons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

8 ¶ And Cuſh begat Nimrod: he began to be a [e] mighty one in the earth.

e Meaning, a cruel oppreſſour and tyrant.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is ſaid, Even [f] as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD.

f His tyranny came into a proverb, as hated both of God and man: for he paſſed not to commit cruelty even in Gods preſence.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneth, in the land [g] of Shinar.

g For there was another city in Egypt, called alſo Babel.

11 Out of that Land went forth Aſhur, and builded Nineveh, and the ‡ city Rehoboth, and Calah.

‡ Or, the ſtreets of the city.

12 And Reſen between Nineveh and Calah: the ſame is a great city.

13 And Mizraim begat [h] Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, h Of Lud came the Lydians.

14 And Pathruſim, and Paſluhim (out of whom came Philiſtim) and ‡ Caphtorim.

‡ Or, the Cappadocians.

15 ¶ And Canaan begat Sidon his firſtborn, and Heth,

16 And the Jebuſite, and the Emorite, and the Girgaſite,

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites ſpread abroad.

19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comeſt to Gerar unto Gaza, as thou goeſt unto Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Laſhah.

20 Theſe are the ſons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countrys, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto [i] Shem alſo the father of all the children of [k] Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

i In his ſtock the Church was preſerved: therefore Moſes leaveth off ſpeaking of Japheth and Ham, and treateth of Shem more at large.

k Of whom came the Hebrews, or Jews.

22 * The children of Shem; Elam, and Aſhur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

* 1 Chron. 1. 17.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Maſh.

24 And Arphaxad begat Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

25 And unto Eber were born two ſons: the name of one was Peleg, for in his days was the earth [l] divided; and his brothers name was Joktan.

l This diviſion came by the diverſity of languages, as appeareth, chap. 11. 9.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah.

27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all theſe were the ſons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Meſha, as thou goeſt unto Sephar a mount of the eaſt.

31 Theſe are the ſons of Shem, after their familes, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 Theſe are the families of the ſons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: and ‡ by theſe were the nations divided in the earth after the floud.

‡ Or, of theſe came divers nations.

CHAP. XI.

1 One language in the world. 3 The building of Babel. 5 The confusion of tongues. 10 The generations of Shem 27 The generations of Terah the father of Abram. 31 Terah goeth from Ur to Haran.

AND the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.

2 And it came to pass [a] as [b] they journyed from the [c] east, that they found a plain in the land of [d] Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 ¶ And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for morter.

4 And they said, Go to, let us [e] build us a city and a towre, whose top may reach unto heaven, and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 ¶ And the LORD came down to see the [f] city and the towre, which the children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, [g] Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language: and this they begin to do; and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

7 Go to, [h] let us go down, and [i] there confound their language, that they may not understand one anothers speech.

8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called ‡ Babel, because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

10 ¶ * These are the generations [k] of Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the floud.

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah.

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber.

15 And Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg.

17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu.

19 * And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug.

21 And Reu lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor.

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah.

25 And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 * And Terah lived seventy years, and begat [l] Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah, in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the † Caldees.

29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abrams wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahors wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of [m] Iscah.

30 But Sarai was barren; she had no child.

31 ¶ And [n] Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his sons son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abrams wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Caldees, to * go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto [o] Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

a In the year an hundred and thirty after the floud.
b To wit, Nimrod and his company.
c That is, from Armenia, where the Ark stayed.
d Which was afterward called Caldea.
e They were moved with pride and ambition, thinking to prefer their own glory to Gods honour.
f Meaning, that he declared by effect that he knew their wicked enterprise: for Gods power is every where, and doth neither ascend nor descend.
g God speaketh this in derision, because of their foolish perswasion and enterprise.
h He speaketh as though he took counsel with his own wisdom and power: to wit, with the Son and holy Ghost: signifying the greatness and certainty of the punishment.
i By this great plague of the confusion of tongues, appeareth Gods horrible judgement against mans pride and vain glory.

CHAP. XII.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ. 4 He departeth with Lot from Haran. 6 He journeyeth through Canaan, 7 which is promised him in a vision. 10 He is driven by a famine into Egypt. 11 Fear maketh him feign his wife to be his sister. 14 Pharaoh having taken her from him, by plagues is compelled to restore her.

NOW the LORD had said unto Abram, [a] * Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy fathers house, unto a [b] land that I will shew thee.

2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be [c] a blessing.

3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 ¶ So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him, and Lot went with him: And Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brothers son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the [d] souls that they hath gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan, and c The world shall recover by thy seed, which is Christ, the blessing which they lost in Adam.

d Meaning, as well servants as cattel.

10 and into the land of Canaan they came.

e He wandred to and fro in the land before he could find a ſetling place: thus God exerciſeth the faith of his children.

6 ¶ And Abram [e] paſſed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the ‡ plain of Moreh. And the [f] Canaanite was then in the land.

‡ Or, Oak-grave.

f which was a cruel and rebellions nation, by whom God kept his in continual exerciſe.

7 ¶ And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and ſaid, Unto thy ſeed will I give this land: and there builded he an [g] altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

g It was not enough for him to worſhip God in his heart, but it was expedient to declare by outward profeſſion his faith before men, whereof this altar was a ſign.

8 And he removed from [h] thence unto a mountain on the eaſt of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the weſt, and Hai on the eaſt: and there he builded an [i] altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.

h Becauſe of the troubles that he had among that wicked people.

i And ſo, ſerved the true God, and renounced all idolatry.

9 [k] And Abram journied, going on ſtill toward the ſouth.

k Thus the children of God may look for no reſt in this world, but muſt wait for the heavenly reſt and quierneſs.

10 ¶ And there was a [l] famine in the land, and Abram went down into Egypt to ſojourn there: for the famine was grievous in the land.

l This was a new trial of Abrams faith: whereby we ſee that the end of one affliction is the beginning of another.

11 ¶ And it came to paſs, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he ſaid unto Sarai his wife, Behold now I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon.

12 Therefore it ſhall come to paſs, when the Egyptians ſhall ſee thee, that they ſhall ſay, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will ſave thee alive.

m By this we may learn not to uſe unlawfull means nor to put others in danger to ſave our ſelves, read verſe 20. albeit it may appear that Abram feared not ſo much death, as that if he ſhould die without iſſue, Gods promiſe ſhould not have taken place, wherein appeared a weak faith.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my [m] ſiſter, that it may be well with me for thy ſake; and my † ſoul ſhall live becauſe of thee.

† Heb. That my ſoul may live, n To be his wife.

14 ¶ And it came to paſs, that when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman, that ſhe was very fair.

15 The princes alſo of Pharaoh ſaw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was [n] taken into Pharaohs houſe.

16 And he intreated Abram well for he ſake: and he had ſheep, and oxen, and he-aſſes, and men-ſervants, and maid-ſervants, and ſhe-aſſes, and camels.

o The Lord took the defence of this poor ſtranger againſt a mighty king: and as he is ever careful over his, ſo did he preſerve Sarai.

17 And the LORD [o] plagued Pharaoh and his houſe with great plagues, becauſe of Sarai Abrams wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and ſaid, What is this that thou haſt done unto me? Why didſt thou not tell me that ſhe was thy wife?

19 Why ſaidſt thou, She is my ſiſter? ſo I might have taken her to me to wife? now therefore, behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

p To the intent that none ſhould hurt him either in his perſon or goods.

20 And Pharaoh [p] commanded his men concerning him: and they ſent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Abram and Lot return out of Egypt. 7 By diſagreement they part aſunder. 10 Lot goeth to wicked Sodom. 14 God reneweth the promiſe to Abram. 18 He removeth to Hebron, and there builded an altar.

a His great riches gotten in Egypt, hindred him not to follow his vocation.

AND [a] Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him into the ſouth.

2 And Abram was very rich in cattel, in ſilver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journies from the ſouth, even to [b] Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai;

b He calleth the place by that name which was after given unto it Chap. 28. 19.

4 Unto the * place of the altar, which he had made there at the firſt: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

* Chap. 12. 7.

5 ¶ And Lot alſo which went with Abram had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And the land was not able to [c] bear them, that they might dwell together: for their * ſubſtance was great, ſo that they could not dwell together.

c This incommodity came by their riches, which brake friendſhip, and as it were the bond of nature.

* Chap. 36. 7.

7 ¶ And there was a ſtrife between the herdmen of Abrams cattel and the herdmen of Lots cattel: And the [d] Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land.

d who ſeeing their contention, might blaſpheme God, and deſtroy them.

8 And Abram ſaid unto Lot, Let there be no [e] ſtrife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen: for we be brethren.

e He cutteth off the occaſion of contention: therefore the evil ceaſeth.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thy ſelf, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt [f] take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

f Abram reſigneth his own right to buy peace.

10 ¶ And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD deſtroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the [g] garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as thou comeſt unto Zoar.

g which was in Eden. Chap. 2. 10.

11 Then Lot choſe him all the plain of Jordan: and Lot journied eaſt; and they ſeparated themſelves the [h] one from the other.

h This was done by Gods providence, that onely Abram and his ſeed might dwell in the land of Canaan.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.

13 But the men of Sodom were wicked, and [i] ſinners before the LORD, exceedingly.

i Lot thinking to get Paradiſe found hell.

14 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto [k] Abram after that Lot was ſeparated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, north-ward, and ſouth-ward, and eaſt-ward, and weſt-ward.

k The Lord comforted him, leſt he ſhould have taken thought for the departure of his nephew.

15 For all the * land which thou ſeeſt, to thee will I give it, and to thy ſeed for [l] ever.

* Chap. 12. 7. & 15. 7, 18. & 26. Deut. 34. 4.

16 And I will make thy ſeed as the duſt of the earth: ſo that if a man can number the duſt of the earth, then ſhall thy ſeed alſo be numbred.

17 Ariſe, walk through the land in the lentgh of it, and in the breadth of it: for I will give it unto thee.

18 ¶ Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The battel of four kings againſt five. 12 Lot is taken priſoner. 14 Abram reſcueth him. 18 Melchizedek bleſſeth Abram. 20 Abram giveth him tithes. 22 The reſt of the ſpoil, his partners having had their portions, he reſtoreth to the king of Sodom.

AND it came to paſs in the days of Amraphel king of [a] Shinar, Arioch king of Ellaſar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of [b] nations;

2 That theſe made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birſha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela which is Zoar.

3 All theſe were [c] joyned together in the vale of ‡ Siddim, which is the [d] ſalt-ſea.

4 Twelve years they ſerved Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and ſmote the ‡ Rephaims in Aſhteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in ‡ Shaveh Kiriathaim, 6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto El-paran, which is by the wilderneſs.

7 And they returned, and came to Enmiſhpat, which is Ladeſh, and ‡ ſmote all the country of the Amalekites, and alſo the Amorites, that dwelt in Hazezon-tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (the ſame is Zoar) and they joyned battel with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellaſar: four kings with five.

10 And the [e] vale of Siddim was full of ſlime-pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and ‡ fell there: and they that remained fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 ¶ And they [f] took Lot Abrams brothers ſon (who dwelt in Sodom) and his goods, and departed.

13 And there came one that had eſcaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eſhcol, and brother of Aner; and theſe were [g] confederate with Abram.

14 ¶ And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he ‡ armed his trained ſervants, born in his own houſe, three hundred and eighteen, and purſued them unto Dan.

15 And he divided himſelf againſt them, he and his ſervants by night, and ſmote them, and purſued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of † Damaſcus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and alſo brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women alſo, and the people

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him (after his return from the ſlaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him) at the valley of Shaveh, which is the * Kings dale.

18 ¶ And * Melchizedek king of Salem [h] brought forth bread and wine: and he was the prieſt of the moſt high God.

19 And he [i] bleſſed him and ſaid, Bleſſed be Abram of the moſt high God poſſeſſour of heaven and earth:

20 ¶ And bleſſed be the moſt high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand, And he gave him * tithes of all.

21 And the king of Sodom ſaid unto Abram, Give me the † perſons, and take the goods to thy ſelf.

22 And Abram ſaid to the king of Sodom, ‡ I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the moſt high God, the poſſeſſour of heaven and earth,

23 † That I will not take from a thred even to a ſhoe-latchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, leſt thou ſhouldeſt ſay, I have made Abraham rich:

24 [k] Save onely that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eſhcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

CHAP. XV.

1 God encourageth Abram. 2 Abram complaineth for want of an heir. 4 God promiſeth him a ſon, and a multiplying of his ſeed. 6 Abram is juſtified by faith, 7 Canaan is promiſed again, and confirmed by a ſign, 12 and a viſion.

AFTER theſe things the ‡ word of the LORD came unto Abram in a * viſion, ſaying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy ſhield; and thy exceeding * great reward.

2 ¶ And Abram ſaid, [a] Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, ſeeing I go childleſs, and the ſteward of my houſe is this Eliezer of Damaſcus?

3 And Abram ſaid, behold, to me thou haſt given no ſeed: and lo, one born in my houſe is mine heir.

4 ¶ And behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, ſaying, This ſhall not be thine heir, but he that ſhall come forth out of thine own bowels ſhall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and ſaid, * Look now toward heaven, and tell the ſtars, if thou be able to number them: And he ſaid unto him, So ſhall thy ſeed be.

6 ¶ And he * beleeved in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteouſneſs.

* Chap. 13. 16.

8 And I will give unto thee, and to thy ſeed after thee, the land wherein thou art a ſtranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlaſting poſſeſſion; and I will be their God.

9 ¶ And God ſaid unto Abraham, Thou ſhalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy ſeed after thee, in their generations.

10 [c] This is my covenant, which ye ſhall keep between me, and you, and thy ſeed after thee; * Every man-child among you ſhall be circumciſed.

c Circumciſion is called the covenant, becauſe it ſignifieth the covenant, and hath the promiſe of grace joyned to it: which phraſe is common to all Sacraments.

* Act. 7. 8.

11 And ye ſhall circumciſe the [d] fleſh of your fore-skin; and it ſhall be * a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

d The privie part is circumciſed, to ſhew that all that is begotten of man is corrupt and muſt be mortified.

* Rom. 4. 11.

12 And he that is eight dayes old ſhall be circumciſed among you, every man-child in your generations, he that is born in the houſe, or bought with money of any ſtranger, which is not of thy ſeed.

13 He that is born in thy houſe, and he that is bought with thy money, muſt needs be circumciſed: and my covenant ſhall be in your fleſh for an everlaſting covenant.

14 And the uncircumciſed [e] man-child, whoſe fleſh of his fore-skin is not circumciſed, that ſoul ſhall be cut off from his people: he hath broken my covenant.

e Albeit women were not circumciſed, yet were they partakers of Gods promiſe: for under mankind all was conſecrated. And here is declared, that whoſoever contemneth the ſigne, deſpiſeth alſo the promiſe.

15 ¶ And God ſaid unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou ſhalt not call her name Sarai, but ‡ Sarah ſhall her name be.

‡ Or Dame, or Princeſſe.

16 And I will bleſſe her, and give thee a ſon alſo of her: yea, I will bleſſe her, and ſhe ſhall be a mother of nations; kings of people ſhall be of her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and [f] laughed, and ſaid in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred yeares old? and ſhall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

f Which proceeded of a ſudden joy, and not of infidelitie.

18 And Abraham ſaid unto God, O that Iſhmael might live before thee?

19 And God ſaid, * Sarah thy wife ſhall bear thee a ſonne indeed; and thou ſhalt call his name Iſaac: and I will eſtabliſh my covenant with him for an [g] everlaſting covenant, and with his ſeed after him.

* Chap. 18. 10. and 21. 2.

g The everlaſting covenant is made with the children of the Spirit: and with the children of the fleſh is made the temporall promiſe, as was promiſed to Iſhmael.

20 And as for Iſhmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have bleſſed him, and will make him fruitfull, and will multiplie him † exceedingly: twelve princes ſhall he beget, and I will make him a great nation.

† Heb. greatly, greatly.

21 But my covenant will I eſtabliſh with Iſaac, whom Sarah ſhall bear unto thee at this ſet time in the next * year.

* Chap. 21. 2.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 ¶ And Abraham took Iſhmael his ſon, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abrahams houſe; and [h] circumciſed the fleſh of their fore-skin, in the ſelf ſame day, as God had ſaid unto him.

13

h They were well inſtructed which obeyed to be circumciſed without reſiſtance, which thing declareth, that maſters in their houſes ought to be as preachers to their families, that from the higheſt to the loweſt, they may obey the will of God.

24 And Abraham was ninety yeares old and nine when he was circumciſed in the fleſh of his fore-skin.

25 And Iſhmael his ſon was thirteen yeares old when he was circumciſed in the fleſh of his fore-skin.

26 In the ſelf-ſame day was Abraham circumciſed, and Iſhmael his ſon.

27 And all the men of his houſe, born in the houſe, and bought with money of the ſtranger, were circumciſed with him.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Abraham entertaineth three angels. 9 Sarah is reproved for laughing at the ſtrange promiſe. 17 The deſtruction of Sodom is revealed to Abraham. 23 Abraham maketh interceſſion for the men thereof.

AND the LORD * appeared unto him in the ‡ plains of Mamre: and he ſat in the tent-door in the heat of the day.

* Heb. 13. 2.

‡ Or, Oak-grove

2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and lo, three [a] men ſtood by him: and when he ſaw them, he ran to meet them from the tent-door, and bowed himſelf toward the ground, a That is, three Angels in mans ſhape.

3 And ſaid, [b] My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy ſight, paſs not away, I pray thee, from thy ſervant.

b Speaking to one of them, in whom appeared to be moſt majeſty: for he thought they had been men.

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and [c] waſh your feet, and reſt your ſelves under the tree.

c For men uſed, becauſe of the great heat, to goe bare-footed in thoſe parts.

5 And I will fetch a morſel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that you ſhall paſſe on: for therefore are ye [d] come to your ſervant. And they ſaid, So do as thou haſt ſaid.

d As ſent of God that I ſhould doe my duty to you.

6 And Abraham haſtened into the tent unto Sarah, and ſaid, Make ready quickly three † meaſures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

† Heb. Seim.

7 And Abraham ran unto the heard, and fetcht a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he haſted to dreſſe it.

8 And he took butter and milk, and the calf which he had dreſſed, and ſet it before them; and he ſtood by them under the tree: and * they did eat.

e For as God gave them bodies for a time, ſo gave he them the faculties thereof, to walk, to eat and ſuch like.

* Chap. 17. 19. and 21. 2. Rom. 9. 9.

9 ¶ And they ſaid unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he ſaid, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he ſaid, * I will certainly return unto thee according to the time [f] of life; and lo, Sarah thy wife ſhall have a ſon. And Sarah heard it in the tent-door, which was behind him.

f That is, about this time, when ſhe ſhall be alive, or when the child ſhall come into this life.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, and well ſtricken in age: and it ceaſed to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah [g] laughed within her ſelf, ſaying, After I am waxed old, ſhall I have pleaſure, my * lord being old alſo?

g For ſhe rather had reſpect to the order of nature, then beleeved the promiſe of God,

* 1 Pet. 3. 6.

13 And the LORD ſaid unto Abraham,

14 wherefore did Sarah laugh, ſaying, Shall I of a ſurety bear a child, which am old?

* Zech. 8. 6. ‡ Or, hid.

14 Is any thing too *‡ hard for the LORD? At the time appointed will I return unto thee, according to the time of life; and Sarah ſhall have a ſon.

15 Then Sarah denied, ſaying, I laughed not: for ſhe was afraid. And he ſaid, Nay, but thou didſt laugh.

16 ¶ And the men roſe up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

h Jehovah, the Hebrew word, which we call (Lord) ſheweth, that this Angel was Chriſt: for this word is onely applyed to God. * Chap. 12. 3. and 22. 18

17 And the [h] LORD ſaid, ſhall I hide from Abraham that which I do;

18 Seeing that Abraham ſhall ſurely become a great and mighty nation, and *all the nations of the earth ſhall be bleſſed in him?

i ¶ He ſheweth that fathers ought not a to know Gods judgements, and to declare them to their children.

19 For I know him, [i] that he will command his children and his houſhold after him, and they ſhall keep the way of the LORD, to do juſtice and judgement; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath ſpoken of him.

20 And the LORD ſaid, Becauſe the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and becauſe their ſin is very grievous;

k God ſpeaketh after the faſhion of men: that is, I will enter into judgement with good adviſe. l For our ſins cry for vengeance, though none accuſe us.

21 I will [k] go down now, and ſee whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham ſtood yet before the LORD.

23 ¶ And Abraham drew near, and ſaid, wilt thou alſo deſtroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city; wilt thou alſo deſtroy, and nor ſpare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to ſlay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous ſhould be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the judge of all the earth † do right?

m God declareth that his judgements were done with great mercy, foraſmuch as all were ſo corrupt that not onely fifty, but ten righteous men could not be found there and alſo that the wicked are ſpared for the righteous ſake. n Hereby we learn, that the nearer we approach unto God the more doth our miſerable eſtate appeare, and the more are we humbled.

26 And the LORD ſaid, If I find in Sodom [m] fifty righteous within the citie, then I will ſpare all the place for their ſakes.

27 And Abraham anſwered and ſaid, Behold now, I have taken upon me to ſpeak unto the Lord, which am but [n] duſt & aſhes.

28 Peradventure there ſhall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou deſtroy all the city for lack of five? And he ſaid, if I find there fourty and five, I will not deſtroy it.

29 And he ſpake unto him yet again, and ſaid, Peradventure there ſhall be fourty found there? And he ſaid, I will not do it for fourties ſake.

30 And he ſaid unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will ſpeak: Peradventure there ſhall thirty be found there? And he ſaid, I will not do it, if I find thirty there 31 And he ſaid, Behold now, I have taken upon me to ſpeak unto the LORD: Peradventure there ſhall be twenty found there? And he ſaid, I will not deſtroy it for twenties ſake.

32 And he ſaid, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will ſpeak yet but this [o] once: Peradventure ten ſhall be found there? And he ſaid, I will not deſtroy it for tens ſake.

o If God refuſed not the prayer for the wicked Sodomites, even to the ſixt requeſt, how much more will he grant the prayers of the godly for the afflicted Church?

33 And the LORD went his way, aſſoon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Lot entertaineth two angels. 4 The vitious Sodomites are ſtricken with blindneſs. 12 Lot is ſent for ſafety into the mountains. 18 He obtaineth leave to go into Zoar. 24 Sodom and Gomorrah are deſtroyed. 26 Lots wife is a pillar of ſalt. 30 Lot dwelleth in a cave. 31 The inceſtuous original of Moab and Ammon.

AND there came two [a] angels to Sodom at even; and Lot ſat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot ſeeing them, roſe up to meet them; and he bowed himſelf with his face toward the ground;

a wherein we ſee Gods provident care in preſerving his: albeit he revealeth not himſelf to all alike: for Lot had but two Angels and Abraham three.

2 And he ſaid, Behold now my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your ſervants houſe, and tarry all night, and *waſh your feet, and ye ſhall riſe up early, and go on your wayes. And they ſaid, Nay, but we will abide in the ſtreet all night.

* Chap. 18. 4.

3 And [b] he preſſed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entred into his houſe: and he made them a feaſt, and did bake unleavened bread; and they did [c] eat.

b That is, he prayed them inſtantly.

c Not for that they had neceſſity, but becauſe the time was not yet come that they would reveal themſelves.

4 ¶ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compaſſed the houſe round, both old and young, [d] all the people from every quarter.

d Nothing is more dangerous: then to dwell where ſin reigneth: for it corrupteth all.

5 And they called unto Lot, and ſaid unto him, Where are the men which came into thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out at the door unto them, and ſhut the door after him,

7 And ſaid, I pray you, brethren, do not ſo wickedly.

8 Behold now, I have two [e] daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: onely unto theſe men do nothing; [f] for therefore came they under the ſhadow of my roof.

e He deſerveth praiſe in defending his gueſts, but he is to be blamed in ſeeking unlawfull meanes.

f That I ſhould preſerve them from all injury.

9 And they ſaid, Stand back. And they ſaid again, This one fellow came in to ſojourn, and he will needs be a judge: Now will we deal worſe with thee, then with them. And they *preſſed ſore upon the man, even Lot, and came neare to break the door.

* 2 Pet. 2. 7.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the houſe to them, and ſhut to the door.

11 And they ſmote the men *that were at the door of the houſe with blindneſs, both ſmall and great: ſo that they wearied themſelves to find the door.

* Wiſd. 19. 17.

12 ¶ And

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city; bring them out of this place.

g This proveth that the Angels are ministers, as well to execute Gods wrath, as to declare his favour.

13 For[g] we will destroy this place; because the * cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD: and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

* Chap. 18. 20.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which ‡ married his daughters, and said, Up, get ye out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city: but he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

‡ Or, should marry,

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters † which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

† Heb. which are found.

h The mercy of God striveth to overcome mans slowness it following Gods calling.

16 And while he[h] lingred, * the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

* Wisd. 10. 6.

i He willed him to flee from Gods judgements, and not to be sorry to depart from that rich country, full of vain pleasures.

17 And it came to passe, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; [i] look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh not so, my Lord:

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die.

k Though it be little, yet it is great enough to save my life: wherein he offendeth in chusing another place than the angel had appointed him.

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh let me escape thither, (is it not a[k] little one?) and my soul shall live.

† Heb. thy face.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted † thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this citie, for the which thou hast spoken.

l Because Gods commandement was to destroy the citie, and to save Lot.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do [l] any thing till thou be come thither: therefore the name of the city was called [m] Zoar.

m which before was called Belah. Chap. 14. 2.

23 ¶ the sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entred into Zoar.

* Deut. 29. 23. Isa. 13. 19. Jer. 50. 40. Ezek. 16. 49. Hos. 11. 8. Amos 4. 11. Luke 17. 29. Jude 7.

24 Then * the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven.

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

n As touching the body onely; and this was a notable monument of Gods vengeance to all them that passed that way.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a[n] pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham gat up early in the morning, to the place where he stood before the LORD.

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace. 15

29 ¶ And it came to passe, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembred Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities, in the which Lot dwelt.

30 ¶ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him: for he [o] feared to dwell in Zoar; and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

o Having before felt Gods mercy, he durst not provoke him again by continuing among the wicked.

31 ¶ And the first-born said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the [p] earth to come in unto us, after the manner of all the earth.

p Meaning, in the country, which the Lord had now destroyed.

32 Come, let us make our father [q] drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

q For except he had been overcome with wine, he would never have done that abominable act.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the first-born went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to passe on the morrow, that the first-born said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also: and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may † preserve seed of our father.

† Heb. keep alive.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

r Thus God permitted him to fall most horribly in the solitary mountains, whom the wickednesse of Sodom could not overcome.

36 Thus were [r] both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the first-born bare a sonne, and called his name Moab: the same is the father of the [s] Moabites unto this day.

s who as they were born in most horrible incest, so were they and their posteritie vile and wicked.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name [t] Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

t That is, son of my people: signifying, that they rather rejoyced in their sin, than repented for the same.

CHAP. XX.

1 Abraham sojourneth at Gerar, 2 denieth his wife, and loseth her. 3 Abimelech is reproved for her in a dream. 9 He rebuketh Abraham, 14 restoreth Sarah, 16 and reproveth her. 17 He is healed by Abrahams prayer.

AND Abraham journeyed from thence towards the south-country, and dwelled between Cadesh and [a] Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

a which was toward Egypt.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife [b] She is my sister: And Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

b Abraham had now twice fallen into this fault; such is mans frailty.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him. Behold, [c] thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken: for she is a mans wife.

c So greatly God detesteth the breach of marriage.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, LORD, wilt thou slay also [d] a righteous nation?

d The infidels confessed that God would not punish but for just occasion: therefore whensoever he punisheth, the occasion is just.

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she her self said, He is my brother: in the [e] integrity of my heart, and [f] innocency e As one falling by ignorance, and not doing evil of purpose.

f Not thinking to doe any man harm.

16 nocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God ſaid unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didſt this in the integrity of thy heart: for I alſo [g] withheld thee from ſinning againſt me; therefore ſuffered I thee not to touch her.

g God by his holy Spirit retaineth them that offend by ignorance, that they fall not into greater inconvenience.

7 Now therefore reſtore the man his wife: for he is a [h] prophet, and he [i] ſhall pray for thee, and thou ſhalt live: and if thou reſtore her not, know thou that thou ſhalt ſurely die, thou, and all that are thine.

h That is, one, to whom God revealeth himſelf familiarly.

i For the prayer of the godly is of force towards God.

8 Therefore Abimelech roſe early in the morning, and called all his ſervants, and told all theſe things in their ears: and the men were ſore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and ſaid unto him, What haſt thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou haſt brought on me and on my [k] kingdome a great ſin? thou haſt done deeds unto me that ought not to be done.

k The wickedneſs of the king bringeth Gods wrath upon the whole realm.

10 And Abimelech ſaid unto Abraham, What ſaweſt thou, that thou haſt done this thing?

11 And Abraham ſaid, Becauſe I thought, Surely the [l] fear of God is not in this place; and they will ſlay me for my wives ſake.

l He ſheweth that no honeſty can be hoped for, where the fear of God is not.

12 And yet indeed ſhe is my [m] ſiſter; ſhe is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother: and ſhe became my wife.

m By ſiſter, he meaneth his conſin germin, and by daughter, Abrahams niece, Chap. 11. 29. for ſo the Hebrews uſe theſe words.

13 And it came to paſſe, when God cauſed me to wander from my fathers houſe; that I ſaid unto her, This is thy kindneſs which thou ſhalt ſhew unto me; At every place whither we ſhall come, *ſay of me, He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech took ſheep, and oxen, and men-ſervants, and women-ſervants, and gave them unto Abraham, and reſtored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech ſaid, Behold, my land is ‡ before thee; dwell where it pleaſeth thee.

‡ Or, in at thy commandment.

16 And unto Sarah he ſaid, Behold, I have given thy brother a thouſand pieces of ſilver: behold, he is to thee a [n] covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus ſhe was [o] reproved.

n Such an head, as with whom thou mayeſt be preſerved from all dangers.

o God cauſed this heathen king to reprove her, becauſe ſhe diſſembled, ſeeing that God had given her a husband, as her vail and defence.

17 ¶ So Abraham prayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maid-ſervants; and they bare children.

18 For the LORD [p] had faſt cloſed up all the wombs of the houſe of Abimelech, becauſe of Sarah Abrahams wife.

p Had taken away from them the gift of conceiving.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Iſaac is born: 4 he is circumciſed. 6 Sarahs joy. 9 Hagar and Iſhmael are caſt forth. 15 Hagar in diſtreſs. 17 The angel comforteth her. 22 Abimelechs covenant with Abraham at Beer-sheba.

AND the LORD viſited Sarah as he had ſaid, and the LORD did unto Sarah *as he had ſpoken.

* Chap. 17. 19. and 18. 10.
* Matth. 1. 2. Act. 7. 8. Galat. 4. 23. Hebr. 11. 11.

2 ¶ For Sarah *conceived, and bare Abraham a ſon in his [a] old age, at the ſet time of which God had ſpoken to him.

a Therefore the miracle was the greater.

3 And Abraham called the name of his ſon that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Iſaac.

4 ¶ And Abraham circumciſed his ſon Iſaac, being eight dayes old, *as God had commanded him.

* Chap. 17. 12.

5 And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his ſon Iſaac was born unto him.

6 ¶ And Sarah ſaid, God hath made me to laugh, ſo that all that hear will laugh with me.

7 And ſhe ſaid, [b] Who would have ſaid unto Abraham, that Sarah ſhould have given children ſuck? for I have born him a ſon in his old age.

b She accuſeth herſelf of ingratitude, that ſhe did not beleeve the Angel.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feaſt the ſame day that Iſaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah ſaw the ſon of Hagar, the Egyptian, which ſhe had born unto Abraham, [c] mocking.

c He derided Gods promiſe made to Iſaac, which the Apoſtle calleth perſecution. Gal. 4. 29.

10 Wherefore ſhe ſaid unto Abraham, *Caſt out this bond-woman, and her ſon: for the ſon of this bond-woman ſhall not be heir with my ſon, even with Iſaac.

* Gal. 4. 30.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abrahams ſight, becauſe of his ſon.

12 And God ſaid unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy ſight, becauſe of the lad, and becauſe of thy bond-woman: In all that Sarah hath ſaid unto thee, hearken unto her voice: for in Iſaac ſhall thy ſeed be [d] called.

d The promiſed ſeed ſhall be counted from Iſaac, and not from Iſhmael. Rom. 9. 7. Heb. 11. 18.

13 And alſo of the ſon of the bond-woman will I make [e] a nation, becauſe he is thy ſeed.

e The Iſhmaelites ſhall come of him.

14 And Abraham roſe up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar (putting it on her ſhoulder) and the child, and [f] ſent her away: and ſhe departed, and wandred in the wilderneſſe of Beer-ſheba.

f True faith renounceth all naturall affections to obey Gods commandment.

15 ¶ And the water was ſpent in the bottle, and ſhe caſt the child under one of the ſhrubs.

16 And ſhe went, and ſat her down over againſt him, a good way off, as it were a bow-ſhot: for ſhe ſaid, Let me not ſee the death of the child. And ſhe ſat over againſt him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 ¶ And God [g] heard the voice of the lad. And the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and ſaid unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is:

g For his promiſe ake made to Abraham, and not becauſe the child had diſcretion and judgment to pray.

18 Ariſe, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand: for I will make him a great nation.

19 And God [h] opened her eyes, and ſhe ſaw a well of water; and ſhe went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

h Except God open our eyes we can neither ſee, nor uſe the meanes which are before us.

20 And God was [i] with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderneſs, and became an ‡ archer.

i As touching outward things, God cauſed him, to proſper.

‡ Or, Shot in the bow, and was an hunter.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderneſs of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech, and Phicol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest.

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God, † that thou wilt not deal falsly with me, nor with my son, nor with my sons son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

† Heb. if thou shalt lie unto me.

24 And Abraham said, I will [k] swear.

k So that it is a lawfull thing to take an oath in matters of importance, for to justify the truth, and to assure others of our sincerity.

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelechs servants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, [l] I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it but to day.

l Wicked servants do many evils unknown to their masters.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech: and both of them made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ew-lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ew-lambs, which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ew-lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

‡ Or, Well of the oath, or of seven, meaning, lambs.

31 Wherefore hee called that place ‡ Beersheba: because there they sware both of them.

m Thus we see that the godly, as touching outward things, may make peace with the wicked that know not the true God.

32 Thus they made a [m] covenant at Beersheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phicol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

n That is, He worshipped God in all points of true religion.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and [n] called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines land many days.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Abraham is tempted to offer Isaac. 3 He giveth proof of his faith and obedience. 11 The angel stayeth him. 13 Isaac is exchanged with a ram. 14 The place is called Jehovah-jireh. 15 Abraham is blessed again. 20 The generation of Nahor unto Rebekah.

AND it came to pass after these things, that * God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham. And he said, † Behold, here I am.

* Heb. 11.17.

† Heb. Lo, I.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine onely son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of [a] Moriah; and [b] offer him there for a burnt-offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

a Which signifieth, the fear of God, in the which place he was honoured, and Solomon afterward built the Temple.

b Herein stood the chiefest point of his tentation, seeing he was commanded to offer up him, in whom God had promised to blesse all the nations of the world

3 ¶ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and sadled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt-offering; and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lift up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide you here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and [c] come again to you.

c He doubted not, but God would accomplish his promise though he should sacrifice his son.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife: and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, God will [d] provide himself a lamb for a burnt-offering: so they went both of them together.

d The onely way to overcome all tentations is to rest upon Gods providence.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of, and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order: and [e] bound Isaac his son, and * laid him on the altar upon the wood.

e For it is like that his father had declared to him Gods commandment whereunto he shewed himself obedient.

* James 2. 21.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 ¶ And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham. And he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I [f] know that thou feareſt God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine onely son from me.

f That is, by thy true obedience thou hast declared thy lively faith.

13 ¶ And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: And Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt-offering, in the stead of his son.

14 ¶ And Abraham called the name of that place ‡ Jehovah-Jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall [g] be seen.

‡ Or, the Lord will see or provide.

g The name is changed, to shew that God doth both see and provide secretly for his, and also evidently is seen and felt in time convenient

15 ¶ And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time,

16 And said, * By [h] my self have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine onely son:

19 So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up, and went together to Beer-sheba, and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

20 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold Milcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor;

[i] Concubine is often times taken in the good part, for thoſe women which were inferiour to the wives.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The age and death of Sarah. 3 The purchaſe of Machpelah, 19 where Sarah was buried.

AND Sarah was an hundred and ſeven and twenty years old: theſe were the years of the life of Sarah.
2 And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the ſame is Hebron in the land of Canaan: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.
3 ¶ And Abraham [a] ſtood up from before his dead, and ſpake unto the ſons of Heth, ſaying,
4 I am a ſtranger and a ſojourner with you: give me a poſſeſſion of a burying-place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my ſight.
5 And the children of Heth anſwered Abraham, ſaying unto him.
6 Hear us, my lord; thou art ‡ a mighty prince amongſt us: in the choiſe of our ſepulchres bury thy dead; none of us ſhall withhold from thee his ſepulchre, but that thou mayeſt bury thy dead.
7 And Abraham ſtood up, and bowed himſelf to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.
8 And he communed with them, ſaying, If it be † your mind that I ſhould bury my dead out of my ſight, hear me, and intreat for me to Ephron the ſon of Zohar:
9 That he may give me the cave ‡ of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field; for † as much money as it is worth he ſhall give it me for a poſſeſſion of a burying-place amongſt you.
10 And Ephron dwelt amongſt the children of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite anſwered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all that [c] went in at the gate of his city, ſaying, 11 Nay, my lord, hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the preſence of the ſons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.
12 And Abraham [d] bowed down himſelf before the people of the land.
13 And he ſpake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, ſaying, But if thou wilt give it, I pray thee heare me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.
14 And Ephron anſwered Abraham, ſaying unto him,
15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred [e] ſhekels of ſilver what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.
16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron, and Abraham weighed to Ephron the ſilver, which he named in the audience of the ſons of Heth, four hundred ſhekels of ſilver, currant money with the merchant.
17 And the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made ſure.
18 Unto Abraham for a poſſeſſion in the preſence of the children of Heth, before all that ‡ went in at the gate of his city.
19 ¶ And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre: the ſame is Hebron in the land of Canaan.
20 And the field and the cave that is therein were made ſure unto Abraham for a poſſeſſion of a burying-place, [f] by the ſons of Heth.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Abraham ſweareth his ſervant. 10 The ſervants journy. 12 His prayer. 14 His ſign. 15 Rebekah meeteth him, 18 fulfilleth his ſign, 22 receiveth jewels, 23 ſheweth her kindred, 25 and inviteth him home. 26 The ſervant bleſſeth God. 29 Laban entertaineth him. 34 The ſervant ſheweth his meſſage. 50 Laban & Bethuel approve it. 58 Rebekah conſenteth to go. 62 Iſaac meeteth her.

AND Abraham was old and † well ſtricken in age: and the LORD had bleſſed Abraham in all things.
2 And Abraham ſaid unto his eldeſt ſervant of his houſe, that ruled over all that he had, *[a] Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:
3 And I will make thee [b] ſwear by the LORD the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou ſhalt not take a wife unto my ſon of the daughters of the Canaanites amongſt whom I dwell:
4 But thou ſhalt go unto my [c] country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my ſon Iſaac.
5 And the ſervant ſaid unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: muſt I needs bring thy ſon again unto the land from whence thou cameſt?
6 And Abraham ſaid unto him, Beware thou, that thou bring not my ſon [d] thither again.
7 ¶ The LORD God of heaven which took me from my fathers houſe, and from the land of my kindred, and which ſpake unto me, and that ſware unto me, ſaying, * Unto thy ſeed will I give this land; he ſhall ſend his angel before thee, and thou ſhalt take a wife unto my ſon from thence.

from this my oath: onely bring not my ſon thither again.

9 And the ſervant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his maſter, and ſware to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the ſervant took ten camels, of the camels of his maſter, and departed (for all the goods of his maſter were in his hand) and he aroſe, and went to ‡ Meſopotamia, unto the [c] city of Nahor.

‡ Or, Aram, or, Syria of the twoſtonds: to wit, of Tygris and Emphrates.

11 And he made his camels † to kneel down without the city, by a well of water, at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water.

[d] That is, to Charran.

† Heb. to bowe their knees.

12 ¶ And he ſaid, O [f] LORD God of my maſter Abraham, I pray thee ‡ ſend me good ſpeed this day, and ſhew kindneſs unto my maſter Abraham.

[f] He groundeth his prayer upon Gods promiſe made to his maſter.

‡ Or, Cauſe me to meet.

13 Behold, I ſtand here by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 ¶ [g] And let it come to paſs, that the damſel to whom I ſhall ſay, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and ſhe ſhall ſay, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink alſo: let the ſame be ſhe that thou haſt appointed for thy ſervant Iſaac; and thereby ſhall I know that thou haſt ſhewed kindneſs unto my maſter.

[g] The Servant moved by Gods Spirit deſired to be aſſured by a ſign, whether God proſpered his journy or no.

15 ¶ And it came to paſſe before he had done ſpeaking, that behold, [h] Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel ſon of Milcah the wife of Nahor Abrahams brother, with her pitcher upon her ſhoulder.

[h] God giveth good ſucceſs to all things that are undertaken for the glory of his name, and according to his word.

16 And the damſel was very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and ſhe [i] went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

[i] Here is declared that God ever heareth the prayers of his, and granteth their requeſts.

17 And the ſervant ran to meet her, and ſaid, Let me (I pray thee) drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 ¶ And ſhe ſaid, Drink, my lord: and ſhe haſted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when ſhe had done giving him drink, ſhe ſaid, I will draw water for thy camels alſo, untill they † have done drinking.

† Heb. Have made an end of drinking.

20 And ſhe haſted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondring at her, held his peace, to wit, whether the LORD had made his journy proſperous, or not.

22 And it came to paſſe as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ‡ [k] ear-ring, of [l] half a ſhekel weight, and two bracelets for the hands, of ten ſhekels weight of gold;

‡ Or, Jewel for the fore head.

[k] God permitted many things both in apparel and other things which are now forbidden: ſpecially when they appertain not to our mortification.

[l] The golden ſhekel is here meant, and not that of ſilver.

23 ¶ And ſaid, Whoſe daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy fathers houſe for us to lodge in?

24 And ſhe ſaid unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the ſon of Milcah, which ſhe bare unto Nahor.

25 ¶ She ſaid moreover unto him, We have both ſtraw and provender enough, and room to lodge in. 19

26 ¶ And the man bowed down his head, and worſhipped the LORD.

27 And he ſaid, Bleſſed be the LORD God of my maſter Abraham, who hath not left deſtitute my maſter of his [m] mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the houſe of my maſters brethren.

[m] He boaſteth not his good fortune (as do the wicked) but acknowledgeth that God hath dealt mercifully with his maſter in keeping promiſe

28 And the damſel ran, and told them of her mothers houſe the things.

29 ¶ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to paſs when he ſaw the ear-ring and bracelets upon his ſiſters hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his ſiſter, ſaying, Thus ſpake the man unto me; that he came unto the man, and behold, [n] he ſtood by the camels at the well.

[n] For he waited on Gods hand, who had now heard his prayer.

31 And he ſaid, Come in, thou bleſſed of the LORD, wherefore ſtandeſt thou without? for I have prepared the houſe, and room for the camels.

32 ¶ And the man came into the houſe: and [o] he ungirded his [p] camels, and gave ſtraw and provender for the camels, and water to waſh his feet, and the mens feet that were with him.

[o] To wit, Laban.

[p] The gentle entertainment of ſtrangers uſed among the godly fathers.

33 And there was ſet meat before him to eat: but he ſaid, I [q] will not eat, untill I have told mine errand. And he ſaid, Speak on.

[q] The fidelity that ſervants owe to their maſters, cauſeth them to prefer their maſters buſineſs to their own neceſſity.

34 ¶ And he ſaid, I am Abrahams ſervant.

35 And the LORD hath [r] bleſſed my maſter greatly, and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and ſilver, and gold, and men-ſervants, and maid-ſervants, and camels, and aſſes.

[r] To bleſs, ſignifyeth here to inrich, or increaſe with ſubſtance, as the text in the ſame verſe declareth.

36 And Sarah my maſters wife bare a ſon to my maſter when ſhe was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my maſter made me ſwear, ſaying, Thou ſhalt not take a wife to my ſon of the daughters of the [s] Canaanites, in whoſe land I dwell:

[s] The Canaanites were accurſed, and therefore the godly could not joyn with them in marriage.

38 But thou ſhalt go unto my [t] fathers houſe, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my ſon.

[t] Meaning, among his kinsfolks, as verſe 40.

39 And I ſaid unto my maſter, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he ſaid unto me, The LORD before whom I walk, will ſend his angel with thee, and proſper thy way; and thou ſhalt take a wife for my ſon of my kindred; and of my fathers houſe.

41 Then ſhalt thou be clear from this [u] my oath, when thou comeſt to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou ſhalt be clear from my oath.

[u] which by mine authority I cauſed thee to make.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and ſaid, O LORD God of my maſter Abraham, if now thou do proſper my ‡ way which I go:

‡ Or, journy.

43 * Behold, I ſtand by the well of water;

* Verſe 13.

20 and it shall come to passe, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath ‡ appointed out for my masters son.

‡ Or, shewed.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine [x] heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

x Signifying, that this prayer was not spoken by the mouth, but onely meditated in his heart.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, anp she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahors son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the ear-ring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

y He sheweth, what is our duty, when we have received any benefit of the Lord.

48 [y] And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the † right way to take my masters brothers daughter unto his son.

† Heb. in the way of truth.

z If you will freely and faithfully give your daughter to my masters son.

49 And now if you will deal [z] kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the [a] right hand, or to the left.

a That is, that I may provide elsewhere.

50 ¶ Then Laban and Bethuel answered, and said, [b] The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good.

b So soon as they perceive that it is Gods ordinance, they yield.

51 Behold, Rebekah is ‡ before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy masters sons wife, as the LORD hath ‡ spoken.

‡ Or, at thy commandment.

‡ Or, ordained.

52 And it came to pass, that when Abrahams servant heard their words; he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: He gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, * Send me away unto my master.

* Verse 56. & 59.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us † a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

† Heb. days, or ten.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way: send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at [c] her mouth.

c This sheweth that parents have not authority to marry their children without consent of the parties.

58 ¶ And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abrahams servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the [d] gate of those which hate them.

d That is, let it be victorious over his enemies: which blessing is fully accomplished in Jesus Christ.

61 And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

62 ¶ And Isaac came from the way of the * well Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south-countrey.

* Chap. 16. 14. & 25. 11.

63 And Isaac went out to [e] meditate in the field at the even-tide: and he lift up his eyes, and saw, and behold the camels were coming.

e This was the exercise of the godly fathers, to meditate Gods promises, and to pray for the accomplishment thereof.

64 And Rebekah lift up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel.

65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took [f] a vail and covered her self.

f The custome was that the spouse was brought to her husband, her head being covered in token of shamefastnesse and chastity.

66 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.

67 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarahs tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was ‡ comforted after his mothers death.

21 ¶ And Isaac intreated the LORD for his wife, because she was barren: and the LORD was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 ¶ And the children ‡ strugled together within her: and she said, If it be so, why am I [g] thus? And she went [h] to enquire of the LORD.

‡ Or, hurt one another.

g That is, with child, seeing one shall destroy another.
h For that is the onely refuge in all our miseries.

23 And the LORD said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels: and the one people shall be stronger then the other people; and * the elder shall serve the younger.

* Rom. 9. 12.

24 ¶ And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Esau.

26 And after that came his brother out, and * his hand took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old, when she bare them.

* Hos. 12. 3.

27 ¶ And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a ‡ plain man dwelling in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because † he did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

† Heb. venison in his mouth.

29 ¶ And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint.

30 And Esau said to Jacob, ‡ Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint; therefore was his name called Edom.

‡ Or, feed me quickly.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birth-right.

32 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this [i] birth-right do to me?

i The reprobate esteem not Gods benefits except they feel them presently, and therefore they prefer present pleasures.

33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day, And he sware unto him; and * [k] he sold his birth-right unto Jacob.

* Heb. 12. 16.
k Thus the wicked prefer their worldly commodities before Gods spirituall graces: but the children of God do the contrary.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentils; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birth-right.

6 And Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

7 ¶ And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he [p] feared to say, She is my wife; Lest, said he the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah, because she was fair to look upon.

p Heb. my keeping.
d whereby we see that fear and distrust is found in the most faithfull.

8 And it came to pass when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and behold, Isaac was [e] sporting with Rebekah his wife.

e Or, shewing some familiar sign of love, whereby it might be known that she was his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife; and thou shouldest have brought [f] guiltiness upon us.

f In all ages men were perswaded that Gods vengeance should light upon wedlock-breakers.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife, shall surely be put to death.

12 ¶ Then

22

12 ¶ Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an ‡ hundred-fold, and the LORD blessed him.

‡ Or, an hundred measures.

13 And the man waxed great, and ‡ went forward, and grew untill he became very great.

‡ Heb. he went forth going and increasing.

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants. And the Philistines [g] envied him.

g The malicious envie alwayes the graces of God in others.

15 For all the wells which his fathers servants had digged in the dayes of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us: for thou art much mightier then we.

17 ¶ And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the [h] vally of Gerar, and dwelt there.

h The Hebrew word signifyeth a flood, or valley, where water at any time runneth

18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the dayes of Abraham his fathers; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Isaacs servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of † springing water.

† Heb. living.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaacs herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well ‡ Esek, because they strove with him.

‡ Or, contention, strife.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it ‡ Sitnah.

‡ Or, hatred.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well, and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it ‡ Rehoboth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitfull in the land.

‡ Or, largenesse, roum.

23 And he went up from thence to Beersheba.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, I, am the God [i] of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abrahams sake.

i God assureth Isaac against all fear by rehearsing the promise made to Abraham.

25 And he builded an [k] altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaacs servants digged a well.

k To signifie that he would serve none other God, but the God of his father Abraham.

26 ¶ Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phicol the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you?

28 And they said, We saw certainly that the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us; even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee;

l The Hebrews in swearing begin commonly with If, and understand the rest: that is, that God shall punish him that breaketh the oath: here the wicked shew that they are afraid lest that come to them which they would doe to others.

29 [l] That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed of the LORD.

30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to passe the same day, that Isaacs servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.

33 And he called it ‡ Shebah: therefore the name of the city is ‡ Beer-sheba unto this day.

‡ Or, Oath.

‡ Or, The well of the oath.

34 ¶ And Esau was fourty yeares old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite:

35 Which * were ‡ a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

* Chap. 27. 46.

‡ Or, disobedient and rebellious.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Isaac sendeth Esau for venison. 6 Rebekah instructeth Jacob to obtain the blessing. 15 Jacob under the person of Esau obtaineth it. 30 Esau bringeth venison. 33 Isaac trembleth. 34 Esau complaineth, and by importunity obtaineth a blessing. 41 He threatneth Jacob. 42 Rebekah disappointeth it.

AND it came to passe that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: And he said unto him, † Behold, here am I.

† Heb. Lo, I.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death.

3 Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver, and thy bow, and go out to the field, and † take me some venison;

† Heb. hunt.

4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my [a] soul may blesse thee before I die.

a The carnal affection which he bare to his son, made him forget that which God spake to his wife, Chap. 25. 23.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son: And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and blesse thee before the LORD before my death.

8 Now therefore my son, obey my voice, according to that which I command thee.

9 [b] Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth.

b This subtilty is blame worthy, because she should have tarried till God had performed his promise.

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may blesse thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man.

12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem † to him as a ‡ deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

† Heb. before his eyes.

‡ Or, as though I would deceive him.

‡ Or, I will take the danger on me.

13 And his mother said unto him, ‡ [c] Upon me

c The assurance of Gods decree made her bold.

me be thy curſe, my ſon: onely obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made ſavoury meat, ſuch as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldeſt ſonne Eſau, which were with her in the houſe, and put them upon Jacob her younger ſon.

16 And ſhe put the skinnes of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the ſmooth of his neck.

17 And ſhe gave the ſavoury meat: and the bread which ſhe had prepared, into the hand of her ſon Jacob.

18 ¶ And he came unto his father, and ſaid, My father: And he ſaid, Here am I; who art thou, my ſon?

[d] Although Jacob was aſſured of this bleſſing by faith: yet he did evil to ſeek it by lies, and the more becauſe he abuſeth Gods name thereunto.

19 And Jacob ſaid unto his father, [d] I am Eſau thy firſt-born; I have done according as thou badeſt me: ariſe, I pray thee, ſit and eat of my veniſon, that thy ſoul may bleſs me.

20 And Iſaac ſaid unto his ſon, How is it that thou haſt found it ſo quickly, my ſon? And he ſaid, Becauſe the LORD thy God brought it to me.

21 And Iſaac ſaid unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my ſon, whether thou be my very ſon Eſau, or not.

[e] This declareth that he ſuſpected ſome thing, yet God would not have his decree altered.

22 And Jacob went near unto Iſaac his father: and he felt him, and ſaid, The [e] voice is Jacobs voice, but the hands are the hands of Eſau.

23 And he diſcerned him not, becauſe his hands were hairy, as his brother Eſau's hands: So he bleſſed him.

24 And he ſaid, Art thou my very ſon Eſau? And he ſaid, I am.

25 And he ſaid, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my ſons veniſon, that my ſoul may bleſſe thee: and he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Iſaac ſaid unto him, Come neare now, and kiſs me, my ſon.

27 And he came near, and kiſſed him: and he ſmelled the ſmell of his raiment, and bleſſed him, and ſaid, See, the ſmell of my ſon is as the ſmell of a field, which the LORD hath bleſſed.

* Hebr. 11. 20.

28 Therefore * God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatneſſe of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine.

29 Let people ſerve thee, and nations bowe down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mothers ſons bowe down to thee: Curſed be every one that curſeth thee, and bleſſed be he that bleſſeth thee.

30 ¶ And it came to paſſe, aſſoon as Iſaac had made an end of bleſſing Jacob, and Jacob was yet ſcare gone out from the preſence of Iſaac his father, that Eſau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he alſo had made ſavoury meat, and brought it unto his father; and ſaid unto his father, Let my father ariſe, and eat of his ſons veniſon, that thy ſoul may bleſſe me.

32 And Iſaac his father ſaid unto him, Who art thou? And he ſaid, I am thy ſon, thy firſt-born Eſau.

33 And Iſaac [f] trembled very exceedingly, and ſaid, Who, where is he that hath taken veniſon, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou cameſt, and have bleſſed him? yea and he ſhall be bleſſed.

[f] In perceiving his errour, by appointing his heir againſt Gods ſentence pronounced before.

34 And when Eſau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and ſaid unto his father, Bleſſe me, even me alſo, O my father.

35 And he ſaid, Thy brother came with ſubtilty, and hath taken away thy bleſſing.

36 And he ſaid, Is not he rightly named [g] Jacob? for he hath ſupplanted me theſe two times: he took away my birth-right; and behold, now he hath taken away my bleſſing: and he ſaid, Haſt thou not reſerved a bleſſing for me?

[g] In Chap. 25. he was ſo called becauſe he held his brother by the heel, as though he would overthrow him: and therefore he is here called an overthrower or deceiver.

37 And Iſaac anſwered and ſaid unto Eſau, Behold, I have made him [h] thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for ſervants; and with corn and wine have I ſuſtained him: and what ſhall I do now unto thee my ſon?

[h] For Iſaac did this as he was the miniſter and Prophet of God.

38 And Eſau ſaid unto his father, Haſt thou but one bleſſing, my father? bleſſe me, ‡ even me alſo, O my father. And Eſau liſt up his voice, * and wept.

‡ Or, I am alſo (thy ſon)
* Heb. 12. 17.

39 And Iſaac his father anſwered, and ſaid unto him, Behold, thy dwelling ſhall be the fatneſs of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above.

40 And [i] by thy ſword ſhalt thou live, and ſhalt [k] ſerve thy brother: and it ſhall come to paſſe when thou ſhalt have the dominion, that thou ſhalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

[i] Becauſe thine enemies ſhall be round about thee,
[k] which was fulfilled in his poſteritie the Idumeans: who were tributaries for a time to Iſrael, and after came to liberty.

41 ¶ And Eſau hated Jacob, becauſe of the bleſſing wherewith his father bleſſed him: and Eſau ſaid in his heart, * The dayes of mourning for my father are at hand, [l] then will I ſlay my brother Jacob.

* Obad. 1. 10.

[l] Hypocrites onely abſtain from doing evil for fear of men.

42 And theſe words of Eſau her elder ſon were told to Rebekah: And ſhe ſent and called Jacob her younger ſon, and ſaid unto him, Behold, thy brother Eſau, as touching thee, doth [m] comfort himſelf, purpoſing to kill thee.

[m] He hath good hope to recover his birth-right by killing thee.

43 Now therefore, my ſon, obey my voice: and ariſe, flee thou to Laban my brother, to Haran.

44 And tarry with him a few dayes: untill thy brothers fury turn away;

45 Untill thy brothers anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou haſt done to him: then I will ſend, and fetch thee from thence. Why ſhould I be [n] deprived alſo of you both in one day?

[n] For the wicked ſon will kill the godly and the plague of God will afterward light on the wicked ſon.

46 And Rebekah ſaid to Iſaac, * I am weary of my life, becauſe of the [o] daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of

* Chap. 26. 35.
[o] which were Eſau's wives.

of Heth, ſuch as theſe which are of the daughters of the land, [p] what good ſhall my life do me?

p Hereby thee perſwaded Iſaac to agree to Jacobs departing.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Iſaac bleſſeth Jacob, and ſendeth him to Padan-aram. 9 Eſau marrieth Mahalath the daughter of Iſhmael. 12 The viſion of Jacobs ladder. 18 The ſtone of Beth-el. 20 Jacobs vow.

AND Iſaac called Jacob, and [a] bleſſed him, and charged him, and ſaid unto him, Thou ſhalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

a This ſecond bleſſing was to confirm Jacobs faith, leſt he ſhould think that his father had given it without Gods motion.

2 * Ariſe, go to * Padan-aram, to the houſe of Bethuel thy mothers father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

* Hoſ. 12. 12.
* Chap. 24. 10.

3 And God ‡ Almighty bleſſe thee, and make thee fruitfull, and multiply thee, that thou mayeſt be a multitude of people:

‡ Or, all-ſufficient.

4 And give thee the bleſſing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy ſeed with thee; that thou mayeſt inherit the land wherein thou art a [b] ſtranger, which God gave unto Abraham.

b The godly fathers were put in mindcontinually, that they were but ſtrangers in this world: to the intent they ſhould lift up their eyes to the heavens where they ſhould have a ſure dwelling.

5 And Iſaac ſent away Jacob, and he went to Padan-aram unto Laban, ſon of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacobs and Eſau's mother.

6 ¶ When Eſau ſaw that Iſaac had bleſſed Jacob, and ſent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he bleſſed him, he gave him a charge, ſaying, Thou ſhalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan:

7 And that Jacob obeyed his father, and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram;

8 And Eſau ſeeing that the daughters of Canaan pleaſed not Iſaac his father:

9 Then went Eſau unto Iſhmael, and took ‡ unto the wives which he had, Mahalath the daughter of [c] Iſhmael Abrahams ſon, the ſiſter of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

‡ Or, beſides his wives.

c Thinking hereby to have reconciled himſelf to his father: but all in vaine, for he taketh not away the cauſe of the evil.

10 ¶ And Jacob went out from Beer-ſheba, and went toward Haran.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, becauſe the ſun was ſet: and he took of the ſtones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to ſleep.

d Chriſt is the ladder whereby God and man are joyned together, and by whom the Angels miniſter unto us: all graces by him are given unto us, and we by him aſcend into heaven.

12 And he dreamed, and behold a [d] ladder ſet upon the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold, the angels of God aſcending and deſcending on it.

* Chap. 35. 1. and 48. 3.

13 * And behold, the LORD ſtood above it, and ſaid, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Iſaac: the land whereon thou lieſt, to thee [e] will I give it, and to thy ſeed.

e He felt the force of this promiſe onely by faith: for all his life time he was but a ſtranger in this land.

14 And thy ſeed ſhall be as the duſt of the earth; and thou ſhalt ſpread abroad to the * weſt, and to the eaſt, and to the north, and to the ſouth: and in thee and in thy ſeed ſhall all the * families of the earth be bleſſed.

* Deut. 12. 20. and 19. 14.
* Chap. 12. 3. and 18. 18. and 22. 18. and 26. 4.

15 And behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goeſt, and will bring thee again into this land: for I will not leave thee, untill I have done that which I have ſpoken to thee of.

16 ¶ And Jacob awaked out of his ſleep, and he ſaid, Surely the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not.

17 And he was [f] afraid, and ſaid, How dreadfull is this place! this is none other but the houſe of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

f He was touched with a godly fear and reverence.

18 And Jacob roſe up early in the morning, and took the ſtone that he had put for his pillows, and [g] ſet it up for * a pillar, and poured oyl upon the top of it.

g To be a remembrance onely of the viſion ſhewed unto him.
* Chap. 31. 13

19 And he called the name of that place ‡ Beth-el; but the name of that citie was called Luz at the firſt.

‡ Or, houſe of God.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, ſaying, If [h] God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on;

h He bindeth not God under this condition, but acknowledgeth his infirmity, and promiſeth to be thankfull.

21 So that I come again to my fathers houſe in peace: then ſhall the LORD be my God.

22 And this ſtone which I have ſet for a pillar, ſhall be Gods houſe: and of all that thou ſhalt give me, I will ſurely give the tenth unto thee.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Jacob cometh to the well of Haran. 9 He taketh acquaintance of Rachel. 13 Laban entertaineth him. 18 Jacob covenanteth for Rachel. 23 He is deceived with Leah. 28 He marrieth alſo Rachel, and ſerveth for her ſeven years more. 32 Leah beareth Reuben, 33 Simeon, 34 Levi, 35 and Judah.

THEN Jacob † went on his journey, and came into the land of the † people of the eaſt.

2 And he looked, and behold, a well in the field, [a] and lo, there were three flocks of ſheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great ſtone was upon the wells mouth.

a Thus he was directed by the onely providence of God, who brought him alſo to Laban's houſe.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the ſtone from the wells mouth, and watered the ſheep, and put the ſtone again upon the wells mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob ſaid unto them, My [b] brethren, whence be ye? And they ſaid, Of Haran are we.

b It ſeemeth that in thoſe dayes the cuſtome was to call even ſtrangers brethren.

5 And he ſaid unto them, Know ye Laban the ſon of Nahor? And they ſaid, We know him.

6 And he ſaid unto them, [c] Is he well? And they ſaid, He is well: and behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the ſheep.

c Or, is he in peace? by the which word the Hebrews ſignifie all proſperity.

7 And he ſaid, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattel ſhould be gathered together: water ye the ſheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they ſaid, We cannot, untill all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the ſtone from the wells mouth; then we water the ſheep.

9 ¶ And while he yet ſpake with them, Rachel came with her fathers ſheep: for ſhe keept them.

12 And

10 And it came to paſs, when Jacob ſaw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mothers brother, and the ſheep of Laban his mothers brother; that Jacob went near, and rolled the ſtone from the wells mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mothers brother.

11 And Jacob kiſſed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her fathers brother, and that he was Rebekahs ſon: and ſhe ran and told her father.

13 And it came to paſs, when Laban heard the † tidings of Jacob his ſiſters ſon, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kiſſed him, and brought him to his houſe: and he told Laban [d] all theſe things.

† Heb. hearing.

d That is, the cauſe why he departed from his fathers houſe, and what he ſaw in the way.

14 And Laban ſaid to him, Surely thou art my [e] bone and my fleſh: and he abode with him † the ſpace of a moneth.

e That is, of my blood and kindred.

† Heb. moneth of days.

15 ¶ And Laban ſaid unto Jacob, Becauſe thou art my brother, ſhouldeſt thou therefore ſerve me for nought? tell me, what ſhall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender-eyed, but Rachel was beautiful and well-favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and ſaid, I will ſerve thee ſeven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 And Laban ſaid, It is better that I give her to thee, then that I ſhould give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob ſerved ſeven years for Rachel: and they ſeemed unto him but a [f] few days, for the love he had to her.

f Meaning, after that the years were accompliſhed.

21 ¶ And Jacob ſaid unto Laban, Give me my wife (for my days are fulfilled) that I may go in unto her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feaſt.

23 And it came to paſs in the [g] evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him: and he went in unto her.

g The cauſe why Jacob was deceived, was, that in old time the wife was covered with a vail, when ſhe was brought to her husband, in ſign of chaſtity and ſhamefaſtneſs.

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah, Zilpah his maid, for an hand-maid.

25 And it came to paſs, that in the morning, behold it was Leah: and he ſaid to Laban, What is this thou haſt done unto me? did not I ſerve with thee for Rachel? Wherefore then haſt thou beguiled me?

h He eſteemed more the profit that he had of Jacobs ſervice, then either his promiſe, or the manner of the country, though he alledged cuſtom for his excuſe.

26 And Laban ſaid, It [h] muſt not be ſo done in our † country, to give the younger before the firſt-born.

† Heb. place.

27 Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this alſo, for the ſervice which thou ſhalt ſerve with me yet ſeven other years.

28 And Jacob did ſo, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife alſo.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his hand-maid, to be her maid.

30 And he went in alſo unto Rachel, and he loved alſo Rachel more then Leah, and ſerved with him yet ſeven other years.

31 ¶ And when the LORD ſaw that Leah was hated, he opened her [i] womb: but Rachel was barren.

i This declareth that oft times they which are deſpiſed of men are favoured of God.

32 And Leah conceived and bare a ſon, and ſhe called his name " Reuben: for ſhe ſaid, Surely the [k] LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will [l] love me.

" That is, ſee a ſon.

k Hereby appeareth that ſhe had recourſe to God in her affliction.

l For children are a great cauſe of mutual love between man and wife.

33 And ſhe conceived again, and bare a ſon; and ſaid, Becauſe the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this ſon alſo: and ſhe called his name " Simeon.

" That is, hearing.

34 And ſhe conceived again, and bare a ſon; and ſaid, Now this time will my husband be joyned unto me, becauſe I have born him three ſons: therefore was his name called " Levi.

" That is, joyned.

35 And ſhe conceived again, and bare a ſon; and ſhe ſaid, Now will I praiſe the LORD: therefore ſhe called his name * " Judah, and † left bearing.

* Matth. 1.2.

" That is, praiſe.

† Heb. ſtood from bearing.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Rachel in grief for her barrenneſs giveth Bilhah her maid unto Jacob. 5 She beareth Dan and Naphtali. 9 Leah giveth Zilpah her maid, who beareth Gad and Aſher. 14 Reuben findeth mandrakes, with which Leah buyeth her husband of Rachel. 17 Leah beareth Iſſachar, Zebulun, and Dinah. 22 Rachel beareth Joſeph. 25 Jacob deſireth to depart. 27 Laban ſtayeth him on a new covenant. 37 Jacobs policy, whereby he became rich.

AND when Rachel ſaw that ſhe bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her ſiſter; and ſaid unto Jacob, Give me children, or els I die.

2 And Jacobs anger was kindled againſt Rachel; & he ſaid, Am I in [a] Gods ſtead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

a It is onely God that maketh barren and fruitful, and therefore I am not in fault.

3 And ſhe ſaid, Behold my maid Bilhah, go in unto her; and ſhe ſhall bear upon my [b] knees, that I may alſo have children by her.

b I will receive her children on my lap, as though they were mine own.

4 And ſhe gave him Bilhah her hand-maid to wife: and Jacob went in unto her.

5 ¶ And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a ſon.

6 And Rachel ſaid, God hath judged me, and hath alſo heard my voice, and hath given me a ſon: therefore called ſhe his name " Dan.

26 field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel ſaid to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy ſons mandrakes.

15 And ſhe ſaid unto her, Is it a ſmall matter that thou haſt taken my husband? and wouldeſt thou take away my ſons mandraks alſo? And Rachel ſaid, Therefore he ſhall lie with thee to night for thy ſons mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and ſaid, Thou muſt come in unto me, for ſurely I have hired thee with my ſons mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkned unto Leah, and ſhe conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth ſon.

18 And Leah ſaid, God hath given me mine hire, becauſe I have given my [t] maiden to my husband: and ſhe called his name "Iſſachar.

19 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the ſixth ſon.

20 And Leah ſaid, God hath endued me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, becauſe I have born him ſix ſons: and ſhe called his name "* Zebulun.

21 And afterward ſhe bare a daughter, and called her name "Dinah.

22 ¶ And God remembred Rachel, and God hearkned to her, and opened her womb.

23 And ſhe conceived and bare a ſon; and ſaid, God hath taken away my [g] reproach.

24 And ſhe called his name "Joſeph; and ſaid, The LORD ſhall add to me another ſon.

25 ¶ And it came to paſs, when Rachel had born Joſeph, that Jacob ſaid unto Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have ſerved thee, and let me go: for thou knoweſt my ſervice which I have done thee.

27 And Laban ſaid unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, tarry: for I have learned by experience, that the LORD hath bleſſed me for thy ſake.

28 And he ſaid, Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.

29 And he ſaid unto him, Thou knoweſt how I have ſerved thee, and how thy cattel was with me.

30 For it was little which thou hadſt before I came, and it is now † increaſed unto a multitude; and the LORD hath bleſſed thee † ſince my coming: and now when ſhall [h] I provide for mine own houſe alſo?

31 And he ſaid, What ſhall I give thee? And Jacob ſaid, Thou ſhalt not give me any thing; if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock:

32 I will paſs through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the ſpeckled and ſpotted cattel, and all the brown cattel among the ſheep, and the ſpotted and ſpeckled among the goats: [i] and of ſuch ſhall be my hire.

33 So ſhall my [k] righteouſneſs anſwer for me † in time to come, when it ſhall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not ſpeckled and ſpotted amongſt the goats, and brown amongſt the ſheep, that ſhall be accounted ſtolen with me.

34 And Laban ſaid, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he-goats, that were ring-ſtraked, and ſpotted, and all the ſhe-goats that were ſpeckled and ſpotted, and every one that had ſome white in it, and all the brown among the ſheep, and gave them into the hands of his ſons.

36 And he ſet three days journy betwixt himſelf and Jacob: and Jacob fed the reſt of Labans flocks.

37 ¶ And Jacob [l] took him rods of green poplar, and of the haſel and cheſnut-tree; and pilled white ſtrakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he ſet the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering-troughs, when the flocks came to drink; that they ſhould conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattel ring-ſtraked, ſpeckled, and ſpotted.

40 And Jacob did ſeparate the lambs, and ſet the faces of the flocks toward the ring-ſtraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban: and he put his own flocks by themſelves, and put them not unto Labans cattel.

41 And it came to paſs whenſoever the [m] ſtronger cattel did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattel in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattel were feeble, he put them not in: ſo the feebler were Labans, and the ſtronger Jacobs.

43 And the man increaſed exceedingly, and had much cattel, and maid-ſervants, and men-ſervants, and camels, and aſſes.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Jacob upon diſpleaſure departeth ſecretly. 19 Rachel ſtealeth her fathers images. 22 Laban purſueth after him, 26 and complaineth of the wrong. 34 Rachels policy to hide the images. 36 Jacobs complaint of Laban. 43 The covenant of Laban and Jacob at Galeed.

AND he heard the [a] words of Labans ſons, ſaying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our fathers; and of that which was our fathers hath he gotten all this glory.

2 And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and behold, it was not toward him † as before.

3 And the LORD ſaid unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.

4 And Jacob ſent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock,

5 And ſaid unto them, I ſee your fathers countenance, that it is not toward me as before: but the [b] God of my father hath been with me.

* Chap. 28.18.

14 And Rachel and Leah anſwered, and ſaid unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our fathers houſe?

15 Are we not counted of him ſtrangers? for he hath [e] ſold us, and hath quite devoured alſo our money.

e For they were given to Jacob in recompence of his ſervice, which was a kind of ſale.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, & our childrens: now then whatſoever God hath ſaid unto thee, do.

17 ¶ Then Jacob roſe up, and ſet his ſons and his wives upon camels.

18 And he carried away all his cattel, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattel of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram; for to go to Iſaac his father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to ſhear his ſheep: and Rachel had ſtolen the [f] † images that were her fathers.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and purſued after him ſeven days journy; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and ſaid unto him, Take heed that thou ſpeak not to Jacob † either good or bad.

† Heb. from good to bad.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban ſaid to Jacob, What haſt thou done, that thou haſt ſtolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the ſword?

27 Wherefore didſt thou flee away ſecretly, and † ſteal away from me? and didſt not tell me, that I might have ſent thee away with mirth, and with ſongs, with tabret, and with harp?

† Heb. haſt ſtolen me.

28 And haſt not ſuffered me to kiſs my ſons and my daughters? thou haſt now done fooliſhly in ſo doing.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the [g] God of your father ſpake unto me yeſternight, ſaying, Take thou heed that thou ſpeak not to Jacob either good or bad.

g He was an idolater, and therefore would not acknowledge the God of Jacob for his God.

30 And now though thou wouldeſt needs be gone, becauſe thou ſore longedſt after thy fathers houſe; yet wherefore haſt thou ſtolen my gods?

31 And Jacob anſwered and ſaid to Laban, Becauſe I was afraid: for I ſaid, Peradventure thou wouldeſt take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomſoever thou findeſt thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren diſcern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee: for Jacob knew not that Rachel had ſtolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacobs tent, and into Leahs tent, and into the two maid-ſervants tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leahs tent, and entred into Rachels tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camels furniture, and ſat upon them: and Laban † ſearched all the tent, but found them not.

† Heb. felt.

35 And ſhe ſaid to her father, Let it not diſpleaſe my lord that I cannot riſe up before thee; for the cuſtom of women is upon me: and he ſearched, but found not the images.

36 ¶ And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob anſwered, and ſaid to Laban, What is my treſpaſs? what is my ſin that thou haſt ſo hotly purſued after me?

37 Whereas thou haſt ſearched all my ſtuff, what haſt thou found of all thy houſhold-ſtuff? ſet it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ews and thy ſhe-goats have not caſt their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beaſts, I brought not unto thee, I bare the loſs of it; of * my hand didſt thou require it, whether ſtolen by day, or ſtolen by night.

* Exod. 22.12.

40 Thus I was, in the day the drought conſumed me, and the froſt by night; and my ſleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy houſe; I ſerved thee fourteen years for thy 28 two daughters, and six years for thy cattel: and thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the [h] fear of Isaac had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty: God hath seen mine affliction & the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

h That is, the God whom Isaac did fear, and reverence.

43 ¶ And Laban answered, and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattel are my cattel, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore [i] come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

i His conscience reproved him of his misbehaviour toward Jacob, and therefore moved him to seek peace.

45 And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it ‡ Jegar-sahadutha: but Jacob called it [k] Galeed.

‡ Or, the heap of witness.
k The one nameth the place in thy Syrian tongue, and the other in the Hebrew tongue.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed:

49 And ‡ Mizpah: for he said, The LORD [l] watch between me and thee when we are ‡ absent one from another.

l To punish the trespasser.
‡ Or, hid.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other [m] wives besides my daughters, no man is with us; See, God is witness betwixt me and thee;

m Nature compelleth him to condemn that vice, whereunto through covetousness he forced Jacob.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee.

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of [n] Nahor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob sware by the [o] fear of his father Isaac.

n Behold, how the idolaters mingle the true God with their feigned gods.
o Meaning, by the true God whom Isaac worshipped.

54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat ‡ bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

‡ Or, meat.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and [p] blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

p Wee see that there is ever some seed of the knowledge of God in the hearts of the wicked.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Jacobs vision at Mahanaim. 3 His message to Esau. 6 He is afraid of Esau's coming. 9 He prayeth for his deliverance. 13 He sendeth a present to Esau. 24 He wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, where he is called Israel. 31 He halteth.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the * angels of God met him.

* Chap. 48. 16.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, [a] This is Gods host: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

a He acknowledgeth Gods benefits: who for the preservation of his, sendeth hosts of Angels.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my [b] lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now.

b He reverenced his brother in worldly things, because he chiefly looked to bee preferred to the spiritual promise.

5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and men-servants, and women-servants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was [c] greatly afraid, and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels into two bands;

c Albeit hee was comforted by the Angels, yet the infirmity of the flesh doth appear.

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 ¶ And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD, which saidst unto me, * Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

* Chap. 31. 13.

10 † I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my [d] staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I am become two bands.

† Heb. I am lesse then all thy mercies.
d That is, poor, and without all provision.

11 Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the [e] mother with the children.

e Meaning, he will put all to death: this proverb cometh of them which kill the bird together with her young ones.

12 And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbred for multitude.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand, a [f] present for Esau his brother;

f Not distrusting Gods assistance but using such means as God had given him.

14 Two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred ews and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, fourty kine and ten bulls, twenty she-asses and ten foles.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants. Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacobs; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and behold also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall you speak unto Esau, when you find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us: For he said, I [g] will appease him with the present that goeth before me, g He thought it no loss to depart with these goods, to the intent hee might follow the vocation whereunto God called him.

me, and afterward I will ſee his face; peradventure he will accept † of me.

† Heb. my face.

21 So went the preſent over before him: and himſelf lodged that night in the company.

22 And he roſe up that night, and took his two wives, and his two women-ſervants, and his eleven ſons, and paſſed over the ford Jabbok.

23 And he took them, and ſent them over the brook, and ſent over that he had.

24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone: and there wreſtled a [h] man with him, until the † breaking of the day.

h That is, God in form of man.

† Heb. aſcending of the morning.

25 And when he ſaw that he [i] prevailed not againſt him, he touched the hollow of his thigh: and the hollow of Jacobs thigh was out of joynt, as he wreſtled with him.

i For God aſſaileth his with the one hand, and upholdeth them with the other.

26 And he ſaid, Let me go, for the day breaketh: And he ſaid, * I will not let thee go, except thou bleſs me.

* Hoſ. 12.4.

27 And he ſaid unto him, What is thy name? And he ſaid, Jacob.

28 And he ſaid, * Thy name ſhall be called no more Jacob, but Iſrael: for as a prince haſt thou [k] power with God and with men, and haſt prevailed.

* Chap. 35.10.

k God gave Jacob both power to overcome, and alſo the praiſe of the victory.

29 And Jacob asked him, and ſaid, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name: And he ſaid, Wherefore is it, that thou doſt ask after my name? and he bleſſed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place " Peniel: for I have ſeen God face to face, and my life is preſerved.

" That is, the face of God.

31 ¶ And as he paſſed over Penuel the ſun roſe upon him, and he [l] halted upon his thigh.

l The faithful ſo overcome their tentations, that they feel the ſmart thereof, to the intent that they ſhould not glory, but in humility.

32 Therefore the children of Iſrael eat not of the ſinew which ſhrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: becauſe he touched the hollow of Jacobs thigh, in the ſinew that ſhrank.

Chap. XXXIII.

1 The kindneſs of Jacob and Eſau at their meeting. 17 Jacob cometh to Succoth. 18 At Shalem he buyeth a field, and buildeth an altar called El-elohe-Iſrael.

AND Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, Eſau came, and with him four hundred men. And he [a] delivered the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two hand-maids.

a That is if one part were aſſailed, the other might eſcape.

2 And he put the hand-maids and their children foremoſt, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joſeph hindermoſt.

3 And he paſſed over before them, and [b] bowed himſelf to the ground ſeven times, until he came near to his brother.

b By this geſture, he partly did reverence to his brother, and partly prayed God to mitigate Eſau's wrath.

4 And Eſau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kiſſed him: and they wept.

5 And he lift up his eyes, and ſaw the women and the children; and ſaid, Who are thoſe † with thee? And he ſaid, The children which God hath graciouſly given thy ſervant.

† Heb. to thee.

6 Then the hand-maidens came near, they & their children, and they [c] bowed themſelves.

c Jacob and his family are the image of the church under the yoak of tyrants, which for fear are brought to ſubjection.

7 And Leah alſo with her children came near, and bowed themſelves: and after came Joſeph near and Rachel, and they bowed themſelves.

8 And he ſaid, What meaneſt thou by all this drove, which I met? And he ſaid, Theſe are to find grace in the ſight of my lord.

9 And Eſau ſaid, I have enough; my brother, † keep that thou haſt unto thy ſelf.

† Heb. be that to thee that is thine.

10 And Jacob ſaid, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy ſight, then receive my preſent at my hand: for therefore I have ſeen thy face, as though [d] I had ſeen the face of God, and thou waſt pleaſed with me.

d In that his brother embraced him ſo lovingly, contrary to his expectation, he accepted it as a plain ſign of Gods preſence.

11 Take, I pray thee, my bleſſing that is brought to thee; becauſe God hath dealt graciouſly with me, and becauſe I have enough: and he [e] urged him, and he took it.

e By earneſt entreaty.

12 And he ſaid, Let us take our journy, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he ſaid unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men ſhould overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, paſs over before his ſervant: and I will lead on ſoftly, according † as the cattel that goeth before me, and the children be able to endure; until [f] I come unto my lord unto Seir.

† Heb. according to the foot of the work, &c. and according to the foot of the children.

f He promiſed that, which (as ſeemeth) his mind was not to perform.

15 And Eſau ſaid, Let me now † leave with thee ſome of the folk that are with me: And he ſaid, † What needeth it? Let me find grace in the ſight of my lord.

† Heb. ſet, or, place.

† Heb. wherefore is this?

16 So Eſau returned that day on his way unto Seir.

17 ¶ And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built him an houſe, and made booths for his cattel: therefore the name of the place is called " Succoth.

" That is, booths.

18 ¶ And Jacob came to Shalem a city of * Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

* Called. Acts 7. 16. Sychem.

19 And he bought a parcel of a field, where he had ſpread his tent, at the hand of the children of * Hamor Shechems father, for an hundred ‡ pieces of mony.

* Called, Acts 7. 16. Emmor.

‡ Heb. lambs.

20 And he erected there an altar, and called [g] it " El-elohe-Iſrael.

g He calleth the ſign, the thing which it ſignifieth, in token that God had mightily delivered him.

" That is, God the God of Iſrael.

Chap. XXXIIII.

1 Dinah is raviſhed by Shechem. 4 He ſueth to marry her. 13 The ſons of Jacob offer the condition of circumciſion to the Shechemites. 20 Hamor and Shechem perſwade them to accept it. 25 The ſons of Jacob upon that advantage ſlay them, 27 and ſpoil their city. 30 Jacob reproveth Simeon and Levi.

AND Dinah the daughter of Leah, which ſhe bare unto Jacob, [a] went out to ſee the daughters of the land.

a This example teacheth, that too much liberty is not to be given to youth.

2 And when Shechem the ſon of Hamor the Hivite prince of the country ſaw her, he took her, and lay with her, and † defiled her.

† Heb. humbled her.

3 And his ſoul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damſel, and ſpake † kindly unto the damſel.

† Heb. to her heart.

4 ¶ And Shechem ſpake unto his father

30 Hamor, saying, [b] Get me this damsel to wife.

b This proveth that the consent of parents, is requisite in marriage, seeing the very infidels did also observe it as a thing necessary.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, (now his sons were with his cattel in the field) and Jacob held his peace until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it, and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth: because he had wrought ‡ folly in Israel, in lying with Jacobs daughter; † which thing ought not to be done.

‡ Or, villany.

† Heb. and it shall not be so done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye ‡ marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

‡ Or, affinity.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade you therein, and get you possessions thereon.

11 And Shechem said unto her father, and unto her brethren, ‡ Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give ‡ Or, grant my requests.

12 † Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

† Heb. multiply greatly the dowry.

13 ¶ And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and said, (because he had defiled Dinah their sister)

14 And they said unto them, [c] We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised: for that were a [d] reproach unto us.

c They made the holy ordinance of God, a means to compass their wicked purpose.
d As it is abomination for them that are baptized to joyn with infidels.

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be [e] circumcised;

e Their fault is the greater, in that they make religion, a cloak for their craft.

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamors son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacobs daughter: and he was more honourable then all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the [f] gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, f For the people used to assemble there, and justice was also ministred.

21 These men are [g] peaceable with us, therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them: let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

g Thus many pretend to speak for a publick profit when they onely speak for their own private gain and commodity.

22 Onely herein will the men consent unto us, for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

h Thus they lack no kind of perswasion, which prefer their own commodities before the common wealth.

23 Shall not [h] their cattel, and their substance, and every beast of theirs be ours? onely let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkned all that went out of the gate of his city: and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, [i] Simeon and Levi, Dinahs brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and * slew [k] all the males.

i For they were the chief of the company.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the † edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechems house, and went out.

27 ¶ The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 ¶ And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me to make me to ‡ stink among the inhabitants of the land, amongst the Canaanites, and the Perizzites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me, and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

‡ Or, to be abhorred.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister, as with an harlot?

1 God sendeth Jacob to Beth-el. 2 He purgeth his house of idols. 6 He buildeth an altar at Beth-el. 8 Deborah dieth at Allon-bachuth. 9 God blesseth Jacob at Beth-el. 16 Rachel travaileth of Benjamin, and dieth the way to Edar. 22 Reuben lieth with Bilhah. 23 The sons of Jacob. 27 Jacob cometh to Isaac at Hebron. 28 The age, death, and burial of Isaac.

AND [a] God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee * when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

a God is ever at hand to succour his in their troubles.
* Chap. 27. 43.

2 ¶ Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be [b] clean, and change your garments:

b That by this outward act they should shew their inward repentance.

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their [c] ear-rings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

c For therein was some sign of superstition, as in tablets and Agnus Dei's.

5 And they journeyed: and the [d] terrour of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

d Thus notwithstanding the inconvenience that came before, God delivered Jacob.

6 ¶ So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan (that is Beth-el) he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an altar, and * called the

the place El-beth-el: because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 ¶ But Deborah Rebekahs nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el, under an oak: & the name of it was called ‡ Allon-bachuth.

‡ Or, Oak of lamentation.

9 ¶ And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram; and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, * but Israel shall be thy name; and he called his name Israel.

* Chap. 32.28.

‡ Or, All-sufficient.

11 And God said unto him, I am God ‡ Almighty; be fruitful and multiply, a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee: and kings shall come out of thy loyns.

12 And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

e As God is said to descend, when he sheweth some sign of his presence: so he is said to ascend when the vision is ended.

13 And God [e] went up from him, in the place where he talked with him.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink-offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.

16 ¶ And they journeyed from Beth-el: and there was but [f] a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

f The Hebrew word signifieth, as much ground as one may go from bait to bait, which is taken for half a days journy.

17 And it came to pass when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son also.

18 And it came to pass as her soul was in departing (for she died) that she called his name * Benoni: but his father called him Benjamin.

* Chap. 48.7.

19 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem.

g The ancient fathers used this ceremony to testimony their hope of the resurrection to come, which was not generally revailed.

20 And Jacob set a [g] pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachels grave unto this day.

21 And Israel journeyed and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar.

h This teacheth that the fathers were not chosen for their merits, but by Gods onely mercies, whose election by their faults was nor changed.

22 ¶ And it came to pass when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and [h] * lay with Bilhah his fathers concubine: and Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve.

* Chap. 49.4.

23 ¶ The sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacobs first-born, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun.

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin.

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachels handmaid; Dan, and Naphtali.

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leahs handmaid; Gad, and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram

27 ¶ And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto the city of Arbah (which is Hebron) where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 ¶ And the days of Isaac were an hundred and foureſcore years.

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost and died, and * was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days: and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

a This genealogy declareth that Esau was blessed temporally, and that his fathers blessing took place in wordly things.

c Herein appeareth Gods providence, which caused the wicked to give place to the godly, that Jacob might enjoy Canaan according to Gods promise.

7 For their riches were more then that they might dwell together: and the land wherein they were strangers, could not bear them, because of their cattel.

AND Jacob dwelt in the land † wherein his father was a ſtranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 ¶ Theſe are the [a] generations of Jacob; Joſeph being ſeventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren, and the lad was with the ſons of Bilhah, and with the ſons of Zilpah, his fathers wives: and Joſeph brought unto his father their [b] evil report.

a That is, the ſtory of ſuch things as came to him and his family, as chap. 5. 1.

b He complained of the evil words and injuries which they ſpake and did againſt him.

3 Now Iſrael loved Joſeph more then all his children, becauſe he was the ſon of his old age: and he made him a coat of many ‡ colours.

‡ Or, pieces.

4 And when his brethren ſaw that their father loved him more then all his brethren, they hated him, and could not ſpeak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Joſeph [c] dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet they more.

c God reveiled to him by a dream what ſhould come to paſs.

6 And he ſaid unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed.

7 For behold, we were binding ſheaves in the field, and lo, my ſheaf aroſe, and alſo ſtood upright; and behold, your ſheaves ſtood round about, and made obeiſance to my ſheaf.

8 And his brethren ſaid unto him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or ſhalt thou indeed have dominion over us? and they [d] hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

d The more that God ſheweth himſelf favourable to his, the more doth the malice of the wicked rage againſt them.

9 And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and ſaid, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more, and behold, the ſun and the moon, and the eleven ſtars made obeiſance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father [e] rebuked him, and ſaid unto him, What is this dream that thou haſt dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bowe down our ſelves to thee, to the earth?

e Not deſpiſing the viſion, but ſeeking to appeaſe his brethren.

11 And his brethren envied him: but his father [f] obſerved the ſaying.

f He knew that God was author of the dream, but he underſtood not the meaning.

12 And his brethren went to feed their fathers flock in Shechem.

13 ¶ And Iſrael ſaid unto Joſeph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will ſend thee unto them. And he ſaid unto him, Here am I.

14 And he ſaid to him, Go, I pray thee, † ſee whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again So he ſent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

17 And the man ſaid, They are departed hence: for I heard them ſay, Let us go to Dothan. And Joſeph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they ſaw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they [g] conſpired againſt him, to ſlay him.

22 And Reuben ſaid unto them, Shed no blood, but caſt him into this pit that is in the wilderneſs, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 ¶ And it came to paſs when Joſeph was come unto his brethren, that they ſtript Joſeph out of his coat, his coat of many colours that was on him.

h Their hypocriſy appeareth in this, that they feared man more then God, and thought it was not murther, if they ſhed not his blood: or els had an excuſe to cover their fault.

24 And they took him, & caſt [h] him into a pit: & the pit was empty, there was no water in it

25 And they ſat down to eat bread: and they lift up their eyes and looked, and behold, a company of Iſhmaelites came from Gilead, with their camels bearing ſpicery, and ‡ balm, and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

31 And they took Joſephs coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Judah begetteth Er, Onan, and Shelah. 6 Er marrieth Tamar. 8 The treſpaſs of Onan. 11 Tamar ſtayeth for Shelah: 13 ſhe deceiveth Judah; 27 ſhe beareth twins, Pharez and Zarah.

AND it came to paſs at that time, that [a] Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whoſe name was Hirah.

a Moſes deſcribeth the genealogy of Judah, becauſe the Meſſiah ſhould come of him.

2 And Judah ſaw there a daughter of a certain [b] Canaanite, whoſe name was * Shuah, and he took her, and went in unto her:

b Which affinity notwithſtanding was condemned of God.

* 1 Chron. 2.3.

3 And ſhe conceived and bare a ſon; and he called his name Er.

4 * And ſhe conceived again, and bare a ſon; and ſhe called his name Onan.

* Num. 26.19.

5 And ſhe yet again conceived, and bare a ſon; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when ſhe bare him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firſt-born, whoſe name was Tamar.

7 And * Er, Judahs firſt-born, was wicked in the ſight of the LORD; and the LORD ſlew him.

* Num. 26.19.

8 And Judah ſaid unto Onan, Go in unto thy brothers wife, and marry her, and raiſe up [c] ſeed to thy brother.

c This order was for the preſervation of the ſtock, that the child begotten by the ſecond brother, ſhould have the name and inheritance of the firſt, which is in the New Teſtament aboliſhed.

9 And Onan knew that the ſeed ſhould not be his: and it came to paſs, when he went in unto his brothers wife, that he ſpilled it on the ground, leſt that he ſhould give ſeed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did, diſpleaſed the LORD: wherefore he ſlew him alſo.

11 Then ſaid Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, [d] Remain a widow at thy fathers houſe, till Shelah my ſon be grown; (for he ſaid, Leſt peradventure he die alſo as his brethren did) & Tamar went and dwelt in his fathers houſe.

d For ſhe could not marry in any other family, ſo long as Judah would retain her in his.

12 ¶ And in proceſs of time, the daughter of Shuah Judahs wife died: and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his ſheep-ſhearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, ſaying, Behold, thy father in law goeth up to Timnath, to ſhear his ſheep.

14 And ſhe put her widows garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped her ſelf, and ſat in ‡ an open place, which is by the way to Timnath: for ſhe ſaw that Shelah was grown, and ſhe was not given unto him to wife.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and ſaid, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee (for he [e] knew not that ſhe was his daughter in law) and ſhe ſaid, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayeſt come in unto me?

17 And he ſaid, I will ſend thee † a kid from the flock: and ſhe ſaid, Wilt thou give me a pledge till thou ſend it?

18 And he ſaid, What pledge ſhall I give thee? And ſhe ſaid, Thy ſignet, and thy bracelets, and thy ſtaff that is in thine hand: and he gave it her, and came in unto her, and ſhe conceived by him.

19 And ſhe aroſe and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah ſent the kid by the hand of his [f] friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the womans hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, ſaying, Where is the harlot, that was ‡ openly by the way-ſide? And they ſaid, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, and ſaid, I cannot find her; and alſo the men of the place ſaid, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah ſaid, Let her take it to her, leſt we † [g] be ſhamed: behold, I ſent this kid, and thou haſt not found her.

24 ¶ And it came to paſs about three moneths after, that it was told Judah, ſaying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot; and alſo behold, ſhe is with child by whoredom: and Judah ſaid, Bring her forth, and let her be [h] burnt.

25 When ſhe was brought forth, ſhe ſent to her father in law, ſaying, By the man whoſe theſe are, am I with child: and ſhe ſaid, Diſcern, I pray thee, whoſe are theſe, the ſignet, and bracelets, and ſtaff.

26 And Judah acknowledged them, and ſaid, [i] She hath been more righteous then I; becauſe that I gave her not to Shelah my ſon: and he knew her again [k] no more.

27 ¶ And it came to paſs in the time of her travail, that behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to paſs when ſhe travailed, that the one put out his hand; and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a ſcarlet thred, ſaying, This came out firſt.

29 And it came to paſs as he [l] drew back his hand, that behold, his brother came out; and ſhe ſaid, ‡ How haſt [m] thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name Was called "* Pharez.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Joſeph advanced in Potiphars houſe. 7 He reſiſteth his miſtreſſes temptation. 13 He is falſly accuſed. 19 He is caſt in to priſon. 21 God is with him there.

AND Joſeph was brought down to Egypt, and Potiphar [a] an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Iſhmaelites, which had brought him down thither.

a Read Chap. 37. 36.

2 And the [b] LORD was with Joſeph, and he was a proſperous man: and he was in the houſe of his maſter the Egyptian.

b The favour of God is the fountain of all proſperity.

3 And his maſter ſaw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to proſper in his hand.

4 And Joſeph found grace in his ſight, and he ſerved him: and he made him [c] overſeer over his houſe, and all that he had he put into his hand.

c Becauſe God proſpered him: and ſo he made religion to ſerve his profit.

5 And it came to paſs from the time that he had made him overſeer in his houſe, and over all that he had, that the LORD [d] bleſſed the Egyptians houſe for Joſephs ſake: and the bleſſing of the LORD was upon all that he had, in the houſe, and in the field.

d The wicked are bleſſed by the company of the godly.

6 And he left all that he had in Joſephs hand; and he [e] knew not ought he had, ſave the bread which he did eat: and Joſeph was a goodly perſon, and well-favoured.

e For he was aſſured that all things ſhould proſper well: therefore he eat and drank, and took no care.

7 ¶ And it came to paſs after theſe things, that his maſters wife caſt her eyes upon Joſeph; and ſhe ſaid, [f] Lie with me.

f In this word, he declareth the ſum whereunto all her flatteries did tend.

8 But he refuſed, and ſaid unto his maſters wife, Behold, my maſter woteth not what is with me in the houſe, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand.

9 There is none greater in this houſe then I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me, but thee; becauſe thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedneſs, and ſin againſt [g] God?

g The fear of God preſerved him againſt her continual tentations.

10 And it came to paſs as ſhe ſpake to Joſeph day by day, that he hearkned not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to paſs about this time, that Joſeph went into the houſe to do his buſineſs; and there was none of the men of the houſe there within.

12 And ſhe caught him by his garment, ſaying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

13 ¶ And it came to paſs, when ſhe ſaw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth, 14 That ſhe called unto the men of her houſe, and ſpake unto them, ſaying, See, he hath brought in a Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I [h] cried with a † loud voice.

h This declareth, that where incontinency is, thereunto is joyned extream impudency and craft.

† Heb. great.

15 And it came to paſs, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.

16 And ſhe laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home.

17 And ſhe ſpake unto him according to theſe words, ſaying, The Hebrew ſervant, which thou haſt brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me.

18 And it came to paſs, as I lift up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 ¶ And

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled.

20 And Josephs master took him, and put him into the [i] prison, a place where the kings prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

i His evil intreatment in the prison may be gathered out of *Psal.*105.18.

21 ¶ But the LORD was with Joseph, and † shewed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

† Heb. extended kindness unto him.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Josephs hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and [k] whatsoever they did there he was the doer of it.

k That is, nothing was done without his commandment.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him: and that which he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

CHAP. XL.

1 The butler and baker of Pharaoh in prison. 4 Joseph hath charge of them. 5 He interpreteth their dreams. 20 They come to pass according to his interpretation. 23 The ingratitude of the butler.

AND it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where [a] Joseph was bound.

a God worketh many wonderful means to deliver his.

4 ¶ And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them; and they continued a season in ward.

5 ¶ And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, [b] each man according to the interpretation of his dream; the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

b That is, every dream had his interpretation, as the thing afterward declared.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and behold they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaohs officers that were with him in the ward of his lords house, saying, Wherefore † look ye so sadly to day?

† Heb. are your faces evil?

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to [c] God? tell me them, I pray you.

c Cannot God raise up such as shall interpret such things?

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said unto him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me:

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes.

11 And Pharaohs cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, & pressed them into Pharaohs cup: and I gave the cup into Pharaohs hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This [d] is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days;

d He was assured by the Spirit of God, that his interpretation was true.

13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh ‡ lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaohs cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler. 35

‡ Or, reckon.

14 But † think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me; and [e] make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house.

† Heb. remember me with thee.

e He refused not the meanes to be delivered, which he thought God had appointed.

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good; he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream; and behold, I had three ‡ [f] white baskets on my head.

‡ Or, full of holes.
f That is, made of white twigs, or, as some read, baskets full of holes.

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of † bake-meats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

† Heb. meat of Pharaoh, the work of a baker, or, cook.

18 And Joseph answered, and said, [g] This is the interpretation thereof: the three baskets are three days.

g He sheweth that the ministers of God ought not to conceil that which God reveileth unto them.

19 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaohs [h] birth-day, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he ‡ lifted up the head of the chief butler, and of the chief baker among his servants.

h which was an occasion to appoint his officers, and so to examine them that were in prison.

‡ Or, reckoned.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butler-ship again; and he gave the cup into Pharaohs hand:

22 But he hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgat him.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Pharaohs two dreams. 9 Joseph interpreteth them. 33 He giveth Pharaoh counsel. 38 Joseph is advanced. 50 He begetteth Manasseh and Ephraim. 54 The famine beginneth.

AND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh [a] dreamed, and behold, he stood by the river.

a This dream was not so much for Pharaoh, as to be a mean to deliver Joseph, and to provide for Gods church.

2 And behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favoured kine, and fat-fleshed; and they fed in a medow.

3 And behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill-favoured, and lean-fleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill-favoured and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the [b] second time: and behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, † rank and good.

b All these means God useth to deliver his servant, and to bring him into favour and authority.

† Heb. fat.

6 And behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east-wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven

36 ſeven rank and full ears; and Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to paſs in the morning, that his ſpirit was [c] troubled; and he ſent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wiſe-men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream: but there was [d] none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

c This fear was enough to teach him, that this viſion was ſent of God.

d The wiſe of the world underſtand not Gods ſecrets, but to his ſervants his will is revealed.

9 ¶ Then ſpake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, ſaying, I [e] do remember my faults this day.

e He confeſſeth his fault againſt the king, before he ſpeaks of Joſeph.

10 Pharaoh was wroth with his ſervants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guards houſe, both me, and the chief baker.

11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he: we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, ſervant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he * interpreted to us our dreams, to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

* Chap. 40. 12. &c.

13 And it came to paſs, as he interpreted to us, ſo it was: me he reſtored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 ¶ * Then Pharaoh ſent and [f] called Joſeph, and they †brought him haſtily out of the dungeon: And he ſhaved himſelf, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

* Pſal. 105. 20.

f The wicked ſeek to the prophets of God in their neceſſity, whom in their proſperity they abhor.

† Heb. made him run.

15 And Pharaoh ſaid unto Joſeph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard ſay of thee, that ‡ thou canſt underſtand a dream, to interpret it.

‡ Or, when thou heareſt a dream, thou canſt interpret it.

16 And Joſeph anſwered Pharaoh, ſaying, It is not in me: [g] God ſhall give Pharaoh an anſwer of peace.

g As though he would ſay, if I interpret thy dream, it cometh of God, and not of me.

17 And Pharaoh ſaid unto Joſeph, In my dream, behold, I ſtood upon the bank of the river.

18 And behold, there came up out of the river ſeven kine, fat fleſhed and well-favoured; and they fed in a medow.

19 And behold, ſeven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill-favoured, and lean-fleſhed, ſuch as I never ſaw in all the land of Egypt for badneſs.

20 And the lean and the ill-favoured kine did eat up the firſt ſeven fat kine.

21 And when they had †eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were ſtill ill-favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

† Heb. come to the inward parts of them.

22 And I ſaw in my dream, and behold, ſeven ears came up in one ſtalk, full and good.

23 And behold, ſeven ears, ‡ withered, thin, and blaſted with the eaſt-wind, ſprung up after them.

‡ Or, ſmall.

24 And the thin ears devoured the ſeven good ears: and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it unto me.

25 ¶ And Joſeph ſaid unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is [h] one: God hath ſhewed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

h Both his dreams tend to one end.

26 The ſeven good kine are ſeven years; and ſeven good ears are ſeven years: the dream is one.

27 And the ſeven thin and ill-favoured kine that came up after them, are ſeven years; and the ſeven empty ears, blaſted with the eaſt-wind, ſhall be ſeven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have ſpoken unto Pharaoh: what God is about to do, he ſheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come ſeven years of great plenty, throughout all the land of Egypt.

30 And there ſhall ariſe after them ſeven years of famine, and all the plenty ſhall be forgotten in the land of Egypt: and the famine ſhall conſume the land.

31 And the plenty ſhall not be known in the land, by reaſon of that famine following: for it ſhall be very † grievous.

† Heb. heavy.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is becauſe the thing is ‡ eſtabliſhed by God, and God will ſhortly bring it to paſs.

‡ Or, prepared of God.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh [i] look out a man diſcreet and wiſe, and ſet him over the land of Egypt.

i The office of a true Prophet is not onely to ſhew the evils to come, but alſo the remedies for the ſame.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint ‡ officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the ſeven plenteous years.

‡ Or, overſeers.

35 And let them gather all the food of thoſe good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food ſhall be for ſtore to the land, againſt the ſeven years of famine, which ſhall be in the land of Egypt; that the land †periſh not through the famine.

† Heb. be not cut off.

37 ¶ And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his ſervants.

38 And Pharaoh ſaid unto his ſervants, Can we find ſuch an one as this is, a man in whom the [k] ſpirit of God is?

k None ſhould be preferred to honour, that have not gifts of God meet for the ſame.

39 And Pharaoh ſaid unto Joſeph, Foraſmuch as God had ſheweth thee all this, there is none ſo diſcreet and wiſe as thou art.

40 * Thou ſhalt be over my houſe, and according unto thy [l] word ſhall all my people † be ruled: onely in the throne will I be greater then thou.

* Pſal. 105. 21. Acts 7. 10.

l Some read, the people ſhall kiſs thy mouth, that is, ſhall obey thee in all things.

† Heb. be armed; or, kiſs.

41 And Pharaoh ſaid unto Joſeph, See, I have ſet thee over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joſephs hand, and arrayed him in veſtures of ‡ fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck.

‡ Or, Silk.

43 And he made him to ride in the ſecond chariot which he had; and they cried before him, ‡ †[m] Bowe the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

‡ Or, tender father.

m In ſign of honour: ſome expound it, tender father, or father of the king, or kneel down.

44 And Pharaoh ſaid unto Joſeph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee ſhall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Joſephs name Zaphnath-paaneah; and he gave him to wife Aſenath

‡ Or, prince

Aſenath the daughter of Poti-pherah ‡ prieſt of On: and Joſeph went out over all the land of Egypt.

n His age is mentioned both to ſhew that his authority came of God, and alſo that he ſuffered impriſonment, and exile twelve years and more.

46 And Joſeph was [n] thirty years old when he ſtood before Pharaoh king of Egypt: And Joſeph went out from the preſence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the ſeven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfulls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the ſeven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field which was round about every city, laid he up in the ſame.

49 And Joſeph gathered corn as the ſand of the ſea, very much, until he left numbring: for it was without number.

* Chap. 46. 20. & 48. 5.

‡ Or, prince.

50 ¶ * And unto Joſeph were born two ſons, before the years of famine came: which Aſenath, the daughter of Poti-pherah ‡ prieſt of On, bare unto him.

" That is, forgetting.

51 And Joſeph called the name of the firſtborn " Manaſſeh: for God, ſaid he, hath made me forget all my toil, & all my [o] fathers houſe.

o Notwithſtanding that his fathers houſe was the true church of God: yet the company of the wicked, and proſperity cauſed him to forget it.

" That is, fruitful.

Pſal. 105. 16.

52 And the name of the ſecond called he " Ephraim: for God hath cauſed me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ And the ſeven years of plenteouſneſs that was in the land of Egypt were ended.

54 ¶ * And the ſeven years of dearth began to come, according as Joſeph had ſaid: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famiſhed, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: And Pharaoh ſaid unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joſeph; what he ſaith to you, do.

† Heb. all wherein was.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Joſeph opened † all the ſtorehouſes, and ſold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed ſore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countrys came into Egypt to Joſeph for to buy corn; becauſe that the famine was ſo ſore in all lands.

Chap. XLII.

1 Jacob ſendeth his ten ſons to buy corn in Egypt. 6 They are impriſoned by Joſeph for ſpies. 18 They are ſet at liberty, on condition to bring Benjamin. 21 They have remorſe for Joſeph. 24 Simeon is kept for a pledg. 25 They return with corn, and their mony. 29 Their relation to Jacob. 36 Jacob refuſeth to ſend Benjamin.

* Act. 7. 12.

NOw when * [a] Jacob ſaw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob ſaid unto his ſons, Why [b] do ye look one upon another?

a This ſtory ſheweth plainly, that all things are governed by Gods providence for the profit of his church.

b As men deſtitute of counſel.

2 And he ſaid, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may live, and not die.

3 And Joſephs ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, Joſephs brother, Jacob ſent not with his brethren: for he ſaid, Leſt peradventure miſchief befall him.

5 And the ſons of Iſrael came to buy corn among thoſe that came: for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

6 ¶ And Joſeph was the governour over the land, and he it was that ſold to all the people of the land: and Joſephs brethren came, and bowed down themſelves before him, with their faces to the earth.

c This diſſembling is not to be followed, nor any particular facts of the fathers, not approved by Gods word.

† Heb. hard things with them.

7 And Joſeph ſaw his brethren, and he knew them, but [c] made himſelf ſtrange unto them, and ſpake † roughly unto them; and he ſaid unto them, Whence come ye? And they ſaid, From the land of Canaan to buy food.

8 And Joſeph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

* Chap. 37. 5.

9 And Joſeph * remembred the dreams which he dreamed of them, and ſaid unto them, Ye are ſpies; to ſee the nakedneſs of the land you are come.

10 And they ſaid unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy ſervants come.

11 We are all one mans ſons: we are true men, thy ſervants are no ſpies.

12 And he ſaid unto them, Nay, but to ſee the nakedneſs of the land you are come.

13 And they ſaid, Thy ſervants are twelve brethren, the ſons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngeſt is this day with our father, and one is not.

14 And Joſeph ſaid unto them, That is it that I ſpake unto you, ſaying, Ye are ſpies.

d The Egyptians which were Idolaters, uſed to ſwear by their kings lifes: but God forbiddeth to ſwear by any but him: yet Joſeph dwelling among the wicked, ſmelleth of their corruptions 15 Hereby ye ſhall be proved: [d] by the life of Pharaoh ye ſhall not go forth hence, except your youngeſt brother come hither.

† Heb. bound.

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye ſhall be † kept in priſon, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or els by the life of Pharaoh ſurely ye are ſpies.

† Heb. gathered.

17 And he † put them all together into ward, three days.

e And therefore am true and juſt.

18 ¶ And Joſeph ſaid unto them the third day, This do, and live: for I [e] fear God.

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the houſe of your priſon: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houſes.

* Chap. 43. 5.

20 But * bring your youngeſt brother unto me; ſo ſhall your words be verified, and ye ſhall not die. And they did ſo.

f Affliction maketh men to acknowledge their faults, which otherwiſe they would diſſemble.

21 ¶ And they ſaid one to another, [f] We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we ſaw the anguiſh of his ſoul, when he beſought us; and we would not hear: therefore is this diſtreſs come upon us.

* Chap. 37. 21.

22 And Reuben anſwered them, ſaying, * Spake I not unto you, ſaying, Do not ſin againſt the child; and ye would not hear? therefore behold alſo, his [g] blood is required.

g God will take vengeance upon us, and meaſure us with our own meaſure.

† Heb. an interpreter was between them.

23 And they knew not that Joſeph underſtood them; for † he ſpake unto them by an interpreter.

h Though he ſhewed himſelf rigorous yet his brotherly affection remained.

24 ¶ And he turned himſelf about from them, and [h] wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ Then Joſeph commanded to fill their 38 sacks with corn, and to restore every mans mony into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them.

26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his mony: for behold, it was in his sacks mouth.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My mony is restored; and lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart † failed them, and they were [a] afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

† Heb. went forth.

[a] Because their conscience accused them of their sin, they thought God would have brought them to trouble by this mony.

29 ¶ And they came unto Jacob their father, unto the land of Canaan: and told him all that befell unto them, saying,

30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake † roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

† Heb. with us hard things.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies.

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father: one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man the lord of the country said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone.

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that you are no spies, but that you are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffick in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that behold, every mans bundle of mony was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 ¶ And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against [k] me.

[k] For they seemed not to be touched with any love toward their brethren, which increased his sorrow: and partly, he suspected them for Joseph.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you: for his brother is dead, and he is left alone; if mischief befal him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

Chap. XLIII.

1 Jacob is hardly perswaded to send Benjamin. 15 Joseph entertaineth his brethren. 31 He maketh them a feast.

[a] This was a great tentation to Jacob to suffer so great famine in that land where God had promised to bless him.

AND the [a] famine was sore in the land.

2 And it came to pass when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man † did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your * brother be with you.

† Heb. protesting protested.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man † asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the † tenour of these words: † Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

29 And he lift up his eyes, and ſaw his brother Benjamin, his [g] mothers ſon, and ſaid, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye ſpake unto me? And he ſaid, God be gracious unto thee, my ſon.

1 Joſephs policy to ſtay his brethren. 14 Judahs humble ſupplication to Joſeph.

AND he commanded † the ſteward of his houſe, ſaying, Fill the mens ſacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every mans mony in his ſacks mouth.

2 And [a] put my cup, the ſilver cup, in the ſacks mouth of the youngeſt, and his corn-mony: and he did according to the word that Joſeph had ſpoken.

3 Aſſoon as the morning was light, the men were ſent away, they and their aſſes.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joſeph ſaid unto his ſteward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou doſt overtake them, ſay unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it, in which my lord drinketh? and [b] whereby indeed he ‡ divineth? ye have done evil in ſo doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he ſpake unto them theſe ſame words.

7 And they ſaid unto him, Wherefore ſaith my lord theſe words? God forbid that thy ſervants ſhould do according to this thing.

8 Behold, the mony which we found in our ſacks mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then ſhould we ſteal out of thy lords houſe ſilver or gold?

9 With whom ſoever of thy ſervants it be found, both let him die, and we alſo will be my lords bond-men.

10 And he ſaid, Now alſo let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found ſhall be my ſervant; and ye ſhall be blameleſs.

11 Then they ſpeedily took down every man his ſack to the ground, and opened every man his ſack.

12 And he ſearched, and began at the eldeſt, and left at the youngeſt: and the cup was found in Benjamins ſack.

13 Then they [c] rent their clothes, and laded every man his aſs, and returned to the city.

14 ¶ And Judah and his brethren came to Joſephs houſe (for he was yet there) and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joſeph ſaid unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not, that ſuch a man as I can certainly ‡ divine?

16 And Judah ſaid, What ſhall we ſay unto my lord? what ſhall we ſpeak? or how ſhall we clear our ſelves? [d] God hath found out the iniquity of thy ſervants: behold, we are my lords ſervants, both we, and he alſo with whom the cup is found.

17 And he ſaid, God forbid that I ſhould do ſo: but the man, in whoſe hand the cup is found, he ſhall be my ſervant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 Then Judah came near unto him, and ſaid, Oh my lord, let thy ſervant, I pray thee, ſpeak a word in my lords ears, and let not thine anger burn againſt thy ſervant: for thou art even [e] as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his ſervants, ſaying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we ſaid unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one: and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou ſaideſt unto thy ſervants, Bring him down unto me, that I may ſet mine eyes upon him.

1 Joſeph preſenteth five of his brethren, 7 and his father before Pharaoh. 11 He giveth them habitation and maintenance. 13 He getteth all the Egyptians mony, 16 their cattel, 18 their lands to Pharaoh. 22 The prieſts land was not bought. 23 He letteth the land to them for a fifth part. 28 Jacobs age: 29 He ſweareth Joſeph to bury him with his fathers.

THen Joſeph came and told Pharaoh, and ſaid, My father, and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goſhen.

2 And he took ſome of his brethren, even [a] five men, and preſented them unto Pharaoh.

a That the king might be aſſured they were come, and ſee what manner of people they were.

3 And Pharaoh ſaid unto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they ſaid unto Pharaoh, Thy ſervants are ſhepherds, both we and alſo our fathers.

4 They ſaid moreover unto Pharaoh, For to ſojourn in the land are we come: for thy ſervants have no paſture for their flocks; for the famine is ſore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy ſervants dwell in the land of Goſhen.

5 And Pharaoh ſpake unto Joſeph, ſaying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

b Joſephs great modeſty appeareth, in that he would enterpriſe nothing without the kings commandment.

6 The [b] land of Egypt is before thee; in the beſt of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell, in the land of Goſhen let them dwell: and if thou knoweſt any man of activity amongſt them, then make them rulers over my cattel.

10 And Jacob bleſſed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 ¶ And Joſeph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a poſſeſſion in the land of Egypt, in the beſt of the land, in the land of [c] Rameſes, as Pharaoh had commanded.

c which was a city in the country of Goſhen, Exod. 1.11.

15 And when mony failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joſeph, and ſaid, Give us bread: for why ſhould we die in thy preſence? for the mony faileth.

16 ¶ And Joſeph ſaid, Give your cattel; and I will give you for your cattel, if mony fail.

17 And they brought their cattel unto Joſeph: and Joſeph gave them bread in exchange for horſes, and for the flocks, and for the cattel of the herds, and for the aſſes; and he † fed them with bread, for all their cattel, for that year.

19 Wherefore ſhall we die before thine eyes, both we and our [f] land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be ſervants unto Pharaoh: and give us ſeed, that we may live and not die, that the land be not deſolate.

f For except the ground be tilled and ſown, it periſheth, and is as it were dead.

20 And Joſeph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians ſold every man his field, becauſe the famine prevailed over them: ſo the land became Pharaohs.

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED EXODUS.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Jacob by Gods commandment Genes. 46. 3. had brought his family into Egypt, where they remained for the space of four hundred years; and of seventy persons grew to an infinite number, so that the king and the countrey grudged and endeavoured both by tyranny and cruel slavery to suppress them: The Lord according to his promise Genes. 15. 14 had compassion of his church, and delivered them; but plagued their enemies in most strange and sundry sorts: And the more that the tyranny of the wicked raged against his church, the more did his heavy judgments increase against them, till Pharaoh and his army were drowned in the red sea, which gave an entry and passage to the children of God. But as the ingratitude of man is great, so did they immediatly forget Gods wonderful benefits: And albeit he had given them the Passover to be a sign and memorial of the same; yet they fell to distrust, and tempted God with sundry murmurings and grudgings against him and his ministers: Sometime moved with ambition, sometime for lack of drink or meat to content their lusts, sometime by idolatry, or such like: Wherefore God visited them with sharp rods and plagues, that by his corrections they might seek to him for remedy against his scourges, and earnestly repent them for their rebellions and wickedness. And because God loveth them to the end, whom he hath once begun to love, he punished them not according to their deserts; but dealt with them in great mercies, and ever with new benefits laboured to overcome their malice: for he still governed them, and gave them his word and law, both concerning the manner of serving him, and also the form of judgments and civil policy: to the intent that they should not serve God after their own inventions, but according to that order which his heavenly wisedom had appointed.

7 * And the children of Iſrael were fruitful, and increaſed abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the b land was filled with them.

b He meaneth the country of Goſhen.

8 ¶ Now there aroſe up a new king over Egypt, which c knew not Joſeph.

c He conſidered not how God had preſerved Egypt for Joſephs ſake.

9 And he ſaid unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Iſrael are mo and mightier then we.

10 Come on, let us deal wiſely with them: leſt they multiply, and it come to paſs, that when there falleth out any war, they joyn alſo unto our enemies, and fight againſt us, and ſo get them up d out of the land.

d Into Canaan, and ſo we ſhall loſe our commodity.

11 Therefore they did ſet over them taskmaſters, to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treaſure-cities, Pithom and Raamſes.

† Heb. And as they afflicted them, ſo they multiplied, &c.
e The more that God bleſſeth his, the more doth the wicked envy them.

12 † But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And e they were grieved becauſe of the children of Iſrael.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Iſrael to ſerve with rigour.

14 And they made their lives bitter, with hard bondage, in morter, and in brick, and in all manner of ſervice in the field: all their ſervice, wherein they made them ſerve, was with rigour.

15 And the king of Egypt ſpake to the Hebrew midwives (of which the name of one f was Shiphrah, & the name of the other Puah) f Theſe ſeem to have been the chief of the reſt.

16 And he ſaid, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and ſee them upon the ſtools: if it be a ſon, then ye ſhall kill him; but if it be a daughter, then ſhe ſhall live.

17 But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but ſaved the men-children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and ſaid unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have ſaved the men-children alive?

g Their diſobedience herein was lawful, but their diſſembling evil.

19 And the midwives ſaid unto Pharaoh, Becauſe the g Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women: for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

21 And it came to paſs, becauſe the midwives feared God, that he h made them houſes.

CHAP. III.

1 Moſes keepeth Jethro's flock. 2 God appeareth to him in a burning buſh. 9 He ſendeth him to deliver Iſrael. 14 The name of God. 15 His meſſage to Iſrael

NOw Moſes kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the prieſt of Midian: and he led the flock to the back-ſide of the deſert, and came to the a mountain of God, even to b Horeb.

a It was ſo called after the law was given.
b Called alſo Sinai.

2 ¶ And the Angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midſt of a c buſh: and he looked, and behold, the buſh burned with fire, and the buſh was not conſumed.

* Acts. 7. 30.

c This ſignifieth that the church is not conſumed by the fire of afflictians, becauſe God is in the midſt thereof.

3 And Moſes ſaid, I will now turn aſide, and ſee this great ſight, why the buſh is not burnt.

4 And when the d LORD ſaw that he turned aſide to ſee, God called unto him out of the midſt of the buſh, and ſaid, Moſes, Moſes. And he ſaid, Here am I.

d whom he called the Angel, verſe 2.

5 And he ſaid, Draw not nigh hither: e put off thy ſhoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou ſtandeſt, is f holy ground.

e Reſign thy ſelf up to me, Ruth. 4. 7. Joſ. 5. 15.
f Becauſe of my preſence.

6 Moreover he ſaid, * I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moſes hid his face: for he was g afraid to look upon God.

* Matth. 22. 32. Acts. 7. 32.

g For ſin cauſeth man to fear Gods juſtice.

7 ¶ And the LORD ſaid, I have ſurely ſeen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry, by reaſon of their h task-maſters: for I know their ſorrows.

h whoſe cruelty was intollerable.

8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land: unto a good land and a large, unto a land i flowing with milk and hony; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebuſites.

i Moſt plentiful of all things.

9 ¶ k Now therefore behold, the cry of the children of Iſrael is come unto me: and I have alſo ſeen the oppreſſion wherewith the Egyptians oppreſs them.

k He heard before, but now he would revenge it.

10 Come now therefore, and I will ſend thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayeſt bring forth my people the children of Iſrael out of Egypt.

11 And Moſes ſaid unto God, Who am l I, that I ſhould go unto Pharaoh, and that I ſhould bring forth the children of Iſrael out of Egypt?

l He doth not fully diſobey God, but acknowledgeth his own weakneſs.

12 And he ſaid, m Certainly I will be with thee; and this ſhall be a token unto thee, that I have ſent thee: When thou haſt brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye ſhall ſerve God upon this mountain.

m Neither fear thine own weakneſs, nor Pharaohs tyranny.

13 And Moſes ſaid unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Iſrael, and ſhall ſay unto them, The God of your fathers hath ſent me unto you; and they ſhall ſay to me, What is his name? what ſhall I ſay unto them?

14 ¶ And God ſaid unto Moſes, I n AM THAT I AM: And he ſaid, Thus ſhalt thou ſay unto the children of Iſrael, I AM hath ſent me unto you.

n The God which hath ever been, am, and ſhall be: the God Almighty, by whom all things have their being, and the God of mercy, mindful of my promiſe; Revel. 1. 4.

15 ¶ And God ſaid moreover unto Moſes, Thus ſhalt thou ſay unto the children of Iſrael, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob, hath ſent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

16 Go and gather the elders of Iſrael together, and ſay unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Iſaac, and of Jacob appeared unto me, ſaying, I have ſurely viſited you, and ſeen that which is done to you in Egypt.

17 And I have ſaid, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt, unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebuſites, unto a land flowing with milk and hony.

18 And they ſhall hearken to thy voice: and thou ſhalt come, thou and the elders of Iſrael, unto the king of Egypt, and you ſhall ſay unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us; and now let us go

(we

48 (we beſeech thee) three days journy into the wilderneſs, that we may ° ſacrifice to the LORD our God.

o Becauſe Egypt was full of idolatry, God would appoint them a place where they ſhould ſerve him purely.

19 ¶ And I am ſure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, ‡ no, not by a mighty hand.

‡ Or, but by ſtrong hand.

20 And I will ſtretch out my hand, and ſmite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midſt thereof: and after that he will let you go.

21 And I will give this people favour in the ſight of the Egyptians: and it ſhall come to paſs, that when ye go, ye ſhall not go empty:

p This example may not be followed generally: though at Gods commandment they did it juſtly, receiving ſome recompenſe of their labours.

22 P * But every woman ſhall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that ſojourneth in her houſe, jewels of ſilver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye ſhall put them upon your ſons, and upon your daughters; and ye ſhall ſpoil ‡ the Egyptians.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Moſes's rod is turned into a ſerpent. 6 His hand is leprous. 10 He is loath to be ſent. 14 Aaron is appointed to aſſiſt him. 11 Moſes departeth from Jethro. 21 Gods meſſage to Pharaoh. 24 Zipporah circumciſeth her ſon. 27 Aaron is ſent to meet Moſes. 31 The people believeth them.

AND Moſes anſwered, and ſaid, But behold, [a] they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will ſay, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

a God beareth with Moſes doubting, becauſe he was not altogether without faith.

2 And the LORD ſaid unto him, What is that in thine hand? and he ſaid, A rod.

3 And he ſaid, Caſt it on the ground; and he caſt it on the ground, and it became a ſerpent: and Moſes fled from before it.

b This power to work miracles was to confirm his doctrine, and to aſſure him of his vocation.

4 And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, [b] Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand.

5 That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

6 ¶ And the LORD ſaid furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy boſom; and he put his hand into his boſom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as ſnow.

7 And he ſaid, Put thine hand into thy boſom again: and he put his hand into his boſom again, & plucked it out of his boſom, & behold, it was turned again as his other fleſh.

8 And it ſhall come to paſs, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the firſt ſign, that they will believe the voice of the latter ſign.

9 And it ſhall come to paſs, if they will not believe alſo theſe two ſigns, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou ſhalt take of the [c] water of the river, and pour it upon the dry-land, and the water, which thou takeſt out of the river, † ſhall become bloud upon the dry-land.

c Becauſe theſe three ſigns ſhould be ſufficient witneſs to prove that Moſes ſhould deliver Gods people.

† Heb. ſhall be, and ſhall be.

10 ¶ And Moſes ſaid unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not † eloquent, neither † heretofore, nor ſinee thou haſt ſpoken unto thy ſervant: but I am ſlow of ſpeech, and of a ſlow tongue.

† Heb. a man of words.

† Heb. ſince ye ſterday, nor ſince the third day.

11 And the LORD ſaid unto him, Who hath made mans mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the ſeeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be * with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou ſhalt ſay.

* Matth. 10. 19. Mark 13. 11. * Luke 12. 11.

d That is, of the Meſſiah: or ſome other that is more meet then I.

14 And the [e] anger of the LORD was kindled againſt Moſes, and he ſaid, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can ſpeak well. And alſo behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he ſeeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

e Though we provoke God juſtly to anger, yet he will never reject his.

15 And thou ſhalt ſpeak unto him, and put words [f] in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye ſhall do.

f Thou ſhalt inſtruct him what to ſay.

16 And he ſhall be thy ſpokeſman unto the people: and he ſhall be, even he ſhall be to thee in ſtead of a mouth, and * thou ſhalt be to him in ſtead of [g] God.

* Chap. 7. 1.

g Meaning, as a wiſe counſellour and full of Gods ſpirit.

17 And thou ſhalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou ſhalt do ſigns.

18 ¶ And Moſes went and returned to Jethro his father in law. and ſaid unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren, which are in Egypt, and ſee whether they be yet alive. And Jethro ſaid to Moſes, Go in peace.

19 And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which ſought thy life.

20 And Moſes took his wife, and his ſons, and ſet them upon an aſs, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moſes took the [h] rod of God in his hand.

h whereby he wrought the miracles.

21 And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, When thou goeſt to return into Egypt, ſee that thou do all thoſe wonders before Pharaoh which I have put in thine hand: but I will [i] harden his heart, that he ſhall not let the people go.

i By retaining my ſpirit, and delivering him unto Satan to increaſe his malice.

22 And thou ſhalt ſay unto Pharaoh, Thus ſaith the LORD, Iſrael is my ſon, even [k] my firſt-born.

k Meaning, moſt dear unto him.

23 And I ſay unto thee, Let my ſon go, that he may ſerve me: and if thou refuſe to let him go, behold, I will ſlay thy ſon, even thy firſt-born.

24 ¶ And it came paſs by the way in the inn, that the LORD met him, and [l] ſought to kill him.

l God puniſhed him with ſickneſs for neglecting his ſacrament.

25 Then [m] Zipporah took a ſharp ‡ ſtone, and cut off the fore-skin of her ſon, and † caſt it as his feet, and ſaid, Surely a bloudy huſband art thou to me.

m This act was extraordinary, for Moſes was ſore ſick, and God even then required it.

‡ Or, knife.

† Heb. made it touch.

26 So he let him go: then ſhe ſaid, A bloudy husband thou art, becauſe of the circumciſion.

27 ¶ And the LORD ſaid to Aaron, Go into the wilderneſs to meet Moſes. And he went and met him in the mount of God, and kiſſed him.

28 And Moſes told Aaron all the words of the the LORD, who had ſent him, and all the ſigns which he had commanded him.

29 ¶ And Moſes and Aaron went, and gathered together all the elders of the children of Iſrael.

30 And Aaron ſpake all the words which the LORD had ſpoken unto Moſes, and did the ſigns in the ſight of the people.

31 And the [n] people beleeved: and when they heard that the LORD had viſited the children of Iſrael, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worſhipped.

n So that Moſes had now experience of Gods promiſe, that he ſhould have good ſucceſs.

CHAP. V.

1 Pharaoh chideth Moſes and Aaron for their Meſſage. 5 He increaſeth the Iſraelites task. 15 He checketh their complaints. 19 They crie out upon Moſes and Aaron 22 Moſes complaineth to God.

AND afterward Moſes and Aaron went in, and told [a] Pharaoh, Thus ſaith the LORD God of Iſrael, Let my people, go that they may hold a [b] feaſt unto me in the wilderneſs.

a Faith overcometh fear, and maketh men bold in their vocation.
b And offer ſacrifice.

2 And Pharaoh ſaid, Who is the LORD, that I ſhould obey his voice to let Iſrael go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Iſrael go.

3 And they ſaid, [k] The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days journey into the deſert, and ſacrifice unto the LORD our God: leſt he fall upon us with peſtilence, or with the ſword.

k Chap. 3. 18.

4 And the king of Egypt ſaid unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moſes and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens.

5 And Pharaoh ſaid, Behold, the people of the land now are many, and you [c] make them reſt from their burdens.

c As though ye would rebel.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the ſame day the task-maſters of the people, and their [d] officers, ſaying.

d which were of the Iſraelites, and had charge to ſee them do their work.

7 Ye ſhall no more give the people ſtraw to made brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather ſtraw for themſelvs.

8 And the tale of the bricks which they did make heretofore, you ſhall lay upon them; you ſhall not diminiſh ought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they crie, ſaying, Let us go and ſacrifice to our God.

† Heb. let the work be heavie upon the men,

9 † Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may [e] labour therein: and let them not regard [f] vain words.

e The more cruelly that tyrants rage, the nearer is Gods help.
f Of Moſes and Aaron.

10 ¶ And the task-maſters of the people went out, and their officers, and they ſpake to the people, ſaying, Thus ſaith Pharaoh, I will not give you ſtraw.

11 Go ye, get you ſtraw where you can find it: yet not ought of your work ſhall be diminiſhed.

12 So the people were ſcattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, to gather ſtubble in ſtead of ſtraw.

13 And the task-maſters haſted them, ſaying, Fulfill your works, your † daily tasks, as when there was ſtraw.

† Heb. matter of a day in his day

14 And the officers of the children of Iſrael, which Pharaohs task-maſters had ſet over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick, both yeſterday and to day, as heretofore?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Iſrael came and cried unto Pharaoh, ſaying, Wherefore dealeſt thou thus with thy ſervants?

16 There is no ſtraw given unto thy ſervants, and they ſay to us, Make brick: and behold, thy ſervants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 And he ſaid, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye ſay, Let us go, and do ſacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now and work: for there ſhall no ſtraw be given you, yet ſhall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Iſrael did ſee that they were in evil caſe, after it was ſaid, Ye ſhall not miniſh ought from your bricks of your daily task.

20 ¶ And they met Moſes and Aaron, who ſtood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh.

21 And they ſaid unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; becauſe you have made our ſavour † to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his ſervants, to [g] put a ſword in their hand to ſlay us.

† Heb. to ſtink.

g It is a grievous thing to the ſervants of God, to be accuſed of evil, eſpecially of their brethren, when they do as their duty requireth

22 And Moſes returned unto the LORD, and ſaid, Lord, wherefore haſt thou ſo evil intreated this people? why is it that thou haſt ſent me?

23 For ſince I came to Pharaoh to ſpeak in thy name, he hath don evil to this people; † neither haſt thou delivered thy people at all,

1 God reneweth his promiſe by his name JEHOVAH. 14 The genealogie of Reuben, 15 of Simeon, 16 of Levi, of whom came Moſes and Aaron.

THEN the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Now ſhalt thou ſee what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a ſtrong hand ſhall he let them go, and with a ſtrong hand ſhall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God ſpake unto Moſes, and ſaid unto him, I am the LORD:

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Iſaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name [a] JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

a whereby he ſignifieth that he will perform indeed, that which he promiſed to their fathers for this name declareth that he is conſtant, and will perform his promiſe.

4 And I have alſo eſtabliſhed my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were ſtrangers.

5 And I have alſo heard the groaning of the children of Iſrael, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage: and I have remembred my covenant.

6 Wherefore ſay unto the children of Iſrael, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage: and I will redeem you with a ſtretched out arm, and with great judgements.

7 And I will [b] take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye ſhall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land concerning the which I did † ſwear to give it, to Abraham, to Iſaac, and to Jacob, and I will give it you for an heritage; I am the LORD.

9 ¶ And Moſes ſpake ſo unto the children of Iſrael; but they [c] hearkened not unto Moſes, for † anguiſh of ſpirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying.

11 Go in, ſpeak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Iſrael go out of his land.

12 And Moſes ſpake before the LORD, ſaying, Behold, the children of Iſrael have not hearkened unto me: how then ſhall Pharaoh hear me, who am of [d] uncircumciſed lips?

13 And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Iſrael, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Iſrael out of the land of Egypt.

14 ¶ Theſe be the [e] heads of their fathers houſes: The ſons of Reuben, the firſt-born of Iſrael; Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi: theſe be the families of Reuben.

18 And * the ſons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel: And the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years.

19 And the ſons of Merari; Mahali and Muſhi: theſe are the families of Levi, according to their generations.

20 And [k] Amram took him Jochebed his fathers [g] ſiſter to wife; and ſhe bare him Aaron & Moſes: and the years of the life of Amram were an hundred and thirtie and ſeven years.

21 ¶ And the ſons of Izhar; [h] Korah and Nepheg, and Zichri.

22 And the ſons of Uzziel; Miſhael, and Elzaphan, and Zithri.

23 And Aaron took him Eliſheba daughter of Amminadab, ſiſter of [i] Naaſhon, to wife; and ſhe bare him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

24 And the ſon of Korah; Aſſir, and Elkanah, and Abiaſaph: theſe are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Eleazar Aarons ſon took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and * ſhe bare him Phinchas: theſe are the heads of the fathers of the Levites, according to their families.

26 Theſe are that Aaron, and Moſes, to whom the LORD ſaid, Bring out the children of Iſrael from the land of Egypt, according to their [k] armies.

27 Theſe are they which ſpake to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Iſrael from Egypt: theſe are that Moſes & Aaron.

28 ¶ And it came to paſs on the day when the LORD ſpake unto Moſes in the land of Egypt.

29 That the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying, I am the LORD: ſpeak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I ſay unto thee.

3 And I will harden Pharaohs heart, and multiply my ſigns and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharaoh ſhall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Iſrael, out of the land of Egypt, by great [b] judgements.

5 And the Egyptians ſhall know, that I am the LORD, when I ſtretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Iſrael from among them.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, Go unto Pharaoh, and ſay unto him, Thus ſaith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may ſerve me.

a There is nothing ſo weak, that God cannot cauſe to overcome the greateſt power of man.

2 And if thou refuſe to let them go, behold, I will ſmite all thy borders with [a] frogs.

3 And the river ſhall bring forth frogs abundantly, which ſhall go up and come into thine houſe, and into thy bed-chamber, and upon thy bed, and into the houſe of thy ſervants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy ‡ kneading-troughs.

‡ Or, dough.

4 And the frogs ſhall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, & upon all thy ſervants.

5 And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the ſtreams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cauſe frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron ſtretched out his hand over the [b] waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

b But Goſhen, where Gods people dwelt, was excepted.

7 * And the magicians did ſo with their inchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

* Wiſd. 17. 7.

8 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moſes and Aaron, and ſaid, [c] Intreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people: and I will let the people go, that they may do ſacrifice unto the LORD.

c Not love, but fear cauſeth the very infidels to ſeek unto God.

9 And Moſes ſaid unto Pharaoh, ‡ Glory over me: ‡ when ſhall I intreat for thee, and for thy ſervants, and for thy people, † to deſtroy the frogs from thee, and thy houſes, that they may remain in the river onely?

‡ Or, have this honour over me, &c.

‡ Or, againſt when?

‡ Or, againſt to morrow.

11 And the frogs ſhall depart from thee, and from thy houſes, and from thy ſervants, and from thy people; they ſhall remain in the river onely.

12 And Moſes and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moſes cried unto the LORD, becauſe of the frogs which he had brought againſt Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moſes: and the frogs died [d] out of the houſes, out of the villages, and out of the fields, d In things of this life God oft times heareth the prayers of the juſt for the ungodly.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps, and the land ſtank.

15 But when Pharaoh ſaw that there was reſpite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had ſaid.

16 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and ſmite the duſt of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did ſo: for Aaron ſtretched out his hand with his rod, and ſmote the duſt of the earth, and it became lice, in man and in beaſt; all the duſt of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians did ſo with their inchantments to bring forth lice, but they [e] could not: ſo there were lice upon man, & upon beaſt.

e God confounded their wiſdom and authoritie in a thing moſt vile.

19 Then the magicians ſaid unto Pharaoh, This is the [f] finger of God: and Pharaohs heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had ſaid.

f They acknowledged that this was don by Gods power and not by forcetie. Luke 11. 20.

20 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Riſe up early in the morning, and ſtand before Pharaoh: lo, he cometh forth to the water, and ſay unto him, Thus ſaith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may ſerve me.

21 Els if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will ſend ‡ ſwarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy ſervants, and upon thy people, and into thy houſes; and the houſes of the Egyptians ſhall be full of ſwarms of flies, and alſo the ground whereon they are.

25 ¶ And Pharaoh called for Moſes, and for Aaron, and ſaid, Go ye, ſacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moſes ſaid. It is not meet ſo to do; for we ſhall ſacrifice the [g] abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: Lo, ſhall we ſacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not ſtone us?

g For the Egyptians worſhipped divers beaſts as the ox, the ſheep, and ſuch like, which the Iſraelites offered in ſacrifice: which thing the Egyptians abhorred to ſee.

28 And Pharaoh ſaid, I will let you go, that ye my ſacrifice to the LORD your God, in the wilderneſs: onely you ſhall [h] not go very far away; intreat for me.

h So the wicked preſcribe unto Gods meſſengers how far they ſhall go 29 And Moſes ſaid, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will entreat the LORD, that the ſwarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his ſervants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal [i] deceitfully any more, in not letting the people go to ſacrifice to the LORD.

i He could not judge his heart, but yet he chargeth him to do this unfainedly.

30 And Moſes went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moſes; and he removed the ſwarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his ſervants, and from his people: there remained not one.

k where god giveth not faith, no miracles can prevail.

32 And Pharaoh [k] hardened his heart at this time alſo, neither would he let the people go.

1 The murrain of beaſts. 8 The plague of boils, and blains. 13 The meſſage about the hail. 22 The plague of hail. 27 Pharaoh ſueth to Moſes, 35 but yet is hardened.

THen the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus ſaith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may ſerve me.

2 For if thou refuſe to let them go, and wilt hold them ſtill,

3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattel which is in the field, upon the horſes, upon the aſſes, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the ſheep there ſhall be a very grievous murrain.

4 And the LORD ſhall [a] ſever between the cattel of Iſrael, and the cattel of Egypt, and there ſhall nothing die of all that is the childrens of Iſrael.

a He ſhall declare his heavy judgement againſt his enemies, and his favour toward his children.

5 And the LORD appointed a ſet time, ſaying, To morrow the LORD ſhall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow; and all the cattel of Egypt died, but of the cattel of the children of Iſrael died not one.

7 And Pharaoh [b] ſent, and behold, there was not one of the cattel of the Iſraelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

b Into the land of Goſhen, where the Iſraelites dwelled.

8 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of aſhes of the furnace, and let Moſes ſprinkle it towards the heaven in the ſight of Pharaoh:

9 And it ſhall become ſmall duſt in all the land of Egypt, and ſhall be a boil breaking forth with blains, upon man, and upon beaſt, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took aſhes of the furnace, and ſtood before Pharaoh, & Moſes ſprinkled it up toward heaven: and it became a boil breaking forth with blains, upon man, and upon beaſt.

11 And the magicians could not ſtand before Moſes, becauſe of the boil: for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

14 For I will at this time ſend all my plagues upon thine [c] heart, and upon thy ſervants, and upon thy people: that thou mayeſt know that there is none like me in all the earth.

c So that thine own conſcience ſhall condemn thee of ingratitude and malice.

19 Send therefore now, and [e] gather thy cattel, and all that thou haſt in the field: for upon every man and beaſt which ſhall be found in the field, and ſhall not be brought home, the hail ſhall come down upon them, and they ſhall die.

23 And Moſes ſtretched forth his rod toward heaven, and the LORD ſent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground, and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, ſuch as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt, ſince it became a nation.

25 And the hail ſmote throughout all the land of Egypt, all that was in the field, both man and beaſt: and the hail ſmote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

e Puniſhment is prepared for you. Some read, ye intend ſome miſchief.

11 Not ſo: go now ye that are men, and ſerve the LORD, for that you did deſire: and they were driven out from Pharaohs preſence.

12 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locuſts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

13 And Moſes ſtretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an eaſt-wind upon the land all that day, and all that night: and when it was morning, the eaſt-wind brought the locuſts.

14 And the locuſts went up over all the land of Egypt, and reſted in all the coaſts of Egypt: very grievous were they: before them there were no ſuch locuſts as they, neither after them ſhall be ſuch.

15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, ſo that the land was darkened, and they

54 did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees, which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 ¶ Then Pharaoh † called for Moſes and Aaron in haſte; and he ſaid, I have ſinned againſt the [f] LORD your God, and againſt you.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my ſin onely this once, and intreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death onely.

27 ¶ But the LORD heardned Pharaohs heart, and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh ſaid unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thy ſelf, ſee my face no more: for in that day thou ſeeſt my face, thou ſhalt [l] die.

29 And Moſes ſaid, Thou haſt ſpoken well I will ſee thy face again no more.

6 And there ſhall be a great crie throughout all the land of Egypt, ſuch as there was none like it, nor ſhall be like it any more.

7 But againſt any of the children of Iſrael ſhall not a dog move his tongue, againſt man or beaſt: that ye may know how [c] that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Iſrael.

8 And all theſe thy ſervants ſhall come down unto me, and bow down themſelvs unto me, ſaying, Get thee out, and all the people † that [c] follow thee: and after that I will go out: and he went out from Pharaoh in † a great anger.

30 And Pharaoh roſe up in the night, he and all his ſervants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great crie in Egypt: for there was not a [o] houſe where there was not one dead.

o Of thoſe houſes wherein any firſt-born was, either of men or beaſts.

31 ¶ And he called for Moſes and Aaron by night, and ſaid, Riſe up, and get you forth from amongſt my people, both you and the children of Iſrael; and go, ſerve the LORD, as ye have ſaid.

32 Alſo take your flocks, and your herds, as ye have ſaid: and be gon, and [p] bleſs me alſo.

p Pray for me.

33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might ſend them out of the land in haſte: for they ſaid, We be all dead men, 34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their ‡ kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their ſhoulders.

35 And the children of Iſrael did according to the work of Moſes: and they borrowed of the Egyptians * jewels of ſilver, and jewels of gold, and raiment.

* Chap. 3. 22. & 11. 2.

36 And the LORD gave the people favour in the ſight of the Egyptians, ſo that they lent unto them ſuch things as they required: and they ſpoiled the Egyptians.

37 ¶ And * the children of Iſrael journeyed from [q] Rameſes to Succoth, about ſix hundred thouſand on foot that were men, beſides children.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was * four hundred and thirtie years.

* Gen. 15. 13. Acts 7. 6. Galat. 3. 17.

41 And it came to pass, at the end of the four [f] hundred and thirtie years, even the self-same day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

f From Abrahams departing from Ur in Chaldea, unto the departing of the children of Israel from Egypt are 430 years.

42 It is † a night to be much observed unto the LORD, for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be much observed of all the children of Israel, in their generations.

† Heb. a night of observations

43 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: there shall no [t] stranger eat thereof.

t Except he be circumcised and onely profess your religion.

44 But every mans servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A forreiner, and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten, thou shalt not carrie forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house: * neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

* Num. 9. 12. John 19. 36.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall † keep it.

† Heb. do it.

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it: and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One [u] law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

u They that are of the household of God, must be all joyned in one faith and religion.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the self-same day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by their armies.

4 This day came ye out in the moneth [c] Abib.

c Containing part of March, and part of April, when corn began to ripen in that countrey.

5 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this moneth.

6 Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, and in the [d] seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

d But the seventh and the first day were holy, as Chap. 12. 16.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days: and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt shew thy [e] son in that day, saying, This is don because of that which the LORD did unto me, when I came forth out of Egypt.

e when thou dost celebrate the feast of unleavened bread.

9 And it shall be for a [f] sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes; that the LORDS law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

f Thou shalt have continuall remembrance thereof, as thou wouldest of a thing that is in thine hand, or before thine eyes.

10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

11 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee,

† Heb. tomorrow;

15 And it came to pass when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man, and the first-born of beast; therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the first-born of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes. For by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistins; although that was near: for God said, Least peradventure the people repent when they see [i] war and they return to Egypt.

CHAP. XIV.

1 God inſtructeth the Iſraelites in their journey. 5 Pharaoh purſueth after them. 10 The Iſraelites murmure. 13 Moſes comforteth them. 15 God inſtructeth Moſes. 19 The cloud removeth behind the camp. 21 The Iſraelites paſs through the Red ſea, 23 which drowneth the Egyptians.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speak unto the children of Iſrael, that they turn[a] and encamp before *Pi-hahiroth, between[b] Migdol and the ſea: over againſt Baal-zephon: before it ſhall ye encamp by the ſea.

3 For Pharaoh will ſay of the children of Iſrael, They are intangled in the land, the wilderneſs hath ſhut them in.

4 And I will harden Pharaohs heart, that he ſhall follow after them, and I will be[c] honoured upon Pharaoh; and upon all his hoſt; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did ſo.

5 ¶ And it was told the king of Egypt, that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his ſervants was turned againſt the people, and they ſaid, Why have we don this, that we have let Iſrael go from ſerving us?

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him.

7 And he took ſix[d] hundred choſen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he purſued after the children of Iſrael; and the children of Iſrael went out with an high[e] hand.

9 But the *Egyptians purſued after them (all the horſes and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horſmen, and his army) and overtook them encamping by the ſea, beſide Pi-hahiroth before Baal-zephon.

10 ¶ And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Iſrael lift up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them, and they were ſore[f] afraid: and the children of Iſrael cried out unto the LORD.

11 And they ſaid unto Moſes. Becauſe there were no graves in Egypt, haſt thou taken us away to die in the wilderneſs? Wherefore haſt thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 * Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, ſaying, Let us[g] alone, that we may ſerve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to ſerve the Egyptians, than that we ſhould die in the wilderneſs.

13 ¶ And Moſes ſaid unto the people, Fear ye not, ſtand ſtill, and ſee the ſalvation of the LORD, which he will ſhew to you to day: ‡ for the Egyptians whom ye have ſeen to day, ye ſhall ſee them again no more for ever.

14 The LORD ſhall fight for you, and ye ſhall[h] hold your peace.

15 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Wherefore[i] crieſt thou unto me? Speak unto the children of Iſrael, that they go forward.

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and ſtretch out thine hand over the ſea, and divide it: and the children of Iſrael ſhall go on dry-ground through the midſt of the ſea.

17 And I, behold I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they ſhall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his hoſt, upon his chariots, and upon his horſmen.

18 And the Egyptians ſhall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horſmen.

19 ¶ And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Iſrael, removed and went behind them; & the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and ſtood behind them.

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Iſrael, and it was a cloud and darkneſs to them, but it gave[k] light by night to theſe: ſo that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moſes ſtretched out his hand over the ſea, and the LORD cauſed the ſea to go back by a ſtrong eaſt-wind all that night, and made the ſea dry-land, and the waters were *divided.

22 And* the children of Iſrael went into the midſt of the ſea upon the dry-ground, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 ¶ And the Egyptians purſued, and went in after them, to the midſt of the ſea, even all Pharaohs horſes, his chariots, and his horſmen.

24 And it came to paſs, that in the[l] morning-watch the LORD looked unto the hoſt of the Egyptians, through the pillar of fire, and of the clood, and troubled the hoſt of the Egyptians:

25 And took off their chariot-wheels, ‡ that they drave them heavily: ſo that the Egyptians ſaid, Let us flee from the face of Iſrael; for the LORD fighteth for them, againſt the Egyptians.

26 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Stretch out thine hand over the ſea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horſmen.

27 And Moſes ſtretched forth his hand over the ſea, and the ſea returned to his ſtrength when the morning appeared: and the Egyptians fled againſt it: and the LORD † overthrew the[m] Egyptians in the midſt of the ſea.

28 And the waters returned and covered the chariots, and the horſmen, and all the hoſt of Pharaoh that came into the ſea after them: there remained not ſo much as *one of them.

29 But the children of Iſrael walked upon dry-land in the midſt of the ſea, and the waters

AND they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Iſrael came unto the wilderneſs of [a] Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the ſecond moneth, after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

a That is, the eight place wherein they had camped: there is another place called Zin, which was the 33 place wherein they camped: and is alſo called Kadeſh, Num. 33. 36.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Iſrael murmured againſt Moſes and Aaron in the wilderneſs.

3 And the children of Iſrael ſaid unto them, Would

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt.

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the LORD; for that he heareth [d] your murmurings against the LORD: And what are we, that ye murmure against us?

d He gave them not Manna, because they murmured, but for his promise sake.

8 And Moses said, This shall be when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmure against him: And what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the [e] LORD.

e He that contemneth Gods ministers, contemneth God himself.

9 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

i No creature is so pure but being abused, it turneth to our destruction.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to pass that on the sixth day they gathered [k] twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake, to day, and seeth that ye will seeth; and that which remaineth over, lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bad: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to day: for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not [l] find it in the field.

l God took away the occasion from their labour, to signifie how holy he would have the sabbath kept.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there went out some of the [m] people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

m Their infidelity was so great, that they did expressly against Gods commandment.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days: abide ye every man in his place: let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a [o] pot, and put an omer full of manna therein; and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

1 The people murmure for water at Rephidim. 5 God sendeth them for water to the rock in Horeb. 8 Amalek is overcome by the holding up of Moses hand. 15 Moses buildeth the altar JEHOVAH-nissi.

AND all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in [a] Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

a Moses here noteth not every place, where they camped at, as Num. 33 but onely those places where some notable thing was don.

2 * Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide you with me? Wherefore do ye [b] tempt the LORD?

* Num. 20. 4.
b why distrust you God? why look you not for succour of him without murmuring against us?

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this, that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children, and our cattel with thirst?

4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to [c] stone me.

c How ready the people are for their own matters to slay the true prophets, and how slow they are to revenge Gods cause against his enemies and false prophets.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel: and thy rod wherewith * thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go.

6 * Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb, and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place [a] Massah, and [a] Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the [d] LORD among us, or not?

a That is, temptation,

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: And Moses, Aaron, and Hur, went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let [g] down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

g So that we see how dangerous a thing it is to faint in prayer.

12 But Moses hands were heavy, and they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat thereon: and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a [h] book, and rehears it in the ears of Joshua: for * I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

1 Jethro bringeth to Moses his wife and two sons. 7 Moses entertaineth him. 13 Jethro's counsel is accepted. 27 Jethro departeth.

WHEN * Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses father in law, heard of all that God had don for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt:

* Chap. 2. 16.

2 Then Jethro, Moses father in law, took Zipporah Moses wife, after he had [a] sent her back.

a It may seem that he sent her back for a time to her father for her impatience, least she should be a let to his vocation, which was so dangerous. Chap 4. 25

3 And her two sons, of which the * name of the one was "Gershom (for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land)

* Chap. 2. 22.
" That is, a stranger there.

4 And the name of the other was " Eliezer (for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh)

" That is, my God is an help.

5 And Jethro, Moses father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the [b] mount of God.

b Horeb is called the mount of God, because God wrought many miracles there. So Peter calleth the mount where Christ was transfigured, The holy mount: for by Christs presence it was holy for a time. 2 Pet. 1. 18.

6 And he [c] said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her

c That is, he sent messengers to say unto him.

7 ¶ And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and kissed him: and they asked each other of their † welfare, and they came into the tent.

† Heb. peace,

8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had don unto Pharaoh, and to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and all the travel that had † come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them.

† Heb. found them

9 And Jethro rejoyced for all the goodness which the LORD had don to Israel: whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, [d] Blessed be the LORD who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

d whereby it is evident that he worshipped the true God, and therefore Moses refused not to marrie his daughter.

11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods: * for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly, he was [e] above them.

* Chap. 1. 10, 16, 22. & 5. 7. & 14 18.
e For they that drowned the children of the Israelites, perished themselves by water.

12 And Jethro, Moses father in law, took a burnt-offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses father in law [f] before God.

f They are in that place where the sacrifice was offered: for part was burnt, and the rest eaten.

13 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses, from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? Why sittest thou thy self alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people come unto me to [g] enquire of God.

g That is, to know Gods will, and to have justice executed.

16 When they have a matter, they come unto † Heb. a man and his fellow, unto me, and I judge between † one and another, and I do make them know the statutes of God and his laws.

17 And Moses father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

† Heb. fading thou wilt fade,

18 † Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavie for thee; * thou art not able to perform it thy self alone.

* Deut. 1. 9.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee. Be thou for the [h] people to God-ward, that thou maist bring the causes unto God:

h Judge thou in hard causes, which cannot be decided but by consulting with God.

20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people, [i] able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

i what manner of men ought to be chosen to bear office.

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thy self, and they shall bear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

k Godly counsel ought ever to be obeyed, though it come of our inferiours: for to such God oftentimes giveth wisdom, to humble them, that are exalted, and to declare that one member hath need of another.

24 So Moses [k] hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselvs.

l Read the occasion, Num. 10. 29, &c.

27 ¶ And Moses let his father in law [l] depart, and he went his way into his own land.

1 The people come to Sinai. 3 Gods message by Moses unto the people out of the mount. 8 The peoples answer returned again. 10 The people are prepared against the third day. 12 The mountain must not be touched. 16 The fearfull presence of God upon the mount.

IN the [a] third moneth, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the [b] same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness, and there Israel camped before the mount.

4 * Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on [d] eagles wings, and brought you unto my self.

7 ¶ And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And * all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken, we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and beleeve thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and [e] sanctifie them to day & to morrow, and let them wash their clothes, e Teach them to be pure in heart, as they shew themselvs outwardly clean by washing.

11 And be readie against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to your selvs, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: * whosoever toucheth the mount, shall be surely put to death.

* Heb. 12. 20.

13 There shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through, whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the ‡ trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

‡ Or, ceaseth

14 ¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, Be readie against the third day: come not at your [f] wives.

f But give your selvs to prayer and abstinence, that you may at this time attend onely upon the Lord, 1 Cor. 7. 5.

16 And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp, trembled.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the neither part of the mount.

18 And * mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount [h] quaked greatly.

* Deut. 4. 11.

g God used these fearful signs, that his law should be had in greater reverence, and his majestie the more feared.
h He gave authoritie to Moses by plain words, that the people might understand him.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed lowder and lowder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a [h] voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount, and Moses went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, † charge the people, least they break

22 And let the prieſts alſo which come near to the LORD, ſanctifie themſelvs, leaſt the LORD break forth upon them.

23 And Moſes ſaid unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedſt us, ſaying, Set bounds about the mount, and ſanctifie it.

24 And the LORD ſaid unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou ſhalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee; but let not the [i] prieſts and the people break through, to come up unto the LORD, leaſt he break forth upon them.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgement shall it be don unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a man-servant, or a maid-servant; he shall give unto their master [x] thirtie shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

x Read Gen. 23. 15.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it [y] good, and give money unto the owner of them, and the dead beast shall be his.

y This law forbiddeth not onely, not to hurt, but to beware least any be hurt.

35 ¶ And if one mans ox hurt anothers that he die, then they shall sell the live-ox, and divide the money of it, and the dead ox also they shall divide, 36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox, and the dead shall be his own.

AND he [a] ſaid unto Moſes, come up unto the LORD, thou and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and ſeventy of the elders of Iſrael: and worſhip ye afar off.

a when he called him up to the mountain to give him the laws, beginning at the 20 chap. hitherto.

2 And Moſes alone ſhall come near the LORD: but they ſhall not come nigh, neither ſhall the people go up with him.

3 ¶ And Moſes came and [b] told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgements: and all the people anſwered with one voice, and ſaid, * All the words, which the LORD hath ſaid, will we do.

b when he had received theſe laws in mount Sinai.
* Chap. 19 8. Deut. 5.27.

4 And Moſes wrote all the words of the LORD, and roſe up early in the morning, and built an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Iſrael.

5 And he ſent [c] young men of the children of Iſrael, which offered burnt-offerings, and ſacrificed peace-offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

c For as yet the prieſthood was not given to Levi.

6 And Moſes took half of the blood, and put it in baſons, and half of the blood he ſprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they ſaid, * All that the LORD hath ſaid, will we do, and be obedient.

* Verſe 3.

8 And Moſes took the blood, and ſprinkled it on the people, and ſaid, Behold * the blood of the [d] covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all theſe words.

14 And he ſaid unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 And Moſes went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount.

16 And the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it ſix days: and the ſeventh day he called unto Moſes out of the midſt of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring [i] fire on the top of the mount, in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and * Moses was in the mount fourty days and fourty nights.

1 What the Israelites must offer for the making of the tabernacle. 10 The form of the ark. 17 The mercy-seat with the cherubims. 23 The table with the furniture thereof 31 The candlestick with the instruments thereof.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they † bring me an ‡ offering: * of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart, ye shall take my offering.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall [a] take of them; gold, and silver, and brass,

4 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and ‡ fine linen, and goats hair,

5 And rams skins dyed red, and badgers skins, and [c] shittim-wood,

6 Oil for the light, spices for [d] anointing oil, and for sweet incense,

7 Onyx-stones, and stones to be set in the * ephod, and in the * breast-plate.

8 And let them make me [e] a sanctuarie; that I may dwell amongst them.

9 According to all that I shew thee, after the patern of the tabernacle, and the patern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 ¶ * And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within & without shalt thou overlay it: & shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings, by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be born with them.

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark the [f] testimony which I shall give thee.

17 And thou shalt make a [g] mercy-seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof: and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold: of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy-seat.

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even ‡ of the mercy-seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

20 And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another: toward the mercy-seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

21 And thou shalt put the mercy-seat above upon the ark, and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee, from above the mercy-seat, from * between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

23 ¶ * Thou shalt also make a table of shittim-wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, & make thereto a crown of gold round about.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand-breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

27 Over against the border shall the rings be, for places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be born with them.

29 And thou shalt make the [h] dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, ‡ to cover withall: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table shew-bread before me alway.

31 ¶ * And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of [i] beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers shall be of the same.

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it: three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side.

33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick.

34 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

36 Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass; and put the taches into the loops, and couple the ‡ tent together that it may be one.

‡ Or, covering.

12 And the [f] remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the back-side of the tabernacle.

f For these curtains were two cubits longer than the curtains of the tabernacle: so that they were sider by a cubit on both sides.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side † of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle: on this side, and on that side, to cover it.

† Heb. in the remainder or superfluity.

14 And thou shalt make a [g] covering for the tent, of rams skins dyed red, and a covering above of [h] badgers skins.

g To be put upon the covering that was made of goats hair.

h This was the the covering for the tabernacle.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle, of shittim-wood, standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two † tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

† Heb. hands.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twentie boards on the south-side, south-ward.

19 And thou shalt make fourty sockets of silver, under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north-side, there shall be twenty boards

21 And their fourtie sockets of silver: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle west-ward, thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be † [i] coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

i The Hebrew word signifieth twins declaring that they should be so perfect and well joyned as was possible.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make bars of shittim-wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle for the two sides west-ward.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold.

30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle * according to the fashion thereof, which was shewed thee in the mount.

* Chap. 25. 9 40. Acts 7. 44. Heb. 8. 5.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood, overlaid with gold: their [k] hooks shall be of gold; upon the four sockets of silver.

k Some Read, heads of the pillars.

33 And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayst bring in thither within the vail, the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you, between the holy place and the most holy.

l whereunto the high priests onely entred once a year.

34 And thou ſhalt put the mercy-ſeat upon the ark of the teſtimony, in the moſt holy place

m Meaning, in the holy place.

35 And thou ſhalt ſet the [m] table without the vail, and the candleſtick over againſt the table, on the ſide of the tabernacle toward the ſouth: and thou ſhalt put the table on the north-ſide.

n This hanging or vail was between the holy place, and there where the people were.

36 And thou ſhalt make an [n] hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and ſcarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needle-work.

37 And thou ſhalt make for the hanging, five pillars of ſhittim-wood, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks ſhall be of gold: & thou ſhalt caſt five ſockets of braſs for them.

Chap. XVIII.

1 The altar of burnt-offering, with the veſſels thereof. 9 The court of the tabernacle incloſed with hangings and pillars. 18 The meaſure of the court. 20 The oil for the lamp.

a For the burnt-offering.

AND thou ſhalt make an [a] altar of ſhittim-wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad: the altar ſhall be four-ſquare, and the height thereof ſhall be three cubits.

2 And thou ſhalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns ſhall be of the [b] ſame: & thou ſhalt overlay it with braſs.

b Of the ſame wood and matter not faſtened unto it.

3 And thou ſhalt make his pans to receive his aſhes, and his ſhovels, and his baſons, and his fleſh-hooks, and his fire-pans: all the veſſels thereof thou ſhalt make of braſs.

4 And thou ſhalt make for it a grate of net-work of braſs; and upon the net ſhalt thou make foure braſen rings in the four corners thereof.

5 And thou ſhalt put it under the compaſs of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midſt of the altar.

6 And thou ſhalt make ſtaves for the altar, ſtaves of ſhittim-wood, and overlay them with braſs.

7 And the ſtaves ſhall be put into the rings, and the ſtaves ſhall be upon the two ſides of the altar to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards ſhalt thou make it: as † it was ſhewed thee in the mount, ſo ſhall they make it.

† Heb. he ſhewed.

e This was the firſt entry into the tabernacle, where the people abode.

9 ¶ And thou ſhalt make the [c] court of the tabernacle for the ſouth-ſide, ſouth-ward: there ſhall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of an hundred cubits long, for one ſide.

10 And the twentie pillars thereof, and their twentie ſockets ſhall be of braſs: the hooks of the pillars, and their [d] fillets ſhall be of ſilver.

d They were certain hoops or circles for to beautifie the pillar.

11 And likewiſe for the north-ſide in length, there ſhall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and his twentie pillars, and their twentie ſockets of braſs: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets of ſilver.

12 ¶ And for the breadth of the court, on the weſt-ſide, ſhall be hangings of fiftie cubits their pillars ten, and their ſockets ten.

e Meaning, curtains of fiftie cubits.

13 And the breadth of the court on the eaſt-ſide, eaſt-ward, ſhall be [e] fiftie cubits.

f Of the door of the court.

14 The hangings of one [f] ſide of the gate ſhall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their ſockets three.

15 And on the other ſide ſhall be hangings, fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their ſockets three.

16 ¶ And for the gate of the court, ſhall be an hanging of twentie cubits, of blue, and purple, and ſcarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needle-work: and their pillars ſhall be four, and their ſockets four.

17 All the pillars round about the court ſhall be filleted with ſilver; their hooks ſhall be of ſilver and their ſockets of braſs.

18 ¶ The length of the court ſhall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth † fiftie every where, & the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their ſockets of braſs.

† Heb. fifth by fifth,

19 All the veſſels of the tabernacle in all the ſervice thereof, and all the [g] pins thereof, and all the pins of the court ſhall be of braſs.

g Or, ſtakes, wherewith the curtains were faſtned to the ground.

20 ¶ And thou ſhalt command the children of Iſrael, that they bring thee pure oil-olive [h] beaten, for the light, to cauſe the lamp † to burn always.

h Such as cometh from the olive, when it is firſt preſſed or beaten.
† Heb. to aſcend up.

21 In the tabernacle of the congregation without the vail, which is before the teſtimonie, Aaron and his ſons ſhall order it from evening to morning before the Lord: It ſhall be a ſtatute for ever unto their generations, on the behalf of the children of Iſrael.

Chap. XXVIII.

1 Aaron and his ſons are ſet apart for the prieſts office. 2 Holy garments are appointed. 6 The ephod. 15 The breaſt-plate with twelve precious ſtones. 30 The Urim and Thummim. 31 The robe of the ephod, with pomgranates and bells. 36 The plate of the mitre. 39 The embroidered coat. 40 The garments for Aarons ſons.

AND take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother and his ſons with him, from among the children of Iſrael, that he may miniſter unto me in the prieſts office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aarons ſons.

2 And thou ſhalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, for [a] glory and for beauty.

a whereby his office may be known to be glorious and excellent.

3 And thou ſhalt ſpeak unto all that are wiſe-hearted, whom I have filled with the ſpirit of wiſdom, that they may make Aarons garments to [b] conſecrate him, that he may miniſter unto me in the prieſts office.

b which is to ſeparate him from the reſt.

4 And theſe are the garments which they ſhall make; a breaſt-plate, and an [c] ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they ſhall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his ſons, that he may miniſter unto me in the prieſts office.

c A ſhort and ſtrait coat without ſleevs put upmoſt upon his garments, to keep them cloſe unto him.

5 And they ſhall take gold, and blue, and purple, and ſcarlet, and fine linen.

6 And they ſhall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of ſcarlet and fine twined linen, with cunning work.

7 It ſhall have the two ſhoulder-pieces thereof joyned at the two edges thereof; and ſo it ſhall be joyned together.

8 And the ‡ curious [d] girdle of the ephod which is upon it, ſhall be of the ſame, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and ſcarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou ſhalt take two onyx-ſtones, and grave on them the names of the children of Iſrael.

10 Six of their names on one ſtone, and the other ſix names of the reſt on the other ſtone according to their [e] birth.

e As they were in age, ſo ſhould they be graven in order.

11 * With the work of an engraver in ſtone, like the engravings of a ſignet, ſhalt thou engrave the two ſtones, with the names of the children of Iſrael; thou ſhalt make them to be ſet in ouches of gold.

* Wiſd. 18. 24.

12 And thou ſhalt put the two ſtones upon the ſhoulders of the ephod, for ſtones of [f] memorial unto the children of Iſrael. And Aaron ſhall bear their names before the LORD, upon his two ſhoulders for a memorial.

f That Aaron might remember the Iſraelites to God-ward.

13 ¶ And thou ſhalt make ouches of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the [g] ends: of wreathen work ſhalt thou make them, and faſten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

g Of the boſſes.

15 ¶ And thou ſhalt make the breaſt-plate of [h] judgement, with cunning work after the work of the ephod thou ſhalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of ſcarlet, and of fine twined linen ſhalt thou make it.

h It was ſo called, becauſe the high prieſt could not give ſentence in judgement without that on his breaſt.

16 [i] Four-ſquare it ſhall be being doubled: a ſpan ſhall be the length thereof, and a ſpan ſhall be the breadth thereof.

i The deſcription of the breaſt-plate.

17 And thou ſhalt † ſet in it ſettings of ſtones, even four rows of ſtones: the firſt row ſhall be a ‡ ſardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this ſhall be the firſt row.

† Heb. fill in it fillings of ſtone,

‡ Or, rubie,

18 And the ſecond row ſhall be an emeraud, a ſaphire, and a diamond.

19 And the third row a ligure, an agate, and an amethyſt.

20 And the fourth row, a beryl, and an onyx, and a jaſper: they ſhall be ſet in gold in their † incloſings.

† Heb, fillings.

21 And the ſtones ſhall be with the names of the children of Iſrael, twelve, according to their names: like the engravings of a ſignet, every one with his name ſhall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 ¶ And thou ſhalt make upon the breaſt-plate chains at the ends, of wreathen work, of pure gold.

23 And thou ſhalt make upon the breaſt-plate two rings of gold, and ſhalt put the two rings on the two [k] ends of the breaſt-plate.

k which are upmoſt toward the ſhoulder.

24 And thou ſhalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breaſt-plate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains, thou ſhalt faſten in the two ouches, and put them on the ſhoulder-pieces of the ephod before it.

26 ¶ And thou ſhalt make two rings of gold, and thou ſhalt put them upon the [l] two ends of the breaſt-plate, in the border thereof, which is in the ſide of the ephod inward.

l which are beneath.

27 And two other rings of gold thou ſhalt make, and ſhalt put them on the two ſides of the ephod, underneath towards the fore-part thereof, over againſt the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

28 And they ſhall bind the breaſt-plate by the rings thereof, unto the rings of the ephod, with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breaſt-plate be not looſed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron ſhall [m] bear the names of the children of Iſrael in the breſt-plate of judgement, upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place: for a memorial before the LORD continually.

m Aaron ſhall not enter into the holy place in his own name: but in the name of all the children of Iſrael.

30 ¶ And thou ſhalt put in the breaſt-plate of Judgement the [n] Urim and the Thummim, and they ſhall be upon Aarons heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: & Aaron ſhall bear the judgement of the children of Iſrael upon his heart [o] before the LORD continually.

n Urim ſignifieth light, and Thummim perfection: declaring that the ſtones of the breaſt-plate were moſt clear, and of perfect beautie: by Urim alſo is meant knowledge, and Thummim holineſs, ſhewing what vertues are required in the prieſts.

31 ¶ And thou ſhalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there ſhall be an hole in the top of it, in the midſt thereof: it ſhall have a binding of woven work, round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergion, that it be not rent.

33 ¶ And beneath upon the ‡ hem of it thou ſhalt make pomgranates of blue, and of purple, and of ſcarlet round about the hem thereof, and bells of gold between them round about.

‡ Or, skirts.

34 A golden bell and a pomgranate, a golden bell and a pomgranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 * And it ſhall be upon Aaron, to miniſter: and his ſound ſhall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out; that he die not.

* Eccluſ 45. 9.

36 ¶ And thou ſhalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a ſignet, ° HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

o Holineſs appertaineth to the Lord: for he is moſt holy, and nothing unholy may appear before him.

37 And thou ſhalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it ſhall be.

38 And it ſhall be upon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may [p] bear the iniquitie of the holy things, which the children of Iſrael ſhall hallow in all their holy gifts: and it ſhall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

p Their offerings could not be ſo perfect, but ſome fault would be therein: which ſin the high prieſt bare, and pacified God.

39 ¶ And thou ſhalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou ſhalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou ſhalt make the girdle of needle-work.

40 ¶ And for Aarons ſons thou ſhalt make coats, and thou ſhalt make for them girdles, and bonnets ſhalt thou make for them, for glory and for beautie.

41 And thou ſhalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his ſons with him: and ſhalt anoint them, and [q] † conſecrate them, and ſanctifie them, that they may miniſter unto me in the prieſts office.

q That is, conſecrate them by giving them things to offer, and thereby admit them to their office.

† Heb fill their hand,

Chap. XXIX.

1 The sacrifice and ceremonies of consecrating the priests. 38 The continual burnt-offering. 45 Gods promise to dwell among the children of Israel.

AND this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priests office: * Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish,

* Levit. 9. 2.

2 And unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oyl, and wafers unleavened anointed with oyl: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and [a] bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

a To offer them in sacrifice.

4 And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt wash them with water.

5 And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the [b] robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod.

b which was next under the ephod.

6 And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing * oyl, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him.

* Chap. 30. 25.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles (Aaron and his sons) and † put the bonnets on them: and the priest office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt ‡ * consecrate Aaron and his sons.

† Heb. bind.

‡ Heb. fill the hand of.

* Chap. 28. 41.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and * Aaron and his sons shall [c] put their hands upon the head of the bullock.

* Levit. 1. 4.

c Signifying, That the sacrifice was also offered for them, and that they did approve it.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And * thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and * the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, & the fat that is upon them, & burn them upon the altar.

* Levit. 3. 3.

* It seemeth by anatomie, and the Hebrew doctors, to be the midriff.

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung shalt thou burn with fire without the camp; it is a sin-offering.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and ‡ unto his head.

‡ Or, upon.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt-offering unto the LORD: it is a [d] sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

d Or, a savour of rest, which causeth the wrath of God to cease.

19 ¶ And thou shalt take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the [e] tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

e Meaning, The soft and nether part of the ear.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the [f] altar, and of the anointing oyl, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, & upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons garments with him.

f wherewith the altar must be sprinkled.

22 Also thou shalt take of the [g] ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration:

g which is offered for the consecration of the high priest.

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oyled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread, that is before the LORD.

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, & in the hands of his sons; & shalt ‡ wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

‡ Or, shake to and fro.

25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, & burn them upon the altar for a burnt-offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD, it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aarons consecrations, and [h] wave it for a wave-offering before the LORD; and it shall be thy part.

h This sacrifice the priest did move toward the east, west, north and south.

27 And thou shalt sanctifie the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the heav-offering, which is [i] waved, and which is heaved up of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons.

i So called, because it was not onely shaken to and fro, but also lifted up.

28 And it shall be Aarons and his sons by a statute for ever, from the children of Israel: for it is an heav-offering: and it shall be an heav-offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their [k] peace-offerings, even their heav-offering unto the LORD.

k which were offerings of thanksgiving to God for his benefits.

29 ¶ And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And † that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Bezaleel and Aholiab are called, and made meet for the work of the tabernacle. 12 The obſervation of the ſabbath is again commanded. 18 Moſes receiveth the two tables.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

2 See, I have [a] called by name, Bezaleel the * ſon of Uri, the ſon of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

* 1 Chron. 2. 20.

3 And I have filled him with the ſpirit of God, in wiſdom, and in underſtanding, and in knowledge, & in all manner of [b] workmanſhip:

4 To deviſe cunning work, to work in gold, and in ſilver, and in braſs,

5 And in cutting of ſtones to ſet them; and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanſhip.

6 And I, behold, I have given with him, Aholiab the ſon of Ahiſamach of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all that are [c] wiſe-hearted I have put wiſdom; that they may make all that I have commanded thee:

c I have inſtructed them, and increaſed their knowledge.

9 And the altar of burnt-offering with all his furniture, and the laver and his foot:

10 And the clothes of ſervice, and the holy garments for Aaron the prieſt, & the garments of his ſons, to miniſter in the prieſts office:

11 And the [e] anointing oil, and ſweet incenſe for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee, ſhall they do.

e which onely was to anoint the prieſts and the inſtruments of the tabernacle, and not to burn.

12. ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

13 Speak thou alſo unto the children of Iſrael, ſaying, Verily my [f] ſabbaths ye ſhall keep: for it is a ſign between me and you, throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD, that doth ſanctifie you.

f Though I command theſe works to be don, yet will I not that you break my ſabbath days.

14 * Ye ſhall keep the [g] ſabbath therefore: for it is holy unto you: Every one that defileth it, ſhall ſurely be put to death: for whoſoever doth any work therein, that ſoul ſhall be cut off from amongſt his people.

* Chap. 20. 8. Deut 5. 12.

the seventh day he [h] rested, and was refreshed.

18 ¶ And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, * two tables of [i] testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 The people in the absence of Moses cause Aaron to make a calf. 7 God is angred thereby. 11 At the intreaty of Moses he is appeased. 15 Moses cometh down with the tables. 19 He breaketh them. 20 He destroyeth the calf. 22 Aarons excuse for himself. 25 Moses causeth the idolaters to be slain. 30 He prayeth for the people.

AND when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselvs together unto Aaron, and said unto him, * Up, [a] make us gods which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

* Acts 7. 40.
a The root of idolatrie is, when men think that God is not at hand, except they see him carnally.

2 And Aaron said unto them, [b] Break off the golden ear-rings which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

b Thinking that they would rather forgo idolatrie, than to resign their most precious jewels.

3 And all the people brake off the [c] golden ear-rings, which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

c Such is the rage of idolaters, that they spare no cost to satisfie their wicked desires.
* 1 Kings 12. 28. Psal. 106. 19.

4 * And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a [d] molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

d They smelled of their leaven of Egypt, where they saw calvs, oxen, and serpents worshipped.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it, and Aaron made proclamation and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt-offerings, and brought peace-offerings: and the * people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

* 1 Cor. 10. 7.

* Deut. 9. 12.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, * Go, get thee down: for thy people which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt have corrupted themselvs.

e whereby we see what necessitie we have to pray earnestly to God, to keep us in his true obedience, and to send us good guids.

8 They have turned aside [e] quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

* Chap. 33. 3. Deut. 9. 13.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, * I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

f God sheweth that the prayers of the godly stay his punishment.

10 Now therefore [f] let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

* Psal. 106. 23.
† Heb. the face of the LORD,

11 * And Moses besought † the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and with a mighty hand?

* Num. 14. 13.

12 * Wherefore should the Egyptians speak and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

g That is, thy promise made to Abraham.
* Gen. 12. 7. and 15. 7. and 48. 16.

13 Remember [g] Arbaham, Isaac, and Israel thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidest unto them, * I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of, will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶ And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

* Chap. 31. 18.

16 And the * tables were the work of God, and the [h] writing was the writing of God graven upon the tables.

h All these repetitions shew how excellent a thing they defrauded themselvs of, by their idolatry.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for † being overcome: but the noise of them that sing, do I hear.

† Heb. weakness:

19 ¶ And it came to pass assoon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

20 * And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel [i] drink of it.

* Deut. 9. 21.

i Partly, to despite them of their idolatrie, and partly, that they should have none occasion to remember it afterward.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people that they are set on mischief.

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off: So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

25 ¶ And when Moses saw that the people were [k] naked (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame, amongst † their enemies.)

k Both destitute of Gods favour; and an occasion to their enemies to speak evil of their God.
† Heb. those that rose up against them.

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORDs side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselvs together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and [l] slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

l This fact did so please God, that he turned the curse of Jacob against Levi, to a blessing, Deut. 33. 9.
‡ Or, And Moses said, Consecrate your selvs to day to the LORD, because every man hath been against his son, and against his brother, &c.
† Heb. fill your hands

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses; and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

29 ‡ For Moses had said, † Consecrate your ſelvs to day to the LORD even every man upon his [m] ſon, and upon his brother, that he may beſtow upon you a beſſing this day.

30 ¶ And it came to paſs on the morrow, that Moſes ſaid unto the people, Ye have ſinned a great ſin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I ſhall make an atonement for your ſin.

31 And Moſes returned unto the LORD, and ſaid, Oh, this people have ſinned a great ſin, and have made them gods of gold.

n So much he eſteemed the glorie of God, that he preferred it even to his own ſalvation.

32 Yet now, if thou wilt, forgive their ſin: and if not, [n] blot me, I pray thee, out of the book which thou haſt written.

33 And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Whoſoever hath ſinned againſt me, him will I blot out of my [o] book.

o I will make it known that he was never predeſtinate in mine et etmall counſel to life everlaſting.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have ſpoken unto thee: Behold, mine angel ſhall go before thee: Nevertheleſs, in the day when I [p] viſit, I will viſit their ſin upon them.

p This declareth how grievous a ſin idolatrie is, ſeeing that, at Moſes prayer, God would not fully remit it.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, becauſe they made the calf, which Aaron made.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The Lord refuſeth to go, as he had promiſed, with the people. 4 The people mourn thereat. 7 The tabernacle is removed out of the camp. 9 The Lord talketh familiarly with Moſes. 12 Moſes deſireth to ſee the glory of God.

AND the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Depart, and go [a] up hence, thou and the people which thou haſt brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I ſware unto Abraham, to Iſaac, and to Jacob, ſaying, * Unto thy ſeed will I give it.

* Chap. 32. 9. Deut. 9. 13.

4 ¶ And when the people heard theſe evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had ſaid unto Moſes, Say unto the children of Iſrael, Ye are a ſtiff-necked people: I will come up into the midſt of thee in a moment, and conſume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may [b] know what to do unto thee.

b That either I may ſhew mercie if they repent, or els puniſh their rebellion.

6 And the children of Iſrael ſtript themſelvs of their ornaments, by the mount Horeb.

7 And Moſes took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the [c] Tabernacle of the congregation: And it came to paſs, that every one which ſought the LORD, went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

c So called, becauſe the people reſorted thither, when they ſhould be inſtructed of the Lords will.

8 And it came to paſs, when Moſes went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people roſe up, and ſtood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moſes, until he was gon into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to paſs, as Moſes entred into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar deſcended, and ſtood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moſes.

10 And all the people ſaw the cloudy pillar ſtand at the tabernacle door: and all the people roſe up and worſhipped, every man in his tent-door.

11 And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes [d] face to face, as a man ſpeaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp, but his ſervant Joſhua, the ſon of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

d Moſes, plainly and familiarly of all other, Num. 12. 8. Deut. 34. 10.

12 ¶ And Moſes ſaid unto the LORD, See, thou ſayeſt unto me, Bring up this people; and thou haſt not let me know whom thou wilt ſend with me. Yet thou haſt ſaid, I know thee by [e] name, and thou haſt alſo found grace in my ſight.

e I care for thee, and will preſerve thee in this thy vocation.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy ſight, ſhew me now thy way that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy ſight: and conſider that this nation is thy people.

14 And he ſaid, My [f] preſence ſhall go with thee, and I will give thee reſt.

f Signifying, that the Iſraelites ſhould excell through Gods favour all other people, vers 16.

15 And he ſaid unto him, if thy preſence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein ſhall it be known here, that I and thy people have found grace in thy ſight? Is it not in that thou goeſt with us? So ſhall we be ſeparated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, I will do this thing alſo that thou haſt ſpoken; for thou haſt found grace in my ſight, and I know thee by name.

18 And he ſaid, I beſeech thee ſhew me thy [g] glory.

g Thy face, thy ſubſtance, and thy majeſtie.

1 The offerings are delivered to the workmen. 5 The liberalitie of the people is restrained. 8 The curtains of the cherubims. 14 The curtains of goats hair. 19 The covering of skins. 20 The boards with their sockets. 31 The bars. 35 The vail. 37 The hanging for the door.

THen wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding, to know how to work all manner of work for the service of [a] the sanctuarie, according to all that the LORD had commanded.

a By the sanctuary he meaning here all the tabernacle.

2 And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it.

3 And they received of Moses all the offerings which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuarie, to make it withall. And [b] they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning.

b Meaning, the Israelites.

4 And all the wise men that wrought all the work of the sanctuarie, came every man from his work which they made.

5 ¶ And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much [c] more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded to make.

c A rare example, and notable, to see the people so ready to serve God with their goods.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuarie: so the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

* Chap. 26. 3, 4.

8 ¶ * And every wise-hearted man, among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle, made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with [d] cherubims of cunning work made he them.

d which were little pictures with wings in the form of children.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one to another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain, from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

* Chap. 26. 10.

12 * Fiftie loops made he in one curtain, and fiftie loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fiftie taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches. So it became one tabernacle.

14 ¶ And he made curtains of goats hair, for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirtie cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselvs, and six curtains by themselvs.

17 And he made fiftie loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fiftie loops made he upon the edge of the curtain, which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fiftie taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And he made a [e] covering for the tent, of rams skins died red, and a covering of badgers skins above that.

e These two were above the covering of goats hair.

20 ¶ And he made boards for the tabernacle, of shittim-wood, [f] standing up.

f And to bear up the curtains of the tabernacle.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and an half.

22 One board had two tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle: twentie boards for the south-side, south-ward.

24 And fourtie sockets of silver he made under the twentie boards: two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle which is toward the north-corner, he made twentie-boards.

26 And their fourtie sockets of silver: two sockets under one boatd, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle [g] west-ward, he made six boards.

g Or, toward the sea, which was the sea called Mediterraneum, west ward from Jerusalem.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were † coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof; to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

† Heb. twined.

30 And there were eight boards, and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, † under every board two sockets.

† Heb. two sockets two sockets under one board.

31 ¶ And he made * bars of shittim-wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle.

* Chap. 25 28. and 33. 5.

32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides west-ward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 ¶ And he made a [h] vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims made he it of cunning work.

h which was between the sanctuarie and the Holiest of all.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold, and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 ¶ And he made an [i] hanging for the tabernacle-door, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, † of needle-work, i which was between the court and the sanctuary.

18 And ſix branches going out of the ſides thereof: three branches of the candleſtick out of the one ſide thereof, and three branche of the candleſtick out of the other ſide thereof.

19 Three bowls made after the faſhion of almonds, in one branch, a knop and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds, in another branch, a knop & a flower: ſo throughout the ſix branches, going out of the candleſtick.

20 And in the candleſtick were fours bowls made like almonds, his knops and his flowers.

21 And a knop under two branches of the ſame, and a knop under two branches of the ſame, and a knop under two branches of the ſame, according to the ſix branches going out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the ſame: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his ſeven lamps, and his ſnuffers, and his ſnuff-diſhes, of pure gold.

24 Of a [c] talent of pure gold made he it, and all the veſſels thereof.

c Read chap. 25. 39.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jaſper: they were incloſed in ouches of gold in their incloſings.

14 And the ſtones were [d] according to the names of the children of Iſrael, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a ſignet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

d That is, Every tribe had his name written in a ſtone.

15 And they made upon the breaſt-plate chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings: and put the two rings in the two ends of the breaſt-plate.

17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breaſt-plate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they faſtened in the two ouches, & put them on the ſhoulder-pieces of the ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breaſt-plate upon the border of it, which was on the ſide of the ephod inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two ſides of the ephod underneath, toward the fore-part of it, over againſt the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breaſt-plate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod, with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breaſt-plate might not be looſed from the ephod; as the LORD commanded Moſes.

e which was next under the ephod.

22 ¶ And he made the robe of the [e] ephod of woven work, all of blue.

f where he ſhould put thorow his head.

23 And there was a [f] hole in the midſt of the robe, as the hole of an habergion, with a band round about the hole, that it ſhould not rend.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe, pomgranates of blue, and purple, and ſcarlet, and twined linen.

* Chap. 28. 33.

25 And they made * bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomgranates, upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomgranates.

26 A bell and a pomgranate, a bell and a pomgranate round about the hem of the robe to miniſter in; as the LORD commanded Moſes.

27 ¶ And they made coats of fine linen, of woven work, for Aaron and for his ſons;

28 And a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and * linen breeches of fine twined linen.

* Chap. 28. 42.

29 And a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and ſcarlet, of needle-work; as the LORD commanded Moſes.

30 ¶ And they made the plate of the holy crown, of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a ſignet, * HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

* Chap. 28. 36.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to faſten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Moſes.

32 ¶ Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finiſhed; and the children of Iſrael did according to all that the LORD commanded Moſes, ſo did they.

33 ¶ And they brought the tabernacle unto Moſes, the tent, and all his furniture; his taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his ſockets,

34 And the covering of rams ſkins died red, and the covering of badgers ſkins, and the [g] vail of the covering,

41 The clothes of ſervice to do ſervice in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the prieſt, and his ſons garments to miniſter in the prieſts office.

42 According to all that the LORD [i] commanded Moſes, ſo the children of Iſrael made all the work.

i Signifying, That in Gods matters man may neither add nor diminiſh.

43 And Moſes did look upon all the work and behold, they had don it as the LORD had commanded, even ſo had they don it: And Moſes [k] bleſſed them.

1 The tabernacle is commanded to be reared, 9 and anointed; 13 Aaron and his ſons to be ſanctified. 16 Moſes performeth all things accordingly. 24 A cloud covereth the tabernacle.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

2 On the [a] firſt day of the firſt moneth ſhalt thou ſet up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

a After that Moſes had been forty days and forty nights in the mount, that is, from the beginning of Auguſt to the tenth of September, he came down, and cauſed this work to be don: which being finiſhed, was ſet up in Abib, which moneth containeth half March and half April.

3 And thou ſhalt put therein the ark of

the

the teſtimonie, and cover the ark with the vail.

4 And * thou ſhalt bring in the table, and ſet in order † the things that are to be ſet in order upon it, and thou ſhalt bring in the candleſtick, and light the lamps thereof.

5 And thou ſhalt ſet the altar of [b] gold for the incenſe before the ark of the teſtimonie, and put the [c] hanging of the door to the tabernacle.

6 And thou ſhalt ſet the altar of the burnt-offering, before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

7 And thou ſhalt ſet the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and ſhalt put water therein.

8 And thou ſhalt ſet up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court-gate.

9 And thou ſhalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that is therein, and ſhalt hallow it, and all the veſſels thereof: and it ſhall be holy.

10 And thou ſhalt anoint the altar of the burnt-offering, and all his veſſels, and ſanctifie the altar: and it ſhall be an altar † moſt holy.

11 And thou ſhalt anoint the laver and his foot, and ſanctifie it.

12 And thou ſhalt bring Aaron and his ſons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and waſh them with water.

13 And thou ſhalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and ſanctifie him, that he may miniſter unto me in the prieſts office.

14 And thou ſhalt bring his ſons, and clothe them with coats.

15 And thou ſhalt anoint them, as thou didſt anoint their father, that they may miniſter unto me in the prieſts office: for their anointing ſhall ſurely be an [d] everlaſting prieſthood, throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moſes, according to all that the LORD commanded him.

17 ¶ And it came to paſs, in the firſt moneth in the [e] ſecond year, on the firſt day of the moneth, that the tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moſes reared up the tabernacle, and faſtened his ſockets, and ſet up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he ſpread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moſes.

20 ¶ And he took and put the [f] teſtimonie into the ark, and ſet the ſtaves on the ark, and put the mercie-ſeat above upon the ark.

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and * ſet up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the teſtimonie; as the LORD commanded Moſes.

22 ¶ And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the ſide of the tabernacle north-ward, without the vail.

23 And he ſet the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moſes.

24 ¶ And he put the candleſtick in the tent of the congregation, over againſt the table, on the ſide of the tabernacle ſouth-ward.

25 And he lighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moſes.

26 ¶ And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation, before the vail.

27 And he burnt ſweet incenſe thereon; as the LORD commanded Moſes.

28 ¶ And he ſet up the hanging, at the [g] door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the altar of burnt-offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt-offering, and the meat-offering; as the * LORD commanded Moſes.

30 ¶ And he ſet the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to waſh withall.

31 And Moſes, and Aaron and his ſons, waſhed their hands and their feet thereat.

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they waſhed; as the LORD commanded Moſes.

33 And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and ſet up the hanging of the court-gate: ſo Moſes finiſhed the work.

34 ¶ * Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glorie of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moſes was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, becauſe the cloud abode thereon, and the glorie of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Iſrael † went onward in all their journeys:

37 But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not, till the day that it was taken up.

38 For the [h] cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the ſight of all the houſe of Iſrael, throughout all their journeys.

THE

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED LEVITICUS.

* Because in this book is chiefly entreated of the Levites, and of things pertaining to their office.

THE ARGUMENT.

AS God by daily most singular benefits declared himself to be mindfull of his church: so he would not that they should have any occasion to trust either in themselvs, or to depend upon others, either for lack of temporal things, or ought that belonged to his divine service and religion: therefore he ordained divers kinds of oblations and sacrifices, to assure them of forgivness of their offences (if they offered them in true faith and obedience) Also he appointed their priests and Levites, their apparel, offices, conversation and portion: he shewed what feasts they should observe, and in what times. Moreover, he declared by these sacrifices and ceremonies that the reward of sin is death, and that without the blood of Christ, the innocent lamb, there can be no forgivness of sins. And because they should give no place to their own inventions (which thing God most detesteth, as appeareth by the terrible example of Nadab and Abihu) he prescribeth even to the least things, what they should do, as what beasts they should offer and eat: what diseases were contagious and to be avoided: what order they should take for all manner of filthiness and pollution to purge it: whose companie they should flee: what marriages were lawfull: and what politick laws were profitable. Which things declared, he promised favour and blessing to them that kept his laws, and threatned his curse to them that transgressed them.

CHAP. I.

1 The burnt-offering, 3 of the herd, 10 of the flocks, 14 of the fowls.

a Hereby Moses declareth that he taught nothing to the people, but that which he received of God.

AND the [a] LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them; If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the [b] cattel, even of the herd, and of the flock.

b So they could offer of none other sort, but of those which were commanded 3 If his offering be a burnt-sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will, at the door of the [c] tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.

c Meaning within the court of the tabernacle.

* Exod. 29. 10.

4 * And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt-offering: and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him.

d The priest or Levite.

5 And [d] he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests Aarons sons shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the [e] altar, that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

e Of the burnt offering, Exod. 27. 1.

6 And he shall slay the burnt-offering, and cut it into his pieces.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire.

8 And the priests Aarons sons shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar.

9 But the inwards and his legs shall he wash in water, and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt-sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet [f] savour unto the LORD.

f Or, a savour of rest, which pacifieth the anger of the Lord.

10 ¶ And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt-sacrifice, he shall bring it a male without blemish.

11 And he shall kill it on the side of the altar north-ward [g] before the LORD: and the priests Aarons sons shall sprinkle his blood [h] round about upon the altar.

g Read vers 5.

h Before the altar of the Lord.

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar.

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt-sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 ¶ And if the burnt-sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtle-doves, or of young pigeons.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and [i] wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar.

i The Hebrew word signifieth, to pinch off with the nail.

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with ‡ his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the [k] east-part, by the place of the ashes.

17 And he shall cleave it, with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt-sacrifice, fice, an offering made by fire, of a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD.

CHAP. II.

1 The meat-offering of flour with oyl and incenſe, 5 either baked in the oven, 5 or on plate, 7 or in a frying pan: 12 or of the firſt-fruits in the ear. 13 The ſalt of the meat-offering.

a Becauſe the burnt-offering could not be without the meat-offering.

AND when any will offer a [a] meat-offering unto the LORD, his offering ſhall be of fine flour; and he ſhall pour oyl upon it, and put franckincenſe thereon.

b The prieſt.

2 And he ſhall bring it to Aarons ſons the prieſts: and [b] he ſhall take thereout his handfull of the flour thereof, and of the oyl thereof, with all the frankincenſe thereof, and the prieſt ſhall burn the [c] memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD.

14 And if thou offer a meat-offering of thy firſt-fruits unto the LORD, thou ſhalt offer for that meat-offering of thy firſt-fruits, green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of full ears.

15 And thou ſhalt put oyl upon it, and lay frankincenſe thereon: it is a meat-offering.

16 And the prieſt ſhall burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oyl thereof, with all the frankincenſe thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

CHAP. III.

1 The peace-offering of the herd: 6 of the flock, 7 either a lamb, or a goat.

AND if his oblation be a ſacrifice of [a] peace-offering; if he offer it of the herd, whether it be a male or female, he ſhall offer it without blemiſh before the LORD.

a A ſacrifice of thankſgiving offered for peace and proſperitie, either generally or particular.

2 And he ſhall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aarons ſons the prieſts ſhall ſprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

8 And he ſhall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aarons ſons ſhall ſprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.

d The burnt-offering was wholly conſumed, and of the offering made by fire onely the inwards, &c. were burnt: the ſhoulder and breaſt, with the two jaws and the maw were the prieſts, and the reſt his that offered.

9 And he ſhall offer of the ſacrifice of the peace-offering, an [d] offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat thereof and the whole rump, it ſhall he take off hard by the backbone: and the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards.

10 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it ſhall he take away.

11 And the prieſt ſhall burn it upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

12 ¶ And if his offering be a goat, then he ſhall offer it before the LORD.

13 And he ſhall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the [e] tabernacle of the congregation: and the ſons of Aaron ſhall ſprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

* Exod. 29. 35. at an end: for * seven days shall he consecrate you.

34 As he hath don this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night, seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things
h By commission given to Moses which the LORD commanded by the [h] hand of Moses.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first-offering of Aaron for himself and the people. 8 The sin-offering, 12 and the burnt-offering for himself. 15 The offerings for the people. 23 Moses and Aaron bless the people. 24 Fire cometh from the Lord upon the altar.

a After their consecration: for the seven days before the Priests were consecrated.
* Exod. 29. 1.
b Aaron entreth into the possession of the Priesthood, and offereth the four principall sacrifices; the burnt-offering, the sin-offering, the peace-offering, and the meat-offering.

AND it came to pass on the [a] eight day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel;

2 And he said unto Aaron, * Take thee a young calf for a [b] sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats, for a sin-offering, and a calf, and a lamb both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt-offering.

4 Also a bullock and a ram, for peace-offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a meat-offering mingled with oyl: for to day the LORD will appear unto you.

5 ¶ And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near c Before the altar, where his glory appeared. and stood before the [c] LORD;

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin-offering, and thy burnt-offering, and make an atonement for [d] thy self and for the people, and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

d Read for the understanding of this place, Heb. 5. 3. and 7. 27.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin-offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipt his finger in the bloud, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar.

10 But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin-offering he [e] burnt upon the altar; as the LORD commanded Moses.

e That is, He laid them in order, and so they were burnt when the Lord sent down fire.

11 And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire, without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt-offering, and Aarons sons presented unto him the bloud, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt-offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he [f] burnt them upon the altar.

f All this must be understood of the preparation of the sacrifices which were burnt after, ver. 24.

14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt-offering on the altar.

15 ¶ And he brought the peoples offering, and took the goat which was the sin-offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt-offering, and offered it according to the ‡ manner.

‡ Or, ordinance.

17 And he brought the meat-offering, and † took an handfull thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, * beside the burnt-sacrifice of the morning.

† Heb. filled his hand out of it.
* Exod. 29. 38.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram, for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, which was for the people: and Aarons sons presented unto him the bloud (which he sprinkled upon the altar round about)

19 And the fat of the bullock, and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver.

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the [g] breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave-offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

g Of the bullock and the ram.

22 And Aaron lift up his hand towards the people, and blessed them, and [h] came down from offering of the sin-offering, and the burnt-offering, and peace-offerings.

h Because the Altar was near the Sanctuary, which was the upper end, therefore he is said to come down.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and [i] blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

i Or, prayed for the people.

24 And * there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt-offering, and the fat: which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

1 Nadab and Abihu, for offering of strange fire, are burnt by fire. 6 Aaron and his sons are forbidden to mourn for them. 8 The priests are forbidden wine when they are to go into the tabernacle. 12 The law of eating the holy things. 16 Aarons excuse for transgressing thereof.

AND *Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered [a] strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

* Num 3.4. and 26.61. 1 Chron. 24.2.

a Not taken off the altar, which was sent from heaven, and endured until the captivitie of Babylon.

2 And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

3 And Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be [b] sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

b I will punish them that serve me otherwise than I have commanded, not sparing the chief, that the people may fear and praise my judgements.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

5 So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar his sons, [c] Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes, least you die, and least wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath [d] kindled.

c As though ye lamented for them, preferring your carnal affection to Gods just judgement, Chap. 19.28. Deut. 14.1.

d In destroying Nadab and Abihu the chief, and menacing the rest, except they repent.

7 And ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, least you die; for the anointing oyl of the LORD is upon you: and they did according to the word of Moses.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,

9 Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, least ye die: It shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations:

10 And that ye may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean:

11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

12 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar his sons that were left, Take the meat-offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy.

13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due and thy sons due of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

* Exod. 29.24.

14 And * the wave-breast and heav-shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy [e] daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace-offerings of the children of Israel.

e For the breast and shoulders of the peace-offerings might be brought to their families, so that their daughters might eat of them, as also of the offerings of first fruits, the first born, and the easter-lamb. Read Chap. 22. 12, 13.

15 The heav-shoulder, and the wave-breast shall they bring, with the offering made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave-offering before the LORD, and it shall be thine, and thy sons with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded,

16 ¶ And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin-offering, and behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar & Ithamar, the sons of Aaron, which were [f] left alive, saying, f And not consumed; as Nadab and Abihu.

17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin-offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquitie of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in, within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, * as I commanded.

* Chap 6. 26.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have [g] they offered their sin-offering, and their burnt-offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin-offering to day, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?

g That is, Nadab and Abihu.

20 And when Moses heard that, he was [h] content.

h Moses bare with his infirmity, concerning his great sorrow, but doth not leave an example to forgive them that maliciously transgress the commandment of God.

Chap. XI.

1 What beasts may, 4 and what may not be eaten. 9 What fishes. 13 What fowls. 29 The creeping things which are unclean.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, saying unto them,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, * These are the beasts which ye shall [a] eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.

* Deut. 14.4: Acts 10.14.

a Or, whereof ye may eat.

3 Whatsoever parteth the [b] hoof, and is cloven-footed, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

b He noted four sorts of beasts: some chew the cud onely, and some have onely the foot cleft: others neither chew the cud, nor have the hoof cleft: the fourtht both chew the cud and have the hoof divided, which may be eaten.

4 Nevertheless, these shall ye not eat, of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

5 And the cony, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you,

6 And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

7 And * the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be cloven-footed, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean unto you.

* 2 Mac. 6.18.

8 Of their [c] flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch; they are unclean to you.

c God would that hereby for a time they should be discerned as his people from the Gentiles.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers; them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins nor scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that [d] move in the waters, and of any [e] living thing, which is in the waters; they shall be an abomination unto you.

d As little fish ingendred of the slime.

e As they which come of generation.

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you:

you: ye ſhall not eat of their fleſh, but you ſhall have their carcaſes in abomination.

12 Whatſoever hath no fins nor ſcales in the waters, that ſhall be an abomination unto you.

13 ¶ And theſe are they which ye ſhall have in abomination among the fowls, they ſhall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the oſſifrage, and the oſpray.

14 And the vulture, and the kite, after his kind:

15 Every raven after his kind:

16 And the owl, and the night-hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

17 And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl.

18 And the ſwan, and the pelican, and the gier-eagle.

19 And the ſtork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, ſhall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet theſe may ye eat, of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withall upon the earth:

22 Even theſe of them ye may eat: the locuſt after his kind, and the [f] bald-locuſt after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grashopper after his kind.

f These were certain kinds of grashoppers, which are not now properly known.

23 But all other flying creping things, which have four feet, ſhall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for theſe ye ſhall be unclean: whoſoever toucheth the carcaſe of them, ſhall be unclean untill the even.

25 And whoſoever [g] beareth ought of the carcaſe of them, ſhall waſh his clothes, and be unclean untill the even.

g Out of the camp.

26 The carcaſes of every beaſt which divideth the hoof; and is not cloven-footed, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them, ſhall be unclean.

27 And whatſoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beaſts, that go on all four, thoſe are unclean nnto you: whoſo toucheth their carcaſe, ſhall be unclean untill the even.

28 And he that beareth the carcaſe of them, ſhall waſh his clothes, and be unclean untill the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶ Theſe alſo ſhall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth: the weaſel, and the mouſe, and the [h] tortoiſe after his kind, h The green frog that ſitteth on the buſhes.

30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lyzard, and the ſnail, and the mole.

31 Theſe are unclean to you among all that creep: whoſoever doth touch them when they be dead, ſhall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatſoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it ſhall be unclean; whether it be any veſſel of wood, or raiment, or [i] skin, or ſack, whatſoever veſſel it be, wherein any work is don, it muſt be put into water, and it ſhall be unclean untill the even; ſo it ſhall be cleanſed.

i As a bottle or bag.

33 And every earthen veſſel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatſoever is in it ſhall be unclean; and * ye ſhall break it.

* Chap. 6. 28.

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which ſuch water cometh, ſhall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every ſuch veſſel, ſhall be unclean.

35 And every thing, where upon any part of their carcaſe falleth, ſhall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they ſhall be broken down: for they are unclean, and ſhall be unclean unto you.

36 Nevertheleſs, a fountain or pit, † wherein there is plentie of water, ſhall be clean: but that which [k] toucheth their carcaſe, ſhall be unclean.

† Heb a gathering together of waters, k So much of the water as toucheth it.

37 And if any part of their carcaſe fall upon any ſowing ſeed which is to be ſown; it ſhall be clean.

l He ſpeaketh of ſeed that is laid to ſteep before it be ſown.

39 And if any beaſt of which ye may eat, die; he that toucheth the carcaſe thereof, ſhall be unclean untill the even.

40 And he that eateth of the carcaſe of it, ſhall waſh his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he alſo that beareth the carcaſe of it, ſhall waſh his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

41 And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, ſhall be an abomination: it ſhall not be eaten.

42 Whatſoever goeth upon the belly, and whatſoever goeth upon all four, or whatſoever † hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye ſhall not eat; for they are an abomination.

† Heb. doth multiply feet.

43 Ye ſhall not make your † ſelvs abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither ſhall ye make your ſelvs unclean with them, that ye ſhould be defiled thereby.

† Heb. ſouls.

45 For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye ſhall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of the beaſts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth:

47 To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beaſt that may be eaten and the beaſt that may not be eaten.

1 The purification of a woman after child-birth. 6 Her offerings for her purifying.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speak unto the children of Iſrael, saying, If a * woman have conceived seed, and born a man-child, then she shall be unclean [a] seven days: according to the days of the separation for her infirmitie shall she be unclean.

3 And in the * eighth day, the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her puryfying [b] three and thirtie days: she shall touch no [c] hallowed thing, nor come into the [d] sanctuarie, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean [e] two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

6 And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter; she shall bring a lamb † of the first year for a burnt-offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtle-dove for a sin-offering, unto the [f] door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her, and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her bloud. This is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The laws and tokens whereby the priest is to be guided in discerning the leprosie.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh, a * rising, or a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his [a] flesh like the plague of leprosie; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests.

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be [b] deeper than the skin of his flesh; it is a plague of leprosie: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague, seven days.

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day, and behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more.

6 And the priest shall look an him again the seventh day: and behold, if the [c] plague be somwhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin; the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

‡ Or, swelling,
a That it may be suspected to be the leprosie.
b That is, shrunk in, and be lower than the rest of the skin.
c As having the skin drawn together, or blackish.

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing; he shall be seen of the priest again.

8 And if the priest see, that behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin; then the priest shall [d] pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosie.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosie is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest:

10 And the priest shall see him: and behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be † quick raw flesh in the rising;

11 It is an old leprosie in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosie break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosie cover all the skin of him that hath the plague, from his head even to his foot, whersoever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and behold, if the leprosie have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him [e] clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and [f] pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosie.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white: he shall come unto the priest:

17 And the priest shall see him: and behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he if clean.

18 ¶ The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a bile, and is healed,

19 And in the place of the bile there be a white rising, or a bright spot white, and somwhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;

20 And if when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white: the priest shall [g] pronounce him unclean: it is plague of leprosie broken out of the bile.

21 But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somwhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days.

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a plague.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place; and spread not, it is a burning bile; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 ¶ Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is † a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a [h] white bright spot, somwhat reddish, or white;

25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and behold if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosie broken out of the burning: wherefore

d As touching his bodily disease: for his disease was not imputed to him for sin before God, though it were the punishment of sin.

e For it is not that contagious leprosie that infecteth, but a kind of scurf, which hath not the flesh raw, as the leprosie.
f For it is not, that the flesh is not sound but is in danger to be leprous, g None were exempted, but if the priest pronounced him unclean, he was put out from among the people, as appeareth by Marye the prophetess, Num. 12. 14. and by king Uzziah, 2 Chron. 26. 20.
† Heb. a burning of fire.
h If he have a white spot in the place where the burning was, and was after healed.

wherefore the Prieſt ſhall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leproſie.

26 But if the Prieſt look on it, and behold, there be no white hair on the bright ſpot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be ſomwhat dark; then the Prieſt ſhall ſhut him up ſeven days.

27 And the Prieſt ſhall look upon him the ſeventh day: and if it be ſpread much abroad in the skin, then the prieſt ſhall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leproſie.

28 And if the bright ſpot ſtay in his place, and ſpread not in the skin, but it be ſomwhat dark; it is a riſing of the burning, and the prieſt ſhall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

29 ¶ If a man or woman hath a plague upon the head or the beard;

30 Then the prieſt ſhall ſee the plague: and behold, if it be in ſight deeper than the skin, and there be in it a [i] yellow thin hair; then the prieſt ſhall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry ſcall, even a leproſie upon the head or beard.

[i] which was not wont to be there, or els ſmaller than in any other part of the body.

31 And if the prieſt look on the plague of the ſcall, and behold, it be not in ſight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the prieſt ſhall ſhut up him that hath the plague of the ſcall, ſeven days.

32 And in the ſeventh day the prieſt ſhall look on the plague: and behold, if the ſcall ſpread not, and thete be in it no yellow hair, & the ſcall be not in ſight deeper than the skin;

33 He ſhall be ſhaven, but the ſcall ſhall he not ſhave: and the prieſt ſhall ſhut up him that hath the ſcall, ſeven days more.

34 And in the ſeventh day the prieſt ſhall look on the ſcall: and behold, if the ſcall be not ſpread in the skin, nor be in ſight deeper than the skin; then the prieſt ſhall pronounce him clean: and he ſhall waſh his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the ſcall ſpread much in the skin after his cleanſing;

36 Then the prieſt ſhall look on him: and behold, if the ſcall be ſpread in the skin, the prieſt ſhall not [k] ſeek for yellow hair: he is unclean.

[k] He ſhall not care whether the yellow hair be there, or no.

37 But if the ſcall be in his ſight at a ſtay, and that there is black hair grown up therein: the ſcall is healed, he is clean: and the prieſt ſhall pronounce him clean.

38 ¶ If a man alſo or a woman have in the skin of their fleſh bright ſpots, even white bright ſpots;

39 Then the prieſt ſhall look: and behold, if the bright ſpots in the skin of their fleſh be darkiſh white; it is a freckled ſpot that groweth in the skin: he is clean.

† Heb. head is pilled,

[l] By ſickneſs or any other inconvenience.

41 And he that hath his hair [l] fallen off, from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead-bald: yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddiſh ſore; it is a leproſie ſprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the prieſt ſhall look upon it: and behold, if the riſing of the ſore be white reddiſh in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leproſie appeareth in the skin of the fleſh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the prieſt ſhall pronounce him utterly unclean, his plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes ſhall be [m] rent, and his head bare, and he ſhall put a covering upon his upper lip, [n] and ſhall cry, Unclean, unclean.

[m] In ſign of ſorrow and lamentation.
[n] Either in token of mourning, or for fear of infecting others.

46 All the days wherein the plague ſhall be in him, he ſhall be defiled; he is unclean: he ſhall dwell alone, [e] without the camp ſhall his habitation be.

[e] * Num. 5. 2. 2 Kings 15. 5.

47 ¶ The garment alſo that the plague of leproſie is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof, of linen, or of woollen, whether in a skin, or in any † thing made of skin:

† Heb. work of.

49 And if the plague be greeniſh, or reddiſh in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any † thing of [o] skin; it is a plague of leproſie, and ſhall be ſhewed unto the prieſt.

† Heb. veſſel, or inſtrument.
[o] whether it be garment, veſſel, or inſtrument.

50 And the prieſt ſhall look upon the plague, and ſhut up it that hath the plague ſeven days.

51 And he ſhall look on the plague on the ſeventh day: if the plague be ſpread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is a fretting leproſie; it is unclean.

52 He ſhall therefore burn that garment, whether warp, or woof, inwoollen, or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leproſie; it ſhall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the prieſt ſhall look, and behold, the plague be not ſpread in the [p] garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin;

[p] But abide ſtill in one place, as verſe 37.

54 Then the prieſt ſhall command that they waſh the thing wherein the plague is, and he ſhall ſhut it up ſeven days more.

55 And the prieſt ſhall look on the plague after that it is waſhed: and behold, if the plague have not changed his [q] colour, and the plague be not ſpread; it is unclean, thou ſhalt burn it in the fire: it is fret inward, † [r] whether it be bare within or without.

[q] But remain as it did before.

† Heb. whether it be bald in the head thereof, or in the forehead thereof.
[r] Or, whether it be in any bare place before, or behind.

56 And if the prieſt look, and behold, the plague be ſomwhat dark after the waſhing of it; then he ſhall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof.

57 And if it appear ſtill in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a ſpreading plague: thou ſhalt burn that wherein the plague is, with fire.

58 And

94

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatſoever thing of skin it be, which thou ſhalt waſh, if the plague be departed from them, then it ſhall be [f] waſhed the ſecond time, and ſhall be clean.

[f] To the intent he might be ſure that the leproſie was departed, and that all occaſion of infection might be taken away.

59 This is the law of the plague of leproſie in a garment of woollen or linen either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

CHAP. XIV.

1 The rites and ſacrifices in cleanſing of the leper. 33 The ſigns of leproſie in an houſe. 48 The cleanſing of that houſe.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

[a] Or, the ceremonie which ſhall be uſed in his purgation.

2 This ſhall be [a] the law of the leper, in the day of his cleanſing: he * ſhall be brought unto the prieſt.

* Mat. 8. 4. Mark 1. 44. Luk. 5. 14.

3 And the prieſt ſhall go forth out of the camp: and the prieſt ſhall look, and behold, if the plague of leproſie be healed in the leper;

4 Then ſhall the prieſt command to take for him that is to be cleanſed, two ‡ birds alive, and [b] clean, and cedar-wood, and ſcarlet, & hyſſop.

‡ Or, ſparrows.

[b] of birds which were permitted to be eaten.

5 And the prieſt ſhall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen veſſel, [c] over running water.

[c] Running water, or of the fountains.

6 As for the living bird, he ſhall take it, and the cedar-wood, and the ſcarlet, and the hyſſop, and ſhall dip them and the living bird, in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.

7 And he ſhall ſprinkle upon him that is to be cleanſed from the leproſie, ſeven times, and ſhall pronounce him clean, and ſhall let the living bird [d] looſe † into the open field.

[d] Signifying, that he that was made clean, was ſet at liberty, & reſtored to the companie of others.

† Heb. upon the face of the field.

8 And he that is to be cleanſed ſhall waſh his clothes, and ſhave off all his hair, and waſh himſelf in water, that he may be clean: and after that he ſhall come into the camp, and ſhall tarry abroad out of his tent ſeven days.

9 But it ſhall be on the ſeventh day, that he ſhall ſhave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eye-brows, even all his hair he ſhall ſhave off: and he ſhall waſh his clothes, alſo he ſhall waſh his fleſh in water, and he ſhall be clean.

[e] which hath no imperfection in any member.

† Heb. the daughter of her year,

[f] This meaſure in Hebrew, is called Log, and containeth ſix egges in meaſure.

10 And on the eighth day he ſhall take two he-lambs without [e] blemiſh, and one ew-lamb † of the firſt year, without blemiſh, and three tenth-deals of fine flour for a meat-offering, mingled with oyl, and one [f] log of oyl.

11 And the prieſt that maketh him clean, ſhall preſent the man that is to be made clean, and thoſe things before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

12 And the prieſt ſhall take one he-lamb, and offer him for a treſpaſs-offering, and the log of oyl, and * wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

* Exod. 29. 24.

13 And he ſhall ſlay the lamb in the place where he ſhall kill the ſin-offering, and the burnt-offering, in the holy place: for * as the ſin-offering is the prieſts, ſo is the treſpaſs-offering: it is moſt holy.

* Chap. 7. 7.

14 And the prieſt ſhall take ſome of the blood of the treſpaſs-offering, and the prieſt ſhall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleanſed, & upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

15 And the prieſt ſhall take ſome of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand:

16 And the prieſt ſhall dip his right finger in the oyl that is in his left hand, and ſhall ſprinkle of the oyl with his finger, ſeven times before the LORD.

17 And of the reſt of the oyl that is in his hand, ſhall the prieſt put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleanſed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the bloud of the treſpaſs-offering.

18 And the remnant of the oyl that is in the prieſts hand, he ſhall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleanſed: and the prieſt ſhall make an atonement for him before the LORD.

19 And the prieſt ſhall offer the ſin-offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleanſed from his uncleanneſs, and afterward he ſhall kill the burnt-offering.

20 And the prieſt ſhall offer the burnt-offering, and the meat-offering upon the altar: and the prieſt ſhall make an atonement for him, and he ſhall be clean.

† Heb. his hand reach not,

21 And if he be poor, and † cannot get ſo much, then he ſhall take one lamb for a treſpaſs-offering † to be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one [g] tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering, and a log of oyl:

† Heb. for a waving.

[g] which is an omer, read Exod 16. 16.

22 And two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, ſuch as he is able to get; and the one ſhall be a ſin-offering, and the other a burnt-offering.

23 And he ſhall bring them on the eighth day, for his cleanſing, unto the prieſt, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD.

24 And the prieſt ſhall take the lamb of the treſpaſs-offering, and the log of oyl, and the prieſt ſhall [h] wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

[h] Or, ſhall offer them as the offering that is ſhaken to and fro.

25 And he ſhall kill the lamb of the treſpaſs-offering, and the prieſt ſhall take ſome of the bloud of the treſpaſs-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleanſed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

26 And the prieſt ſhall pour of the oyl into the palm of his own left hand.

27 And the prieſt ſhall ſprinkle with his right finger, ſome of the oyl that is in his left hand, ſeven times before the LORD.

28 And the prieſt ſhall put of the oyl that is in his hand, upon the tip of the right ea of him that is to be cleanſed, & upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right

right foot; upon the place of the bloud of the treſpaſs-offering.

29 And the reſt of the oyl that is in the prieſts hand, he ſhall put upon the head of him that is to be cleanſed, to make an atonement for him before the LORD.

30 And he ſhall offer the one of the turtle-doves, or of the young [i] pigeons, ſuch as he can get:

[i] whether of them he can get.

31 Even ſuch as he is able to get, the one for a ſin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, with the meat-offering. And the prieſt ſhall make an atonement for him that is to be cleanſed, before the LORD.

[k] This order is appointed for the poor man.

32 This is the [k] law of him in whom is the plague of leproſie, whoſe hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleanſing.

33 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, and unto Aaron, ſaying,

34 When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a poſſeſſion, and [l] I put the plague of leproſy in a houſe of the land of your poſſeſſion;

[l] This declareth that no plague nor puniſhment cometh to man without Gods providence and his ſending.

35 And he that oweth the houſe ſhall come and tell the prieſt, ſaying, It ſeemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the houſe:

‡ Or, prepare.

36 Then the prieſt ſhall command that they ‡ emptie the houſe, before the prieſt go into it to ſee the plague; that all that is in the houſe be not made unclean: and afterward the prieſt ſhall go in to ſee the houſe.

37 And he ſhall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the houſe, with hollow ſtrakes, greeniſh or reddiſh, which in ſight are lower than the wall;

38 Then the prieſt ſhall go out of the houſe, to the door of the houſe, and ſhut up the houſe ſeven days.

39 And the prieſt ſhall come again the ſeventh day, and ſhall look: and behold, if the plague be ſpread in the walls of the houſe;

40 Then the prieſt ſhall command that they take away the ſtones, in which the plague is, and they ſhall caſt them into an unclean place without the city.

41 And he ſhall cauſe the houſe to be ſcraped within round about, and they ſhall pour out the duſt that they ſcrape off, without the city into an [m] unclean place.

[m] where carrions were caſt, and other filth, that the people might not be therewith infected.

42 And they ſhall take other ſtones, and put them in the place of thoſe ſtones; and he ſhall take other morter, and ſhall plaiſter the houſe.

43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the houſe, after that he hath taken away the ſtones, and after he hath ſcraped the houſe, and after it is plaiſtered;

44 Then the prieſt ſhall come and look, and behold, if the plague be ſpread in the houſe, it is a fretting leproſy in the houſe: it is unclean.

[n] That is, he ſhall command it to be pulled down, as ver. 40.

45 And he ſhall [n] break down the houſe, the ſtones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the morter of the houſe: and he ſhall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover, he that goeth into the houſe all the while that it is ſhut up, ſhall be unclean untill the even.

47 And he that lieth in the houſe, ſhall waſh his clothes: and he that eateth in the houſe, ſhall waſh his clothes.

† Heb. in coming in ſhall come in, &c.

48 And if the prieſt † ſhall come in, and look upon it, and behold, the plague hath not ſpread in the houſe, after the houſe was plaiſtered: then the prieſt ſhall pronounce the houſe clean, becauſe the plague is healed.

49 And he ſhall take to cleanſe the houſe two birds, and cedar-wood, & [o] ſcarlet, & hyſſop.

[o] It ſeemeth that this was a lace or ſtring to bind the hyſſop to the wood, and ſo was made a ſprinkle: the Apoſtle to the Hebrews calleth it ſcarlet wool.

50 And he ſhall kill the one of the birds in an earthen veſſel, over running water.

51 And he ſhall take the cedar-wood, and the hyſſop, and the ſcarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the bloud of the ſlain bird, and in the running water, and ſprinkle the houſe ſeven times.

52 And he ſhall cleanſe the houſe with the bloud of the bird, and with the running water, & with the living bird, & with the cedar-wood, and with the hyſſop, and with the ſcarlet.

53 But he ſhall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the houſe: and it ſhall be clean.

54 This is the law for all manner of plague of leproſie, and * ſcall.

* Chap. 13. 30.

55 And for the leproſie of a garment, and of an houſe.

56 And for a riſing, and for a ſcab, and for a bright ſpot;

† Heb. in the day of the unclean, and in the day of the clean.

57 To teach † when it is unclean, and when it is clean: this is the law of leproſie.

CHAP. XV.

1 The uncleanneſs of men in their iſſues. 13 The cleanſing of them. 19 The uncleanneſs of women in their iſſues. 28 Their cleanſing.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, and to Aaron, ſaying,

2 Speak unto the children of Iſrael, and ſay unto them, When any man hath a ‡ running iſſue out of his [a] fleſh, becauſe of his iſſue he is unclean.

‡ Or, running of the reins,

[a] whoſe ſeed either in ſleeping, or els of weakneſs of nature, iſſueth at his ſecret part.

3 And this ſhall be his uncleanneſs in his iſſue: whether his fleſh run with his iſſue, or his fleſh be ſtopped from his iſſue, it is his [b] uncleanneſs.

[b] Or the thing wherefore he ſhall be unclean

4 Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the iſſue, is unclean: and every † thing whereon he ſitteth, ſhall be unclean.

† Heb. veſſel.

5 And whoſoever toucheth his bed, ſhall wash his clothes, aud bath himſelf in water, and be unclean untill the even.

6 And he that ſitteth on any thing whereon he ſat that hath the iſſue, ſhall wash his clothes, and bathe himſelf in water, and be unclean untill the even.

7 And he that toucheth the fleſh of him that hath the iſſue, ſhall wash his clothes, and bath himſelf in water, and be unclean untill the even.

8 And if he that hath the iſſue ſpit upon him that is clean; then he ſhall [c] wash his clothes, and bath himſelf in water, and be unclean untill the even.

[c] On whom the unclean man did ſpit.

9 And

9 And what [d] saddle soever he rideth upon, that hath the issue, shall be unclean.

d The word signifieth, every thing whereon a man rideth.

10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him, shall be unclean untill the even: and he that beareth any of those things, shall wash his clothes, and bath himself in water, and be unclean untill the even.

11 And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue (and hath not rinsed his hands in water) he shall wash his clothes, and bath himself in water, and be unclean untill the even.

12 And the * vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

Chap. 6. 28.

13 And when he that hath an issue, is [e] cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bath his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

e That is, be restored to his old state, and be healed thereof.

14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest.

15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD, for his issue.

16 And if any mans seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his [f] flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

f Meaning, all his body.

17 And every garment, and every skin whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.

18 The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bath themselves in water, and be unclean until the even.

19 ¶ And if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be † put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her, shall be unclean untill the even.

† Heb. in her separation:

20 And every thing that she lieth upon in her [g] separation, shall be unclean: every thing also that she sitteth upon, shall be unclean.

g That is, when she hath her flowers, whereby she is separate from her husband from the tabernacle, and from touching of any holy thing.

21 And whosoever toucheth her bed, shall wash his clothes, and bath himself in water, and be unclean untill the even.

22 And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon, shall wash his clothes, and bath himself in water, & be unclean untill the even.

23 And if it be on her bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean untill the even.

24 And if any man lie with her at all, and her [h] flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days: and all the bed whereon he lieth, shall be unclean.

h If any of her uncleanness did onely touch him in the bed: for els the man that accompanied with such a woman should die, Chap. 20. 18.

25 And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean.

26 Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue, shall be unto her as the [i] bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon, shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation.

i Shall be unclean, as the bed whereon she lay when she had her naturall disease.

27 And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bath himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall [k] number to her self seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

k After the time that she is recovered.

29 And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her before the LORD, for the issue of her uncleanness.

31 Thus shall ye [l] separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is among them.

l Seeing that God requireth of his, puritie and cleanness; we cannot be his, except our filth and sin be purged with the bloud of Jesus Christ, and so we learn to detest all sin.

32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith.

33 And of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her which is unclean.

1 How the high priest must enter into the holy place. 11 The sin-offering for himself. 15 The sin-offering for the people. 20 The scape-goat. 29 The yearly feast of the expiations.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, after *the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died:

* Chap. 10. 1.

2 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he * come not at [a] all times into the holy place within the vail before the mercie-seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercie-seat.

* Exod. 30. 10. Heb. 9. 7.

a The high priest entred into the holiest of all but once a year, even in the moneth of September.

3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering.

4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with the linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.

5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel, two kids of the goats for a sin-offering, and one ram for a burnt-offering.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin-offering, which is for himself, and * make an atonement for himself, and for his house.

* Heb. 9. 7.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present present them before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the [b] scape-goat.

b In Hebrew it is called, Azazel, which some say, is a mountain near Sinai, whither this goat was sent: but rather it is called the scape-goat, because he was not offered, but sent into the deserts, as vers. 21.

9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORDS lot † fell, and offer him for a sin-offering.

† Heb. went up.

10 But the goat on which the lot fell to be the scape-goat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scape-goat into the wilderness.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin-offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin-offering which is for himself.

12 And he shall take a censer-full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, & his hands-full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the [c] vail.

c The Holiest of all.

13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy-seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not.

14 And * he shall take of the bloud of the bullock, and * sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy-seat [d] east-ward: and before the mercy-seat shall he sprinkle of the bloud with his finger seven times.

* Heb. 9. 15. & 10. 4.
* Chap. 4. 6.

d That is, On the side which was toward the people: for the head of the sanctuary stood west-ward.

15 ¶ Then shall he kill the goat of the sin-offering that is for the people, and bring his bloud within the vail, and do with that bloud as he did with the bloud of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy-seat, and before the mercy-seat.

16 And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation that † remaineth among [e] them, in the midst of their uncleanness.

e Placed among them which are unclean.

17 * And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

* Luk. 1. 10.

18 And he shall go out unto the [f] altar that is before the LORD, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the bloud of the bullock, and of the bloud of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about.

f whereupon the sweet incense and perfume was offered.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the bloud upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hollow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 ¶ And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the [g] head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of † a fit man into the wilderness.

g Herein this goat is a true figure of Jesus Christ, who beareth the sins of the people, Isa. 53. 4.
† Heb. a man of opportunity.

22 And the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities, unto a land † not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.

† Heb. of separation.

23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there.

24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the [h] holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt-offering, and the burnt-offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

h In the court where was the Laver; Exod. 30. 18.

25 And the fat of the sin-offering shall he burn upon the altar.

26 And he that let go the goat for the scape-goat, shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp.

27 * And the bullock for the sin-offering, and the goat for the sin-offering, whose bloud was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp, and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.

* Chap. 6. 30. Heb. 13. 11.

28 And he that burneth them, shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

29 ¶ And this shall be a statute for ever unto you: that in the [i] seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall [k] afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you.

i which was Tisri, and answereth to part of September, & part of October, k Meaning, By abstinence and fasting, Num. 29. 7.

30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31 It shall be a [l] Sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls by a statute for ever.

l Or a rest which ye shall keep most diligently.

32 And the [m] priest whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall † consecrate to minister in the priests office in his fathers stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments.

m whom the priest shall anoint by Gods commandment to succeed in his fathers room.
† Heb. fill his hand.

33 And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar: and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

1 The bloud of all slain beasts must be offered to the Lord, at the door of the tabernacle. 7 They must not offer to devils. 10 All eating of bloud is forbidden, 15 and all that dieth alone, or is torn.

2 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, This is the thing which the LORD hath [a] commanded, saying,

98

[a] Lest they should practice that idolatry which they had learned among the Egyptians.

3 What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that [b] killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp,

[b] To make a sacrifice or offering thereof.

4 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD; [c] bloud shall be imputed unto that man, he hath shed bloud; and that man shall be cut off from among his people:

[c] I do as much abhor it, as though he had killed a man, as Isa. 66. 3.

5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the [d] open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation unto the priest, and offer them for peace-offerings unto the LORD.

[d] whereſoever they were moved with foolish devotion to offer it.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle the bloud upon the altar of the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a * sweet savour unto the LORD.

* Exod. 29. 18. Chap. 4. 31.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto [e] devils, after whom they have gone a [f] whoring: This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

[e] Meaning, whatsoever is not the true God, 1 Cor. 10. 20. Psal 95. 5.

[f] For idolatry is spiritual whordom, because faith toward God is broken.

8 ¶ And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt-offering or sacrifice,

9 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

10 ¶ And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of bloud; I will even set my [g] face against that soul that eateth bloud, and will cut him off from among his people.

[g] I will declare my wrath by taking vengeance on him, as Chap. 20. 3.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the bloud, and I have given it to you upon the altar, to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the bloud that maketh an atonement for the soul.

12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat bloud, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you, eat bloud.

13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, † which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be [h] eaten; he shall even pour out the bloud thereof, and cover it with dust.

† Heb. that huntath any hunting

[h] which the law permitteth to be eaten, because it is clean.

* Gen. 9. 4.

14 * For it is the life of all flesh, the bloud of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the bloud of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the bloud thereof: whosoever eateth it, shall be cut off.

† Heb. a carcass.

15 And every soul that eateth † that which died of it self, or that which was torn with beasts (whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger) he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even: then shall hee be clean.

16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Unlawful marriages. 19 Unlawful lusts.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, I am the LORD your God.

3 After the [a] doings of the land of Egypt wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances.

[a] Ye shall preserve your selves from these abominations following, which the Egyptians and Canaanites use.

4 Ye shall do my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the LORD your God.

5 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments: * which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the [b] LORD.

* Ezek. 20. 11. Rom. 10. 5. Gal 3. 12.

[b] And therefore ye ought to serve me alone, as my people.

6 ¶ None of you shall approach to any that is † near of kin to him, to [c] uncover their nakedness: I am the LORD.

† Heb remainder of his flesh

[c] That is, To lie with her, though it be under title of marriage.

7 The nakedness of thy father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

8 * The nakedness of thy [d] fathers wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy fathers nakedness.

* Chap. 20. 11.

[d] which is thy stepmother.

9 The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy [e] father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover.

[e] Either by father or mother, born in marriage or otherwise.

10 The nakedness of thy sons daughter, or of thy daughters daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for theirs is thine own [f] nakedness.

[f] They are her children whose shame thou hast uncovered.

11 The nakedness of thy fathers wives daughter, begotten of thy father, (she is thy sister) thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

12 * Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy fathers sister: she is thy fathers near kinswoman.

* Chap. 20. 19.

13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mothers sister: for she is thy mothers near kinswoman.

14 * Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy [g] fathers brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thine aunt.

* Chap. 20. 20.

[g] which thine uncle doth discover.

15 * Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter in law: she is thy sons wife, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

* Chap 20. 11.

16 * Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy [h] brothers wife: it is thy brothers nakedness.

* Chap. 20 21.

[h] Because the idolaters among whom Gods people had dwelt and should dwell, were given to these horrible incests; God charged his to beware of the same.

17 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her sons daughter, or her daughters daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

18 Neither shalt thou take ‡ a wife to her sister, to [i] vex her, to uncover her nakedness besides the other in her life-time.

‡ Or, one wife to another.

[i] By seeing thine affection more bent to her sister then to her.

19 * Also thou shalt not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put [k] apart for her uncleanness.

* Chap. 20. 18.

[k] Or, whiles she hath her flours.

20 More-

20 Moreover; thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbours wife, to defile thy self with her.

21 And thou shalt not let any of thy seed * pass through the fire to *[1] Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

22 Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

23 * Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thy self therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion.

24 Defile not you your selves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled, which I cast out before you.

25 And the land is defiled: therefore I do [m] visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land it self [n] vomiteth out her inhabitants.

26 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you:

27 (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled)

28 That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it [o] spued out the nations that were before you.

29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them, shall be [p] cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not your selves therein: I am the LORD your God.

CHAP. XIX.

A repetition of sundry laws.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, * Ye shall be [a] holy: for I the LORD your God am holy.

3 ¶ Ye shall fear every man his mother and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

4 Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to your selves molten gods: I am the LORD your God.

5 ¶ And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD; ye shall offer it, at your [b] own will.

6 It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if ought remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire.

7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day; it is abominable; it shall not be [c] accepted.

8 Therefore every one that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD: and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

9 ¶ And * when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

10 And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God.

11 ¶ Ye shall not steal, neither [d] deal falsly, neither lie one to another.

12 ¶ And ye shall not * swear by my name falsly, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

13 ¶ * Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: * the wages of him that is hired, shall not abide with thee all night until the morning,

14 ¶ Thou shalt nor curse the deaf, * nor put a stumbling-block before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD.

15 ¶ Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment; thou shalt not * respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

16 ¶ Thou shalt not go up and down as a [e] tale-bearer among thy people; neither shalt thou [f] stand against the bloud of thy neighbour: I am the LORD.

17 ¶ * Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: * thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neigh-bour, ‡ and not suffer sin upon him.

18 ¶ Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, * but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self: I am the LORD.

19 ¶ Ye shall keep my statutes: Thou shalt not let thy cattel gender with a [g] diverse kind: Thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: neither shall a garment mingled of linen and wollen come upon thee.

20 ¶ And whosoever lieth carnally with a women that is a bond-maid ‡† betrothed to an husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; ‡† she shall be scourged: they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.

21 And he shall bring his trespass-offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, even a ram for a trespass-offering.

22 And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass-offering, before the LORD, for his sin which he hath done: and the sin which he hath done, shall be forgiven him.

23 ¶ And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food; then ye shall count the fruit thereof as [h] uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten of.

24 But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be † holy to praise the LORD withall.

25 And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yeild unto you the increase thereof: I am the LORD your God.

26 ¶ Ye shall not eat any thing with the bloud;

1 Of him that giveth of his ſeed to Molech. 4 Of him that favoureth ſuch an one, 6 Of going to wizards, 7 Of ſanctification, 9 Of him that curſeth his parents, 10 Of adultery. 11, 14, 17, 19 Of inceſt. 13 Of ſodomy. 15 Of beſtiality. 18 Of uncleanneſs, 22 Obedience is required with holineſs. 27 Wizards muſt be put to death.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

2 * Again, thou ſhalt ſay to the children of Iſrael, Whoſoever he be of the children of Iſrael, or of the ſtrangers that ſojourn in Iſrael, that giveth any of his ſeed unto [a] Molech; he ſhall ſurely be put to death: the people of the land ſhall ſtone him with ſtones.

* Chap. 18. 21.
a By Molech, he meaneth any kind of idol, Chap. 18. 21.

3 And I will [b] ſet my face againſt that man, and will cut him off from among his people: becauſe he hath given of his ſeed unto Molech, to defile my ſanctuary, and to profane my holy name.

b Read Chap. 17. 10. & 18. 21.

4 And if the [c] people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his ſeed unto Molech, and kill him not:

c Though the people be negligent to do their duty, and defend Gods right, yet he will not ſuffer wickedneſs to go unpuniſhed.

5 Then I will ſet my face againſt that man, and againſt his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

6 ¶ And the ſoul that turneth after ſuch as have familiar ſpirits, and after wizards, to go a [d] whoring after them, I will even ſet my face againſt that ſoul, and will cut him off from among his people.

1 Of the priests mourning. 6 Of their holiness. 8 Of their estimation. 7, 13 Of their marriages. 16 The priests that have blemishes must not minister in the sanctuary.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be [a] defiled for the dead among his people.

a By touching the dead, lamenting, or being at their burial.

2 But for his kin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a [b] virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband: for her may he be defiled.

b For being married, she seemed to be cut off from his family.

4 But ‡ he shall not defile himself, being a [c] chief man among his people, to profane himself.

‡ Or, being an husband among his people he shall not defile himself for his wife, &c.

c The priest was permitted to mourn for his next kindred Chap. 19. 27.

5 * They shall not make bladness upon their head, neither shall thy shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the bread of their God they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 They shall not take a wife that is a whore, or [d] profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

d which hath an evil name, or is defamed.

8 Thou shalt [e] sanctify him therefore, for he offereth the [f] bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the LORD which sanctify you, am holy.

e Thou shalt count them holy, and reverence them.
f The shew-bread.

9 ¶ And the daughter of any priest, if she profane her self by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

10 And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oyl was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not [g] uncover his head, nor rent his clothes;

g He shall use no such ceremonies as the mourners observed.

11 Neither shall he go into any dead body; nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother:

12 Neither shall he go out of the [h] sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the [i] crown of the anointing oyl of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

h To go to the dead.

i For by his anointing he was preferred to the other priests, and therefore could not lament the dead least he should have polluted his holy anointing.

13 And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or an harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his [k] own people to wife.

k Not onely of his tribe, but of all Israel.

15 Neither shall he profane his [l] seed among his people: for I the LORD do sanctify him.

l By marrying any unchaste or defamed woman.

16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations, that hath any blemish, let him not approach to offer the ‡ bread of his God:

‡ Or, food.

18 For whatsoever man he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a [m] flat nose, or any thing [n] * superfluous;

m which is deformed or bruised.

o Or that hath a web or pearl.

21 No man that hath a blemish, of the seed of Aaron the priest, shall come nigh to offer the offering of the LORD made by fire; he hath a blemish, he shall not come nigh to offer the [p] bread of his God.

p As the shewbread and meat-offerings.

22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most [q] holy, and of the [r] holy.

q As of sacrifice for sin.
r As of the tenths and first fruits.

23 Onely he shall not go in unto the [s] vail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

s Into the sanctuary.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The priests in their uncleanness must abstain from the holy things. 8 How they shall be cleansed. 10 Who of the priests house may eat of the holy things. 17 The sacrifices must be without blemish. 26 The age of the sacrifice. 29 The law of eating the sacrifice of thanksgiving.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons; that they [a] separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name, in those things which they hallow unto me: I am the LORD.

a Meaning; That the priests abstain from eating so long as they are polluted.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed, among your generations, that [b] goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

b To eat thereof.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath * a † running issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be clean. And whoso toucheth any thing that is [c] unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed goeth from him:

13 But if the prieſts daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her fathers houſe, * as in her youth, ſhe ſhall eat of her fathers meat; but there ſhall no ſtranger eat thereof.

g He ſhall give that, and a fift part over.

14 ¶ And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he ſhall put the [g] fifth part thereof unto it, and ſhall give it unto the prieſt, with the holy thing.

15 And they ſhall not profane the holy things of the children of Iſrael, which they offer unto the LORD:

‡ Or, lade themſelves with the iniquity of treſpaſs in their eating.
h For if they did not offer for their errour, the people by their example might commit the like offence.

16 Or ‡ ſuffer them to bear the iniquity [h] of treſpaſs, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do ſanctify them.

17 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

18 Speak unto Aaron, and to his ſons, and unto all the children of Iſrael, and ſay unto them, Whatſoever he be of the houſe of Iſrael, or of the ſtrangers in Iſrael, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his free-will-offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt-offering:

23 Either a bullock, or a ‡ lamb that hath any thing * ſuperfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayeſt thou offer for a free-will-offering; but for a vow it ſhall not be accepted.

24 Ye ſhall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruiſed, or cruſhed, or broken, or cut; neither ſhall you make any offering thereof in your land.

i Ye ſhall not receive any unperfect thing of a ſtranger, to make it the Lords offering: which he calleth the bread of the Lord.

25 Neither from a [i] ſtrangers hand ſhall ye offer the bread of your God of any of theſe; becauſe their corruption is in them, and blemiſhes be in them: they ſhall not be accepted for you.

26 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

27 When a bullock, or a ſheep, or a goat is brought forth, then it ſhall be ſeven days under the dam; and from the eight day, and thenceforth, it ſhall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, untill the self-same day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: It shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

15 ¶ And * ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the [g] sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

* Deut. 16. 9.

g That is, the seventh day after the first sabbath of the pass-over.

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath, shall ye number fifty days, and ye shall offer a new meat-offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave-loaves, of two tenth-deals: they shall be of fine flour, they shall be baken with [h] leaven, they are the first-fruits unto the LORD.

h Because the priest should eat them, as Chap. 7. 13. and they should not be offered to the Lord upon the altar.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish, of the first year, and one young bullock and two rams: they shall be for a burnt-offering unto the LORD, with their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, even an offering made by fire of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats, for a sin-offering, and two lambs of the first year, for a sacrifice of peace-offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first-fruits, for a wave-offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the [i] priests.

i That is, Offered to the Lord, and the rest should be for the priest.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the self-same day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: It shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings, throughout your generations.

22 ¶ And * when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, * neither shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

3 [a] Six years thou ſhalt ſow thy field, and ſix years thou ſhalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof.

a The Jews began the count of this year in September: for then all the fruits were gathered.

4 But in the ſeventh year ſhall be a ſabbath of reſt unto the land, a ſabbath for the LORD: thou ſhalt neither ſow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 That which groweth of its [b] own accord of thy harveſt, thou ſhalt not reap, neither gather the grapes † of thy vine [c] undreſſed: for it is a year of reſt unto the land.

d That which the land bringeth forth in her reſt.

7 And for thy cattel, and for the beaſts that are in thy land, ſhall all the increaſe thereof be meat.

8 ¶ And thou ſhalt number ſeven ſabbaths baths of years unto thee, ſeven times ſeven years, and the ſpace of the ſeven ſabbaths of years ſhall be unto thee, fourty and nine years.

9 Then ſhalt thou cauſe the [e] trumpet † of the jubile to ſound, on the tenth day of the ſeventh month; in the day of atonement, ſhall ye make the trumpet ſound throughout all your land.

e In the beginning of the fifty year was the jubile, ſo called, becauſe the joyful tidings of liberty was publikely proclaimed by the ſound of a cornet.
† Heb. lond of ſound.

10 And ye ſhall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land, unto all the [f] inhabitants thereof: it ſhall be a jubile unto you, and ye ſhall return every man unto his [g] poſſeſſion, and ye ſhall return every man unto his family.

12 For it is the jubile, it ſhall be holy unto you: ye ſhall eat the increaſe thereof out of the field.

13 In the year of this jubile ye ſhall return every man unto his poſſeſſion.

14 And if thou ſell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyeſt ought of thy neighbours hand; ye ſhall not [h] oppreſs one another.

h By deceit or otherwiſe.

15 According to the number of [i] years after the jubile, thou ſhalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he ſhall ſell unto thee:

i If the jubile to come be near, thou ſhalt ſell better cheap: if it be far off, dearer.

16 According to the multitude of years thou ſhalt increaſe the price thereof, and according to the fewneſs of years thou ſhalt diminiſh the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the [k] fruits doth he ſell unto thee.

k And not the full poſſeſſion of the land.

17 Ye ſhall not therefore oppreſs one another; but thou ſhalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye ſhall do my ſtatutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye ſhall dwell in the land in ſafety.

19 And the land ſhall yeild her fruit, and ye ſhall eat your fill, and dwell therein in ſafety.

20 And if ye ſhall ſay, What ſhall we eat the ſeventh year? behold, we ſhall not ſow, nor gather in our increaſe:

21 Then I will command my bleſſing upon you in the ſixth year, and it ſhall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And ye ſhall ſow the eighth year, and eat yet of old fruit, until the ninth year; until her fruits come in, ye ſhall eat of the old ſtore.

25 ¶ If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath ſold away ſome of his poſſeſſion, and if any of his kin come to redeem it, then ſhall he redeem that which his brother ſold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and † himſelf be able to redeem it:

† Heb. his hand hath attained and found ſufficiency.

27 Then let him [n] count the years of the ſale thereof, and reſtore the overplus unto the man to whom he ſold it; that he may return unto his poſſeſſion.

28 But if he be not able to reſtore it to him, then that which is ſold ſhall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it, until the year of jubile: and in the jubile it ſhall go [o] out, and he ſhall return unto his poſſeſſion.

o From his hand that bought it.

29 And if a man ſell a dwelling-houſe in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is ſold: within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the ſpace of a full year; then the houſe that is in the walled city, ſhall be [p] eſtabliſhed for ever to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it ſhall not go out in the jubile.

p Read verſe 23.

31 But the houſes of the villages which have no walls round about them, ſhall be counted as the fields of the country: † they may be redeemed, and they ſhall go out in the jubile.

† Heb. redemption belongeth unto it.

32 Notwithſtanding, the cities of the Levites, and the houſes of the cities of their poſſeſſion, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And if ‡ a man purchaſe of the Levites, then the houſe that was ſold, and the city of his poſſeſſion ſhall go out in the year of jubile: for the houſes of the cities of the Levites are their poſſeſſion among the children of Iſrael.

‡ Or, one of the Levites redeem them.

34 But the field of the [q] ſuburbs of their cities may not be ſold, for it is their perpetual poſſeſſion.

THE

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED NUMBERS.

* So called, because of the diversitie and multitude of numbrings, which are here chiefly contained, both of mens names and places.

THE ARGUMENT.

For asmuch as God hath appointed that his church in this world shall be under the cross, both because they should learn not to put their trust in worldly things, and also feel his comfort, when all other help faileth: he did not straightway bring his people, after their departure out of Egypt, into the land which he promised them, but led them to and fro for the space of fourtie years, and kept them in continuall exercises before they enjoyed it, to trie their faith, and to teach them to forget the world and to depend on him. Which triall did greatly profit to discern the wicked and the hypocrites from the faithfull and true servants of God, who served him with pure heart; whereas the Other preferring their carnall affections to Gods glorie, and making religion to serve their purpose, murmured when they lacked to content their lusts, and despised them whom God had appointed rulers over them. By reason whereof they provoked Gods terrible judgements against them, and are set forth as a most notable example for all ages to beware how they abuse Gods word, prefer their own lusts to his will, or despise his ministers. Notwithstanding, God is ever true in his promise, and governeth his by his holy Spirit, that either they fall not to such inconveniences, or els return to him quickly by true repentance: and therefore he continueth his graces toward them, he giveth them ordinances and instructions, as well for religion as outward policie: he preserveth them against all craft and conspiracie, and giveth them manifold victories against their enemies. And to avoid all controversies that might arise, he taketh away the occasion, by dividing among all the tribes, both the land which they had won, and that also which he had promised, as seemed best to his holy wisdom.

CHAP. I.

1 God commandeth Moses to number the people. 5 The princes of the tribes. 17 The number of every tribe. 47 The Levites are exempted for the service of the Lord.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of [a] Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the [b] second moneth, in the second year, after they were come out the land of Egypt, saying,

2 * Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their poll:

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel; thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies.

4 And with you there shall be a [c] man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

5 ¶ And these are the names of the men that shall [d] stand with you; Of the tribe of Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur.

6 Of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

7 Of Judah; Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

8 Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

9 Of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon.

10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim; Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

11 Of Benjamin; Abidan the son of Gideoni.

12 Of Dan: Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

13 Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran.

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These were the renowned of the congregation, [e] princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ And Moses and Aaron took these men, which are expressed by their names.

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second moneth, and they declared their [f] pedegrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twentie years old and upward, by their poll.

19 As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbred them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the children of ‡ Reuben Israels eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twentie years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war:

out their generations, after their families, by the houſe of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war:

43 Thoſe that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty and three thouſand and four hundred.

44 Theſe are thoſe that were numbred, which Moſes and Aaron numbred, and the princes of Iſrael, being twelve men: each one was for the houſe of his fathers.

45 So were all thoſe that were numbred of the children of Iſrael, by the houſe of their fathers from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Iſrael;

46 Even all they that were numbred, were ſix hundred thouſand and three thouſand and five hundred and fifty.

47 ¶ But the Levites, after the tribe of their fathers, were not numbred among [g] them.

[g] which were warrion, but were appointed to the uſe of the tabernacle.

48 For the LORD had ſpoken unto Moſes, ſaying,

49 Onely thou ſhalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the ſum of them among the children of Iſrael:

50 But thou ſhalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of teſtimony, and over all the veſſels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they ſhall bear the tabernacle, and all the veſſels thereof, and they ſhall miniſter unto it, and ſhall encamp round about the tabernacle.

51 And when the tabernacle ſetteth forward, the Levites ſhall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites ſhall ſet it up: and the [h] ſtranger that cometh nigh, ſhall be put to death.

[h] whoſoever is not of the tribe of Levi.

52 And the children of Iſrael ſhall pitch their tents every man by his own camp, and every man by his own ſtandard, throughout their hoſts.

53 But the Levites ſhall pitch round about the tabernacle of teſtimony; that there be no [i] wrath upon the congregation of the children of Iſrael: and the Levites ſhall keep the charge of the tabernacle of teſtimony.

[i] By not having due regard to the tabernacle of the Lord.

54 And

54 And the children of Iſrael did according to all that the LORD commanded Moſes, ſo did they.

CHAP. II.

1 The order of the tribes in their tents.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, and unto Aaron, ſaying,

2 [a] Every man of the children of Iſrael ſhall pitch by his own ſtandard, with the enſign of their fathers houſe: † far off about the tabernacle of the congregation ſhall they pitch.

a In the twelve tribes were four principall ſtandards, ſo that every three tribes had their ſtandard.
† Heb. over againſt.

3 ¶ And on the eaſt-ſide toward the riſing of the ſun, ſhall they of the ſtandard of the camp of Judah pitch, throughout their armies: and Nahſhon the ſon of Amminadab ſhall be captain of the children of Judah.

4 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred of them, were threeſcore and fourteen thouſand and ſix hundred.

5 And thoſe that do pitch next unto him, ſhall be the tribe of [b] Iſſachar: and Nethaneel the ſon of Zuar ſhall be captain of the children of Iſſachar.

b Judah, Iſſachar, and Zebulun, the ſons of Leah were of the firſt ſtandard.

6 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred thereof, were fifty and four thouſand and four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the ſon of Helon ſhall be captain of the children of Zebulun.

8 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred thereof, were fifty and ſeven thouſand and four hundred.

c Of them which were contained under that name.

9 All that were numbred in the [c] camp of Judah, were an hundred thouſand and fourſcore thouſand and ſix thouſand and four hundred, throughout their armies: theſe ſhall firſt ſet forth.

d Reuben and Simeon, the ſons of Leah, and Gad the ſon of Zilpah her maid, were of the ſecond ſtandard.

10 ¶ On the ſouth-ſide ſhall be the ſtandard of the camp of [d] Reuben, according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben ſhall be Elizur the ſon of Shedeur.

11 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred thereof, were forty and ſix thouſand and five hundred.

12 And thoſe which pitch by him, ſhall be the tribe of Simeon: and the captain of the children of Simeon ſhall be Shelumiel the ſon of Zuriſhaddai.

13 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred of them, were fiftie and nine thouſand and three hundred.

14 Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the ſons of Gad ſhall be Eliaſaph the ſon of Reuel.

15 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred of them, were fortie and five thouſand and ſix hundred and fiftie.

16 All that were numbred in the camp of Reuben, were an hundred thouſand and fiftie and one thouſand and four hundred and fiftie, throughout their armies: and they ſhall ſet forth in the ſecond rank.

e Becauſe it might be in equall diſtance from each one and all indifferently have recourſe thereunto.

17 ¶ Then the tabernacle of the congregation ſhall ſet forward with the camp of the Levites, in the [e] midſt of the camp: as they encamp, ſo ſhall they ſet forward, every man in his place by their ſtandards.

18 ¶ On the weſt-ſide ſhall be the ſtandard of the camp of [f] Ephraim, according to their armies: and the captain of the ſons of Ephraim ſhall be Eliſhama the ſon of Ammihud.

f Becauſe Ephraim and Manaſſeh ſupplied the place of Joſeph their father, they are taken to be Rachels children: ſo they and Benjamin make the third ſtandard.

19 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred of them, were forty thouſand and five hundred.

20 And by him ſhall be the tribe of Manaſſeh: and the captain of the children of Manaſſeh ſhall be Gamaliel the ſon of Pedahzur.

21 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred of them, were thirty and two thouſand and two hundred.

22 Then the tribe of Benjamin: and the captain of the ſons of Benjamin ſhall be Abidan the ſon of Gideoni.

23 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred of them, were thirty and five thouſand and four hundred.

24 All that were numbred of the camp of Ephraim, were an hundred thouſand and eight thouſand and an hundred, throughout their armies: and they ſhall go forward in the third rank.

g Dan and Naphtali the ſons of Bilha, Rachels maid, with Aſher the ſon of Zilpah make the fourth ſtandard.

25 ¶ The ſtandard of the camp of [g] Dan ſhall be on the north-ſide by their armies: and the captain of the children of Dan ſhall be Ahiezer the ſon of Ammiſhaddai.

26 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred of them, were threeſcore and two thouſand and ſeven hundred.

27 And thoſe that encamp by him, ſhall be the tribe of Aſher: and the captain of the children of Aſher, ſhall be Pagiel the ſon of Ocran.

28 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred of them, were forty and one thouſand and five hundred.

29 Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the captain of the children of Naphtali ſhall be Ahira the ſon of Enan.

30 And his hoſt, and thoſe that were numbred of them, were fiftie and three thouſand and four hundred.

31 All they that were numbred in the camp of Dan, were an hundred thouſand and fiftie and ſeven thouſand and ſix hundred: they ſhall go hindmoſt with their ſtandards.

h which were of twentie years and above.

32 ¶ Theſe are thoſe which were [h] numbred of the children of Iſrael by the houſe of their fathers; all thoſe that were numbred of the camps throughout their hoſts, were ſix hundred thouſand and three thouſand and five hundred and fifty.

33 But the Levites were not numbred among the children of Iſrael, as the LORD commanded Moſes.

34 And the children of Iſrael did according to all that the LORD commanded Moſes: ſo they pitched by their [i] ſtandards, and ſo they ſet forward, every one after their families, according to the houſe of their fathers.

i For under every one of the four principall ſtandards were diverſe ſigns to keep every band in order.

5 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and preſent them before [d] Aaron the prieſt, that they may miniſter unto him.

d Offer them unto Aaron for the uſe of the tabernacle.

7 And they ſhall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation [e] before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the ſervice of the tabernacle.

e which appertained to the executing of the high prieſts commandment, to the overſight of the people, and to the ſervice of the tabernacle.

8 And they ſhall keep all the inſtruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Iſrael, to do the ſervice of the tabernacle.

9 And thou ſhalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his [f] ſons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Iſrael.

19 And the ſons of Kohath by their families; Amram, and Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 And the ſons of Merari by their families; Mahli, and Muſhi: theſe are the families of the Levites, according to the houſe of their fathers.

21 Of Gerſhon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: theſe are the families of the Gerſhonites.

22 Thoſe that were numbred of them, according to the number of all the [h] males, from a moneth old and upward, even thoſe that were numbred of them, were ſeven thouſand and five hundred.

h Onely men bring the male children.

23 The families of the Gerſhonites ſhall pitch behind the tabernacle weſt-ward.

24 And the chief of the houſe of the father of the Gerſhonites, ſhall be Eliaſaph the ſon of Lael.

25 And the charge of the ſons of Gerſhon, in the tabernacle of the congregation, ſhall be the [i] tabernacle, and the tent, the covering thereof, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

i Their charge was to carry the coverings and hangings of the tabernacle.

26 And the hangings of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the cords of it, for all the ſervice thereof.

27 ¶ And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izeharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: theſe are the families of the Kohathites.

28 In the number of all the males, from a moneth old and upward, were eight thouſand and ſix hundred, keeping the [k] charge of the ſanctuary.

k Doing every one his duty in the ſanctuarie.

29 The families of the ſons of Kohath ſhall pitch on the ſide of the tabernacle ſouthward.

30 And the chief of the houſe of the father of the families of the Kohathites, ſhall be Elizaphan the ſon of Uzziel.

31 And their charge ſhall be the [l] ark, and the table, and the candleſtick, and the altars, and the veſſels of the ſanctuary wherewith they miniſter, and the hanging, and all the ſervice thereof.

l The chief things within the ſanctuarie were committed to the Kohathites.

32 And Eleazar the ſon of Aaron the Prieſt, ſhall be chief over the chief of the Levites, and have the overſight of them that keep the charge of the ſanctuary.

33 ¶ Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Muſhites: theſe are the families of Merari.

34 And thoſe that were numbred of them, according to the number of all the males from a moneth old and upward, were ſix thouſand and two hundred.

35 And the chief of the houſe of the father of the families of Merari, was Zuriel the ſon of of Abihail: theſe ſhall pitch on the ſide of the tabernacle north-ward.

† Heb, the office of the charge.
m The wood-work and the reſt of the inſtruments were committed to their charge.

36 And †under the cuſtody and charge of the ſons of Merari ſhall be the [m] boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the ſockets thereof, and all the veſſels thereof, and all that ſerveth thereto.

37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their ſockets, and their pins, and their cords.

n That none ſhould enter into the tabernacle contrary to Gods appointment.

38 ¶ But thoſe that encamp before the tabernacle toward the eaſt, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eaſt-ward, ſhall be Moſes and Aaron, and his ſons, keeping the charge of the ſanctuary, for the [n] charge of the children of Iſrael: and the ſtranger that cometh nigh, ſhall be put to death.

o So that the firſt born of the children of Iſrael were more by 273, as verſ. 43.

39 All that were numbred of the Levites, which Moſes and Aaron numbred at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a moneth old and upward, were twenty and two [o] thouſand.

p So that now the Levites ſhould ſatisfie unto the Lord for the firſt-born of Iſrael, ſave for the 273 which were more than the Levites, for whom they paid money.

40 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Number all the firſt-born of the males of the children of Iſrael, from a moneth old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou ſhalt take the Levites for [p] me (I am the LORD) in ſtead of all the firſt-born among the children of Iſrael; and the cattel of the Levites, in ſtead of all the firſtlings among the cattel of the children of Iſrael.

42 And Moſes numbred, as the LORD commanded him, all the firſt-born among the children of Iſrael.

43 And all the firſt-born males, by the number of names, from a moneth old and upward, of thoſe that were numbred of them, were twenty and two thouſand two hundred and threeſcore and thirteen.

44 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

45 Take the Levites in ſtead of all the firſt-born among the children of Iſrael, and the cattel of the Levites in ſtead of their cattel, and the Levites ſhall be mine; I am the LORD:

46 And for thoſe that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threeſcore and thirteen, of the firſt-born of the children of Iſrael, which are more than the Levites;

47 Thou ſhalt even take five ſhekels a piece by the poll, after the ſhekel of the ſanctuarie ſhalt thou take them: * the ſhekel is twenty gerahs.

* Exod. 30. 13. Levit. 27. 25. Chap. 18. 16. Ezek. 45. 12.

48 And thou ſhalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his ſons.

49 And Moſes took the redemption-money of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites.

q Of the two hundred ſeventie and three, which were more than the Levites.

50 Of the [q] firſt-born of the children of Iſrael took he the money; a thouſand three hundred and threeſcore and five ſhekels, after the ſhekel of the ſanctuary.

51 And Moſes gave the money of them that that were redeemed, unto Aaron, and to his ſons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moſes.

CHAP. IV.

1 The age and time of the Levites ſervice. 4 The carriage of the Kohathites, when the prieſt have taken down the tabernacle. 16 The charge of Eleazar. 17 The office of the prieſts. 21 The carriage of the Gerſhonites. 29 The carriage of the Merarites. 34 The number of the Kohathites, 38 of the Gerſhonites, 42 and of the Merarites.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, and unto Aaron, ſaying,

2 Take the ſum of the ſons of Kohath from among the ſons of Levi, after their families, by the houſe of their fathers;

a The Levites were numbred after three ſorts, firſt at a moneth old when they were conſecrated to the Lord, next at 25 years old, when they were appointed to ſerve in the tabernacle, and at 30. years old to bear the burdens of the tabernacle.

3 From [a] thirty years old and upward, even untill fiftie years old, all that enter into the hoſt, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 This ſhall be the ſervice of the ſons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the moſt holy things.

b which divided the ſanctuarie from the holieſt of all.

5 ¶ And when the camp ſetteth forward, Aaron ſhall come and his ſons, and they ſhall take down the [b] covering-vail, and cover the ark of teſtimony with it:

6 And ſhall put thereon the covering of badgers skins, and ſhall ſpread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and ſhall put in the [c] ſtaves thereof.

c That is, put them upon their ſhoulders to carrie it: for the ſtaves of the ark cou'd never be removed, Exod. 25. 15.

7 And upon the * table of ſhew-bread they ſhall ſpread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the diſhes, and the ſpoons, and the bowls, and [d] covers to ‡ cover withall: and the continuall bread ſhall be thereon.

‡ Or, pour out withall.

8 And they ſhall ſpread upon them a cloth of ſcarlet, and cover the ſame with a covering of badgers skins, and ſhall put in the ſtaves thereof.

9 And they ſhall take a cloth of blue, and cover the * candleſtick of the light, * and his lamps, and his tongs, and his ſnuff-diſhes, and all the oyl-veſſels thereof, wherewith they miniſter unto it.

* Exod. 25. 31.
† Exod. 25. 37, 38.

10 And they ſhall put it and all the veſſels thereof within a covering of badgers skins, and ſhall put it upon a [e] bar.

e The Hebrew word ſignifieth an inſtrument made of two ſtaves or bars.

11 And upon the [f] golden altar they ſhall ſpread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers skins, and ſhall put to the ſtaves thereof.

f which was to burn incenſe. Read Exod. 30. 1.

12 And they ſhall take all the inſtruments of miniſterie, wherewith they miniſter in the ſanctuarie, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers skins, and ſhall put them on a bar.

13 And they ſhall take away the aſhes from the [g] altar, and ſpread a purple cloth thereon:

g Of the burnt-offering.

14 And they ſhall put upon it all the veſſels thereof, wherewith they miniſter about it, even the cenſers, the fleſh-hooks, and the ſhovels, and the ‡ baſons, all the veſſels of the altar; and they ſhall ſpread upon it a covering of badgers skins, and put to the ſtaves of it.

‡ Or, bowls.

15 And when Aaron and his ſons have made an end of [h] covering the ſanctuarie, and b That is, in folding up the thing, of the Sanctuarie; as the Ark, &c.

all the veſſels of the ſanctuarie, as the camp is to ſet forward; after that, the ſons of Kohath ſhall come to bear it: but they ſhall not [i] touch any holy thing, leaſt they die. Theſe things are the burden of the ſons of Kohath, in the tabernacle of the congregation.

16 ¶ And to the office of Eleazar the ſon of Aaron the prieſt, pertaineth the oyl for the light, and the [] ſweet incenſe, and the [k] daily meat-offering, and the [] anointing oyl, and the overſight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the ſanctuary, and in the veſſels thereof.

17 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, and unto Aaron, ſaying,

18 Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites, from among the Levites.

19 But thus do unto them, that they may live and not die, when they approach unto the moſt holy things; Aaron and his ſons ſhall go in, and [m] appoint them every one to his ſervice, and to his burden.

20 But they ſhall not go in to ſee when the holy things are covered, leaſt they die.

21 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

22 Take alſo the ſum of the ſons of Gerſhon, throughout the houſes of their fathers by their families;

23 From thirtie years old and upward, untill fifty years old ſhalt thou number them; all that [n] enter in to † perform the ſervice, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 This is the ſervice of the families of the Gerſhonites, to ſerve, and for ‡ burdens.

25 And they ſhall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers ſkins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the [o] door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

26 And the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the [p] court which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the inſtruments of their ſervice, and all that is made for them: ſo ſhall they ſerve.

27 At the † appointment of Aaron and his ſons, ſhall be all the ſervice of the ſons of the Gerſhonites, in all their burdens, and in all their ſervice: and ye ſhall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens.

28 This is the ſervice of the families of the ſons of Gerſhon, in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge ſhall be under the [q] hand of Ithamar the ſon of Aaron the prieſt.

29 ¶ As for the ſons of Merari, thou ſhalt number them after their families, by the houſe of their fathers;

30 From thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old ſhalt thou number them, every one that entreth into the † ſervice, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation.

31 And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their ſervice in the tabernacle of the congregation; [*] the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and ſockets thereof,

32 And the pillars of the court round about, and their ſockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their inſtruments, and with all their ſervice: and by [s] name ye ſhall reckon the inſtruments of the charge of their burden.

33 This is the ſervice of the families of the ſons of Merari, according to all their ſervice in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar the ſon of Aaron the prieſt.

34 ¶ And Moſes and Aaron and the chief of the congregation numbred the ſons of the Kohathites after their families, and after the houſe of their fathers;

35 From thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old, every one that entreth into the ſervice, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation:

36 And thoſe that were numbred of them by their families, were two thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty.

37 Theſe were they that were numbred of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do ſervice in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moſes and Aaron did number, according to the commandment of the LORD by the [t] hand of Moſes.

38 And thoſe that were numbred of the ſons of Gerſhon, throughout their families, and by the houſe of their fathers;

39 From thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old, every one that entreth in to the ſervice, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation:

40 Even thoſe that were numbred of them, throughout their families, by the houſes of their fathers, were two thouſand and ſix hundred and thirtie.

41 Theſe are they that were numbred of the families of the ſons of Gerſhon, of [u] all that might do ſervice in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moſes and Aaron did number, according to the commandment of the LORD.

42 ¶ And thoſe that were numbred of the families of the ſons of Merari, throughout their families, by the houſe of their fathers;

43 From thirty years old and upward, even unto fiftie years old, every one that entreth into the ſervice, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation:

44 Even thoſe that were numbred of them after their families, were three thouſand and two hundred.

CHAP. V.

1 The unclean are removed out of the camp. 5 Restitution is to be made in trespasses. 11 The triall of jealousie.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every * leper, and every one that hath an * issue, and whosoever is defiled by the * dead.

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their z camps in the midst whereof I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel, * When a man or woman shall commit any b sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guiltie;

7 Then they shall confess their sin which they have don: and he shall recompense his trespass * with the principall thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no c kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest: beside the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every ‡ offering of all the d holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his.

10 And every mans hollowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be * his.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any mans wife go e aside, and commit a trespass against him,

13 And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley-meal; he shall pour no f oyl upon it, nor put frankincense thereon, for it is an offering of jealousie, an offering of memoriall, bringing iniquitie to g remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD.

17 And the priest shall take h holy water in an earthen vessel, and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take; and put it into the water.

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, & uncover the womans head, & put the offering of memoriall in her hands, which is the jealousie offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the i curse.

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lien with thee, and if thou hast not gon aside to uncleanness ‡† with another in stead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse:

20 But if thou hast gon aside to another in stead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, & some man hath lien with thee beside thine husband:

21 Then the priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, The LORD make thee a k curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make thy thigh to † rot, and thy belly to swell;

22 And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell and thy thigh to rot: And the woman shall say, l Amen, amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall m blot them out with the bitter water:

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousie-offering out of the womans hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar.

26 And the priest shall take an handfull of the offering, even the memoriall thereof, and burn it upon the n altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another in stead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousie cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

° The man might accuse his wife upon suspition, and not be reproved.

31 Then shall the man be° guiltless from iniquitie, and this woman shall bear her iniquitie.

CHAP. VI.

1 The law of the Nazarites. 22 The form of blessing the people.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall ‡ separate themselves to vow a vow of a [a] Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the LORD:

‡ Or, make themselves Nazarites.
a which separated themselves from the world, and dedicated themselves to God: which figure was accomplished in Christ.

3 He shall separate himself from wine, and strong drink, and shall drink no vineger of wine, or vineger of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes or dried.

‡ Or, Nazaritship.
‡ Or, vine of the wine.

4 All the days of his ‡ separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the ‡ vine-tree, from the kernels even to the husk.

* Judg. 13. 5. 1 Sam. 1. 11.

5 All the days of the vow of his separation, there shall no * rasour come upon his head: untill the days be fulfilled in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy; and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

b As at burials, or mournings.

6 All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall come at no[b] dead body.

† Heb. separation.
c In that he suffered his hair to grow, he signified that he was consecrated to God.

7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the † consecration of his God is upon his [c] head.

8 All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD.

d which long hair is a sign that he is dedicated to God.

9 And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his [d] consecration; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

11 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin-offering, & the other for a burnt-offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the [e] dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

e By being present where the dead was.
f Beginning at the eighth day, when he is purified.

12 And he shall [f] consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass-offering: but the days that were before shall † be [g] lost, because his separation was defiled.

† Heb. fall.
g So that he shall begin his vow anew.

13 ¶ And this is the law of the Nazarite: When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he-lamb of the first year without blemish, for a burnt-offering, and one ew-lamb of the first-year without blemish, for a sin-offering, and one lamb without blemish, for peace-offerings, 15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oyl, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oyl, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings.

16 And the priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin-offering, and his burnt-offering.

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

* Acts 21. 24.
h In token that his vow is ended.

18 * And the Nazarite shall [h] shave the head of his separation, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, & [i] put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace-offerings.

i For the hair which was consecrate to the Lord, might not be cast into any prophane place.

19 And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer; and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven.

20 And the priest shall wave them * for a wave-offering before the LORD; this is holy for the priest, with the wave-breast, and heave-shoulder: and after that, the Nazarite may drink wine.

* Exod. 29. 27.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite, who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation: [k] besides that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

k At the least he shall do this, if he be able to offer no more.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall [l] bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, l That is, Pray for them.

24 The LORD bless thee, and keep thee:

25 The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

26 The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

27 And they shall put my [m] name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.

m They shall pray in my name for them.

CHAP. VII.

1 The offerings of the princes at the dedication of the tabernacle. 10 Their severall offerings at the dedication of the altar, 89 God speaketh to Moses from the mercie-seat.

AND it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully * set up the tabernacle, and had anointed a Like hors-litters to keep the things that were carried in them, from weather.

4 And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be to do the [b] ſervice of the tabernacle of the congregation, and thou ſhalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his ſervice.

b That is, To carrie things, and ſtuff in.

6 And Moſes took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the ſons of Gerſhon; according to their [c] ſervice.

c For their uſe to carrie with.

8 And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the ſons of Merari, according unto their ſervice, under the hand of Ithamar the ſon of Aaron the prieſt.

9 But unto the ſons of Kohath he gave none: [d] becauſe the ſervice of the ſanctuarie belonging unto them, was that they ſhould bear upon their ſhoulders.

d The holy things of the ſanctuarie muſt be carried upon their ſhoulders, and not drawn with oxen, chap. 4. 15.

10 ¶ And the princes offered for [e] dedicating of the altar, in the day that it was anointed, even the princes offered their offering before the altar.

e That is, when the firſt ſacrifice was offered thereupon by Aaron, Lev. 9. 1.

11 And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, They ſhall offer their offering each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.

12 ¶ And he that offered his offering the firſt day, was ‡ Nahſhon the ſon of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah.

‡ The offering of Nahſhon.

13 And his offering was one ſilver charger, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty ſhekels, one ſilver bowl of ſeventy ſhekels after the ſhekel of the ſanctuarie, both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a * meat-offering.

* Lev. 2. 1, 2.

14 One ſpoon of ten ſhekels of gold, full of incenſe:

15 One young bullok, one ram, one lamb of the firſt year, for a burnt-offering:

1 The paſſover is commanded again. 6 A ſecond paſſover allowed for them that were unclean or abſent. 15 The cloud guideth the removings and encampings of the Iſraelites.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes in the wilderneſs of Sinai, in the firſt moneth of 120 of the second year, after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep * the passover, at it's appointed season.

3 In the fourteenth day of this moneth † at even, ye shall keep it in it's appointed season: according to [a] all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first moneth at even, in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And there were certain men who were [b] defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses, and before Aaron on that day.

7 And those men said unto them, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not [c] offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posteritie shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a [d] journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD.

11 The fourteenth day of the [e] second moneth at even they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, * nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover, they shall keep it.

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the [f] passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from his people, because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season: that man shall bear his sin.

14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD, according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: * ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.

15 ¶ And * on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the [g] appearance of fire, untill the morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire, by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle; then after that, the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the [h] LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: * as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle, they rested in the tents.

19 And when the clould † tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the [i] charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was when the cloud † abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel * abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in their tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the [k] hand of Moses.

10 ¶ Then Moſes heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moſes alſo was diſpleaſed.

11 And Moſes ſaid unto the LORD, Wherefore haſt thou afflicted thy ſervant? and wherefore have I not found [f] favour in thy ſight, that thou layeſt the burden of all this people upon me?

12 Have I [g] conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou ſhouldeſt ſay unto me, Carrie them in thy boſom (as a nurſing father beareth the ſucking child) unto the [h] land which thou ſwareſt unto their fathers?

13 Whence ſhould I have fleſh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, ſaying, Give us fleſh, that we may eat.

14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, becauſe it is too heavy for me.

15 And if thou deal thus with me, [i] kill me. I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy ſight; and let me not ſee my wretchedneſs.

16 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Gather unto me ſeventy men of the elders of Iſrael, whom thou knoweſt to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may ſtand there with thee.

17 And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the [k] ſpirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they ſhall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thy ſelf alone.

18 And ſay thou unto the people, [l] Sanctifie your ſelvs againſt to morrow, and ye ſhall eat fleſh (for you have wept in the ears of the LORD, ſaying, Who ſhall give us fleſh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt) therefore the LORD will give you fleſh, and ye ſhall eat.

19 Ye ſhall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twentie days;

20 But even a [†] whole moneth, untill it come out at your noſtrils, and it be loathſom unto you: becauſe that ye have [m] deſpiſed the LORD which is [n] among you, and have wept before him, ſaying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moſes ſaid, The people amongſt whom I [o] am, are ſix hundred thouſand footmen; and thou haſt ſaid, I will give them fleſh, that they may eat a whole moneth.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be ſlain for them, to ſuffice them? or ſhall all the fiſh of the ſea be gathered together for them, to ſuffice them?

23 And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, * Is the LORDS hand waxed ſhort? thou ſhalt ſee now whether my word ſhall come to paſs unto thee, or not.

24 ¶ And Moſes went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the ſeventy men of the elders of the people, and ſet them round about the tabernacle.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moſes, and ſaid, Eldad and Medad do propheſie in the camp.

28 And Joſhua the ſon of Nun, the ſervant of Moſes, one of his [q] young men, anſwered and ſaid, My lord Moſes [r] forbid them.

29 And Moſes ſaid unto him, Envieſt thou for my ſake? would God that all the LORDS people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his ſpirit upon them.

30 And Moſes gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Iſrael.

31 ¶ And there went forth a * wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the ſea, and let them fall by the camp, † as it were a days journey on this ſide, and as it were a days journey on the other ſide, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high, upon the face of the earth.

† That is a cluſter of grapes.

25 And they returned from ſearching of the land after fourty days.

26 ¶ And they went and came to Moſes and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Iſrael unto the wilderneſs of Paran, to [g] Kadeſh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and ſhewed them the fruit of the land.

g Called alſo Kadeſh-barnea.

27 And they told [h] him, and ſaid, We came unto the land whither thou ſenteſt us, and ſurely it floweth with * milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

h That is, Moſes.

* Exod. 33. 3.

28 Nevertheleſs, the people be ſtrong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover, we ſaw the [i] children of Anak there.

29 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the ſouth: and the Hittites, and the Jebuſites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the ſea, and by the coaſt of Jordan.

30 And Caleb ſtilled the people before Moſes, and ſaid, Let us go up at once, and poſſeſs it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 But the men that went up with him: ſaid, We be not able to go up againſt the people for they are ſtronger than we.

32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had ſearched, unto the children of Iſrael, ſaying, The land through which we have gone to ſearch it, is a land that [k] eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we ſaw in it, are † men of a great ſtature.

k The Giants were ſo cruel, that they ſpoiled and killed one another, and thoſe that came to them.
† Heb. men of ſtatures.

33 And there we ſaw the giants, the ſons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own ſight as graſhoppers, and ſo we were in their ſight.

CHAP. XIV.

1 The people murmure at the news. 6 Joſhua and Caleb labour to ſtill them. 11 God treatneth them. 13 Moſes perſwadeth God, and obtaineth pardon. 26 The murmures are deprived of entring into the land. 36 The men who raiſed the evil report, die by a plague. 40 The people that would invade the land againſt the will of God, are ſmitten.

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the [a] people wept that night, a Such as were afraid at the report of the ten ſpies.

2 And all the children of Iſrael murmured againſt Moſes, and againſt Aaron: and the whole congregation ſaid unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt, or would God we had died in this wilderneſs.

3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the ſword, that our wives & our children ſhould be a [b] prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

b To our enemies the Canaanites.

4 And they ſaid one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.

5 Then Moſes and Aaron fell on their [c] faces before all the aſſembly of the congregation of the children of Iſrael.

c Lamenting the people, and praying for them.

6 ¶ And Joſhua the ſon of Nun, and Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh, which were of them that ſcarched the land, [d] rent their clothes.

d For ſorrow hearing their blaſphemy.

7 And they ſpake unto all the company of the children of Iſrael, ſaying, The land which we paſſed through to ſearch it, is an exceding good land.

8 If the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with mik and honey.

9 Onely rebell not ye againſt the LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are [e] bread for us: their † defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not.

e We ſhall eaſily overcome them.
† Heb. ſhadow.

10 But all the congregation bade [f] ſtone them with ſtones: and the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation, before all the children of Iſrael.

f This is the condition of them that would perſwade in Gods cauſe, to be perſecuted of the multitude.

11 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the ſigns which I have ſhewed among them?

12 I will ſmite them with the peſtilence, and diſinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation, and mightier than they.

13 ¶ And * Moſes ſaid unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians ſhall hear it (for thou broughteſt up this people in thy might from among them)

* Exod. 32. 11.

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art ſeen face to face, and that * thy cloud ſtandeth over them, and that thou goeſt before them, by day-time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

* Exod. 13. 21.

15 Now if thou ſhalt kill all this people, as [g] one man; then the nations which have heard the fame of thee, will ſpeak, ſaying, g So that none ſhall eſcape.

16 Becauſe the LORD was not * able to bring this people into the land which he ſware unto them, therefore he hath ſlain them in the wilderneſs.

* Deut. 9. 28.

17 And now, I beſeech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou haſt ſpoken, ſaying, 18 The LORD is * long-ſuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and tranſgreſſion, and by no means clearing the guilty; * viſiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation.

* Exod. 34. 6. Pſal. 103. 8.
* Exod. 20. 5. & 34. 7.

19 Pardon, I beſeech thee, the iniquity of this people, according unto the greatneſs of thy mercy, and as thou haſt forgiven this people, from Egypt, even ‡ untill now.

‡ Or, hitherto.

20 And the LORD ſaid, I have [h] pardoned according to thy word:

h In that he deſtroyed not them utterly, but let their poſterity remain to enter.

21 But as truly as I live, all the earth ſhall be filled with the glory of the LORD.

22 Becauſe all thoſe men which have ſeen my glory, and my miracles which I did in Egypt & in the wilderneſs, and have tempted me now theſe [i] ten times, and have not hearkned to my voice:

i That is, ſundry times and often.
‡ Heb. of theſe ten.

23 † Surely they ſhall not ſee the land which I ſware unto their fathers, neither ſhall any of hem that provoked me, ſee it:

† Joſh. 14. 6.

24 But my ſervant * Caleb, becauſe he had another [k] ſpirit with him, and hath followed me fully; him will I bring into the land, whereinto he went; and his ſeed ſhall poſſeſs it.

k A meek and obedient ſpirit, and not rebellious.

25 (Now the Amalekites, and the Canaanites dwelt in the [l] valley) To morrow turn you, and get you into the [m] wilderneſs, by the way of the Red ſea.

l And lie in wait for you.
m For I will not defend you.

26 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, and unto Aaron, ſaying,

27 How long ſhall I bear with this evil congregation which murmure againſt me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Iſrael, which they murmure againſt me.

28 Say

28 Say unto them, * As truly as I live, ſaith the LORD, as ye have ſpoken in mine ears, ſo will I do to you;

* Chap. 26. 65. & 32. 10. Deut. 1. 35.

29 Your carcaſes ſhall fall in this wilderneſs; and all that were numbred of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured againſt me:

30 Doubtleſs ye ſhall not come into the land concerning which I † ſware to make you dwell therein, ſave Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh, and Joſhua the ſon of Nun.

† Heb. lifted up my hand.

31 But your little ones, which ye ſaid ſhould be a prey, them will I bring in, and they ſhall know the land which ye have deſpiſed.

32 But as for you, your carcaſes they ſhall fall in this wilderneſs.

33 And your children ſhall ‡ [n] wander in the wilderneſs fourty years, and bear your [o] whoredoms, untill your carcaſes be waſted in the wilderneſs,

‡ Or, feed.
n The word ſignifieth to be ſhepherds, or to wander like ſhepherds to and fro.
o Your infidelity and diſobedience againſt God.

34 After the number of the days in which ye ſearched the land, even * fourty days (each day for a year) ſhall ye bear your iniquities, even fourty years, and ye ſhall know my ‡ breach of [p] promiſe.

* Pſal. 95. 10. Ezek. 4. 6.

‡ Or, altering of my purpoſe.
p whether my promiſe be true or no.

35 I the LORD have ſaid, I will ſurely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together againſt me: in this wilderneſs they ſhall be conſumed, and there they ſhall die.

36 And the men which Moſes ſent to ſearch the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmure againſt him, by bringing up a ſlander upon the land;

37 Even thoſe men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, * died by the plague before the LORD.

* 1 Cor. 10. 10. Heb. 3. 17. Jude 5.

38 But Joſhua the ſon of Nun, and Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to ſearch the land, lived ſtill.

39 And Moſes told theſe ſayings unto all the children of Iſrael: and the people mourned greatly.

40 ¶ And they roſe up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, ſaying, Lo, we * be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promiſed: for we have [q] ſinned.

* Deut. 1. 41.

q They confeſs they ſinned by rebelling againſt God, but conſider not they offended in going up without Gods commandment.

41 And Moſes ſaid, Wherefore now do you tranſgreſs the commandment of the LORD? but it ſhall not proſper.

42 Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not ſmitten before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites, and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye ſhall fall by the ſword: becauſe ye are turned away from the LORD; therefore the LORD will not be with you.

r They could not be ſtayed by any means.

44 But they [r] preſumed to go up unto the hill-top: nevertheleſs, the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moſes departed not out of the camp.

45 Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and ſmote them, and * diſcomfited them, even unto Hormah.

* Deut. 1. 44.

CHAP. XV.

1 The law of the meat-offering, and the drink-offering. 13, 29 The ſtranger is under the ſame law. 17 The law of the firſt of the dough for a heav-offering. 22 The ſacrifice for ſins of ignorance. 30 The puniſhment of preſumption. 32 He that violated the ſabbath, is ſtoned 37 The law of fringes.

AND the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

2 * Speak unto the children of Iſrael, and ſay unto them, When ye be come into the [a] land of your habitations, which I give unto you,

* Levit. 23. 10.

a Into the land of Canaan.

3 And will make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a burnt-offering or a ſacrifice, * in † performing a vow, or in a free-will-offering, or in your ſolemn feaſts, to make a * ſweet ſavour unto the LORD, of the herd or of the flock:

* Levit. 22. 21. † Heb. ſeparating. * Exod. 29. 18.

4 Then * ſhall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD, bring a meat-offering, of a tenth-deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an [b] hin of oyl.

* Levit. 2. 1.

b Read Exod. 29. 40.

5 And the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink-offering ſhalt thou prepare, with the burnt-offering or ſacrifice, for one lamb.

6 Or for a ram, thou ſhalt prepare for a meat-offering, two tenth-deals of flour mingled with the third part of an hin of oyl.

7 And for a [c] drink-offering, thou ſhalt offer the third part of an hin of wine, for a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD.

c The liquor was ſo called, becauſe it was poured on the thing that was offered.

8 And when thou prepareſt a bullock for a burnt-offering, or for a ſacrifice in performing a vow, or peace-offerings unto the LORD:

9 Then ſhall he bring with a bullock a meat-offering of three tenth-deals of flour mingled with half an hin of oyl.

10 And thou ſhalt bring for a drink-offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD.

11 Thus ſhall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the [d] number that ye ſhall prepare, ſo ſhall ye do to every one, according to their number.

d Every ſacrifice of beaſts muſt have their meat-offering, and drink-offering, according to this proportion.

13 All that are born of the countrey, ſhall do theſe things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire of a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD.

14 And if a ſtranger ſojourn with you, or whoſoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire of a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD: as ye do, ſo he ſhall do.

15 * One ordinance ſhall be both for you of the congregation, and alſo for the ſtranger that ſojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, ſo ſhall the ſtranger be before the LORD.

* Exod. 12. 49. Chap. 9. 14.

16 One law, & one manner ſhall be for you, and for the ſtranger that ſojourneth with you.

17 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

18 Speak unto the children of Iſrael, and ſay unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you,

126

19 Then it shall be, that when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up an heave-offering unto the LORD.

20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your [e] dough, for an heave-offering; as ye do the heave-offering of the threshing-floor, so shall ye have it.

[e] which is made of the first corn ye gather.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD, an heave-offering in your generations.

22 ¶ And if ye have [f] erred, and not observed all these commandments which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses,

[f] As by oversight or ignorance, read Lev. 4. 2. 13.

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and hence-forward among your generations:

24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance † without the knowledge of the [g] congregation; that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt-offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat-offering, and his drink-offering, according to the ‡ manner, and one kid of the goats for a sin-offering.

† Heb. from the eyes.

[g] Some read from the eyes of the congregation: that is, which is hid from the congregation.

‡ Or, ordinance.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, for it is ignorance; and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin-offering before the LORD, for their ignorance.

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance,

* Levit. 4. 27. 27 ¶ And * if any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she-goat of the first year for a sin-offering.

28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

† Heb. doth.

29 You shall have one law for him that † sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born amongst the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.

† Heb. with an high hand.

30 ¶ But the soul that doth ought † presumptuously (whether he be born in the land, or a stranger) the same reprocheth the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

31 Because he hath despised the word of the LORD, and hath broken his commandment; that soul shall utterly be cut off: his [h] iniquity shall be upon him.

h He shall sustain the punishment of his sin.

32 ¶ And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath-day.

33 And they that found him gathering sticks, brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation.

* Lev. 24. 12, 34 And they put him * in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him.

35 And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp.

36 And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moses.

37 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

38 Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid * them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments, throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a ribband of blue.

* Deut. 22. 12. Matth. 23. 5.

39 And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them: and that ye seek not after your own heart, and your own eyes, after which ye use to go a [i] whoring:

i By leaving God's commandments and following your own lusts.

40 That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.

41 I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God; I am the LORD your God.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The rebellion of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. 23 Moses separateth the people from the rebels tents. 31 The earth swalloweth up Korah, and a fire consumeth others. 36 The censers are reserved to holy use. 41 Fourteen thousand and seven hundred are slain by a plague for murmuring against Moses and Aaron. 46 Aaron by incense stayeth the plague.

* Chap. 27. 3. Ecclus 45. 18. Jude 11.

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, * famous in the congregation, men of renown.

* Chap. 26. 9.

3 And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, † [a] Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy [b] every one of them, and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift you up your selves above the congregation of the LORD?

† Heb. it is enough for you.

a Or, let it suffice you: meaning, have abused us thus long.

b All are holy: therefore none ought to be preferred above others, thus the wicked reason against Gods ordinance.

4 And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face:

5 And he spake unto Korah, and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the LORD will shew who are his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath [c] chosen, will he cause to come near unto him.

c To be the priest and to offer.

6 This do; take you censers, Korah, and all his company:

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to morrow; and it shall be that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy; [d] ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

d He layeth the same to their charge justly wherewith they wrongfully charged him.

8 And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi.

9 Seemeth

9 Seemeth it but a ſmall thing unto you, that the God of Iſrael hath ſeparated you from the congregation of Iſrael, to bring you near to himſelf, to do the ſervice of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to ſtand before the congregation, to miniſter unto them?

e To ſerve in that congregation, as in the verſe before.

10 And he hath brought thee [e] near to him, and all thy brethren the ſons of Levi with thee: and ſeek ye the prieſt-hood alſo?

11 For which cauſe both thou, and all thy company are gathered together againſt the LORD: and what is Aaron, that ye murmure againſt him?

12 ¶ And Moſes ſent to call Dathan and Abiram the ſons of Eliab: which ſaid, We will not come up.

13 Is it a ſmall thing that thou haſt brought us up out of a [f] land that floweth with milk & honey, to kill us in the wilderneſs, except thou make thy ſelf altogether a prince over us?

f Thus they ſpeak contemptuouſly, preferring Egypt to Canaan.

14 Moreover, thou haſt not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards, wilt thou † put out the eyes of theſe men? we will not come up.

† Heb. bore out.

g wilt thou make them, that ſearched the land, believe that they ſaw not that which they ſaw?

15 And Moſes was very wroth, and ſaid unto the LORD, * Reſpect not thou their offering: I have not taken one aſs from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

* Gen. 4. 4.

16 And Moſes ſaid unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company [h] before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron to morrow;

h At the door of the tabernacle.

17 And take every man his cenſer, and put incenſe in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his cenſer, two hundred and fifty cenſers; thou alſo and Aaron each of you his cenſer.

18 And they took every man his cenſer, and put fire in them, and laid incenſe thereon, and ſtood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moſes and Aaron.

i All that were of their faction.

19 And Korah gathered all the [i] congregation againſt them, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: & the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, and unto Aaron, ſaying,

21 Separate your ſelvs from among this congregation, that I may conſume them in a moment.

22 And they fell upon their faces, and ſaid, O God, the God of the ſpirits of all fleſh, ſhall one man ſin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

23 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, ſaying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moſes roſe up, and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Iſrael followed him.

26 And he ſpake unto the congregation, ſaying. Depart, I pray you, from the tents of theſe wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, leaſt ye be conſumed in all [k] their ſins.

k with them that have committed ſo many ſins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram on every ſide: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and ſtood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their ſons, and their little children.

28 And Moſes ſaid, Hereby ye ſhall know that the LORD hath ſent me to do all theſe works: for I have not done them of mine [l] own mind.

l I have not forged them of mine own brain.

29 If theſe men die † the common death of all men, or if they be viſited after the viſitation of all men; then the LORD hath not ſent me.

† Heb. as every man dieth.

30 But if the LORD † make a [m] new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and ſwallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, & they go down quick into the [n] pit; then ye ſhall underſtand that theſe men have provoked the LORD.

† Heb. create a creature.

31 ¶ * And it came to paſs as he had made an end of ſpeaking all theſe words, that the ground clave aſunder that was under them:

* Chap. 27. 3. Deut. 11. 6. Pſal. 106 17.

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and ſwallowed them up, and their houſes, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that appertaineth to them went down alive into the pit, and the earth cloſed upon them: and they periſhed from among the congregation.

34 And all Iſrael that were round about them, fled at the cry of them: for they ſaid, Leaſt the earth ſwallow us up alſo.

35 And there came out a fire from the LORD, and conſumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incenſe.

36 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

37 Speak unto Eleazar the ſon of Aaron the prieſt, that he take up the cenſers out of the burning, and ſcatter thou the fire yonder; for they are hallowed.

38 The cenſers of theſe ſinners againſt their [o] own ſouls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they ſhall be [p] a ſign unto the children of Iſrael.

o which were the occaſion of their own death.

p Of Gods judgements againſt rebels.

39 And Eleazar the prieſt took the braſen cenſers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar:

40 To be a memoriall unto the children of Iſrael, that no ſtranger, which is not of the ſeed of Aaron, come near to offer incenſe before the LORD; that he be not as [q] Korah, and as his company: as the LORD ſaid to him by the hand of Moſes.

q who preſumed above his vocation.

41 ¶ But on the morrow, all the congregation of the children of Iſrael murmured againſt Moſes and againſt Aaron, ſaying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

42 And it came to paſs when the congregation was gathered againſt Moſes and againſt Aaron, that they looked toward the 128 tabernacle of the congregation: and behold the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

43 And Moſes and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes ſaying,

45 Get you up from among this congregation, that I may conſume them as in a moment: and they fell upon their faces.

46 ¶ And Moſes ſaid unto Aaron, Take a cenſer, and put fire therein from off the [r] altar, and put on incenſe, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gon out from the LORD; the plague is begun.

r For it was not lawfull to take any other fire, but of the altar of burnt-offering, Levit. 10. 1.

47 And Aaron took as Moſes commanded, and ran into the midſt of the congregation; and behold, the [f] plague was begun among the people: and he put on incenſe, and made an atonement for the people.

f God had begun to puniſh the people.

48 And he ſtood between the dead and the living, and the plague was [t] ſtayed.

t God drew back his hand, and ceaſed to puniſh them.

49 Now they that died in the plague, were fourteen thouſand and ſeven hundred, beſide them that died about the matter of Korah.

50 And Aaron returned unto Moſes, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was ſtayed.

AND the LORD ſpake unto [a] Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speak unto the children of Iſrael, and take of every one of them a rod according to the houſe of their fathers, of all their princes, according to the houſe of their fathers, twelve rods: write thou every mans name upon his rod.

3 And thou ſhalt write Aarons name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod ſhall be for the head of the houſe of their fathers.

5 And it ſhall come to paſs, that the mans rod whom I ſhall [b] chooſe, ſhall bloſſom; and I will make to ceaſe from me the murmurings of the children of Iſrael, whereby they murmure againſt you.

b To be the chief prieſt.

6 ¶ And Moſes ſpake unto the children of Iſrael, and every one of their princes gave him † a rod a piece, for each prince one, according to their fathers houſes, even twelve rods: and the rod of [c] Aaron was among their rods.

† Heb. a rod for one prince, a rod for one prince,

c Though Joſephs tribe was divided into two, in the diſtribution of the land, yet here it is but one, and Levi maketh a tribe.

7 And Moſes laid up the rods before the LORD, in the tabernacle of witneſs.

8 And it came to paſs that on the morrow Moſes went into the tabernacle of witneſs; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the [d] houſe of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed bloſſoms, and yielded almonds.

d To declare that God did chuſe the houſe of Levi, to ſerve him in the tabernacle.

9 And Moſes brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Iſrael: and they looked and took every man his rod.

10 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto Moſes, Bring * Aarons rod again, before the teſtimonie, to be kept for a token againſt the † rebels; and thou ſhalt quite take away their [e] murmurings from me, that they die not.

11 And Moſes did ſo: as the LORD commanded him, ſo did he.

12 And the children of Iſrael ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying, Behold, we [f] die, we periſh, we all periſh.

f The Chaldey text deſcribeth thus their murmuring we die by the ſword: the earth ſwalloweth us up: the peſtilence doth conſume us.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The charge of the prieſts and Levites. 9 The prieſts portion. 21 The Levites portion. 25 The heav-offering to the prieſts out of the Levites portion.

AND the LORD ſaid unto Aaron, Thou and thy ſons and thy fathers houſe with thee ſhall [a] bear the iniquitie of the ſanctuarie: and thou and thy ſons with thee ſhall bear the iniquity of your prieſthood.

a If you treſpaſs in any thing concerning the ceremonies of the ſanctuarie, or your office, you ſhall be puniſhed.

2 And thy brethren alſo of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be joyned unto thee, & miniſter unto thee: but thou and thy ſons with thee ſhall miniſter before the tabernacle of witneſs.

3 And they ſhall keep thy [b] charge, and the charge of all the tabernacle: onely they ſhall not come nigh the veſſels of the ſanctuary and the altar, that neither they, nor you alſo die.

b That is, the things which are committed to thee: or which thou doſt enjoy them.

4 And they ſhall be joyned unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the ſervice of the tabernacle: and a [c] ſtranger ſhall not come nigh unto you.

c which was not of the tribe of Levi.

5 And ye ſhall keep the charge of the ſanctuary, and the charge of the altar: that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Iſrael.

6 And I, behold, I have * taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Iſrael: to you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the ſervice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

* Chap. 3. 45.

7 Therefore thou and thy ſons with thee, ſhall keep your prieſts office for every thing of the altar, and within the vail, and ye ſhall ſerve: I have given your prieſts office unto you, as a ſervice of gift: and the ſtranger that cometh nigh, ſhall be put to death.

8 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Aaron, Behold, I alſo have given thee the charge of mine [d] heav-offerings, of all the hallowed things of the children of Iſrael; unto thee have I given them, by reaſon of the anointing, and to thy ſons by an ordinance for ever.

d As the firſt fruit, firſt-born, and the tenths.

9 This ſhall be thine of the moſt holy things, reſerved from the [e] fire every oblation of theirs, every meat-offering of theirs, and every ſin-offering of theirs, and every treſpaſs-offering of theirs, which they ſhall render unto me, ſhall be moſt holy for thee and for thy ſons.

e That which was not burned ſhould be the prieſts.

10 In the moſt [f] holy place ſhalt thou eat it; every male ſhall eat it: it ſhall be holy unto thee.

f That is, in the ſanctuarie between the court and the holieſt of all.

11 And

11 And this is thine; the heave-offering of their gift, with all the wave-offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons, and to thy [g] daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house, shall eat of it.

12 All the [†h] best of the oyl, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the first-fruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house, shall eat of it.

14 * Every thing devoted in Israel, shall be thine.

15 Every thing that openeth * the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine, nevertheless, the first-born of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed, from a moneth old shalt thou redeem according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels after the shekel of the sanctuarie; * which is twenty gerahs.

17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat thou shalt [i] not redeem, they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their bloud upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the * wave-breast, and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 All the heave-offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of [k] salt for ever, before the LORD, unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

20 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their [l] land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: * I am thy part, and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 And behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel, for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the children of Israel hence-forth come [m] nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, least they bear sin, † and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall [n] bear their iniquitie: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave-offering unto the LORD; I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shal have no inheritance.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave-offering of it for the LORD, even a tenth part of the tithe.

27 And this your heave-offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the [o] corn of the threshing-floor, and as the fulness of the wine-press.

28 Thus you also shall offer an heave-offering unto the LORD, of all your tithes which ye receive of the children of Israel: and ye shall give thereof the LORDS heave-offering to Aaron the priest.

29 Out of all your [p] gifts ye shall offer every heave-offering of the LORD, of all the [†q] best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof, out of it.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites, as the increase of the threshing-floor, and as the increase of the wine-press.

31 And ye shall eat it in every [r] place, ye & your households: for it is your reward for your service, in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall bear no [s] sin, by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye pollute the [t] holy things of the children of Israel, least ye die.

1 The water of separation made of the ashes of a red heifer. 11 The law for the use of it in purification of the unclean.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

2 This is the [a] ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke.

3 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her * forth without the camp, & one shall [b] slay her before his face.

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her bloud with his finger, and * sprinkle of her bloud directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times.

5 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; * her skin, and her flesh, and her bloud, with her dung, shall he burn.

6 And the priest shall take cedar-wood, and hyssope, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer

7 Then the [c] priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean untill the even.

8 And [d] he that burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean untill the even.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel, for a water [e] of separation: it is a purification for sin.

e Because that they that were separated for their uncleanness, were sprinkled therewith and made clean, chap. 8. 7. It is also called Holy water, because it was ordained to an holy use, chap. 5. 17.

10 And he that gathered the ashes of the heifer, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean untill the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be [g] cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.

g So that he should not be esteemed to be of the holy people, but as a polluted and excommunicate person.

14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent; all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15 And every open vessel which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean.

19 And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shall purifie himself, and [l] wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at even.

l Because he had been among them that were unclean: or else had touched the water, as vers. 21.

20 But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purifie himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation: because he hath defiled the sanctuarie of the LORD, the water of seperation hath not been sprinkled upon him, he is unclean.

21 And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinkleth the water of separation, shall wash his clothes, and he that toucheth the water of separation, shall be unclean untill even.

CHAP. XX.

1 The children of Israel come to Zin, where Miriam dieth. 2 They murmure for want of water. 7 Moses smiting the rock, bringeth forth water at Miribah. 14 Moses at Kadesh desireth passage through Edom, which is denied him. 22 At mount Hor Aaron resigneth his place to Eleazar, and dieth.

THen came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin, in the [a] first moneth: and the people abode in Kadesh; and [b] Miriam died there, and was buried there.

a This was fourty years after their departure from Egypt.
b Moses and Arons sister.

2 And there was no water for the congregation; and they [c] gathered themselvs together against Moses, and against Aaron.

4 And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattel should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or vines, or of pomegranates, neither is there any water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

7 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

8 Take the [d] rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes, and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation, and their beasts drink.

d wherewith thou didst miracles in Egypt, and didst divide the sea.

9 And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear Now, ye rebels, * must we fetch you water out of this rock?

e The punishment which followed hereof, declared that Moses and Aaron believed not the Lords promise, as appeareth vers. 12.

11 And Moses lift up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to [f] sanctifie me in the eyes of the children of Israel; therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

f That the children of Israel should believe and acknowledge my power, and so honour me.

17 Let us paſs, I pray thee, through thy countrey: we will not paſs through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we wil go by the kings high-way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, untill we have paſſed thy borders.

18 And Edom ſaid unto him, Thou ſhalt not paſs by me, leaſt I come out againſt thee with the ſword.

19 And the children of Iſrael ſaid unto him, We will go by the high-way: and if I and my cattel drink of thy water, then I will pay for it: I will onely (without doing any thing elſe) go through on my feet.

20 And he ſaid, Thou ſhalt not go through. And Edom came out againſt him with much people, and with a ſtrong hand.

21 Thus Edom refuſed to give Iſrael paſſage through his border: wherefore Iſrael [k] turned away from him.

22 ¶ And the children of Iſrael, even the whole congregation, journeyed from * Kadeſh, and came unto mount Hor.

23 And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes and Aaron in mount Hor, by the coaſt of the land of Edom, ſaying,

3 And Moab was sore afraid of the people, becaus they were many: and Moab was distressed, becaus of the children of Israel.

b which were the heads, and governours. 4 And Moab said unto the [b] elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the gras of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

* Josh. 24. 9. 5 * He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the [c] river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the † face of the earth, and they abide over against me.

† Heb. eye.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, curs me this people, for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he whom thou blessest, is blessed; and he whom thou curses, is cursed.

d Thinking to bribe him with gifts to curse the Israelites. 7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of Midian departed, with the [d] rewards of divination in their hand: and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again as the LORD shall speak unto me: And the [e] princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

e whom before he called Elders: meaning the governours, and after calleth them servants, that is, subjects to their king. 9 And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying, 11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: Come now, curse me them; peradventure † I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

† Heb. I shall prevail in fighting against them.

f He warned him by a dream, that he should not consent to the kings wicked request. 12 And [f] God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them, thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD [g] refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

g Els he shewed himself willing, covetousnes had so blinded his heart. 14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us.

15 ¶ And Balak sent yet again princes, more and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, † Let nothing, I pray thee, [h] hinder thee from coming unto me:

† Heb. be not thou letted from, &c.

h The wicked seek by all means to further their naughtie enterprises, though they know that God is against them. 17 For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: Come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

* Chap. 24. 13. 18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, * If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me [i] more.

20 And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 ¶ And Gods anger was kindled, because he [k] went: and the angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversarie against him: Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And *the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the fields: & Balaam smote the ass to turn her into the way.

24 [l] But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust her self unto the wall, and crusht Balaams foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaams anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

28 And the LORD opened the [m] mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I don unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, † upon which thou hast ridden ‡ ever since I was thine, [n] unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the LORD [o] opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and ‡ fell flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, I went out † to withstand thee, because thy way is [p] perverse before me.

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore if it † displease thee, I will get me back again.

35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but [q] onely the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 ¶ And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him, unto a city of Moab, which is in the [r] border of Arnon, which is in the utmost coast.

37 And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? Wherefore camest thou not unto me? Am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour?

38 And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee: [s] have I now any power at all to say any thing? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto ‡ Kirjath-huzoth.

40 And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of [t] Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their fathers brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

8 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

9 And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his fathers brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a [c] statute of judgement, as the LORD commanded Moses.

1 Offerings are to be observed. 3 The continuall burnt-offering. 9 The offering on the sabbath, 11 on the new-moons, 16 at the passover, 26 in the day of first-fruits.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering and my a bread for my sacrifices made by fire for † a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

a By bread he meaneth all manner of sacrifice.
† Heb. a savour of my rest.

3 And thou shalt say unto them, * This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot † day by day, for a continuall burnt-offering.

* Exod. 29. 38.
† Heb. in a day.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer † at even;

† Heb. between the two evenings.

5 And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a * meat-offering, mingled with the fourth part of an * hin of beaten oyl.

* Levit. 2. 1.
* Exod. 29. 40.

6 It is a continuall burnt-offering which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And the drink-offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink-offering.

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meat-offering of the morning, and as the drink-offering thereof thou shalt offer it, a b sacrifice made by fire of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

b The meat-offering and drink-offering of the evening sacrifice.

9 ¶ And on the sabbath-day, two lambs of the first year without spot, and two c tenth-deals of flour for a meat-offering mingled with oyl, and the drink-offering thereof.

c Of the measure, Ephah.

10 This is the burnt-offering of every sabbath, beside the continuall d burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

d which was offered every day, at morning and at evening.

11 ¶ And in the beginnings of your moneths ye shall offer a burnt-offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot.

12 And three tenth-deals of flour for a meat-offering mingled with oyl, for one bullock, and two tenth-deals of flour for a meat-offering mingled with oyl, for one ram.

13 And a several tenth-deal of flour mingled with oyl for a meat-offering, unto one lamb, for a burnt-offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

14 And their e drink-offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of an hin unto a ram, and a fourth part of an hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt-offering of every moneth throughout the moneths of the year.

e That is, The wine that shall be poured upon the sacrifice.

15 And one kid of the goats for a sin-offering unto the LORD shall be offered, besides the continuall burnt-offering, & his drink-offering.

16 * And in the fourteenth day of the first moneth is the passover of the LORD.

* Exod. 12. 18. Levit. 23. 5.

17 And in the fifteenth day of this moneth is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

18 In the * first day shall be an f holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein.

* Levit 23. 7.
f Or, solemn assembly.

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt-offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish.

20 And their meat-offering shall be of flour mingled with oyl: three tenth-deals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth-deals for a ram.

21 A several tenth-deal shalt thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

22 And one goat for a sin-offering, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye shall offer these beside the burnt-offering in the morning, which is for a continuall burnt-offering.

24 After this manner ye shall offer daily throughout the seven days, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continuall burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

25 And on the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servil work.

26 ¶ Also in the day of the first-fruits, when ye bring a new meat-offering unto the LORD, after your g weeks be out, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servil work.

g In counting seven weeks from the passover to whitsuntide, as Levit. 23. 15.

27 But ye shall offer the burnt-offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year:

28 And their meat-offering of flour mingled with oyl, three tenth-deals unto one bullock, two tenth-deals unto one ram,

29 A ſeverall tenth-deal unto one lamb, throughout the ſeven lambs:

30 And one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you.

31 Ye ſhall offer them beſides the continuall burnt-offering, and his meat-offering (they ſhall be unto you without blemiſh) and their drink-offerings.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 The offering at the feaſt of trumpets, 7 at the day of afflicting their ſouls, 13 and on the eight days of the feaſt of tabernacles.

AND in the [a] ſeventh moneth, on the firſt day of the moneth, ye ſhall have an holy convocation; ye ſhall do no ſervile work: * it is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you.

2 And ye ſhall offer a burnt-offering for a ſweet favour unto the LORD, one young bullock, one ram, and ſeven lambs of the firſt year without blemiſh:

3 And their meat-offering ſhall be of flour mingled with oyl, three tenth-deals for a bullock, and two tenth-deals for a ram,

4 And one tenth-deal for one lamb, throughout the ſeven lambs:

5 And one kid of the goats for a ſin-offering, to make an atonement for you:

6 Beſide the burnt-offering of the [b] moneth, and his meat-offering, and the daily [c] burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, according unto their manner, for a ſweet ſavour, a ſacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And * ye ſhall have on the tenth day of this ſeventh moneth an holy [d] convocation: and ye ſhall afflict your ſouls: ye ſhall not do any work therein.

8 But ye ſhall offer a burnt-offering unto the LORD for a ſweet ſavour, one young bullock, one ram, and ſeven lambs of the firſt year; they ſhall be unto you without blemiſh.

9 And their meat-offering ſhall be of flour mingled with oyl, three tenth-deals to a bullock, and two tenth-deals to one ram,

10 A ſeverall tenth-deal for one lamb, throughout the ſeven lambs:

11 One kid of the goats for a ſin-offering, beſide the ſin-offering of atonement, and the continuall [e] burnt-offering, and the meat-offering of it, and their drink-offerings.

12 ¶ And on the fifteenth day of the ſeventh moneth, ye ſhall have an holy [f] convocation; ye ſhall do no ſervile work, and ye ſhall keep a feaſt unto the LORD ſeven days.

13 And ye ſhall offer a burnt-offering, a ſacrifice made by fire, of a ſweet ſavour unto the LORD; thirteen young bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the firſt year, they ſhall be without blemiſh.

14 And their meat-offering ſhall be of flour mingled with oyl, three tenth-deals unto every bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth-deals to each ram of the two rams.

15 And a ſeverall tenth-deal to each lamb of the fourteen lambs:

16 And one kid of the goats for a ſin-offering, beſide the continuall burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

17 ¶ And on the ſecond day ye ſhall offer twelve young bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the firſt year without ſpot:

18 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, ſhall be according to their number, after the manner:

19 And one kid of the goats for a ſin-offering, beſide the continuall burnt-offering, and the meat-offering thereof, and their drink-offerings.

20 ¶ And on the third day eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the firſt year without blemiſh:

21 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, ſhall be according to their number, after the [g] manner:

22 And one goat for a ſin-offering, beſide the continual burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

23 ¶ And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the firſt year without blemiſh:

24 Their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, ſhall be according to their number, after the manner:

25 And one kid of the goats for a ſin-offering, beſide the continuall burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

26 ¶ And on the fifth day nine bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the firſt year without ſpot.

27 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, ſhall be according to their number after the manner:

28 And one goat for a ſin-offering, beſide the continuall burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

29 ¶ And on the ſixth day eight bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the firſt year without blemiſh:

30 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, ſhall be according to their number, after the manner:

31 And one goat for a ſin-offering, beſide the continuall burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

32 ¶ And on the ſeventh day ſeven bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the firſt year without blemiſh:

33 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, ſhall be according to their number, after the manner:

34 And one goat for a ſin-offering, beſide the continuall burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

39 These things ye shall ‡ do unto the LORD in your set feasts, besides your [h] vows, and your free-will offerings, for your burnt-offerings, and for your meat-offerings, and for your drink-offerings, and for your peace-offerings.

40 And Moses told the children of Israel, according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Vows are not to be broken. 3 The exception of a maids vow, 6 Of a wives, 9 Of a widows, or her that is divorced.

a Because they might declare them to the Israelites.

AND Moses spake unto the [a] heads of the tribes, concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.

† Heb. profane

2 If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not † break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind her self by a bond, being in her fathers house in her youth;

b For in so doing he doth approve

4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold [b] his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand.

c By not approving or consenting to her vow.

5 But if her father [c] disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

† Heb. her vows were upon her, d Either by oath, or solemn promise.

6 And if she had at all an husband when † she vowed, or [d] uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul, shall stand.

8 But if her husband disallow her on the day that he heard it; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she utered with her lips, wherewith [e] she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her.

e For she is in subjection to her husband, and can perform nothing without his consent.

9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall [f] stand against her, f For they are not under the authoritie of the man.

g Her husband being alive.

10 And if she vowed in her [g] husbands house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul, shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them, then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void, and the LORD shall forgive her.

h To mortifie her self by abstinence, or other bodily exercises.
i And warn her not the same day that he heareth it, as vers. 8.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to [h] afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her, from [i] day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.

k Not the same day he heard them, but some day after, the sin shall be imputed to him, and not to her.

15 But if he shall any ways [k] make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquitie.

16 There are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter being yet in her youth in her fathers house.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 The Midianites are spoiled, and Balaam slain. 13 Moses is wroth with the officers, for saving the women alive. 19 How the soldiers with their captivs and spoil, are to be purified. 25 The proportion whereby the prey is to be divided. 48 The voluntary oblation unto the treasurie of the Lord.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

* Chap. 25. 17.
* Chap. 27. 13.

2 * Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shalt thou * be gathered unto thy people.

a As he had commanded, Chap. 25. 17. declaring also that the injurie don against his people, is don against him.
† Heb. a thousand of a tribe, a thousand of a tribe,

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of your selvs unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of [a] Midian.

4 † Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

b For his great zeal that he bare to the Lord, Chap. 25. 11.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and [b] Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow, in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they slew all the males.

* Josh. 13. 21.
c The false prophet who gave counsel how to cause the Israelites to offend their God.

8 And they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, * Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: [c] Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captivs, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattel, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, & all their goodly castles with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And

12 And they brought the [d] captivs and the prey, and the ſpoil unto Moſes and Eleazar the prieſt, and unto the congregation of the children of Iſrael, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.

13 ¶ And Moſes, and Eleazar the prieſt, and all the princes of the congregation went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moſes was wroth with the officers of the hoſt, with the captains over thouſands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the † battel.

15 And Moſes ſaid unto them, Have ye ſaved all the [e] women alive?

16 Behold, * theſe cauſed the children of Iſrael, through the * counſel of Balaam, to commit treſpaſs againſt the LORD in the [f] matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

17 Now therefore * kill every male among the little [g] ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with † him.

18 But all the women-children that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for your ſelvs.

19 And do ye abide without the camp ſeven days: whoſoever hath killed any perſon, and * whoſoever hath touched any ſlain, purifie both your ſelvs and your captivs, on the third day, and on the ſeventh day.

20 And purifie all your raiment, and all † that is made of ſkins, and all work of goats hair, and all things made of wood.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the prieſt ſaid unto the men of war which went to the battel, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moſes;

22 Onely the gold, and the ſilver, the braſs, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye ſhall make it go through the fire, and it ſhall be clean: nevertheleſs it ſhall be [h] purified with the water of ſeparation: and all that abideth not the fire, ye ſhall make go through the [i] water.

24 And ye ſhall waſh your clothes on the ſeventh day, and ye ſhall be clean, and afterward ye ſhall come into the camp.

25 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

26 Take the ſum of the prey † that was taken, both of man and of beaſt, thou, and Eleazar the prieſt, and the chief fathers of the congregation:

27 And divide the prey into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battel, and between all the congregation:

28 And levy a tribute unto the LORD of the [k] men of war, which went out to battel: one ſoul of five hundred, both of the perſons, and of the beevs, and of the aſſes, and of the ſheep.

29 Take it of their half, and give it unto Eleazar the prieſt, for an heav-offering of the LORD.

30 And of the children of Iſraels half, thou ſhalt take [l] one portion of fiftie, of the perſons, of the beevs, of the aſſes, and of the ‡ flocks, of all manner of beaſts, and give them unto the Levites, which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.

31 And Moſes and Eleazar the prieſt did as the LORD commanded Moſes,

32 And the booty being the reſt of the prey which the men of war had caught, was ſix hundred thouſand and ſeventy thouſand and five thouſand ſheep,

33 And threeſcore and twelve thouſand beevs,

34 And threeſcore and one thouſand aſſes,

35 And thirty and two thouſand perſons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.

36 And the half which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thouſand and ſeven and thirty thouſand and five hundred ſheep;

37 And the [m] LORDS tribute of the ſheep was ſix hundred and threeſcore and fifteen.

38 And the beevs were thirtie and ſix thouſand, of which the LORDS tribute was threeſcore and twelve.

39 And the aſſes were thirty thouſand and five hundred, of which the LORDS tribute was threeſcore and one.

40 And the [n] perſons were ſixteen thouſand, of which the LORDS tribute was thirty and two perſons.

41 And Moſes gave the tribute which was the LORDS heav-offering, unto Eleazar the prieſt, as the LORD commanded Moſes.

42 And of the children of [o] Iſraels half, which Moſes divided from the men that warred;

43 (Now the half that pertained unto the congregation, was three hundred thouſand and thirty thouſand and ſeven thouſand and five hundred ſheep.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 The Reubenites and Gadites ſue for their inheritance on that ſide Jordan. 6 Moſes reproveth them. 16 They offer him conditions to his content. 33 Moſes aſſigneth them the land. 39 They conquer it.

NOw the children of [a] Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattel: and when they ſaw the land of Jazer, and the land of [b] Gilead, that, behold, the place was a place for cattel;

a Reuben came of Leah, and Gad of Zilpah her handmaid.

b which mountain was ſo named of the heap of ſtones that Jacob made as a ſign of the covenant between him and Laban, Gen. 31. 47.

2 The children of Gad, and the children of Reuben, came and ſpake unto Moſes, and to Eleazar the prieſt, and unto the princes of the congregation, ſaying,

3 Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heſhbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon;

4 Even the countrey which the LORD ſmote before the congregation of Iſrael, is a land for cattel, and thy ſervants have cattel.

5 Wherefore, ſaid they, if we have found grace in thy ſight, let this land be given unto thy ſervants for a poſſeſſion, and bring us not over Jordan.

6 ¶ And Moſes ſaid unto the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and ſhall ye ſit here?

† Heb. break.

7 And wherefore † diſcourage ye the heart of the children of Iſrael from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them?

8 Thus did your fathers, when I ſent them from Kadeſh-barnea to ſee the land.

* Chap. 13. 24.

9 For * when they went up unto the valley of Eſhcol, and ſaw the land, they diſcouraged the heart of the children of Iſrael, that they ſhould not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

10 And the LORDS anger was kindled the ſame time, and he ſware, ſaying, 11 Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, * from twenty years old and upward, ſhall ſee the land which I ſware unto Abraham, unto Iſaac, and unto Jacob; becauſe they have not † wholly followed me:

* Chap. 14. 28. 29.

† Heb. fulfilled after me.

12 Save Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joſhua the ſon of Nun: for they have wholly followed the LORD.

13 And the LORDS anger was kindled againſt Iſrael, and he made them wander in the wilderneſs fourtie years, until all the generation that had don [c] evil in the ſight of the LORD was conſumed.

c Becauſe they murmured, neither would beleeve their report, which told the truth, as concerning the land.

14 And behold, ye are riſen up in your fathers ſtead, an increaſe of ſinfull men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Iſrael.

15 For if ye turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderneſs, and [d] ye ſhall deſtroy all this people.

d By your occaſion.

16 ¶ And they came near unto him, and ſaid, We will build ſheep-folds here for our cattel, and cities for our little ones.

17 But we our ſelvs will go ready armed before the children of Iſrael, untill we have brought them unto their [e] place: and our little ones ſhall dwell in the fenced cities, becauſe of the inhabitants of the land.

e In the land of Canaan.

18 We will not return unto our houſes, untill the children of Iſrael have inherited every man his inheritance:

19 For we will not inherit with them on yonder ſide Jordan, or forward; becauſe our inheritance is fallen to us on this ſide Jordan eaſt-ward.

20 ¶ And * Moſes ſaid unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the [f] LORD to war;

* Joſh. 1. 13.

f Before the Ark of the Lord.

21 And will go all of you armed over Jordan before the LORD, untill he hath driven out his [g] enemies from before him, g That is, The inhabitants of the land.

22 And the land be ſubdued before the LORD: then afterward ye ſhall return, and be guiltleſs before the LORD, and before Iſrael; and this land ſhall be your poſſeſſion [h] before the LORD.

h The Lord will grant you this land which ye require, Joſ. 1. 15.

23 But if ye will not do ſo, behold, ye have ſinned againſt the LORD: and be ſure your ſin will [i] find you out.

i Ye ſhall aſſuredly be puniſhed for your ſin.

24 Build ye cities for your little ones, and folds for your ſheep; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying, Thy ſervants will do as my lord commandeth.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattel, ſhall be there in the cities of Gilead.

27 * But thy ſervants will paſs over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battel, as my lord ſaith.

* Joſh. 4. 12.

28 So concerning them [k] Moſes commanded Eleazar the prieſt, and Joſhua the ſon of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Iſrael:

k Moſes gave charge that his promiſe made to the Reubenites & others ſhould be performed after his death, ſo that they break not theirs.

29 And Moſes ſaid unto them, If the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben will paſs with you over Jordan, every man armed to battel before the LORD, and the land ſhall be ſubdued before you; then ye ſhall give them the land of Gilead for a poſſeſſion:

30 But if they will not paſs over with you armed, they ſhall have poſſeſſions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben anſwered, ſaying, As the [l] LORD hath ſaid unto thy ſervants, ſo will we do.

l That is attributed to the Lord, which his meſſenger ſpeaketh.

32 We will paſs over armed before the LORD

35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah,

36 And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fenced cities: and folds for ſheep.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heſhbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baal-meon (their names being changed) and Shibmah: and † gave other names unto the cities which they builded.

39 And the children of * Machir the ſon of Manaſſeh went to Gilead, and took it, and diſpoſſeſſed the Amorite which was in it.

40 And Moſes gave Gilead unto Machir the ſon of Manaſſeh; and he dwelt therein.

41 And * Jair the ſon of Manaſſeh went and took the ſmall towns thereof, and called them [n] Havoth-jair.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Two and fortie journeys of the Iſraelites. 50 The Canaanites are to be deſtroyed.

THeſe are the [a] journeys of the children of Iſrael, which went forth out of the land of Egypt, with their armies, under the hand of Moſes and Aaron.

2 And Moſes wrote their goings out according to their journeys, by the commandment of the LORD: and theſe are their journeys, according to their goings out.

3 And they * departed from Rameſes in the firſt moneth, on the fifteenth day of the firſt moneth: on the morrow after the paſſover, the children of Iſrael went out with an high hand in the ſight of all the Egyptians.

4 (For the Egyptians buried all their firſtborn, which the LORD had ſmitten among them: upon their [b] gods alſo the LORD executed judgements)

5 And the children of Iſrael removed from Rameſes, and pitched in Succoth.

6 And they departed from * Succoth, and pitched in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderneſs.

7 And they removed from Etham, and turned again unto [c] Pi-hahiroth, which is before Baal-zephon: and they pitched before Migdol.

8 And they departed from before Pi-hahiroth, and * paſſed through the midſt of the ſea into the wilderneſs, and went three days journey in the wilderneſs of Etham, and pitched in Marah.

9 And they removed from Marah, and * came unto Elim; and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and threeſcore and ten palm-trees; and they pitched there.

10 And they removed from Elim, and encamped by the Red-ſea.

11 And they removed from the Red-ſea, and encamped in the * wilderneſs of Sin.

12 And they took their journey out of the wilderneſs of Sin, & encamped in Dophkah.

13 And they departed from Dophkah, and encamped in Aluſh.

14 And they removed from Aluſh, and encamped at * Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drink.

15 And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the * wilderneſs of Sinai.

16 And they removed from the deſart of Sinai, and pitched * at † Kibroth-hattaavah.

17 And they departed from Kibroth-hattaavah, and * encamped at Hazeroth.

18 And they departed from Hazeroth, and pitched in Rithmah.

19 And they departed from Rithmah, and pitched at Rimmon-parez.

20 And they departed from Rimmon-parez, and pitched in Libnah.

21 And they removed from Libnah, and pitched at Riſſah.

22 And they journeyed from Riſſah, and pitched in Kehelathah.

23 And they went from Kehelathah, and pitched in mount Shapher.

24 And they removed from mount Shapher, and encamped in Haradah.

25 And they removed from Haradah, and pitcheth in Makeloth.

26 And they removed from Makeloth, and encamped at Tahath.

27 And they departed from Tahath, and pitched at Tarah.

28 And they removed from Tarah, and pitched in Mithcah.

29 And they went from Mithcah, and pitched in Haſhmonah.

30 And they departed from Haſhmonah, and * encamped at Moſeroth.

31 And they departed from Moſeroth, and pitched in Bene-jaakan.

32 And they removed from Bene-jaakan, and encamped at Hor-hagidgad.

33 And they went from Hor-hagidgad, and pitched in Jotbathah.

34 And they removed from Jotbathah, and encamped at Ebronah.

35 And they departed from Ebronah, and encamped at Ezion-gaber.

36 And they removed from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the * wilderneſs of Zin, which is Kadeſh.

37 And they removed from * Kadeſh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.

38 And

15 The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance on this ſide Jordan near Jericho, eaſt-ward, toward the ſun-riſing.

16 ¶ And the LORD ſpake unto Moſes, ſaying,

17 Theſe are the names of the men which ſhall divide the land unto you: * Eleazar the prieſt, and Joſhua the ſon of Nun.

* Joſh. 19. 51.

18 And ye ſhall take one [f] prince of every tribe, to divide the land by inheritance.

f One of the heads or chief men of every tribe.

19 And

19 And the names of the men are these: of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

20 And of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud.

21 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon.

22 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli.

23 The prince of the children of Joseph, for the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod.

24 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan.

25 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach.

26 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Issachar Paltiel the son of Azzan.

27 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi.

28 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.

29 These are they whom the LORD commanded to [g] divide the inheritance unto the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

[g] And be judges over every piece of ground that should fall to any by lot, to the intent that all things might be don orderly & without contention.

2 * Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the [a] Levites of the inheritance of their possession, [b] cities to dwell in: and ye shall give also unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them.

* Josh. 21. 2.

[a] Because they had no inheritance assigned them in the land of Canaan.

[b] God would have them scattered through all the land, because the people might be preserved by them in the obedience of God, and his law.

3 And the cities shall they have to dwell in, and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattel, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.

4 And the suburbs of the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the citie and outward, a thousand cubits round about.

5 And ye shall measure from without the citie on the east-side [c] two thousand cubits, and on the south-side two thousand cubits, and on the west-side two thousand cubits, and on the north-side two thousand cubits: and the citie shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

[c] So that in all were three thousand: and in the compass of these two thousand they might plant and sow.

6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, there shall be * six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and † to them ye shall add fourty and two cities.

* Deut. 4. 41. Josh. 20. 2. and 21. 3.

7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites, shall be fourty and eight cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which ye shall give, shall be of the possession of the children of Israel: from them that have many, ye shall give many; but from them that have few, ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites, according to his inheritance which † he inheriteth. 145

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, * When ye be come over Jordan, into the land of Canaan:

* Deut. 19. 2. Josh. 20. 2.

11 Then ye shall appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither which killeth any person † at unawares.

† Heb. by error.

12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the [d] avenger; that the man-slayer die not, untill he stand before the congregation in judgement.

[d] Meaning, from the next of the kinded, who ought to pursue the murderer.

13 And of these cities which ye shall give, six cities shall ye have for refuge.

14 Ye shall give [e] three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge.

[e] Among the Reubenites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, Deut. 4. vers. 41.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, & for the stranger, & for the sojourner among them: that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither.

16 * And if he smite him [f] with an instrument of iron (so that he die) he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

* Exod. 21. 14.

[f] wittingly, and willingly.

17 And if he smite him [g] with throwing a stone (wherewith he may die) and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death

[g] That is, with a big, and dangerous stone: in Heb. with a stone of his hand.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand-weapon of wood (wherewith he may die) and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The revenger of bloud himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But * if he thrust him of hatred, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that he die;

* Deut. 19. 12.

21 Or in enmitie smite him with his hand, that he die: he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of bloud shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

22 But if he thrust him suddenly * without enmitie, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait;

* Exod. 21. 13.

23 Or with any stone wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him that he die, and was not his enemie, neither sought his harm:

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer, and the [h] revenger of bloud, according to these judgements.

[h] That is, his next kinsman.

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of bloud, and the congregation shall restore him to the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the [i] high priest, which was anointed with the holy oyl.

[i] Under this figure is declared, that our sin could not be remitted, but by the death of the high priest Jesus Christ.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled;

146

27 And the revenger of bloud find him without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the revenger of bloud [k] kill the slayer; † he shall not be guiltie of bloud:

28 Because he should have remained in the citie of his refuge, untill the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest, the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for a [l] statute of judgement unto you, throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the * mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testifie against any person, to cause him to die.

31 Moreover, ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is [m] † guilty of death, but he shall be surely put to death:

32 And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the citie of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, untill the death of the priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for bloud, it defileth the land: and † the land cannot be [n] cleansed of the bloud that is shed therein, but by the bloud of him that shed it.

34 Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 The inconvenience of the inheritance of daughters, 5 is remedied by marrying in their own tribes, 7 least the inheritance should be removed from the tribe. 10 The daughters of Zelophehad marry their fathers brothers son.

AND the [a] chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spake before Moses, and before the princes the chief fathers of the children of Israel:

2 And they said, * The LORD commanded my [b] lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother, unto his daughters.

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel; then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe † whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the [c] jubile of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said [d] well.

6 This is the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them † marrie to whom they think best; * onely to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry:

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall † keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter that possesseth an [e] inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israell, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.

11 * For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their fathers brothers sons.

12 And they were married † into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the [f] commandments and the judgements which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, unto the children of Israel in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho.

a It seemeth that the tribes contended who might marrie these daughters to have their inheritance: and therefore the sons of Joseph proposed the matter to Moses.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED DEUTERONOMY.

* That is, A second law: so called because the law which God gave in mount Sinai, is here repeated, as though it were a new law: and this book is a commentarie or exposition of the ten commandment.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe wonderfull love of God toward his Church is lively set forth in this book. For albeit through their ingratitude and sundry rebellions against God, for the space of 40 years Deut. 9. 7. they had deserved to have been cut off from the number of his people, and for ever to have been deprived of the use of his holy word and Sacraments: yet he did ever preserve his Church even for his own mercies sake, and would still have his name called upon among them. Wherefore he bringeth them into the land of Canaan, destroyeth their enemies, giveth them their countrey, towns, and goods, and exhorteth them by the example of their fathers (whose infidelitie, idolaty, murmurings, and rebellion he had most sharply punished) to fear and obey the Lord, to embrace and keep his law without adding thereunto, or diminishing therefrom. For by his word he would be known to be their God, and they his people: by his word he would govern his Church, & by the same they should learn to obey him: by his word he would discern the false prophet from the true, light from darkness, ignorance from knowledge, and his own people from all other nations and infidels: teaching them thereby to refuse and detest, destroy and abolish whatsoever is not agreable to his holy will, seem it otherwise never so good or precious in the eyes of man. And for this cause God promised to raise up Kings & Governors, for the setting forth of his word, and preservation of his Church: giving unto them an especiall charge for the executing thereof: whom therefore he willeth to exercise themselvs diligently in the continuall study and meditation of the same: that they might learn to fear the Lord, love their subjects, abhor covetousnes and vice, and whatsoever offendeth the majestie of God. And as he had before instructed their fathers in all things appertaining both to spirituall service, and also for the maintenance of that societie which is between men: so he prescribeth here anew, all such laws and ordinances, which either concern his divine service, or els are necessary for a Common-weal: appointing unto every estate and degree their charge and duty: as well how to rule and live in the fear of God, as to nourish friendship toward their neighbours, and to preserve that order which God hath established among men: threatning withall, most horrible plagues to them that transgres his Commandments, and promising all blessings and felicitie to such as observe and obey them.

CHAP. I.

1 Moses speech in the end of the fourtieth year, briefly rehearsing the story 6 of Gods promise, 6 of giving them officiers, 19 of sending the spies to search the land, 34 of Gods anger for their incredulitie, 41 and disobedience.

THese be the words which Moses spake unto all Israel, on [a] this side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain [b] over against ‡ the Red-sea, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

[a] In the countrey of Moab.
[b] So that the wilderness was between the sea and this plain of Moab.

2 (There are eleven days journey from [c] Horeb by the way of mount Seir, unto Kadeshbarnea.

[c] In Horeb, or Sinai, fourtie years before this the law was given; but because all that were then of age and judgement were now dead, Moses repeateth the same to the youth which either then were not born, or had not judgement.

3 And it came to pass in the fourtieth year, in the eleventh moneth, on the first day of the moneth, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them;

4 * After he had slain [d] Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Astoroth in Edrei.

* Num. 21. 24. 34.
[d] By these examples of Gods favour, their minds are prepared to receive the law.

5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, [e] began Moses to declare this law, saying,

[e] The second time.

6 The LORD our God spake unto us in [f] Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount:

[f] In the second year and second moneth, Num. 10. 11.

7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto † all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates.

* Gen. 15. 18. & 17. 7, 8.

9 And [g] I spake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you my self alone:

[g] By the counsel of Jethro my father in law, Exod. 18. 19.

10 The LORD your God hath [h] multiplied you, and behold, you are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.

[h] Not so much by the course of nature, as miraculously.

11 (The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you as he hath promised you)

148

12 How can [i] I my self alone bear your cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife?

13 † Take ye wise men and understanding, and [k] known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.

14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your tribes, [l] wise men, and known, and † made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren and * judge righteously between every man & his brother, & the stranger that is with him.

17 * Ye shall not ‡ respect persons in judgement, but you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgement is [m] Gods: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.

19 ¶ And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which you saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

20 And [n] I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up, and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee: fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ * And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying pleased me well: and * I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe.

24 And * they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.

25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and [p] said, It is a good land which the LORD our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding, ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God.

27 And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD [q] hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

28 Whither shall we go up? [r] our brethren have † discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller than we, the cities are great and walled up to heaven, and moreover we have seen the sons of the * Anakims there.

29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.

30 The LORD your God [s] which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes:

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God bare thee as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, untill ye came into this place.

32 Yet in this thing ye did not beleeve the LORD your God.

33 * Who went in the way before you to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and sware, saying,

35 * Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers;

36 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath † wholly followed the LORD.

37 * Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.

38 But Joshua the son of Nun, which standeth [t] before thee, he shall go in thither. Encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover, [u] your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn ye, and take your journey into the wildetness, by the way of the Red-sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, * We have sinned against the LORD, [x] we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight, for [y] I am not among you; least ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you, and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and † went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And ye returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not [z] hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 So ye abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

CHAP. II.

1 The storie is continued, 4 that they were not to meddle with the Edomites, 9 nor with the Moabites, 17 nor with the Ammonites. 24 But Sihon the Amorite was subdued by them.

THen [a] we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the Red-sea, as the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed mount Seir [b] many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain long enough: turn you north-ward.

4 And command thou the people, saying, Ye are to pass through the [c] coasts of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto your selvs therefore.

5 Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, † no not so much as a foot-breadth, *because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink,

7 For the LORD thy God hath [d] blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these fourty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee, thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, ‡ Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battel: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession, because I have given Ar unto the children of [e] Lot for a possession.

10 The [f] Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall as the Anakims;

11 Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims, but the Moabites call them Emims.

12 *The Horims also dwelt in Seir before-time, but the children of Esau † succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their ‡ stead, as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over *the ‡ brook Zered: and we went over the brook Zered.

14 And the [g] space in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, untill we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; untill all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD sware unto them.

15 For indeed the [h] hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, untill they were consumed.

16 ¶ So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people.

17 That the LORD spake unto me, saying, 149

18 Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab; this day.

19 And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon: distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession, because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession.

20 (That also was accounted a [i] land of giants, giants dwelt therein in old time, and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims,

21 A people great, and many, and tall as the Anakims: but the LORD destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead:

22 As he did to the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims from before them, and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day:

23 And the Avims which dwelt in Hazerim, even unto Azzah, the Caphtorims which came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead)

24 ¶ Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thy hand Sihon the [k] Amorite king of Heshbon, and his land: † begin to possess it, and contend with him in battel.

25 This [l] day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

26 ¶ And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth, unto Sihon king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying, 27 * Let me pass through thy land; I will go along by the high-way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: onely I will pass through on my feet:

29 (As the [m] children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar did unto me) untill I shall pass over Jordan, into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the LORD thy God [n] hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land.

32 * Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz.

33 And the LORD our God delivered him before us, and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

36 From Aroer which is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from the citie that is by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one citie too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto us.

37 Onely unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbad us.

[o] God had cursed Canaan, & therefore he would not that any of the wicked race should be preserved.

CHAP. III.

1 The story of the conquest of Og king of Bashan. 11 The bigness of his bed. 12 The distribution of those lands to the two tribes and half. 23 Moses prayer to enter into the land. 26 He is permitted to see it.

THen we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and * Og the king of Bashan [a] came out against us, he and all his people, to battel at Edrei.

2 And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land into thy hand, and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto * Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands * Og also the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him untill none was left to him remaining.

4 And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a citie which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates and bars, beside [b] unwalled towns a great many.

6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and [c] children of every citie.

7 But all the cattel, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to our selvs.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites, the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon:

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion: and the Amorites call it Shenir)

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan:

11 For onely Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bed-stead was a bed-stead of [d] iron: is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

12 And this land which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and * the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og: gave I unto the half-tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the countrey of Argob, unto the coasts of Geshuri, and Maachathi; and called them after his own name, Bashan-*havoth-jair, unto [e] this day.

15 And I gave Gilead unto Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites, and unto the Gadites, I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon, half the valley, and the border, even unto the [f] river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, even the Salt-sea, ‡ under Ashdoth-Pisgah east-ward.

18 ¶ And I commanded [g] you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are † meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your litle ones, and your cattel (for I know that ye have much cattel) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 Untill the LORD hath given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye * return every man unto his possession which I have given you.

21 ¶ And * I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the [h] LORD your God hath don unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

24 O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and thy mightie hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can [i] do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

25 I pray thee let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that [k] goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the LORD * was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee, speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 Get thee up into the top of ‡ Pisgah, and [l] lift up thine eyes west-ward, and north-ward, and south-ward, and east-ward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over Jordan.

28 But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

29 So

[a] Therefore beside the commandment of the Lord, they had just occasion on his part to fight against him.

[b] As villages and small towns.

[c] Because this was Gods appointment, therefore it may not be judged cruell.

[d] The more terrible that this giant was, the greater occasion had they to glorifie God for the victorie.

CHAP. IV.

1 An exhortation to obedience. 41 Moſes appointeth the three cities of refuge on that ſide Jordan.

NOw therefore hearken, O Iſrael, unto the ſtatutes, and unto the judgements which I teach you, for to [a] do them, that ye may live, and go in and poſſeſs the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you.

2 * Ye ſhall [b] not add unto the word which I command you, neither ſhall you [c] diminiſh ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your [d] eyes have ſeen what the LORD did becauſe of * Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath deſtroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did [e] cleave unto the LORD your God, are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you ſtatutes and judgements, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye ſhould do ſo in the land whither ye go to poſſeſs it,

6 Keep therefore and do them, for this is your [f] wiſdom and your underſtanding in the ſight of the nations, which ſhall hear all theſe ſtatutes, and ſay, Surely this great nation is a wiſe and underſtanding people.

7 For what nation is there ſo great, who hath God ſo [g] nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there ſo great, that hath ſtatutes and judgements ſo righteous, as all this law which I ſet before you this day?

9 Onely take heed to thy ſelf, and [h] keep thy ſoul diligently, leaſt thou forget the things which thine eyes have ſeen, and leaſt they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy ſons, and thy ſons ſons:

10 Specially the day that thou ſtoodſt before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD ſaid unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they ſhall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and ſtood under the mountain, and the * mountain [i] burnt with fire unto the † midſt of heaven, with darkneſs, clouds, and thick darkneſs.

12 And the LORD ſpake unto you out of the midſt of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but ſaw no ſimilitude, † onely ye heard a voice.

13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to [k] perform, even ten commandments, and he wrote them upon two tables of ſtone.

14 ¶ And the LORD commanded me at that time, to teach you ſtatutes and judgements, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to poſſeſs it.

15 Take ye therefore good heed unto your ſelvs (for ye ſaw no manner of [l] ſimilitude on the day that the LORD ſpake unto you in Horeb, out of the midſt of the fire)

16 Leaſt ye corrupt your ſelvs, and make you a graven image, the ſimilitude of any figure, the likeneſs of male or female,

17 The likeneſs of any beaſt that is on the earth, the likeneſs of any winged fowl that flieth in the air,

18 The likeneſs of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeneſs of any fiſh that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And leaſt thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou ſeeſt the ſun, and the moon, and the ſtars, even all the hoſt of heaven, ſhouldeſt be driven to worſhip them, and ſerve them, which the LORD thy God hath [m] ‡ divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the [n] iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

21 Furthermore, the LORD was angrie with me for your ſakes, and ſware that I ſhould not go over Jordan, and that I ſhould not go in unto that good land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

22 But I muſt die in this land, I muſt not go over Jordan: but [o] ye ſhall go over and poſſeſs that good land.

23 Take heed unto your ſelvs, leaſt ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeneſs of any thing which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For the * LORD thy God is a [p] conſuming fire, even a jealous God.

25 ¶ When thou ſhalt beget children, and childrens children, and ſhall have remained long in the land, and ſhall [q] corrupt your ſelvs, and make a graven image, or the likeneſs of any thing, and ſhall do evil in the ſight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger:

26 I [r] call heaven and earth to witneſs againſt you this day, that ye ſhall ſoon utterly periſh from off the land whereunto you go over Jordan to poſſeſs it: ye ſhall not prolong your days upon it, but ſhall utterly be deſtroyed.

27 And the LORD ſhall [s] ſcatter you among the nations, and ye ſhall be left few in number among the heathen whither the LORD ſhall lead you.

28 And there ye ſhall ſerve gods, the work of mens hands, wood and ſtone, which neither ſee, nor hear, nor eat, nor ſmell.

29 But if from thence thou ſhalt ſeek the LORD thy God, thou ſhalt find him, if thou ſeekſt him with all thy [t] heart and with all thy ſoul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all theſe things † are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD thy God, and ſhalt be obedient unto his voice;

36 Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might inſtruct thee: and upon earth he ſhewed thee his great fire, and thou heardeſt his words out of the midſt of the fire.

37 And becauſe he [a] loved thy fathers, therefore he choſe their ſeed after them, and brought thee out in his ſight with his mighty power out of Egypt:

[a] Freely, and not of their deſerts.

38 To drive out nations from before thee, greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee into give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and conſider it in thine heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none elſe.

40 Thou ſhalt keep therefore his ſtatutes and his commandments which I command thee this day, that it may [c] go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayeſt prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

g That is, Miraculouſly, and not by the hand of men.

11 And it came to paſs at the end of fourty days and fourty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of ſtone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 And the LORD ſaid unto me, * Ariſe, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou haſt brought forth out of Egypt, have [h] corrupted themſelvs: they are quickly turned aſide out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

* Exod. 32. 7.

h So ſoon as man declined from the obedience of God, his ways are corrupt.

13 Furthermore, the LORD ſpake unto me, ſaying, I have ſeen this people, and behold, it is a ſtiff-necked people.

14 [i] Let me alone, that I may deſtroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

24 You have been rebellious againſt the LORD, from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the LORD [o] fourty days and fourty nights, as I fell down at the firſt; becauſe the LORD had ſaid he would deſtroy you.

o whereby is ſignified that God requireth earneſt continuance in prayer.

26 I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and ſaid, O Lord GOD, deſtroy not thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou haſt redeemed through thy greatneſs, which thou haſt brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

26 ¶ Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse.

27 * A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you this day:

28 And a * curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods which ye have not [k] known

29 And it shall come to pass when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put * the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal.

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun [l] goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the champian over against Gilgal, beside the plains of Moreh?

31 For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall observe * to do all the statutes and judgements which I set before you this day.

CHAP. XII.

1 Monuments of idolatry are to be destroyed. 5 The place of Gods service is to be kept. 16,23 Bloud is forbidden. 17,20,26 Holy things must be eaten in the holy place. 19 The Levite is not to be forsaken. 29 Idolatry is not to be enquired after.

THese are the statutes and judgements which ye shall observe to do in the land which the LORD God of thy [a] fathers giveth thee to possess it, all the days that ye live upon the earth.

2 * Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall ‡ possess, served their gods, upon the high mountains, & upon the hills, and under every green tree.

3 And * you shall † overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their [b] groves with fire, and you shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.

4 Ye shall [c] not do so unto the LORD your God.

5 But unto the place which the LORD your God shall * choose out of all your tribes, to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come:

6 And thither ye shall bring your burnt-offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and [d] heav-offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your free-will-offerings, and the firstlings of your herds, and of your flocks.

7 And there ye shall [e] eat before the LORD your God, and ye shall rejoyce in all that you put your hands unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

8 Ye shall not do after all the things that we do [f] here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

9 For ye are not as yet come to the rest, and to the inheritance which the LORD your God giveth you.

10 But when ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you [g] rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety:

11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there, thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt-offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heav-offering of your hand, and all † your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD.

12 And ye shall rejoyce before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters

9 And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the [f] judge that shall be in those f who shall give sentence as the priests counsel him by the law of God.

those days, and enquire; and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgement.

10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence which they of that place (which the LORD shall choose) shall shew thee, and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee:

11 According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgement which they shall tell thee thou shalt [g] do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand nor to the left.

g Thou shalt obey their sentence, that the controversy may have an end.

12 And the man that will do presumptuously, † and will not hearken unto the priest (that standeth to [h] minister there before the LORD thy God) or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel.

† Heb. not to hearken

WHen thou goeſt out to [a] battel againſt thine enemies, and ſeeſt horſes and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

a Meaning, upon juſt occaſion: for God permitteth not his people to fight, when it ſeemeth good to them.

2 And it ſhall be when ye are come nigh unto the battel, that the prieſt ſhall approach and ſpeak unto the people,

3 And ſhall ſay unto them, Hear, O Iſrael, you approach this day unto battel againſt your enemies: let not your hearts † faint, fear not and do not † tremble, neither be ye terrified becauſe of them.

† Heb. be tender,

† Heb. make haſte,

4 For the LORD your God is he that [b] goeth with you, to fight for you againſt your enemies, to ſave you.

c For when they entred firſt to dwell in an houſe, they gave thanks to God, acknowledging that they had that benefit by his grace.

6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, vineyard, and hath not yet [d] eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, least he die in the battel, and another man eat of it.

d The Hebrew word signifieth to make common or prophane. Lev. 19. 23.

e If it accept peace.

12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it.

13 And when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thine hand, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword.

15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these [f] nations.

f For God had appointed that the Canaanites should be destroyed, and made the Israelites executers of his will, Chap. 7. 1.

16 But of the cities of these people which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth:

17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them, namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have don unto their gods, so should ye sin against the LORD your God.

19 ¶ When thou shalt besiege a citie a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an ax against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down († [g] for the tree of the field is mans life) † to employ them in the siege.

† Or, for, O man, the tree of the field is to be employed in the siege.

g Some read, For man, shall be in stead of the tree of the field, to come out in the siege against thee.

20 Onely the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the citie that maketh war with thee, untill † it be subdued.

1 The expiation of an uncertain murder. 10 The usage of a captive taken to wife. 15 The firstborn is not to be disinherited upon private affection. 18 A stubborn son is to be stoned to death. 22 The malefactor must not hang all night on a tree.

IF one be found [a] slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:

a This law declareth how horrible a thing murder is, seeing that for one man, a whole country should be punished, except a remedy be found.

2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain.

3 And it shall be that the citie which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that citie shall take an heifer which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke.

4 And the elders of that citie shall bring down the heifer unto a [b] rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifers neck there in the valley.

b That the bloudshed of the innocent beast in a solitarie place might make them abhor the fact.

5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near (for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD) and by their † word shall every controversie and every stroke be tried.

† Heb. mouth

6 And all the elders of that citie that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley.

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this bloud, neither have our eyes seen it.

8 [c] Be mercifull, O LORD, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent bloud † unto thy people of Israels charge. And the bloud shall be forgiven them.

c This was the prayer which the Priest made in the audience of the people.

† Heb. in the midst

9 So shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent bloud from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

10 ¶ When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God hath delivered them into thine hand, and thou hast taken them captive;

11 And seest among the captivs a beautifull woman, and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldest have her to thy wife:

12 Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house, and she shall [d] shave her head, and ‡ † pare her nails.

d Signifying that her former life must be changed, before she could be joined to the people of God.

‡ Or, suffer to grow

† Heb. make, or dress

e As having renounced parents and countrey.

f This onely was permitted in the wars: otherwise the Israelites could not marrie strangers.

14 And it shall be if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will, but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her.

15 ¶ If a man have two wives, one beloved and another [g] hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated;

g This declareth that the pluralitie of wives came of a corrupt affection.

166 hated; and if the first-born son be hers that was hated;

17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the first-born, by giving him a [h] double portion of all † that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength, the [i] right of the first-born is his.

h As much as to two of the others.
† Heb that is found with him.
i Except he be unworthy, as was Reuben, Jacobs Son.

18 ¶ If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the [k] voice of his mother, and that when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them:

k For it is the mothers duty also to instruct her children.

19 Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place:

20 And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard.

21 And all the men of his city shall [l] stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you, and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

l which death was also appointed for blasphemers and idolaters: so that to disobey the parents is most horrible.

22 ¶ And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree:

m For Gods law by his death is satisfied, and nature abhorreth cruelty.
* Gal. 3. 13.

2 And if thy brother be not [b] nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee untill thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again.

c Much more art thou bound to do for thy neighbours person.

3 In like manner shalt thou do with his [c] ass, and so shalt thou do with his raiment, and with all lost thing of thy brothers, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not hide thy self.

4 ¶ Thou shalt not see thy brothers ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thy self from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

d For that were to alter the order of nature, and to despite God.

5 ¶ The woman shall not [d] wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a womans garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

6 ¶ If a birds nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the [e] dam with the young.

e If God detest cruelty don to little birds, how much more to man, made according to his image.

7 But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee, that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days.

† Heb. wings

13 ¶ If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her.

14 And give [g] occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

g That is, he is occasion that she is slandered.

15 Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsels virginitie, unto the elders of the citie in the gate.

16 And the damsels father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her, 17 And lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughters virginitie: and they shall spread the [h] cloth before the elders of the city.

h Meaning, the sheet, wherein the signs of her virginity were.

18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him.

19 And they shall amerce him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the [i] damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife, he may not put her away all his days.

i For the fault of the child redoundeth to the shame of the parents: therefore he was accompensed when she was faultless.

20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginitie be not found for the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her fathers house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die: because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore in her fathers house: so shalt thou put evil away from among you.

* Levit. 20. 10.

22 ¶ * If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Israel.

23 ¶ If

23 ¶ If a damſel that is a virgin be betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the citie, and lie with her:

24 Then ye ſhall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye ſhall ſtone them with ſtones that they die; the damſel, becauſe ſhe cried not being in the city; and the man, becauſe he hath humbled his neighbours wife: ſo thou ſhalt put away evil from among you.

25 ¶ But if a man find a betrothed damſel in the field, and the man ‡ force her, and lie with her: then the man onely that lay with her, ſhall die.

‡ Or, take ſtrong hold of her,

26 But unto the damſel thou ſhalt do nothing, there is in the damſel no ſin worthy of death: for as when a man riſeth againſt his neighbour, and ſlayeth him, even ſo is this matter.

k Meaning, that the innocent cannot be punished.

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damſel cried, and there was none to ſave her.

* Exod. 22. 16.

28 ¶ * If a man find a damſel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found:

29 Then the man that lay with her, ſhall give unto the damſels father fiftie ſhekels of ſilver, and ſhe ſhall be his wife, becauſe he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

* Levit. 18. 8

30 ¶ * A man ſhall not l take his fathers wife, nor diſcover his fathers skirt.

l He ſhall not lie with his ſtepmother, meaning hereby all other degrees forbidden.

* Levit. 26.

a He will make thee the most excellent of all people.

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and [b] overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

b when Thou thinkest thy self forsaken.

3 Blessed shalt thou be in the [c] city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

c Thou shalt live wealthily.

4 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy [d] body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattel, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

d Thy children and succession.

5 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy ‡ store.

‡ Or, dough, or kneading troughs.

6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou [e] comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

e All thine enterprises shall have good success.

7 The LORD shall cause thine enemies, that rise up against thee, to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee [f] seven ways.

‡ Or,

f Meaning, many ways.

8 The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy ‡ store-houses, and in all that thou [g] settest thine hand unto: and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

‡ Or, barns,

g God will bless us if we do our duty, and not be idle.

9 The

9 The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

10 And all people of the earth shall see that thou art [h] called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of thee.

h In that he is thy God, and thou his people.

11 And * the LORD shall make thee plenteous ‡ in goods, in the fruit of thy † body, and in the fruit of thy cattel, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to give thee.

* Chap. 30. 9, &c.
‡ Or, for good,
† Heb. belly,

12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the [i] heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and * thou shalt lend unto many nations, & thou shalt not borrow.

i For nothing in the earth is profitable, but when God sendeth his blessings from heaven.
* Chap. 15. 6.

13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail, and thou shalt be above onely, and thou shalt not be beneath: if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day to observe and to do them:

14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 ¶ But is shall come to pass, * if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee.

* Levit. 26. 14. Lament. 2. 17. Mal. 2. 2. Baruch 1. 20.

16 Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

19 Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

20 The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto, † for to do; untill thou be destroyed, and untill thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings whereby thou hast forsaken me.

† Heb. which thou wouldest do;

21 The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, untill he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 * The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the ‡ sword, and with blasting, and with mildew: and they shall persue thee untill thou perish.

* Levit. 26. 16.
‡ Or, drought,

23 And the heaven that is over thy head shall be [k] brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

k It shall give thee no more moisture than if it were of brass.

24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, untill thou be destroyed.

25 The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be † [l] removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

† Heb. for a removing, l Some read, Thou shalt be a terrour and fear, when they shall hear how God hath plagued thee.

26 And thy [m] carcase shall be meat unto all the fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

m Thou shall be cursed both in thy life and in thy death: for the burial is a testimony of the resurrection which sign for thy wickedness thou shalt lack.

27 The LORD will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

28 The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart:

29 And thou shalt [n] grope at noon-days, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be onely oppressed, and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

n In things most evident and clear thou shalt lack discretion and judgement.

30 Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: * thou shalt plant a vine-yard, and shalt not † gather the grapes thereof.

* Chap. 20. 6.
† Heb. profane, or use it as common meat.

31 Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and † shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

† Heb. shall not return to thee.

32 Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, ° and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand.

o when they shall return from their captivity.

33 The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not, eat up: and thou shalt be onely oppressed and crushed alway:

34 So that thou shalt be mad, for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

35 The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore botch that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.

36 The LORD shall bring thee, and thy [p] king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou, nor thy fathers have known, and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.

p As he did to Manasseh, Joachim, Zedechias, and others.

37 And thou shalt become * an astonishment, a proverb, and a by-word, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.

* 1 Kings 9. 7. Jer. 24. 9. & 25. 9.

38 * Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in: for the locust shall consume it.

* Micah 6. 15. Haggai 1. 6.

39 Thou shalt plant vineyards and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes: for the worms shall eat them.

40 Thou shalt have olive-trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thy self with the oyl: for thine olive shall cast his fruit.

41 Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but † thou ſhalt not enjoy them: for they ſhall go into captivity.

† Heb. they ſhall not be thine:

42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land ſhall the [q] locuſt ‡ conſume.

q Under one kind he containeth all the vermin, which deſtroy the fruits of the land: and this is an evident token of Gods curſe.
‡ Or, poſſeſs.

43 The ſtranger that is within thee ſhall get up above thee very high; and thou ſhalt come down very low.

44 He ſhall lend to thee, and thou ſhalt not lend to him: he ſhall be the head, and thou ſhalt be the tail.

45 Moreover, all theſe curſes ſhall come upon thee, and ſhall purſue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be deſtroyed: becauſe thou hearkenedſt not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his ſtatutes which he commanded thee.

r Gods plagues ſhall be evident ſigns that he is offended with thee.

46 And they ſhall be upon thee for a [r] ſign and for a wonder, and upon thy ſeed for ever.

47 Becauſe thou ſervedſt not the LORD thy God with joyfulneſs and with gladneſs of heart, for the abundance of all things:

48 Therefore ſhalt thou ſerve thine enemies which the LORD ſhall ſend againſt thee, in hunger, and in thirſt, and in nakedneſs, and in want of all things: and he ſhall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, untill he have deſtroyed thee.

49 The LORD ſhall bring a nation againſt thee from far, from the end of the earth, as ſwift as the eagle flieth, a nation whoſe tongue thou ſhalt not † underſtand:

† Heb. hear:

† Heb. ſtrong of face.

50 A nation † of fierce countenance, which ſhall not regard the perſon of the old, nor ſhew favour to the young.

51 And he ſhall eat the fruit of thy cattel, and the fruit of thy land, untill thou be deſtroyed: which alſo ſhall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oyl, or the increaſe of thy kine, or flocks of thy ſheep, untill he have deſtroyed thee.

52 And he ſhall beſiege thee in all thy gates, untill thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou truſtedſt, throughout all thy land: and he ſhall beſiege thee in all thy gates, throughout all thy land which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

* Levit. 26. 29. 2 Kings 6. 29. Lam. 4. 10. Bar 2. 3.
† Heb. belly.

53 And * thou ſhalt eat the fruit of thine own † body, the fleſh of thy ſons and of thy daughters (which the LORD thy God hath given thee) in the ſiege and in the ſtraitneſs wherewith thine enemies ſhall diſtreſs thee:

54 So that the man that is tender among you and very delicate, his eye ſhall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his boſom, and towards the remnant of his children which he ſhall leave:

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the fleſh of his children whom he ſhall eat: becauſe he hath nothing left him in the ſiege, and in the ſtraitneſs wherewith thine enemies ſhall diſtreſs thee in all thy gates.

ſ As came to paſs in the days of Joram King of Iſrael, 2 Kings 6. 29. and when the Romans beſieged Jeruſalem.

56 The [ſ] tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to ſet the ſole of her foot upon the ground for delicateneſs and tenderneſs, her eye ſhall be evil toward the husband of her boſom, and towards her ſon, and towards her daughter, 57 And towards her † young one that cometh out from between her feet, and towards her children which ſhe ſhall bear: for ſhe ſhall [t] eat them for want of all things ſecretly in the ſiege and ſtraitneſs wherewith thine enemies ſhall diſtreſs thee in thy gates.

† Heb. after.

t Hunger ſhall bite her, that ſhall be ready eat her child it be delivered.

58 If thou wilt not obſerve to do [u] all the words of this law that are witten in this book, that thou mayſt fear this glorious and fearfull name, THE LORD THY GOD;

u For he that fendeth in one, guilty of all, Jam. 2. 10.

59 Then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderfull, and the plagues of thy ſeed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and ſore ſickneſſes, and of long continuance.

60 Moreover, he will bring upon thee all the diſeaſes of Egypt, which thou waſt afraid of, and they ſhall cleave unto thee.

61 Alſo every ſickneſs, and every plague which is [x] not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD † bring upon thee, untill thou be deſtroyed.

x Declaring the God hath inflic means to plag the wicked, bec them that are not nary or written.
† Heb. cauſe to aſcend.

62 And ye ſhall be left few in number, whereas ye were * as the ſtars of heaven for multitude: becauſe thou wouldſt not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

* Chap. 10. 22.

63 And it ſhall come to paſs, that as the LORD rejoyced over you to your good, and to multiply you; ſo the LORD will rejoyce over you to deſtroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye ſhall be plucked from off the land whither thou goeſt to poſſeſs it.

64 And the LORD ſhall [y] ſcatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou ſhalt ſerve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and ſtone.

y Signifying it is a ſingular of God to bring place, where may worſhip purely, and out faith and gion.
